REDUCED OR ELIMINATED, RADICALIZED GROUPS SUCH AS THE COHES AND THE COMMITTEE OF MOTHERS WILL UNDOUBTEDLY FIND CONTINUED AMMUNITION FOR THEIR OPERATIONS. WHILE QUESTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS IS LEGITIMATE POLITICAL ISSUE THAT HAS AFFECTED ALL OPPOSITION GROUPS IN SALVADOR, IT IS THE RADICAL LEFT WHICH MUST NOW SEEK TO KEEP THIS ISSUE ALIVE IN ORDER TO WEAKEN AND DISCREDIT THE NEW JUNTA.

11. WHILE MANY OBSERVERS EARLIER EXPRESSED THE FEELING THAT EL SALADOR MIGHT BECOE THE NEXT NICARAGUA, IT

IS NOW AT LEAST POSSIBLE THAT THE JRG AND WHATEVER DEMOCRATIC REGIME HOPEFULLY FOLLOWS IT CAN ESTABLISH SUFFICIENT PROGRESS IN ALL CAGEGORIES OF HUMAN RIGHTS TO AVERT A LEFTIST INSURRECTION. THIS OF COURSE ASSUMES THAT THE GRN IN NICARGAUA WOULD FOLLOW A HANDS-OFF STANCE IN TERMS OF GRANTING MATERIAL AID AND ASSISTANCE TO EL SALVADOR'S EXTREME LEFTIST TERRORIST GROUPS AND THAT RADICAL LEFTIST GROUPS IN EL SALVADOR FAIL IN THEIR BID TO USE HUMAN RIGHTS AS POLITICAL ISSUE TO DISCREDIT THE NEW JUNTA. IT ALSO ASSUMES THAT THE JRG AND WHATEVER GOVERNMENT FOLLOWS IT WOULD BE ABLE TO REDUCE SOME OF ELSALVADOR'S GLARING SOCIO-ECONOMIC DISPARITIES. THESE ARE BIG "IFS" BUT IF THEY CAN BE ATTAINED, EL SALVADOR COULD HOPEFULLY RETURN IN LARGE, IF NOT FULL MEASURE, TO THE RELATIVELY CIVILIZED LEVEL OF POLITICAL DISCOURSE THAT CHARACTERIZED THE 1960'S AND REMOVE ITSELF FROM THAT LIST OF NATIONS TO WHICH INTERNATIONAL PUBLIC OPION ASCRIBES THE WORST HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES.

12. HOWEVER, EVEN UNDER BEST OF CIRCUMSTANCES, RANDOM TERRORISM INDULGED IN BY BOTH EXTREME LEFTIST AND RIGHTIST GROUPS WILL PROBABLY CONTINUE AND GIVEN PROVOCATION THIS WILL GIVE TO SALVADORAN SECURITY FORCES, HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES CANNOT BE EXPRECTED TO COMPLETELY DISAPPEAR. THEREFORE, IF ONE IS LOOKING FOR PARALLELS, SITUATION IN EL SALVADOR MAY BE MORE AKIN -- ALTHOUGH AT HOPEFULLY LOWER LEVEL OF VIOLENCE -- TO SITUATION PREVAILING IN GUATEMALA RATHER THAN TO ONE IN NICARAGUA.

ARGENTINA: CAMPORA INTO ASYLUM IN MEXICO

SOURCE: Press

(U) Hector Campora, former Argentine president (May-July 1973), left Argentina for political asylum in Mexico on November 27. Since the military overtbrow of Mrs. Peron's government on March 24, 1976, Campora had been a refugee in the Mexican Embassy in Buenos Aires.

[redacted] INR Comment: Campora's fate had long been a contentious issue within the military. Many officers, particularly the so-called hardliners, were prepared to see Campora rot in the Mexican Embassy because during his brief presidential tenure he released a large number of terrorists jailed by the security forces between 1969 and 1973. The decision to permit his departure was prompted by evidence of a possibly malignant tumor. The medical basis for the move should drain the issue of much of its political significance and inhibit the emergence of the kind of tensions that surfaced after the September release of Jacobo Timerman.

STATEMENT

The Government of the United States has been reviewing our relations with the Government of Chile, in light of Chile's actions with respect to the assassination of Orlando Letelier, a former Ambassador of Chile to the U.S., and Ronni Moffitt. Mr. Letelier and Mrs. Moffitt were killed in Washington in September 1976 by a bomb attached to their car. On August 1, 1978, a federal grand jury handed down a number of indictments in the case. Three officers of the Chilean intelligence service (Messrs. Contreras, Espinoza, and Fernandez) were indicted for having planned and directed the killings. Michael Townley, a member of the Chilean intelligence service, pleaded guilty and was sentenced for his role in the crime, and two of his Cuban accomplices were subsequently tried and convicted in the U.S. District Court in Washington. The United States sought the extradition from Chile of the three Chilean officials, but on October 1 that request was denied by the Chilean Supreme Court. The court also chose not to call for a Chilean investigation of the murder charges.

The Government of Chile bears a two-fold responsibility in this matter. First, the three men indicted for having planned and directed the killings were officials of that government, and included the former head of Chile's intelligence service. The overwhelming body of evidence amassed by the Department of Justice makes it likely that the charges against these officials would be upheld if a fair trial could be held. Second, for over 20 months the Government of Chile has made no serious effort to investigate or prosecute these crimes on its own.

The Government of Chile has thus, in effect, condoned this act of international terrorism. It now seems likely that the men who planned and directed this crime, committed on the streets of our nation's capital, will go unpunished. We believe it is essential that we make clear, both to the Government of Chile and to others throughout the world, that such acts of terrorism cannot be tolerated.

Accordingly, the President has concluded that the following measures should be taken:

(1) We shall reduce the size of our Mission in Chile:

(2) By January 1, 1980, we will terminate the Foreign Military Sales "pipeline" to Chile and will thereby terminate all deliveries of military equipment to the Government of Chile by the U.S. Government.

(3) The MilGroup now stationed in our Embassy in Santiago will be phased down as the FMS pipeline is reduced; at the end of this year, we will assess whether the MilGroup should be completely eliminated.

(4) Pursuant to the Export-Import Bank Act and to authority delegated by the President, Secretary Vance has determined that suspension of Exim financing in Chile would "clearly and importantly advance U.S. policy" in combatting international terrorism. Exim is therefore immediately suspending all such financing.

(5) OPIC will not approve any further guaranties or undertake any new activities in Chile.

Chile's deplorable conduct in this affair, and in particular its refusal to conduct a full and fair investigation of this crime, demand the actions we are taking today, which constitute a strong reaffirmation of our determination to resist international terrorism.

* * * *

I would like to add one further comment, which is prompted by some press accounts that have sought to link our actions on the Letelier matter with the situation in Iran. There is only one link between those two situations - both involve egregious acts of international terrorism, and in both cases our responses reflect our determination to resist such terrorist acts, wherever they occur.

SUBJECT: (U) HUMAN RIGHTS SUMMARY - NOVEMBER 22-29, 1979

REF: BUENOS AIRES 9595

1. (U) CAMPORA FREED -----

THE MILITARY FINALLY GRANTED AILING FORMER PRESIDENT HECTOR CAMPORA HIS SAFE CONDUCT AND HE LEFT THE COUNTRY FOR MEXICO NOVEMBER 25. THERE APPARENTLY WAS MUCH PULLING AND HAULING WITHIN THE MILITARY BEFORE IT FINALLY DECIDED TO LET CAMPORA LEAVE. EVEN THE MOST COMMITTED HARDLINERS WOULD HAVE A DIFFICULT TIME ATTACKING THE DECISION TO ALLOW AN OBVIOUSLY VERY ILL CAMPORA OUT OF THE COUNTRY. HOWEVER, THERE ARE LATE NEWS STORIES OUT OF MEXICO SUGGESTING THAT MEXICAN DOCTORS HAVE FOUND THAT CAMPORA DOES NOT REQUIRE URGENT SURGERY. THIS COULD BE "STRAIGHT" NEWS, BUT ALREADY JOURNALISTS HERE ARE SPECULATING THAT A ZPLANT" TOOK PLACE TO EMBARRASS ONE SIDE OR ANOTHER (E.G. THE "SOFTLINERS" HAD VOTED TO LET CAMPORA GO).

2. (U) COURT ORDERS 13 CREED -----

A BUENOS AIRES APPEALS COURT ORDERED THE GOVERNMENT TO FREE 13 WOMEN PRESENTLY BEING HELD UNDER PEN BECAUSE THE GOVERNMENT HAD NOT SHOWN ADEQUATE CAUSE TO HOLD THEM. THE SAME COURT DECIDED IT WAS COMPETENT TO DECIDE IF ANOTHER 51 INDIVIDUALS BEING HELD UNDER PEN WERE CORRECTLY DETAINED. IT REJECTED 38 OTHER HABEAS CORPUS DETENTIONS. THE APPEALS COURT DOES NOT SEEM TO HAVE BROKEN ANY NEW GROUND WITH ITS DECISIONS, EVEN THE ONE ORDERING THE FREEING OF THE 13 WOMEN. WE UNDERSTAND THE GOVERNMENT WILL PROBABLY APPEAL THE DECISION FREEING THEM TO THE SUPREME COURT, WHICH IN THE PAST HAS GENERALLY REVERSED THE APPEALS COURTS ON THE GROUNDS THAT THE ALLEGATION THAT INDIVIDUALS ASSOCIATED WITH TERRORIST OR SUBVERSIVE GROUPS WAS SUFFICIENT GROUNDS FOR DETAINING THEM UNDER PEN.

3. [redacted] PEN REDUCTIONS -----

A WELL INFORMED AND HIGH LEVEL GOA SOURCE HAS TOLD US THAT THE PEN LIST IS NOW DOWN TO ABOUT 1300. HE WENT ON TO STATE THAT THE GOVERNMENT PLANS TO REDUCE THE PEN LIST TO ABOUT 1000 BY THE END OF THE YEAR. HE ADDED THAT BY THE END OF 1980 THERE SHOULD BE NO MORE THAN 400-500 PEOPLE STILL UNDER PEN. HE ASSERTED THAT THESE WILL BE INDIVIDUALS ON WHICH THE GOVERNMENT HAS AMPLE EVIDENCE THAT THEY ARE--OR WERE--TERRORISTS, BUT IS UNABLE TO DEMONSTRATE THIS IN A COURT. (OTHER SOURCES HAVE TOLD US THAT THE NUMBER THAT WILL BE HELD IS CLOSER TO 700-800, AND THAT MANY OF THEM ARE INDIVIDUALS WHO ONCE BENEFITTED FROM THE CAMPORA AMNESTY AND CANNOT BE RETRIED FOR THE CRIMES THEY HAD COMMITTED). THE SOURCE'S FIGURE OF ABOUT 1300 PEN DETAINEES IS FAIRLY CLOSE TO WHAT WE HAVE BEEN ABLE TO DEDUCE BY PIECING TOGETHER REPORTS OF RECENT RELEASES. THE SOURCE NOTED THAT A NUMBER OF PEOPLE RELEASED FROM PRISON ARE BEING PLACED UNDER "SUPERVISED FREEDOM", ADDING THAT IN SIX MONTHS PEOPLE IN THIS CATEGORY USUALLY RECEIVE COMPLETE FREEDOM. WE ARE UNCERTAIN WHY THESE ADVANCES ON THE HUMAN RIGHTS FRONT ARE NOT BEING ANNOUNCED AS BEFORE, BUT IT COULD RELATE TO SENSITIVITIES RAISED IN SOME CIRCLES BY THE TIMERMAN RELEASE AND THE AWAITED "CAMPORA CRISIS."

4. [redacted] FOWG -----

WE HAVE BEEN PUZZLED ABOUT WHAT WOULD BE THE EFFECT ON THE FOREIGN OFFICE WORKING GROUP ON HUMAN RIGHTS OF THE RECENT DEPARTURE OF JUAN CARLOS ARLIA AS ARGENTINA'S AMBASSADOR IN KENYA. A JUNIOR MEMBER OF THE FOWG (MARTIN SARABIA) HAS TOLD US THAT IGNACIO PICO ESTRADA WILL SHORTLY REPLACE ARLIA, BUT THAT THE FOWG WILL "OPERATE DIFFERENTLY." WE BELIEVE THAT MEANS WITH LESS INDEPENDENCE AND AUTHORITY."

Dear Captain Pearce:

The Subcommittee on Government Activities and Transportation is responsible for general congressional oversight of the United States Federal Aviation Administration (FAA). Since 1975, it has been concerned about the FAA's regulation of the transportation by air of hazardous materials, particularly explosives.

In that regard, I have recently obtained evidence that pilots and other personnel of the Chilean national airline, Lan Chile, were directly used to help carry out the September 21, 1976, Washington, D.C. assassination of Orlando Letelier, the former Ambassador to the United States for the Allende government. My purpose in writing is to alert you to this situation and to request that the International Federation of Air Line Pilots Associations take any steps it can to assure that pilots of Lan Chile or any other airline are not used to help implement terrorist acts in the United States or in any other nation.

According to sworn testimony of Michael Vernon Townley, the American-born agent of Chile's secret police, the National Intelligence Directorate (DINA) who played a major role in the Letelier assassination, as well as other evidence made available to the subcommittee, Lan Chile pilots became a regular conduit for materials sent by Townley to and from the United States. These materials included the actual detonating device used in the Letelier assassination, as well as small quantities of C-4 and TNT explosives.

The following are the pertinent excerpts from the Townley testimony:

(1) Mr. Townley explained in general terms his use of Lan Chilean employees:

UNCLASSIFIED

(4)

Q. Now, sir, you were talking about how you sent material on Lan Chilean Airlines.

Would you explain that, please?

A. As a result of the trip to the United States in the end of 1974, I attempted to make friendly contact with numerous pilots of Lan (sic) Chile, which were crewed personnel, so as to be able to send correspondence, letters, and small packages, utilizing the friendship of these pilots.

At no time did they have knowledge that they were carrying explosives.

Q. Did you send anything else on Lan Chile?

A. Most correspondence between the MNC and myself was carried out via pilots of Lan Chile.

I have no memory of any letter ever being sent by radio or mail.

THE COURT: You are saying all of this is being done without benefit of Customs?

THE WITNESS: That is correct.

(2) Mr. Townley described his return to the United States of electronic equipment modified to act as a detonating device:

Q. Mr. Townley, directing your attention to the period of time in late 1975 or early 1976, the best as you can recollect, were you ever sent any radio equipment by anyone in the Cuban Nationalist Movement.

A. I was sent equipment identical to that which I had purchased, to take to Mexico. This equipment was sent to me by Mr. Virgilio Paz utilizing the Lan Chilean pilots.

I had telephone conversations with him in early December of 1975, at which time he asked for an explanation as to how to modify this equipment in similar fashion to the equipment I had modified to take to Mexico.

I attempted to explain it to him, was not able to make myself clear and suggested that he send the equipment to me for modification.

I'm not sure whether I received the equipment in late December or early January of 1976. I did, in fact, receive the equipment. I did modify the equipment. The additional parts that were necessary were also sent to me at the same time.

And I returned the equipment to them, to him, to Mr. Paz, I think, in February of that same year, 1976.

Q. Now, what exactly was the equipment that was sent to you?

A. It was a Fanon & Courier transmitter and encoder device and a number of receivers.

Q. And what requests--what modification requests were made to you?

UNCLASSIFIED

Captain D. F. Pearce

A. The transmitter was modified to be able to operate on 12 volt, automotive volt, and as well as the 110 volt voltage and the receivers were modified so as to activate a blasting device or a blasting cap to initiate an explosive charge.

Q. And you sent this back to the United States?

A. Yes, I did.

Q. Addressed to who?

A. To Virgilio Paz. I sent to Javier--

(3) Mr. Townley explained how, after the Letelier assassination, he used Lan Chilean pilots to return to the Cuban Nationalist Movement in the United States explosives they had used in the assassination:

THE WITNESS: The explosive was given to me on the quality of a loan, if it was not used or used, that it was to be returned or replaced with other material.

THE COURT: You mentioned there were two people there you saw in New Jersey.

With whom are you having conversations of this nature?

THE WITNESS: When we asked for the explosive materials, Your Honor. That was the morning of the meeting in Howard Johnson Motel, with Dinisio Suarez and Guillermo Nov. At that time it was stipulated that the explosives they would supply us with, it was a loan, that if we did not return that specific material, that we would return the same amount of equipment type or more of the explosive material for the loan of the stuff that they had given me.

BY MR. PROPPER:

Q. And did you ever return anything to the Cuban Nationalist Movement?

A. Yes, I did.

Q. What did you return to them?

A. A very small quantity of C-4 plastic explosive, and primarily the explosive returned was TNT.

Q. Now, sir, how did you get the C-4 and the TNT to the Cuban Nationalist Movement?

A. It was placed in envelopes and sent as correspondence through friendly Lan Chilean pilots.

The Townley testimony remains uncontradicted. Further, it has been buttressed by a number of conversations conducted by the subcommittee staff with personnel of the U.S. Department of Justice. Moreover, you should also know that DINA has attempted or carried out assassinations in Mexico, Argentina, Italy, and the Federal Republic of Germany. Although there is no such direct evidence that Lan Chilean pilots were used in a similar fashion in these events, the potential here is obvious.

UNCLASSIFIED

Captain D.F. Pearce November 30, 1979

It would be unthinkable for the Federation, having taken a justifiably strong stance against acts of terrorism directed against airline passengers and flightcrew, not to take some action to prevent its members from being used as instruments in terrorist actions taken outside their aircraft--actions which, in the process, violate U.S. regulations concerning the transportation of hazardous materials.

I have no reason to believe that the individual pilots involved had direct knowledge of what they were transporting for DINA. Further, it seems obvious that, given the circumstances, no pilot would want to know the contents of any such packages.

Nevertheless, hopefully the Federation could in some way help Lan Chilean pilots, or pilots of any other airline, to resist managerial or government pressure to be used again as instruments of terrorist activities.

In anticipation of your constructive action, I am

Sincerely yours,

John L. Burton

SUBJ: (U) HUMAN RIGHTS SUMMARY - NOVEMBER 29-DECEMBER 6, 1979

REF: BUENOS AIRES 9806

[redacted] SUMMARY: GENERAL VIOLA'S APPOINTMENT OF GENERAL GALTIERI AS HIS SUCCESSOR AS ARMY COMMANDER PROMISES CONTINUATION OF POLICIES WHICH HAVE MADE SIGNIFICANT RECENT PROGRESS ON THE HUMAN RIGHTS FRONT. BUENOS AIRES HERALD EDITOR ROBERT COX WILL LEAVE ARGENTINA FOR AT LEAST A YEAR FOLLOWING ANONYMOUS THREATS BY PEOPLE HE BELIEVES TO BE MEMBERS OF SOME SECURITY APPARATUS. END SUMMARY.

1. [redacted] ARMY COMMANDER NAMED -----
AFTER MONTHS OF SPECULATION ARMY COMMANDER ROBERTO VIOLA NAMED GENERAL LEOPOLDO GALTIERI AS HIS SUCCESSOR. GALTIERI WAS LONG KNOWN TO BE VIOLA'S PREFERRED CANDIDATE FOR THE JOB AND HIS DESIGNATION PROMISES THE CONTINUATION OF THE RELATIVE MODERATION AND POSITIVE, IF SLOW, EVOLUTION IN POLITICAL AND HUMAN RIGHTS MATTERS HERE. GENERAL SUAREZ MASON, THE STANDARD-BEARER OF THE HARD-LINERS IS SLATED FOR RETIREMENT AS IS HIS IDEOLOGICAL PARTNER, GENERAL RAMON CAMPS.

2. [redacted] HERALD EDITOR TO LEAVE ARGENTINA -----
BUENOS AIRES HERALD EDITOR ROBERT COX HAS ANNOUNCED HIS DECISION TO TAKE A YEAR'S LEAVE OF ABSENCE FROM ARGENTINA BEGINNING DECEMBER 16. COX MADE HIS DECISION IN THE WAKE OF A LETTER THREATENING HIM AND HIS FAMILY WITH DEATH UNLESS THEY DEPARTED (BUENOS AIRES 9865). THE LETTER, WHICH CAME IN THE WAKE OF OTHER THREATS, PURPORTED TO BE FROM THE EXTREME LEFT MONTONERO TERRORISTS. HOWEVER COX'S WELL GROUNDED SUSPICION IS THAT ONE OR ANOTHER OF THE SECURITY SERVICES, ACTING WITHOUT THE KNOWLEDGE OR APPROVAL OF RESPONSIBLE GOA AUTHORITY, IS PROBABLY THE REAL AUTHOR.

3. (U) UNDER COX'S DIRECTION THE ENGLISH-LANGUATE HERALD HAS BEEN A CALM, BALANCED AND ELOQUENT SPOKESMAN OF HUMAN RIGHTS EVEN IN THE DARKEST DAYS OF TERRORIST VIOLENCE AND SUBSEQUENT GOVERNMENT REPRESSION. IN THE LATER PERIOD COX EARNED THE ENMITY OF THE FAR

RIGHT FOR HIS STANCE. AK352

4. [redacted] COX AND THE HERALD HAVE BEEN IMPORTANT FACTORS AS ARGENTINA STRUGGLES TO ACKNOWLEDGE AND COME TO TERMS WITH THE GROSS VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS THAT HAVE TAKEN PLACE HERE. PRESIDENT VIDELA TACITLY RECOGNIZED COX'S IMPORTANCE LAST MONTH, WHEN, UPON HEARING THAT COX WAS CONSIDERING ABANDONING ARGENTINA BECAUSE OF MOUNTING THREATS AGAINST HIM, HE SENT A PERSONAL MESSAGE TO THE BRITISH EDITOR ASKING HIM TO REMAIN IN THE COUNTRY. HE HAS AGAIN SOUGHT TO REASSURE COX THAT HE WOULD BE PROTECTED. THE COX HOME WAS GIVEN POLICE PROTECTION FOR ONE DAY. THE GUARD ENDED, WAS BRIEFLY RESUMED AND THEN ENDED AGAIN. THIS UNUSUAL PROCEDURE CAUSED COX TO SPECULATE IN HIS PAPER WHETHER THE COMING AND GOING OF THE GUARD WAS SIMPLY INEFFICIENCY OR, MORE SINISTER, SOMEBODY WAS COUNTERMANDING ORDERS TO SUPPLY HIM WITH PROTECTION. UNFORTUNATELY, SUCH SPECULATION IS LEGITIMATE. EVEN WITH THE SUPPORT OF PRESIDENT VIDELA COX CANNOT FEEL SECURE IN ARGENTINA.

5. [redacted] MINISTER OF INTERIOR ALBINO HARGUINDEGUY'S REACTION TO THE THREATS TO COX WAS TO SAY TRUTHFULLY, BUT FOOLISHLY, THAT SUCH WAS THE PRICE OF PUBLIC LIFE IN ARGENTINA. THE REMARK HAS EARNED HIM A STINGING REPLY NOT ONLY FROM THE HERALD BUT FROM SEVERAL OTHER NEWSPAPERS.

6. [redacted] IRONICALLY, COX'S MOST LIKELY SUCCESSOR AS EDITOR IS THE HERALD'S POLITICAL COLUMNIST JAMES NIELSON, WHO HAS ALREADY PROVEN HIMSELF TO BE MORE OUTSPOKEN IN ATTACKING GOVERNMENT HUMAN RIGHTS POLICIES THAN COX.

7. [redacted] TIMERMAN THREATS -----
THE POSSIBILITY THAT FRIENDS AND RELATIVES OF FORMER NEWSPAPER PUBLISHER JACOBO TIMERMAN WOULD BE SINGLED OUT FOR REPRISALS IF HE SPEAKS OR PUBLISHES ARTICLES ABROAD ATTACKING ARGENTINA CONTINUES TO GENERATE SPECULATION IN ARGENTINA AND THE UNITED STATES. WE HAVE BEEN TOLD FOR EXAMPLE THAT TIMERMAN'S BROTHER, JOSE, IS NOW AMONG THOSE URGING THAT THE EXILED NEWSPAPERMAN NOW REMAIN SILENT, LEST HE, JOSE, BE KILLED.

8. [redacted] WE STILL HAVE NO EVIDENCE THAT SUCH THREATS HAVE BEEN MADE. THE ISRAELI EMBASSY HAS NOW TOLD US THAT ONE OF ITS SENIOR OFFICERS DID COUNSEL TIMERMAN TO REMAIN SILENT BUT THAT HIS ADVICE WAS BASED ON AN ANALYSIS OF THE TENSE POLITICAL SITUATION RATHER THAN ANY KNOWLEDGE OF THREATS. AMONG THE FACTORS THE ISRAELIS TOOK INTO ACCOUNT IN SO ADVISING WAS THE ONGOING STRUGGLE TO NAME GENERAL VIOLA'S SUCCESSOR. THE ISRAELIS FEARED THAT CONTROVERSIAL ASSERTIONS BY TIMERMAN WOULD ONLY STRENGTHEN THE HARDLINERS HERE.

THE ISRAELIS EMPHASIZED TO US AGAIN THAT TO THEIR KNOWLEDGE THE GOA NEVER INTIMATED, IN ANY WAY, THAT THERE WOULD BE REPRISALS IF TIMERMAN SPOKE OUT. THEY ALSO SAID THAT THEY HAD NO REPORTS THAT ANTI-SEMITIC GROUPS HERE ACTING ON THEIR OWN WERE CONTEMPLATING REPRISALS, THOUGH THIS IS A POSSIBILITY IN ARGENTINA.

9. [redacted] THOUGH ROBERT COX USED THE HERALD TO SUPPORT DEMANDS FOR THE RELEASE OF TIMERMAN WE DO NOT BELIEVE THAT THE RECENT THREATS TO HIM ARE PART OF A PLAN TO KEEP TIMERMAN SILENT. THIS OPINION IS SHARED BY COX HIMSELF AND THE ISRAELIS. RATHER, AS WE NOTED ABOVE, COX HIMSELF HAD EARNED THE ENMITY OF THE FAR RIGHT HERE. SOME AMONG THIS GROUP APPARENTLY DECIDED. THE TIME HAD COME TO GO AFTER HIM.

10. [redacted] SARAGOVI CASE -----

THE MOTHER OF HORACIO OSCAR SARAGOVI, THE VICTIM OF A PARTICULARLY GROSS MISCARRIAGE OF JUSTICE, HAS TOLD US PRESIDENT VIDELA WILL BE SOON CONSIDERING A REQUEST FOR HER SON'S PARDON. ON THE BASIS OF THIS INFORMATION AMBASSADOR CASTRO CALLED THE PRESIDENCY TO AGAIN URGE THAT SARAGOVI BE PARDONED. THE AMBASSADOR WAS PROMISED THAT VIDELA WILL GIVE THE CASE A SYMPATHETIC HEARING. INDIVIDUALS IN THE PRESIDENCY HAVE PRIVATELY SUGGESTED TO US THAT THEY TOO ARE CONVINCED THAT SARAGOVI IS THE VICTIM OF A "JUDICIAL ERROR".

11. (U) JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES' PROPERTY SEIZED -----

SOME PROPERTIES IN THE PROVINCE OF BUENOS AIRES WERE TAKEN OVER BY THE MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENTS LAST WEEK, BASED ON RULINGS THAT THE JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES ARE AN ILLEGAL ASSOCIATION IN ARGENTINA. THE TAKEOVER OF THE PROPERTIES TOOK PLACE PURSUANT TO AN ITEM IN THE CIVIL CODE WHICH STATES THAT WHEN AN ASSOCIATION IS DISSOLVED ITS PROPERTIES SHOULD TRANSFER TO THE STATE IF THE ASSOCIATION'S BYLAWS HAVE NO PROVISION FOR THEIR DISPOSITION.

12. [redacted] DISAPPEARANCES -----

WE ARE SEEKING TO DEVELOP MORE INFORMATION ON THE LIST OF RECENT DISAPPEARANCES SUPPLIED TO THE DEPARMENT BY AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL AND OTHER SOURCES (STATE 311377). BECAUSE THERE HAVE BEEN NO REPORTS OF UNEXPLAINED DISAPPEARANCES TO LOCAL ARGENTINE HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS SINCE THE END OF SEPTEMBER, THE NAMES FOR OCTOBER ARE PARTICULARLY INTERESTING. WE DO HAVE SOME INFORMATION IN OUR FILES ON A NUMBER OF THE INDIVIDUALS LISTED:

(A) ADRIANI LESGART (REPORTEDLY DISAPPEARED ON SEPT. 12): SHE WAS THE LEADER OF THE MONTONERO PRESS AND PROPAGANDA SQUADS AND WAS CAPTURED IN SEPTEMBER (BUENOS AIRES 8668).

(B) JULIO SUAREZ (REPORTEDLY DISAPPEARED OCT. 1 IN RIO NEGRO PROVINCE): SUAREZ WAS REPORTEDLY A MONTONERO BASED IN MEXICO. HE WAS ARRESTED IN 1975 IN ARGENTINA, HELD UNDER PEN, AND GIVEN THE RIGHT OF OPTION TO PERU THAT SAME YEAR.

(C) JOSE DALMOS LOPEZ (REPORTEDLY DISAPPEARED OCT. 1 IN RIO NEGRO PROVINCE): IN JANUARY 1978 DALMOS LOPEZ WAS SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE "RESISTENCE CGT", A FICTITIOUS MONTONERO LABOR ORGANIZATION.

(D) HUGO VERA AND WIFE; OSCAR VERA AND WIFE (REPORTEDLY DISAPPEARED OCT. 1 IN RIO NEGRO PROVINCE): IN MID-NOVEMBER WE WERE TOLD BY A RESIDENT OF MENDOZA THAT THE VERA COUPLES HAD SURFACED UNDER ARREST IN MENDOZA. (ON OCT. 13 A REPORT IN LA PRENSA HAD STATED THAT SECURITY FORCES HAD BROKEN UP A TERRORIST GROUP IN BARILOCHE, RIO NEGRO PROVINCE AND FOUR (SIC) PEOPLE ARRESTED HAD BEEN TRANSFERRED TO MENDOZA FOR QUESTIONING THE PAPER GAVE NO NAMES BUT SAID THAT THE CELL HAD BEEN DISCOVERED WHEN A WOMAN DESERTED THE TERRORISTS AND TURNED HERSELF OVER TO THE POLICE. OUR SOURCE FROM MENDOZA CONFIRMED THE OUTLINE OF THE STORY AND GAVE US THE NAMES OF THE VERA COUPLE.)

(E) LILIANA BERMUDEZ DE HERRERA (DISAPPEARED IN MENDOZA OCT. 13): OUR SORCE FROM MENDOZA, WHO CLAIMED TO KNOW BERMUDEZ, SAID THAT SHE HAS SURFACED UNDER ARREST IN MENDOZA.

(F) EDUARDO URRETAVIZCAYA (REPORTEDLY DISAPPEARED BUENOS AIRES SEPT. 3): HE WAS ONCE ASSOCIATED WITH THE PRT, THE POLITICAL ARM OF THE ERP TERRORIST GROUP AND WAS ACCUSED OF TERRORIST ACTIVITIES IN 1976.

TWO NEW BOMB ATTACKS WERE REPORTED THIS WEEK. A MEDIUM SIZE BOMB REPORTEDLY EXPLODED AT THE OFFICE OF PRENSA ECONOMICA, AMONTHLY ECONOMIC REVIEW. ANOTHER BOMB WENT OFF AT A RESTAURANT WHERE A GROUP OF PERONISTS PLANNED TO HOLD A DINNER MEETING, CAUSING THE CANCELATION OF THE AFFAIR. NOBODY WAS HURT IN THE ATTACKS.

16. (U) INRECENT MONTHS A NUMBER OF BOMBINGS HAVE BEEN REPORTED. BESIDES THE JEWISH SEMINARY THE TARGETS HAV INCLUDED SHOPS AND IN ONE INSTANCE AN APARTMENT BUILDING WHERE SEVERAL FLAG OFFICERS HAVE THEIR HOMES. THERE WERE NO VICTIMS IN THESE ATTACKS AND SO FAR AS WE KNOW NOBODY HAS ASSUMED RESPONSIBILITY FOR THEM. FOR THE MOMENT THEY WERE WRITTEN OFF AS THE SORT OF VIOLENT BACKGROUND THAT ACCOMPANIES LIFE AND POLITICS IN ARGENTINA DN SEEM TO CAUSE LITTLE CONCERN AMONG THE PEOPLE.

FOLLOWING THE AMBASSADOR'S INITITATIVE ON BEHALF OF SARAGOVI THE PRESIDENCY HAS INFORMEDUS THAT HIS REQUST FOR COMMUTATION OF HIS SENTENCE IS UNDER REVIEW. THE PRESIDENCY ADDED THAT, WHATEVER THE OUTCOME OF THIS REVIEW, IN MAY OF 1980 SARAGOVI WILL HAVE COMPLETED TWO THIRDS OF HIS SENTENCE, BECOMING ELIGIBLE TO APPLY FOR PAROLE STATUS UNDER "SUPREVISED LIBERTY." MEMORANDUM FOR: THE PRESIDENT

From: Cyrus Vance

Subject: El Salvador: Prospects for the Junta and U.S. Policy

THE SITUATION

The five-man military/civilian Junta that took office following the October 15 military coup against the repressive government of President Romero finds itself in serious difficulties because of inherent weaknesses, the immediate violent opposition of the extreme left, and the latent threat of the far right. In trying to follow a reformist program it is buffeted by cross currents and challenges that inhibit resolute action to implement specific projects or deal effectively with disruption of public order.

Junta's Program: The Junta has called for fundamental socio-economic reforms, including higher wages, nationalization of the marketing of export crops, agrarian reform, free trade union organization and tax reform. On the political side it has called for the democratization of the political process, including free elections and the right of all political groupings to organize freely, and respect for human rights. It has failed, however, to come up with concrete proposals on many of these key issues and has not yet developed a consensus within the Junta on many points essential to governing effectively. This has produced a dangerous sense of drift.

Vulnerabilities: Consolidation of the Junta's position is hampered by these vulnerabilities:

-- The Junta has inherent weaknesses, including political inexperience, ineffective collegial decision making, fundamental philosophical and ideological differences and a tendency to hold to the views of their constituencies rather than working for consensus.

-- The left's systematic use of violent tactics to undermine the Junta's authority and provoke a repressive reaction results from a realization that the Junta's reformist program would destroy the extreme left's use of widespread popular discontent as a vehicle to power.

-- The Junta's proposed reforms, which are essential for building a strong popular following and depriving the extreme left of appealing issues, threaten the economic interests of the still powerful right; this poses the danger of a coup by conservative elements and produces caution and indecision in the Junta.

-- Many of the progressive young military officers who promoted the coup are becoming increasingly impatient at the apparent lack of action by the Junta and could move to take power into their own hands.

-- At the same time the proficiency of the security forces has deteriorated to such a degree that their ability to deal with a sustained guerrilla effort by the extreme left is in question.

Factors favoring the Junta: Despite the foregoing weaknesses, the Junta still has these factors working in its favor:

-- The Junta has its priorities straight in emphasizing socio-economic reforms and moving cautiously in dealing with public disturbances so as not to adversely affect its popular base.

-- Broad support from the Church and moderate organizations which opposed the previous governments, conditioned on implementation of the reform program.

-- Continuing approbation and support of most of the international community.

-- An extreme left still not unified or able to launch a full-scale offensive against the government.

-- An economy which although under increasing attack by the extreme left retains a strong productive capacity.

THE PROSPECTS

In the two months it has been in office, the Junta has not consolidated its position as it should. It is aware of this and under the continued pressure of the extreme left has come to realize that it must act on both the reform/development and security fronts if it is to halt the deterioration of its position.

The Junta's most immediate threat is a determined and violent challenge from the groups which comprise the extreme left. Intelligence sources indicate that preparations to launch a concerted attack on the government are under way.

The danger from elements of the far right is still incipient, but nonetheless real. How they react will depend on their perception of the reforms and the ability of the Junta to control leftist violence.

We believe the Junta can meet these threats if it:

-- moves quickly to organize itself and implement significant elements of its reform and development program;

-- responds firmly (but with due regard to human rights) to current efforts to undermine its authority;

-- takes immediate steps to upgrade the capabilities of its security forces; and

-- does a much better job of publicizing the mobilizing public opinion in support of its programs.

In order to improve the lot of the underprivileged the Junta has raised wages significantly in certain sectors and frozen the prices of some essential commodities. Over the weekend it announced the nationalization of the foreign marketing of principal agricultural products. Last week it decided to use measured force in dealing with the violent tactics of the far left and is already acting on this decision. It has been slow to upgrade its security forces, but under the prodding of our intelligence and military survey teams it has formally requested USG assistance. It has also invited a New York public relations firm with considerable experience in advising democratic governments in Latin America to help devise a strategy for winning support at home and abroad.

We cannot predict whether the Junta will correct the deficiencies in time to meet the challenge from the left or possibly from the right. The imponderables are too many. But with the advantages it now enjoys, coupled with timely action along the lines described above, the Junta stands a better than even chance to consolidate its position. In this confrontation with the far left the role of our Embassy in counseling the Junta and our ability to respond rapidly to essential needs will be very important.

UNITED STATES POLICY

In supporting the Junta we identify with forces advocating basic economic and social change and a return to democratic procedures. The alternatives to the Junta are inimical to our interest: a takeover by the far right will further polarize and radicalize the crisis, while a victory by the far left, because of the strong class antagonism existing in El Salvador, will usher in a revolutionary regime more radical than the Sandinistas. The impact on Honduras and Guatemala of either outcome, following on the heels of revolutionary success in Nicaragua, would be highly destabilizing.

We therefore need to give maximum support to the Junta while avoiding too close an identification that could be exploited by the extreme left. The far right will be inhibited by our involvement especially as it serves to bolster the Junta against the radical left. Our strategy for helping the Junta is based on these elements:

We have already:

-- asked Ambassador Devine to increase his efforts as a catalyst in helping the Junta see the seriousness of the extreme left's challenge and the need for cohesion and decisiveness in maintaining its authority;

-- asked Ambassador Devine to devise an approach to the Junta to elicit Andean and Mexican assistance in order to multilateralize the support effort. We would move behind the Junta's initiative and encourage those governments to be forthcoming;

-- provided the GOES with tear gas and other non-lethal crowd control equipment and an MTT to give instruction in its use ($205,000);

-- sent an AID team to develop with GOES officials high-impact projects in rural and urban areas pegged to a target FY 80 aid level of $35 million;

-- sent intelligence and military teams to assess needs for U.S. remedial assistance in training and equipment;

-- reached inter-agency agreement to reprogram $3.5 million of FMS financing (when we have our FY 80 appropriation) for purchases of most immediately needed materiel; and

-- notified Congress of our intent to reprogram $300,000 of IMET for provision of MTT's and other training to cover most immediate deficiencies.

We have under consideration:

-- a visit by Junta members to the U.S. for discussions with official and private groups in early February. (If your schedule is too full to receive them, we might follow the pattern used with the Nicaraguan Junta and have them meet with the Vice President with you dropping in.);

-- in connection with the foregoing visit an appropriate high-level statement welcoming their plans to return to constitutional procedures with full respect for human rights and indicating support for their reform and development programs;

-- a visit to El Salvador in early January by a high U.S. official to underscore our support of the Junta; and

-- gearing up a people-to-people program for El Salvador as soon as the security situation permits Americans to travel there without serious risk; meanwhile we are working on efforts which do not require such travel.

In order to reduce our vulnerabilities we are:

-- substantially reducing the number of U.S. mission dependents;

-- closing out the small HEW-malaria and IAGS-mapping operations; and

-- working on a further scale-down of the Peace Corps presence, looking toward close-out if the situation deteriorates further.

4. (C) COMMENT: ASSASSINATIONS OF FOUR UNION LEADERS WITHIN LESS THAN WEEK UNDER STRIKINGLY SIMILAR CIRCUMSTANCES GIVES APPEARANCE THAT ORGANIZED WAVE OF TERROR AGAINST MILITANT LEFTIST UNION LEADERS MAY HAVE BEEN INITIATED BY RIGHT. ALTHOUGH THERE IS AS OF YET NO INDICATION OF ASSASSINATIONS BEING WORK OF ANY PARTICULAR GROUP, EXTREME LEFTIST POPULAR ORGANIZATIONS UNHESITATINGLY USE DEATHS TO ATTACK REVOLUTIONARY GOVERNING JUNTA (JRG), RAISING SPECTER OF ASSASSINATIONS DURING PREVIOUS REGIMES.

ULTIMATELY, ON NEWSPAPER INDEPENDENCE. THE SARAGOVI CASE IS STILL UNDER PRESIDENTIAL REVIEW. A LIGHT, AND PROBABLY TRANSITORY, INCREASE IN GOA OPTION APPROVALS. END SUMMARY.

1. [redacted] THE HAGELIN CASE---
THE SWEDISH EMBASSY HAS PRIVATELY SHOWN US THE SWORN TESTIMONY OF NORMA SUSANA BURGOS, A MONTONERO AND FORMER INMATE AND TRUSTY OF THE DETENTION CENTER AT THE NAVAL MECHANIC'S SCHOOL (ESMA) IN BUENOS AIRES (STOCKHOLM 0262). THIS TESTIMONY WAS THE BASIS ON WHICH THE SWEDES MADE THEIR INQUIRY TO THE GOA LAST DECEMBER ON THE FATE OF DAGMAR HAGELIN,--- A SEVENTEEN YEAR OLD SWEDISH NATIONAL WHO DISAPPEARED IN JANUARY 1977. BURGOS, A FRIEND OF HAGELIN STATES SHE SAW HER ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS THROUGH EARLY FEBRUARY 1977, BUT THAT SHE WAS LATER TOLD BY AN ESMA GUARD THAT HAGELIN HAD BEEN "TRANSFERRED" (THIS SLANG TERM COULD MEAN EITHER THAT SHE WAS EXECUTED OR SIMPLY MOVED.) BURGOS STATES THAT HAGELIN WAS PROBABLY TAKEN BY THE SECURITY FORCES WHEN THEY MISTAKENLY IDENTIFIED HER AS A MRS. BERGER, ONE OF BURGO'S MONTONERO ASSOCIATES WHOM HAGELIN ALLEGEDLY RESEMBLED. THE MOST SENSITIVE PART OF BURGOS' TESTIMONY IS THE IDENTIFICATION, BY NAME, OF TWO NAVAL OFFICERS WHO SHE SAYS WERE DIRECTLY INVOLVED WITH HAGELIN AT THE SCHOOL. A COPY OF THE TESTIMONY WAS PRESENTED TO THE GOA WHICH HAS NOT YET RESPONDED TO THE SWEDES' DEMARCHE. THE SWEDES' ACTIVITY IN BEHALF OF HAGELIN RECEIVED SOME PUBLICITY HERE AND THERE WERE REPORTS THAT THE SWEDISH AMBASSAOR WOLLTER, WHO HAS BEEN REASIGNED TO MEXICO, WAS BEING WITHDRAWN FORM BUENOS AIRES AS A PROTEST GESTURE. THE SWEDISH EMBASSY HERE, HOWEVER, STATES THAT WOLLTER'S TRANSFER IS NORMAL AND UNRELATED TO THE HAGELIN CASE.

2. [redacted] PRESS FREEDOM---
THE GOA'S DECISION TO INCREASE THE TAX ON IMPORTED NEWSPRINT FROM 10 PERCENT TO 45 PERCENT HAS STIRRED AN ANGRY REACTION AMONG SMALLER AND MEDIUM SIZE PUBLISHERS. THE IMPORT TAX WILL FORCE PAPERS TO BUY THE MUCH HIGHER COST AND INFERIOR OUTPUT OF ARGENTINA'S ONLY NEWSPRINT MANUFACTURER, PAPER PRENSAN

JOINTLY OWNED BY THE COUNTRY'S MOST AFFLUENT NEWSPAPERS --CLARIN, LA NACION, LA RAZON-- AND THE GOA. THE PUBLISHERS OF OTHER PAPERS FEAR THE ADDITIONAL COSTS OF NEWSPRINT WILL CAUSE THEM TO GO UNDER. THEY ALSO POINT TO THE POTENTIAL FOR MANIPULATIVE ATTACKS ON PRESS FREEDOM IF ALL NEWSPAPERS ARE FORCED TO RELY ON A MONOPOLY SOURCE FOR NEWSPRINT.
THESE FEARS ARE REASONABLE. HOWEVER, WE DO NOT BELIEVE THAT THE GOA WAS MOTIVATED BASICALLY BY A DESIRE TO INHIBIT PRESS FREEDOM. RATHER, IT WOULD LIKE TO SEE PAPEL PRENSA START MAKING MONEY -- A DESIRE NO DOUBT ENCOURAGED BY ITS PARTNERS IN THE VENTURE. MOREOVER, NONE OF THE LATTER WOULD BE UNHAPPY IF THEY PICKED UP A LARGER SHARE OF THE MARKET IF SOME OF THEIR SMALLER COMPETITORS WERE FORCED OUT OF BUSINESS.

PRESS FREEDOM ALSO CAME UP LAST WEEK IN THE CONTEXT OF A RAID BY BUENOS AIRES MUNICIPAL AUTHORITIES ON A SMALL NEWS AGENCY WHICH SERVICES PROVINCIAL [redacted]

[redacted]

PAPERS. THE AUTHORITIES ALLEGED THAT THE AGENCY DID NOT HAVE AN OPERATING LICENSE AND CLOSED IT. THIS ALLEGATION WAS PROVEN FALSE AND AFTER SEVERAL DAYS -- THE RAIDERS WERE REPORTEDLY SHOWN THE LICENSE WHEN THEY ARRIVED -- THE AGENCY REOPENED. THE REAL MOTIVATIONS OF THE MUNICIPAL AUTHORITIES IN SEEKING TO CLOSE THE AGENCY REMAIN UNKNOWN. HOWEVER, THE EASE WHICH THEY ACTED UNDERLINES THE STILL GREAT POTENTIAL FOR ARBITRARY USE OF POWER HERE.

DESPITE THE FOREGOING, PRESS FREEDOM HERE HAS BEEN CONSIDERABLY EXPANDED OVER THE PAST SEVERAL MONTHS. BY ALL ACCOUNTS THE HEAVY HAND OF GOVERNMENT CENSORSHIP -- OR INTIMIDATION -- IS LESS FELT NOW THAN ANY TIME IN THE RECENT PAST: POLITICAL SUBJECTS, HUMAN RIGHTS TOPICS APPEAR WITH FREQUENCY. (WE NOTE THIS WEEK THAT LA PRENSA PUBLISHED A LONG, OBJECTIVE COMMENTARY ON FREEDOM HOUSE'S RECENT LISTING OF ARGENTINA AMONG THE "NOT FREE"; NACION REPORTED THAT FORMER BUENOS AIRES EDITOR ROBERT COX WAS GIVEN AN AWARD AS "THE BEST EDITOR OF THE YEAR" BY A MAJOR BRITISH T.V. COMPANY.)

. [redacted] SARAGOVI CASE ----

PRESIDENT VIDELA WHO IS NOW CONSIDERING WHETHER TO GRANT A COMMUTATION OF SENTENCE TO HORACIO OSCAR ARAGOVI HAS ORDERED FURTHER "CONSULTATIONS" WITH MILITARY AUTHORITIES INVOLVED IN THE CASE, WE ARE TOLD. THESE CONSULTATIONS ARE SUPPOSED TO TAKE ABOUT TWO MORE WEEKS. THE MEMBER OF THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE WHO HAS BEEN HANDLING THIS MATTER -- AND HAS INDEED TAKEN AN INTENSE PERSONAL INTEREST IN SEEING [redacted]

[redacted]

ITS INJUSTICE RIGHTED -- PROFESSES OPTIMISM THAT THE COMMUTATION REQUEST WILL BE DECIDED FAVORABLY. IF SO, IT WOULD BE THE FIRST SUCH COMMUTATION GRANTED BY THE MILITARY GOVERNMENT. WE LEARNED, TOO, THAT THE PRESIDENT IS NOW CONSIDERING TWO OTHER CASES WHICH, IN THE VIEW OF HIS STAFF MEMBER, ALSO MERIT COMMUTATION.

7. [redacted] OPTION PROGRAM ----

DURING THE MONTH OF JANUARY NINE PEN DETAINEES HOLDING U.S. OPTION CERTIFICATES WERE APPROVED FOR TRAVEL TO THE U.S. BY THE GOA, FAR IN EXCESS OF THE AVERAGE MONTHLY RATE OF THREE WE HAVE BEEN EXPERIENCING. ONE ELEMENT IN THE INCREASE WAS THE ABNORMALLY LARGE NUMBER OF PEN DETAINEES HOLDING OUR CERTIFICATE OF APPROVALS THAT WERE CONSIDERED FOR OPTION BY THE GOA IN JANUARY (22 VERSUS THE NORMAL MONTHLY RATE OF 10). WE HAVE NO INFORMATION TO SUGGEST THAT THIS UPSURGE CONSTITUTES A CHANGE IN GOA POLICY ON THE OPTIONS PROGRAM. A CHECK WITH OTHER EMBASSIES, FOR EXAMPLE, SHOWS NO PATTERN OF UPSURGE WITH GOA APPROVALS DURING THE MONTH. MORE IMPORTANTLY, AS WE NOTED LAST WEEK, THE GOA VIEWS THE OPTION PROGRAM WITH HEIGHTENED RESERVE, CONVINCED THAT IT HAS BEEN USED BY TERRORISTS TO GET OUT OF DETENTION AND RETURN TO THE ATTACK IN ARGENTINA.

CONVERSATION, DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY CHEEK, DCM HOWARD AND I REVIEWED WITH JRG MEMBERS COLONEL GUTIERREZ AND COLONEL MAJANO PRESENT STATE OF AFFAIRS IN EL SALVADOR. DAS CHEEK LED OFF BY STATING CONCERN FELT IN U.S. AND SOME OTHER FRIENDLY COUNTRIES OVER IMAGE OF SLOWNESS BEING PROJECTED BY JRG IN FORMING NEW GOVERNMENT AND MOVING AHEAD WITH ITS REFORM PROGRAM. HE WARNED AGAINST GETTING BOGGED DOWN IN MYRIAD OF PERSONAL AND POLITICAL PROBLEMS AND URGED FORWARD MOTION AND DEVELOP-MENT OF POSITIVE MOMENTUM IN CARRYING FORWARD BUSINESS OF GOVERNMENT. WHILE INDICATING AWARENESS OF REPORTED DIFFERENCES WITHIN MILITARY AND BETWEEN MILITARY AND CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDC) WITH WHICH IT IS NOW ALLIED, CHEEK STRESSED ADVANTAGES OF AVOIDING AGONIZING ATTENTION TO EACH OF THESE IN FAVOR OF MOVING BOLDLY AHEAD WITH REFORM AND OTHER PROGRAMS WHICH ARE ON THE DOCKER ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE PROGRAM, HE SAID, IS READY TO GO AND A RELATED TEAM OF EXPERTS IS READY TO ARRVIE HERE NEXT WEEK. WE HAVE A PACKAGE OF ASSISTANCE ELEMENTS READY, AND ANNOUNCEMENT OF THIS PLUS ITS EARLY IMPLEMENTATION WILL IN AND OF THEMSELVES CONTRIBUTE TO A PUBLIC IMAGE OF FORWRD MOVEMENT AND POSITIVE ACCOMPLISHMENT. WE HOPE THAT JUNTA WILL QUICKLY ROUND OUT ITS CABINET APPOINTMENTS AND BE ASLE TO MOVE AHEAD ON THIS AND OTHER FRONTS.

3. IN RESPONDING TO THESE OPENING REMARKS BY DAS CHEEK, COL GUTIERREZ ACKNOWLEDGED THAT JRG HAS BEEN BESET WITH MANY PROBLEMS, THAT ITS RELATIVELY CENTRIST POSITION IS UNDER HEAVY FIRE FROM BOTH SIDES, AND THAT ITS ALLIANCE WITH PDC IS BEING WIDELY CRITICIZED. PDC ITSELF HAS ADDED TO PROBLEM BY BEING UNNECESSARILY EXPLICIT IN CERTAIN RESPECTS. ILLUSTRATIVE OF LATTER,

COL GUTIERREZ SAID THAT PDC HAD INSISTED ON PUBLICIZING ITS INTENT TO EXCLUDE PRIVATE SECTOR FROM JUNTA AND FROM CABINET AND HAD REJECTED MILDER TERM "REFORM" IN FAVOR OF "NATIONALIZATION" OF BANKING SYSTEM. IN THUS TRYING TO AVOID ANY APPEARANCE OR CHARGES OF RIGHTWARD DRIFT (SUCH AS PRESENTED BY PREVIOUS DISSIDENT MINISTERS), PDC HAD BOUGHT FOR ITSELF SOME GRATUITOUS PROBLEMS AND HAD ENRAGED AND ALIENDATED POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC RIGHT MORE THAN WAS NECESSARY OR PRUDENT.

3. ARMED FORCES PROBLEM: STILL WITH REFERENCE TO DAS CHEEK'S OPENING REMARKS, COL GUTIERREZ THEN TURNED TO PROBLEM OF ARMED FORCES AND QUESSTION OF REMOVAL OR RETENTION OF COL GARCIA AS MINISTER OF DEFENSE. OUTSIDE CRITICISM, HE SAID, HAD COME TO CENTER ON COL GARCIA. PDC HAD MENTIONED THIS TO MILITARY MEMBERS OF JRG THOUGH WITHOUT MAKING MAJOR ISSUE OF IT. JRG MEMBERS HAD TURNED MATTER OVER TO YOUNGER OFFICERS PERMANENT COUNCIL OF ARMED FORCES (COPEFA) FOR REPLY. WHEN ISSUE WAS CIRCULATED WITHIN THE ARMED FORCES, HOWEVER, IT GAVE RISE TO US CONCERNS, GENERATED VARIOUS MEETINGS, AND BROUGHT INTO BEING TWO GROUPS AMONG OFFICER CORPS: THOSE FAVORING REMOVAL AND THOSE FAVORING RETENTION OF COL GARCIA. FORMER SIGNED A LETTER PRESENTING THEIR DEMAND, AND LATTER CALLED FOR PUNISHMENT ON GROUNDS OF INSUBORDINATION. PROBLEM WAS A TROUBLESOME

[redacted]

ONE, SUGGESTED THAT SOME SUBVERSIVE ELEMENTS HAD BEEN ABLE TO SWAY SOME YOUNGER OFFICERS, AND CLEARLY INDICATED THAT LATTER DID NOT REALIZE DIMENSIONS OF CRISIS FOR ARMED FORCES WHICH THEY WERE CREATING. COLONELS GUTIERREZ AND MAJANO MEDIATED IN THIS DISPUTE, AND AS OF NOW MATTER HAD BEEN TURNED OVER TO THEM FOR THEIR DECISION WHICH BOTH SIDES OF MILITARY HAVE AGREED TO ACCEPT. THEY CONSIDER PROBLEM TO BE A SOLUBLE ONE WITH AN HONORABLE OUTCOME FOR ALL CONCERNED. THEY CAREFULLY DID NOT RPT NOT TELL US WHAT THE CONTEMPLATED SOLUTION MIGHT BE, BUT THEY

SAID AND REITERATED THAT THEY THOUGHT THE MILITARY CRISIS OF PAST WEEK WAS ABOUT OVER.

4. IN COMMENTING ON THIS ISSUE, CHEEK RECOGNIZED IMPORTANCE OF ARMED FORCES TO MAINTENANCE OF PEACE AND STABILITY IN EL SALVADOR AND TERMED ARMED FORCES UNITY ESSENTIAL TO SURVIVAL OF COUUNTRY. HE SAID THAT KEY QUESTION WAS DEGREE OF ESSENTIALITY OF COL GARCIA TO EFFECTIVENESS OF ARMED FORCES. IF NOT ESSENTIAL, HE MIGHT WELL BE ASKED TO STEP ASIDE IN INTERESTS OF NATIONAL UNITY AND PEACE. BUT IF HE IS DEEMED ESSENTIAL, ESPECIALLY IN LIGHT OF LARGE NUMBER OF OFFICERS ALREADY LOST TO ARMED FORCES, THEN HE SHOULD BE RETAINED. OTHERWISE,

ARMED FORCES MIGHT FIND THEMSELVES "BLED TO DEATH"
BY CONTINUING DEMANDS OF MILITANT LEFT. IN MATTERS
SUCH AS THIS, JUDGMENT OF THE MILITARY SHOULD BE PRIMARY CONSIDERATION. ANY GOVERNMENT WHICH RESISTS MILITANT LEFTIST VIOLENCE WILL INEVITABLY BE CHARGED WITH REPRESSION, BUT THIS DOES NOT NECESSARILY MEAN THAT IT IS GUILTY OF REPRESSION. THEREFORE GOVERNMENT CANNOT AFFORT TO TAKE SUCH CRITICISM AT FACE VALUE AND REACT
ACCORDINGLY. A BASIC DUTY OF GOVERNMENT IS TO RESIST MILITANT LEFT'S EFFORTS TO DESTROY UNITY AND EFFECTIVE-NESS OF ARMED FORCES.

PAGE 02 SAN SA 00453 02 OF 03 280644Z

5. COL GUTIERREZ REPLIED THAT THERE IS BASIC LACK OF UNDERSTANDING OF ARMED FORCES ON PART OF CIVILIAN POPULACE AND PDC AS A PARTY. ARMED FORCES WILL NOW TRY TO CORRECT THIS. MILITARY MEMBERS OF JRG WILL THIS COMING WEEK COMMENCE SERIES OF VISITS TO MILITARY UNITS -- THEY SUGGESTED THAT PART OF COL GARCIA'S PROBLEM HAD BEEN INATTENTION TO THIS BASIC MILITARY DUTY -- AND PLAN TO TAKE WITH THEM CIVILIAN POLITICAL LEADERS WHO ARE NOW THEIR ALLIES. COL GUTIERREZ CONFIRMED THAT OFFICER

COPRS HAD LOST DANGEROUS PROPORTION OF ITS PROFESSIONAL CAPABILITIES AND COULD NOT AFFORD TO GIVE AWAY TOO MUCH MORE. NOW THAT CRISIS IS ABOUT OVER, HE AND COL MAJANO WILL BE VISITING MILITARY UNITS TO SMOOTH OVER THE DIFFICULTIES WHICH HAVE ARISEN AND PREVENT THEIR RECURRENCE IN FUTURE. AS THEY DO THIS, BUSINESS OF GOVERNMENT WILL BE LEFT CONSIDERABLY MORE IN HANDS OF CIVILIAN ELEMENTS OF JRG.

6. MILITARY RELATIONSHIP WITH CHRISITAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDC): MILITARY JRG MEMBERS SAID THAT THEY ARE GETTING ALONG BETTER WITH THEIR NEW PDC ALLIES. THEY RECOGNIZE POLITICAL TALENTS OF PDC, AND THEY PLAN IN NEAR FUTURE TO WORK WITH THEM TO MOBILIZE SOME MASSIVE DEMONSTRATIONS OF POPULWJR SUPPORT FOR JRG. WHEN DCM HOWARD ASKED IF PDC SEEMED UNITED, OUR MILITARY GUESTS ADMITTED THAT THEY WERE SOME PROBLEMS BETWEEN LEFT AND RIGHT WINGS OF THAT PARTY, PDC HAS DETERIORATED IN RECENT YEARS, PARTLY BECAUSE OF TREATMENT AFFORDED IT BY MOLINA AND ROMERO ADMINISTRATIONS, AND NOW IS DEFINITELY NOT AT ITS BEST. MUCH OF ITS YOUTH MAY HAVE GONE OFF TO THE MILITANT AND EXTREMIST LEFT, A FACT DENIED BY PDC BUT ON WHICH THE REAL RETURNS ARE NOT YET IN. PDC HAS HAD PROBLEM IN FORMING A CABINET AND ONE WHICH IS [redacted]

EMERGING IS NOT AN "ELEGANT" CABINET BUT AT LEAST IT IS MORE HOMOGENEOUS AND WORKABLE ONE THAN ITS PREDECESSOR. PDC IS WORKING HARD TO REACTIVATE SOME OF ITS FORMER ADHERENTS AND IS ASSISTED IN THIS BY ITS POSITION IN GOVERNMENT.

7. MILITARY ASSISTANCE PROGRAM: WHEN ASKED ABOUT THIS, COLS GUTIERREZ AND MAJANO RESPONDED IN A WAY WHICH SHOWED THAT THEY HAD ALREADY BEEN APPROACHED BY CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS ON BASIS OF OUR LAST NIGHT'S CONVERSATION (REFTEL. THEY MENTIONED DESIRABILITY OF A MULTILATERAL COVER AND DUARTE'S READINESS TO BEGIN LINING THIS UP IN VENEZUELA IN IMMEDIATE FUTURE. THEY AND WE AGREED THAT IT COULD BE HELPFUL IF CONCEPT OF SECURITY ASSISTANCE COULD APPEAR TO EMERGE FROM A MULTILATERAL CONSIDERATION OF PROBLEM, WITH OUR PROGRAM OF MATERIAL AND TRAINING FOLLOWING ALONG AS SOMETHING OF AN APPARENT OUTGROWTH OF THAT. AT SAME TIME, OTHER NATIONS COULD ASSIST, EACH IN ITS OWN WAY. I MENTIONED THAT GERMAN AMBASSADOR HAD RECENTLY DISCUSSED SOMETHING OF THIS WITH ME AND POSSIBILITY THAT HE WOULD BE RECOMMENDING ASSISTANCE IN TERMS OF POLICE TRAINING. JRG MEMBERS SAID THEY THOUGHT AFFIRMATIVE RESPONSE ON OUR PROGRAM OF SECURITY ASSISTANCE WOULD BE FORTHCOMING IN NEAR FUTURE, BUT ADDED THAT THEY WOULD BE DOING SOME EDUCATIONAL WORK THEREON WITH PDC COLLEAGUES. COL MAJANO

REITERATED GREAT NEED FOR ASSISTANCE IN SETTING UP INTELLIGENCE SYSTEM. BOTH HE AND COL GUTIERREZ EXPRESSED CONTINUING CONCERN OVER INFILTRATION OF HOSTILE ARMS AND PERSONNEL FROM ABROAD. DAS CHEEK MENTIONED IMPORTANCE OF HONDURAN BORDER AS AREA OF INFILTRATION. COL GUTIERREZ REPLIED THAT THERE ARE ALP REPORTS OF RIGHTIST FORCES FORMING UP IN GUATEMALA FOR ACTION IN EL SALVADOR. SANDOVAL ALARCON AND HIS FOLLOWERS, HE SAID, PREFER TO FIGHT COMMUNISM HERE RATHER THAN IN GUATEMALA. MAJANO MENTIONED AGAIN INTEREST IN INTELLIGENCE AND

WE ASSURED HIM THIS WOULD BE A PART OF OUR TRAINING EFFORT.

8. ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE PROGRAM: BOTH COLONELS EXPRESSED GREAT APPREHENSION OVER DTERIORATION OF EL SALVADOR'S ECONOMY. THEY ASKED IF USG COULD HELP ARREST FLIGHT OF CAPITAL FROM THIS COUNTRY. WE RESPONDED THAT ONLY SENSE OF SECURITY, CLIMATE OF CONFIDENCE, AND SOME ASSURANCE FOR INTEGRITY OF INVESTED CAPITAL WOULD BE PERSUASIVE WITH INVESTING COMMUNITY. WE REITERATED READINESS OF OUR ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE PACKAGE, AND URGED THEM AGAIN TO APPROACH OTHER LENDING COUNTRIES AND MULTILATERAL LENDING INSTITUTIONS SO AS TO ACHIEVE CONCERTED IMPACT. BUSINESSMEN ARE GUIDED BY FACTS, BUT IF THEY SEE IMPROVED STABILITY, THOSE WHO HAVE LEFT THE COUNTRY MAY WELL COME BACKJHZ
C9. SECURITY PROBLEM: OUR VISITORS STATED THAT EXTREMIST LEFT IS ABSOLUTELY INTRANSIGENT AND WANTS ONLY DESTRUCTION OF PRESENH GOVERNMENT AND FORM OF SOCIETY. GOVERNMENT, IN DEALING WITH THEIR CONSTANT PROVOCATION FACES PROBLEM THAT ANY RESULTING VIOLENCE ONLY BRINGS RENEWED CHARGES OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATION. WE URGED UPON JRG MEMBERS NEED FOR BETTER PRESENTATION OF THEIR SIDE OF CASE SO THAT COUNTERING AND CORRECTION OF ILLEGAL

ACTIONS BY EXTREMIST LEFT ARE NOT AUTOMATICALLY MADE TO APPEAR AS "REPRESSION". THEY SAID THAT THEY WOULD BE WORKING WITH CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS IN DEVISING BETTER WAYS AND MEANS OF HANDLING SECURITY PROBLEM RELATED TO PERIOD OF VIOLENCE AND TURBULENCE WHICH THEY SEE LOOMING AHEAD. AS PART OF THIS, THEY HAVE NOW FORMED WORKING COMMITTEE OF MINISTRIES OF AGRICULTURE, DEFENSE, INTERIOR AND LABOR TO STUDY BEST WAY OF REACTING TO EACH PROVOCATION. IN FUTURE, THE WILL EXPAND THIS GROUP TO INCLUDE ALSO ECONOMY, FOREIGN REALTIONS, AND PLANNING. ALL OF THIS TO BE PRESIDED OVER BY JRG AND TO BECOME EQUIVALENT TO OUR NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL.
[redacted]

THEY ASKED FOR UNDERSTANDING AND SUPPORT, POINTING OUT THAT WHEN SOVIETS OR CUBANS PLAY A ROLE THEY GO ALL OUT TO INSURE SUCCESS. COL GUTIERREZ AND COL MAJANO ASKED US TO BEAR IN MIND WHAT IS AT STAKE HERE IN TERMS OF PEACE AND STABILITY THROUGHOUT ALL OF CENTRAL AMERICA.
DAS CHEEK AGAIN SUGGESTED RESORT TO OTHER FRIENDLY COUNTRIES AS WELL, STATING THAT ALL ARE CONCERNED ABOUT THE COURSE OF EVENTS IN EL SALVADOR.

[redacted] UNCLASSIFIED

10. PUBLIC RELATIONS: COL GUTIERREZ SAID THAT AMONG JUNTA'S PROBLEMS IS GREAT WEAKNESS IN TERMS OF COMMUNICATION AND INTERNATIONAL IMAGE. MEDIA IN GENERAL BUY THE EXTREME LEFT POINT OF VIEW AND ATTACK THE JUNTA. MEXICAN MEDIA ARE PARTICULARLY BAD IN THIS RESPECT. JUNTA BELIEVES THAT SOVIET EMBASSIES IN SAN JOSE AND MEXICO CITY ARE BEHIND THIS CAMPAIGN. DAS CHEEK RESPONDED THAT SOVIETS AND CUBANS ARE IN SOMEWHAT BAD ODOR THEMSELVES AT MOMENT BECAUSE OF RECENT AGGRESSION, ALSO THAT SENTIMENT IN U.S. HAS HARDENED IN RECENT WEEKS BECAUSE OF AFGHANISTAN, ETC. WE ALL AGREED THAT IT IS IMPORTANT FOR JUNTA TO TELL ITS OWN STORY IN A CONVINCING WAY. IN THIS CONTEXT, WE URGED CONTINUED AND STRENGTHENED CONTACT WITH ARCHBISHOP ROMERO AND THE CHURCH.

11. VISIT BY ASSISTANT SECRETARY BOWDLER: IN POINTING OUT THAT ASSISTANT SECRETARY BOWDLER WOULD PROABLY ARRIVE IN SAN SALVADOR, AS PART OF A CENTRAL AMERICAN VISIT, ON WEDNESDAY, JAN 23, DAS CHEEK EXPRESSED INTEREST IN ARRANGING A SERIES OF HIGHLY MEANINGFUL VISITS DURING ASSISTANT SECRETARY'S BRIEF STAY HERE. OUR GUESTS AGREED THAT THE PREVIOUSLY PROPOSED DATE OF JAN 22 WOULD HAVE BEEN INAPPROPRIATE FOR THE VISIT, VOICED HOPEFUL OPTIMISM THAT JAN 22 DEMONSTRATIONS WOULD

COME OFF PEACEFULLY, AND IN THAT EVENT WELCOMED THE PROSPECT OF AMBASSADOR BOWDLER'S VISIT THE FOLLOWING DAY. THEY AGREED THAT FULL JUNTA WOULD RECEIVE HIM AND THAT IT WOULD ALSO BE APPROPRIATE FOR HIM TO MEET WITH A BROAD SPECTRUM OF OTHER NATIONAL LEADERS. DAS OCHEEK SUGGESTED THAT F MILITARY CRISIS WERE RESOLVED;
IF CABINET WERE ROUNDED OUT BY THEN, IF AMBASSADOR BOWDLER WERE TO VISIT HERE WITH APPROPRIATE PUBLIC STATEMENTS AND MEETINGS, AND IF ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE TEAM WERE TO COME IN MORE OR LESS SIMULTANEOUSLY, ALL OF THIS WOULD CONTRIBUTE TO DOMESTIC AND INTERNATIONAL IMAGE OF AN EL SALVADOR WITH A FUNCTIONING GOVERNMENT GOING RESOLUTELY ABOUT ITS BUSINESS.

12. CONCLUSION: IN THIS TWO-HOUR CONVERSATION, WE SAW NO REAL SIGN OF ANY SPLIT BETWEEN COL GUTIERREZ AND COL MAJANO, FOUND THEM UNDERSTANDABLY CONCERNED ABOUT PROBLEMS OF THE MOMENT, AND HEARD THEM VOICE DETERMINATION TO PUSH AHEAD ON ALL FRONTS IN AN EFFORT TO HAVE JRG SUCCEED. THEY SMILINGLY RECALLED EARLIER PREDICTIONS THAT FIRST JRG WOULD NOT LAST BEYOND CHRISTMAS AND SAID THAT MANY ARE TODAY PREDICTING THAT PRESENT JRG WILL NEVER MAKE IT TO EASTER. IT WAS APPARENT FROM THEIR PRESENTATION THAT THEY WILL TRY TO DISPROVE THIS THESIS AND THAT THEY ARE BY NOW COGNIZANT OF AND COUNTING HEAVILY

SUBJECT: REPORT FOR PERIOD JANUARY 17-23, 1980

-- DAVID DEAN'S TAIPEI VISIT CAUSED CONSIDERABLE EDITORIAL SPECULATION THAT HIS TRIP WAS PRIMARILY TO "PRESSURE" THE GONT ON THE KAOHSIUNG RIOT.

THE ENGLISH-LANGUAGE CHINA POST REPORTED DEAN "SHUNNED" THE MEDIA AND THAT AIT-TAIPEI OFFICIALS REFUSED TO RELEASE HIS ITINERARY. THE PAPER RAN A 17-AND-A-HALF COLUMN INCH OPEN LETTER JANUARY 19 TO DEAN FROM A "LOCAL CITIZEN" WHO SAID, "WE SUSPECT YOU ARE BRINGING PRESSURE TO BEAR ON OUR GOVERNMENT TO TAKE SOME MEASURES IN ACCORDANCE WITH YOUR EXPECTATIONS." THE LETTER WRITER WARNED THAT THIS WOULD AROUSE PUBLIC INDIGNATION, AND ASSERTED THE RIOTERS WERE TRYING TO PREPARE FOR A COMMUNIST TAKEOVER.

DEAN'S MEETING AT AIT WITH 18 RELATIVES OF PERSONS

ARRESTED FOR RIOTING OR RELATED CAUSES OCCASIONED ESPECIALLY STRONG COMMENTS. THE NEW LIFE DAILY SAID THE 18 PERSONS "OBVIOUSLY MADE APPEALS TO FOREIGNERS." THE UNITED DAILY NEWS CARRIED A READER'S LETTER STATING TAIWAN WAS "HUMILIATED" BECAUSE THE GROUP "DISCLOSED THEIR GRIEVANCES TO A FOREIGNER" AND CALLED DEAN'S RECEPTION OF THEM "MEDDLING IN TAIWAN'S INTERNAL AFFAIRS."

PAPERS QUOTED THE AIT SPOKESMAN AS EXPLAINING DEAN "HAD NO REASON TO REFUSE" SEEING THE 18 RELATIVES. DEAN'S MEETING WITH LEADING PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OFFICIALS ON JANUARY 19 WAS NOTED, BUT GENERALLY DOWN PLAYED BY THE PRESS.

THE MIN SHENG DAILY NEWS SAID TAIWAN WILL HANDLE THE KAOHSIUNG RIOT CASE ACCORDING TO LEGAL PROCEDURES AND THAT NO U.S. CONCERN OR UNDERSTANDING IS NECESSARY.

PAPER REPORTED THAT DR. HSIEH HSIU-HSIUNG, A PRESBYTERIAN CLERGYMAN WHO HAD BEEN SOUGHT FOR QUESTIONING TURNED HIMSELF IN, BUT WAS LATER RELEASED ON BAIL AFTER INTERROGATION.

THE CENTRAL DAILY NEWS NOTED THAT HSIEH, 40, HAS A DOCTORATE OF THEOLOGY FROM EDINBURGH UNIVERSITY. THAT PAPER ALSO QUOTED THE TAIWAN GARRISON COMMAND AS CONFIRMING THAT EIGHT ECCLESIASTICS ARE AMONG 66 PERSONS ARRESTED IN CONNECTION WITH THE RIOT.

THE CHINA TIMES NOTED THAT HSIEH TAUGHT AT THE TAINAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY AND THAT TWO OF HIS GRADUATE STUDENTS WERE ARRESTED EARLIER ON KAOHSIUNG RIOT CHARGES.

-- CONSIDERABLE LOCAL AND FOREIGN REACTION TO PRESIDENT CARTER'S BID FOR BOYCOTTING OR MOVING THE OLYMPICS WAS EVIDENT IN ALL PAPERS.

LORD KILLANIN'S CLAIM THAT THE PROPOSAL WOULD HURT THE OLYMPICS MORE THAN THE SOVIETS RECEIVED FRONT PAGE TREATMENT. THE UNITED DAILY NEWS POINTED OUT KILLANIN PERMITTED POLITICS TO INTERFERE WITH TAIWAN'S OLYMPIC STATUS AND THUS GUILTY OF EMPLOYING A DOUBLE STANDARD.

THE CHINA POST NOTED U.S. OLYMPIC COMMITTEE PRESIDENT ROBERT KANE'S COMMENT THAT THE BOYCOTT WAS A "MOST INAPPROPRIATE TACTIC" AND EDITORIALLY SAID THAT U.S. PRESSURE TO MOVE THE GAMES WOULD BE INEFFECTIVE.

THE CHINA NEWS SAID "HYPOCRISY HAS REACHED THE POINT OF DESTROYING INTERNATIONAL COMPETITION" AND ASKED IF TAIWAN'S ATHLETES, BARRED FROM THE LAST OLYMPIAD, WOULD BE ALLOWED TO COMPETE IN THE NEXT.

-- ALL PAPERS TOOK NOTE OF THE ARRIVAL OF THE U.S. CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION HEADED BY LESTER WOLFF, AND REPORTED THAT HE ATTENDED AN AIT BRIEFING AND MET

PRESIDENT CHIANG CHING-KUO AT A HOSPITAL WHERE HE IS RECOVERING FROM PROSTATE SURGERY. PAPERS DISCLOSED CHIANG ASSURED WOLFF HE WILL CONTINUE TO STRIVE FOR BETTER U.S.-TAIWAN RELATIONS AND INTERNAL STABILITY, PROSPERITY AND DEMOCRACY.

WOLFF'S DELEGATION SCHEDULED MEETINGS WITH U.S. BUSINESS LEADERS AND THE CHINA POLITICAL SCIENCE SOCIETY WERE WIDELY NOTED.

HIS REMARKS ON U.S. RELATIONS WITH THE PRC.

-- THE CHINA POST IN AN EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW REPORTED LEONARD UNGER, MAKING A FOUR-DAY STOPOVER IN TAIPEI, DENIED RUMORS HIS TRIP WAS CONNECTED WITH THE KAOHSIUNG RIOT. UNGER IS REPORTED AS BEING SATISFIED WITH IMPLEMENTATION OF THE TAIWAN RELATIONS ACT, BELIEVING THAT THE U.S. WILL EVENTUALLY PROVIDE ADVANCED WEAPONS FOR DEFENSE TO TAIWAN, AND BEING CONVINCED THE ROC WILL PROPERLY HANDLE THE KAOHSIUNG RIOT AFTERMATH.

-- SENATOR HAYAKAWA IN A TAIPEI PRESS CONFERENCE EXPRESSED PLEASURE THAT "AIT IS BEHAVING MORE LIKE AN EMBASSY THAN A TRADE MISSION," BUT THAT HE IS NOT ENTIRELY SATISFIED WITH THE ORGANIZATION. ACCORDING TO PRESS REPORTS, HE WILL RECOMMEND TO THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE THAT DIRECT CONTACTS BE ESTABLISHED BETWEEN CORRESPONDING OFFICES AND HOST GOVERNMENT OFFICES AND THAT THE U.S. OFFER TAIWAN ADEQUATE WEAPONS FOR DEFENSE.

-- PAPERS PICKED UP A NEW YORK TIMES STORY THAT SOME U.S. CONSULAR OFFICIALS AND FOREIGN NATIONAL EMPLOYEES HAVE ACCEPTED BRIBES FOR ISSUING VISAS. CONSULATES IN HONG KONG, BOMBAY, TEL AVIV, MEXICO CITY AND LISBON WERE LISTED AS EXAMPLES. A STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL WAS QUOTED SAYING FOREIGN NATIONAL EMPLOYEES AT THE HONG KONG CONSULATE HAVE A PARTICULARLY BAD RECORD.

-- A 5,670-TON EAST GERMAN FREIGHTER ARRIVED IN KAOHSIUNG FOR SCRAPPING AND REPORTEDLY IS THE FIRST SHIP FROM EAST EUROPE TO BE SCRAPPED SINCE TAIWAN OPENED TRADE WITH THAT AREA.

-- THE CHINA TIMES SAID THAT AFTER A 26-DAY AIT-SPONSORED INTERNATIONAL VISITOR TOUR OF AMERICA WU CHUNG-LING, KAOHSIUNG CITY ASSEMBLY SPEAKER, DESCRIBED AMERICA TO PRESIDENT CHIANG AS A DRIFTING, ROOTLESS COUNTRY WHERE EDUCATION IS NEGLECTED ALTHOUGH CHINESE STUDENTS ARE BURDENED WITH STUDIES AND THAT THE FLAG AND NATIONAL ANTHEM ARE NOT ESTEEMED. BUT DUE TO THE INFLUENCE OF ORIENTAL CULTURE, AMERICANS ARE TAKING BETTER CARE OF ELDERLY CITIZENS, WU SAID.

EO 12065: RDS-1 1/30/99 (ORTIZ, FRANK) OR-M
TAGS: PEPR GT
SUBJECT: (C) PRESIDENT LUCAS COMMENTS ON THE CURRENT SITUATION

1. (C-ENTIRE TEXT)

2. PRESIDENT LUCAS, IN THE MOST ANIMATED CONVERSATION I HAVE YET HAD WITH HIM, SPOKE OF HIS CONCERNS FOR THE FUTURE. THE PRESIDENT APPEARS TO BE IN AN EMBATTLED FRAME OF MIND. GRAVE EVENTS IN EL SALVADOR, THE CONTINUING SAGA OF THE EXPECTED RESIGNATION OF VICE PRESIDENT VILLAGRAN KRAMER, PUBLIC HUMILIATION AT THE HANDS OF MEXICO, ANNOYANCE OVER THE OBVIOUS INCOMPETENCE OF HIS MINISTERS, AND A SEEMINGLY UNENDING STREAM OF UNFRIENDLY FOREIGN COMMENT ALL SEEM TO HAVE DIMINISHED HIS USUAL PROJECTION OF DETERMINED OPTIMISM.

3. THE PRESIDENT REFERRED TO LETTERS HE WAS RECEIVING FROM ABROAD COMMENTING ON GUATEMALA'S INTERNAL SITUATION. HE SAID NONE OF THOSE WRITING THEM ARE SINCERE IN THEIR EXPRESSIONS OF [redacted]

INTEREST IN GUATEMALA'S WELL-BEING. HE SAID HE WAS COMING TO THE CONCLUSION THAT GUATEMALA HAD ALMOST NO FRIENDS AND THAT SOON GUATEMALA WOULD HAVE TO TAKE UNILATERAL ACTIONS TO ASSURE

ITS OWN SECURITY REGARDLESS OF FOREIGN OPINION. HE WONDERED AS TO THE WISDOM OF BEING PATIENT AND RESPONSIVE TO FOREIGN OPINION. HE BELIEVED GUATEMALA SOON COULD NO LONGER STAND BY WITH FOLDED ARMS WAITING FOR THE RESPONSIBLE COUNTRIES IN THE AREA "TO WAKE UP TO THE REALITIES."

4. I ASKED THE PRESIDENT IF IN THIS LATTER OBSERVATION HE WAS REFERRING TO THE SITUATION IN EL SALVADOR, BELIZE, OR THE INTERNAL SITUATION. HE SAID HE MENAT THE SITUATION GENERALLY, HE REPEATED HIS OFT-STATED VIEW THAT INTERNATIONAL COMMUNISM IS INTERVENING IN CENTRAL AMERICA; THAT THE MAIN OBJECTIVE WAS MEXICO; THAT MEXICO COULD NOT BE EXPECTED TO RESIST ANY REAL PRESSURE, BUT WOULD QUICKLY TEMPORIZE WITH SERIOUS CONSEQUENCES FOR THE US. HE SAID GUATEMALA WAS NOW THE TARGET COUNTRY. "GUATEMALA," HE SAID, "WILL BE THE LAST BATTLE WITH COMMUNISM BEFORE IT REACHES THE VERY BORDERS OF THE US." HE SAID THE GUATEMALAN PEOPLE WERE PREDOMINANTLY ANTI-COMMUNIST. THE US SHOULD HAVE NO DOUBT THAT MANY GUATEMALANS WOULD STAND AND FIGHT. HOWEVER, GUATEMALA'S FRIENDS SEEMED PARALYZED WITH INACTION. THIS WAS DISHEARTENING AND EMBOLDENED OUR COMMON ENEMIES. WHILE ARMS FOR THE MARXISTS WERE FLOWING INTO GUATEMALA, HIS GOVERNMENT HAD TO DEAL WITH UNSAVORY ARMS PEDDLERS (HE MENTIONED A MR MARTENS) WHO OFFER INFERIOR EQUIPMENT AT ENORMOUS PRICES.

5. I DEMURRED WITH THE PRESIDENT'S GENERAL ASSESSMENT, ASSURING HIM THAT GUATEMALA COULD COUNT ON MANY FRIENDS, BUT IT WAS NECESSARY TO BEAR IN MIND THAT IN FACING UP TO SUBVERSION IT WAS OF CRITICAL IMPORTANCE THAT FOREIGN OPINION BE WON OVER. I REMINDED THE PRESIDENT, AS I HAVE MANY TIMES, THAT GUATEMALA MUST

MAKE IT POSSIBLE FOR THOSE WHO SUPPORT THE PRESERVATION OF DEMOCRATIC LIBERTIES, CONSTITUTIONAL ORDER, AND ECONOMIC PROGRESS TO HELP GUATEMALA. THE PRESIDENT REPLIED THAT HE FEARED THAT ANY SUCH SUPPORT WOULD COME TOO LATE TO ASSURE THAT GUATEMALA REMAINED STRONG ENOUGH TO DISCOURAGE OUTSIDE INTERVENTION. I REMINDED HIM OF THE MANY SUPPORTIVE ACTIONS BY THE US IN THE CARIBBEAN AND CENTRAL AMERICA WHICH DEMONSTRATED OUR INTEREST IN AND CONCERN FOR THE COUNTRIES IN THE AREA. HE SEEMED ONLY SLIGHTLY MOLLIFIED.

6. I SUGGESTED TO THE PRESIDENT THAT WE SEEK AN EARLY OPPORTUNITY FOR A MORE LENGTHY DISCUSSION. HE READILY AGREED.

UNCLASSIFIED

7. COMMENT. THE PRESIDENT SEEMS PARTICULARLY TROUBLED BY DEVELOPMENTS IN EL SALVADOR. EVERY WAVE OF REFUGEES BRINGS NEW STORIES CHILLING TO GUATEMALAN EARS. AS COULD BE EXPECTED, THE GUATEMALAN FAR RIGHT IS NOW POINTING TO EL SALVADOR AS AN EXAMPLE OF THE ERROR OF MAKING CONCESSIONS TO LESSEN THE EFFECTIVENESS OF LEFTIST APPEALS. WHILE THUS FAR MOST GUATEMALANS SEEM TO REALIZE THE IMPORTANCE OF STAYING AHEAD OF THE POWER CURVE, THERE IS NO DOUBT THE PRESIDENT IS UNDER HEAVY PRESSURES.

8. ACTION REQUESTED. GIVEN THE CONTEXT OF THE PRESIDENT'S REMARKS, IT APPEARS THAT A FORM OF "SIEGE MENTALITY" SEEMS TO BE GAINING GROUND IN HIS PERCEPTION OF EVENTS. CARRIED TO ILLOGICAL EXTREMES, IT COULD AFFECT IF NOT REVERSE CURRENT GOG POLICIES OF GENERAL NONINTERVENTION IN THE PROBLEMS OF EL SALVADOR; OF RELATIVE FLEXIBILITY REGARDING BELIZE AND OF WHAT HERETOFORE SEEMED TO BE ACCEPTANCE OF THE IMPORTANCE OF IMPROVING THE GOG'S RECORD ON THE OBSERVATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS. THE DEPARTMENT IS REQUESTED TO PROVIDE SPECIFIC POINTS IT CONSIDERS MIGHT MOST USEFULLY BE MADE TO PRESIDENT LUCAS. ORTIZ

TAGS: PINT, PGOV, GT
SUBJECT: (C) VICE PRESIDENT AGAIN DELAYS RESIGNATION

REF: GUATEMALA 0648

1. C - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY. VICE PRESIDENT VILLAGRAN ASKED ME TO SEE HIM EVENING JANUARY 29. AFTER ONE-AND-A-HALF HOURS' EXPLANATION, THE SCENARIO FOR HIS LONG-HERALDED RESIGNATION MORE THAN EVER RESEMBLES THAT OF SARAH BERNHARDT'S CELEBRATED PROLONGED EXIT FROM CENTER STAGE. IN SHORT, HE WILL NOT RESIGN ANYTIME SOON, BUT HIS DEPARTURE WILL BE ATTENDED BY FULL SPOTS AND MUSIC. END SUMMARY.

3. VILLAGRAN BEGAN BY BITTERLY COMPLAINING ABOUT WHAT HE TERMED INCOMPETENCE IN THE HANDLING OF HIS PROPOSED RESIGNATION. HE SAID DESPITE AMPLE WARNING (THIS IS CERTAINLY TRUE), THOSE [redacted]

SUBMITTING HIS RESIGNATION. INSTEAD, HE FORMALLY HAD ASKED THE CONGRESS FOR THE REQUIRED PERMISSION TO ABSENT HIMSELF FROM GUATEMALA FOR ABOUT "A FORTNIGHT." HE EXPECTS TO LEAVE AROUND FEBRUARY 4. I ASKED HIM WHERE HE PLANNED TO GO. HE SAID EITHER COSTA RICA OR MEXICO OR SOMEPLACE NEARBY. (OTHER SPECULATION IS THAT HE MAY HEAD FOR GENEVA AND THE UN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION.) HE SAID DURING HIS ABSENCE PERHAPS THERE COULD BE AN AGREEMENT ON A SUCCESSOR IN WHICH CASE HE WOULD RETURN TO GUATEMALA AND SUBMIT HIS RESIGNATION ABOUT FEBRUARY 23. HOWEVER, IF HE REALLY BECOMES FED UP WITH THE MISHANDLING OF HIS RESIGNATION, HE WOULD SUBMIT IT SOONER, "DESPITE THE CONSE-QUENCES FOR THE COUNTRY."

4. VILLAGRAN TOLD ME HE PLANS TO REMAIN IN GUATEMALA UNTIL SOMETIME IN MAY AT WHICH TIME HE PLANS TO START A LENGTHY AUTOMOBILE TRIP THROUGH CALIFORNIA, THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST AND CANADA ENDING UP IN ALASKA. AFTER CONCLUDING THIS TRIP, HE WAS LOOKING INTO THE POSSIBILITY OF SETTLING ON THE PACIFIC COAST OF THE U.S. "NEAR A GOOD LIBRARY." HE SAID IF THESU.S. VISA PROBLEMS FOR HIM AND HIS WIFE COULD NOT BE WORKED OUT, HE WOULD SETTLE IN MONTREAL. VILLAGRAN IS INDEPENDENTLY WEALTHY SO PRESUMABLY HE CAN SETTLE WHERE HE CHOOSES.

5. VILLAGRAN INTENDS TO KEEP AND USE HIS DIPLOMATIC PASSPORT. HE APPARENTLY HAS NO CONCRETE PLANS OR CONTRACTS ALONG THE ROUTE OF HIS TRAVELS. THERE IS NO PROSPECTIVE EMPLOYMENT EITHER WITH AN INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION OR A UNIVERSITY AS WAS RUMORED.

6. VILLAGRAN LAUNCHED INTO A HIGHLY CRITICAL COMMENTARY ON THE [redacted]

BAD REPORTING BY THE PRESS. HE SAID HE COULD NOT UNDERSTAND WHY THEY KEPT FIXING DATES FOR HIS RESIGNATION. HE SAID HE CONSIDERED THE PRESS TOTALLY IRRESPONSIBLE. AT THIS POINT IN THE CONVERSATION, RECALLING THIS EMBASSY'S TRANSMISSION OF REFTEL THAT SAME AFTERNOON, MY SYMPATHIES TENDED TO BE WITH THE PRESS.

7. VILLAGRAN DISCUSSED THOSE RUMORED AS BEING CONSIDERED TO SUCCEED HIM. HIS MOST NOTABLE COMMENT BEING, "IF THE PRESIDENT DARES TO CHOOSE ANYONE FROM THE LEFT, I WILL DESTROY THAT PERSON. I WILL NOT PERMIT ANYONE FROM THE LEFT TO ACCEPT THE VICE PRESIDENCY."

UNCLASSIFIED

8. COMMENT. VILLAGRAN CLEARLY ENJOYS HIS, TO OTHERS, DISCONCERTING ROLE. ASIDE FROM REVELING IN THE LIMELIGHT, THE PROBABILITY THAT HE HAS NO CONCRETE JOB OFFERS AND HIS UNCERTAINTY AS TO WHAT HIS AND HIS WIFE'S U.S. VISA STATUS MIGHT BE ARE MOST LIKELY THE TRUE EXPLANATION FOR HIS RELUCTANCE TO RESIGN AT THE PREVIOUSLY ANNOUNCED TIME. WE VENTURE TO GUESS THAT THE ISSUE OF HIS RESIGNATION WILL CONTINUE AS AN INCANDESCENT POLITICAL TOPIC FOR YET SOME TIME.

MEMORANDUM OF CONVERSATION

TOPIC: Videla Talks to Newspaper Editors About Goodpaster Visit

PARTICIPANTS: Carlos Fernandez of Somos and Conviccion and John Corr, IO

PLACE: Ligure Restaurant, Buenos Aires

DATE: February 1, 1980

Fernandez, a reliable contact, said:

President Videla, in a meeting Jan. 31 at the Casa Rosada with newspaper executives, said that Argentina had agreed in talks with General Goodpaster to limit its grain sales this year to the Soviet Union. Videla said that although grain sales would be limited, Argentina would in fact sell more grain this year than last year to the Soviet Union because it would maintain its "normal" level of grain trade with the USSR.

Apparently putting the best possible face on whatever grain sales limit had been agreed on with Goodpaster, Videla proudly told the executives that Argentina had never been in a stronger position in its relations with the U.S. He said the U.S., in the Goodpaster talks, has offered many concessions, while Argentina had not had to really concede anything.

COMMENT: Videla's definition of "normal" levels of grain sales to the USSR apparently is connected with the Argentine contention that "normal" grain exports with the USSR means annual increases, as Admiral Castro Madero pointed out before he denied what he indeed appeared to have said in Brazil. An American correspondent here reported that Videla also said to the newspaper executives that Argentina was in the position of being "arbiter" between the two superpowers. Another Argentine source said Videla also gave the executives an account of Gen. Goodpaster's sympathy for some of the problems involved in fighting the dirty war here as the result of his experiences in Vietnam. This account was mentioned in weekend political columns. On Monday, a Clarin article mentioned the possibility of Argentina asking the USSR to limit its grain purchases from Argentina. The reporter who wrote the article, Oscar Cardoso of Clarin, said a Foreign Ministry source had given him this information and had also told him the request to limit grain purchases would be made the week of February 11 by the Argentine Embassy in Moscow.

SUBJ: RIOT IN SANTIAGO PRISON -- POLITICAL CHARGE AND PARTIAL RETREAT

1. SUMMARY: THE GOC SAYS IT HAS "DOCUMENTARY PROOF" THAT PRISON UNREST IS ENCOURAGED BY OPPONENTS OF THE REGIME, BUT THEN BACKPEDALS: THE VICARIATE DENIES CHARGES, BUT HAS A FEW THOUGHTS ON WHAT OFFICIALS HAD IN MIND. POLITICAL PRISONERS WERE NOT INVOLVED IN THE RECENT RIOT AT THE OVERCROWDED SANTIAGO PRISON. ESTIMATES OF THE TOTAL OF POLITICAL PRISONERS IN CHILE AT THE PRESENT TIME ARE IN THE RANGE 21 TO 34, ABOUT TWO THIRDS HELD IN A SEPARATE BLOCK IN SANTIAGO. END SUMMARY.

2. A RIOT IN THE SANTIAGO PUBLIC JAIL IN DOWNTOWN SANTIAGO THE MORNING OF FEBRUARY 6 LEFT ONE PRISONER DEAD AND DOZENS WOUNDED, INCLUDING FOUR GUARDS AND TWO FIREMEN. THE CAUSE OF THE RIOT, ACCORDING TO OFFICIAL SOURCES, WAS THE DISCOVERY OF TWO ESCAPE TUNNELS DURING THE COURSE OF ROUTINE SWEEPS BY GUARDS. (COMMENT: THE SANTIAGO PUBLIC JAIL HAS SEEN TWO ESCAPES OF A SIMILAR NATURE IN THE LAST EIGHT MONTHS. ONE, IN JUNE OF 1979, INVOLVED SIXTY-ONE PRISONERS, SOME OF WHOM ARE STILL AT LARGE.)

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

3. MINISTER OF JUSTICE MONICA MADARIAGA TOURED THE JAIL SOME HOURS AFTER THE RIOT WAS QUELLED, AFTER WHICH SHE WAS QUOTED BY LOCAL PRESS AS CLAIMING THAT THE RIOTS WERE "POLITICAL RIOTS, PREPARED FROM OUTSIDE THE COUNTRY.... WE HAVE IN OUR POSSESSION A SERIES OF MAPS AND PLANS SENT FROM OVERSEAS" ALLEGEDLY SHOWING PRISONERS HOW TO PLAN ESCAPES AND OTHERWISE CONDUCT THEMSELVES WITH A VIEW TO

EMBARRASSING THE GOC. SHE FURTHER WAS QUOTED THAT THE GOC HAD IDENTIFIED AN INDIVIDUAL WORKING FOR AN ORGANIZATION " THAT SAYS IT DEFENDS HUMAN RIGHTS" AS HAVING DELIVERED THE DOCUMENTS TO THE PRISONERS.

4. SUBSEQUENTLY, OFFICIAL COMMENTS HAVE BACKED AWAY FROM MADARIAGA'S STATEMENTS. THE DIRECTOR OF PRISONS. AT A PRESS CONFERENCE ON FEBRUARY 7, SAID THAT THE MINISTER MEANT "OUTSDIE THE WALLS OF THE PRISON" AND NOT OUTSIDE THE COUNTRY WHEN SHE REFERRED TO DOCUMENTS INSTRUCTING PRISONERS IN ESCAPE AND DISTURBANCE TECHNIQUES. HE SAID HE DISCOUNTED "FOR NOW" A POLITICAL MOTIVE FOR THE INCIDENT, BUT ADDED THAT IN GENERAL THERE IS A "SUBVERSIVE CAMPAIGN" AIMED AT CHILE'S PRISONS FROM SOURCESSWITHIN AND WITHOUT CHILE, W TH DOCUMENTS BEING DELIVERED TO PRISONERS BY A HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATION. HE IDENTIFIED THE MESSENGER AS A CHAUFFEUR FOR THE VICARIATE WHO HAD BEEN CAUGHT FIVE MONTS AGO DELIVERING DOCUMENTS TO CELL BLOCK FIVE, WHERE MOST OF THE "SO-CALLLED POLITICAT PRISONERS" ARE KEPT. HE BACKED OFF IMPLICATING THE VICARIATE DIRECTLY, SAYING THAT IT MAY HAVE BEEN AN INDIVIDUAL ACTION ON THE PART OF THE CHAUFFEUR. HE ADDED THAT PROMINENT LOCAL PRESS REPORTS ON THE NEW MEXICO PRISON RITO PROBABLY SERVED AS AN EXAMPLE TO PRISONERS HERE.

5. NEVERTHELESS, AT A PRESS CONFERENCE FEBRUARY 8,

JUSTICE UNDERSECRETARY FRANCISCO FOLCH CONTINUED TO INSIST THAT POLITICAT GROUPS ARE TRYINO TO FOMENT UNREST IN THE JAILS, BUT SAID THE GOVERNMENT WOULD NOTT MAKE ITS EVIDENCE PUBLIC AT THIS TIME. THE SAME DAY, THE VIKCARIATE PUT OUT ITS OWN STATEMENT DENYING THE CHARGES AND INSINUATIONS.

6. CONVERSATIONS WITH VICARIATE OFFICIALS SUGGEST THE GOC MAY HAVE TWO INCIDENTS IN MIND IN MAKING THE POLITICAL ACTION CHARGE. THE VICARIATE DOES MAINTAIN CONTACT WITH "POLITICAL PRISONERS." ON ONE OCCASION A DRIVER WAS DETAINED AND INTERROGATED AND MAGAIZINES, NEWSPAPERS (INCLUDING THE VICARIATE'S OWN PUBLICATION) AND OTHER ITEMS CONFISCATED. AT THE TIME OF THE LAST HUNGER STRIKE OF RELATIVES OF DISAPPEARED PERSONS, THE FATHER OF ONE OF THE PRISONERS WAS RELIEVED OF A TETTER WHICH, INTER ATIA, REPORTEDLY SAID IT WAS NOTT AN APPROPRIATE TIME FOR THE PRISONERS TO UNDERTAKE SOME SORT OF PARALLEL STR KE ACTION. THE VICARIATE DISCLAIMS ANY CONNECTION WITH THAT INCIDENT.

7. COMMENT: THE SANTIAGO JAIL WAS BUILT FOR 600 AND NOW HOLDS 1,860 PERSONS. PRISONERS ARRESTED IN CONNECTION WITH POLITICALLY-RELATED CRIMES ARE USUATLY KEPT SEPARATE IN BLOCK FIVE. THE RIOTING TOOK PLACE IN CETL BLOCKS ELEVEN AND TWELVE CONTAINING COMMON CRIMINATS, SOME OF WHOM WERE INVOLVED IN THE JUNE, 1979, ESCAPE. MADARIAGA'S ATTEMPT TO INJECT POLITICAL FACTORS LOOKS LIKE A RATHER CLUMSY EFFORT TO DIVERT ATTENTION FROM MORE BASIC AND NORMAL (CHILE IS NOTT ALONE) PRISON PROBLEMS.

8. THE VICARIATE CURRENTLY LISTS 34 PERSONS AS POLITICAL PRISONERS. ALL ARE IN JAIL ON SPECIFIC CHARGES OF VIOLATING INTERNAL SECURITY LAWS, OR SERVING SENTENCES. ICEM IS CURRENTLY WORKING W TH A LIST OF 29 POLITICAL PRISONERS, BUT THIS INCTUDES EIGHT PERSONS CONVICTED FOR THE MURDER OF CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC SENATOR PEREZ ZUJOVIC IN 1971. THE VICARIATE DOES NOTT CONSIDER THEM POLITICAL PRISONERS.

2. DURING THE LAST WEEK THE US MISSION AND THE SALVADORAN NATION AS A WHOLE HAVE BEEN INUNDATED WITH RUMORS THAT A RIGHTIST COUP COULD COME AT ANY MOMENT. WE HAVE TAKEN THESE RUMORS SERIOUSLY BECAUSE THERE IS EVERY REASON FOR THE ULTRA-RIGHT TO STRIKE. FROM THEIR VIEWPOINT, THE CURRENT JRG HAS TRANSFORMED ITSELF FROM A JOKE TO A REAL MENACE TO THEIR VITAL INTERESTS. ALTHOUGH THE JRG REMAINS WEAK AND INEFFECTUAL, THE RIGHT IS REALIZING THAT IT HAS THE DETERMINATION AND AUTHORITY TO AT LEAST PROMULGATE AN AGRARIAN REFORM LAW AND MAY DO SO WITHIN THE NEXT WEEK. THE JUNTA MAY NEVER BE ABLE TO IMPLEMENT LAND REFORM BUT THE VERY EXISTENCE OF SUCH A LAW ON THE

BACKED BY THE ARMED REVOLUTIONARY GROUPS, TO TAKE THIS LAW INTO THEIR OWN HANDS. EITHER WAY, POWERFUL RIGHT WING FORCES SEE THEIR INTERESTS AS DOOMED. CONSEQUENTLY, THEY ARE ACTIVELY PLOTTING A COUP AND SOLICITING ACQUIESCENCE IF NOT SUPPORT FROM THE USG ON THE GROUNDS THAT THE PRODUCING CLASSES ARE THE LAST BULWARD AGAINST A COMMUNIST ONSLAUGHT THAT WILL ENGULF ALL OF CENTRAL AMERICA, MEXICO AND FINALLY THE US. EVEN THE RELATIVELY MODERATE MEMBERS OF THE PRIVATE SECTOR WHO ARE PREPARED TO ACCEPT SOME REFORMS ARE BEING FORCED TO MAKE COMMON CAUSE WITH THE EXTREME RIGHT BY THE RAPID ECONOMIC DETERIORATION WHICH CONVINCES THEM THAT TIME IS RUNNING OUT AND SOMETHING DRASTIC MUST BE DONE TO SAVE THE ECONOMY FROM COLLAPSE.

3. WE HAVE NOT ONLY RESPONDED TO THESE APPROACHES BUT HAVE SOUGHT OUT ALL CONCEIVABLE PARTICIPANTS IN A RIGHTIST COUP, PARTICULARLY THE MILITARY, TO: (A) FORCEFULLY REITERATE OUR SUPPORT FOR THE JRG; (B) MAKE CLEAR THAT SUCH A COUP WOULD IGNITE A CIVIL WAR THAT WOULD HAVE DISASTROUS CONSEQUENCES FOR EVERYONE; AND (C) WARN THAT THEY COULD NOT COUNT ON US SUPPORT FOR SUCH AN ADVENTURE.

4. WE ARE SATISFIED THAT THIS MESSAGE HAS BEEN COMMUNICATED. WE HOPE OUR WARNING WILL PROVE AN EFFECTIVE DETERRENT, ESPECIALLY WITH THE MILITARY WHICH COUNTS MOST HEAVILY ON US SUPPORT. OUR CONCERN, HOWEVER, IS THAT THE RIGHT IN THIS COUNTRY MAY BE PERCEIVING US ACTIONS ELSEWHERE AS CONTRARY TO OUR LOCAL MESSAGE. MANY ON THE RIGHT HERE APPEAR TO BE INTERPRETING OUR STAND IN SOUTH ASIA, ESPECIALLY IN

PAKISTAN, AS A SHIFT IN US POLICY AWAY FROM INSISTENCE THAT REGIMES RESPECT HUMAN RIGHTS AND OTHER USG INTERESTS AND TOWARD A LESS DISCRIMINATING STANCE THAT ASKS ONLY THAT REGIMES BE ANTI-COMMUNIST. THEY ALSO SEEM TO BE INTERPRETING STATEMENTS EMANATING FROM WASHINGTON AS A RETURN TO THE 1950S WHEN THE TEST THE US APPLIED TO ITS LATIN AMERICAN ALLIES WAS HOW STRIDENTLY ANTI-SOVIET THEY WERE. AS ONE JUNIOR OLIGARCH (FANATICAL ANTI-COMMUNIST AND LIKELY COUP PLOTTER) TOLD US THIS WEEK, "WE ARE AWARE THAT THE PENDULUM IN THE UNITED STATES IS SWINGING OUR WAY; THE REPUBLICANS BEST EXEMPLIFY THIS SO WE INTEND TO CONTRIBUTE TO THEIR VICTORY." WE UNDERSTAND THAT A GROUP IS ALREADY IN WASHINGTON REPRESENTING THIS POINT OF VIEW AND MORE ARE LIKELY TO FOLLOW.

5. ALL MISSION OFFICERS ARE DOING THEIR BEST TO CONVINCE THE SALVADORAN RIGHT THAT THIS IS A MISTAKEN INTERPRETATION OF CURRENT US ATTITUDES. WE ARE TELLING THEM THAT THE REALITY OF THEIR COUNTRY IS SO THREATENING THAT REPRESSION AND ANTI-COMMUNIST RHETORIC UNACCOMPANIED BY REAL REFORMS WILL NOT HEAD OFF A LEFTIST REVOLUTION. WE KNOW FUNDAMENTAL SOCIAL CHANGE IS NECESSARY HERE AND ARE WILLING TO SUPPORT THE REFORMS. THE QUESTION IS, ARE THE SALVADORAN MILITARY AND CIVILIAN ELITES PREPARED TO MAKE ANY SACRIFICES OF THEIR OWN? A RIGHTEST COUP NOW MEANS THE ANSWER IS NO, AND WITHOUT A FIGHT.

2. THE FOLLOWING IS PROVIDED FOR AMBASSADOR BLOOMFIELD'S USE AT HIS FEBRUARY 26 LUNCH WITH PS SECGEN MARIO SOARES.

3. MANUEL UNGO DID IN FACT HAVE A BROAD RANGE OF CONTACTS IN WASHINGTON (AND PRESUMABLY ALSO NEW YORK.) ASSISTANT SECRETARY BOWDLER HOSTED A DINNER FOR UNGO FEBRUARY 22 THAT WAS ATTENDED BY AMBASSADOR-DESIGNATE WHITE, BOB PASTOR (NSC) AND LUIGI EINAUDI (ARA/PPC) AS WELL AS JORGE SOL CASTELLANOS. UNGO ALSO SAW SENATOR ZORINSKY THAT DAY, AND ON FEBRUARY 25 WILL BE FEATURED GUEST AT WOLA LUNCHEON.

4. UNGO'S PRESENTATION AT BOWDLER DINNER WAS MUCH ALONG LINES REPORTED REF A. DISCARDING BOTH CURRENT JUNTA AND PINOCHET-TYPE ALTERNATIVE AS UNVIABLE, AND STRESSING THAT REFORMS WOULD BE DOOMED WITHOUT POPULAR PARTICIPATION, UNGO ARGUED THAT PARTICIPATION OF AT LEAST SOME OF POPULAR FORCES (WHOM UNGO CLAIMED WERE MORE RADICALIZED IN METHOD THAN IN OBJECTIVES) COULD BE ARRANGED IN A PLURALIST FRAMEWORK IN WHICH BOTH MNR AND PDC COULD PLAY A MAJOR ROLE.

5. WE AGREED THAT ANY REGIME THAT DID NOT UNDERTAKE [redacted]

REFORMS WOULD PROVE UNVIABLE, BUT NOTED THAT WE WERE NOT CONVINCED THAT THE BASIC OCTOBER 15 FORMULA WAS FULLY PLAYED OUT, AND QUESTIONED HIS OMISSION OF THE MILITARY FROM HIS FUTURE CALCULATIONS. UNGO'S RESPONSE WAS ESSENTIALLY THAT HIS EXPERIENCE IN THE OCT. 15 JUNTA HAD CONVINCED HIM NO GOVERNMENT COULD FUNCTION WITHOUT THE LEFT, AND THAT THE MILITARY WAS FOR OTHERS TO WORRY ABOUT.

6. CONVERSATION WAS VERY CORDIAL AND FRANK THROUGHOUT. UNGO SEEMED TO BE HEARING OUR BASIC ARGUMENT THAT EL SALVADOR'S DEMOCRATIC FORCES COULD ILL AFFORD SELF-DESTRUCTIVE INTERNECINE PETTINESS IN THE FACE OF MOUNTING THREAT FROM BOTH REACTIONARY AND COMMUNIST TOTALITARIANS. BUT WHETHER HE HAS THE POLITICAL SAVVY TO CONTRIBUTE EFFECTIVELY REMAINS TO BE SEEN (SEE REF C).

7. IN YOUR CONVERSATION WITH SOARES, YOU MIGHT ALSO REFER TO DEPT PRESS STATEMENT OF FEBRUARY 22 (REF D). KEY POINTS ARE THAT WE "STAND FOR CHANGE IN EL SALVADOR", HAVE LONG SHARED MANY OF THE CONCERNS RAISED BY ARCHBISHOP ROMERO IN HIS LETTER, AFFIRM "UNEQUIVOCALLY" THAT NO PROGRAM UNDER REVIEW INCLUDES "SENDING MILITARY ADVISORS TO EL SALVADOR TO SUPPORT A COUNTERINSURGENCY PROGRAM",AND THAT "WE DO NOT INTEND THAT U.S. ASSISTANCE CONTRIBUTE TO REPRESSION IN EL SALVADOR OR THAT IT BE USED TO FRUSTRATE REFORM." THE STATEMENT INDICATES THAT WE ARE IN FACT CONSIDERING SOME MILITARY TRAINING ASSISTANCE, BUT IT "IS STILL UNDER REVIEW", AND ANY ASSISTANCE WE PROVIDE WILL BE PREMISED ON ITS CONTRIBUTION TO "REFORM, ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT, RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS, AND THE RETURN TO DEMOCRATIC PROCEDURES," WHICH ARE THE BASIC GOALS OF U.S. POLICY IN EL SALVADOR.

8. FOLLOWING UP THAT STATEMENT, AND IN EFFORT TO HEAD OFF RUMORED RIGHT-WING COUP, SENIOR DEPT OFFICIAL BACKGROUNDED WASHINGTON PRESS FEB 23 THAT WE NOT ONLY OPPOSE A RIGHT-WING COUP IN EL SALVADOR BUT WOULD REACT, AS WE DID LAST FALL IN BOLIVIA, BY TERMINATING ALL ASSISTANCE, EXCEPT ECONOMIC AID FOR HUMANITARIAN PURPOSES.

9. WITH REGARD TO SOARES' TRAVEL PLANS, WE ARE DELIGHTED THAT HE WILL VISIT NICARAGUA, THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC AND PERU, ALL OF WHICH ARE KEY TO THE FUTURE OF DEMOCRACY IN THE AREA, AND IN ALL OF WHICH SOARES' PRESENCE CAN CONTRIBUTE SIGNIFICANTLY AS SYMBOL OF INTERNATIONAL SOLIDARITY. PERU'S RETURN TO DEMOCRATIC CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT WHICH THE U.S. STRONGLY SUPPORTS, WILL BE PARTICULARLY SIGNIFICANT. IN NICARAGUA, WE HOPE SOON TO HAVE A POSITIVE VOTE IN THE HOUSE ON THE ADMINISTRATION'S PROPOSAL FOR $75 MILLION IN SUPPLEMENTAL ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE.

10. AS CONCERNS THE SOCIALIST INTERNATIONAL MEETING IN THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC, WE STRONGLY FAVOR ANY RESOLUTION ENDORSING THE NEED FOR CHANGE IN EL SALVADOR, BUT WOULD HOPE THAT IT MIGHT AVOID EXACERBATING RIVALRIES AMONG DEMOCRATIC PARTIES AND FORCES TO THE ULTIMATE ADVANTAGE OF THEIR COMMON ENEMIES.WE BELIEVE THAT THE BITTER CRITICISM OF AND OPPOSITION TO THE JRG THAT CHARACTERIZED EARLIER SOCIALIST INERNATIONAL STATEMENTS WOULD HAVE THOSE RESULTS. SUBJ: (U) D'AUBUISSON ATTACKS PDC AND USG

1. (U) RIGHTIST BROAD NATIONAL FRONT (FAN) AGAIN PRESENTED MAJOR D'AUBUISSON ON ALL TV CHANNELS EL NING MARCH 2 IN BITTER ATTACK AGAINST PDC AND USG. D'AUBUISSON ACCUSED PDC OF INCOMPETENCE WHICH IS LEADING COUNTRY TO DISASTER, AT WHICH POINT PDC WOULD ABANDON SINKING SHIP, LEAVING THE ARMED FORCE TO FACE CONSEQUENCES. BUT BEFORE ABANDONING SHIP, D'AUBUISSON CLAIMED, PDC WOULD WARN ITS "FOREIGN GODFATHERS" SO THAT THEY COULD SEND IN "MARINES AND GREEN BERETS" IN ORDER NOT TO LOSE CONTROL OF OIL RESERVES OF MEXICO AND VENEZUELA AS WELL AS PANAMA CANAL. BUT THIS WOULD ONLY UNNECESSARILY ESCALATE BLOODSHED IN EL SALVADOR, ACCORDING TO D'AUBUISSON.

2. (U) D'AUBUISSON STATED THAT PDC PROPOSED REFORMS AND AGRARIAN REFORM IN PARTICULAR ARE TUNTIC TO GRADUALLY IMPOSE SOCIALIZATION ON COUNTRY. HE SARCASTICALLY ACCUSED PDC OF HYPOCRISY IN ITS ATTACKS AGAINST THE OLIGARHY, CITING FOREIGN MINISTER CHAVEZ' TIES WITH POMA INTERESTS, ABRAM RODRIGUES' (ONE OF PDC FOUNDERS) LINKS WITH SIGMA, AND FRANCISCO DE SOLA'S OWN BUSINESS INTERESTS. HE CATEGORICALLY DENIED ANY RESPONSIBILITY IN ASSASSINATION OF MARIO ZAMORA AND INTIMATED IT MIGHT HAVE BEEN DONE BY PDC ITSELF LOOKING FOR A MARTYR TO HELP ITSELF OUT OF CURRENT DIFFICULTIES.

3. (U) MUCH OF D'AUBUISSON PRESENTATION WAS PITCH TO SALVADORAN MILITARY, WHICH HE CONCLUDED BY CLAIMING FAN WAS PREPARED TO OFFER REFORM PROPOSALS TO MILITARY FOR IMMEDIATE IMPLEMENTATION.

4. (C) COMMENT: D'AUBUISSON'S BLEND OF INVECTIVE AND HATE COUPLED WITH "REVELATIONS" OF COMMUNIST INFILTRATION PLAYS UPON THE FEARS OF SUBSTANTIAL SEGMENT OF MIDDLE CLASS THAT ACCEPT HIS CHARGES UNQUESTIONINGLY. HIS APPEAL IS POTENTIALLY DANGEROUS FOR STABILITY OF COUNTRY. FONMINISTER TOLD US TODAY HE IS VERY CONCERNED BY D'AUBUISSON'S HATE PROPAGANDA AND JRG IS GOING TO HAVE TO TAKE ACTION TO SHUT OFF RIGHT AND LEFT WING FIREBRANDS MEDIA ACCESS.

The REPUBLIC OF CHILE et al., Defendants.

Civ. A. No. 78-1477.

United States District Court, District of Columbia.

March 11, 1980.

Survivors of an assassinated Chilean dissident leader sued the Republic of Chile, alleging that it had directed the assassination. Upon receipt of a note from the Chilean Republic suggesting that the court lacked subject-matter jurisdiction, the District Court, Joyce Hens Green, J., held that neither the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act nor the act of state doctrine would protect a foreign government from civil liability if it ordered an assassination that took place in the United States.

1. Courts ⇐24, 37(2), 39

Subject-matter jurisdiction cannot be conferred upon court by consent of parties involved, whether that consent is by affirmation or acquiescence of defendant, and issue of subject-matter jurisdiction can be raised by courts sua sponte at any time.

2. Federal Courts ⇐30

In action against foreign government, alleging that it had ordered assassination of plaintiffs' decedent in the United States, district court would consider its subject-matter jurisdiction upon receipt of note from foreign government, even though default judgment had already been entered against foreign government.

3. International Law ⇐10.9, 10.33

Neither Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, nor act of state doctrine would shield foreign government from civil liability if it ordered assassination that took place in United States. 28 U.S.C.A. § 1605(a)(5).

Michael E. Tigar, Lynne A. Bernabei, Washington, D. C., for plaintiffs.

MEMORANDUM OPINION

JOYCE HENS GREEN, District Judge.

Presently before the Court is the question of its subject matter jurisdiction to entertain this action against defendant Republic of Chile. Despite the previous entry of a default against that foreign state that plaintiffs argue precludes further judicial scrutiny of this issue, the Court nonetheless is persuaded that the jurisdictional question must now be given careful consideration, and, having examined the relevant congressional enactment, the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976, 28 U.S.C. §§ 1330, 1602-1611 (1976), is convinced that such jurisdiction does indeed exist, entitling plaintiffs to proceed to seek a judgment against the Chilean Republic.

Filed in August 1978 by Isabel, Christian, Jose, Francisco, and Juan Pablo Letelier, and Michael Maggio, respectively the widow, sons, and personal representative of Orlando Letelier, as well as by Michael Moffitt and Murray and Hilda Karpen, respectively the widower-personal representative and parents of Ronni Karpen Moffitt, the complaint herein, as amended, seeks recompense for tortious injuries connected with the deaths of both former Chilean ambassador and foreign minister Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt in the District of Columbia on September 21, 1976, when Letelier's car, in which they were riding to work with Michael Moffitt, was destroyed by an explosive device. Plaintiffs allege that the bomb was constructed, planted, and detonated by defendants Michael Vernon Townley, Alvin Ross Diaz, Virgilio Paz Romero, Jose Dionisio Suarez Esquivel, Guillermo Novo Sampol, and Ignacio Novo Sampol, acting in concert and purportedly at the direction and with the aid of defendants Republic of Chile, its intelligence organ the Centro Nacional de Intelligencia (CNI) (formerly Direccion de Intelligencia Nacional, a/k/a DINA), and supposed CNI–DINA agents and officers Pedro Espinoza Bravo, Juan Manuel Contreras Sepulveda, and Armando Fernandez Larios.[1] In accord with their allegations and acting pursuant to the provisions of the District of Columbia Code governing survival of actions, D.C.Code § 12–101 (1973), and wrongful death, id. § 16–2701 (Supp. V 1978), plaintiffs have set forth the following five causes of action that they contend give rise to civil liability on the part of the defendants:

1) Conspiracy to deprive Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt of their constitutional rights, including equal protection of the law, and freedom of speech, press, association, and petition, in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1985 (1976). Amended Complaint ¶ 7.

2) Assault and battery causing the deaths of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt. Id. ¶ 9.

3) Negligent transportation and detonation of explosives. Id. ¶ 11.

4) Assassination of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt in violation of international law. Id. ¶ 13.

5) Assault upon Orlando Letelier, an internationally protected person pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 112 (1976), that was the proximate result of his death and the death of Ronni Moffitt. Id. ¶ 15.

Following service upon defendants Michael Vernon Townley, Alvin Ross Diaz, Ignacio Novo Sampol, and Guillermo Novo Sampol, and the failure of these defendants to answer, defaults were entered against them in late August 1978. Plaintiffs have been unable to obtain service upon Virgilio Paz Romero and Jose Dionisio Suarez Esquivel. Service was attempted upon Juan Manuel Contreras Sepulveda, Pedro Espinoza Bravo, and Armando Fernandez Larios by registered mail to Chile and the return receipts were filed with the Court in September 1978. Subsequently, in August 1979 service was again attempted upon these three individuals in Chile pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(i) by means of letters of request, signed by the Court, but proof of the completion of such service has not yet been forthcoming.

As to the Republic of Chile and CNI, pursuant to the terms of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976, 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(4), two copies of the summons and amended complaint were dispatched by the Clerk of the Court to the United States Department of State on October 24, 1978. One of these copies, along with an explanatory diplomatic note, was delivered by the State Department to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Chile in Santiago on November 17, 1978. On February 9, 1979, the Clerk of the Court was notified by letter from the Department of State that the Chilean Foreign Affairs Ministry, by a diplomatic note dated January

1. Just one week prior to the institution of this civil proceeding, a criminal action involving the deaths of former Chilean ambassador Letelier and Mrs. Moffitt was commenced in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia with the entry of an indictment naming all the individual defendants in this suit, except Michael Vernon Townley. United States v. Sepulveda, Crim.No. 78–0367 (D.D.C. filed Aug. 1, 1978). Of the eight individuals indicted, only Alvin Ross Diaz, Ignacio Novo Sampol, and Guillermo Novo Sampol, all members of the Cuban National Movement (CNM), were brought to trial. After a lengthy proceeding on charges including conspiracy to murder a foreign official, murder of a foreign official, and first degree murder, all three were convicted and given substantial sentences. Each of them has noted an appeal. United States v. Sampol, No. 79 1541 (D.C.Cir. filed Apr. 2, 1979); United States v. Diaz, No. 79 1542 (D.C.Cir. filed Apr. 2, 1979); United States v. Sampol, No. 79 1808 (D.C.Cir. filed Mar. 23, 1979).

With regard to the remaining defendants, CNM members Virgilio Paz Romero and Jose Dionisio Suarez Esquivel are fugitives sought by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, while the efforts of the United States to extradite Juan Manuel Contreras Sepulveda, Pedro Espinoza Bravo, and Armando Fernandez Larios have, up to this point, been without success. As to Michael Vernon Townley, an American citizen and self-confessed CNI-DINA agent who testified at the criminal trial as a government witness concerning his substantial involvement in the killings, he entered a plea of guilty on August 11, 1978, to a charge of conspiracy to kill a foreign official and is now serving his sentence under the custody of the United States Department of Justice Witness Protection Program.

16, 1979, had requested that the copy of the summons and amended complaint be returned to the Court. In the note, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs made it clear that CNI was not a separate legal entity but only an organ of the Chilean government and that the Republic of Chile would not acquiesce in the jurisdiction of this Court over the subject matter of this suit.

On May 2, 1979, following the plaintiffs' filing that same day of a motion, with supporting memorandum of law, seeking the entry of a default against the Republic of Chile, the Honorable John H. Pratt held a hearing on that request. The next day an order was filed entering a default against the Republic of Chile.

On June 27, 1979, this action, along with other cases, was randomly reassigned to this judge as a new member of the Court. A hearing memorandum on plaintiffs' right to relief against all defendants was filed on August 17, 1979, but on September 4, 1979, prior to the scheduling of a hearing at which the plaintiffs would be allowed to make their required evidentiary showing in order to obtain the entry of a default judgment, 28 U.S.C. § 1608(e) (1976),[2] the Department of State sent to the Clerk of the Court, at the request of the Republic of Chile, a copy of Embassy Note No. 180, dated August 14, 1979, and an accompanying memorandum of law in which the Chilean Republic reiterated its belief that the Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction.

On September 13, 1979, plaintiffs moved, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, to strike the note because it was a pleading not signed by counsel. By order filed October 11, 1979, the Court denied plaintiffs' motion in that the note and the accompanying memorandum were not a "pleading" but instead could be considered a "suggestion" under Rule 12(h)(3) that the Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction. Further, the Court asked plaintiffs to submit a memorandum of law concerning that question as well as the effect of Judge Pratt's entry of a default upon this Court's ability to consider that issue. Such a memorandum has been filed.

[1] Although it is firmly established that subject matter jurisdiction cannot be conferred upon a court by consent of the parties involved, whether that consent is by affirmation or acquiescence of the defendant, and that the issue of subject matter jurisdiction can be raised by the court sua sponte at any time, 1 Moore's Federal Practice ¶ 0.60[4], at 624–28 (2d ed. 1979); 13 C. Wright, A. Miller & E. Cooper, Federal Practice and Procedure § 3522, at 46–48 (1975), plaintiffs nevertheless argue that the entry of a default by Judge Pratt after their submission of a memorandum dealing with subject matter jurisdiction and a hearing at which the issue could have been raised should preclude the Court from further considering the issue. According to plaintiffs, two different considerations require this result. Citing DiFrischia v. New York Central Railroad, 279 F.2d 141 (3d Cir. 1960), they first contend that the Court should not allow the government of Chile to "play fast and loose" with the judicial machinery by allowing it to resurrect a question that already has been decided. In addition, they assert that the doctrine of "law of the case" precludes this judge from further consideration of the matter.

[2] In DiFrischia, the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, expressing its unwillingness to allow a party to "play fast and loose with the judicial machinery and deceive the Courts," refused to allow a defendant who had stipulated to the existence of diversity jurisdiction to move two years later to dismiss for want of such jurisdiction. 279 F.2d at 144. fusing to enter a formal appearance through counsel despite the existence of statutory provisions allowing a special appearance, 28 U.S.C. § 1330(e) (1976), or to communicate with the Court other than by diplomatic notes relayed through the State Department, is not in conformance with what would be considered the preferred procedure for raising the jurisdictional question it seeks to have decided, it is clear that the decision of the Third Circuit in DiFrischia, the rationale of which has not been widely followed, see Eisler v. Stritzler, 535 F.2d 148, 151–52 & n. 2 (1st Cir. 1976), is without applicability here since the government of Chile, despite its unorthodox presentation of its views, has maintained consistently that this Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction.

As to the application of the doctrine of "law of the case" in this instance, no less a jurist than Mr. Justice Holmes has stated the rule as being that "[i]n the absence of statute the phrase, 'law of the case,' as applied to the effect of previous orders on the later action of the court rendering them in the same case, merely expresses the practice of courts generally to refuse to reopen what has been decided, not a limit to their power." Messenger v. Anderson, 225 U.S. 436, 444, 32 S.Ct. 739, 740, 56 L.Ed. 1152 (1912), quoted in Van Voorhis v. District of Columbia, 240 F.Supp. 822, 824 (D.D.C. 1965); accord, Naples v. United States, 123 U.S.App.D.C. 292, 293 n. 1, 359 F.2d 276, 277 n. 1 (1966) (per curiam); United States v. Fuller, 277 F.Supp. 97, 99 (D.D.C.1967). While the benefits of adherence to the doctrine of law of the case are obvious, both in terms of judicial economy and as a means of avoiding unnecessary uncertainty for the parties involved, nonetheless the Court finds the existence of special factors here which make it necessary that the issue of subject matter jurisdiction be thoroughly considered by this Court. Although Judge Pratt's entry of a default could be considered an implicit recognition that the courts of the United States do have subject matter jurisdiction over the Republic of Chile in this action, the nature of this litigation, it apparently being the first instance in which redress for tortious injuries such as are alleged here has been sought under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, as well as the potential diplomatic impact of any action by the Court, makes it necessary that the question of jurisdiction be fully and sensitively explored on the record.

Turning then to that task, it is necessary to focus upon the provisions of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, which, like all other statutory enactments regulating the subject matter jurisdiction of the federal district courts, delimits the boundaries within which the jurisdictional power of this Court can be exercised.[3] See, e. g., Owen Equipment & Erection Co. v. Kroger, 437 U.S. 365, 372, 98 S.Ct. 2396, 2402, 57 L.Ed.2d 274 (1978); Aldinger v. Howard, 427 U.S. 1, 15, 96 S.Ct. 2413, 2420, 49 L.Ed.2d 276 (1976). Because of the manner in which the Act is structured, several of its provisions, all found in title 28 of the United States Code, impact upon the question of the Court's jurisdiction. Among those are the following:

§ 1330. Actions against foreign states

(a) The district courts shall have original jurisdiction without regard to amount in controversy of any nonjury civil action against a foreign state . . . as to any claim for relief in personam with respect to which the foreign state is not entitled to immunity either under sections 1605–1607 of this title or under any applicable international agreement.

3. As constitutional authority for the enactment of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, Congress relied on its power to prescribe the jurisdiction of the federal courts, U.S.Const. art. I, § 8, cl. 9; id. art. III, § 1, to define offenses against the "Law of Nations," id. art. I, § 8, cl. 10, to regulate commerce among foreign nations, id. § 8, cl. 3, and "to make all laws which shall be necessary and proper to carry into Execution . . . all . . . Powers vested . . . in the Government of the United States," including the judicial power of the United States over controversies between "a State, or the Citizens thereof, and foreign States," id. § 8, cl. 18; id. art. III, § 2, cl. 1. H.R.Rep.No.94-1487, supra at 12; S.Rep.No. 94-1310, supra at 12. The Republic of Chile has not challenged either the authority of Congress to pass legislation governing grants of sovereign immunity or its authority to enact any of the specific provisions of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act.

§ 1602. Findings and declaration of purpose

The Congress finds that the determination by United States courts of the claims of foreign states to immunity from the jurisdiction of such courts would serve the interests of justice and would protect the rights of both foreign states and litigants in United States courts. Under international law, states are not immune from the jurisdiction of foreign courts insofar as their commercial activities are concerned, and their commercial property may be levied upon for the satisfaction of judgments rendered against them in connection with their commercial activities. Claims of foreign states to immunity should henceforth be decided by courts of the United States and of the States in conformity with the principles set forth in this chapter.

§ 1604. Immunity of a foreign state from jurisdiction

Subject to existing international agreements to which the United States is a party at the time of enactment of this Act a foreign state shall be immune from the jurisdiction of the courts of the United States and of the States except as provided in sections 1605 to 1607 of this chapter.

§ 1605. General exceptions to the jurisdictional immunity of a foreign state

(a) A foreign state shall not be immune from the jurisdiction of courts of the United States or of the States in any case—

* * * * * *

(5) not otherwise encompassed in paragraph (2) above [(which denies immunity for a foreign state's commercial activities)] in which money damages are sought against a foreign state for personal injury or death, or damage to or loss of property, occurring in the United States and caused by the tortious act or omission of that foreign state or of any official or employee of that foreign state while acting within the scope of his office or employment; except this paragraph shall not apply to—

(A) any claim based upon the exercise or performance or the failure to exercise or perform a discretionary function regardless of whether the discretion be abused, or

(B) any claim arising out of malicious prosecution, abuse of process, libel, slander, misrepresentation, deceit, or interference with contract rights.

28 U.S.C. §§ 1330(a), 1602, 1604, 1605(a)(5) (1976). As a reading of these sections reveals, the Act very broadly confers original jurisdiction upon federal district courts to hear any nonjury civil action against a foreign state, thereby encompassing the action plaintiffs now seek to prosecute against the Republic of Chile. The matter does not end there, however, for this jurisdictional grant is qualified in that it has been made subject to any proper interposition of the defense of sovereign immunity, a defense upon which the defendant places its greatest reliance.[4]

4. In addressing the question of the procedure for raising the defense of sovereign immunity, both the House and Senate committee reports concerning the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976 state that "sovereign immunity is an affirmative defense which must be specially pleaded." H.R.Rep.No.94-1487, supra at 17; S.Rep.No.94-1310, supra at 17. In this instance the Republic of Chile, while not having entered a formal appearance through counsel or having filed a responsive pleading through an accredited representative, has had the Department of State transmit to the Court a diplomatic note from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and a note from the Embassy of Chile in which the issues of the Court's jurisdiction and Chile's sovereign immunity have been discussed. The extent to which the affirmative defense of sovereign immunity can be raised by way of such a procedure rather than by a formal appearance or the filing of a pleading is one that the Court need not answer definitively, see generally, however, Ex parte Muir, 254 U.S. 522, 532–33 (1921); Puente v. Spanish Nat. State, 116 F.2d 43, 44 (2d Cir. 1940), cert. denied, 314 U.S. 627, 62 S.Ct. 57, 86 L.Ed. 504 (1941); 2A Moore's Federal Practice ¶ 8.28, at 8-270 to 275 (2d ed. 1979) (affirmative defense can be raised by motion to dismiss or motion for summary judgment); Restatement (Second) of Foreign Rela-

As a doctrine of international law requiring that, under the proper circumstances, a domestic court will relinquish jurisdiction over a foreign state, sovereign immunity first was recognized in American law in the early nineteenth century by Chief Justice Marshall in The Schooner Exchange v. M'Faddon, 11 U.S. (7 Cranch) 116, 3 L.Ed. 287 (1812), in which a foreign entity's plea of immunity, as supported by the executive branch, was found to be valid as within the general law and practice of nations. By this century, however, the judicial reliance upon general principles of international law to decide questions involving sovereign immunity began to give way to a deference to the practices and policies of the Department of State, as articulate in the suggestions of immunity presented to the courts by the department. See, e. g., Mexico v. Hoffman, 324 U.S. 30, 35–36, 65 S.Ct. 530, 532–533, 89 L.Ed. 729 (1945); Ex parte Peru, 318 U.S. 578, 587–89, 63 S.Ct. 793, 799, 800, 87 L.Ed. 1014 (1943). As was most fully articulated in 1952 in a letter from Jack Tate, Legal Adviser to the State Department, to the Attorney General, the department's policy was to render a suggestion of immunity only in those restricted instances in which the acts of a friendly foreign state were of a public or sovereign nature (jure imperii) rather than being simply private or commercial (jure gestionis). 26 Dep't State Bull. 984 (1952).

The distinction between a state's public actions and its private or commercial activities was found to be one that often was easier to proclaim than to apply. The determination of the executive about what constituted a public, as opposed to a private or commercial act, frequently was subject to diplomatic rather than strictly legal considerations, thereby resulting in suggestions of immunity that were not in conformity with the policy articulated in the Tate letter. Moreover, even in those instances when executive suggestions were not involved, there was a lack of uniform judicial interpretation.[5]

It is against this background that the Congress considered and enacted the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976.

As is made clear both in the Act and in its legislative history, one of its principal purposes was to reduce the foreign policy implications of sovereign immunity determinations and assure litigants that such crucial decisions are made on purely legal grounds, an aim that was to be accomplished by transferring responsibility for such a decision from the executive branch to the judiciary. 28 U.S.C. § 1602 (1976); H.R.Rep.No.94–1487, 94th Cong., 2d Sess. 7 (1976), reprinted in [1976] U.S.Code Cong. & Admin.News, p. 6604; S.Rep.No.94 1310, 94th Cong., 2d Sess. 9 (1976). In addition, the Act itself is designed to codify the restrictive principle of sovereign immunity that makes a foreign state amenable to suit for the consequences of its commercial or private, as opposed to public acts. Id.

In considering the related questions of jurisdiction and sovereign immunity under the Act, one court has observed:

> The Act's central feature is its specification of categories of actions for which foreign states are not entitled to claim tions Law of the United States § 71, Comment b (1965), for even assuming it has been pleaded properly, the Court still has subject matter jurisdiction for the reasons discussed infra.

5. The judicial attempt at definition that is perhaps most widely recognized is that of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit in Victory Transport, Inc. v. Comisaria General de Abastecimientos y Transportes, 336 F.2d 354, 360 (2d Cir. 1964), cert. denied, 381 U.S. 934, 85 S.Ct. 1763, 14 L.Ed.2d 698 (1965), in which the court classified public acts as those involving (1) internal administration, such as expulsion of an alien; (2) legislation, such as nationalization; (3) the armed forces; (4) diplomatic activity; and (5) public loans.

For more detailed discussions of the principle of sovereign immunity as it existed prior to the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, see generally Victory Transport, Inc. v. Comisaria General de Abastecimientos y Transportes, supra, 336 F.2d at 357–60; H.R.Rep.No.94-1487, supra at 8–9; S.Rep.No.94-1310, supra at 9–10; Note, Sovereign Immunity in the Supreme Court: Using the Certiorari Process to Avoid Decision-making, 16 Va.J. > the sovereign immunity from American court jurisdiction otherwise granted to such states. These exceptions are contained not in the sections of the Act which describe the grounds on which jurisdiction may be obtained, however, but are phrased as substantive acts for which foreign states may be found liable by American courts. This effects an identity between substance and procedure in the Act which means that a court faced with a claim of immunity from jurisdiction must engage ultimately in a close examination of the underlying cause of action in order to decide whether the plaintiff may obtain jurisdiction over the defendant.

Yessenin-Volpin v. Novosti Press Agency, 443 F.Supp. 849, 851 (S.D.N.Y.1978). In the instant action, relying on section 1605(a)(5) as their basis for combatting any assertion of sovereign immunity, plaintiffs have set forth several tortious causes of action arising under international law, the common law, the Constitution, and legislative enactments, pp. 666–667 supra, all of which are alleged to spring from the deaths of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt. The Republic of Chile, while vigorously contending that it was in no way involved in the events that resulted in the two deaths, further asserts that, even if it were, the Court has no subject matter jurisdiction in that it is entitled to immunity under the Act, which does not cover political assassinations because of their public, governmental character.

[3] As supportive of its conclusion that political, tortious acts of a government are to be excluded, the Republic of Chile makes reference to the reports of the House and the Senate Judiciary Committees with regard to the Act, in which it was stated:

> Section 1605(a)(5) is directed primarily at the problem of traffic accidents but is cast in general terms as applying to all tort actions for money damages. . . .
> . . . . . .
> The purpose of section 1605(a)(5) is to permit the victim of a traffic accident or other noncommercial tort to maintain an action against a foreign state to the extent otherwise provided by law.

H.R.Rep.No.94–1487, supra at 20–21; S.Rep.No.94–1310, supra at 20–21. It is clear from these passages, the Chilean government asserts, that the intent of Congress was to include only private torts like automobile accidents within the exclusion from immunity embodied in section 1605(a)(5).

Prominently absent from defendant's analysis, however, is the initial step in any endeavor at statutory interpretation: a consideration of the words of the statute. See, e. g., Touche Ross & Co. v. Redington, 442 U.S. 560, 568, 99 S.Ct. 2479, 2485, 61 L.Ed.2d 82 (1979); American Trucking Associations v. United States, 195 U.S.App.D.C. 266, 561–62, 602 F.2d 444, 449–50, cert. denied, 444 U.S. 991, 100 S.Ct. 522, 62 L.Ed.2d 420 (1979). Subject to the exclusion of these discretionary acts defined in subsection (A) and the specific causes of action enumerated in subsection (B), neither of which have been invoked by the Republic of Chile, by the plain language of section 1605(a)(5) a foreign state is not entitled to immunity from an action seeking money damages "for personal injury or death . . . caused by the tortious act or omission of that foreign state" or its officials or employees. Nowhere is there an indication that the tortious acts to which the Act makes reference are to only be those formerly classified as "private," thereby engrafting onto the statute, as the Republic of Chile would have the Court do, the requirement that the character of a given tortious act be judicially analyzed to determine whether it was of the type heretofore denoted as jure gestionis or should be classified as jure imperii. Indeed, the other provisions of the Act mandate that the Court not do so, for it is made clear that the Act and the principles it sets forth in its specific provisions are henceforth to govern all claims of sovereign immunity by foreign states. 28 U.S.C. §§ 1602, 1604 (1976).

Although the unambiguous language of the Act makes inquiry almost unnecessary, further examination reveals nothing in its legislative history that contradicts or qualifies its plain meaning. The relative frequency of automobile accidents and their potentially grave financial impact may have placed that problem foremost in the minds of Congress, but the applicability of the Act was not so limited, for the committees made it quite clear that the Act "is cast in general terms as applying to all tort actions for money damages" so as to provide recompense for "the victim of a traffic accident or other noncommercial tort." H.R.Rep.No. 94–1487, supra at 20–21 (emphasis supplied); S.Rep.No.94–1310, supra at 20–21 (same). Further, any notion that the Congress wished the courts to go outside the scheme promulgated by legislative action to determine the extent to which the defense of sovereign immunity could be invoked is foreclosed by the committee reports that not only state that "[t]his bill . . . sets forth the sole and exclusive standard to be used in resolving questions of sovereign immunity raised by foreign states before Federal and State courts in the United States," H.R.Rep.No.94–1487, supra at 12 (emphasis supplied); S.Rep.No.94–1310, supra at 11 (same), but also provide that the burden of proof shall be upon the foreign state to present evidence "that the plaintiff's claim relates to a public act of the foreign state—that is, an act not within the exceptions in section 1605–1607," H.R.Rep. No.94–1487, supra at 17 (emphasis supplied); S.Rep.No.94–1310, supra at 17 (same). Thus, it is apparent that the terms of section 1605(a)(5) set the sole standard under which any claim of sovereign immunity must be examined.[6]

6. The Republic of Chile has cited several cases decided since the passage of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act that it contends establish foreign states under the Act are to be granted immunity for any tortious act committed by a sovereign entity while acting in its public capacity. The Court finds these cases inapposite.

In Carey v. National Oil Corp., 433 F.Supp. 1097, 1102 (S.D.N.Y.1978), aff'd on other grounds, 592 F.2d 673 (2d Cir. 1979) (per curiam), while indicating in what could be classified as dictum that the alleged acts of a foreign state to induce a breach of contract were sovereign and therefore not within the exceptions to immunity in the Act, the court found that at best the supposed actions of the foreign state would state a claim for tortious interference with contract rights, which was exempted specifically by section 1605(a)(5)(B). Likewise in Yessenin-Volpin v. Novosti Press Agency, 443 F.Supp. 849, 855 (S.D.N.Y.1978), the court found it had no jurisdiction to entertain a claim of libel as a noncommercial tort under section 1605(a)(5) because such a cause of action was exempted by the terms of subsection (B). Thus, in each of these instances, the tort action in question was barred not by classification of the actions in question as public or private, but rather because Congress had exempted them from the broad category of noncommercial torts for which a foreign state cannot claim immunity.

Reference is also made by the Chilean Republic to Gittler v. German Information Center, 95 Misc.2d 788, 408 N.Y.S.2d 600 (Sup.Ct. 1978). In that case, suit was brought to recover unpaid compensation and benefits allegedly due an American citizen for his work on documentary films commissioned by an entity of the West German government and designed to foster cultural relations between Germany and the United States. Relying on the decision of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit in Heaney v. Government of Spain, 445 F.2d 501 (2d Cir. 1971), in which the court determined that a government's contract for public relations work designed to discredit another nation was a public or sovereign act entitling it to immunity from any suit for breach of that contract, the New York Supreme Court in Gittler found the agreement in question to be one involving sovereign action of West Germany, thereby precluding any suit to enforce its terms. 408 N.Y.S.2d at 601. Although it is unclear whether the court in Gittler made its finding of immunity pursuant to the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, that Act having become effective after the date of the alleged breach of contract and after suit was filed, nonetheless to the extent that the case can be so read, this Court declines to follow its analysis of the immunity issue. It is made evident both in the Act and in its legislative history that any decision to grant immunity to a foreign state is dependent on the provisions of the Act and thus the case law on the subject of sovereign immunity as it analyzed the distinctions between commercial or private acts and a state's public actions is persuasive only to the extent those interpretations can be deemed to be in conformity with the exceptions to immunity as set forth in the Act. Compare H.R.Rep.No.94–1487, supra at 16 (contract of foreign government to buy provisions or equipment for armed forces or to construct government building is commercial activity under Act) and S.Rep.No.94 1310, supra at 15–16 (same) with Heaney v. Government of Spain, supra, 445 F.2d at 504 (dictum) (foreign

Examining then the specific terms of section 1605(a)(5), despite the Chilean failure to have addressed the issue, the Court is called upon to consider whether either of the exceptions to liability for tortious acts found in section 1605(a)(5) applies in this instance. It is readily apparent, however, that the claims herein did not arise "out of malicious prosecution, abuse of process, libel, slander, misrepresentation, deceit, or interference with contract rights," 28 U.S.C. § 1605(a)(5)(B) (1976), and therefore only the exemption for claims "based upon the exercise or performance or the failure to exercise or perform a discretionary function regardless of whether the discretion be abused," id. § 1605(a)(5)(A), can be applicable.

As its language and the legislative history make apparent, the discretionary act exemption of subsection (A) corresponds to the discretionary act exception found in the Federal Tort Claims Act. H.R.Rep.No.94-1487, supra at 21; S.Rep.No.94-1310, supra at 20. Compare 28 U.S.C. § 1605(a)(5)(A) (1976) with id. § 2680(a). As defined by the United States Supreme Court in interpreting the Federal Tort Claims Act, an act that is discretionary is one in which "there is room for policy judgment and decision." Dalehite v. United States, 346 U.S. 15, 36, 73 S.Ct. 956, 968, 97 L.Ed. 1427 (1953). Applying this definition to the instant action, the question becomes, would the alleged determination of the Chilean Republic to set into motion and assist in the precipitation of those events that culminated in the deaths of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt be of the kind in which there is "room for policy judgment and decision."

While it seems apparent that a decision calculated to result in injury or death to a particular individual or individuals, made for whatever reason, would be one most assuredly involving policy judgment and decision and thus exempt as a discretionary act under section 1605(a)(5)(A), that exception is not applicable to bar this suit. As it has been recognized, there is no discretion to commit, or to have one's officers or agents commit, an illegal act. Cruikshank v. United States, 431 F.Supp. 1355, 1359 (D.Hawaii 1977); see Hatahley v. United States, 351 U.S. 173, 181, 76 S.Ct. 745, 751, 100 L.Ed. 1065 (1956). Whatever policy options may exist for a foreign country, it has no "discretion" to perpetrate conduct designed to result in the assassination of an individual or individuals, action that is clearly contrary to the precepts of humanity as recognized in both national and international law. Accordingly there would be no "discretion" within the meaning of section 1605(a)(5)(A) to order or to aid in an assassination and were it to be demonstrated that a foreign state has undertaken any such act in this country, that foreign state could not be accorded sovereign immunity under subsection (A) for any tort claims resulting from its conduct. As a consequence, the Republic of Chile cannot claim sovereign immunity under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act for its alleged involvement in the deaths of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt.

Finally, the Republic of Chile seeks to invoke the act of state doctrine to excuse itself from the jurisdiction of the Court. As recognized by the Supreme Court in its recent decision in Alfred Dunhill of London, Inc. v. Republic of Cuba, the traditional formulation of this principle provides:

> Every sovereign State is bound to respect the independence of every other sovereign State, and the courts of one country will not sit in judgment on the acts of the government of another done within its own territory. Redress of grievances by reason of such acts must be obtained through the means open to be availed of by sovereign powers as between themselves.

government's contract to purchase bullets or erect fortifications for army is sovereign rather than commercial or private act) and Victory Transport, Inc. v. Comisaria General de Abastecimientos y Transportes, supra, 336 F.2d at 360 (dictum) (purchase of shoes or bullets for army, erection of fortifications, or rental of house for embassy not private acts). See also Broadbent v. Organization of American States, No. 78-1465 (D.C. Cir. Jan. 8, 1980).

While again denying involvement in the deaths at issue here, the Chilean Republic asserts that those acts of which it is accused would be public ventures carried out within Chile itself and therefore entitled to immunity under the act of state doctrine.

Although the acts allegedly undertaken directly by the Republic of Chile to obtain the death of Orlando Letelier may well have been carried out entirely within that country, that circumstance alone will not allow it to absolve itself under the act of state doctrine if the actions of its alleged agents resulted in tortious injury in this country. To hold otherwise would totally emasculate the purpose and effectiveness of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act by permitting a foreign state to reimpose the so recently supplanted framework of sovereign immunity as defined prior to the Act "'through the back door, under the guise of the act of state doctrine.'" Accordingly, the Court having subject matter jurisdiction to entertain this action, a status hearing will be held on March 18, 1980, at 10:00 a. m. at which time argument will be heard on plaintiffs' pending motion to compel defendant Townley to answer interrogatories and a time will be set for a hearing, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1608(e), to establish evidence satisfactory to the Court to permit the entry of a default judgment against the Republic of Chile.

Colonel Charles W. BINNEY, Commander and Secretary of Defense.

Civ. No. B-80-0062.

United States District Court, D. Maryland.

March 11, 1980.

Enlisted member of United States Army since 1974 sought to secure her release from service, through writ of habeas corpus, claiming that she was improperly denied conscientious objector status. The District Court, Blair, J., held that: (1) Army did not deprive petitioner of procedural due process in that it failed to provide her with copy of staff judge advocate's recommendation when it submitted whole record for her review in rebuttal as documented issue presented no new facts or information in support of its recommendation and simply summarized reasons stated elsewhere in the record; and (2) evidence supported Army's decision not to reclassify enlistee as conscientious objector.

ISABEL LETELIER et al., Plaintiffs,

v.

The REPUBLIC OF CHILE et al., Defendants.

Civ. A. No. 78-1477.

United States District Court, District of Columbia.

March 11, 1980.

Survivors of an assassinated Chilean dissident leader sued the Republic of Chile, alleging that it had directed the assassination. Upon receipt of a note from the Chilean Republic suggesting that the court lacked subject-matter jurisdiction, the District Court, Joyce Hens Green, J., held that neither the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act nor the act of state doctrine would protect a foreign government from civil liability if it ordered an assassination that took place in the United States.

1. Courts ⇐24, 37(2), 39

Subject-matter jurisdiction cannot be conferred upon court by consent of parties involved, whether that consent is by affirmation or acquiescence of defendant, and issue of subject-matter jurisdiction can be raised by courts sua sponte at any time.

2. Federal Courts ⇐30

In action against foreign government, alleging that it had ordered assassination of plaintiffs' decedent in the United States, district court would consider its subject-matter jurisdiction upon receipt of note from foreign government, even though default judgment had already been entered against foreign government.

3. International Law ⇐10.9, 10.33

Neither Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, nor act of state doctrine would shield foreign government from civil liability if it ordered assassination that took place in United States. 28 U.S.C.A. § 1605(a)(5).

MEMORANDUM OPINION

JOYCE HENS GREEN, District Judge.

Presently before the Court is the question of its subject matter jurisdiction to entertain this action against defendant Republic of Chile. Despite the previous entry of a default against that foreign state that plaintiffs argue precludes further judicial scrutiny of this issue, the Court nonetheless is persuaded that the jurisdictional question must now be given careful consideration, and, having examined the relevant congressional enactment, the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976, 28 U.S.C. §§ 1330, 1602-1611 (1976), is convinced that such jurisdiction does indeed exist, entitling plaintiffs to proceed to seek a judgment against the Chilean Republic.

Filed in August 1978 by Isabel, Christian, Jose, Francisco, and Juan Pablo Letelier, and Michael Maggio, respectively the widow, sons, and personal representative of Orlando Letelier, as well as by Michael Moffitt and Murray and Hilda Karpen, respectively the widower-personal representative and parents of Ronni Karpen Moffitt, the complaint herein, as amended, seeks recompense for tortious injuries connected with the deaths of both former Chilean ambassador and foreign minister Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt in the District of Columbia on September 21, 1976, when Letelier's car, in which they were riding to work with Michael Moffitt, was destroyed by an explosive device. Plaintiffs allege that the bomb was constructed, planted, and detonated by defendants Michael Vernon Townley, Alvin Ross Diaz, Virgilio Paz Romero, Jose Dionisio Suarez Esquivel, Guillermo Novo Sampol, and Ignacio Novo Sampol, acting in concert and purportedly at the direction and with the aid of defendants Republic of Chile, its intelligence organ the Centro Nacional de Intelligencia (CNI) (formerly Direccion de Intelligencia Nacional, a/k/a DINA), and supposed CNI–DINA agents and officers Pedro Espinoza Bravo, Juan Manuel Contreras Sepulveda, and Armando Fernandez Larios.[1] In accord with their allegations and acting pursuant to the provisions of the District of Columbia Code governing survival of actions, D.C.Code § 12–101 (1973), and wrongful death, id. § 16–2701 (Supp. V 1978), plaintiffs have set forth the following five causes of action that they contend give rise to civil liability on the part of the defendants:

1) Conspiracy to deprive Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt of their constitutional rights, including equal protection of the law, and freedom of speech, press, association, and petition, in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1985 (1976). Amended Complaint ¶ 7.

2) Assault and battery causing the deaths of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt. Id. ¶ 9.

3) Negligent transportation and detonation of explosives. Id. ¶ 11.

4) Assassination of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt in violation of international law. Id. ¶ 13.

5) Assault upon Orlando Letelier, an internationally protected person pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 112 (1976), that was the proximate result of his death and the death of Ronni Moffitt. Id. ¶ 15.

Following service upon defendants Michael Vernon Townley, Alvin Ross Diaz, Ignacio Novo Sampol, and Guillermo Novo Sampol, and the failure of these defendants to answer, defaults were entered against them in late August 1978. Plaintiffs have been unable to obtain service upon Virgilio Paz Romero and Jose Dionisio Suarez Esquivel. Service was attempted upon Juan Manuel Contreras Sepulveda, Pedro Espinoza Bravo, and Armando Fernandez Larios by registered mail to Chile and the return receipts were filed with the Court in September 1978. Subsequently, in August 1979 service was again attempted upon these three individuals in Chile pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(i) by means of letters of request, signed by the Court, but proof of the completion of such service has not yet been forthcoming.

As to the Republic of Chile and CNI, pursuant to the terms of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976, 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(4), two copies of the summons and amended complaint were dispatched by the Clerk of the Court to the United States Department of State on October 24, 1978. One of these copies, along with an explanatory diplomatic note, was delivered by the State Department to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Chile in Santiago on November 17, 1978. On February 9, 1979, the Clerk of the Court was notified by letter from the Department of State that the Chilean Foreign Affairs Ministry, by a diplomatic note dated January

1. Just one week prior to the institution of this civil proceeding, a criminal action involving the deaths of former Chilean ambassador Letelier and Mrs. Moffitt was commenced in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia with the entry of an indictment naming all the individual defendants in this suit, except Michael Vernon Townley. United States v. Sepulveda, Crim.No. 78–0367 (D.D.C. filed Aug. 1, 1978). Of the eight individuals indicted, only Alvin Ross Diaz, Ignacio Novo Sampol, and Guillermo Novo Sampol, all members of the Cuban National Movement (CNM), were brought to trial. After a lengthy proceeding on charges including conspiracy to murder a foreign official, murder of a foreign official, and first degree murder, all three were convicted and given substantial sentences. Each of them has noted an appeal. United States v. Sampol, No. 79 1541 (D.C.Cir. filed Apr. 2, 1979); United States v. Diaz, No. 79 1542 (D.C.Cir. filed Apr. 2, 1979); United States v. Sampol, No. 79 1808 (D.C.Cir. filed Mar. 23, 1979).

With regard to the remaining defendants, CNM members Virgilio Paz Romero and Jose Dionisio Suarez Esquivel are fugitives sought by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, while the efforts of the United States to extradite Juan Manuel Contreras Sepulveda, Pedro Espinoza Bravo, and Armando Fernandez Larios have, up to this point, been without success. As to Michael Vernon Townley, an American citizen and self-confessed CNI–DINA agent who testified at the criminal trial as a government witness concerning his substantial involvement in the killings, he entered a plea of guilty on August 11, 1978, to a charge of conspiracy to kill a foreign official and is now serving his sentence under the custody of the United States Department of Justice Witness Protection Program.

16, 1979, had requested that the copy of the summons and amended complaint be returned to the Court. In the note, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs made it clear that CNI was not a separate legal entity but only an organ of the Chilean government and that the Republic of Chile would not acquiesce in the jurisdiction of this Court over the subject matter of this suit.

On May 2, 1979, following the plaintiffs' filing that same day of a motion, with supporting memorandum of law, seeking the entry of a default against the Republic of Chile, the Honorable John H. Pratt held a hearing on that request. The next day an order was filed entering a default against the Republic of Chile.

On June 27, 1979, this action, along with other cases, was randomly reassigned to this judge as a new member of the Court. A hearing memorandum on plaintiffs' right to relief against all defendants was filed on August 17, 1979, but on September 4, 1979, prior to the scheduling of a hearing at which the plaintiffs would be allowed to make their required evidentiary showing in order to obtain the entry of a default judgment, 28 U.S.C. § 1608(e) (1976),[2] the Department of State sent to the Clerk of the Court, at the request of the Republic of Chile, a copy of Embassy Note No. 180, dated August 14, 1979, and an accompanying memorandum of law in which the Chilean Republic reiterated its belief that the Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction.

On September 13, 1979, plaintiffs moved, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, to strike the note because it was a pleading not signed by counsel. By order filed October 11, 1979, the Court denied plaintiffs' motion in that the note and the accompanying memorandum were not a "pleading" but instead could be considered a "suggestion" under Rule 12(h)(3) that the Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction. Further, the Court asked plaintiffs to submit a memorandum of law concerning that question as well as the effect of Judge Pratt's entry of a default upon this Court's ability to consider that issue. Such a memorandum has been filed.

[1] Although it is firmly established that subject matter jurisdiction cannot be conferred upon a court by consent of the parties involved, whether that consent is by affirmation or acquiescence of the defendant, and that the issue of subject matter jurisdiction can be raised by the court sua sponte at any time, 1 Moore's Federal Practice ¶ 0.60[4], at 624–28 (2d ed. 1979); 13 C. Wright, A. Miller & E. Cooper, Federal Practice and Procedure § 3522, at 46–48 (1975), plaintiffs nevertheless argue that the entry of a default by Judge Pratt after their submission of a memorandum dealing with subject matter jurisdiction and a hearing at which the issue could have been raised should preclude the Court from further considering the issue. According to plaintiffs, two different considerations require this result. Citing DiFrischia v. New York Central Railroad, 279 F.2d 141 (3d Cir. 1960), they first contend that the Court should not allow the government of Chile to "play fast and loose" with the judicial machinery by allowing it to resurrect a question that already has been decided. In addition, they assert that the doctrine of "law of the case" precludes this judge from further consideration of the matter.

[2] In DiFrischia, the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, expressing its unwillingness to allow a party to "play fast and loose with the judicial machinery and deceive the Courts," refused to allow a defendant who had stipulated to the existence of diversity jurisdiction to move two years later to dismiss for want of such jurisdiction. 279 F.2d at 144. Although the Court must concede that the actions of the Chilean government in refusing to enter a formal appearance through counsel despite the existence of statutory provisions allowing a special appearance, 28 U.S.C. § 1330(e) (1976), or to communicate with the Court other than by diplomatic notes relayed through the State Department, is not in conformance with what would be considered the preferred procedure for raising the jurisdictional question it seeks to have decided, it is clear that the decision of the Third Circuit in DiFrischia, the rationale of which has not been widely followed, see Eisler v. Stritzler, 535 F.2d 148, 151–52 & n. 2 (1st Cir. 1976), is without applicability here since the government of Chile, despite its unorthodox presentation of its views, has maintained consistently that this Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction.

As to the application of the doctrine of "law of the case" in this instance, no less a jurist than Mr. Justice Holmes has stated the rule as being that "[i]n the absence of statute the phrase, 'law of the case,' as applied to the effect of previous orders on the later action of the court rendering them in the same case, merely expresses the practice of courts generally to refuse to reopen what has been decided, not a limit to their power." Messenger v. Anderson, 225 U.S. 436, 444, 32 S.Ct. 739, 740, 56 L.Ed. 1152 (1912), quoted in Van Voorhis v. District of Columbia, 240 F.Supp. 822, 824 (D.D.C. 1965); accord, Naples v. United States, 123 U.S.App.D.C. 292, 293 n. 1, 359 F.2d 276, 277 n. 1 (1966) (per curiam); United States v. Fuller, 277 F.Supp. 97, 99 (D.D.C.1967). While the benefits of adherence to the doctrine of law of the case are obvious, both in terms of judicial economy and as a means of avoiding unnecessary uncertainty for the parties involved, nonetheless the Court finds the existence of special factors here which make it necessary that the issue of subject matter jurisdiction be thoroughly considered by this Court. Although Judge Pratt's entry of a default could be considered an implicit recognition that the courts of the United States do have subject matter jurisdiction over the Republic of Chile in this action, the nature of this litigation, it apparently being the first instance in which redress for tortious injuries such as are alleged here has been sought under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, as well as the potential diplomatic impact of any action by the Court, makes it necessary that the question of jurisdiction be fully and sensitively explored on the record.

Turning then to that task, it is necessary to focus upon the provisions of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, which, like all other statutory enactments regulating the subject matter jurisdiction of the federal district courts, delimits the boundaries within which the jurisdictional power of this Court can be exercised.[3] See, e. g., Owen Equipment & Erection Co. v. Kroger, 437 U.S. 365, 372, 98 S.Ct. 2396, 2402, 57 L.Ed.2d 274 (1978); Aldinger v. Howard, 427 U.S. 1, 15, 96 S.Ct. 2413, 2420, 49 L.Ed.2d 276 (1976). Because of the manner in which the Act is structured, several of its provisions, all found in title 28 of the United States Code, impact upon the question of the Court's jurisdiction. Among those are the following:

> (a) The district courts shall have original jurisdiction without regard to amount in controversy of any nonjury civil action against a foreign state . . . as to any claim for relief in personam with respect to which the foreign state is not

3. As constitutional authority for the enactment of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, Congress relied on its power to prescribe the jurisdiction of the federal courts, U.S.Const. art. I, § 8, cl. 9; id. art. III, § 1, to define offenses against the "Law of Nations," id. art. I, § 8, cl. 10, to regulate commerce among foreign nations, id. § 8, cl. 3, and "to make all laws which shall be necessary and proper to carry into Execution . . . all . . . Powers vested . . . in the Government of the United States," including the judicial power of the United States over controversies between "a State, or the Citizens thereof, and foreign States," id. § 8, cl. 18; id. art. entitled to immunity either under sections 1605–1607 of this title or under any applicable international agreement.

§ 1602. Findings and declaration of purpose

The Congress finds that the determination by United States courts of the claims of foreign states to immunity from the jurisdiction of such courts would serve the interests of justice and would protect the rights of both foreign states and litigants in United States courts. Under international law, states are not immune from the jurisdiction of foreign courts insofar as their commercial activities are concerned, and their commercial property may be levied upon for the satisfaction of judgments rendered against them in connection with their commercial activities. Claims of foreign states to immunity should henceforth be decided by courts of the United States and of the States in conformity with the principles set forth in this chapter.

Subject to existing international agreements to which the United States is a party at the time of enactment of this Act a foreign state shall be immune from the jurisdiction of the courts of the United States and of the States except as provided in sections 1605 to 1607 of this chapter.

(a) A foreign state shall not be immune from the jurisdiction of courts of the United States or of the States in any case—

* * * * * *

(5) not otherwise encompassed in paragraph (2) above [(which denies immunity for a foreign state's commercial activities)] in which money damages are sought against a foreign state for personal injury or death, or damage to or loss of property, occurring in the United States and caused by the tortious act or omission of that foreign state or of any official or employee of that foreign state while acting within the scope of his office or employment; except this paragraph shall not apply to—

(A) any claim based upon the exercise or performance or the failure to exercise or perform a discretionary function regardless of whether the discretion be abused, or

(B) any claim arising out of malicious prosecution, abuse of process, libel, slander, misrepresentation, deceit, or interference with contract rights.

28 U.S.C. §§ 1330(a), 1602, 1604, 1605(a)(5) (1976). As a reading of these sections reveals, the Act very broadly confers original jurisdiction upon federal district courts to hear any nonjury civil action against a foreign state, thereby encompassing the action plaintiffs now seek to prosecute against the Republic of Chile. The matter does not end there, however, for this jurisdictional grant is qualified in that it has been made subject to any proper interposition of the defense of sovereign immunity, a defense upon which the defendant places its greatest reliance.[4]

4. In addressing the question of the procedure for raising the defense of sovereign immunity, both the House and Senate committee reports concerning the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976 state that "sovereign immunity is an affirmative defense which must be specially pleaded." H.R.Rep.No.94-1487, supra at 17; S.Rep.No.94-1310, supra at 17. In this instance the Republic of Chile, while not having entered a formal appearance through counsel or having filed a responsive pleading through an accredited representative, has had the Department of State transmit to the Court a diplomatic note from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and a note from the Embassy of Chile in which the issues of the Court's jurisdiction and Chile's sovereign immunity have been discussed. The extent to which the affirmative defense of sovereign immunity can be raised by way of such a procedure rather than by a formal appearance or the filing of a pleading is one that the Court need not answer definitively, see generally, however, Ex parte Muir, 254 U.S. 522, 532–33 (1921); Puente v. Spanish Nat. State, 116 F.2d 43, 44 (2d Cir. 1940), cert. denied, 314 U.S. 627, 62 S.Ct. 57, 86 L.Ed. 504 (1941); 2A Moore's Federal Practice ¶ 8.28, at 8-270 to 275 (2d ed. 1979) (affirmative defense can be raised by motion to dismiss or motion for summary judgment); Restatement (Second) of Foreign Rela-

As a doctrine of international law requiring that, under the proper circumstances, a domestic court will relinquish jurisdiction over a foreign state, sovereign immunity first was recognized in American law in the early nineteenth century by Chief Justice Marshall in The Schooner Exchange v. M'Faddon, 11 U.S. (7 Cranch) 116, 3 L.Ed. 287 (1812), in which a foreign entity's plea of immunity, as supported by the executive branch, was found to be valid as within the general law and practice of nations. By this century, however, the judicial reliance upon general principles of international law to decide questions involving sovereign immunity began to give way to a deference to the practices and policies of the Department of State, as articulate in the suggestions of immunity presented to the courts by the department. See, e. g., Mexico v. Hoffman, 324 U.S. 30, 35–36, 65 S.Ct. 530, 532–533, 89 L.Ed. 729 (1945); Ex parte Peru, 318 U.S. 578, 587–89, 63 S.Ct. 793, 799, 800, 87 L.Ed. 1014 (1943). As was most fully articulated in 1952 in a letter from Jack Tate, Legal Adviser to the State Department, to the Attorney General, the department's policy was to render a suggestion of immunity only in those restricted instances in which the acts of a friendly foreign state were of a public or sovereign nature (jure imperii) rather than being simply private or commercial (jure gestionis). 26 Dep't State Bull. 984 (1952).

The distinction between a state's public actions and its private or commercial activities was found to be one that often was easier to proclaim than to apply. The determination of the executive about what constituted a public, as opposed to a private or commercial act, frequently was subject to diplomatic rather than strictly legal considerations, thereby resulting in suggestions of immunity that were not in conformity with the policy articulated in the Tate letter. Moreover, even in those instances when executive suggestions were not involved, there was a lack of uniform judicial interpretation.[5]

It is against this background that the Congress considered and enacted the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976.

As is made clear both in the Act and in its legislative history, one of its principal purposes was to reduce the foreign policy implications of sovereign immunity determinations and assure litigants that such crucial decisions are made on purely legal grounds, an aim that was to be accomplished by transferring responsibility for such a decision from the executive branch to the judiciary. 28 U.S.C. § 1602 (1976); H.R.Rep.No.94–1487, 94th Cong., 2d Sess. 7 (1976), reprinted in [1976] U.S.Code Cong. & Admin.News, p. 6604; S.Rep.No.94–1310, 94th Cong., 2d Sess. 9 (1976). In addition, the Act itself is designed to codify the restrictive principle of sovereign immunity that makes a foreign state amenable to suit for the consequences of its commercial or private, as opposed to public acts. Id.

In considering the related questions of jurisdiction and sovereign immunity under the Act, one court has observed:

> The Act's central feature is its specification of categories of actions for which foreign states are not entitled to claim

tions Law of the United States § 71, Comment b (1965), for even assuming it has been pleaded properly, the Court still has subject matter jurisdiction for the reasons discussed infra.

5. The judicial attempt at definition that is perhaps most widely recognized is that of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit in Victory Transport, Inc. v. Comisaria General de Abastecimientos y Transportes, 336 F.2d 354, 360 (2d Cir. 1964), cert. denied, 381 U.S. 934, 85 S.Ct. 1763, 14 L.Ed.2d 698 (1965), in which the court classified public acts as those involving (1) internal administration, such as expulsion of an alien; (2) legislation, such as nationalization; (3) the armed forces; (4) diplomatic activity; and (5) public loans.

For more detailed discussions of the principle of sovereign immunity as it existed prior to the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, see generally Victory Transport, Inc. v. Comisaria General de Abastecimientos y Transportes, supra, 336 F.2d at 357–60; H.R.Rep.No.94–1487, supra at 8–9; S.Rep.No.94–1310, supra at 9–10; Note, Sovereign Immunity in the Supreme Court: Using the Certiorari Process to Avoid Decision-making, 16 Va.J. the sovereign immunity from American court jurisdiction otherwise granted to such states. These exceptions are contained not in the sections of the Act which describe the grounds on which jurisdiction may be obtained, however, but are phrased as substantive acts for which foreign states may be found liable by American courts. This effects an identity between substance and procedure in the Act which means that a court faced with a claim of immunity from jurisdiction must engage ultimately in a close examination of the underlying cause of action in order to decide whether the plaintiff may obtain jurisdiction over the defendant.

Yessenin-Volpin v. Novosti Press Agency, 443 F.Supp. 849, 851 (S.D.N.Y.1978). In the instant action, relying on section 1605(a)(5) as their basis for combatting any assertion of sovereign immunity, plaintiffs have set forth several tortious causes of action arising under international law, the common law, the Constitution, and legislative enactments, pp. 666–667 supra, all of which are alleged to spring from the deaths of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt. The Republic of Chile, while vigorously contending that it was in no way involved in the events that resulted in the two deaths, further asserts that, even if it were, the Court has no subject matter jurisdiction in that it is entitled to immunity under the Act, which does not cover political assassinations because of their public, governmental character.

[3] As supportive of its conclusion that political, tortious acts of a government are to be excluded, the Republic of Chile makes reference to the reports of the House and the Senate Judiciary Committees with regard to the Act, in which it was stated:

> Section 1605(a)(5) is directed primarily at the problem of traffic accidents but is cast in general terms as applying to all tort actions for money damages. . . .
> The purpose of section 1605(a)(5) is to permit the victim of a traffic accident or other noncommercial tort to maintain an action against a foreign state to the extent otherwise provided by law.

H.R.Rep.No.94–1487, supra at 20–21; S.Rep.No.94–1310, supra at 20–21. It is clear from these passages, the Chilean government asserts, that the intent of Congress was to include only private torts like automobile accidents within the exclusion from immunity embodied in section 1605(a)(5).

Prominently absent from defendant's analysis, however, is the initial step in any endeavor at statutory interpretation: a consideration of the words of the statute. See, e. g., Touche Ross & Co. v. Redington, 442 U.S. 560, 568, 99 S.Ct. 2479, 2485, 61 L.Ed.2d 82 (1979); American Trucking Associations v. United States, 195 U.S.App.D.C. 266, 561–62, 602 F.2d 444, 449–50, cert. denied, 444 U.S. 991, 100 S.Ct. 522, 62 L.Ed.2d 420 (1979). Subject to the exclusion of these discretionary acts defined in subsection (A) and the specific causes of action enumerated in subsection (B), neither of which have been invoked by the Republic of Chile, by the plain language of section 1605(a)(5) a foreign state is not entitled to immunity from an action seeking money damages "for personal injury or death . . . caused by the tortious act or omission of that foreign state" or its officials or employees. Nowhere is there an indication that the tortious acts to which the Act makes reference are to only be those formerly classified as "private," thereby engrafting onto the statute, as the Republic of Chile would have the Court do, the requirement that the character of a given tortious act be judicially analyzed to determine whether it was of the type heretofore denoted as jure gestionis or should be classified as jure imperii. Indeed, the other provisions of the Act mandate that the Court not do so, for it is made clear that the Act and the principles it sets forth in its specific provisions are henceforth to govern all claims of sovereign immunity by foreign states. 28 U.S.C. §§ 1602, 1604 (1976).

Although the unambiguous language of the Act makes inquiry almost unnecessary,

further examination reveals nothing in its legislative history that contradicts or qualifies its plain meaning. The relative frequency of automobile accidents and their potentially grave financial impact may have placed that problem foremost in the minds of Congress, but the applicability of the Act was not so limited, for the committees made it quite clear that the Act "is cast in general terms as applying to all tort actions for money damages" so as to provide recompense for "the victim of a traffic accident or other noncommercial tort." H.R.Rep.No. 94-1487, supra at 20-21 (emphasis supplied); S.Rep.No.94-1310, supra at 20-21 (same). Further, any notion that the Congress wished the courts to go outside the scheme promulgated by legislative action to determine the extent to which the defense of sovereign immunity could be invoked is foreclosed by the committee reports that not only state that "[t]his bill . . . sets forth the sole and exclusive standard to be used in resolving questions of sovereign immunity raised by foreign states before Federal and State courts in the United States," H.R.Rep.No.94-1487, supra at 12 (emphasis supplied); S.Rep.No.94-1310, supra at 11 (same), but also provide that the burden of proof shall be upon the foreign state to present evidence "that the plaintiff's claim relates to a public act of the foreign state—that is, an act not within the exceptions in section 1605-1607," H.R.Rep. No.94-1487, supra at 17 (emphasis supplied); S.Rep.No.94-1310, supra at 17 (same). Thus, it is apparent that the terms of section 1605(a)(5) set the sole standard under which any claim of sovereign immunity must be examined.[6]

6. The Republic of Chile has cited several cases decided since the passage of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act that it contends establish foreign states under the Act are to be granted immunity for any tortious act committed by a sovereign entity while acting in its public capacity. The Court finds these cases inapposite.

In Carey v. National Oil Corp., 453 F.Supp. 1097, 1102 (S.D.N.Y.1978), aff'd on other grounds, 592 F.2d 673 (2d Cir. 1979) (per curiam), while indicating in what could be classified as dictum that the alleged acts of a foreign state to induce a breach of contract were sovereign and therefore not within the exceptions to immunity in the Act, the court found that at best the supposed actions of the foreign state would state a claim for tortious interference with contract rights, which was exempted specifically by section 1605(a)(5)(B). Likewise in Yessenin-Volpin v. Novosti Press Agency, 443 F.Supp. 849, 855 (S.D.N.Y.1978), the court found it had no jurisdiction to entertain a claim of libel as a noncommercial tort under section 1605(a)(5) because such a cause of action was exempted by the terms of subsection (B). Thus, in each of these instances, the tort action in question was barred not by classification of the actions in question as public or private, but rather because Congress had exempted them from the broad category of noncommercial torts for which a foreign state cannot claim immunity.

Reference is also made by the Chilean Republic to Gittler v. German Information Center, 95 Misc.2d 788, 408 N.Y.S.2d 600 (Sup.Ct. 1978). In that case, suit was brought to recover unpaid compensation and benefits allegedly due an American citizen for his work on documentary films commissioned by an entity of the West German government and designed to foster cultural relations between Germany and the United States. Relying on the decision of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit in Heaney v. Government of Spain, 445 F.2d 501 (2d Cir. 1971), in which the court determined that a government's contract for public relations work designed to discredit another nation was a public or sovereign act entitling it to immunity from any suit for breach of that contract, the New York Supreme Court in Gittler found the agreement in question to be one involving sovereign action of West Germany, thereby precluding any suit to enforce its terms. 408 N.Y.S.2d at 601. Although it is unclear whether the court in Gittler made its finding of immunity pursuant to the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, that Act having become effective after the date of the alleged breach of contract and after suit was filed, nonetheless to the extent that the case can be so read, this Court declines to follow its analysis of the immunity issue. It is made evident both in the Act and in its legislative history that any decision to grant immunity to a foreign state is dependent on the provisions of the Act and thus the case law on the subject of sovereign immunity as it analyzed the distinctions between commercial or private acts and a state's public actions is persuasive only to the extent those interpretations can be deemed to be in conformity with the exceptions to immunity as set forth in the Act. Compare H.R.Rep.No.94-1487, supra at 16 (contract of foreign government to buy provisions or equipment for armed forces or to construct government building is commercial activity under Act) and S.Rep.No.94-1310, supra at 15-16 (same) with Heaney v. Government of Spain, supra, 445 F.2d at 504 (dictum) (foreign

Examining then the specific terms of section 1605(a)(5), despite the Chilean failure to have addressed the issue, the Court is called upon to consider whether either of the exceptions to liability for tortious acts found in section 1605(a)(5) applies in this instance. It is readily apparent, however, that the claims herein did not arise "out of malicious prosecution, abuse of process, libel, slander, misrepresentation, deceit, or interference with contract rights," 28 U.S.C. § 1605(a)(5)(B) (1976), and therefore only the exemption for claims "based upon the exercise or performance or the failure to exercise or perform a discretionary function regardless of whether the discretion be abused," id. § 1605(a)(5)(A), can be applicable.

As its language and the legislative history make apparent, the discretionary act exemption of subsection (A) corresponds to the discretionary act exception found in the Federal Tort Claims Act. H.R.Rep.No.94-1487, supra at 21; S.Rep.No.94-1310, supra at 20. Compare 28 U.S.C. § 1605(a)(5)(A) (1976) with id. § 2680(a). As defined by the United States Supreme Court in interpreting the Federal Tort Claims Act, an act that is discretionary is one in which "there is room for policy judgment and decision." Dalehite v. United States, 346 U.S. 15, 36, 73 S.Ct. 956, 968, 97 L.Ed. 1427 (1953). Applying this definition to the instant action, the question becomes, would the alleged determination of the Chilean Republic to set into motion and assist in the precipitation of those events that culminated in the deaths of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt be of the kind in which there is "room for policy judgment and decision."

While it seems apparent that a decision calculated to result in injury or death to a particular individual or individuals, made for whatever reason, would be one most assuredly involving policy judgment and decision and thus exempt as a discretionary act under section 1605(a)(5)(A), that exception is not applicable to bar this suit. As it has been recognized, there is no discretion to commit, or to have one's officers or agents commit, an illegal act. Cruikshank v. United States, 431 F.Supp. 1355, 1359 (D.Hawaii 1977); see Hatahley v. United States, 351 U.S. 173, 181, 76 S.Ct. 745, 751, 100 L.Ed. 1065 (1956). Whatever policy options may exist for a foreign country, it has no "discretion" to perpetrate conduct designed to result in the assassination of an individual or individuals, action that is clearly contrary to the precepts of humanity as recognized in both national and international law. Accordingly there would be no "discretion" within the meaning of section 1605(a)(5)(A) to order or to aid in an assassination and were it to be demonstrated that a foreign state has undertaken any such act in this country, that foreign state could not be accorded sovereign immunity under subsection (A) for any tort claims resulting from its conduct. As a consequence, the Republic of Chile cannot claim sovereign immunity under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act for its alleged involvement in the deaths of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt.

Finally, the Republic of Chile seeks to invoke the act of state doctrine to excuse itself from the jurisdiction of the Court. As recognized by the Supreme Court in its recent decision in Alfred Dunhill of London, Inc. v. Republic of Cuba, the traditional formulation of this principle provides:

> Every sovereign State is bound to respect the independence of every other sovereign State, and the courts of one country will not sit in judgment on the acts of the government of another done within its own territory. Redress of grievances by reason of such acts must be obtained through the means open to be availed of by sovereign powers as between themselves.

government's contract to purchase bullets or erect fortifications for army is sovereign rather than commercial or private act) and Victory Transport, Inc. v. Comisaria General de Abastecimientos y Transportes, supra, 336 F.2d at 360 (dictum) (purchase of shoes or bullets for army, erection of fortifications, or rental of house for embassy not private acts). 425 U.S. 682, 691 n. 7, 96 S.Ct. 1854, 1859, 48 L.Ed.2d 301 (1976) (quoting Underhill v. Hernandez, 168 U.S. 250, 252, 18 S.Ct. 83, 84, 42 L.Ed. 456 (1897)). While again denying involvement in the deaths at issue here, the Chilean Republic asserts that those acts of which it is accused would be public ventures carried out within Chile itself and therefore entitled to immunity under the act of state doctrine.

Although the acts allegedly undertaken directly by the Republic of Chile to obtain the death of Orlando Letelier may well have been carried out entirely within that country, that circumstance alone will not allow it to absolve itself under the act of state doctrine if the actions of its alleged agents resulted in tortious injury in this country. To hold otherwise would totally emasculate the purpose and effectiveness of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act by permitting a foreign state to reimpose the so recently supplanted framework of sovereign immunity as defined prior to the Act " 'through the back door, under the guise of the act of state doctrine.' " H.R.Rep.No. 94-1487, supra at 20 n. 1 (quoting Amicus Brief of United States at 41, *Alfred Dunhill of London, Inc. v. Accordingly, the Court having subject matter jurisdiction to entertain this action, a status hearing will be held on March 18, 1980, at 10:00 a. m. at which time argument will be heard on plaintiffs' pending motion to compel defendant Townley to answer interrogatories and a time will be set for a hearing, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1608(e), to establish evidence satisfactory to the Court to permit the entry of a default judgment against the Republic of Chile.

In the Matter of the Petition on the Behalf of Carol Ann CYWINSKI for a writ of habeas corpus

v.

Colonel Charles W. BINNEY, Commander and Secretary of Defense.

Civ. No. B-80-0062.

United States District Court, D. Maryland.

March 11, 1980.

Enlisted member of United States Army since 1974 sought to secure her release from service, through writ of habeas corpus, claiming that she was improperly denied conscientious objector status. The District Court, Blair, J., held that: (1) Army did not deprive petitioner of procedural due process in that it failed to provide her with copy of staff judge advocate's recommendation when it submitted whole record for her review in rebuttal as documented issue presented no new facts or information in support of its recommendation and simply summarized reasons stated elsewhere in the record; and (2) evidence supported Army's decision not to reclassify enlistee as conscientious objector.

1. Habeas Corpus ⇐45(3)

District courts of the United States have jurisdiction to entertain petitions for habeas corpus filed by military personnel seeking discharge by reason of conscientious objection.

2. Armed Services ⇐11

Test to determine whether an individual is entitled to conscientious objector status is the same for persons not yet inducted and persons in the military; essential elements are that person must be opposed to war in any form, his or her opposition must be based upon religious training and belief, and his or her objection must be sincere.

AS AN AREA WHERE FORCES AND SUPPLIES ARE ORGANIZED AND PREPARED FOR ACTION. WE HAVE NO REAL EVIDENCE THAT COSTA RICA HAS BEEN SO USED AS REGARDS EL SALVADOR. IT IS CLEAR, HOWEVER, THAT REPRESENTATIVES OF SALVADORAN EXTREMIST GROUPS HAVE BEEN ABLE TO MOVE FREELY IN AND OUT OF COSTA RICA, AND HAVE MET WITH CUBAN PERSONNEL STATIONED IN COSTA RICA.

SUBJECT: LETELIER/MOFFITT CIVIL SUIT

Introduction: Following last week's article in the Washington Post I checked with our usual contacts at the FBI and the Justice Department and obtained the following information.

Letelier/Moffitt Civil Suit: U.S. District Judge Joyce Hens Green has ruled that the GOC can be sued for money damages and Chilean assets in the U.S. could be attached as a result of the assassination of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt. This possibility is somewhat remote. In order to prove the GOC is responsible for the assassination one must have the testimony of Michael Townley. He is a defendant in the civil suit and, as such, is not required to testify against himself. In addition, nearly all the testimony of the FBI agents and Justice Department officials would be regarded as "hearsay." Hearsay is not permissible in a civil suit if it is challenged. Although the GOC has, so far, refused to become involved in the civil suit on the grounds that the D.C. court does not have proper jurisdiction, it might at some point wish to enter the case to challenge the "hearsay."

Theoretical Scenario for Attachment of Chilean Assets: The following is a theoretical scenario for the attachment of Chilean assets in Washington. First, the Judge's decision would have to be affirmed up the ladder of the courts and this would take several years at least. In her ruling, the Judge has overturned a 1976 law which provides immunity to representatives of a sovereign power. She argues that this law was not meant to protect such immune persons if they committed a criminal act such as murder. Second, the evidence would have to be strong, and this would require the testimony of Michael Townley, which is highly unlikely.

Michael Townley. As recently as last week Townley told a Department of Justice official that he would not testify in the civil suit case because he did not want to help the Letelier/IPS group which is the plaintiff. Townley would rather accept a "contempt" charge than testify. In most jurisdictions he would not be subject to a contempt charge for not testifying if he were not "available." It has not been determined whether a refusal to testify is a legitimate rationale for being "unavailable" or not. Although Townley continues to aver his intention to return to Chile when he completes his sentence and to not testify further, it is interesting to note that the GOC did not process the importation of his car and his old "friend" in the Chilean intelligence service refuses to take phone calls from him. Townley has been quite irritated about this. Townley is eligible for parole in the summer of 1981. If he were to receive a "contempt" charge it might delay him another 6-18 months.

REF: BUENOS AIRES 1611 (PARA 9)

1. (U) A BOMB EXPLODED IN FRONT OF THE HOME OF PERONIST LABOR LEADER ROBERTO GARCIA IN THE EARLY HOUS OF MARCH 14. GARCIA, EX-SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE TAXI UNION, IS THE NOMINAL HEAD OF THE UNION BLOC KNOWN AS THE MOVIMIENTO SINDICAL PERONISTA (MSP) AND FORMER VICE PRESIDENT OF THE INTERNATIONAL CONFEDERATION OF FREE TRADE UNIONS (ICFTU). THE BOMB REPORTEDLY DID LITTLE DAMAGE AND NO ONE WAS INJURED. POLICE REPORTEDLY DEACTIVATED ANOTHER BOMB BEFORE IT WENT OFF.

2. (U) FOLLOWING THE BOMB ATTEMPT THE MSP ISSUED A STATEMENT WHICH SAID THAT "FOR FOUR YEARS NOW, THE ARGENTINE LABOR MOVEMENT HAS BEEN SUFFERING A SYSTEMATIC AND CONSTANT AGGRESSION AT ALL LEVELS: INSTITUTIONAL, ORGANIZ AND EVEN PERSONAL, IN PERFECT CORRELATION WITH

SUBJ: CALL BY AMERICAN FRIENDS ON AMBASSADOR

2. EMBASSY REGRETS DELAY IN TRANSMISSION OF REPORT ON AMBASSADOR'S 2880 MEETING MONDAY (MARCH 24) AT EMBASSY WITH AMERICAN FRIENDS GROUP. THEY HAD NOT CONTACTED EMBASSY UNTIL IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING ARCHBISHOP ROMERO'S ASSASSINATION WHEN THEY ASKED TO SEE THE AMBASSADOR IMMEDIATELY. IN ENSUING CRISIS OF ARCHBISHOP'S DEATH REPORTING CABLE WAS DELAYED. DCM SPOKE AT LENGTH WITH ARLEN WILSON BY SECURE PHONE ON WEDNESDAY TO PASS ALONG DETAILS OF SESSION.

3. MEMBERS OF FRIENDS COMMITTEE GROUP DESCRIBED TO AMBASSADOR THEIR CONVERSATION WITH REFUGEES WHO HAVE BEEN ARRIVING IN SAN SALVADOR OVER THE LAST SEVERAL WEEKS AND MANY OF WHOM HAVE BEEN LODGED AT OFFICES OF THE ARCHDIOCESE. FATHER WIPFLER OF NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES IN PARTICULAR RECOUNTED STORIES OF ATROCITIES ATTRIBUTED BY REFUGEES TO ORDEN AND MEMBERS OF SECURITY FORCES. HE SUGGESTED THAT ARCHBISHOP ROMERO'S DEATH HAD BEEN WORK OF SECURITY FORCES AND SAID THERE WAS REALLY NO DISTINCTION BETWEEN THE JRG, THE SECURITY FORCES AND THE ULTRA-RIGHT. MR. QUIGLEY OF THE NATIONAL CATHOLIC CONFERENCE SUPPORTED FATHER WIPFLER IN THIS ASSESSMENT. OTHER MEMBERS OF GROUP WERE ALSO VEHEMENT ON SCOPE AND INTENSITY OF HUMAN RIGHTS' VIOLATIONS IN THE COUNTRY-SIDE WHICH THEY ALSO ATTRIBUTED TO THE SECURITY FORCES.

4. AMBASSADOR DEFENDED THE DECENCY AND GOOD WILL OF THE JRG, DESCRIBED HIS WIFE'S ACTIVITIES ON BEHALF OF THE REFUGEES FROM RURAL VIOLENCE AND REJECTED THE ASSERTION THAT JRG, SECURITY FORCES AND ULTRA-RIGHT ARE IDENTICAL ENTITIES. WE DO NOT KNOW, HE SAID, WHO WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE ARCHBISHOP'S DEATH AND THE AUTHORS MAY NEVER BE FOUND BUT WE KNOW FROM FIRST-HAND REPORTS OF AMERICAN PERSONNEL THAT ARMY GARRISONS AND POLICE WERE STUNNED BY THE NEWS.
WE KNOW THAT THE REFUGEES UNDER THE PROTECTION OF THE ARCHDIOCESE HAVE FLED FROM VILLAGES THAT SECURITY FORCES IDENTIFIED AS "PRO-BPR" OR "PRO-FPL" AND WHERE INNOCENT CIVILIANS WERE ATTACKED AND KILLED ALONG WITH LEFT-WING POLITICAL ACTIVISTS AND ARMED INSURGENTS. WE DEPLORE THESE EXCESSES ON THE PART OF THESECURITY FORCES AND HAVE URGED THE JRG AND THE HIGH COMMAND TO TAKEEVERY STEP TO DISCIPLINE THE TROOPS.

5. THE LEVEL OF POLITICAL VIOLENCE IN THE SALVADORAN COUNTRY-SIDE HAS BEEN HIGH FOR OVER SIX MONTHS. THE KILLING BY BOTH THE EXTREME LEFT AND THE EXTREME RIGHT, AS WELL AS BY SECURITY FORCES EMPLOYING SECLESSIVE BRUTALITY AGAINST ANYBODY SUSPECTED OF COMPLICITY IN REVOLUTIONARY ACTIVITIES, REACHED NEW HIGHS IN THE LAST SEVERAL WEEKS. WE HAVE TOLD JRG AND HIGH COMMAND THAT CONTINUED US MILITARY ASSISTANCE WILL BE ENDANGERED BY OFFICIAL INSPIRED OR TOLERATED VIOLENCE.
WE ARE CERTAIN THE JRG IS TRYING TO BRING VIOLENCE TO AN END BUT THAT SOME ELEMENTS OF THE MILITARY ARE IGNORING THEIR ORDERS. THE REAL PROBLEM OF THE COUNTRY IS NOT THAT THE JRG IS REPRESSIVE BUT THAT IT HAS BEEN UNABLE TO RESTORE ORDER AMIDST INCREDIBLE VIOLENCE FROM BOTH THE LEFT AND THE RIGHT.

6. FRIENDS GROUP MADE CLEAR IN SUBSEQUENT REMARKS THAT THEY WERE SPEAKING EXCLUSIVELY OF RIGHT WING VIOLENCE, OR OPPRESSION, IN WHICH THEY IMPLICATED MILITARY, ULTRA RIGHT AND JUNTA BUT THAT VIOLENCE FROM THE ULTRA LEFT WAS SIMPLY INVISIBLE TO THEM.

7. AT THIS POINT WE DESCRIBED CLOSE LIAISON BETWEEN EMBASSY AND PRIVATE AND GOVERNMENTAL INSTITUTIONS IMPLEMENTING THE LAND REFORM. THEY INFORM US THAT MUCH RURAL VIOLENCE IS ASSOCIATED WITH FAR LEFT EFFORTS TO TERRORIZE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE REPS AND ELECTED MEMBERS OF NEWLY FORMED PEASANT COOPERATIVES WHO ARE TAKING OVER THE GREAT ESTATES. SCA WHILE WE ARE AWARE THAT FAR RIGHT AND SOME ELEMENTS OF THE SECURITY FORCES ARE TAKING PART IN BRUTAL KILLINGS IN THE COUNTRYSIDE, WE ARE ALSO AWARE THAT THE FAR LEFT IS CARRYING ON ITS OWN CAMPAIGN OF MURDER AND INTIMIDATION AND THAT IT IS AIMED INCREASINGLY AT THE OFFICIALS AND ELECTED MANAGERS OF THE NEW COOPERATIVE FARMS. THIS SHOULD BE DENOUNCED TOO AS A DESPERATE EFFORT TO STOP SOCIAL CHANGE IN EL SALVADOR THAT WILL STRIKE HARD AGAINST THE INTERESTS OF MARXIST EXTREMISM. THESE COMMENTS WERE RECEIVED WITH GOOD DISBELIEF.

8. ONLY ONE YOUNG PROGRESSIVE OFFICER, RENE GUERRA Y GUERRA, A KEY FIGURE IN THE OCTOBER 15 COUP, HAS LEFT EL SALVADOR. HE IS REPORTEDLY IN SAN SALVADOR.

2. FY 1980 FIGURES ARE FROM PRESIDENT'S BUDGET WHICH IS NOW BEING CONSIDERED BY CONGRESS. ACTUAL ASSISTANCE WILL OF COURSE DEPEND ON LEVEL OF CONGRESSIONAL APPROPRIATIONS. PRIMARY EMPHASIS IN ALL FOUR COUNTRIES IN BOTH YEARS WILL BE ON NON-LETHAL EQUIPMENT, SUCH AS TRUCKS, AMBULANCES, JEEPS, ROAD-BUILDING (CIVIC ACTION) MACHINERY, RADIOS, FIELD TELEPHONES, AND SPARE PARTS. IN THE CASE OF NICARAGUA AND EL SALVADOR, ALL PRESENTLY PLANNED EQUIPMENT IS NON-LETHAL.

4. EXCEPT FOR PANAMA, FY 1980 FIGURES ALL REFLECT INCREASES FROM AMOUNTS ORIGINALLY SUBMITTED TO CONGRESS IN 1980 BUDGET. CONGRESS MUST BE NOTIFIED OF SUCH REPROGRAMMINGS; THIS HAS BEEN DONE WITH REGARD TO HONDURAS, EL SALVADOR (EXCEPT FOR $50,000 OF THE IMET), AND NICARAGUA (EXCEPT FOR THE PLANNED FMS). IN RESPONSE TO ONE SUCH REPROGRAMMING NOTICE, FOREIGN OPERATIONS SUBCOMMITTEE

OF HOUSE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE HELD HEARINGS MARCH 25 ON SECURITY ASSISTANCE PLANNED FOR EL SALVADOR AND HONDURAS. DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE JOHN A. BUSHNELL AND DAS OF DEFENSE FRANKLIN D. KRAMER WERE PRINCIPAL ADMINISTRATION WITNESSES. EXCERPTS FROM THEIR TESTIMONY FOLLOW.

MENAND MATERIEL TO EL SALVADORAN INSURGENTS. THE

HONDURANS BELIEVE, AND OUR INTELLIGENCE AGREES, THAT THEIR TERRITORY IS BEING USED AS A CONDUIT FOR MEN AND WEAPONS INTO EL SALVADOR BY INSURGENTS WITH CUBAN SUPPORT, AND THEY ARE ALSO CONCERNED THAT SHOULD EL SALVADOR FALL TO THE EXTREMIST LEFT FORCES, HONDURAS WILL BE AMONG THE NEXT PRIMARY TARGETS. UNLIKE EL SALVADOR, HONDURAS IS A SPARSELY SETTLED COUNTRY, PARTICULARLY ALONG THE CARIBBEAN COAST AND ALONG ITS EASTERN BORDER, THE COCO RIVER. INDICATIONS ARE THAT MEN AND MATERIEL TRANSIT HONDURAS AFTER LANDING ON THE NORTH COAST OR COMING DOWN THE COCO RIVER. THERE ARE ALSO REPORTS OF AIRCRAFT LANDINGS AT ISOLATED AND REMOTE HACIENDAS. THE HONDURANS DESIRE TO CUT OFF THIS INFILTRATION THROUGH THEIR COUNTRY AND TO PREVENT THE CREATION OF AN INSURGENCY AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT OF HONDURAS ITSELF. . . . .

IN THE FACE OF THE UPSURGE IN TERRORIST AND CUBAN ACTIVITY IN CENTRAL AMERICA, UNITED STATES SECURITY ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS ARE NOT ONLY ESSENTIAL FOR REFOCUSING AND REFINING HOST COUNTRY CAPABILITIES TO MEET THE CHALLENGES OF INSURGENT WARFARE, BUT ALSO FOR SUSTAINING THE RESOLVE AND CONFIDENCE OF EL SALVADORAN AND HONDURAN ARMED FORCES BY THE VISIBLE U.S. SUPPORT. FAILURE TO DO SO :AY NOT ONLY ALLOW FRIENDS TO FALL TO THE ADVOCATES OF REPRESSION, BUT WILL DAMAGE U.S. INTERNATIONAL CREDI- BILITY AND FURTHER LIMIT THE DEGREE OF INFLUENCE WHICH WE MIGHT DESIRE TO EXERT IN THE REGION IN THE FUTURE.

IN CONCLUSION, I WOULD LIKE TO POINT OUT THAT THESE SECURITY ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS WILL HAVE AN IMPORTANT

RESULT. WE MUST ACT TO ASSIST THE GOVERNMENTS OF EL SALVADOR AND HONDURAS NOW. OUR EFFORTS ARE INTENDED

TO AID THESE COUNTRIES TO PROVIDE THE SECURE ENVIRONMENT WHICH THEY THEMSELVES REQUIRE TO MAKE THE SIGNIFICANT SOCIAL, ECONOMIC, AND POLITICAL DEVELOPMENT THAT THEY AND WE IN THE UNITED STATES BOTH DESIRE SO GREATLY. WE DO NOT SEEK TO SUPPORT REPRESSION, BUT TO ASSIST STRUGGLING REPUBLICS IN THEIR EFFORTS TO HALT RADICAL TYRANNY OF EITHER THE LEFT OR RIGHT. UNQTE

6. EXCERPTS FROM MR. BUSHNELL'S PREPARED STATEMENT:

QTE WE SUBSCRIBE FULLY TO THE DECLARATION ISSUED MARCH 15 BY THE ANDEAN PACT COUNTRIES AND SPAIN, IN WHICH THEY DECLARED THEIR SUPPORT FOR "PEACE, FREEDOM, SOCIAL JUSTICE, AND DEMOCRACY" IN EL SALVADOR.

BELIEVE THAT THE YOUNG OFFICERS OCTOBER 15 PROGRAM AND THE JRG'S MARCH REFORMS OFFER THE BEST CHANCE FOR SOCIAL CHANGE, POLITICAL LIBERALIZATION AND RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS IN EL SALVADOR. BOTH PUBLICLY AND PRIVATELY, WE HAVE VIGOROUSLY STATED OUR SUPPORT FOR THE JRG AND OUR OPPOSITION TO A SUCCESSOR REPRESSIVE OR NON-REFORMIST GOVERNMENT.

IN ADDITION TO COOPERATING WITH DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENTS IN LATIN AMERICA AND EUROPE IN SUPPORT OF THE JRG, WE ARE SEEKING TO SUPPORT THE REFORM PROCESS ITSELF, USING THE TRADITIONAL TOOLS OF AMERICAN DIPLOMACY. BOTH ECONOMIC AND SECURITY ASSISTANCE ARE IMPORTANT IN DEMONSTRATING OUR SUPPORT AND MAKING IT EFFECTIVE. THE BULK OF OUR ASSISTANCE IS ECONOMIC. OVER $50 MILLION IN FY 1980 FUNDS WILL BE USED TO CREATE EMPLOYMENT, ASSIST IN CARRYING OUT THE LAND REFORM PROGRAM, SUPPORT DEVELOPMENT OF SMALL ENTERPRISE, IMPROVE NUTRITION, HEALTH AND FAMILY PLANNING, AND PROVIDE FINANCING GUARAN-TEES FOR CONSTRUCTION OF HOUSING....

BECAUSE OF HUMAN RIGHTS CONDITIONS PRIOR TO OCTOBER 15, 1979, NO SECURITY ASSISTANCE WAS ORIGINALLY PROPOSED FOR EL SALVADOR IN THE FY 1980 BUDGET....

WE NOW PROPOSE TO OFFER THE JRG AN FY 1980 FMS FINANCING AGREEMENT IN THE AMOUNT OF $5.7 MILLION. THE EQUIPMENT THE JRG HAS REQUESTED, AND THAT WE WOULD PROVIDE ONCE THE AGREEMENT HAS BEEN SIGNED, INCLUDES NO WEAPONS AND NO AMMUNITION. OF THE $5.7 MILLION, $4.6 MILLION WILL GO FOR LAND TRANSPORT AND COMMUNICATIONS, TO IMPROVE THE MOBILITY OF THE EL SALVADOR ARMED FORCES AND THEIR ABILITY TO COMMUNICATE AMONG UNITS AND WITH THEIR HEADQUARTERS.
THE ARMED FORCES LAUNCHED THE OCTOBER 15 REVOLUTION.

THEY ARE KEY TO THE IMPLEMENTION OF THE REFORMS AS WELL AS TO THEIR INITIATION. THEY FACE A DISCOURAGING TASK. UNDER PREVIOUS GOVERNMENTS THE POLICE AND SECURITY FORCES WERE RESPONSIBLE FOR SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS AND ARE NOW, UNDERSTANDABLY, VIEWED WITH SUSPICION BY MUCH OF THE POPULATION. THE ARMED FORCES THEMSELVES ARE MANNED LARGELY BY POORLY TRAINED AND EQUIPPED CONSCRIPTS WHO FREQUENTLY LACK ELEMENTARY COMMUNICATIONS AND TRANSPORTATION. YET THE SUCCESS OF THE REFORMS DEPENDS HEAVILY ON THEIR ABILITY TO ENFORCE THE NEW LAWS IN THE COUNTRYSIDE AND SUCCESSFULLY RESIST VIOLENCE

OF THE RADICAL RIGHT AND LEFT GROUPS OPPOSED TO THE REFORMS.

I WOULD LIKE TO STRESS THAT CONTRARY TO A WIDESPREAD MISPERCEPTION, OUR SECURITY ASSISTANCE PROPOSALS ARE
UNCLASSIFIED

NEITHER UNRELATED NOR CONTRADICTORY TO OUR SUPPORT FOR REFORM IN EL SALVADOR. LAND REDISTRIBUTION WOULD NOT BE POSSIBLE WERE IT NOT FOR THE PROTECTION AND SECURITY PROVIDED BY THE SALVADORAN MILITARY FOR THE NEW OWNERS AND THE CIVILIAN TECHNICIANS AND MANAGERS HELPING THEM. THE TRUCKS AND TRAILERS WE PROPOSE TO SELL TO EL SALVADOR WILL HELP ARMY UNITS MOVE THEMSELVES AND THE REFORM OFFICIALS THROUGH THE COUNTRYSIDE THE RADIOS, BATTERIES, AND ANTENNAS WE PROPOSE TO DELIVER WILL ENABLE THESE UNITS TO KEEP IN TOUCH WITH SENIOR OFFICIALS AND TO RECEIVE GUIDANCE IF A SITUATION DEVELOPS WHERE VIOLENCE COULD TAKE PLACE BETWEEN LANDOWNERS AND PEASANTS, OR BETWEEN THE ARMY AND LEFTIST INSURGENTS...

WE WOULD PROMPTLY REASSESS OUR POLICY IF THERE WERE EVIDENCE THAT OUR ASSISTANCE WAS NOT BEING USED TO ENHANCE HUMAN RIGHTS IN EL SALVADOR. AS SECRETARY VANCE STATED IN RESPONSE TO A LETTER FROM ARCHBISHOP ROMERO TO PRESIDENT CARTER, "THE ADVANCEMENT OF HUMAN RIGHTS . . . UNDERLIES EVERY ASPECT OF UNITED STATES POLICY TOWARD EL SALVADOR."

OUR REASONS FOR REPROGRAMMING SECURITY ASSISTANCE FOR HONDURAS ARE SIMILAR AND TO SOME EXTENT RELATED TO THOSE FOR EL SALVADOR. THE CONSTITUTIONAL DEVELOPMENT OF HONDURAS MERITS OUR SUPPORT, NOT LEAST BECAUSE THE VIOLENT CONFRONTATIONS AND DIVISIONS THAT HAVE DEVELOPED IN EL SALVADOR HAVE NOT YET OCCURRED, AND WE HOPE WILL NOT OCCUR, IN HONDURAS.

IN ADDITION, THE GENERAL QUESTION OF SECURE FRONTIERS IS CRITICAL FOR HONDURAS, BORDERING AS IT DOES ON TWO COUNTRIES UNDERGOING RAPID CHANGE. A GREATER SENSE

OF CONFIDENCE IN HONDURAS OF THE GOVERNMENT'S ABILITY
TO CONTROL ITS FRONTIERS IS KEY TO REGIONAL STABILITY.
IT IS IMPORTANT THAT HONDURAS NOT BE USED AS A CONDUIT

FOR THE INFILTRATION OF MEN AND ARMS TO FEED CONFLICTS
IN NEIGHBORING COUNTRIES. HONDURAS MUST ALSO FEEL SECURE IF IT IS TO RESOLVE ITS LONG-STANDING DISPUTE WITH EL SALVADOR.

IN LIGHT OF THESE CONSIDERATIONS, WE PROPOSE TO OFFER
HONDURAS AN FY 80 FMS FINANCING PROGRAM OF $3,530,000....

FUNDS WILL BE USED TO FINANCE TRAINING IN U.S.
MILITARY SCHOOLS IN THE UNITED STATES AND PANAMA AND
BY MOBILE TRAINING TEAMS IN HONDURAS. THEY WILL ACQUAINT
HONDURAN PILOTS WITH THE UH- H AND WILL TRAIN HONDURAN
MECHANICS IN SERVICING IT. WE ARE CURRENTLY PROVIDING
INTERDICTION TRAINING TO THE HONDURAN ARMY AND HAVE UNDER CONSIDERATION SIMILAR TRAINING FOR THE HONDURAN
NAVY.

CENTRAL AMERICA IS IN A CRITICAL PERIOD IN ITS HISTORY.
OUR SUPPORT FOR PEACEFUL CHANGE CAN INCREASE THE LIKELI-HOOD THAT MORE DEMOCRATIC AND EQUITABLE SOCIETIES WILL EVOLVE OUT OF THE PRESENT CRISIS. CONVERSELY, OUR FAILURE TO ASSIST CAN ONLY HELP THE ENEMIES OF DEMOCRACY.

INDICATIONS ARE THAT MEN AND MATERIEL TRANSIT HONDURAS AFTER LANDING ON THE NORTH COAST OR COMING DOWN THE COCO RIVER. THERE ARE ALSO REPORTS OF AIRCRAFT LANDINGS AT ISOLATED AND REMOTE HACIENDAS. THE HONDURANS DESIRE TO CUT OFF THIS INFILTRATION THROUGH THEIR COUNTRY AND TO PREVENT THE CREATION OF AN INSURGENCY AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT OF HONDURAS ITSELF. . . . .

IN THE FACE OF THE UPSURGE IN TERRORIST AND CUBAN ACTIVITY IN CENTRAL AMERICA, UNITED STATES SECURITY ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS ARE NOT ONLY ESSENTIAL FOR REFOCUSING AND REFINING HOST COUNTRY CAPABILITIES TO MEET THE CHALLENGES OF INSURGENT WARFARE, BUT ALSO FOR SUSTAINING THE RESOLVE AND CONFIDENCE OF EL SALVADORAN AND HONDURAN ARMED FORCES BY THE VISIBLE U.S. SUPPORT. FAILURE TO DO SO ;AY NOT ONLY ALLOW FRIENDS TO FALL TO THE ADVOCATES OF REPRESSION, BUT WILL DAMAGE U.S. INTERNATIONAL CREDI-BILITY AND FURTHER LIMIT THE DEGREE OF INFLUENCE WHICH WE MIGHT DESIRE TO EXERT IN THE REGION IN THE FUTURE.

IN CONCLUSION, I WOULD LIKE TO POINT OUT THAT THESE SECURITY ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS WILL HAVE AN IMPORTANT

RESULT. WE MUST ACT TO ASSIST THE GOVERNMENTS OF EL SALVADOR AND HONDURAS NOW. OUR EFFORTS ARE INTENDED

TO AID THESE COUNTRIES TO PROVIDE THE SECURE ENVIRONENT WHICH THEY THEMSELVES REQUIRE TO MAKE THE SIGNIFICANT SOCIAL, ECONOMIC, AND POLITICAL DEVELOPMENT THAT THEY AND WE IN THE UNITED STATES BOTH DESIRE SO GREATLY. WE DO NOT SEEK TO SUPPORT REPRESSION, BUT TO ASSIST STRUGGLING REPUBLICS IN THEIR EFFORTS TO HALT RADICAL TYRANNY OF EITHER THE LEFT OR RIGHT. UNQTE

6. EXCERPTS FROM MR. BUSHNELL'S PREPARED STATEMENT:

QTE WE SUBSCRIBE FULLY TO THE DECLARATION ISSUED MARCH 16 BY THE ANDEAN PACT COUNTRIES AND SPAIN, IN WHICH THEY DECLARED THEIR SUPPORT FOR "PEACE, FREEDOM, SOCIAL JUSTICE, AND DEMOCRACY" IN EL SALVADOR.

BELIEVE THAT THE YOUNG OFFICERS OCTOBER 15 PROGRAM AND THE JRG'S MARCH REFORMS OFFER THE BEST CHANCE FOR SOCIAL CHANGE, POLITICAL LIBERALIZATION AND RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS IN EL SALVADOR. BOTH PUBLICLY AND PRIVATELY, WE HAVE VIGOROUSLY STATED OUR SUPPORT FOR THE JRG AND OUR OPPOSITION TO A SUCCESSOR REPRESSIVE OR NON-REFORMIST GOVERNMENT.

IN ADDITION TO COOPERATING WITH DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENTS IN LATIN AMERICA AND EUROPE IN SUPPORT OF THE JRG, WE ARE SEEKING TO SUPPORT THE REFORM PROCESS ITSELF, USING THE TRADITIONAL TOOLS OF AMERICAN DIPLOMACY. BOTH ECONOMIC AND SECURITY ASSISTANCE ARE IMPORTANT IN DEMONSTRATING OUR SUPPORT AND MAKING IT EFFECTIVE. THE BULK OF OUR ASSISTANCE IS ECONOMIC. OVER $50 MILLION IN FY 1980 FUNDS WILL BE USED TO CREATE EMPLOYMENT, ASSIST IN CARRYING OUT THE LAND REFORM PROGRAM, SUPPORT DEVELOPMENT OF SMALL ENTERPRISE, IMPROVE NUTRITION, HEALTH AND FAMILY PLANNING, AND PROVIDE FINANCING GUARAN-

TEES FOR CONSTRUCTION OF HOUSING....

BECAUSE OF HUMAN RIGHTS CONDITIONS PRIOR TO OCTOBER 15, 1979, NO SECURITY ASSISTANCE WAS ORIGINALLY PROPOSED FOR EL SALVADOR IN THE FY 1980 BUDGET....

WE NOW PROPOSE TO OFFER THE JRG AN FY 1980 FMS FINANCING AGREEMENT IN THE AMOUNT OF $5.7 MILLION. THE EQUIPMENT THE JRG HAS REQUESTED, AND THAT WE WOULD PROVIDE ONCE THE AGREEMENT HAS BEEN SIGNED, INCLUDES NO WEAPONS AND NO AMMUNITION. OF THE $5.7 MILLION, $4.6 MILLION WILL GO FOR LAND TRANSPORT AND COMMUNICATIONS, TO IMPROVE THE MOBILITY OF THE EL SALVADOR ARMED FORCES AND THEIR ABILITY TO COMMUNICATE AMONG UNITS AND WITH THEIR HEADQUARTERS.
THE ARMED FORCES LAUNCHED THE OCTOBER 15 REVOLUTION.

THEY ARE KEY TO THE IMPLEMENTION OF THE REFORMS AS WELL AS TO THEIR INITIATION. THEY FACE A DISCOURAGING
TASK. UNDER PREVIOUS GOVERNMENTS THE POLICE AND SECURITY FORCES WERE RESPONSIBLE FOR SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS
AND ARE NOW, UNDERSTANDABLY, VIEWED WITH SUSPICION
BY MUCH OF THE POPULATION. THE ARMED FORCES THEMSELVES ARE MANNED LARGELY BY POORLY TRAINED AND EQUIPPED CON-SCRIPTS WHO FREQUENTLY LACK ELEMENTARY COMMUNICATIONS AND TRANSPORTATION. YET THE SUCCESS OF THE REFORMS DEPENDS HEAVILY ON THEIR ABILITY TO ENFORCE THE NEW LAWS IN THE COUNTRYSIDE AND SUCCESSFULLY RESIST VIOLENCE

OF THE RADICAL RIGHT AND LEFT GROUPS OPPOSED TO THE

I WOULD LIKE TO STRESS THAT CONTRARY TO A WIDESPREAD MISPERCEPTION, OUR SECURITY ASSISTANCE PROPOSALS ARE

NEITHER UNRELATED NOR CONTRADICTORY TO OUR SUPPORT FOR REFORM IN EL SALVADOR. LAND REDISTRIBUTION WOULD NOT BE POSSIBLE WERE IT NOT FOR THE PROTECTION AND SECURITY PROVIDED BY THE SALVADORAN MILITARY FOR THE NEW OWNERS AND THE CIVILIAN TECHNICIANS AND MANAGERS
HELPING THEM. THE TRUCKS AND TRAILERS WE PROPOSE TO SELL TO EL SALVADOR WILL HELP ARMY UNITS MOVE THEMSELVES AND THE REFORM OFFICIALS THROUGH THE COUNTRYSIDE
THE RADIOS, BATTERIES, AND ANTENNAS WE PROPOSE TO DELIVER WILL ENABLE THESE UNITS TO KEEP IN TOUCH WITH SENIOR OFFICIALS AND TO RECEIVE GUIDANCE IF A SITUATION DEVELOPS
WHERE VIOLENCE COULD TAKE PLACE BETWEEN LANDOWNERS AND PEASANTS, OR BETWEEN THE ARMY AND LEFTIST INSURGENTS...

WE WOULD PROMPTLY REASSESS OUR POLICY IF THERE WERE EVIDENCE THAT OUR ASSISTANCE WAS NOT BEING USED TO ENHANCE HUMAN RIGHTS IN EL SALVADOR. AS SECRETARY
VANCE STATED IN RESPONSE TO A LETTER FROM ARCHBISHOP ROMERO TO PRESIDENT CARTER, "THE ADVANCEMENT OF HUMAN RIGHTS . . . UNDERLIES EVERY ASPECT OF UNITED STATES
POLICY TOWARD EL SALVADOR."

OUR REASONS FOR REPROGRAMMING SECURITY ASSISTANCE FOR HONDURAS ARE SIMILAR AND TO SOME EXTENT RELATED TO THOSE FOR EL SALVADOR. THE CONSTITUTIONAL DEVELOPMENT OF HONDURAS MERITS OUR SUPPORT, NOT LEAST BECAUSE THE VIOLENT CONFRONTATIONS AND DIVISIONS THAT HAVE DEVELOPED IN EL SALVADOR HAVE NOT YET OCCURRED, AND WE HOPE WILL NOT OCCUR, IN HONDURAS.

IN ADDITION, THE GENERAL QUESTION OF SECURE FRONTIERS IS CRITICAL FOR HONDURAS, BORDERING AS IT DOES ON TWO COUNTRIES UNDERGOING RAPID CHANGE. A GREATER SENSE

OF CONFIDENCE IN HONDURAS OF THE GOVERNMENT'S ABILITY
TO CONTROL ITS FRONTIERS IS KEY TO REGIONAL STABILITY.
IT IS IMPORTANT THAT HONDURAS NOT BE USED AS A CONDUIT

FOR THE INFILTRATION OF MEN AND ARMS TO FEED CONFLICTS
IN NEIGHBORING COUNTRIES. HONDURAS MUST ALSO FEEL SECURE IF IT IS TO RESOLVE ITS LONG-STANDING DISPUTE
WITH EL SALVADOR.

IN LIGHT OF THESE CONSIDERATIONS, WE PROPOSE TO OFFER
HONDURAS AN FY 80 FMS FINANCING PROGRAM OF $3,530,000....

FUNDS WILL BE USED TO FINANCE TRAINING IN U.S.
MILITARY SCHOOLS IN THE UNITED STATES AND PANAMA AND
BY MOBILE TRAINING TEAMS IN HONDURAS. THEY WILL ACQUAINT
HONDURAN PILOTS WITH THE UH- H AND WILL TRAIN HONDURAN
MECHANICS IN SERVICING IT. WE ARE CURRENTLY PROVIDING
INTERDICTION TRAINING TO THE HONDURAN ARMY AND HAVE UNDER CONSIDERATION SIMILAR TRAINING FOR THE HONDURAN
NAVY.

CENTRAL AMERICA IS IN A CRITICAL PERIOD IN ITS HISTORY.
OUR SUPPORT FOR PEACEFUL CHANGE CAN INCREASE THE LIKELI-
HOOD THAT MORE DEMOCRATIC AND EQUITABLE SOCIETIES WILL EVOLVE OUT OF THE PRESENT CRISIS. CONVERSELY, OUR FAILURE TO ASSIST CAN ONLY HELP THE ENEMIES OF DEMOCRACY.

SUBJ: WASHINGTON POST ARTICLE ON MILITARY ASSISTANCE

1. THANK YOU FOR SENDING THE CHRIS DICKEY ARTICLE ENTITLED "U.S. ENVOYS QUESTION MILITARY AID TO EL SALVADOR."

2. I DO NOT HAVE ANY IDEA WHERE DICKEY FOUND THE ENVOYS TO WHOM HE REFERS. THE ONLY TIME THE DCM AND I SAW DICKEY WAS AT A PRESS BRIEFING ATTENDED BY 30 OR 40 PERSONS. I AM CERTAIN THAT USICA OFFICERS SAW DICKEY AT OTHER TIMES BUT I AM EQUALLY CERTAIN THEY WERE NOT THE SOURCE.

3. I WILL PROVIDE DEPARTMENT WITH A STATEMENT ON MILITARY AID BY MONDAY.

4. THERE FOLLOWS THE TEXT OF MY STATEMENT AT THE PRESS BRIEFING:

QUOTE:
Q. WHAT IS YOUR FEELING ABOUT MILITARY AID TO EL SALVADOR?

A. THIS GOVERNMENT HAS REQUESTED BOTH ECONOMIC AND MILITARY ASSISTANCE. YOUR PARTICULAR QUESTION, BERNIE, WAS ABOUT MILITARY ASSISTANCE, SO I'LL JUST CONCENTRATE ON THAT. THE TYPE OF ASSISTANCE THE GOVERNMENT HAS REQUESTED AND WHICH WE WANT TO GIVE TO THEM -- PROVIDED THE CONGRESS APPROVES THE 5.7 MILLION DOLLARS -- IS BASICALLY COMMUNICATIONS EQUIPMENT AND TRANSPORTATION EQUIPMENT, TRUCKS. AND COMMUNICATIONS EQUIPMENT, WHY? BECAUSE A CAPTAIN OR A MAJOR TAKES FIFTY MEN OUT ON PATROL TO COUNTER A LEFTIST GUERRILLA THREAT, AND HE SENDS OUT VARIOUS PATROLS AND HE HAS NO WAY OF COMMUNICATING WITH THEM. SO WHAT HAPPENS? THESE MEN WITHOUT DIRECTIONS OF THEIR OFFICER SOMETIMES HAVE TO ACT ON THEIR OWN RESPONSIBILITY. WE WANT -- THROUGH THIS COMMUNICATION EQUIPMENT -- TO INCREASE THE CAPACITY OF THE MILITARY OFFICERS WHO ARE MORE HIGHLY TRAINED AND IN COMMAND, IN ORDER TO MAKE SURE THAT THE COMMAND STRUCTURE DOES NOT BREAK DOWN AND THAT SOME PEOPLE DO NOT FOLLOW THEIR PRIVATE INCLINATIONS. WE HAVE ALSO SUPPLIED THIS GOVERNMENT WITH SOME NON-LETHAL CROWD-CONTROL EQUIPMENT, SUCH AS TEAR GAS AND FLAK JACKETS. THE PHILOSOPHY HERE IS THAT THE YOUNG PRIVATE OR CORPORAL WILL FEEL A LOT MORE CONFIDENT OF HIMSELF AND WILL BE A LOT LESS READY TO SHOOT IF HE FEELS THAT HE IS, TO SOME DEGREE, PROTECTED FROM THE MOB BY THIS TYPE OF EQUIPMENT. SO, IT IS DEFINITELY DEFENSIVE TYPE PROTECTIVE EQUIPMENT. REGARDING THE MILITARY TRAINING TEAMS, THE GOVERNMENT DID REQUEST THOSE. WE HAVE NOT RESPONDED, AND I THINK THAT THE DECISION OF WHETHER TO RESPOND OR NOT TO RESPOND IS STILL UNDER CONSIDERATION IN WASHINGTON, AS I UNDERSTAND IT.

The triumph of the Sandinista Front for National Liberation in Nicaragua during July 1979, completed the first successful guerrilla revolution in Latin America since Castro's victory in Cuba twenty years earlier. By March 1980, another such revolution had gotten under way in El Salvador. These revolutions posed important policy concerns for President Jimmy Carter.

1977: THE SETTING

During 1977 President Carter firmly committed the United States to work toward a order that respected individual human rights and responded to human aspirations. El Salvador and Nicaragua posed situations that demonstrated the complexities involved in implementing human-rights policy. El Salvador, the most densely populated country in Central America, was a logical setting for unrest. The highly imbalanced distribution of income, wealth, and land characterized the export-oriented economy. Nearly a third of the work force was unemployed. For over forty years, the Somoza family and its National Guard had ruled Nicaragua. The Somozas concentrated much of the country's land and productive capacity in their own hands. By the late 1970's broad-based opposition groups challenged the rulers of both countries.

On May 3 United States Representative to the United Nations Andrew Young stated the Administration's basic policy in an address before a session of the United Nations Economic Commission on Latin America.

> There is at this moment, waiting to be born, a new synthesis of two powerful ideas . . . . the integration of the concepts of social justice and economic development into a single vision of historical process. . . . We must unite the concept of development (which usuallly means economic growth) with the concept of liberation (which usually means freedom from oppression, poverty, dependence, and degradation). (Doc. 1)

During 1977, the United States support for economic growth with social justice in El Salvador and in Nicaragua became manifest in three main areas: economic cooperation, dispute settlement, and human rights.

The Carter administration fostered the concept of regional economic cooperation, structuring assistance programs along regional lines and stressing integration through the Central American common Market, an organization launched in the early 1960s. At a meeting in Washington with President Carter on September 8 El Salvador's President, Carlos Humberto Romero Mena, informed President Carter that the Congress

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

had voted to accept the agreement signed in 1976 at Washington that provided for mediation of the border disputes. At the same meeting, President Romero told Carter of his request that a commission on human rights from the United Nations or the Organization of American States go to El Salvador to view progress there. Earlier that year, the Carter administration cited human rights violations in Nicaragua and El Salvador as a factor that restricted military aid to both countries.

1978: NICARAGUA IN CRISIS

Diplomatic pressure did not force Somoza to improve his human-rights record. On January 10, 1978, the most widely-known opposition leader was assassinated, the moderate Pedro Joaquín Chamorro, editor of La Prensa. This act led to a nationwide strike. Religious, civic, and business leaders, political organizations, and the Sandinistas supported the strike, which lasted for two weeks. During the protests, the National Guard, reinforced by tanks, battled armed civilians. Somoza sought to maintain power, despite calls for his resignation. By March conditions verged on civil war.

Commenting on the violence in Nicaragua during a visit to Caracas, President Carter offered a plan to deal with the situation:

> ...a delegation from the United Nations or the OAS should be welcomed into Nicaragua and other countries where human rights are threatened, to provide the facts to the outside world. We have a policy in our country, which I am insistent in maintaining, of not intervening in the internal affairs of other nations. But we have a right to express our own selves forcefully and also to encourage action on the part of the United Nations and OAS in going into countries to determine the facts. (Doc. 2)

Support for Somoza was impossible, given the U.S. commitment to human rights; the Administration threw its weight behind a process of mediation.

In September, a massive uprising occurred in Nicaragua, and Somoza declared martial law. From September to December 1978, the United States played a major role in a mediation aimed at arranging the resignation of Somoza.

On September 21, before the meeting of consultation of the foreign ministers of the OAS countries, Deputy Secretary of State Warren Christopher urged that the OAS support humanitarian relief to the people of Nicaragua

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

> who have been affected by the fighting of the past several weeks and, as may be necessary, to the Nicaraguan refugees in Honduras and Costa Rica; support the mandate of the Inter-American Human Rights Commission and urge that it investigate forthwith the allegations of serious violations in Nicaragua; support and extend the mandate of the factfinding mission in an effort to keep further violence from spilling across international borders; and urge the Government of Nicaragua and the opposition groups that have called for international conciliation to accept an offer of good offices to help find an enduring and democratic solution. (Doc. 3)

A few days later Secretary of State Cyrus Vance, speaking to the General Assembly of the United Nations reaffirmed the United States' determination to find a peaceful solution.

> In this Hemisphere, we must respond to the agony of those caught up in the violence and bloodshed of Nicaragua. We and several countries in Latin America have offered to assist in the mediation of Nicaragua's internal crises.
> It is our hope and expectation that all parties concerned will accept these offers and agree to a fair mediation process in which all can have confidence. Only a democratic solution in Nicaragua-- not repression or violence -- can lead to an enduring stability and true peace. (Doc. 4)

The Administration thus indicated that it favored replacement of Somoza by means of a moderate solution, perhaps a national plebiscite. On September 30 Somoza accepted an International Mediation Group that included representatives of the Dominican Republic, Guatemala, and the United States. On October 2 Carter appointed Ambassador William G. Bowdler to the Group. Meanwhile, the Inter-American Human Rights Commission investigated alleged abuses and on November 17 issued a unanimous condemnation of the regime.

Early in December the conciliation attempt seemed likely to produce results. On December 6, Somoza agreed to lift the decree of martial law, to grant amnesty to political prisoners, and to relax censorship. The next day Carter remarked to the Members of the White House Correspondents Association:

> We're making some progress, I think, in Nicaragua. . . to get Somoza for the first time even to agree to an outside arbitration group to resolve the differences > between himself and his political adversaries in Nicaragua, to stop the violence, to restrain the shipment of arms into Nicaragua to both sides, and to provide peace between Nicaragua and her immediate neighbors. . . . we have helped to shift the Nicaraguan circumstance from active and massive bloodshed and violence into a negotiation on the details of a democratic plebiscite, that would be monitored by the United Nations or by the OAS, that would decide on the future government of Nicaragua. (Doc. 5)

Shortly thereafter the opposition agreed to the Mediation Group's proposal for an national plebiscite sponsored by the OAS.

1979: REVOLUTION TRIUMPHS

On January 18 Somoza rejected the plebiscite. In response, the United States announced the end of military ties and some economic aid. On that occasion the State Department spokesman, Hodding Carter, said that the three-nation negotiating team "concluded that it cannot break the impasse between the opposition and the Nicaraguan Government caused by President Somoza's unwillingness to accept the essential elements of the mediators' most recent proposal." (Doc. 6)

The United States would take certain steps:

> First, the United States is withdrawing the U.S. military assistance group in Nicaragua, and it is terminating our military assistance program which has, in fact, been suspended for some months.
> Second, with respect to economic assistance, those Agency for International Development projects which are well-advanced will continue since they are aimed at the basic human needs of the poor. . . . However, no new projects with the government will be considered under present conditions. . . .
> Third, we are withdrawing all Peace Corps volunteers from Nicaragua.
> Fourth, we are also reducing the number of U.S. Government officials at our embassy in Managua. (Doc. 6)

Thereafter, full-scale fighting broke out; by May civil war paralyzed the nation. Mexico then broke diplomatic relations with the Somoza regime. On June 17 the signatories of the Andean Pact declared Nicaragua to be in a state of war and described the Sandinistas as "legitimate combatants" seeking to establish representative democracy and justice. On the same date the rebels named a five-man junta to serve as a government-in-exile.

On June 21 Secretary Vance suggested a peace proposal to the Meeting of Consultation of Ministers of Foreign Affairs of the OAS:

> --Formation of an interim government of national reconciliation acceptable to all major elements of the society;
> --The dispatch by this meeting of a special delegation to Nicaragua;
> --A cessation of arms shipments;
> --A cease fire;
> --An OAS peacekeeping presence to help establish a climate of peace and security and to assist the interim government in establishing its authority and beginning the task of reconstruction; and
> --A major international relief and reconstruction effort. (Doc. 7)

Although the meeting rejected the proposal of the United States to send a peacekeeping force to Nicaragua, it passed a resolution (II) on September 23 that called for a democratic government to replace the Somoza regime immediately.

After the OAS meeting, the United States began to deal directly with the government-in-exile. On June 27 Ambassador William Bowdler met rebel leaders, and he maintained contacts while the Provisional Government of National Reconstruction formed a Cabinet. On July 17, Somoza resigned. A week later the Junta and the United States agreed to continue diplomatic relations.

On July 25, President Carter commented on the major elements of United States policy towards Nicaragua during the revolution:

> It's a mistake for Americans to assume or to claim that every time an evolutionary change takes place, or even an abrupt change takes place in this hemisphere, that somehow it's the result of secret, massive Cuban intervention. The fact in Nicaragua is that the incumbent government, the Somoza regime, lost the confidence of the Nicaraguan people. There was a broad range of forces assembled to replace Somoza and his regime as the head of the Nicaraguan Government.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

We worked as closely as we could without intervening in the internal affairs of Nicaragua with the neighboring countries and with the so-called Andean Group in the northern part of South America to bring about an orderly transition. Our effort was to let the people of Nicaragua ultimately make a decision on who should be their leader, what form of government they should have. We also wanted to minimize bloodshed and to restore stability. That is presently being done. We have a good relationship with the new government. We hope to improve it. We are providing some minimum humanitarian aid for the people of Nicaragua, who've suffered so much.

I think that our posture in Nicaragua is a proper one. I do not attribute at all the change in Nicaragua to Cuba. I think the people of Nicaragua have got enough judgment to make their own decisions, and we will use our efforts in a proper fashion without interventionism, to let the Nicaraguans let their voice be heard in shaping their own affairs. (Doc. 8)

After the change of governments the United States maintained its presence and helped with reconstruction. A proposal soon went to Congress asking for reprogramming of $18.5 million in foreign assistance from the budget for FY 1979. Speaking before the Subcommittee on Foreign Operations of the House Appropriations Committee on September 11, 1979, Deputy Secretary Christopher explained the basic tenets of United States policy:

--To develop a positive relationship with the new government in Nicaragua based on the principles of nonintervention, equality, and mutual respect.

--To support the development of a democratic, pluralistic government in Nicaragua, by maintaining contact with all elements of Nicaraguan society, including the church, the media, and the private sector, as well as public officials;

--To cooperate with other nations and public and private institutions in assisting Nicaragua's economic recovery; and

--To help directly with the reconstruction effort by interim aid such as we are proposing today and by assessing and seeking to assist in the longer term effort. (Doc. 9)

He warned that "the moderate outcome we seek will not come

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

about if we walk away now. Precisely because others are assisting Nicaragua and may seek to exploit the situation there, we must not turn our backs."

In November, the Administration sent a $75 million supplementary aid request to Congress.

1980: EL SALVADOR IN CRISIS

During 1978 and 1979, the Administration dealt primarily with Nicaragua, but it continued to monitor the situation in El Salvador. On May 4, 1979, members of El Salvador's Popular Revoutionary Bloc occupied the French and Costa Rican embassies and San Salvador Cathedral and took hostages. Police attacked Bloc sympathizers outside San Salvador Cathedral and on May 8 killed at least twentythree persons. Violence continued throughout May. Speaking before the International University in Miami on May 18, the Assistant Secretary of State for Human Rights and Humanitarian Affairs, Patricia Derian, registered the Administration's concern:

> El Salvador is another country where we continue to receive credible reports that serious human rights abuses persist. The recent violence at the national cathedral in San Salvador is a particularly shocking instance of this situation. These problems have affected out bilateral relations, and we will continue to urge the Salvadoran Government to restore effective safeguards for human rights. We welcomed the repeal this February of the Law of Public Order, which had given rise to numerous domestic and international criticisms of Salvador's human rights practices. (Doc. 10)

Despite intermittent guerrilla activity throughout 1979, a tiny oligarcy of families monopolized the land and businesses, controlled the government, and maintained power. When the Romero administration proposed reforms, the United States encouraged the effort. Before the subcommittee on Inter-American Affairs of the House Foreign Affairs Committee on September 11, the Assistant Secretary of State for Inter-American Affairs, Viron Vaky, stated:

> Putting an end to human rights violations of the integrity of the person is crucial to the overall atmosphere in the country. We believe the establishment of a real and credible electoral process, leading to free municipal/legislative elections in March 1980, is crucial to El Salvador's peaceful evolution and to arresting the critical polarization and frustration that can lead almost certainly to violent confrontation between right and left. . . .We will support real and serious reform with appropriate cooperation and assistance. (Doc. 11)

Romero's steps however, were too little and too late. On October 15, 1979, young military offers broke with the regime, ousted Romero, and joined with moderate civiian leaders to form a Revolutionary Junta of government. The Junta granted amnesty to some political prisoners and committed itself to a platform of social and economic reforms, respect for human rights, and democratic elections. It decreed the abolition of Orden, a rural militia that had terrorized the country side on behalf of previous military regimes.

Since January 1980, the Junta has begun to implement a series of structural reforms. Among them is expropriation of some two million acres of El Salvador's best farmland. This land is to be given to peasants as small private farms or larger cooperatives. Another change involves tranfer of 51 percent of local bank stock to the government. The remaining shares to be sold to bank employees and the public.

The United States demonstrated support of the Junta's reforms through pledges of economic aid. It promised $50 million for FY 1980 to support the agrarian reform and other programs directly y beneficial to the poor. It also extended military assistance of $5.7 million in foreign military sales credits to allow purchases of communication and transportation equipment intended to protect the reform program against violence from both the right and left.

The Department of State spokesman, Hodding Carter rferred to the assistance program on February 19:

> We support the Revolutionary Governing Junta's desire to carry out basic reforms that will give all the people of El Salvador a more adequate share in the wealth of the country. . . . The security assistance program currently under consideration for El Salvador, will contribute to this goal. . . . The United States has no plans to involve United States forces in a counter-insurgency program of assistance, nor does the program . . . . involve sending United States military advisors to that country. (Doc. 12)

The Junta's reform program did not stem the slide toward civil war. Nearly 700 deaths have been reported sice 1980. Popular organizations and guerrillas appear to be unifying their forces. Meanwhile, the extreme right is developing a civilian army. Cubans are active in the area. The recent assassinations of El Salvador's Archbishop, Oscar Romero, and the leftist leader, Juan Chacon of the Popular Revolutionary Bloc, may solidify opposition in the same way as the death of Chamorro, and polarize the nation.

The United States supported the Junta because it appears to be capable of providing an effective buffer between the extreme right and extreme left.

CONCLUSION

The Carter Administration displayed willingness to tolerate left-nationalist elements in both Nicaragua and El Salvador and to deal with them when negotiations appeared to be in the national interest. The Administration's human-rights policy encouraged political opposition in both countries.

SUBJ: AMBASSADOR'S STATEMENT ON MILITARY ASSISTANCE

1. THE REVOLUTIONARY GOVERNING JUNTA (JRG) OF EL SALVADOR IS COMMITTED TO BRINGING RAPID AND PROFOUND POLITICAL, ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL CHANGE TO THIS COUNTRY. FORCES OF THE EXTREME RIGHT OPPOSE ANY MEASURES THAT WOULD ALTER THE STRUCTURE OF THE COUNTRY IN A WAY THAT WOULD AFFECT ADVERSELY THIS GROUP'S NARROW SELF-INTEREST. MEANWHILE, TH EXTREME LEFT, THROWN OFF BALANCE BY THE AGRARIAN AND OTHER REFORMS, IS RESORTING TO DESPERATE MEASURES TO SOW PANIC AND PROVOKE CHAOS.

2. IN THE FACE OF ARMED RESISTANCE BY THESE TWO EXTREMES, THE JRG HAS SURVIVED AND I BELIEVE WE WILL NOW BEGIN TO SEE MODERATE FORCES OF BOTH THE LEFT AND THE RIGHT ENDING VIOLENT RESISTANCE AND ULTIMATELY SUPPORTING THE MODERATE, REFORMIST JRG IN ITS EFFORTS TO BUILD A MORE JUST AND DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY IN EL SALVADOR.

3. IT WAS THE YOUNGER MILITARY OFFICERS WHO OVERTHREW THE ROMERO REGIME AND BROKE PUBLICLY WITH THE OLD ORDER HERE LAST OCT 15. THEIR MANIFESTO, REPEATED IN MID-FEBRUARY, DECLARED A BREAK WITH THE PAST. OVER THE MONTHS OF THIS PROCESS OF CHANGE, THE MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT EXPELLED SOME SEVENTY-FIVE SENIOR OFFICERS FROM ITS OWN RANKS AND IT BEGAN EDUCATING ITSELF TO PLAY A NEW ROLE IN EL SALVADOR. THE RESTRUCTURING AND RE-EDUCATION OF THE MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT WAS MAD A GOOD BEGINNING. IT IS NOT YET COMPLETE. THERE HAVE BEEN FAR TOO MANY EXAMPLES OF ABUSES OF POWER AND OF EXCESSES, ESPECIALLY ON THE PART OF THE SECURITY FORCES. BUT THE PICTURE IS IMPORVING. AT THE FUNERAL OF ARCHBISHOP ROMERO, SNED TERRORISTS OF THE ULTRA LEFT SOWED PANIC AMONG THE MASSES ATTENDING THE SERVICES AND DID ALL THEY COULD TO PROVOKE THE SECURITY FORCES INTO RETURNING FIRE. BUT THE DISCIPLINE OF THE ARMED SERVICES HELD. MOREOVER, THE NIGHT OF THE FUNERAL, THE ARMED FORCES AND THE SECURITY SERVICES TOOK CONTROL OF THE CAPITAL AND MAINTAINED ORDER WITH RESTRAINT AND HIGH PROFESSIONALISM.

4. I AM AWARE OF THE AGRUMENTS ON BOTH SIDES OF THE MILITARY ASSISTANCE QUESTION AND I AGREE WITH THOSE WHO STATE THERE IS NO MILITARY SOLUTION TO THE PROBLEMS OF EL SALVADOR. ON THE OTHER HAND, THERE IS NO POLITICAL SOLUTION IN AN ATMOSPHERE OF RIGHT-AND LEFT-WING TERROR INTENDED TO END IN THE COLLAPSE OF THE GOVERNMENT AND A STATE OF ANARCHY. THE PROVISION OF MODEST AMOUNTS OF COMMUNICATION AND TRANSPORTATION EQUIPMENT WILL NOT MOVE US TOWARD A MILITARY SOLUTION TO A POLITICAL PROBLEM BUT TOWARD A POLITICAL SOLUTION BACKED UP BY A COMPETENT, PROFESSIONAL AND RESTRAINED MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT. THE ASISTANCE IS MEANT TO HELP THE GOVERNMENT CARRY FORWARD ITS REFORM PROGRAM. I OPPOSE THE PROVISION OF LETHAL MILITARY EQUIPMENT TO THE ARMED FORCES OF EL SALVADOR AS PRESENTLY CONSTITUTED. BUT I DO SUPPORT THE 5.7 MILLION DOLLAR MILITARY ASSISTANCE PACKAGE NOW BEFORE THE CONGRESS BECAUSE I BELIEVE IT CAN STRENGTHEN THE PROFESSIONALISM OF THE ARMED FORCES AND REINFORCE THEIR COMMITMENT TO REFORM. I WILL BE VITALLY CONCERNED THAT THIS NON-LETHAL EQUIPMENT BE USED IN A CONSTRUCTIVE WAY. I WILL KEEP A CLOSE WATCH ON THE PROGRAM'S PROGRESS AND INSTANTLY FLAG ABUSES OR ANY OTHER MISUSE OF OUR EQUIPMENT. MY BEST GUESS, HOWEVER, IS THAT THOSE WHO HAVE TRIED DESPERATELY TO PROVOKE CIVIL DISORDER ARE INCREASINGLY ISOLATED AND THAT AS THIS GOVERNMENT ESTABLISHES ITS BONA FIDES AMONG THE PEOPLE, THE HUMAN RIGHTS RECORD OF THE ARMED FORCES WILL IMPROVE AND INCIDENTS OF EXCESSIVE USE OF FORCE TO RESTORE ORDER WILL END.

The triumph of the Sandinista Front for National Liberation in Nicaragua during July 1979, completed the first successful guerrilla revolution in Latin America since Castro's victory in Cuba twenty years earlier. By March 1980, another such revolution had gotten under way in El Salvador. These revolutions posed important policy concerns for President Jimmy Carter.

1977: THE SETTING

During 1977 President Carter firmly committed the United States to work toward a order that respected individual human rights and responded to human aspirations. El Salvador and Nicaragua posed situations that demonstrated the complexities involved in implementing human-rights policy. El Salvador, the most densely populated country in Central America, was a logical setting for unrest. The highly imbalanced distribution of income, wealth, and land characterized the export-oriented economy. Nearly a third of the work force was unemployed. For over forty years, the Somoza family and its National Guard had ruled Nicaragua. The Somozas concentrated much of the country's land and productive capacity in their own hands. By the late 1970's broad-based opposition groups challenged the rulers of both countries.

On May 3 United States Representative to the United Nations Andrew Young stated the Administration's basic policy in an address before a session of the United Nations Economic Commission on Latin America.

> There is at this moment, waiting to be born, a new synthesis of two powerful ideas . . . . the integration of the concepts of social justice and economic development into a single vision of historical process. . . . We must unite the concept of development (which usuallly means economic growth) with the concept of liberation (which usually means freedom from oppression, poverty, dependence, and degradation). (Doc. 1)

During 1977, the United States support for economic growth with social justice in El Salvador and in Nicaragua became manifest in three main areas: economic cooperation, dispute settlement, and human rights.

The Carter administration fostered the concept of regional economic cooperation, structuring assistance programs along regional lines and stressing integration through the Central American common Market, an organization launched in the early 1960s. At a meeting in Washington with President Carter on September 8 El Salvador's President, Carlos Humberto Romero Mena, informed President Carter that the Congress had voted to accept the agreement signed in 1976 at Washington that provided for mediation of the border disputes. At the same meeting, President Romero told Carter of his request that a commission on human rights from the United Nations or the Organization of American States go to El Salvador to view progress there. Earlier that year, the Carter administration cited human rights violations in Nicaragua and El Salvador as a factor that restricted military aid to both countries.

1978: NICARAGUA IN CRISIS

Diplomatic pressure did not force Somoza to improve his human-rights record. On January 10, 1978, the most widely-known opposition leader was assasinated, the moderate Pedro Joaquin Chamorro, editor of La Prensa. This act led to a nationwide strike. Religious, civic, and business leaders, political organizations, and the Sandinistas supported the strike, which lasted for two weeks. During the protests, the National Guard, reinforced by tanks, battled armed civilians. Somoza sought to maintain power, despite calls for his resignation. By March conditions verged on civil war.

Commenting on the violence in Nicaragua during a visit to Caracas, President Carter offered a plan to deal with the situation:

> ...a delegation from the United Nations or the OAS should be welcomed into Nicaragua and other countries where human rights are threatened, to provide the facts to the outside world. We have a policy in our country, which I am insistent in maintaining, of not intervening in the internal affairs of other nations. But we have a right to express our own selves forcefully and also to encourage action on the part of the United Nations and OAS in going into countries to determine the facts. (Doc. 2)

Support for Somoza was impossible, given the U.S. commitment to human rights; the Administration threw its weight behind a process of mediation.

In September, a massive uprising occurred in Nicaragua, and Somoza declared martial law. From September to December 1978, the United States played a major role in a mediation aimed at arranging the resignation of Somoza.

On September 21, before the meeting of consultation of the foreign ministers of the OAS countries, Deputy Secretary of State Warren Christopher urged that the OAS support humanitarian relief to the people of Nicaragua

> who have been affected by the fighting of the past several weeks and, as may be necessary, to the Nicaraguan refugees in Honduras and Costa Rica; support the mandate of the Inter-American Human Rights Commission and urge that it investigate forthwith the allegations of serious violations in Nicaragua; support and extend the mandate of the factfinding mission in an effort to keep further violence from spilling across international borders; and urge the Government of Nicaragua and the opposition groups that have called for international concilation to accept an offer of good offices to help find an enduring and democratic solution. (Doc. 3)

A few days later Secretary of State Cyrus Vance, speaking to the General Assembly of the United Nations reaffirmed the United States' determination to find a peaceful solution.

> In this Hemisphere, we must respond to the agony of those caught up in the violence and bloodshed of Nicaragua. We and several countries in Latin America have offered to assist in the mediation of Nicaragua's internal crises.
> It is our hope and expectation that all parties concerned will accept these offers and agree to a fair mediation process in which all can have confidence. Only a democratic solution in Nicaragua-- not repression or violence -- can lead to an enduring stability and true peace. (Doc. 4)

The Administration thus indicated that it favored replacement of Somoza by means of a moderate solution, perhaps a national plebiscite. On September 30 Somoza accepted an International Mediation Group that included representatives of the Dominican Republic, Guatemala, and the United States. On October 2 Carter appointed Ambassador William G. Bowdler to the Group. Meanwhile, the Inter-American Human Rights Commission investigated alleged abuses and on November 17 issued a unanimous condemnation of the regime.

Early in December the conciliation attempt seemed likely to produce results. On December 6, Somoza agreed to lift the decree of martial law, to grant amnesty to political prisoners, and to relax censorship. The next day Carter remarked to the Members of the White House Correspondents Association:

> We're making some progress, I think, in Nicaragua. . . to get Somoza for the first time even to agree to an outside arbitration group to resolve the differences between himself and his political adversaries in Nicaragua, to stop the violence, to restrain the shipment of arms into Nicaragua to both sides, and to provide peace between Nicaragua and her immediate neighbors. . . . we have helped to shift the Nicaraguan circumstance from active and massive bloodshed and violence into a negotiation on the details of a democratic plebiscite, that would be monitored by the United Nations or by the OAS, that would decide on the future government of Nicaragua. (Doc. 5)

Shortly thereafter the opposition agreed to the Mediation Group's proposal for an national plebiscite sponsored by the OAS.

1979: REVOLUTION TRIUMPHS

On January 18 Somoza rejected the plebiscite. In response, the United States announced the end of military ties and some economic aid. On that occasion the State Department spokesman, Hodding Carter, said that the three-nation negotiating team "concluded that it cannot break the impasse between the opposition and the Nicaraguan Government caused by President Somoza's unwillingness to accept the essential elements of the mediators' most recent proposal." (Doc. 6)

The United States would take certain steps:

> First, the United States is withdrawing the U.S. military assistance group in Nicaragua, and it is terminating our military assistance program which has, in fact, been suspended for some months.
> Second, with respect to economic assistance, those Agency for International Development projects which are well-advanced will continue since they are aimed at the basic human needs of the poor. . . . However, no new projects with the government will be considered under present conditions. . . .
> Third, we are withdrawing all Peace Corps volunteers from Nicaragua.
> Fourth, we are also reducing the number of U.S. Government officials at our embassy in Managua. (Doc. 6)

Thereafter, full-scale fighting broke out; by May civil war paralyzed the nation. Mexico then broke diplomatic relations with the Somoza regime. On June 17 the signatories of the Andean Pact declared Nicaragua to be in a state of war and described the Sandinistas as "legitimate combatants" seeking to establish representative democracy and justice. On the same date the rebels named a five-man junta to serve as a government-in-exile.

On June 21 Secretary Vance suggested a peace proposal to the Meeting of Consultation of Ministers of Foreign Affairs of the OAS:

> —Formation of an interim government of national reconciliation acceptable to all major elements of the society;
> —The dispatch by this meeting of a special delegation to Nicaragua;
> —A cessation of arms shipments;
> —A cease fire;
> —An OAS peacekeeping presence to help establish a climate of peace and security and to assist the interim government in establishing its authority and beginning the task of reconstruction; and
> —A major international relief and reconstruction effort. (Doc. 7)

Although the meeting rejected the proposal of the United States to send a peacekeeping force to Nicaragua, it passed a resolution (II) on September 23 that called for a democratic government to replace the Somoza regime immediately.

After the OAS meeting, the United States began to deal directly with the government-in-exile. On June 27 Ambassador William Bowdler met rebel leaders, and he maintained contacts while the Provisional Government of National Reconstruction formed a Cabinet. On July 17, Somoza resigned. A week later the Junta and the United States agreed to continue diplomatic relations.

On July 25, President Carter commented on the major elements of United States policy towards Nicaragua during the revolution:

> It's a mistake for Americans to assume or to claim that every time an evolutionary change takes place, or even an abrupt change takes place in this hemisphere, that somehow it's the result of secret, massive Cuban intervention. The fact in Nicaragua is that the incumbent government, the Somoza regime, lost the confidence of the Nicaraguan people. There was a broad range of forces assembled to replace Somoza and his regime as the head of the Nicaraguan Government.

We worked as closely as we could without intervening in the internal affairs of Nicaragua with the neighboring countries and with the so-called Andean Group in the northern part of South America to bring about an orderly transition. Our effort was to let the people of Nicaragua ultimately make a decision on who should be their leader, what form of government they should have. We also wanted to minimize bloodshed and to restore stability. That is presently being done. We have a good relationship with the new government. We hope to improve it. We are providing some minimum humanitarian aid for the people of Nicaragua, who've suffered so much.

I think that our posture in Nicaragua is a proper one. I do not attribute at all the change in Nicaragua to Cuba. I think the people of Nicaragua have got enough judgment to make their own decisions, and we will use our efforts in a proper fashion without interventionism, to let the Nicaraguans let their voice be heard in shaping their own affairs. (Doc. 8)

After the change of governments the United States maintained its presence and helped with reconstruction. A proposal soon went to Congress asking for reprogramming of $18.5 million in foreign assistance from the budget for FY 1979. Speaking before the Subcommittee on Foreign Operations of the House Appropriations Committee on September 11, 1979, Deputy Secretary Christopher explained the basic tenets of United States policy:

--To develop a positive relationship with the new government in Nicaragua based on the principles of nonintervention, equality, and mutual respect.

—To support the development of a democratic, pluralistic government in Nicaragua, by maintaining contact with all elements of Nicaraguan society, including the church, the media, and the private sector, as well as public officials;

--To cooperate with other nations and public and private institutions in assisting Nicaragua's economic recovery; and

--To help directly with the reconstruction effort by interim aid such as we are proposing today and by assessing and seeking to assist in the longer term effort. (Doc. 9)

He warned that "the moderate outcome we seek will not come about if we walk away now. Precisely because others are assisting Nicaragua and may seek to exploit the situation there, we must not turn our backs."

In November, the Administration sent a $75 million supplementary aid request to Congress.

1980: EL SALVADOR IN CRISIS

During 1978 and 1979, the Administration dealt primarily with Nicaragua, but it continued to monitor the situation in El Salvador. On May 4, 1979, members of El Salvador's Popular Revoutionary Bloc occupied the French and Costa Rican embassies and San Salvador Cathedral and took hostages. Police attacked Bloc sympathizers outside San Salvador Cathedral and on May 8 killed at least twentythree persons. Violence continued throughout May. Speaking before the International University in Miami on May 18, the Assistant Secretary of State for Human Rights and Humanitarian Affairs, Patricia Derian, registered the Administration's concern:

> El Salvador is another country where we continue to receive credible reports that serious human rights abuses persist. The recent violence at the national cathedral in San Salvador is a particularly shocking instance of this situation. These problems have affected out bilateral relations, and we will continue to urge the Salvadoran Government to restore effective safeguards for human rights. We welcomed the repeal this February of the Law of Public Order, which had given rise to numerous domestic and international criticisms of Salvador's human rights practices. (Doc. 10)

Despite intermittent guerrilla activity throughout 1979, a tiny oligarcy of families monopolized the land and businesses, controlled the government, and maintained power. When the Romero administration proposed reforms, the United States encouraged the effort. Before the subcommittee on Inter-American Affairs of the House Foreign Affairs Committee on September 11, the Assistant Secretary of State for Inter-American Affairs, Viron Vaky, stated:

> Putting an end to human rights violations of the integrity of the person is crucial to the overall atmosphere in the country. We believe the establishment of a real and credible electoral process, leading to free municipal/legislative elections in March 1980, is crucial to El Salvador's peaceful evolution and to arresting the critical polarization and frustration that can lead almost certainly to violent confrontation between right and left. . . .We will support real

Romero's steps however, were too little and too late. On October 15, 1979, young military offers broke with the regime, ousted Romero, and joined with moderate civiian leaders to form a Revolutionary Junta of government. The Junta granted amnesty to some political prisoners and committed itself to a platform of social and economic reforms, respect for human rights, and democrntic elections. It decreed the abolition of Orden, a rural militia that had terrorized the country side on behalf of previous military regimes.

Since January 1980, the Junta has begun to implement a series of structural reforms. Among them is expropriation of some two million acres of El Salvador's best farmland. This land is to be given to peasants as small private farms or larger cooperatives. Another change involves tranfer of 51 percent of local bank stock to the government. The remaining shares to be sold to bank employees and the public.

The United States demonstrated support of the Junta's reforms through pledges of economic aid. It promised $50 million for FY 1980 to support the agrarian reform and other programs directly y beneficial to the poor. It also extended military assistance of $5.7 million in foreign military sales credits to allow purchases of communication and transportation equipment intended to protect the reform program against violence from both the right and left.

The Department of State spokesman, Hodding Carter rrferred to the assistance program on February 19:

> We support the Revolutionary Governing Junta's desire to carry out basic reforms that will give all the people of El Salvador a more adequate share in the wealth of the country. . . . The security assistance program currently under consideration for El Salvador, will contribute to this goal. . . . The United States -- has no plans to involve United States forces in a counter-insurgency program of assistance, nor does the program . . . . involve sending United States military advisors to that country. (Doc. 12)

The Junta's reform program did not stem the slide toward civil war. Nearly 700 deaths have been reported sice 1980. Popular organizations and guerrillas appear to be unifying their forces. Meanwhile, the extreme right is developing a civilian army. Cubans are active in the area. The recent assassinations of El Salvador's Archbishop, Oscar Romero, and the leftist leader, Juan Chacon of the Popular Revolutionary Bloc, may solidify opposition in the same way as the death of Chamorro, and polarize the nation.

The United States supported the Junta because it appears to be capable of providing an effective buffer between the extreme right and extreme left.

CONCLUSION

The Carter Administration displayed willingness to tolerate left-nationalist elements in both Nicaragua and El Salvador and to deal with them when negotiations appeared to be in the national interest. The Administration's human-rights policy encouraged political opposition in both countries.

1. U.S.-EL SALVADOR -- COMMENTARY CONTINUES IN MEXICO CITY PRESS LINKING ALLEGED U.S. SUPPORT FOR JUNTA TO UNFOLDING VIOLENCE IN EL SALVADOR.

2. UNOMASUNO (LEFTIST-NATIONALISTIC) COLUMNIST GUILLERMO ALMEYRA BLAMES MILITARY GOVERNMENT AND EXTREME RIGHT FACTION FOR ASSASSINATION OF ARCHBISHOP ROMERO AND "MASSACRE" ON DAY OF HIS FUNERAL. SAYS MOST IMPORTANT QUESTIONS TO ASK NOW ARE (1) HOW IMPERIALISM WILL REACT TO CURRENT SITUATION WHERE TIME IS AN ENEMY OF THE MILITARY JUNTA AND (2) WHAT WILL HAPPEN TO SALVADOREAN ARMED FORCES.

3. ALMEYRA SAYS "U.S., FOR POLITICAL REASONS BOTH INTERNAL AND INTERNATIONAL, DOES NOT WANT TO SEE DIRECT AND OPEN MILITARY REPRESSION IN EL SALVADOR, AND INSTEAD SHOULD ADVISE A GRADUAL AND SELECTIVE REPRESSION WHILE POSSIBLE. THAT IS THE MISSION OF ITS AMBASSADOR, A SPECIALIST IN COUNTERINSURGENCY WHO MUST HAVE KNOWN OF THE PREPARATIONS FOR THE MASSACRE... BUT, IN SPITE OF UPCOMING ELECTIONS AND THE INTERNATIONAL IMAGE OF THE U.S., WE CAN BE SURE THAT THE PENTAGON HAS A PLAN TO AVOID ANOTHER CUBA. A VICTORY FOR THE SALVADOREAN REVOLUTION WOULD PRODUCE A SITUATION MORE LIKE CUBA THAN OCCURRED IN NICARAGUA AND WOULD PRECIPITATE A REVOLUTIONARY SITUATION THROUGHOUT CENTRAL AMERICA. THEREFORE DIRECT MILITARY INTERVENTION IS STILL A REAL POSSIBILITY... A VICTORY FOR THE MILITARY JUNTA WILL MEAN A STRENGTHENING OF IMPERIALISM IN LATIN AMERICA, THE RETURN OF OPEN U.S. INTERVENTION IN THE REGION."

4. UNOMASUNO COLUMNIST JUAN MARIA ALPONTE REFERS TO U.S. CONGRESSMAN MCHUGH'S RECENT REMARKS SUPPORTING U.S. ASSISTANCE TO SALVADOREAN JUNTA AND SAYS "HE WILL LIVE TO REGRET THOSE REMARKS." COLUMNIST SAYS U.S. CONGRESS HAS NOT AUTHORIZED BOMBING OF EL SALVADOR, BUT ECONOMIC AND MILITARY AID FOR THE REGIME SHOW CLEARLY THE U.S. DECISION TO SUPPORT IT WITH FORCE AND TO SANCTION IT WITH ARMS AND DOLLARS. SAYS PENTAGON STATEMENT THAT CUBA IS RESPONSIBLE FOR SALVADOREAN EVENTS IS SIMPLISTIC AND IGNORES FACT THAT CRISIS EXISTS THROUGHOUT CENTRAL AMERICA AND CARIBBEAN.

1. U.S.-EL SALVADOR -- COMMENTARY CONTINUES IN MEXICO CITY PRESS LINKING ALLEGED U.S. SUPPORT FOR JUNTA TO UNFOLDING VIOLENCE IN EL SALVADOR.

2. UNOMASUNO (LEFTIST-NATIONALISTIC) COLUMNIST GUILLERMO ALMEYRA BLAMES MILITARY GOVERNMENT AND EXTREME RIGHT FACTION FOR ASSASSINATION OF ARCHBISHOP ROMERO AND "MASSACRE" ON DAY OF HIS FUNERAL. SAYS MOST IMPORTANT QUESTIONS TO ASK NOW ARE (1) HOW IMPERIALISM WILL REACT TO CURRENT SITUATION WHERE TIME IS AN ENEMY OF THE MILITARY JUNTA AND (2) WHAT WILL HAPPEN TO SALVADOREAN ARMED FORCES.

3. ALMEYRA SAYS "U.S., FOR POLITICAL REASONS BOTH INTERNAL AND INTERNATIONAL, DOES NOT WANT TO SEE DIRECT AND OPEN MILITARY REPRESSION IN EL SALVADOR, AND INSTEAD SHOULD ADVISE A GRADUAL AND SELECTIVE REPRESSION WHILE POSSIBLE. THAT IS THE MISSION OF ITS AMBASSADOR, A SPECIALIST IN COUNTERINSURGENCY WHO MUST HAVE KNOWN OF THE PREPARATIONS FOR THE MASSACRE... BUT, IN SPITE OF UPCOMING ELECTIONS AND THE INTERNATIONAL IMAGE OF THE U.S., WE CAN BE SURE THAT THE PENTAGON HAS A PLAN TO AVOID ANOTHER CUBA. A VICTORY FOR THE SALVADOREAN REVOLUTION WOULD PRODUCE A SITUATION MORE LIKE CUBA THAN OCCURRED IN NICARAGUA AND WOULD PRECIPITATE A REVOLUTIONARY SITUATION THROUGHOUT CENTRAL AMERICA. THEREFORE DIRECT MILITARY INTERVENTION IS STILL A REAL POSSIBILITY... A VICTORY FOR THE MILITARY JUNTA WILL MEAN A STRENGTHENING OF IMPERIALISM IN LATIN AMERICA, THE RETURN OF OPEN U.S. INTERVENTION IN THE REGION."

4. UNOMASUNO COLUMNIST JUAN MARIA ALPONTE REFERS TO U.S. CONGRESSMAN MCHUGH'S RECENT REMARKS SUPPORTING U.S. ASSISTANCE TO SALVADOREAN JUNTA AND SAYS "HE WILL LIVE TO REGRET THOSE REMARKS." memorandum

DATE: 7 April 1980

REPLY TO ATTN OF: RSO/James J. Blystone, American Embassy, Buenos Aires

SUBJECT: Conversation with Argentine Intelligence Source

BO 0405

TO: The Ambassador

Through: DCM/Maxwell Chaplin

On April 2, 1980, the RSO had a meeting with a member of the Argentine intelligence services to discuss various topics. In the beginning the RSO jokingly asked what had happened to the two Montoneros that disappeared between Mexico and Rio. The source answered that he would tell me but only in the strictest of confidence as this information was top secret. Source stated that Force 601 had captured a Montonero and during the interrogation learned that this Montonero was to have a meeting with the two Montoneros from Mexico and the meeting was to take place in Rio de Janiero. The two Montoneros from Mexico are Horacio Campiglia (warname Peter) and Susana de Binstok. Horacio Campiglia (number 4 or 5 in the Montonero structure) has overall charge of the TEI operations and manages these forces from Mexico. Source advised that during the interrogation they told the Montonero that they had captured, that if he cooperated with the forces he would live. This Montonero knew he was in no position not to cooperate, provided the date and time for the meeting in Rio. The Argentine military intelligence (601) contacted their Brazilian military intelligence counterparts for permission to conduct an operation in Rio to capture two Montoneros arriving from Mexico. Brazilians granted their permission and a special team of Argentines were flown under the operational command of Lt. Col. Roman, to Rio aboard an Argentine airforce C130. Both of the Montoneros from Mexico were captured alive and returned to Argentina aboard the C130. The Argentines, not wanting to alert the Montoneros that they had conducted an operation in Rio, utilized an Argentine woman and man to register at a hotel using the false documents obtained from the two captured Montoneros, thereby leaving a trail that the two Montoneros from Mexico had arrived in Rio, registered at a hotel and then departed. These two Montoneros are presently being held at the army's secret jail, Campo de Mayo.

Regarding another subject, the source advised that within the last ten to 15 days security forces had captured alive 12 members of a TEI group which was reinfiltrating the country. Source stated that they had captured some time ago, the Montonero who was the TEI training instructor in Libya (previously reported by the RSO) and who is now working with the Argentine services. This Montonero who is cooperating with the Argentines, received information that 12 members of the TEI would be re-entering Argentina via bus routes from Paraguay, Uruguay, and Brazil. The Argentine security services, with the cooperation of the police set up a trap to capture all 12 members. The police performed documentation and drug control procedures in the bus terminals in Buenos Aires and the intelligence services with the cooperation of this Montonero, were able to apprehend the TEI members arriving by bus. Once the Montonero member was identified, the police would ask to check their documents and advise the individual he would have to go to the police station for routine police matters. Once the Montonero was placed in a car for transportation to a police station, military intelligence took over and transported the Montonero to their secret jail in Campo de Mayo. All 12 members of the TEI group were captured with documentation which indicated that they would place under surveillance 10 targets of the Minister of Economy and of the 10 targets under surveillance, decide which three would be the easiest to attack. The Argentine intelligence service is upset as none of the 12 TEI members apprehended were armed. Logistically the Argentines are confused as to where and how the Montoneros are obtaining their weapons.

Regarding the TEI, the Argentines have further learned that a group of TEI members are to infiltrate the country to reorganize their political structure, which is a drastic change from previous operations. This for the Argentines signifies a change in the Montonero thinking in that they have decided to give up armed attacks and try to gain their objectives through political means.

On the last subject, the RSO inquired whether the source had any additional information regarding Jarara de Cabezas. Source stated that he hadn't any new information beyond the fact that she is still alive and being held by the Navy. (Note, the RSO was not previously informed that this individual was being held by the Navy, just that she was being held.)

The RSO questioned the source regarding the disappeareds who are able to communicate and visit their families. Source advised that this is true. The forces sometimes capture Montoneros but during investigation and interrogation, learn that the individual is a sympathizer, not a full-fledged member or combatant. These individuals, after a period of time are allowed limited liberty by the forces to contact their families until their paperwork is ready. At that time they are sent out of the country. An agreement is made with them that they will not contact their families for a period of months. Source stated that it would be detrimental to the services if these individuals were granted limited liberty and then killed.

THIS INFORMATION IS NOT TO BE USED WITHOUT PRIOR PERMISSION OF THE RSO.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

April 7, 1980

Dear Reverend Ramirez:

I have been asked to respond to your recent mailgram to President Carter concerning events in El Salvador.

We too were appalled at the brutal assassination of Archbishop Romero and have endorsed the Revolutionary Junta of Government's pledge to investigate the murder and bring those responsible to justice. In the meantime, however, it is essential that the Junta's reform programs, aimed at redressing the El Salvadorans' grave economic and social disparities, be implemented.

United States economic aid to El Salvador is directed toward the most needy and the realization of basic reforms, such as the agrarian reform. A modest amount of security assistance, primarily for transportation and communications equipment, is also destined for the Salvadoran Armed Forces to enable them to restore order and prevent extremist violence in the most effective, humanitarian way. Should we suspend all assistance to El Salvador, the cause of the extremists, whether of the left or right, would be served. Their cause is to bring about the destruction of the reformist government through unrest and violence--an objective which they sought to achieve by the murder of Archbishop Romero.

We intend to continue supporting the moderate Junta as long as it is committed to bringing about basic socio-economic reforms and to preserving the human rights of its citizens.

Sincerely,

Central American Affairs

Reverend Ricardo Ramirez, CSB
Executive Vice President, Mexican American Cultural Center,

SUBJ (C) VIEWS OF LIBERAL JESUIT ON DOMESTIC POLITICAL DIALOGUE

1. [redacted] ENTIRE TEXT)

2. WE CALLED, APRIL 10, ON FATHER MIGUEL ESTRADA OF THE JESUIT-RUN UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL AMERICA. ESTRADA WAS AN ADVISOR TO THE ASSASSINATED ARCHBISHOP OSCAR ARNULFO ROMERO AND PARTICIPATED IN THE ARCHBISHOP'S CONTACTS WITH THE INSURGENT LEFTIST COORDINADORA REVOLUCIONARIA DE LAS MASAS.

3. ESTRADA JUSTIFIED ROMER'S CONTACTS WITH THE COORDINADORA AS A MEANS TO AVOID CIVIL WAR AND TO MINIMIZE VIOLENCE. HE ADDED THAT IT WAS NATURAL THAT THE SALVADORAN CHURCH HAS A MORE FORTHCOMING ATTITUDE TOWARD THE COORDINADORA THAN DOES THE USG. THE CHURCH, HE SAID, IS LOOKING ONLY TO LESSEN SUFFERING FOR THE SALVADORAN POPULACE, WHILE THE USG, HE ASSERTED, HAS BROADER REGIONAL AND GLOBAL POLITICAL INTERESTS IN MIND.

4. FATHER ESTRADA SAID THAT, WHILE THE LEFTIST ORGANIZATIONS OF THE COORDINADORA INITIALLY REJECTED CHURCH APPROACHES AND INDEED WERE OPENLY HOSTILE, IN RECENT MONTHS THE LEFTISTS HAVE BEEN QUITE OPEN TO THE CHURCH. FATHER ESTRADA DISCLOSED THAT HE AND OTHER JESUITS HAVE BEEN PROVIDING ADVICE TO THE COORDINADORA ON HOW THEY SHOULD REACT TO NEW DEVELOPMENTS -- ADVICE WHICH HE FELT WAS BEING TAKEN INTO ACCOUNT.

5. ASKED ABOUT DIFFERENT FIGURES IN THE CURRENT JUNTA, FATHER ESTRADA POINTED OUT THAT THE LATE ARCHBISHOP ROMERO HAD HAD A SPECIAL RELATIONSHIP OF CONFIDENCE WITH COLONEL MAJANO. HE SAID, HOWEVER, THAT MAJANO'S INFLUENCE WAS LOW AND THAT CONSERVATIVE MILITARY ELEMENTS WERE OPERATING UNCHECKED. IN THIS REGARD, HE SHARPLY CONDEMNED U.S. MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO THE JUNTA -- ASSISTANCE WHICH, HE SAID, WAS HIGHLY IRRESPONSIBLE IN LIGHT OF THE LACK OF BETTER GOVERNMENT CONTROL OVER THESE FORCES.

6. COMMENT: ESTRADA'S OPINIONS REFLECT THOSE OF THE JESUIT SECTOR WHICH WAS MOST INFLUENTIAL ON THE LATE ARCHBISHOP ROMERO. WITH THE APPOINTMENT OF NEW, SEEMING MORE OBJECTIVE APOSTOLIC ADMINISTRATOR RIVERA, WE SUSPECT THAT, WHILE CHURCH CONTACTS WITH THE COORDINADORA WILL CONTINUE, THE JESUITS WILL INCREASINGLY BE ISOLATED IN THEIR ENTHUSIASTIC APPROACH TO THE COORDINADORA.

2. SUMMARY: AMBASSADOR CALLED ON SI PRESIDENT BRANDT APRIL 10 TO REGISTER U.S. CONCERN OVER ATTACKS ON U.S. POLICY EMINATING FROM SI MEETING IN SANTO DOMINGO. BRANDT LISTENED TO AMBASSADOR'S POINTS WITHOUT MAKING DIRECT REPLY. HE ADMITTED THAT CONFERENCE HAD BEEN CHAOTIC, BUT STRESSED SI AS SUCH HAD ISSUED NO OFFICIAL COMMUNIQUE AT END OF CONFERENCE. "DECLARATION OF SANTO DOMINGO" WAS DOCUMENT OF LATIN AMERICAN COMMITTEE, AND APPENDAGES HAD NOT EVEN BEEN AGREED BY LATIN AMERICAN COMMITTEE. BRANDT SAID HE HAD SOUGHT TO WIN SUPPORT FOR MODERATE LANGUAGE DURING THE CONFERENCE AND HAD BEEN SURPRISED BY FINAL LANGUAGE, WHICH THE LATIN AMERICAN COMMITTEE APPROVED. HE OFFERED NO FURTHER COMMENT ON THE OUTCOME OF THE CONFERENCE EXCEPT TO SAY THE NEXT SI CONFERENCE IN NOVEMBER WOULD BE MORE BALANCED IN ITS APPROACH. END SUMMARY.

3. AMBASSADOR CALLED ON SOCIALIST INTERNATIONAL (SI) CHAIRMAN WILLY BRANDT ON APRIL 10 TO RAISE POINTS IN REF A. BRANDT, WHO HAD JUST RETURNED FROM VACATION, APPEARED NOT TO BE SURPRISED THAT THE AMBASSADOR HAD COME TO REGISTER THE CONCERN OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT ABOUT THE "DECLARATION OF SANTO DOMINGO." BRANDT TOLD THE AMBASSADOR THAT THE DECLARATION WAS NOT IN FACT AN OFFICIAL SI STATEMENT. IT HAD NOT BEEN APPROVED BY THE SI CONFERENCE BUT HAD BEEN REFERRED AS A DRAFT TO THE LATIN AMERICA COMMITTEE FOR FURTHER WORK, AND WITH THE UNDERSTANDING THAT WHEN ISSUED IT WOULD REPRESENT ONLY THE VIEWS OF THE LATIN AMERICA COMMITTEE, NOT THE SI AS A WHOLE.

84C54-13494

5. BRANDT CLAIMED THE ORIGINAL DRAFT FOR THE CONFERENCE COMMUNIQUE, WHICH HAD BEEN PREPARED BY ONE (FNU) MIRANDA, THE FORMER LEADER OF THE RADICAL PARTY OF CHILE, AND NOW LIVING IN EXILE IN MEXICO, HAD CONSISTED OF A LENGTHY RECITATION OF COMPLAINTS AND ACCUSATIONS AGAINST U.S. ACTIVITIES IN ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD. BRANDT SAID THAT HE, WORKING WITH JOSE PENA GOMEZ OF THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC HAD SOUGHT TO PRODUCE A MORE BALANCED DOCUMENT. GOMEZ, ACCORDING TO BRANDT, PREPARED A COUNTERDRAFT IN WHICH THE U.S. WAS NEVER ONCE MENTIONED. BECAUSE AGREEMENT ON A COMMUNIQUE HAD NOT BEEN REACHED AT THE TIME THE CONFERENCE WAS DUE TO CLOSE, HOWEVER, BRANDT SAID IT WAS AGREED THAT NO OFFICIAL CONFERENCE COMMUNIQUE WOULD BE ISSUED. INSTEAD, THE DRAFT DOCUMENT UNDER DISCUSSION WAS REFERRED TO THE LATIN AMERICA COMMITTEE FOR FINAL EDITING AND ISSUANCE AS A COMMITTEE DOCUMENT AND NOT AS AN SI DOCUMENT. BRANDT LISTENED WITHOUT COMMENT TO THE OBSERVATION THAT THIS TECHNICAL FACT WAS WIDELY OVERLOOKED BY THE PRESS AND CERTAINLY HAD NOT BEEN UNDERSTOOD BY MOST OBSERVERS OF THE CONFERENCE.

6. BRANDT SAID THE NEXT SI CONFERENCE, SCHEDULED FOR NOVEMBER IN MADRID, WILL ALMOST CERTAINLY ADDRESS PROBLEMS IN LATIN AMERICA. HE EXPRESSED THE CONVICTION THAT THE STATEMENT AT THAT TIME WILL ALMOST CERTAINLY BE MORE BALANCED THAN WHAT CAME OUT OF SANTO DOMINGO. BRANDT ADDED THAT THE PARTICIPANTS AT THE SANTO DOMINGO CONFERENCE WERE NOT ALL MEMBERS OF THE SOCIALIST INTERNATIONAL. HE IMPLIED THE MAJORITY WERE IN FACT NONMEMBERS WHO WERE NONETHELESS ALLOWED TO PARTICIPATE IN THE CONFERENCE AS IF THEY HAD BEEN FULL MEMBERS. WHILE SOME OF THESE NONMEMBERS WOULD PARTICIPATE IN THE MADRID SI CONFERENCE AS OBSERVERS, THEY WILL NOT HAVE AN OFFICIAL SAY IN THE OUTCOME OF THE COMMUNIQUE.

SUBJECT: (U) NEW CHIEFS IN ARGENTINE TRADE UNION FACTIONS: MIGUEL FREE BUT STRIPPED OF CIVIL RIGHTS

1. [redacted] ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: THE GOA IS ENGAGED IN PULLING OFF ANOTHER COUP WITHIN THE LABOR MOVEMENT, ENDUCING MODERATE LEADERS TO REORGANIZE THE PROVISIONAL BOARD KNOWN AS CONDUCCION UNICA DE TRABAJADORES ARGENTINAS (CUTA) TO THE EXCLUSION OF HARDLINE PERONIST MILITANTS, ANTIVERTICALISTS AND INDEPENDENT UNION ELEMENTS WHICH REMAINED OUTSIDE OF CUTA ARE COOPERATING IN THIS PLAN, ALONG WITH THE "CNT" FACTION OF CUTA. AN APPARENT OBJECTIVE IS TO GET A RELATIVELY MALLEABLE WORKER DELEGATION TO ATTEND THE UPCOMING INTERNATIONAL LABOR CONFERENCE. THIS MANEUVER HAS SPLIT CUTA AND THERE ARE NOW TWO RIVAL ARGENTINE LABOR DELEGATIONS ATTENDING THE ORIT CONFERENCE IN MEXICO -- INEVITABLY CAUSING SLIPPAGE IN OUR ORIT AFFILIATION EXPECTATIONS. MEANWHILE, EX-LABOR CAPO LORENZO MIGUEL HAS FINALLY BEEN RELEASED FROM HOUSE ARREST STATUS, ALTHOUGH HE REMAINS UNDER THE ACT OF INSTITUTIONAL RESPONSIBILITY AND DEPRIVED OF HIS CIVIL RIGHTS. HOW ACTIVE MIGUEL WILL BECOME AND WHETHER HIS FREEDOM WILL EVENTUALLY MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN THE TRADE UNION EQUATION REMAINS TO BE SEEN. THE TERMS OF HIS RELEASE MAKE CLEAR THAT HE IS EXPECTED TO KEEP OUT OF POLITICAL AND TRADE UNION BUSINESS AND HE PROBABLY WILL KEEP HIS NOSE CLEAN--AT LEAST FOR AN INITIAL PERIOD. (WE UNDERSTAND HE MAY BE CONTEMPLATING A TRIP ABROAD.) BUT AS THE ROUSING HERO'S WELCOME FOR HIM IN HIS LOCAL NEIGHBORHOOD SUGGESTS, A HUGE CHUNK OF THE PERONIST MOVEMENT NOW REGARDS HIM AS THEIR CAUDILLO AND WE BELIEVE THAT PERONIST LABOR RESISTANCE TO GOA PLANS IS BOUND TO INCREASE.

3. THE SPLIT IN CUTA HAS WIDENED SINCE OUR LAST REPORT (REFTEL). AS THE US TRADE UNION DELEGATION TO THE ORIT CONFERENCE IN MEXICO IS ALREADY AWARE, THERE ARE FOR ALL INTENTS AND PURPOSES TWO ARGENTINE TRADE UNION DELEGATIONS NOW IN CUERNAVACA: (A) NAVAL ELECTRICIAN VENTURINI, TELEPHONE WORKER PERRONE, AND LEATHER WORKER AVELINO FERNANDEZ FOR THE "MODERATE" CONFEDERACION NACIONAL DE TRABAJO (CNT); AND (B) GARCIA (EX-TAXI LEADER), MILLAN (GLASS EMPLOYEES), AND PEREZ (TRUCKERS) FOR THE MOVIMIENTO SINDICAL PERONISTA (MSP), OR EX-COMMITTEE OF 25. AIFLD REPRESENTATIVE TORRES-LAZO'S MEETING WITH THE CUTA INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS COMMITTEE TO INFORM THEM OF AFL-CIO PRESIDENT KIRKLAND'S INVITATION TO MEET WITH HIM IN CUERNAVACA SLOWED DOWN THE CENTRIFUGAL PROCESS ONLY BRIEFLY.

4. IT IS PROBABLY THE CNT WHICH BEARS THE GREATER RESPONSIBILITY FOR HAVING PRECIPITATED THE SPLIT AND WE BELIEVE THAT WE SEE THE GOVERNMENT'S HAND BEHIND THAT MANEUVER, BUT THE MSP HAD JUST ABOUT EXHAUSTED ITS INTEREST IN MAINTAINING THE CUTA FACADE AS WELL. BEHIND THIS MOVE, WE THINK, IS THE MINISTRY OF LABOR'S PERENNIAL INTEREST IN HAVING AN ARGENTINE WORKER DELEGATION PRESENT AT THE ILO CONFERENCE IN GENEVA IN JUNE IN ORDER TO SALVE INTERNATIONAL APPEARANCES--A DELEGATION AS MODERATE BUT ALSO AS REPRESENTATIVE AS POSSIBLE. A CLOSELY RELATED AIM IS TO SPLIT THE MSP, ISOLATING THE ANTI-GOVERNMENT PERONIST "DUROS" E.G. GARCIA, THE CGT-ORIENTED DIGON, AUTOWORKER LEADER RODRIGUEZ, ETC. TAKING ADVANTAGE OF THE NATURAL INTEREST OF THE ARGENTINE TRADE UNION LEADERS TO ATTEND THE GENEVA CONFERENCE IN ORDER TO KEEP THEIR NAMES IN PRINT AND THEIR FUTURE LEADERSHIP PROSPECTS ALIVE, LABOR UNDERSECRETARY ROJAS, WE BELIEVE, HAS SUBTLY ORCHESTRATED A SERIES OF TRADE UNION MEETINGS WITH THE AIM OF REORGANIZING THE OFFICIALLY NON-RECOGNIZED NATIONAL UNION BOARD AROUND THREE BASIC POLES: (A) THE CNT; (B) THE "GROUP OF 20" ANTIVERTICALISTS AND INDEPENDENTS (SODA WORKER RACCHINI, ROOSLEHEAD (?) BARRIONUEVO, RAILWAY ENGINEER LEADER ETCHEGAR, ETC.) WHICH HAD PURPOSEFULLY REFUSED TO JOIN CUTA FROM THE START IN ORDER NOT TO SPEND ITSELF IN FUTILE CONFLICT WITH THE GOVERNMENT; AND (C) ANY ELEMENTS OF THE MSP WHICH MIGHT BE WILLING TO GO ALONG WITH THE GOVERNMENT'S GAME. IN OTHER WORDS, ALMOST A CARBON COPY OF LAST YEAR'S PERFORMANCE WHEN, UNDER GOA URGING, THE CNT AND GROUP OF 20 TURNED THEIR BACKS ON THE "25" LEADERS THEN IN JAIL AND WENT OFF TO ATTEND THE GENEVA CONFERENCE (SEE 79 BUENOS AIRES 4098).

5. POSTAL WORKER LEADER BALDASSINI (PROTECT) HAS CONFIDED TO AIFLD REPRESENTATIVE TORRES-LAZO THAT THE MEETINGS A WEEK AGO BETWEEN THE LABOR MINISTER AND SELECTED UNION LEADERS WAS DESIGNED TO SET THE STAGE FOR A REQUEST FROM CAREFULLY SELECTED LABOR LEADERS FOR GOA PERMISSION

TO HOLD A PLENUM TO DISCUSS--NOT WORKER GRIEVANCES OVER WAGES, THE TRADE UNION AND PROJECTED SOCIAL PROJECTS LEGISLATION AND RECENT FACTORY DISMISSALS --BUT RATHER TO NAME A WORKER DELEGATION TO THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR CONFERENCE (I) IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE PREARRANGED PLAN, THE MINISTRY HAS NOW WINKED BACK THAT SUCH A PLENUM WOULD BE "ACCEPTABLE", BUT THE DATE HAS NOT BEEN DEFINITELY FIXED. ACCORDING TO BALDASSINI, THE PLENUM'S BASIC PURPOSE IS TO RESTRUCTURE THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF CUTA (WITH THE MAKEUP OF THE ILO WORKER DELEGATION REFLECTING THAT NEW REALITY). THE PLENUM WILL ALSO CONFIRM LOCAL METAL WORKER ACTING SECRETARY MARCOS AS CUTA'S DESIGNATE TO THE ICFTU BOARD. AS A PLACEBO FOR TORRES-LAZO AND THE AFL CIO, BALDASSINI THREW IN THE PROMISE THAT WHEN THE DELEGATION GETS TO GENEVA IT WILL FORMALLY REQUEST AFFILIATION WITH ORIT, (--THUS DASHING HOPES THAT THE MARRIAGE CERTIFICATE WILL BE SIGNED IN CUERNAVACA).

6. ONE OF THE IMPLICATIONS BEHIND THIS GAME PLAN IS THAT THE CNT, EITHER ON ITS OWN OR UNDER INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE GOVERNMENT, HAS DECIDED TO DOWNGRADE THE CUERNAVACA MEETING. THIS IS EVIDENT FROM THE FACT THAT NONE OF THE FIRST-LINE CNT LEADERS WERE SELECTED TO GO TO THE ORIT CONFERENCE. UNDOUBTEDLY THEY HAVE GOOD REASON. THERE ARE BIGGER FISH TO FRY FOR THEM IN BUENOS AIRES THIS WEEK, SINCE LISTS OF CANDIDATES ARE BEING DRAWN UP FOR THE GENEVA WORKER DELEGATION. ALSO, BALDASSINI'S UNION HAS AN ANNUAL MEETING THIS WEEK. HOWEVER, WE ALSO SUSPECT THAT THEY DID NOT WISH TO BECOME INVOLVED IN THE TRADE UNION RIGHTS DISCUSSIONS IN CUERNAVACA, AS THIS WOULD HAVE PREJUDICED THEIR UNDERSTANDING WITH THE GOVERNMENT.

7. BUT NOW THERE IS A NEW FACTOR TO ASSESS. FORMER METALWORKER AND 62-ORGANIZATIONS BOSS LORENZO MIGUEL'S HOUSE ARREST STATUS WAS LIFTED AT 3 AM APRIL 17-FOLLOWING A JUNTA DECISION WHICH NEVERTHELESS STIPULATED THAT HE WAS STILL INCLUDED UNDER THE TERMS OF THE ACT OF INSTITUTIONAL RESPONSIBILITY AND THEREFORE WOULD CONTINUE TO BE DEPRIVED OF HIS CIVIL RIGHTS. (FORMER CONSTRUCTION WORKER LEADER ROGELIO PAPAGNO WAS ALSO RELIEVED OF CONDITIONAL LIBERTY STATUS.) IN ANNOUNCING THIS ACTION THE JUNTA DID NOT PUBLICLY EXPLAIN THE REASONING BEHIND ITS DECISION TO RELEASE MIGUEL, OR ITS JUSTIFICATION FOR KEEPING HIM UNDER THE ACT. HOWEVER, JUNTA MEMBER (AIR FORCE COMMANDER) GENERAL GRAFFIGNA, IN A PUBLIC CEREMONY APRIL 16, STATED THAT THE INSTITUTIONAL ACT OF JUNE 1976 PROVIDED FOR VARIOUS TYPES OF PENALTIES FOR 37 PERSONS "WHO HAD DONE GREAT DAMAGE TO THE REPUBLIC." SAID GRAFFIGNA: "AS THE PERSONS INCLUDED UNDER THESE DECREES SERVE OUT THE TERMS ORDERED BY THE JUNTA, THEY WILL BE TAKEN OFF THE ACT." HOWEVER, HE ADDED, WITHOUT SPECIFICALLY REFERRING TO MIGUEL'S CASE, "THERE MAY BE INDIVIDUALS WHO HAVE RECOVERED THEIR LIBERTY, BUT PERHAPS HAVE THREE OR FOUR (OTHER) TYPES OF PENALTIES TO PAY WHICH ARE OF A SECRET CHARACTER"--PRESUMABLY A REFERENCE TO THE CONTINUING PROHIBITION AGAINST MIGUEL'S EXERCISE OF HIS CIVIL RIGHTS.

8. SO FAR THE GOVERNMENT HAS RUN RINGS AROUND THE ARGENTINE TRADE UNION LEADERS AND MOST OF THEM HAVE BEEN WILLING TO JUMP THROUGH THE HOOPS IN ORDER TO RETAIN THEIR POSITIONS. AT THIS POINT IT SEEMS FAIRLY CERTAIN THAT A WORKER DELEGATION WILL BE FIELDED TO GENEVA, ALTHOUGH SOME SLIPPAGE IN THE DATE SEEMS TO HAVE TAKEN PLACE FOR HOLDING THE PLENUM IN WHICH THE GAME PLAN WAS TO HAVE BEEN ORCHESTRATED. TTHE ULTIMATE IMPACT WHICH MIGUEL'S RELEASE WILL HAVE ON THE MOVEMENT REMAINS TO BE SEEN. SOURCES ASSERT THAT NO DEAL WAS MADE WITH THE GOVERNMENT AND INDEED THE FACT THAT HE REMAINS STRIPPED OF HIS RIGHTS SUGGESTS THAT THIS MAY BE SO. WE UNDERSTAND FROM HIS LIEUTENANTS THAT HE INTENDS TO PROCEED VERY SLOWLY, TAKING HIS FAMILY AWAY FOR A VACATION IN THE MOUNTAINS AND POSSIBLY EVEN MAKING A TRIP ABROAD. THE GOVERNMENT CALLS MIGUEL A THUG AND STORIES ABOUND ABOUT HUGE GRAFT AND CORRUPTION IN HIS UNION, MASSIVE ARMIES OF PRIVATE BODYGUARDS AND POSSIBLY EVEN AN ASSASSINATION HERE OR THERE, BUT THE FACT OF THE MATTER IS THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAS NOT BEEN ABLE TO PROVE ONE IOTA OF THE CHARGES AGAINST HIM AND HAS RELEASED HIM. WE DO NOT KNOW EXACTLY WHY AS YET. PERHAPS INTERNATIONAL PRESSURE INCLUDING THAT OF THE VATICAN PLAYED A ROLE. BUT AS THE PUBLICITY SURROUNDING HIS FESTIVE THREE HOUR WALK THROUGH HIS BARRIO YESTERDAY SUGGESTS, THE PERONISTS FINALLY HAVE A CAUDILLO ON THE STREETS AGAIN AND THE MOOD OVER THE LONG RUN IN WHAT WE THINK ARE THE MAJOR ELEMENTS OF THAT MOVEMENT WILL BE INCREASINGLY THAT OF OUTWARD OPPOSITION TO THE GOVERNMENT.

9. WE WOULD APPRECIATE A REPORT FROM MEXICO ON THE RESULTS OF THE ARGENTINE PARTICIPATION IN CUERNAVACA, INCLUDING THE MEETING WITH AFL-CIO PRESIDENT KIRKLAND.

MEXICO CITY FOR NIXON

E.B. 12065: N/A
TAGS: ELAB PINS PINT CI
SUBJ: ARREST OF LABOR LEADER FOR SLANDER AND INCITEMENT: SOME REMINDERS OF THE PAST

1. SUMMARY : THE ARREST OF TAXI FEDERATION LEADER JUAN JARA EXPOSES GOC SENSITIVITY TO CRITICISM OF THE MILITARY AS AN INSTITUTION. THE GOC WAS PROBABLY INCLUENCED BY THE APPROACH OF MAY DAY, AND AN UPCOMING MEETING OF THE ENTIRE LAND TRANSPORT SECTOR WHICH HAS BEEN HIGHLY CRITICAL OF GOC ECONOMIC POLICY AS IT AFFECTS THAT SECTOR. WITH RESPECT TO MILITARY SENSITIVITIES AND DISAFFECTION OF PARTS OF THE TRANSPORT SECTOR, THERE ARE IRONIC REMINDERS OF EVENTS IN 1972-73. END SUMMARY

2. JUAN JARA, PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL FEDERATION OF TAXI DRIVERS, WHICH ALSO INCLUDES "COLECTIVOS" (TAXIS THAT RUN FIXED ROUTES FOR AFIXED FARE) AND TAXI-BUSES, WAS ARRESTED IN THE EARLY MORNING HOURS OF APRIL 10 BY THE INVESTIGATIVE POLICE AND CHARGED BY THE GOC WITH VIOLATING CHILE'S INTERNAL SECURITY LAW.

3. THE DAY BEFORE JARA HAD HELD A MEETING OF HIS FEDERATION TO DISCUSS A RECENT PROHIBITION ON THE CIRCULATION OF "COLECTIVOS" (MULTI-PASSENTER TAXI CABS) IN THE CENTER OF SANTIAGO. JARA ASKED FOR AND RECEIVED APPROVAL FOR A NATIONAL STRIKE AT A DATE TO BE DETERMINED, AND HARSHLY CRITICIZED THE GOC ECONOMIC PLAN (CALLING IT EXTREMELY PREJUDICIAL TO THE WORKING CLASS) AND THE ECONOMIC TEAM. HIS COMMENTARY ON THE LATTER WAS PARTICULARLY STRONG AND REW THE IRE OF THE MILITARY, LEADING TO HIS DETENTION. LOCAL PRESS QUOTED JARA AS SAYING"(WE'VE HAD) ENOUGH STUPIDITY. (WE'VE HAD) ENOUGH OF A GROUP OF LITTLE MEN ("SENORITOS"--A HIGHLY PEJORATIVE TERM IN SPANISH) OF SECOND, THIRD, AND EVEN FOURTH CLASS WHO, SUPPORTED BY THE BAYONETS OF THE ARMED FORCES, TRAMPLE ON THE UNION MOVEMENT. THESE ARE THE SAME PEOPLE WHO WERE NOTT IN CHILE DURING THE GREAT EVENTS (LEADING TO THE DOWNFALL OF ALLENDE), BUT WHO RETURNED TO IMPOSE AN ECONOMIC POLICY THAT THEY CLAIM IS THE BEST AND IS THE SALVATION OF THE COUNTRY. THE ENTIRE LAND TRANSPORT SECTOR IS GOING BANKRUPT BECAUSE OF THIS FRAUD (POMADA) OF AN ECONOMIC POLICY... THE TIME HAS COME TO SAY 'ENOUGH'* THE GOVERNMENT MUST BE RESCUED FROM THE CLUTCHES OF A PRIVI-1 LEGED GROUP, FROM THIS GROUP OF LITTLE MEN, FROM THE BLOOD-SUCKERS OF CHILEANS."

4. OFFICIAL GOC REACTION WAS STRONG AND SWIFT. BESIDES THE ARREST OF JARA, SECRETARY GENERAL OF GOVERNMENT, GENERAL SERGIO BADIOLA, TOLD THE PRESS THAT JARA'S STATMENTS WERE "TOTALLY UNACCEPTABLE (TO THE ARMED FORCES AS AN ENTITY)... IT IS ONE THING FOR JARA TO DISCUSS A PROBLEM HE MIGHT BE HAVING; IT IS QUITE ANOTHER TO OFFEND AND INSULT A RESPECTED AND RESPECTABLE INSTI-TUTION". HE ACCUSED JARA OF TRYING TO INCITE A NATIONAL TAXI STRIKE AND TERMED THIS "A GRAVE ERROR". HE THEN WARNED THAT ANY TRADE UNIONISTS WHO EXPRESSED SUPPORT FOR OR SOLIDARITY WITH JARA'S "OFFENSIVE STATEMENTS" WOULD BE CHARGED WITH THE SAME OFFENSE. DESPITE THIS WARNING, NUMERIOUS PUBLIC EXPRESSIONS OF SUPPORT WERE ISSUED BY VARIOUS LABOR AND SMALL BUSINESS GROUPS AND INDIVIDUALS.

5. ON APRIL 15 A SANTIAGO JUDGE FORMALLY INDICTED JARA UNDER THE INTERNAL SECURITY LAW FOR DEFAMING AND SLANDERING GOVERNMENT AUTHORITIES. THE CHARGE CARRIES A PENALTY OF ONE AND A HALF TO FIVE YEARS (EITHER IN PRISON OR INTERNAL BANISSMENT). AS A FIRST STEP, JARA'S LAWYERS ARE SEEKING HIS RELEASE ON BAIL (GRANTED THE AFTERNOON OF APRIL 18). JARA HAS DENIED THAT HE INTENDED ANY OFFENSE TO THE MILITARY, POINTING OUT THAT ONE OF HIS SONS IS ON THE ARMY.

6. COMMENT: JARA, LONG VIEWED AS PRO-GOC, HAS BECOME INCREASINGLY CRITICAL OF GOC ECONOMIC POLICY, BUT NEVER

QUITE IN THE TERMS WHICH LED TO HIS ARREST. ALTHOUGH SUCH STATEMENTS (AND STRONGER) ARE FAIRLY COMMON IN TRADE UNION CIRCULES, THEY ARE SELDOM PUT ON THE RECORD. AS FAR BACK AS SEPTEMBER 1978, LEON VILARIN, HEAD OF THE TRUCK OWNERS CONFEDERATION AND A LEADER WITH JARA IN THE STRIKES WHICH PLAYED A MAJOR ROLE IN ALLENDE'S DOWNFALL, TOLD "HOY" MAGAZINE THAT "I CONSIDER THAT WE ARE LIVING UNDER A ECONOMIC DICTATORSHIP ADMINISTERED BY A GROUP OF CIVILIANS WITH THE BACKING OF THE ARMED FORCES. THIS WAS NOTT WHAT THE CITIZENS OF CHILE ASKED FOR IN SEPTEMBER 1973." VILARIN HAS EXPRESSE STRONG SUPPORT FOR JARA AND ADDED THAT GOC ECONOMIC POLICY WAS LEADING TO THE PRESENTATION OF A NEW "PLIEGO DE CHILE" (A LIST OF ECONOMIC WANTS PRESENTED TO ALLENDE LATE IN 1972--VILARIN WAS ONE OF THE LEADERS OF THE GROUP WHICH PRESENTED THE "PLIEGO"). INTERESTINGLY, A MEETING OF THE PRESENTLY INACTIVE LAND TRANSPORT CONFEDERATION, HEADED BY JARA, IS SCHEDULED FOR THE WEEKEND OF APRIL 19 WITH A VIEW TO REACTIVATING IT AND TO SEEK MEANS TO EFFECT CHANGE IN GOC ECONOMIC POLICY AS IT AFFECTS THE GROUP'S MEMBERS.

7. WHILE THE NEW RULES FOR "COLECTIVOS" SPARKED JARA'S

UNCLASSIFIED

RECENT OUTBURST, THE MORE BASIC PROBLEM FOR HIM (AS WELL AS VILARIN'S TRUCKERS) IS THE EXTENSIVE DEREGULATION OF TRANSPORT UNDER CURRENT ECONOMIC POLICY. THE ISSUANCE OF TAXI LICENSES IS NO LONGER RESTRICTED. THE NUMBER OF TAXIS IN SANTIAGO HAS AT LEAST DOUBLED SINCE 1973. ACCORDING TO JARA, MANY PERSONS WHO HAVE BEEN FIRED FROM OTHER JOBS USE THEIR SEVERENCE PAY TO PUCHASE A TAXI. WHILE THE PUBLIC BENEFITS, TAXI DRIVERS HAVE LESS WORK PER DRIVER AND, JARA CLAIMS, LOWER INCOME.

8. IN HIS STATEMENT ON THE JARA ARREST, GENERAL BADIOLA SEEMED MOST CONCERNED BY THE REFERENCE TO THE MILITARY. THIS IS A SENSITIVE AREA, NOTT LEASE BECAUSE OF THE SCORN HEAPED ON INDIVIDUAL OFFICERS AND SOLDIERS IN THE PERIOD BEFORE THEN MOVED TO OUST ALLENDE. (ALONG THIS LINE, A RECENT MAPU-OC FLYER--ONE OF THE SMALLER FACTIONS OF ALLENDE'S UP ALLIANCE-- ASKS HOW LONG CHILE'S SOLDIERS ARE GOING TO LET EHEMSELVES BY MADE RIDICULOUS. THE FLYER CALLS FOR PINOCHET'S RESIGNATION.) WE THINK IT MORE LIKELE, HOWEVER, THAT GOC EDGINESS IN THIS CASE RESULTED FROM THE APPROACH OF MAY DAY, TRADITIONALLY A TIME OF LABOR/LEFT INSPIRED STREET DEMONSTRATIONS, AND TO WIDER UNREST IN THE TRANSPORTATION SECTOR. VILARIN CERTAINLY AND JARA PERHAPS ARE MORE INCLINED THAN MOST TO SPEAK OUT AGAINST THE MILITARY BECAUSE THEY PLAYED A SUSTAINED AND MAJOR ROLE DURING THE ALLENDE PERIOD WHICH BROUGHT THE MILITARY TO POWER; IN THEIR OPINION THE GOVERNMENT OF THE ARMED FORCES, WHICH THEY HELPED BRING IN, HAS NOTT LIVED UP TO THEIR EXPECTATIONS. THE REMINDERS OF THE PAST IMPLICIT IN THIS EPISODE ARE PROBABLY NOTT AUGURIES OF THE FUTURE, LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

MEMORANDUM OF LAW
IN OPPOSITION TO JUDGMENT CREDITORS'
MOTION TO APPOINT A RECEIVER
AND IN SUPPORT OF A CROSS MOTION TO DISMISS SUMMARY PROCEEDING AND FOR OTHER RELIEF

Preliminary Statement

This Memorandum of Law is submitted on behalf of respondent LAN-Chile Airlines ("LAN-Chile"): (1) in opposition to the motion by Judgment Creditors (sometimes hereinafter referred to as "Plaintiffs") to appoint Judgment Creditor Michael Moffitt a receiver of LAN-Chile's assets in the United States in order to preside over their liquidation in satisfaction of a default judgment awarded to Judgment Creditors and against the Republic of Chile and other individual defendants in Isabel Morel DeLetelier, et al. v. Republic of Chile, et al., 502 F. Supp. 259 (D.D.C. 1981) (hereinafter referred to, together with all other proceedings therein, as the "Letelier Default Judgment" or "Letelier Action"), and (2) in support of LAN-Chile's cross-motion to dismiss the summary proceeding herein, to vacate the Restraining Notices served on LAN-Chile herein and to strike certain non-evidentiary matter contained in Judgment Creditors' moving papers.

The facts relevant to this motion are set forth in detail in the Declaracion, made pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1746, of Eduardo Del Campo O., LAN-Chile's Gerente Tecnico (Vice presidente) ("Del Campo Declaration"), the Informe en Derecho of Professor Eduardo Soto-Kloss ("Soto Report"), and the Informe en Derecho of Professor Julio Zenteno Vargas ("Zenteno Report").* Also submitted herewith are the affidavits of Carter K. Combe, Esq. with certain relevant documents attached (the "Combe Affidavit"), Guillermo Goldberg, General Manager, North America of LAN-Chile ("Goldberg Affidavit"), and Gerald D. Morgan Jr., Esq. ("Morgan Affidavit"). LAN-Chile specifically reserves its right to submit further supporting law and factual matter in opposition to Judgment Creditors' motion and in support of its cross-motion because of the unreasonably short time it has had to respond to this motion and, by submission of this and any further matter before this Court, LAN-Chile should not be understood to have waived any further rights it may have with respect to any of the proceedings herein.

* The Soto Report and Zenteno Report were both executed in the evening of April 21, 1983 in Santiago, Chile, and arrived in our offices in the afternoon of April 22, the date of this Memorandum. Morgan Affidavit ¶5. Both Reports are in Spanish. English translations are being prepared and will be provided to the Court. We note, again, the presence in the Judgment Creditors' moving papers of Spanish language documents to which we have been required to respond without the benefit of English translations, as well as other Spanish language documents as to which only uncertified, informal English translations were provided and upon which we could not rely.

Summary of Argument

In this summary proceeding pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 69(a), the Judgment Creditors attempt to execute upon the assets of LAN-Chile in order to satisfy a default judgment against the Republic of Chile (the "Republic"), a judgment rendered two and one-half years ago in an action in which LAN-Chile was never a party, wherein no efforts were made to make it a party and as to which LAN-Chile, prior to the instant proceeding before this Court, received no legal notice whatsoever. The arguments advanced to support this attempt are founded on misstatements of fact, innuendo, inadmissible hearsay, selective analogies to inapposite law, and prejudicial appeals to political and ideological notions, rather than the neutral principles of law which bind this Court, as they should bind the litigants before it.

In response, LAN-Chile demonstrates conclusively herein that Judgment Creditors may not satisfy their default judgment against LAN-Chile's assets because, first, those assets are immune from attachment, execution, and proceedings in aid thereof under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976, 28 U.S.C. §1602 et seq. (the "FSIA"). The rationale for this immunity in this case is simply stated: Judgment Creditors concede and LAN-Chile has shown that LAN-Chile is an "agency or instrumentality" of a "foreign state," as those terms are defined in 28 U.S.C. §1603. As such, its property is prima facie entitled to the sovereign immunity from execution provided for in 28 U.S.C. §1609. Contrary to Judgment Creditors' contentions, none of the FSIA's exceptions to that immunity (see 28 U.S.C. §1610) apply to this case. Moreover, LAN-Chile's assets remain immune even if these assets are deemed attachable property of the Republic and even if LAN-Chile is deemed to be the Republic's "alter ego," as Judgment Creditors further claim. See, Section I, below.

Aside from LAN-Chile's sovereign immunity from execution, Judgment Creditors' motion must be denied for the equally fundamental reason that LAN-Chile's assets are not leviable property of the judgment debtor Republic. LAN-Chile is a legally separate entity from the Republic that can sue and be sued in its own name (in fact, it has sued and has been sued by the Republic), owns its property in its own right and title, contracts in its own name, borrows on its own credit, pays taxes to the Republic, maintains its own books and records, has no government employees, and operates, in accordance with the sole and exclusive purpose permitted in its Charter, i.e., as a purely commercial airline. Judgment Creditors' arguments that (a) the Republic has some leviable "property interest" or "equitable ownership interest" in LAN-Chile's assets, and (b) LAN-Chile is the "alter ego" of the Republic, are legally unprincipled and unsupported by the record. As we demonstrate conclusively in Point II, below, these assertions by Judgment Creditors rely exclusively on grafting, alternately and selectively, inappropriate analogies from American law onto Chile's legal system and, conversely, ascribing American legal consequences to Chilean legal principles. More fundamentally, these arguments elide the choice-of-law aspects of these issues, choosing instead to follow choice-of-law "principles" that are without support, precedent or other sound foundation. See, Section II, below.

Apparently malcontented with merely twisting the law, Judgment Creditors have also grossly and irresponsibly misrepresented the relevant facts. It should be borne in mind that the "facts," as such, upon which the Judgment Creditors audaciously presume to rely were established at a default judgment hearing where neither LAN-Chile nor, of course, any defendant ever appeared. The only evidence before that Court, therefore, was proffered by the Judgment Creditors and was not subject to cross-examination or refutation. What meager facts do appear are these: Michael Townley ("Townley"), an alleged agent of an intelligence agency of the Republic, deliberately cultivated and then took advantage of personal friendships with several LAN-Chile pilots and ground personnel to carry packages and envelopes between the United States and Chile and to grant other small, personal favors, including incidental use of other LAN-Chile facilities. Neither LAN-Chile nor its employees have ever been alleged or proven to have known what was in the packages (other than such items as peanut butter and printed matter) or what Townley's aims were. Quite the contrary, later investigations by a grand jury, a Congressional subcommittee and by the Federal Aviation Administration ("FAA") found no culpable conduct on LAN-Chile's part whatsoever.

A finding for Judgment Creditors in this summary proceeding based on their factual showing would, moreover, deny LAN-Chile due process of law. Elementary notions of due process - notice and an opportunity to be heard - mean that even the bare-bones findings of fact and conclusions of law in the Letelier Default Judgment may not bind LAN-Chile. These same principles forbid Judgment Creditors from "bootstrapping" a judgment against the Republic into one against LAN-Chile by the sorcery of alter ego notions or otherwise. The innuendo, misrepresentation, and hearsay which Judgment Creditors use to support their motion fall far short, even if believed, of the plenary proof of their case necessary for them to prevail.

Finally, the remedy Judgment Creditors seek here, appointing Judgment Creditor Michael Moffitt a receiver of LAN-Chile's United States assets, is entirely inappropriate.

Statement of Facts

A. Background

LAN-Chile is a civil airline organized and existing since 1932 under the laws of Chile. Judgment Creditors are the personal representatives and members of the families of Orlando Letelier and Ronnie Karpen Moffitt, both of whom were killed on

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

September 21, 1976 in Washington, D.C. by an explosive device planted in Orlando Letelier's automobile. Alleging that this device had been planted by an intelligence agent of the Republic, Michael Vernon Townley, and members of a Cuban liberation movement, the Judgment Creditors commenced the Letelier Action on August 8, 1978 to recover damages for the deaths of Mr. Letelier and Mrs. Moffitt and for injuries sustained by Judgment Creditor Michael Moffitt, who had also been in the car at the time. The original named defendants in the Letelier Action were several individuals, not relevant to this motion, the Republic, and Central Nacional de Informaciones ("CNI"), originally identified as an "agency or instrumentality" of the Republic. All of the defendants defaulted.

There are two reported decisions in the Letelier Action: Letelier v. Republic of Chile, 488 F. Supp. 665 (D.D.C. 1980) (discussing sovereign immunity) and deLetelier v. Republic of Chile, 502 F. Supp. 259 (D.D.C. 1980) (entry of the default judgment). (Henceforth, these decisions will be referred to as "Letelier I" and "Letelier II", respectively.)

LAN-Chile was not a named defendant in the Letelier Default Judgment. At no time was it served with process in that action. Neither were any LAN-Chile employees named as defendants or served with process. There is no record that any efforts were ever made to serve LAN-Chile or any of its employees, even though Judgment Creditors named and served process on CNI, which they alleged was an "agency or instrumentality" of the Republic, and even though throughout the Letelier Action they repeatedly served various notices on CNI, the Republic, and the individual defendants.* See, Combe Affidavit, Ex. 3. Moreover (and more incredibly in view of Judgment Creditors' belated assertions of LAN-Chile's supposed involvement and culpability in the events alleged to support the default), despite the fact that, as early as November 1978, attorneys for Judgment Creditors admitted that they were planning to levy on LAN-Chile's assets to satisfy any judgment they might obtain in the Letelier Action, Judgment Creditors did not join LAN-Chile as a party to the Letelier Action. See, Townley letter to "Don Hector", p.2 (November 24, 1978), attached as Exhibit D, p. 79, to Affidavit of John J. Privitera, Esq. submitted in support of Judgment Creditors' motion (the "Privitera Affidavit").

UNCLASSIFIED

Despite these facts, the Judgment Creditors now seek to enforce their default judgment against the Republic by levying on assets in the United States of an entirely different legal entity, LAN-Chile. These efforts come two and one-half years after

* The ex parte Plaintiffs later agreed to dismiss CNI. Letelier II, 502 F.Supp. at 261 n.2.

 This disclosure is but the most vivid instance of the attempts made by Judgment Creditors to have it both ways, i.e., establishing liability by default against the utterly immune Republic, on the one hand, and enforcing that "liability" against LAN-Chile as an "agency or instrumentality" with more limited FSIA immunity on the other. This argument is exposed for the cynical shell game it truly is in Point I of this Argument, below.

the default judgment was entered, and more than a year and one-half after Judgment Creditors were granted permission pursuant to 28 U.S.C.§§1610(c) and 1608(e) to seek to enforce it. See, Combe Affidavit, Ex. 5.

B. The Letelier Default Judgment

In the Letelier Action Judgment Creditors alleged five causes of action: (1) 42 U.S.C. §1985 conspiracy to deprive Mr. Letelier and Mrs. Moffitt of their civil rights, (2) common law assault and battery, (3) common law reckless transportation and use of explosives, (4) violations of international law, and (5) an implied right of action under 18 U.S.C. §1116 (murder of a foreign official). See, Letelier II, 502 F. Supp. at 260 n.1; Letelier v. Republic of Chile First Amended Complaint ¶¶ 7-15 (August 23, 1978) (Ex. 2 to Combe Affidavit) ("Letelier Amended Complaint").

The original named defendants were CNI*, the Republic, three alleged officials of CNI (all Chilean citizens), Townley an American citizen, resident in Chile, and the alleged DINA agent who later was extradited to the United States and became an informant with respect to the bombing), and several members of the Cuban National Movement (who also allegedly participated in the bombing).* Id. ¶¶4-5. Several "John Doe" defendants were also named (id. ¶6), but were later dismissed with Judgment Creditors' concurrence. Letelier II, 502 F.Supp. at 261 n.2.

Neither LAN-Chile nor any of its employees was ever named as defendants.

All of the defendants defaulted by failing to appear. The Republic submitted a diplomatic note to the United States Department of State, which in turn passed it on to the Letelier Court. This note questioned the Court's subject-matter jurisdiction because of the Republic's sovereign immunity from suit, and the Court responded in Letelier I, 488 F. Supp. 665.

The Court ruled that it had subject-matter jurisdiction over the Republic and CNI based only on 28 U.S.C. §1605(a)(5), which states:

> (a) A foreign state shall not be immune from the jurisdiction of courts of the United States or of the States in any case -
> ...
> (5) ... in which money damages are sought against a foreign state for personal injury or death ... occurring in the United States and

* These were Alvin Ross Diaz, Virgilio Paz Romero, Jose Dionisio Suarez Esquivel, Guillermo Novo Sampol and Ignacio Novo Sampol. It is not without interest that, in contrast to the default judgment obtained ex parte in the Letelier action, the defendants who were tried in a criminal action for their participation in the plot which Judgment Creditors describe at length (Privitera Affidavit ¶¶ 5-21 passim) were all acquitted. The appellate opinion reversing the initial convictions is reported as United States v. Sampol, 204 U.S. App. D.C. 349, 636 F.2d 621 (D.C. Cir. 1980).

Subsequently, on June 20, 1978 the Court held a hearing pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1608(e) in order for the claimants to establish their claims "by evidence satisfactory to the Court."* The Letelier Court, by Judge Green, made extensive findings of fact relying as to the liability issue entirely on the recorded hearsay testimony of Townley at the prior criminal trial, together with some documentary exhibits and like corroborative evidence which may or may not have been hearsay as to the Republic. Letelier II, 502 F. Supp. at 261 n. 3.

This explicit reliance on the Townley's prior hearsay testimony from the first Sampol trial was based on the unfounded ruling that Townley, although in the Witness Protection Program,

* By this time the action had been dismissed as to CNI, the "John Doe" defendants, and defendants Virgilio Paz and Jose Suarez. Letelier II, 502 F. Supp. at 261 n. 2. Thus, no claim is tenable, and we do not understand the Judgment Creditors to contend, that LAN-Chile by virtue of any alias or other persona was in any way before the Court at this hearing.

 Compare United States v. Sampol, 636 F.2d at 640 where the Court stated: "Without Townley's testimony the government would not have had a case."

was unavailable to appear as a witness. The Court proceeded to make a finding of unavailability of the witness, pursuant to the catch-all provisions of Federal Rule of Evidence 804(a)(5) "because of the clear and present danger to Mr. Townley and to other persons" by having Townley produced to testify. The finding of unavailability was unsupported by the direction of any writ of habeas corpus ad testificandum to the United States Marshal's Service.*

As a consequence of the findings on this hearing a default judgment was entered against all of the remaining defendants, with the significant exception of Ignacio Novo Sampol. As against him, the case was dismissed because he did not have the requisite knowledge of and involvement in the alleged murders at the time they were committed to be found liable under any of the counts of the Letelier Amended Complaint. Id. at 266 n. 4.

On October 21, 1980, the Judgment Creditors moved the Court to make findings of fact against LAN-Chile "to preserve

* Clearly, the Court had the power to produce Townley to testify by the means of a writ. 28 U.S.C. §2241(a) and (c)(5). The Judge sought to bolster her admission of Townley's prior testimony by noting that it was nowhere questioned by the Court of Appeals in its reversal of the criminal convictions. This, of course, misses the mark because the Court of Appeals specifically found that without Townley's testimony the Government would not have had a case and then reversed all the convictions because the importance of corroborating Townley foreclosed the possibility of a finding of harmless error in the admission of the testimony of the prison informers. The wisdom of the Court of Appeals in refusing to find "harmless error" was at least somewhat confirmed by the subsequent acquittals of all defendants.

plaintiffs' rights concerning collection of a judgment herein."* See, Combe Affidavit, Ex. 4. The Court made no "findings" as to LAN-Chile, and only made the following statement concerning LAN-Chile:

> Uncontradicted testimony demonstrated that facilities and personnel of LAN-Chile Airlines, a foreign air carrier owned and operated by the government of Chile, were used by Townley in connection with the preparation and carrying out of the assassination of Orlando Letelier and Ronnie Moffitt.

Id. at 262. Without mentioning LAN-Chile by name, the Court also stated, at 264: "Townley, traveling under the name of Kenneth Enyart, returned to Chile on a Chilean airline flight that left Miami on the evening of Wednesday, September 22, 1976." The Court made no other mention of LAN-Chile.

* Despite this clear - even brazen - expression of Judgment Creditors' intention to attempt to collect the judgment against the Republic by going against LAN-Chile, Judgment Creditors made no effort to give LAN-Chile notice of its motion to have these facts "found."

 A close reading of Judge Green's statements shows that there was no "finding" as to any LAN-Chile actions or involvement other than carrying Townley as a passenger on September 22, 1976. As to any of the supposed actions by LAN-Chile, Judge Green merely "found" that there was certain "uncontradicted testimony." That the testimony should have been "uncontradicted" will come as no surprise in that, as stated earlier, neither LAN-Chile nor anybody else was present to give evidence or argue another view. In any event the "uncontradicted testimony" to which the Court referred related not to acts of LAN-Chile but to incidental use by Townley of certain LAN-Chile personnel and facilities. See, Combe Affidavit, Ex. 4.

What emerges from the Letelier II decision and the Letelier Amended Complaint is the following: (1) LAN-Chile was never a named defendant in the action, (2) none of the Letelier Amended Complaint's allegations can be fairly read to encompass LAN-Chile, (3) none of the Letelier Action's theories of action could apply to LAN-Chile, (4) all of the findings of fact as to liability were based on Townley's inadmissible hearsay testimony, and (5) none of the findings of fact or conclusions of law in the Letelier Default Judgment could be deemed to be or were intended as findings or conclusions which bind LAN-Chile. Nothing in the Letelier Default Judgment demonstrates that:

> (a) LAN-Chile or its agents or employees knew of or knowingly participated in the actions complained of;
> (b) LAN-Chile or its employees conspired to deprive Mr. Letelier and Mrs. Moffitt of their civil rights under 42 U.S.C. §1985. Letelier Amended Complaint ¶7 (Combe Affidavit, Ex. 2);
> (c) LAN-Chile or any of its employees "wilfully, maliciously, deliberately and intentionally did commit an assault and battery upon Orlando Letelier and Ronnie Karpen Moffitt." Id. ¶9;
> (d) LAN-Chile "negligently, recklessly, and with reason to believe that their conduct created a grave risk of death to Orlando Letelier, Ronnie Moffitt and others, transported and agreed to transport explosives and to place and detonate said explosives within the District of Columbia, which acts resulted in the death of Orlando Letelier and Ronnie Karpen Moffitt." Id. ¶ 11.
> (e) LAN-Chile violated international law pertaining to acts of "torture, unlawful confinement and assassination..." Id. ¶ 13;

(f) Finally, as to the implied right of action under 18 U.S.C. §1116, LAN-Chile could not be a proper defendant under that statute, and therefore no right of action can be implied against it thereunder. Id. ¶¶ 15-16.

The Court entered default judgment against the Republic only on the assault and battery and reckless transportation of explosives counts.* Letelier II, 502 F.Supp. at 266.

C. Other Investigations of LAN-Chile's Alleged Involvement

Not only were there no findings in the Letelier Default Judgment that LAN-Chile was liable, but other official investigations by the FAA have also found LAN-Chile to be innocent of any wrongdoing, and hearings by a Congressional subcommittee supported this finding.

It is a matter of public record, of course, that no LAN-Chile employee of whatever level in the company, whether stationed in the United States or Chile, was indicted by the Washington, D.C. grand jury which indicted Townley, other Chilean

* As set forth below, there are no facts anywhere which support the theory that LAN-Chile knew or should have known that explosives were being transported on its aircraft. Nothing in the Townley testimony (Exhibit C to Privitera Affidavit) indicates this, and even the double hearsay contained in the FBI report (Exhibit D to Privitera Affidavit) which must in any event be disregarded by the Court, Fed. R. Evid. Rule 802 and 805, suggests nothing to the contrary. In any event, as demonstrated in Section I(c) below, LAN-Chile has been found to have had no culpability and to have done nothing improper with respect to these counts.

officials, and members of the Cuban Nationalist Movement. The grand jury, hearings held by the Congressional subcommittee, and the FAA found no evidence that (1) LAN-Chile employees participated in any conspiracy with respect to the deaths, (2) any LAN-Chile employee knew that Townley carried or had them carry explosives, or related paraphernalia, (3) any LAN-Chile official condoned, authorized, or even knew about the favors lower-echelon employees performed for Townley, or (4) LAN-Chile or any of its employees received or obeyed any orders or directives from CNI, DINA or the Republic or any of its other agencies with respect to these matters.

The Congressional hearings appear in a Congressional report entitled Alleged Violations of U.S. Aviation Laws and Regulations by LAN-Chile Airlines: Hearings Before a Subcommittee of the House Committee on Government Operations, 96th Cong., 2d Sess. (May 9, 1980) (copy attached as Exhibit 6 to Combe Affidavit) ("House LAN-Chile Hearings"). The resultant report is contained in H.R. Rep. No. 96-1157, 96th Cong., 2d Sess. (July 8, 1980) (Ex. 7 to Combe Affidavit). The first persons to testify at these hearings were the Assistant U.S. Attorney and FBI agents who investigated the bombing. They testified that Townley had managed to befriend several LAN-Chile employees and pilots and had used these friendships to have them carry small packages between the United States and Chile. House LAN-Chile Hearings at 2-9. But they also testified that these LAN-

Chile personnel did not know either that Townley was a DINA agent or what was in the packages they were carrying. Lawrence Barcella, the Assistant U.S. Attorney, summarized the results of their investigation as follows:

> There was no evidence we were able to develop that LAN-Chile personnel were aware of what Mr. Townley had done. But they did give him certain courtesies and assistance that basically enabled him to carry out the mission, although their level of knowledge and level of intent as far as our investigation was able to reveal was such that we could not proceed against them criminally.

Id. at 9.

More specifically, Mr. Barcella testified:

> Mr. Townley told us in his interviews repeatedly that the LAN-Chile personnel that he utilized for a couple of years on a substantial number of occasions generally and specifically were not aware of why he was doing what he was doing or even what was included in some of the packages and envelopes that he was shipping back and forth between New York and Santiago.

Id. at 12.

Fernando Cruchaga, LAN-Chile's Assistant Station Manager at John F. Kennedy International Airport in 1976, also testified before the House subcommittee. He testified that he did not know that Townley or the other Chileans allegedly involved were, in fact, DINA agents. Id. at 14-15.* More importantly, Mr. Cruchaga testified that no LAN-Chile officials ever gave him any instructions with respect to Townley or any other alleged DINA agents:

> [CONGRESSMAN JOHN BURTON]. Did you ever receive any instructions from LAN-Chile officials relative to helping Mr. Townley, Capt. Fernandez, or Miss Lillian A. Walker?
> MR. CRUCHAGA. No, sir.

Id. at 14.

At the criminal trial of the Cuban Nationalist Movement members, Townley also testified about LAN-Chile. This testimony is fairly summarized by the Administrator of the FAA in his letter of January 16, 1980 to Congressman Burton:

> According to the transcripts of Townley's testimony, he did not transport explosives used in the Letelier assassination on LAN-Chile aircraft. He commented during the trial that he had obtained the explosives from individuals in New Jersey. Townley did admit that he had transported some components of the explosive device from Chile to the United States via LAN-Chile Airlines unbeknown to airline personnel. The transcripts further indicate that Townley did send explosives from Chile to members of the Cuban Nationalist Movement in the United States. These, he testified, were transported in correspondence, letters, and small packages utilizing the friendship

* The grand jury testimony of Cruchaga, attached as Exhibit B to the Privitera Affidavit (presumably as support for the motion to appoint a receiver), is materially identical to Cruchaga's testimony before the House subcommittee (see Cruchaga's Grand Jury Testimony, Exhibit B to Privitera Affidavit at 18, 24).

> of LAN-Chile pilots. Townley, according to the transcripts, also stated: "At no time did they have knowledge that they were carrying explosives."

H.R. Rep. No. 96-1157 at 27 (emphases added).

In other words, there is no evidence, nor has there ever been any evidence, that LAN-Chile knowingly participated in, or, indeed, had anything to do with, the deaths of Mr. Letelier or Mrs. Moffitt. Nor is there any evidence -- from the two criminal trials, from the grand jury investigation, from the two official U.S. government investigations, from the ex parte proceedings before the Letelier Court, or even from the extravagant and misleading representations of Judgment Creditors herein -- that LAN-Chile knew or should have known that Townley was so involved. Similarly, there is no evidence that the Republic ever directed LAN-Chile to cooperate in this venture, or even in general, to provide assistance to DINA or CNI agents.*

* In any event, whatever actions were undertaken by LAN-Chile pilots and other employees were not officially sanctioned or condoned by LAN-Chile. These employees were performing favors for a friend outside the scope of their employment. There is no proof that any pilot knew what was in the packages, packages which Cruchaga testified were opened only by U.S. Customs officials, never by himself. These packages never contained explosives to Cruchaga's knowledge. Ex. B to Privitera Affidavit at 7, 9, 23, 26 and 29.

D. LAN-Chile's Relationship with the Republic

Under its Organic Statute and the applicable Chilean law, LAN-Chile is a separate legal entity, created for the purpose of providing commercial air transportation services within and without Chile. Soto and Zenteno Reports, passim. LAN-Chile is part of the decentralized administration of the Republic, as are other separate legal entities serving specific purposes. Id. As such, LAN-Chile is not under the direct control of the President of the Republic, as are the ministries which form part of the centralized administration of the Chilean State. Id. LAN-Chile does not stand in an hierarchical relationship with the President of the Republic. Id. Through the Ministry of Transportation, the Republic exercises only an oversight function as to LAN-Chile's operations to the extent of ensuring that it carries out the purposes for which it was created. Soto Report, passim.

LAN-Chile is a commercial enterprise, and must be remunerated for services it provides. Soto Report, passim. LAN-Chile is a separate legal entity from all other legal persons, including the Fisco, which is the legal embodiment of the centralized administration of the Republic with respect to all fiscal matters. Id. LAN-Chile can sue and be sued by the Fisco. Id. In fact, the Republic has recently engaged in substantial administrative litigation with LAN-Chile in respect of taxes it claims

LAN-Chile owes. Del Campo Declaration ¶14. LAN-Chile is liable for taxes on the same basis as a private commercial enterprise. Id.; Soto Report passim.

LAN-Chile's property is wholly separate from that of the Fisco. Soto Report, passim. The Fisco and LAN-Chile enter into obligations on their own behalves, and neither is responsible for the other's debts or liabilities. Id.; Del Campo Declaration ¶12. LAN-Chile's assets cannot be reached to satisfy a judgment against the Republic, and vice versa. Soto Report, passim. A Chilean judgment that purported to do so would be void as violating Constitutional and procedural law. Id.

Moreover, the above is a matter of Chilean Constitutional jurisprudence dating back at least to the Constitution of 1925 and, in some matters, to the Constitution of 1833.

LAN-Chile is self-managed, having its principal place of business in Santiago, Chile. Del Campo Declaration ¶4. It is managed by its President and Board of Directors. Id. LAN-Chile's employees are not government functionaries, except for a few who teach on a private, part-time basis. Id. ¶15.

LAN-Chile's operations are solely those of a commercial enterprise. The Republic must pay for the LAN-Chile services it utilizes. Id. ¶9. LAN-Chile purchases, owns, and sells its property in its own name. Id. ¶10. Its bank accounts are its own, as are its books and records. Id. ¶¶11-13.

In addition to the tax litigation mentioned, in the past the Republic has sued LAN-Chile in Chilean courts. Id. ¶14. The Chilean Civil Aeronautics Board regulates LAN-Chile's flight operations in the same way that that it regulates the operations of private air carriers. Id. ¶16.

A great many of the claims made in the Affidavit of Eugenio Velasco submitted by Judgment Creditors ("Velasco Affidavit") are simply untrue. Id. ¶16 fn. LAN-Chile does not, as Velasco contends, serve any "supplementary purposes" of the Republic. Id. ¶18. It does not perform services for the Republic without remuneration. Id. And LAN-Chile is not required to fulfill any other functions of the Republic which call for air transporation. Id.

Overall, the Velasco Affidavit presents many problems. First, Velasco has no basis for many of the opinions he sets forth. He has never been employed by LAN-Chile (id. ¶3) or, apparently, any other state-owned commercial enterprise in Chile. Velasco Affidavit ¶1. He has not even been in Chile since 1976 (id.), and given the circumstances of his leaving, he can hardly be characterized as a dispassionate expert. Nor does he appear to have any relevant professional expertise in respect of the manner in which the Chilean Government is organized, and the relationships between various state entities and the State itself. A number of his statements are flatly contradicted in the Zenteno and Soto Reports. One of his statements (Velasco Affidavit ¶18) is entirely unsupported and flatly contradicts earlier sworn testimony he gave on the same subject and on which his affidavit purports to rely. Zenteno Report, passim.

In other words, Judgment Creditors have adduced no factual foundation for Velasco's assertions about LAN-Chile's juridical relations with the Republic or its operations or its day-to-day relations with the Republic. As demonstrated conclusively in the Del Campo Declaration and the Soto and Zenteno Reports, these operations and relations are those of a separate legal person.

In summary, LAN-Chile is a separate juridical entity whose relation to the Republic is not such so as to justify a conclusion that they are a single entity or one is the alter ego of the other.

Argument

I. LAN-CHILE'S ASSETS ARE IMMUNE FROM EXECUTION UNDER THE FOREIGN SOVEREIGN IMMUNITIES ACT

A. LAN-Chile is an "Agency or Instrumentality" of a "Foreign State" Entitled to Execution Immunity Under the FSIA

The FSIA establishes a broad rule, subject only to limited exceptions, that the property of a "foreign state" or an "agency or instrumentality" of a foreign state is immune, inter alia, from execution to satisfy a judgment:

> Subject to existing international agreements to which the United States is a party at the time of enactment of this Act, the property in the United States of a foreign state shall be immune from attachment, arrest and execution except as provided in sections 1610 and 1611 of this chapter.

UNCLASSIFIED

28 U.S.C. §1609. As used in this section "foreign state" includes any "agency or instrumentality" of the state. 28 U.S.C. §1603(a).

LAN-Chile, as the Judgment Creditors themselves admit, is an "agency or instrumentality" of the Republic of Chile. An "agency or instrumentality" is defined by the FSIA as any entity:

> (1) which is a separate legal person, corporate or otherwise, and
> (2) which is an organ of a foreign state or political subdivision thereof, or a majority of whose shares or other ownership interest is owned by a foreign state or political subdivision thereof, and
> (3) which is neither a citizen of a state of the United States as defined in section 1332(c) and (d) of this Title, nor created under the laws of any third country.

Id. §1603(b). LAN-Chile meets all of these criteria. Under Chilean law, it is a separate legal entity. Soto and Zenteno Reports, passim. "The first criterion, that the entity be a separate legal person, is intended to include a corporation, association, foundation or any other entity which, under the law of the foreign state where it was created, can sue or be sued in its own name, contract in its own name or hold property in its own name."

Compania Acero del Pacifico, S.A., 78 Civ. 2451 (S.D.N.Y., August 17, 1978) (Chilean law referred to in order to determine if entity was "agency or instrumentality" of Republic). Similarly, LAN-Chile meets the second and third criteria. Soto Report; Del Campo Declaration ¶4.

Thus, LAN-Chile's property in the United States is immune from execution as long as none of the exceptions to that immunity, enumerated in 28 U.S.C. §1610, applies.* As set forth below, none of them does.

B. The "Commercial Activity" Exception of 28 U.S.C. §1610(a)(2) Does not Defeat LAN-Chile's Immunity Subsection 1610(a)(2) of the FSIA allows execution in satisfaction of a judgment against a foreign agency's commercial property in the United States only if "the property is or was used for the commercial activity upon which the claim is based...." This exception does not apply to LAN-Chile for several reasons.

First, the claims of the Letelier Default Judgment were not based upon any "activity" of LAN-Chile, commercial or otherwise. Indeed, those claims could not have been based on any activity of LAN-Chile because LAN-Chile was not named as a party and no judgment was entered against LAN-Chile in the Letelier Action. Moreover, the activity upon which the claim was based had nothing to do with LAN-Chile. Rather, it was based on alleged murders undertaken by individuals who were not LAN-Chile employees. The Letelier Court merely referred to the use of LAN-Chile by one of the individual defendants; it neither found nor adverted to any culpable conduct on the part of LAN-Chile or any of its employees. In short, Judgment Creditors stumble over the first hurdle in trying to show that 1610(a)(2)'s exception applies to LAN-Chile.

Secondly, subsection 1610(a)(2) also clearly states that the claim upon which execution is sought must be based on "commercial activity." To be sure, as set forth in the Del Campo Declaration (¶¶6, 9), LAN-Chile is a commercial entity engaged exclusively in a "commercial activity," i.e., commercial air transportation. But there can be no doubt that the Letelier and Moffitt murders, however appalling and disgusting, were not "commercial." The Letelier Default Judgment, therefore, was not based on "commercial activity." To the contrary, it was explicitly based upon noncommercial torts under 28 U.S.C. §1605(a)(5). Letelier I, 488 F. Supp. at 666. Likewise, causes of action for a 42 U.S.C. §1985 conspiracy, common law battery, common law reckless use of explosives, breach of international law, and an implied right of action under a federal criminal statute are not "commercial activity." See, 28 U.S.C. §1603(d); House Report 94-1487 at 16.

Quite apart from the foregoing discussion of common sense and plain language, it is also clear under the case law and the FSIA's legislative history that claims under 1605(a)(5) - such as the Letelier Action claims - are mutually exclusive from "commercial activity" claims. "Section 1605(a)(5) ... is cast in general terms as applying to all tort actions for money damages, not otherwise encompassed by section 1605(a)(2) relating to commercial activities." House Report 94-1487 at 20-21 (emphasis added); see, DeSanchez v. Banco Central de Nicaragua, 515 F. Supp. 900, 914 (E.D. La. 1981) (distinguishing 1605(a)(5) tort as being mutually exclusive from "commercial activity" tort). Accordingly, since 1610(a)(2)'s reference to claims based on "commercial activity" is, by definition, exclusive of the non-commercial claims upon which the Letelier Default Judgment was based, the Judgment Creditors cannot now seek to defeat LAN-Chile's sovereign immunity by invoking the "commercial activity" exception to execution immunity contained in 1610(a)(2).

In fact, it has been recognized that the only means of executing upon a judgment based on a 1605(a)(5) tort, such as the Letelier Default Judgment, is either by virtue of a waiver of execution immunity under 1610(a)(1), Note, The Problem of Execution Uniformity Under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976 and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 69, 12 VAL. U. L. REV. 569, 587 (1979), or by proceeding against an insurance policy indemnifying the foreign state from liability for the claim merged into the judgment. 28 U.S.C. §1610(a)(5). "There is no express provision for execution on a tort judgment under Section 1605(a)(5) except in the case of an insurance policy." Letter from Charles Brower, Robert Craft and Mark B. Feldman* on behalf of American Bar Association, Section of International Law, to The Honorable Davis Robinson, Legal Advisor, U.S. Department of State, p. 4 (March 24, 1983) (copy attached in Appendix). The FSIA's legislative history itself states these views of executing under 1610(a)(2). It provides that execution pursuant to 1610(a)(2) may be available for claims based on (a) "commercial activities encompased by 1605(a)(2)," (b) "commercial activity" as to which a waiver under 1605(a)(1) could apply, and (c) "commercial activity" giving rise to a maritime lien under 1605(b). No mention whatsoever is made of noncommercial torts under 1605(a)(5) being satisfied by way of 1610(a)(2). House Report 94-1487 at 28.

The Judgment Creditors have thus stumbled over the second hurdle, too, for their claims were not based on "commercial activity" by LAN-Chile or, for that matter, the Republic.

The final hurdle is equally problematic for Judgment Creditors. Even if one assumes that (1) the mutual exclusivity of 1605(a)(5) claims and "commercial activity" did not exist, and (2) the claims of the Letelier Default Judgment were based on "activity" of LAN-Chile, then subsection 1610(a)(2) would still not defeat LAN-Chile's execution immunity because LAN-Chile's "activity" with respect to the gravamen of the Letelier Default Judgment was not "commercial activity" within the meaning of subsection 1610(a)(2). While "commercial activity" is to be broadly defined, referring to the nature of the conduct rather than its purpose, Texas Trading & Milling Corp. v. Federal Republic of Nigeria, 647 F.2d 300, 308 (2d Cir. 1981), cert. denied 454 U.S. 1148 (1982); House Report 94-1487 at 16, the conduct involved here has no commercial aspect. For instance, in a case similar in this respect, Perez v. The Bahamas, 482 F. Supp. 1208 (D.D.C. 1980), aff'd 652 F.2d 186 (D.C. Cir. 1981), cert. denied 454 U.S. 865 (1981) the parents of an American minor sued The Bahamas for injuries resulting from that country's police shooting at him when he encroached upon Bahamian fishing waters. The court held that the action of the police did not constitute "commercial activity" even though the Bahamian police may have been protecting their country's commercial fishing interests. 482 F. Supp. at 1210. Here, as in Perez, although there may be an incidental commercial aspect of certain activities relating to the claims, the actual activity giving rise to the claims was not commercial.*

In a case materially identical to this one, Arango v. Guzman Travel Advisors Corp., 621 F.2d 1371 (5th Cir. 1980), plaintiffs sued the Dominican national air carrier, an agency of the Dominican Republic, for false imprisonment and battery when employees of the airline assisted Dominican Republic officials in preventing the plaintiffs from deplaning because they were allegedly on a list of "undesirable aliens." The plaintiffs also claimed, however, for breach of contract and warranty based on the miscarriage and nonperformance of the contemplated vacation tour. Dominicana defended on the ground that plaintiffs' claims arose not from the commercial activity of its airline operations, but from the acts of Dominican immigration officials in expelling the Arangos from the Dominican Republic. The Court distinguished between the false imprisonment and battery claims, on the one hand, and the breach of warranty and contract claims on the other. As to the former, the Court found the airline not answerable and rejected the plaintiffs' urging of the "commercial activity" exception:

* The allegations of the Privitera Affidavit -- that LAN-Chile airplanes, departure lounges, pilots, telephones, and tickets were used -- prove too much. The claim here is not that LAN-Chile entered the marketplace and dishonored its contract of carriage, or damaged some cargo, or poisoned a passenger. The claim here, asserted against others, was that Mr. Letelier was deliberately murdered. LAN-Chile's commercial activity was not implicated in this claim. Indeed, the claims of favors done for Townley -- pilots carrying packages, Cruchaga accompanying Townley to rent a car, permitting Townley access to the cockpit -- even if true and even if LAN-Chile knew Townley's aims, cut against Judgment Creditors' theory inasmuch as these supposed delicts may readily be discerned as "noncommercial" in the sense that LAN-Chile, on this theory, received no revenue for this activity. See, Arango v. Guzman Travel Advisors Corp., 621 F.2d 1371, 1379 (5th Cir. 1980).

> The focus of the exception to immunity recognized in §1605(a)(2) is not on whether the defendant generally engages in a commercial enterprise or activity, as an airline such as Dominicana unquestionably does; rather, it is on whether the particular conduct giving rise to the claim in question actually constitutes or is in connection with commercial activity, regardless of the defendant's generally commercial or governmental character....Dominicana's actions in connection with the "involuntary re-routing" were not commercial. Dominicana was impressed into service to perform these functions, for which it apparently was not compensated, by Dominican immigration officials pursuant to that country's laws. Dominicana acted merely as an arm or agent of the Dominican government in carrying out this assigned role, and, as such, is entitled to the same immunity from any liability arising from that governmental function as would inure to the government, itself.

Id. at 1379. Contrastingly, the airline was held to answer for the plaintiffs' allegation concerning breaches of contract and warranty because these claims, and the duties alleged therein to have been breached, arose directly from or in connection with its marketing and execution of contracts and thus plainly stemmed from Dominicana's "commercial activity" in the United States.

Applying the Arango rationale to our facts, it is clear that, even on Judgment Creditors' theory and accepting for the purposes of argument their allegations as true, their claims are indistinguishable from the tort claims in Arango and, even further accepting for the purposes of argument that LAN-Chile did through its employees what is alleged it did knowingly, it is no different from Dominicana which allegedly assisted the immigration officers. Accordingly, the Republic's absolute execution immunity, on Judgment Creditors' own submission, would be conferred on LAN-Chile as well. Id. In any event, the underlying claim clearly did not arise out of a "commercial activity."*

In conclusion, subsection 1610(a)(2) avails the Judgment Creditors not at all. Clearly, the Letelier Default Judgment was not based on any activity of LAN-Chile or on any "commercial activity" by LAN-Chile, the Republic, or anyone else. Thus, it is merely ridiculous to suggest, given the structure of the FSIA, that execution on that judgment could be had based on the "commercial activity" exception to execution immunity found in 28 U.S.C. §1610(a)(2).

---

* Other cases have recognized that commercial entities may sometimes engage in noncommercial activities, thereby evidencing the narrow interpretation given to "commercial activity" under the FSIA. Yessenin-Volpin v. Novosti Press Agency, 443 F.Supp. 849 (S.D.N.Y. 1978); Upton v. Empire of Iran, 459 F.Supp. 264 (D.D.C. 1978), aff'd without opinion 607 F.2d 494 (D.C. Cir. 1979). See, also, DeSanchez v. Banco Central de Nicaragua, 515 F.Supp. 900 (central bank engaging in transactions to control foreign exchange not engaged in "commercial activity" simply because transaction has commercial effects).

C. The Exception of 28 U.S.C. §1610(b)(2) Does Not Defeat LAN-Chile's Immunity Judgment Creditors also seek to justify execution against LAN-Chile by claiming that under 1610(b)(2) of the FSIA LAN-Chile's assets may be executed upon because, as assets of a mere "agency or instrumentality" of a foreign state, they are not immune to satisfy claims reduced to judgment against the foreign state itself. This claim, which depends both on ignoring the statutory framework of the FSIA and (consistent with the other arguments made by Judgment Creditors) performing hocus-pocus on the English language, must be rejected.

Subsection 1610(b)(2) of the FSIA provides for certain limited exceptions to execution immunity of property in the United States owned by a commercial agency or instrumentality of a foreign state:

> (b) ... any property in the United States of an agency or instrumentality of a foreign state engaged in commercial activity in the United States shall not be immune from attachment in aid of execution, or from execution, upon a judgment entered by a court of the United States or of a State ... if:
> (2) The judgment relates to a claim for which the agency or instrumentality is not immune by virtue of section 1605(a) ... (5) ... regardless of whether the property is or was used for the activity upon which the claim is based.

(emphasis added). As discussed above, section 1605(a)(5), referred to in the above language, is the section upon which the

UNCLASSIFIED

Letelier Default Judgment was based. Section 1605(a)(5) states in material part:

> (a) A foreign state shall not be immune from the jurisdiction of the courts of the United States ... in any case -
> (5) ... in which money damages are sought against a foreign state for personal injury or death ... occurring in the United States and caused by the tortious act or omission of that foreign state ...

A reading of the above sections reveals that the Judgment Creditors' reliance on 1610(b)(2) to defeat LAN-Chile's immunity from execution is misplaced for several reasons.

The purpose of 1610(b) was to put commercial agencies of a foreign state on a more equal footing with private commercial enterprises in terms of satisfying judgments against them. Note, The Problem of Execution Uniformity, 12 VAL. U. L. REV. at 586-88. Subsection 1610(b) does this by providing for means of execution against agencies that are unavailable against their governments. House Report 94-1487 at 29-30. Execution is also available in a broader range of actions against commercial agencies than against foreign governments. Subsection 1610(b) is therefore not designed to provide additional means of execution against foreign governments on claims based on noncommercial wrongs. The FSIA's statutory scheme, thus, forbids the use of 1610(b)(2) to levy upon LAN-Chile's assets to satisfy a judgment against the Republic. The FSIA may simply not be read to carve cut broader exceptions to pre-existing immunity rules as to commercial agencies, on the one hand, and to ignore the clear separateness of commercial agencies from their state, on the other hand.

UNCLASSIFIED

Also, no claims - whether based on 1605(a)(5) or otherwise - could have been or were made against LAN-Chile in the Letelier Default Judgment.* For this reason, too, 1610(b)(2) cannot be used to defeat its sovereign immunity from execution to satisfy that judgment.

Judgment Creditors' "alter ego" and "equitable interest" arguments do not change this conclusion. Subsection 1610(b) is not to be used as a means of "piercing the entity veil" to satisfy judgments against foreign states or their agencies:

> Section 1610(b) will not permit execution against the property of one agency or instrumentality to satisfy a judgment against another, unrelated agency or instrumentality.... There are compelling reasons for this. If U.S. law did not respect the separate juridical identities of different agencies or instrumentalities, it might encourage foreign jurisdictions to disregard the juridical divisions between different U.S. corporations or between a U.S. corporation and its independent subsidiary.

House Report 94-1487 at 29 (citations omitted).

* It is worth repeating that CNI, the DINA successor and alleged to be an "agency or instrumentality" of Chile by the Judgment Creditors, was named as a defendant. Obviously, had the plaintiffs wished to proceed against LAN-Chile on the claims they seek to press for the first time herein, it was open to them to do so. Plaintiffs' earlier failure to name LAN-Chile and to prove its claims in the plenary action should not be rewarded now by twisting the FSIA beyond recognition.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Moreover, the FSIA's definition of "agency or instrumentality" requires that reference be made to the foreign state's law to determine if a particular entity is a separate legal entity for the purpose of the FSIA. Id. at 15. Since, as Judgment Creditors admit (Velasco Affidavit ¶6), under Chilean law LAN-Chile is a separate entity, they cannot now intone ritualistically, "LAN-Chile is the Republic is LAN-Chile," thereby ignoring the clear language and intent of 1610(b)(2). That subsection is simply not available to Judgment Creditors in this proceeding.

The FSIA's legislative history clearly provides that the Act was not designed to change the substantive law of "alter ego":

> The [FSIA] is not intended to affect the substantive law of liability. Nor is it intended to affect...the attribution of responsibility between or among entities of a foreign state; for example, whether the proper entity of a foreign state has been sued, or whether an entity sued is liable in whole or in part for the claimed wrong.

Id. at 12. By the same token, the "substantive law of liability" referred to above cannot be used to alter the FSIA's clear intent.

To argue otherwise would fly in the face of the FSIA's statutory scheme. Using 1610(b)(2) -- which on its face applies only to agencies -- to execute on a judgment rendered only against a foreign state would (a) contradict the FSIA's stated goal of providing for fewer means of execution against foreign states than against their agencies (House Report 94-1487 at 29), and (b) render 1610(a) nugatory in large part, i.e., to the extent it duplicates 1610(b).* As stated in the legislative history, as long as the foreign state's law recognizes the separateness of an entity, so must the Court for the purposes of the FSIA in general, and subsection 1610(b)(2) in particular.

UNCLASSIFIED

In summary, 1610(b)(2) of the FSIA cannot be utilized by the Judgment Creditors to defeat LAN-Chile's immunity from execution.

D. LAN-Chile Has Not Waived its Immunity

As somewhat spiritless fillip to their arguments that LAN-Chile is not immune from execution, Judgment Creditors append a footnote (Letelier Memo of Law at 37 n.) claiming that LAN-

Chile has waived its sovereign immunity from execution by virtue of filing its foreign air carrier permit.*

To lay this afterthought to rest, it is necessary only to refer to the permit itself. It states that LAN-Chile "waives any right it may possess to assert any defense of sovereign immunity from suit in any action or other proceedings ... based upon any claim arising out of operation by [LAN-Chile] under this permit." 14 C.F.R. §375.26 (1982) (emphasis added).

As may be readily seen, LAN-Chile's permit does not waive its execution immunity since the Letelier Action did not "aris[e] out of operation by [LAN-Chile] under this permit." The claims in the Letelier Action did not arise out of LAN-Chile's activities at all. The Letelier Amended Complaint said nothing about LAN-Chile. Nothing in the Letelier Default Judgment constitutes a valid finding that LAN-Chile's acts proximately caused or contributed to the deaths of Mr. Letelier or Mrs. Moffitt. No such proof was adduced at the default judgment hearing.*

Moreover, even if the claim had arisen out of LAN-Chile's operation under its permit, the permit does not waive LAN-Chile's execution immunity. It waives only LAN-Chile's immunity from jurisdiction, and not its immunity from execution. The FSIA and pre-FSIA law clearly distinguish between these two immunities. Compare 28 U.S.C. §§1604 and 1605 with §§1609 and 1610; see, Dexter & Carpenter, Inc. v. Kunglig, Jarnvagsstyrelsen, 43 F.2d 705, 708 (2d Cir. 1930), cert. denied

* Even if one assumes that the claims in the Letelier Action were somehow based on LAN-Chile's acts, the permit waives immunity only for claims arising from LAN-Chile's commercial activities. See, Argentine Airlines v. Ross, 64 A.D.2d 994, 408 N.Y.S.2d 831 (3d Dept. 1978), leave to appeal denied 47 N.Y.2d 708, 418 N.Y.S.2d 1026 (1979), cert. denied 444 U.S. 973 (1979). As discussed above, the Letelier Default Judgment was based on noncommercial torts under subsection 1605(a)(5) of the FSIA, and not upon any commercial activity of any defendant or potential defendant. Letelier I, 488 F. Supp. 665. Further, as has also been discussed, the crucial test under the FSIA is not whether an agency is generally a commercial entity or generally engages in commercial activity, but whether it is engaged in a specific commercial activity giving rise to the cause of action. Under this test, whatever role LAN-Chile may have played, it cannot be called "commercial" and the permit's waiver of immunity with respect to its commercial activities cannot defeat LAN-Chile's immunity in this case. See, Arango v. Guzman Travel, supra; Yessenin-Volpin v. Novosti Press Agency, supra; Perez v. The Bahamas, supra. Thus, the permit's waiver of immunity would not apply in this noncommercial action. See, also, Paterson Zochonis v. United Arrow, discussed supra.

[illegible] U.S. 896 (1931).* Thus, waivers of immunity must clearly state which immunity is being waived. See, Flota Maritima Browning de Cuba, S.A. v. M/V Ciudad de la Habana, 335 F.2d 619 (4th Cir. 1964) (waiver of jurisdiction immunity is not waiver of execution immunity). LAN-Chile's permit, by waiving immunity "from suit," clearly waives only its jurisdiction immunity.

If further support were needed beyond the plain language of the permit itself, this Court (per Sand, J.) supplied it in Paterson, Zochonis (U.K.), Ltd. v. Compania United Arrow, S.A., 493 F. Supp. 621 (S.D.N.Y. 1980). In that action involving a maritime tort the plaintiff claimed that the fact that the defendant ship had filed an oil pollution certificate with the Federal Maritime Commission containing a waiver of sovereign immunity and appointing a U.S. agent for receipt of service of process constituted a waiver of sovereign immunity in the action, even though the alleged torts had nothing to do with oil pollution. This Court rejected that argument, stating that the waiver of immunity in the certificate was not intended to apply to cases beyond the scope of the certificate. Id. at 623. A fortiori, LAN-Chile's waiver in its permit of its jurisdiction immunity for claims arising out of its air carrier operations cannot be a waiver of its execution immunity in a judgment against a different party

* This distinction also exists in international law and the law of other nations. E.g., European Convention on State Immunity, 11 INT'L LEGAL MAT'LS 470 (1972); State Immunity Act, 1978, c. 33 (United Kingdom); see, generally, Crawford, Execution of Judgments and Foreign Sovereign Immunity, 75 AM. E. To Construe the Exceptions Under the FSIA as Authorizing Execution Against LAN-Chile's Property Would Violate Established International Law and Rules of Statutory Construction

The FSIA necessarily involves courts in delicate and intricate decisions affecting foreign entities and the foreign relations of the United States with other countries. Appropriately, the Second Circuit has cautioned courts that "circumspection is appropriate in transnational disputes..." Texas Trading & Milling Corp. v. Federal Republic of Nigeria, 647 F.2d at 315-16 n.37; accord, Leasco Data Processing Equipment Corp. v. Maxwell, 468 F.2d 1326, 1341 (2d Cir. 1972) and Kramer Motors, Inc. v. British Leyland, Ltd, 628 F.2d 1175 (9th Cir. 1980), cert, denied 449 U.S. 1062 (1980). Indeed, the purpose of the doctrine of sovereign immunity (and its corollary mandate of circumspection) is to prevent embarrassment to the Executive Branch and injury to United States foreign relations resulting from decisions by American courts. Ex Parte Peru, 318 U.S. 578, 588-89 (1942); Mexico v. Hoffman, 324 U.S. 30 (1945). These dangers are increasingly acute as more and more nations, either directly or through their "agencies or instrumentalities," engage in a broader range of activities that a traditionally, free-market politico-economic system would label "private" or "commercial" and not "public" or "governmental."* A primary purpose of the FSIA, therefore, is to give predictability to this sensitive area. "In a modern world where foreign state enterprises are every day participants in commercial activities, [the FSIA] is

* Nor has LAN-Chile impliedly waived its immunity. An explicit waiver of immunity may be by treaty or contract. House Report 94-1487 at 18. Implied waivers are not favored under the FSIA, however:

> The legislative history suggests that implied waivers by commercial action are not consonant with the Act's purposes; implicit waivers are reflected in actions relating to adjudication and explicit waivers are found in treaties.

* A principal purpose of [the FSIA] is to transfer the determination of sovereign immunity from the executive branch to the judical branch, thereby reducing the foreign policy implications of immunity determinations and assuring litigants that these often crucial decisions are made on purely legal grounds and under procedures that insure due process.

Id. In other words, the FSIA is designed to give, to the extent possible, clear guidance on sovereign immunity issues to foreign states, their entities, and persons dealing with them. By so doing, the FSIA is designed to remove politics, economic theory, and ideology from the sovereign immunity deliberations of American courts.

Thus, courts applying the FSIA must be ever mindful that, as one court has put it, "under the terms of the Immunities Act, this court must determine without reference to political considerations the claims of sovereign immunity ..." Jet Line Services, Inc. v. M/V Marsa el Hariga, 462 F. Supp. 1165, 1172 (D. Md. 1978).

To accept the radical theory advanced on Judgment Creditors' motion -- executing against assets of a commercial agency of a foreign state on a judgment against the immune state -- is to depart from the narrow strictures of the cautious statutory construction mandated in this area.

A court interpreting the FSIA's provisions on execution immunity (§§1609-1611) must be especially reluctant to hew out exceptions to this immunity because the FSIA'S execution provisions represent a substantial departure from prior United States law* and international law. House Report 94-1487 at 7. It has long been settled, of course, that federal courts will apply customary international law. The Paquete Habana, 175 U.S. 677, 708 (1900). Similarly, "an Act of Congress ought never to be construed to violate the law of nations, if any other possible construction remains." Murray v. The Charming Betsey, 2 Cranch (U.S.) 64, 118 (1804) (Marshall, C.J.). This Court must therefore reject Judgment Creditors' urging that they be allowed to execute, contrary to international law and in the absence of any waiver, against property owned by a party other than the judgment debtor and unrelated either to the claim upon which the judgment

* As noted by Judgment Creditors in their Memorandum of Law (at p. 31 note), before passage of the FSIA property of a foreign state or agency in the United States was given absolute immunity from execution to satisfy a judgment. E.g., Dexter & Carpenter, v. Kunglig, 43 F.2d 705 (engaging in commercial activity does not waive execution immunity); New York & Cuba Mail S.S. Co. v. Republic of Korea, 132 F. Supp. 684 (S.D.N.Y. 1955); Restatement (Second) of Foreign Relations Law §§70(3) and 71(3) (1965). This rule was applied even if the sovereign had waived immunity from the jurisdiction of United States courts, or the judgment was based on the sovereign's commercial activities. E.g., Flota Maritima Browning v. M/V Ciudad de la Habana, 335 F.2d at 627 (waiver of jurisdiction immunity is not waiver of execution immunity); Weilamann v. Chase Manhattan Bank, 21 Misc. 1086, 192 N.Y.S.2d 469 (Sup. Ct., Westchester Co., 1959) (same).

Historically, this rule of absolute immunity from execution was the norm in customary international law and the laws of other countries. I. Brownlie, Principles of Public International Law, 343-44 (3d ed. 1979). Execution immunity remains a substantial and unsettled problem in the legal systems of other countries. See, generally, Crawford, Execution of Judgments and Foreign Sovereign Immunity, 75 AM. J. INT'L L. 820 (1981). The FSIA's legislative history itself notes the FSIA's departure from this rule of absolute immunity, and that "the enforcement of judgments against foreign state property remains a somewhat controversial subject in international law ..." House Report 94-1487 at 27.

is based or to any "commercial activity" excepted under the Act. Note, Sovereign Immunity - Limits of Judicial Control - The Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976, 18 HARV. INT'L L. J. 429, 447-49 (1977); The Problem of Execution Uniformity, 12 VAL. U. L. REV. at 571; see, generally, Restatement (Second) of Foreign Relations Law §69, Reporter's Note 2 (1965); Restatement (Revised) of the Foreign Relations Law of the United States, §460, Tentative Draft No. 2 (1981).

Accordingly, to permit execution in this case based on the scant showing made by Judgment Creditors of the applicability of the "commercial activity" exception would contravene both established case law regarding proper construction of the FSIA and principles of international law regarding immunity from execution. This Court must, therefore, deny Judgment Creditors' motion.

II. REGARDLESS OF LAN-CHILE'S SOVEREIGN IMMUNITY, ITS ASSETS CANNOT BE LEVIED UPON TO SATISFY A DEFAULT JUDGMENT AGAINST THE REPUBLIC

A. Judgment Creditors Have Ignored Controlling Choice-of-Law Principles Applied in this Circuit

Judgment Creditors argue that, notwithstanding considerations of sovereign immunity which, as we have already shown, independently defeat the execution herein, they should be permitted to execute upon LAN-Chile's assets either because the Republic has some sort of leviable "equitable interest" in them or because LAN-Chile is the Republic's "alter ego." Other sections of this Memorandum* demonstrate that the factual predicate for these arguments has been artfully fabricated by Judgment Creditors. This section shows that these arguments are legally insufficient not only on their own terms, but presume also an improper choice-of-law approach to the legal issues themselves.

The manner in which Judgment Creditors have framed these "equitable ownership" and "alter ego" issues* is, in the final analysis, legally unprincipled. While professing to follow the Second Circuit's holding in Banco Para El Comercio Exterior de Cuba v. First National City Bank, 658 F.2d 913 (2d Cir. 1981), cert. granted, ___ U.S. ___, 103 S. Ct. 253, 74 L. Ed.2d 198 (1982) ("Bancec"), Judgment Creditors actually ignore that case's holding that the law of the foreign state must be deferred to, absent extraordinary circumstances, in determining whether that state's agencies are separate legal persons for the purpose of imposing liability.

Instead, Judgment Creditors have selectively alternated two conflicting methodologies of "alter ego law": they sometimes ascribe common law ramifications to features of Chilean law,* and at other times apply common law principles to entities formed and regulated under Chilean law. The resulting hodgepodge, not surprisingly, serves only itself and its chef.

To recover the perspective denied the Court in Judgment Creditors' parochial presentation, it is helpful to recall something of how countries throughout the world go about organizing themselves and their polity. Thus, for instance, many nations, both in developing areas and in industrialized Western Europe, use state-owned enterprises to perform functions sometimes thought of as "private" by purely American standards. See, generally, State-Owned Enterprise in the Western Economies (R. Vernon and Y. Aharoni ed. 1981); Public and Private Enterprise in a Mixed Economy, (W. J. Baumol ed. 1980). The FSIA's own legislative history lists mineral extraction, airlines and foreign trade as examples of endeavors frequently owned and operated by

* E.g., Judgment Creditors argue that the fact that there are no issued shares of stock in LAN-Chile must mean, under American private corporation law, that the Republic has a direct ownership interest in LAN-Chile's aircraft, plane ramps, ticket counters, stationery, etc. (Letelier Memo of Law at 17-19.)

 E.g., Judgment Creditors suggest that since American courts look to "interlocking directorates" as one factor in piercing the private corporate veil under the common law, this Court should do so in evaluating a public enterprise of a foreign sovereign with a civil law tradition. (Letelier Memo of Law at 26-27.)

foreign states.* House Report 94-1487 at 16. Indeed, some of the functions performed by state-owned enterprises make the wealth of these endeavors seem almost improbable. E.g., Bernard Marine Corp. v. Pezetel, 461 F. Supp. 384 (D. Del. 1978) (golf cart manufacture).

Moreover, the forms in which state-owned enterprises are organized are often, quite literally, alien, at least in part, to our legal, political and economic models. For instance Walder v. poration itself owned by both Libya and Algeria.* A labor agency jointly operated by and serving several Caribbean countries was involved in Rios v. Marshall, 530 F. Supp. 351 (S.D.N.Y. 1981). A "mixed-economy" bauxite exporting company, that is, a company whose stock was owned partly by a Liechtenstein corporation and partly by the Republic of Guinea, was the subject of Maritime International Nominees Establishment v. Republic of Guinea, 505 F. Supp. 141, 142 n. 1 (D.D.C. 1981), rev'd 693 F.2d 1094 (D.C. Cir. 1982). Such joint public/private ownership is also found among international air carriers. E.g., Herman v. El Al Israel Airlines, 502 F. Supp. 277 (S.D.N.Y. 1980).

Furthermore, the purposes and operations of a state-owned enterprise are often mixed. State enterprises are formed and operated for both "public" and "private" reasons, as those

* It is not difficult to imagine the bizarre and inauspicious results if a court too hastily pierced the "entity veil" to execute on one of this company's ships to satisfy a judgment based on a terrorist act by Libya, thereby harming U.S. relations with Algeria, which have greatly improved since the Iranian Hostage Crisis. Similar problems could arise because international commercial transactions frequently involve state-owned enterprises from more than one country. E.g., China National Chemical Import & Export Corp. v. M/V Lago Hualaihue, 504 F. Supp. 684 (D. Md. 1981) (People's Republic of China and Republic of Chile). These problems could also arise in this case since LAN-Chile provides direct air carrier service to the U.S. to Peru and, indirectly, to other Latin American nations. Ex. 8 to Combe Affidavit. Moreover, adoption of Judgment Creditors' orphan theory of alter ego could, of course, serve as anarchic precedent in this particularly sensitive area of the law.

terms are commonly used in capitalist systems. Hence, they cannot be held to the same policy and legal standards as private entities; other standards must be applied:

> State-owned enterprises... do not exist solely to maximize profits; they have multiple objectives reflecting conflicting public needs and political pressures. Managerial discretion in state-owned enterprises cannot be stated simply in terms of divergence from profit maximization or from any other single objective. The absence of clearly defined goals for state-owned enterprises forms the basis for difference in managerial discretion between private and state-owned enterprises.

Y. Aharoni, "Managerial Discretion," State-Owned Enterprise in the Western Economies, 184. LAN-Chile itself has, over the years, been subject to such shifting objectives and the concomitant need for different management practices. Del Campo Declaration ¶¶6-8.

Another particularly important goal of state enterprises is capital formation, which is often a problem for developing nations. It cannot be gainsaid that it is a problem in Chile today (or, for that matter, as may be judicially noticed, in Mexico, Brazil, and Venezuela, to name just a few). State-owned enterprises aid in capital formation, both in their founding and by continuing regulation of their operations. E. Sacristan R., "Some Considerations on the Role of Public Enterprise," Public and Private Enterprise in a Mixed Economy, 44-52.

It is not uncommon, therefore, for commercial enterprises to be closely supervised by their governments, use property owned by their governments, have government officials play a significant role in management, and perform "governmental" as well as "commercial" functions.* E.g., Gilson v. Republic of Ireland, supra (capital formation); DeSanchez v. Banco Central de Nicaragua, 515 F. Supp. 900 (foreign exchange control and commercial banking); Bankers Trust v. Worldwide Transportation, 537 F. Supp. 1101 (price supports through commodities transactions); Matter of Sedco, Inc., 543 F. Supp. 561 (oil exploration and related economic planning). These relationships between governments and their entities have not led American courts to pierce the "entity veil" or find that the "entity and its government are one. On the contrary, courts that have examined these issues in cases involving governments that closely control their economies have sedulously recognized that such facile arguments must be rejected. For example, in Edlow International Co. v. Nuklearna Elektrarna Krsko, 441 F. Supp. 827 (D.D.C. 1977) the court rejected the argument that defendant was an agency of the

* Although the United States is often referred to as a free-market economy, in reality federal and state governments frequently take a large and detailed role in regulating "private" industries. Such regulation has been particularly common with so-called "natural monopolies" (e.g., telecommunications, utilities, etc.) and industries that were thought, at least in their infancy, to have required protection from "harmful competition" (e.g., civil aviation and trucking). In addition, federal and state governments often channel investment decisions in the "private" sector through tax incentives. More directly, the federal government has guaranteed the obligations in the "bail-outs" of manufacturers such as Chrysler and Lockheed. Such regulation can be so pervasive as to effectively direct major investment decisions by private industry, as with the former Atomic Energy Commission. See, Lanouette, "Dream Machine: Why the Dangerous and Maybe Unworkable Breeder Reactor Lives On," The Atlantic, 35 (April 1983).

Yugoslavian government merely because "all property in a socialist system such as Yugoslavia's is subject to the ultimate ownership of the state." Id. at 831. Another court rejected a Polish manufacturer's argument that it served governmental functions, thereby exempting it from United States antitrust laws: "It does not follow that because a business in such a country has objectives and government ties alien to those of enterprises in a capitalist system that each such business is equal in stature to the government under which it operates." Outboard Marine v. Pezetel, 461 F. Supp. at 396.

Foreign courts have also recognized and felt themselves bound by the distinction between state-owned enterprises and the governments that own them. For example, the House of Lords in Playa Larga v. I Congreso Del Partido, [1981] 3 W.L.R. 328 (Lord Wilberforce, J.) held that a Cuban state trading enterprise was separate from the Cuban government, although it was subject to the government's direction and control and dependent upon the government as its source of funds:

> State controlled enterprises, with legal personality, ability to trade and to enter into contracts of private law, though wholly subject to the control of their state, are a well-known feature of the modern commercial scene. The distinction between them, and their governing state, may appear artificial; but it is an accepted distinction in the law of England and other states.

lateral treaties.* Concomitantly, even in free-market nations civil aviation, both foreign and domestic, has been closely regulated by governmental authorities. Until very recently the United States Civil Aeronautics Board closely regulated routes, fares, rules, relations with travel agents and freight forwarders, and virtually every aspect of airlines' domestic and international operations. The mere suggestion that Pan Am was an alter ego of the CAB by reason of the exercise of this control is, of course, ludicrous.

The Second Circuit in Bancec, has considered these questions, however, and devised a test to deal with them:

> As a general matter, we start with the proposition that an instrumentality of a government is not necessarily an alter ego of that government for all purposes. If the instrumentality has been created as a separate and distinct juridical entity under the laws of the state that owns it, we will normally respect its independent identity for a number of purposes.

ered for purposes of recovery on a counterclaim for the supposed wrongs of the state unless the enterprise played a "key role" in the state's conduct on which the claim is based. In applying Bancec, this Court has said, "[T]he prohibition against piercing of the corporate veil in ordinary cases is particularly appropriate in cases concerning foreign government-owned corporations ..." Minpeco, S.A. v. Conticommodity Services, Inc., 549 F. Supp. 857, 859 (S.D.N.Y. 1982). As shown in the following section, when Bancec's test is properly applied to LAN-Chile and to the facts of this summary proceeding, Judgment Creditors' arguments are revealed to be empty and unpersuasive.

B. Under Bancec, LAN-Chile's Status Under Chilean Law as a Separate Juridical Entity Must Be Upheld

LAN-Chile obviously passes the first part of the Bancec test: It is a separate juridical entity under Chilean law, and owns its property in its own name. Velasco Affidavit ¶6; Soto and Zenteno Reports, passim. The separate legal status of LAN-Chile, and the numerous legal consequences which flow from it, are not matters of recent innovation or the result of recent changes in law. They are the result of established Chilean constitutional and administrative doctrines that date in part from the Chilean Constitution of 1925, and in part from the Chilean Constitution of 1833. Soto Report, passim.

This Court need not reach Bancec's "key role" criterion, however, because that portion of Bancec's test was based on longstanding equitable considerations utterly inapplicable to the instant proceeding.* Briefly, the facts in Bancec were that an export bank, Bancec, wholly-owned by the Cuban government, was held not to be an alter ego of that government for purposes of liability on counterclaims against Bancec based on expropriation of the defendant's assets by the Cuban government after Fidel Castro seized power. The Court reasoned that Bancec, a distinct legal entity under Cuban law, had not played a "key role" in the expropriation.

In Bancec the Court reached the "key role" question because it had concluded, based on its holding in Banco Nacional de Cuba v. First National City Bank, 478 F.2d 191 (2d Cir.1973) that the Banco Nacional de Cuba, into which Bancec had been merged, was an alter ego of the Republic of Cuba and explained:

> Our ruling in the Banco Nacional case was carefully limited to the circumstances in which the counterclaim was based on the acts of expropriation that were performed principally by the instrumentality that was a party. Thus, we reiterated that Banco Nacional and the Cuban government were alter egos "in the nationalization," id. at 193, "in the expropriation," id. at 194, "in implementing the nationalization policy," id.; and we stated that our conclusion was reached "for the purposes of this litigation." Id. at 193; id. n.1. We ended this section of our opinion by emphasizing that the issue was not whether Banco Nacional and the government could be considered alter egos in general; the "decisive" fact was the role of Banco Nacional in the expropriations that were the subject of the Citibank counterclaims. . . .

* The Bancec Court stated the test in this way:

> We will, on the other hand, ignore the statutory distinction between the state and its instrumentality when the subject matter of the counterclaim assertible against the state is state conduct in which the instrumentality had a key role.

658 F.2d at 918 (emphasis added).

Bancec, 658 F.2d at 918. Because the Bancec court found Bancec not to have been involved in the expropriations, it was held not to be an alter ego of either the Republic of Cuba or Banco Nacional.

The opinion also assumed the applicability of the FSIA and then made clear that it reached the same result under that Act, which, the Court stated, merely codified the existing law represented by National City Bank v. Republic of China, 348 U.S. 356 (1955). Bancec, 658 F.2d at 920. In Republic of China, the National City Bank was sued by China for refusing to pay on a withdrawal of $200,000 on deposit with the Bank's New York office. National City Bank counterclaimed for $1,634,432 worth of Chinese treasury notes on which China had defaulted. The Supreme Court, through Justice Frankfurter and relying on King of Spain v. Oliver Pet, CC 276, F. Cas. No. 7813 (C.D. Pa. 1816),* held that the counterclaim could be maintained, at least up to the amount of China's claim because it was the sovereign, China, who had come as a suitor into our courts. The Court stated:

* Justice Frankfurter cited King of Spain v. Oliver Pet as anticipating his holding. That case was decided by Mr. Justice Washington on Circuit. Without belaboring the facts here, the significance of that case was that Mr. Justice Washington decided it a scant four years after he sat on the Supreme Court panel which decided The Schooner Exchange v. M'Fadden, 11 U.S. (7 Cranch) 116 (1812) (Marshall, C.J.), the case which first proclaimed the doctrine of sovereign immunity. It is plain, therefore, that the equitable exception to immunity in the counterclaim context is nearly as old in our law as sovereign immunity itself.

> It is recognized that a counterclaim based on the subject matter of a sovereign's suit is allowed to cut into the doctrine of immunity. This is proof positive that the doctrine is not absolute, and that considerations of fair play must be taken into account in its application.

348 U.S. at 364 (emphasis added).

The Court made plain that these equitable considerations of fair dealing barred recognition of immunity on the counterclaim despite the fact that the counterclaim was not based on the same transaction as the one on which China had sued. Although the transactions were unrelated, they, nevertheless, might be regarded as aspects of a "continuous business relationship." Id. The Court concluded: "The point is that the ultimate thrust of the consideration of fair dealing which allows a setoff or counterclaim based on the same subject matter reaches the present situation." Id.*

The alter ego theory, and thus the "key role" corollary, invoked against foreign states or foreign agencies are thus

* The equitable holding of Republic of China was reaffirmed in First National City Bank v. Banco Nacional de Cuba, 406 U.S. 759, 768-69 (1972) and perhaps more succinctly therein by Justice Douglas concurring ("To allow recovery without more [i.e., permitting assertion of the counterclaim] would permit Cuba to have its cake and eat it too.") 406 U.S. at 772. The importance of equity in the counterclaim context has been weighed as well by the Second Circuit in Menendez v. Saks and Co., 485 F.2d 1355 (2d Cir. 1973), cert. denied 425 U.S. 991 (1976). The Court there found an identity of a course of dealing in the claim and counterclaim, both of which involved the manufacture and importation of cigars, and concluded: "Indeed the equities here balance much more heavily in favor of the importers [the counterclaimants] than in the First National City Bank case where the counterclaim arose out of a wholly unrelated factual context." 485 F.2d at 1383 (emphasis added).

rounded in equitable considerations of the sovereign's initial entry into our courts and on the "continuous business relationship" which Justice Frankfurter found in Republic of China would make it unfair for the defendant not to be able to raise his claims where this relationship exists. As Bancec makes clear, this exception is carried directly into the FSIA scheme in 28 U.S.C. §1607(c).

Thus seen, the alter ego doctrine is simply irrelevant to the instant case. LAN-Chile did not bring this case and has not invoked this Court's or the Letelier Court's jurisdiction. To the contrary, LAN-Chile is a stranger to the action. Moreover, LAN-Chile has had no transactions with the plaintiffs here and certainly not the "continuous business relationship" necessary to invoke the Court's inherent equity in Republic of China.* Accordingly, Judgment Creditors' assertions of "key role" and "alter ego" should be not only rejected, they should be ignored.

Even if the "key role" analysis is used here, however, it yields no different result. In Bancec, the Second Circuit held that Bancec had not played a "key role" in expropriating First National City Bank's Cuban assets even though Bancec's close relationship to the State was demonstrated by the facts that (1) Bancec was entirely capitalized by the government, (2)

* Alter ego theory in simple domestic contexts is also rooted in equity. Gartner v. Snyder, 607 F.2d 582, 586 (2d Cir. 1979); FMC Finance Corp. v. Murphree, 632 F.2d 413, 422 (5th Cir. 1980).

Bancec remitted all of its profits to the Cuban Treasury, (3) Bancec served the sole function of managing commodities export for the government's account, (4) Cuba had dissolved Bancec soon after the action was commenced, (5) Bancec had assigned its claims in the action to the national bank, which was headed by Che Guevara,* and had been directly responsible for nationalizing those assets, and (6) Bancec's assets and functions had been assigned to the Ministry of Trade and the national bank, which had previously been held by the Second Circuit to be Cuba's alter ego in the expropriation of First National City Bank's assets. Banco Nacional de Cuba v. First National City Bank, 478 F.2d 191 (2d Cir. 1973). In other words, although the Cuban government dissolved Bancec and replaced it with another instrumentality that had previously been adjudged an alter ego of the government, the statutory distinction between Bancec and Cuba was, nevertheless, respected.

LAN-Chile's relationship to the Republic is nowhere near as close as Bancec's was to the Cuban government. LAN-Chile, like Bancec, was created as a distinct legal entity under the

* See, Banco National de Cuba v. Chase Manhattan Bank, 505 F. Supp. 412, 420 (S.D.N.Y. 1980), modified, 658 F.2d 875 (2d Cir. 1981).

 Indeed, after the dissolution of Bancec, counsel for Bancec stipulated that Cuba itself should be substituted for Bancec as a plaintiff, and the District Court thereafter approved the filing of an amended complaint that would substitute Cuba for Bancec. Brief for the United States as Amicus Curiae in Support of Petitioner, First National City Bank v. laws of the state that created it. Soto Report, passim. LAN-Chile, in comparison to Bancec, enjoys far more autonomy from its government. Del Campo Declaration ¶¶9-16, and Soto Report, passim. In contrast to Bancec, which existed only to serve government functions, LAN-Chile operates as a self-managed commercial airline. Del Campo Declaration, ¶9. Under the principles announced in Bancec, therefore, LAN-Chile is clearly revealed to be a separate juridical entity under Chilean law, and that separateness must be honored by an American court. To reach this conclusion it is unnecessary and inappropriate to go further, as Judgment Creditors suggest (Letelier Memo of Law at 29-30), and to perform detailed exegesis of LAN-Chile's "key role" vel non in the events underlying Judgment Creditors' claim.

Even if the facts concerning LAN-Chile are reviewed, however, it is clear that LAN's "role" was nonexistent.* LAN-Chile played no role in any conspiracy to kill Mr. Letelier. It did not take orders from DINA; it had no knowledge of any of DINA's plans. Unknowing favors and acts performed by lower-level employees who acted on their own, without the knowledge or consent of LAN-Chile's management and contrary to management directives, cannot be seriously construed as evidence supporting any of Judgment Creditors' claims. These employees knew nothing of Townley's alleged identity, schemes, assignments, methods, or goals.*

* That LAN-Chile was never named as a party in the Letelier action estops Judgment Creditors in any event from claiming otherwise now.

In short, under the law in this Circuit, LAN-Chile cannot be held liable for the acts of the Republic on any "key role" or "alter ego" theory. Moreover, as shown in the next

---

* Even were one to assume what has never been proven -- not in the Sampol case, not in the FAA investigation, not in the Congressional hearing and not by Judgment Creditors before Judge Green or before this Court -- that LAN-Chile employees knew what Townley was doing and were acting at his instructions (as Judgment Creditors seemingly desire to prove), even then LAN-Chile's assets would not be subject to execution as LAN-Chile would, under the teaching of Arango v. Guzman Travel Advisors Corp., 621 F.2d at 1379 have been acting "merely as an arm or agent" of the Chilean government and, thus, have been entitled to the undisputed absolute immunity that inures to the Republic.

 Nor, contrary to Judgment Creditors' contention, does LAN-Chile qualify as the alter ego of the Republic under the test proposed in the Solicitor General's Brief in Bancec, a brief submitted primarily to protect rights of Americans in raising valid expropriation claims in proceedings instituted against them. Solicitor General's Brief at 6. The Solicitor General suggests four factors in addition to "key role" which should be considered in determining whether an instrumentality of a foreign government is an alter ego of its sovereign: 1) whether, by analogy to principles of corporate law, the sovereign disregards the separate existence of its instrumentality; 2) whether the instrumentality exists solely to discharge a government function or is treated by the sovereign as a mere agency; 3) whether the government is the real party in interest; and 4) whether other special equitable concerns are involved. None of these factors point to LAN-Chile as an alter ego of the Republic. The Chilean government has not disregarded LAN-Chile's separate existence. As a commercial airline, LAN-Chile does not perform a governmental function, but provides a commercial service. Third, the factor of real party in interest is not applicable to this action, as it was in Bancec. Finally, Bancec's salient concern with equitable rights to the assertion of setoffs and counterclaims is not present in this case.

section, the Republic does not have a leviable "property interest" in LAN-Chile's assets.

C. The Republic Does Not Have an Attachable "Property Interest" in LAN-Chile's Assets

As with their "alter ego" argument, Judgment Creditors' contention that the Republic has a direct, leviable "property interest" in LAN-Chile's assets ignores the realities of Chilean law. Under that law, LAN-Chile owns that property in its own name. Soto Report, passim. Its property cannot be levied upon to satisfy judgments against the Republic, and vice versa. Id. These are principles not only of positive law, but are settled principles of Chilean jurisprudence and are rooted in constitutional norms over a history beginning as early as the Constitution of 1833. Id. Under Chilean law, therefore, the Republic does not stand in the same shoes with respect to LAN-Chile as a shareholder does with respect to a corporation, or a parent to a subsidiary. Rather, LAN-Chile's status as a state-owned corporation is both sui juris and sui generis as regards United States law, and thus analogies to U.S. law are highly misleading.

The short answer to the "equitable interest" theory is that it is, in reality, a mere paraphrase of the "alter ego" contention. Both theories are based on the same alleged facts -- the relationship between LAN-Chile and the Republic. The championing of both theories, in blatant disregard of the teaching of Bancec, ignores the contrary effect of Chilean law. Judgment creditors assert in both arguments that the Republic so controls LAN-Chile that the statutory distinction between it and the Republic should be disregarded. Both theories rely on the same opposite principles of the common law of private corporations. Judgment Creditors analogize the relationship between LAN-Chile and the Republic in both arguments to the relationship between a corporation and the shareholders (either parent corporation or individual) that control it. In the final analysis, both arguments boil down to the same question of disregarding the foreign entity's veil, and Bancec definitively addressed that issue. Whether Judgment Creditors style their argument as "alter ego" or "property interest," it does not satisfy the requirements of Bancec.

Nor, as the Soto Report and the Del Campo Declaration make clear, and as the Velasco Affidavit nowhere disputes, do principles of alter ego and equitable ownership have any bearing on LAN-Chile's juridical personality. This point is best illustrated by the fact that the Republic is currently suing LAN-Chile for damages caused by LAN-Chile employees to property of the Republic. Del Campo Declaration, Annex A. Can it be seriously maintained that the Republic is suing itself for payment of an obligation it owes to itself?

The principle that a state-owned entity is not responsible for the torts or liabilities of the government merely because the government owns it and its assets is also apparent in Prelude Corp. v. Owners of F/V Atlantik, 1971 A.M.C. 2651 (N.D. Cal.). In Prelude plaintiff attached vessels owned by a Soviet shipping company to commence a suit for marine torts allegedly committed by the Soviet Union. The shipping company moved to vacate the attachment, arguing that it was a separate entity from the Soviet government and therefore not liable for that government's torts. Even though - unlike the instant proceeding - the defendant admitted that the sovereign owned the attached property, the attachment was vacated. See, also, American Hawaiian Ventures, Inc. v. M.V.J. Latuharhary, 257 F. Supp. 622 (D.N.J. 1966).*

Even were Chilean law inapplicable, however, Judgment Creditors' argument misapprehends the proper application of American law. Judgment Creditors imply as a part of their argument that a sole shareholder may, subject to the claims of creditors, do whatever it pleases with the assets of the controlled corporation. (Letelier Memo of Law at 20). This proposition ignores the distinction between ownership of stock and ownership of corporate property. In Boise Cascade Corp. v. Wheeler, 419 F. Supp. 98, (S.D.N.Y. 1976) aff'd without opinion, 556 F.2d 554 (2d Cir. 1977), the court flatly rejected the claim that as sole shareholder, plaintiff had a right to do as it pleased with the corporate property of its wholly-owned subsidiary:

* See, discussion of these cases in the FSIA's legislative history. House Report 94-1487 at 28.

 This proposition also misapprehends traditional doctrines of alter ego which do not look to the possibility of improper interference but to whether in fact control has been abused and actual management of the corporation assumed. See, e.g., Gartner v. Snyder, 607 F.2d at 586 (applying New York law). See Section II.D. below.

* Judgment Creditors cite (Letelier Memo of Law at 19) Torrey Delivery Inc. for the proposition that the stockholders are the equitable owners of a corporation's assets, but neglect to add that Torrey expressly holds that even complete ownership of capital stock does not operate to transfer the title to corporate property from the corporation to the sole stockholder. 47 A.D.2d at 282, 366 N.Y.S.2d at 510.

assets of an independently operating subsidiary have been held not to be property of the debtor for purposes of the bankruptcy courts' "jurisdiction of the debtor and its property." E.g., Parkview-Gem, Inc. v. Stein, 516 F.2d 807 (8th Cir. 1975); In re Carshops, Inc., 494 F.2d 689 (2d Cir. 1974); In re Beck Industries, Inc., 479 F.2d 410 (2d Cir.), cert. denied, 414 U.S. 858 (1973); In re Adolf Gobel, Inc., 80 F.2d 849 (2d Cir. 1936).

In other words, in constructing their "property interest" theory Judgment Creditors abandon their analogy to American private corporate law not when its logic breaks down, but when it no longer serves their purpose. To be logically consistent and legally correct, the conclusion of their analogy is not that the Republic has a direct property interest in LAN-Chile's assets, but an indirect interest identical to that of a shareholder in a corporation. Moreover, to levy on such an indirect interest Judgment Creditors must seek out the judgment debtor, the Republic, where it may be found, in Chile. Another logical consequence of their analogy is that if they are to treat LAN-Chile as the garnishee of the Republic's "shares," they must, again, seek garnishment in Chile. N.Y. Civ. Prac. Law & R. §5201(c)(1) (McKinney 1978). If Judgment Creditors' argument is logically applied, therefore, LAN-Chile is not a proper garnishee, at least in the United States, and their motion to appoint a receiver must be denied.

To summarize, the leviable property interest argument cannot stand for several reasons. It ignores Bancec and Chilean

It also ignores other, contrary authority in American law. Finally, it tumbles from the weight of its own illogic.

D. Even on Its Own Terms, Judgment Creditors Cannot Prevail on their "Alter Ego" Theory

LAN-Chile cannot be found to be the "alter ego" of the Republic even if one applied the classic alter ego principles of the common law of private corporations that Judgment Creditors attempt to apply to this proceeding. Courts have pierced the private corporate veil only in very limited circumstances that do not exist in this proceeding.

It is well-established that the integrity of the corporate form of a domestic and, particularly, a foreign state-owned corporation will not be disregarded "unless it has been abused; that is, unless the corporate form has been used 'to perpetrate a fraud' or unless the corporation's owners 'have so dominated or disregarded [the corporation's] corporate form that [the corporation] primarily transacted [the owner's] business rather than its own corporate business'". Minpeco S.A. v. Conticommodity Services, Inc., 549 F.Supp. at 859, citing Kirno Hill Corp. v. Holt, 618 F.2d 983, 985 (2d Cir. 1980).* Thus, in Walkovsky v. Carlton, 18 N.Y.2d 414, 276 N.Y.S.2d 585 (1966), the court held that the fact that a controlling shareholder organized, managed and dominated a fragmented corporate entity consisting of ten taxicab corporations, owning two cabs each, would not justify piercing the corporate veil and holding the shareholder liable for the conduct of one of the corporations, where the shareholder was not conducting business in his individual capacity.

LAN-Chile, however, has not been treated by the Republic as a mere "agency" or "department" and therefore would not be regarded as the Republic's alter ego under corporate law principles. As discussed above, LAN-Chile is a self-managed commercial enterprise. Del Campo Declaration ¶4; Soto and Zenteno Reports, passim. It provides air transportation services only for payment, and any air transportation services provided to the government are handled on a commercial basis. Del Campo Declaration, ¶9. LAN-Chile purchases, owns, and sells its property in its own name, maintains its own books and accounts in its own name, and obtains private bank loans on its own credit. Id. ¶¶ 10, 12, 13. LAN-Chile also hires and fires its own employees without regard to the Republic. These employees do not belong to unions which represent government employees and do not have official or diplomatic passports as government employees do. Id. ¶15. Moreover, the Republic assesses LAN-Chile for taxes and custom duties, and LAN-Chile must pay the same airport fees to the appropriate government authority as privately-owned airlines. Id. ¶¶ 14, 16. It would be curious, indeed, if a corporate entity were to charge itself fees for the provision of services.

Judgment Creditors have the burden of overcoming the presumption of corporate regularity and establishing a basis to pierce the corporate veil. Establissement Tomis v. Shearson Hayden Stone, Inc., 459 F.Supp. 1355, 1365 (S.D.N.Y. 1978).*

Accordingly, in attempting to carry that burden, Judgment Creditors essay analogy to a wholly-owned subsidiary of a parent corporation. (Letelier Memo of Law at 26-27.) Judgment Creditors have utterly failed to show, however, that courts will disregard the corporate form merely because a subsidiary is wholly-owned by its parent corporation. Billy v. Consolidated Machine Tool Corporation, 51 N.Y.2d 152, 163, 432 N.Y.S.2d 879, 886; accord, Kirno Hill v. Holt, 618 F.2d at 985. As a prerequisite to treating a subsidiary as the alter ego of its parent, "there must be direct intervention by the parent in the management of the subsidiary to such an extent that 'the subsidiary's paraphernalia of incorporation, directors and officers' are completely ignored." Billy v. Consolidated Machine, 52 N.Y.2d at 163, 432 N.Y.S.2d at 886. Accord, Port Chester Electrical Construction Corp. v. Atlas, 40 N.Y.2d 652, 389 N.Y.S.2d 327 (1976) (controlling principal respected separate identities of corporations, each of which pursued its corporate business rather than the personal business of principal; court refused to pierce corporate veil); Bellomo v. Pennsylvania Life Company, 488 F. Supp. 744, 745 (S.D.N.Y. 1980) (court refused to treat parent and subsidiary as the same entity for jurisdictional purposes absent day-to-day control by the parent "so complete that the subsidiary is, in fact, merely a department of the parent."); see, generally, A. A. Berle, The Theory of Enterprise Entity, 47 COLUM. L. REV. 343, 348 (1947).

The other six factors are ignored. In fact, of the eleven factors listed in that case, only two, one dealing with subsidies by the parent and the other with the parent causing the incorporation of the subsidiary (the latter uncited by Judgment Creditors) are relevant here.

Under alter ego doctrine, LAN-Chile would not in any event be held responsible for the conduct of the Republic merely because of the parent-subsidiary relationship. E.g., Kingston Dry Dock Co. v. Lake Champlain Transp. Co., 31 F.2d 265 (2d Cir. 1929) (subsidiary not liable under contract made by parent where subsidiary did not intend parent to act as agent and did not impose in parent's affairs); Ricker v. American Zinser Corporation, 506 F.Supp. 1 (E.D. Tenn. 1978) aff'd without opinion, 633 F.2d 218 (6th Cir. 1980) (subsidiary not liable for injuries by machine manufactured and sold by parent); American Anthracite and Bituminous Coal Corporation v. Amerocean S.S. Co., 131 F. Supp. 244 (E.D. Pa. 1955) (writ of attachment against property of subsidiary vacated in dispute arising from contract with parent); Packer v. Caesar's World, Inc., 54 A.D.2d 676, 387 N.Y.S.2d 851 (1st Dept. 1976) (prejudgment attachment of subsidiary's bank account premised upon action for breach of contract by parent held improper).

Similarly, in an international context, United States courts have recognized the distinction between a foreign agency and its sovereign for many purposes. In Vicente v. Trinidad and Tobago, 53 A.D.2d 76, 385 N.Y.S.2d 83 (1st Dept. 1976), aff'd 42 N.Y.2d 929, 397 N.Y.S.2d 1007 (1977), it was held that service of process upon a foreign government-controlled enterprise did not constitute service upon the foreign government itself. In S.T. Tringali Co. v. Tug Pemex XV, 274 F.Supp. 227 (S.D. Tex. 1967), the court held that vessels held by a Mexican government-owned corporation were not considered owned by the government, and therefore were subject to prejudgment attachment. In addition, the courts have examined the relationship between an agency and its government in determining the real party in interest. Kunstsammlungen zu Weimar v. Elicofon, 478 F.2d 231 (2d Cir. 1973), cert. denied 415 U.S. 931 (1974); Kingdom of Sweden v. New

Judgment Creditors also have failed to prove that LAN-Chile was used as part of a fraudulent scheme, such that piercing the entity veil would be justified. They lamely suggest that "it partook of fraud for Chile to represent to the Civil Aeronautics Board that it was operating a commercial airline in this country while using the facilities of that airline for the transport of agents or explosives." This argument, however, does not withstand even a cursory analysis. As a preliminary matter, the Civil Aeronautics Board is not a party to this action and has not complained of fraud. Furthermore, the allegations that agents or explosives were carried by LAN-Chile aircraft are immaterial to the issue of whether the corporate entity was used to a fraudu-

* The Supreme Court has also recognized that the separate status of domestic government corporations must be respected. E.g., Pierce v. United States, 314 U.S. 306 (1941) (Tennessee Valley Authority held distinct from government for purposes of criminal code); Reconstruction Finance Corporation v. J. G. Menihan Corporation, 312 U.S. 81 (1941) (government corporation not immune from liability for court costs); Keifer & Keifer v. Reconstruction Finance Corporation, 306 U.S. 381 (1938) (government corporation not immune from suit); Sloan Shipyards Corporation v. United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation, 258 U.S. 549 (1922) (government's immunity from suit in tort does not extend to government corporation; corporation's claim of priority in bankruptcy on the ground that debt to corporation is owed to the United States rejected); United States v. Strang, 254 U.S. 491 (1921) (employee of government corporation held not to be agent of the United States within meaning of criminal code); see, United States v. Orleans, 425 U.S. 807 (1976) (community action corporation which received federal funds and was subject to federal standards and regulations, but whose day-to-day operations were not supervised by federal government, held not to be federal agency under Federal Tort Claims Act).

lent end.* Thus, Judgment Creditors have not met their burden of proving under either their "property interest" or "alter ego" arguments that any justification does exist or can exist for disregarding LAN-Chile's separate juridical nature and treating LAN-Chile's assets as belonging to the Republic.

In conclusion, LAN-Chile's relationship to the Republic does not justify disregarding its identity as a separate corporate entity under doctrines of corporate law. Although the government has provided capital in prior years to LAN-Chile and other state-owned enterprises, it neither disregards LAN-Chile's entity structure nor directs the daily operation of LAN-Chile. Del Campo Affidavit ¶¶6, 9-16. As the Second Circuit noted in Brunswick Corp. v. Waxman, 599 F.2d 34 (2d Cir. 1979), "[W]hat the formula [of separate corporate personality] comes down to, once shorn of verbiage about control, instrumentality, agency and corporate entity, is that liability is imposed to reach an equitable result." Id. at 36. Whatever equity may require in other contexts, it certainly is not served by imposing liability on an entity who was not a party to the original action. A separate statutory entity, LAN-Chile, operating as a commercial enterprise both in general and with respect to the particular facts of this case, cannot be deemed the Republic's alter ego.

* To risk untoward redundancy, the charges against LAN-Chile of knowingly carrying explosives have been reviewed by repeated official government investigations (largely at the instance of Judgment Creditors) and have been found baseless at least three times. See Statement of Facts at 15-16, above.

III. GRANTING JUDGMENT CREDITORS THE RELIEF THEY SEEK IN THIS SUMMARY PROCEEDING WOULD BE AN UNCONSTITUTIONAL DENIAL OF DUE PROCESS AND OTHERWISE UNLAWFUL

A. Granting Judgment Creditors' Motion Would Deny LAN-Chile Due Process of Law

Judgment Creditors have commenced this summary proceeding against LAN-Chile pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 69(a) even though LAN-Chile was not a party or in privity with a party in the Letelier Action. Hence, to grant Judgment Creditors the relief they pray for on the sketchy showing they have made would deny LAN-Chile due process of law. "It is elementary that one is not bound by a judgment in personam resulting from litigation in which he is not designated as a party or to which he was not been made a party by service of process." Zenith Radio Corp. v. Hazeltine Research, Inc., 395 U.S. 100, 110 (1969), on remand 418 F.2d 21 (7th Cir. 1969), rev'd on other grounds 401 U.S. 321 (1971), rehearing denied 401 U.S. 1015 (1971); see, Restatement (Second) of Judgments §34(3)(1982).

LAN-Chile was never served with process in the Letelier Action, nor were any attempts made to serve it even though plaintiffs obviously were aware of LAN-Chile's existence and, indeed, apparently knew well before the default judgment was entered that they would try to execute against LAN-Chile. See, Statement of Facts at 7. The Letelier Court made no determination that LAN-Chile was liable on any of the counts of that action, nor did it find that LAN-Chile was the alter ego of the Republic, nor were any facts adduced that would show or tend to show that LAN-Chile was in privity with the Republic. See, generally, Restatement (Second) of Judgments §75, Comment a (1982).

The facts of Zenith Radio v. Hazeltine Research, supra, illustrate the truly desperate nature of Judgment Creditors' efforts to execute against the property of LAN-Chile to satisfy a judgment against the Republic. In that case the Supreme Court reversed the Seventh Circuit's determination that a judgment against a subsidiary research company was binding upon that company's parent. The Court held that, as an elementary matter of due process, the nonparty parent could not be bound by any of the findings of fact or conclusions of law rendered in the judgment against the subsidiary.

The same reasoning must be applied in this case. The Letelier court obviously never purported to exercise jurisdiction over LAN-Chile. The Court made no finding that LAN-Chile was in privity with the Republic; it did not even so much as speculate that LAN-Chile was or may be an alter ego of the Republic. Judgment Creditors cannot now play fast-and-loose with elementary concepts of due process by claiming that the Letelier Default Judgment is enforceable against a nonparty, separate entity.*

* See, also, Strick Corporation v. Thai Teak Products Company, Ltd., 493 F. Supp. 1210 (E.D. Pa. 1980); Dudley v. Smith, 504 F.2d 979, 982-83 (5th Cir. 1974), rehearing denied 507 F.2d 1280 (5th Cir. 1975); Eagle Transport, Ltd. v. O'Connor, 470 F. Supp. 731, 733 (S.D.N.Y. 1979); Pasos v. Ferber, 263 F. Supp. 877, 881-82 (M.D. Pa. 1967), aff'd 386 F.2d 452 (3d Cir. 1967); cf., Aerotrade, Inc. v. Banque Nationale de la Republique d'Haiti, 376 F. Supp. 1286 (S.D.N.Y. 1974) (Weinfeld, J.) (attachment of assets of state-owned bank denied when doubtful bank is alter ego of foreign government).

These due process dangers are obvious from the fact that Judgment Creditors' proof, both on this motion and before the Letelier Court, is based so heavily on inadmissible hearsay.

As noted above, (at 11), the Townley testimony admitted from the first Sampol trial was virtually the entire case before the Letelier Court. This testimony was admitted only by virtue of a finding that Townley was unavailable as a declarant under Federal Rule of Evidence 804(a)(5), the catch-all provision permitting consideration of hearsay when the declarant is absent and the court is unable to procure his presence by process or other reasonable means. Letelier II, 502 F. Supp. at 261 n. 3. This finding was obviously erroneous in view of the fact that it is a matter of record in the Letelier II opinion that Townley was in the custody of the United States Marshal in the Witness Protection Program and, therefore, clearly subject to the process of the court through the issuance of a writ of habeas corpus ad testificandum. 28 U.S.C. 2241(a) and (c); Jerry v. Francisco, 632 F.2d 252 (3d Cir. 1980).*

As LAN-Chile is clearly not bound by the findings made in the Letelier Action, not having been a party therein, it is free now to challenge the findings made. As the particular findings relevant to LAN were based at least in part on Townley's

* Obviously, the fact that Townley's testimony constituted the entire theory of the defendant's liability made any decision not to produce him, to the extent it was discretionary, an abuse of that discretion.

hearsay, they must be discarded. As the judgment as a whole rests on this inadmissible hearsay, it likewise must be vacated.*

Other matter in the Privitera Affidavit is similarly problematic. For instance, its reference to the "findings" of Letelier II as to LAN-Chile's "role" in the deaths of Mr. Letelier and Mrs. Moffitt is wholly disingenuous. There was no finding in Letelier II as to any "role" by LAN-Chile in those events. The only finding was that there was "uncontradicted testimony" that Townley had used facilities and personnel of LAN-

* It should also be noted that the Letelier Default Judgment is void for lack of subject-matter jurisdiction. The FSIA, which also governs subject-matter jurisdiction, was designed to put private litigants on an equal footing with foreign sovereigns engaging in activities essentially commercial or private in nature. House Report 94-1487 at 6-7; see 28 U.S.C. §1602. In this respect, section 1605(a)(5), upon which the Letelier Court supposedly based its subject-matter jurisdiction, was aimed primarily at traffic accidents and similar occurrences, id. at 20-21, and not matters such as the Letelier Action. The Letelier Court's use of 1605(a)(5) has been termed "unexpected." Brower, Bistline and Loomis, The Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976 in Practice, 73 AM. J. INT'L L. 200, 201 (1979).

The Letelier action obviously did not involve acts by a foreign sovereign that were essentially private in nature. Before the FSIA public acts of a sovereign enjoyed immunity even when they entailed arguably private wrongs to United States citizens. E.g., Heaney v. Government of Spain, 445 F.2d 501 (2d Cir. 1971); Gittler v. German Information Center, 95 Misc.2d 788, 408 N.Y.S.2d 600 (Sup. Ct., N.Y. Co., 1978). At least one post-FSIA case has taken this view, also, Carey v. Nat'l Oil Corp. 453 F. Supp. 1097, 1102 (S.D.N.Y. 1978) (dicta), aff'd 592 F.2d 673 (2d Cir. 1979) (per curiam), and since the FSIA codified prior law to a great extent, e.g., 28 U.S.C. §1605(a)(5)(A), the Letelier Court should have held that it lacked subject-matter jurisdiction because the action involved the public acts of a foreign sovereign. Of course, since LAN-Chile was not a party in the Letelier Action, it may and does now raise this issue.

Chile. Some of that testimony was the product of nonjudicial hearings and investigations in which LAN-Chile had no right to cross-examine witnesses. It contains multiple layers of hearsay, and is obviously inadmissible. Fed. R. Evid. 802 and 805, see, id. 804(b)(1); Matter of Sterling Navigation Co., Ltd., 444 F. Supp. 1043 (S.D.N.Y. 1977).

The Privitera Affidavit also attaches excerpts from Townley's testimony in the criminal proceedings (Ex. A), Cruchaga's grand jury testimony (Ex. B), an FBI report (Ex. C), and some letters purportedly written by Townley while in prison (Ex. D). These documents, too, are inadmissible hearsay.

Additionally, Townley's testimony does not come within the prior testimony exception of Federal Rule of Evidence 804(b)(1) because LAN-Chile was not a party to the proceedings, and therefore had no opportunity to cross-examine Townley. Accordingly, matters contained in Townley's testimony may not be used against LAN-Chile.

For the same reasons, Cruchaga's grand jury testimony is inadmissible against LAN-Chile. Not only was Cruchaga unable to have his own lawyer present, but LAN-Chile had no opportunity to cross-examine him. In short, this testimony is inadmissible hearsay. See, United States v. Fiore, 443 F.2d 112, 115 (2d Cir. 1971) (admission of grand jury testimony offends hearsay rule).

The FBI report is an even more egregious affront to the hearsay rule. The summary itself is hearsay, as are the statements contained in it. These statements were not even made under oath. There is simply no way to determine the report's sources or their reliability. Moreover, LAN-Chile had no opportunity to cross-examine the FBI agents or the suppliers of those agents' information. Even if the report itself falls with the business records exception, Fed. R. Evid. 803(6), its statements are nevertheless hearsay and therefore inadmissible. See, Advisory Committee Note on Fed. R. Evid. 803; accord, Florida Canal Industries v. Rambo, 537 F.2d 200 (5th Cir. 1976) (while Coast Guard report of investigation of collision was made in regular course of business, statements of yacht owner incorporated into report were not). The FBI report therefore may not be used against LAN-Chile.

Finally, the Townley letters are incontestably hearsay, and are not even arguably within any exception to the hearsay rule. The translations from Spanish are not certified, and the statements are self-serving and not made under oath. In short, the letters are patently unreliable and inadmissible against LAN-Chile in this proceeding.

In short, Judgment creditors' proof of LAN-Chile's connection with the events underlying the Letelier Action relies so heavily on inadmissible hearsay that their motion must be denied on this ground alone. Moreover, their efforts to bind LAN-Chile with the findings of the Letelier Default Judgment -- based as they are on inadmissible hearsay -- cannot be sanctioned either. See, Putnam Mills Corp. v. United States, 479 F.2d 1334 (Ct. Cl. 1973).

B. Granting Judgment Creditors The Relief They Seek Would Be An Unlawful Prejudgment Attachment Under 28 U.S.C. §§1609 and 1610(d)

Given Judgment Creditors' failure to make a sufficient factual showing against LAN-Chile both in this proceeding and in the Letelier Action, granting their motion would be tantamount to a prejudgment attachment. Prejudgment attachments are not favored under the FSIA because "such attachments gave rise to 'serious friction' in United States foreign relations." Geveke & Co International, Inc. v. Kompania di Awa i Elektrisidat di Korsou, 482 F.Supp. 660, 663 (S.D.N.Y. 1979). As a result, the FSIA allows prejudgment attachments only if "the foreign state has explicitly waived its immunity from attachment prior to judgment," and the purpose of the attachment is to secure satisfaction of a judgment. 28 U.S.C. §1610(d) (emphasis added).

As discussed in detail in section I, above, LAN-Chile has not waived its immunity from attachment, and has certainly not made an explicit waiver of that immunity. See, Reading & Bates Corp. v. National Iranian Oil Co., 478 F. Supp. 724 (S.D.N.Y. 1979); accord, E-Systems, Inc. v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 491 F. Supp. 1294 (N.D. Tex. 1980); Security Pacific National Bank v. Government and State of Iran, 513 F. Supp. 864, 879-80 (C.D. Cal. 1981).

Thus, Judgment Creditors motion must be denied as requesting an unlawful prejudgment attachment. For the same reason, the restraining notices, which are effectively preliminary injunctions, served by Judgment Creditors upon LAN-Chile must be vacated as unlawful prejudgment attachments. Preliminary injunctions have been recognized as equivalent to prejudgment attachments within the meaning of the FSIA, and are therefore barred for the same reasons as prejudgment attachments are. See, Chas. T. Main International v. Khuzestan Water and Power Authority, 651 F.2d at 808 n.12.

IV. APPOINTING A RECEIVER IS LEGALLY AND FACTUALLY UNWARRANTED

A. Judgment Creditors Have Failed to Make the Factual Showing for a Receiver to be Appointed

Finally, Judgment Creditors' request to have Judgment Creditor Michael Moffitt appointed receiver of LAN-Chile's United States assets is unfounded in law or fact.

The accepted procedure in federal courts to enforce a money judgment is by writ of execution. Thus, Rule 69(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides: "Process to enforce a judgment for the payment of money shall be by writ of execution, unless the court directs otherwise." "The 'unless' clause [of Rule 69] does not give the federal court unlimited power to provide some means other than an execution for the enforcement of a money judgment." 7, pt. 2 , Moore's Federal Practice ¶69.03 [2] (2d ed. 1982) ("Moore's"). To the extent it is incorporated by Rule 69(a), New York law provides that a receiver may not be appointed to enforce a money judgment if a more expeditious proceeding can be brought. Drucker v. Drucker, 53 Misc. 2d 446, 278 N.Y.S.2d 645 (Sup. Ct., Queens Co., 1967). Receivership is a remedy of last resort, it should not be employed absent a compelling showing that no other remedy exists. Bracco v. Lackner, 462 F.Supp. 436, 456 (N.D. Cal. 1978).

UNCLASSIFIED

Here, Judgment Creditors have not even alleged that an execution or some other means of enforcement, if attempted, would not be successful. This Court has been provided with no reason to conclude that LAN-Chile would not comply with less drastic procedures. To the contrary, LAN-Chile has represented to the Court that its North American operations will not be affected by this proceeding. See, Ex. 8 to Combe Affidavit.

Appointment of a receiver, it is well established, may not be based upon unsubstantiated conclusions. Miller v. Fisco, 376 F. Supp. 468 (E.D. Pa. 1974); Brady Coal & Ice Co. v. McAteer, 254 A.D. 776, 4 N.Y.S. 2d 744 (4th Dept. 1938). The burden of proving that a receiver is necessary is upon the applicant. Tannis v. Tannis, - Misc. 2d -, 213 N.Y.S.2d 320, 322 (Sup. Ct., Kings Co., 1961); Saull v. Seplowe, - Misc. 2d -, 218 N.Y.S.2d 777 (Sup. Ct., Kings Co., 1961).

Judgment Creditors purport to support their application with what, at best, could be characterized as a series of suggestions and inferences, unsubstantiated by any evidence. The Court is apparently being asked to "fill in the blanks" in their showing in order to come to the conclusion that a receiver is necessary. That conclusion would be utterly contrary to the New York and federal requirement that there be a "clear evidentiary showing of the necessity for the conservation of property" to support the appointment of a receiver. Glassner v. Kaufman, 19 A.D.2d 885, 244 N.Y.S.2d 449 (1st Dept. 1963); Zinke-Smith, Inc. v. Marlowe, 323 F. Supp. 1151 (D.V.I. 1971).

Judgment Creditors assert, for instance, that LAN-Chile substituted leased aircraft for its own aircraft "[i]n an evident attempt to limit its exposure to attachment." (Judgment Creditors' Memorandum, at 14.) This statement purposely ignores the contents of Exhibit E to the Privitera Affidavit, upon which the assertion is supposedly based. Exhibit E clearly shows that LAN-Chile had a legitimate business purpose for leasing the DC-10's: to evaluate the need for additional capacity an its Santiago - New York run. See, also, Del Campo Declaration ¶¶ 10-11. To suggest, as Judgment Creditors have, that LAN-Chile would more than double its passenger capacity at a cost of $900,000 per month (CAB application, Exhibit E to Privitera Affidavit), merely to avoid the outside chance of liability on a $3,000,000 judgment is, quite literally, incredible.

Also, Judgment Creditors' bare assertion that LAN-Chile aircraft have been "removed" from this country does not warrant the conclusion that they have been improperly removed. It also omits to assert that LAN-Chile has brought back planes which it has removed. The only sense in which LAN-Chile assets have been "removed" from the United States is that its planes do what most planes do. They fly -- fly in as well as out.

Judgment Creditors next assert that the appointment of a receiver would be appropriate because "[a]s in the case of any ongoing business, many assets may be under lease or subject to encumbrances." (Judgment Creditors' Memorandum, at 15.) Judgment Creditors are apparently arguing that receivership is appropriate to enforce a judgment against any ongoing business, an argument that obviously cannot be sustained. Glassner v. Kaufman, supra. They have not proved any facts to support their claim that LAN-Chile's assets are of such an unusual nature that they need to be "untangled."

Other arguments put forth by Judgment Creditors simply miss the point. The possibility that the value of LAN-Chile's assets may be less than the amount of the judgment bears no relevance to the issue of whether a receiver should be appointed. Moreover, even accepting, arguendo, Judgment Creditors' theory that LAN-Chile is the alter ego of Chile, they do not offer any explanation why such a relationship warrants the appointment of a receiver over the usual methods of execution.

B. Judgment Creditor Michael Moffitt Is Not a Proper Receiver

Judgment Creditor Michael Moffitt has not proved that he is qualified or competent to perform the duties that would be required of the receiver of the assets of an international airline.* In his affidavit, Moffitt asserts that his experience includes evaluating stocks and bonds and analyzing the world economy. (Moffitt Affidavit ¶¶2-3.) Such experience may indicate a knowledge of macroeconomic theory, but has little to do with real life in running real business transactions. Nowhere has Moffitt asserted that he has any experience in running a business of any kind or that he has any knowledge of the workings of the airline industry. The power to appoint a receiver is based upon sound judicial discretion, 65 Am. Jur. 2d, Receivers §19 (1972); to appoint Moffitt as receiver in the present case would risk unnecessary harm to LAN-Chile and constitute an abuse of discretion. See, Adelman v. CGS Scientific Corporation, 332

* In their Memorandum of Law, Judgment Creditors cite the hoary authority of Farmers' Loan and Trust Co. v. Cape Fear & Y. Val. R. Co., 62 F. 675 (C.C.N.C. 1894), for the proposition that a receiver need not be an expert in the business affected by the receivership. (Memorandum at 38.) One assumes that they cited this case because they thought it supported this proposition. A quick glance at the court's opinion shows that it contradicts that proposition. In that case, which involved a liquidation in bankruptcy (and thus was not concerned with preserving the viability of the business), the court stated:

> It is said that [the receiver] is not a railroad man, his employment being that of a banker and financier. If by this [it] is meant that he is not a railroad expert, acquainted with all the details of the mechanical work of a railroad plant, this objection, no doubt, is founded on fact...

Id. at 676-77. Judgment Creditors take this statement out of context, for the court then went on to point out that the receiver had been "concerned in the construction and management of railroads, and [knew] railroad accounts." Id. (emphasis added). In addition, he had been trustee of a mortgage on the railroad's assets, and had also been an owner of some of the railroad's mortgage bonds. Id.

UNCLASSIFIED

F. Supp. 137 (E.D. Pa. 1971). In addition, because of the highly charged political atmosphere of the present controversy, the appointment of an "adverse party with an obvious conflict of interest" is inappropriate. Id., at 147-48. Moffitt has no incentive to perform the duties of a receiver in such a way as to avoid irreparably injuring LAN-Chile. Id. Indeed, it could be reasonably concluded that he has precisely the opposite intention.

Conclusion

In conclusion, for the reasons set forth above and in the Affidavits, Declarations and other materials and exhibits submitted herewith, it is respectfully requested that Judgment Creditors motion be denied, this summary proceeding be dismissed, the underlying Judgment be vacated, and the Restraining Notices served upon LAN-Chile and others vacated.

WE HAVE BEEN TOLD THAT COMMUNIST LABOR LEADERS MET WITH THE GROUP OF 10 AND CEPCH THE EARLY MORNING OF MAY 1 PROMISING NOT TO ENGAGE IN STREET DEMONSTRATIONS IF THOSE TWO GROUPS WOULD PARTICIPATE IN THE MEETING SCHEDULED AT THE PANAL UNION HALL. THE GROUP OF 10 AND CEPCH HAD CALLED OFF THEIR PARTICIPATION APRIL 30, AND THEY REAFFIRMED THAT POSITION THIS MORNING. APPROXIMATELY 17 FOREIGN LABOR REPRESENTATIVES ARE REPORTED TO BE IN SANTIAGO, OF WHICH 12 ARE FROM ITALY AND AFFILIATED PREDOMINANTLY WITH THE ICFTU. THERE ARE ALSO THREE FROM CANADA, ONE FROM HOLLAND, AND ONE FROM SPAIN. MOST WILL BE ATTENDING THE PANAL MEETING.

1. (U) ALTHOUGH PRESS ACCOUNTS DIFFER SLIGHTLY, A TOTAL OF 55 PERSONS MAY HAVE BEEN ARRESTED MAY 1 IN CONNECTION WITH LABOR DAY ACTIVITIES. THE LARGEST GROUP, 33, WERE ARRESTED WHEN A REPORTED 200 PEOPLE TOOK TO THE STREETS AFTER A FUT (LOCAL CLAT AFFILIATE) RALLY. APPARENTLY SOME SHOTS WERE FIRED BUT, CONTRARY TO SOME EARLIER REPORTS, THERE WERE NO INJURIES. MOST OF THE OTHER ARRESTS WERE FOR DISTRIBUTING FLYERS. ACCORDING TO THE PRESS THE 46 MEN AND 9 WOMEN WILL BE CHARGED WITH VIOLATIONS OF THE INTERNAL SECURITY LAW.

2. (U) THE PANAL MEETING OF OPPOSITION LABOR GROUPS WAS ATTENDED BY ABOUT 1400, INCLUDING FOREIGN VISITORS AND REPRESENTATIVES OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH. WITH THE WITHDRAWAL OF THE GROUP OF TEN AND CEPCH (REFTEL) IT WAS PRIMARILY A COORDINADORA NACIONAL SINDICAL (CNS)

AFFAIR. MANUEL BUSTOS WAS THE MAIN SPEAKER. AFTER DEPARTING ON FOOT FROM THE PANAL MEETING BISHOP ALVEAR, FATHER CRISTIAN PRECHT (EX-HEAD OF THE VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY) AND THREE OTHER PRIESTS WERE STOPPED BRIEFLY BY CARABINEROS BUT THEN ALLOWED TO CONTINUE. THERE ARE ALSO REPORTS THAT SEVEN OF THE VISITING ITALIANS WERE ASKED TO SHOW IDENTIFICATION

WHILE TAKING PICTURES IN DOWNTOWN SANTIAGO.

3. (U) ALTHOUGH THE CARDINAL HAD SUSPENDED THE USUAL LABOR DAY MASS (SANTIAGO 2762), CHARGING GOC PRESSURE WHICH THE GOVERNMENT THEN DENIED, HE RELEASED A LONG MESSAGE TO THE FAITHFUL. REFERRING TO THE SUSPENSION, CARDINAL SILVA CONCLUDED THAT CONDITIONS OF INTERNAL UNDERSTANDING HAVE NOT IMPROVED, RATHER "THAT PEACE IN CHILE IS EVERY DAY MORE DIFFICULT." HE EXHORTED CHRISTIANS TO CONTINUE TO SEEK PATHS OF CONCILIATION, NOT VIOLENCE. HE REPEATED THE RECENT CALL OF CHILE'S BISHOPS FOR AN EARLY RETURN TO INSTITUTIONAL NORMALITY.
4. (C) COMMENT. BY THE USUAL MEASURE, NUMBER OF ARRESTS, THIS YEAR'S LABOR DAY WAS A NON-EVENT. THERE WERE OVER 700 ARRESTS IN 1978 AND 400 PLUS LAST YEAR. AT THE SAME TIME HOWEVER THE GOC WORKED HARDER TO DISCOURAGE GATHERINGS THAT MIGHT HAVE LED TO DEMONSTRATIONS AND THE SECURITY FORCES WERE OUT IN LARGER NUMBERS. THE FATAL SHOOTING OF A CARABINERO APRIL 28 AND THE ENSUING POLICE CRACKDOWN ON SUSPECTS PROBABLY ALSO HAD AN INTIMIDATING IMPACT. AS ONE IMMEDIATE RESULT GOC RELATIONS WITH THE CHURCH ARE ONCE AGAIN SEVERELY STRAINED. AND THERE MAY BE LONGER TERM SIGNIFICANCE IN THE LAST MINUTE REFUSAL OF THE GROUP OF TEN AND THE CEPCH TO HOLD A JOINT MEETING WITH THE LEFTISTS GROUPED IN THE CNS. IN THIS INSTANCE AT LEAST THEY REFUSED TO LEND THEIR SUPPORT TO ACTIVITIES WHICH, FROM MOST REPORTS, THE COMMUNISTS HOPED WOULD LEAD TO SERIOUS

SUBJ: (LOU) ARREST OF D'AUBUISSON AND COHORTS; SOME OBSERVATIONS AND COMMENTS

1. (LOU) THE ARREST OF MAJOR D'AUBUISSON AND OTHER MILITARY AND CIVILIAN FIGURES ACCUSED OF FOMENTING A COUP AGAINST THE JRG FIRST BROKE ON THE RADIO AND SUBSEQUENTLY HAS RECEIVED CONSIDERABLE PRESS ATTENTION. IT HAS, HOWEVER, BEEN HANDLED RATHER GINGERLY, SOMETIMES RELYING ON THE TACTIC OF QUOTING AN INTERNATIONAL WIRE SERVICE STORY, RATHER THAN TAKING THE RESPONSIBILITY OF PRODUCING A LOCAUSREPORT. THE IMPLICATIONS OF THE ARRESTS ARE ALSO RATHER CAREFULLY SKIRTED.

2. (U) THE BASIC ELEMENTS OF THE STORY HAVE BEEN MADE CLEAR, THAT D'AUBUISSON AND OTHE RIGHTIST MILITARY AND CIVILIAN FIGURES WERE ARRESTED AT A FINCA NEAR SANTA TECLA BY FORCES OF THE FIRST REGIMENT LOYAL TO COL MAJANO AND WERE TAKEN TO THE SAN CARLOS BARRACKS, WHERE THEY WERE HELD. ONLY A FEW NAMES, ALLEGEDLY THOSE OF FORCIBLY RETIRED OFFICERS HAVE APPEARED IN THE PRESS.

3. (C) AMONG THE POLITICAL GROUPS OR FORCES INVOLVED, HOWEVER, THE RAMIFICATIONS ARE VERY MUCH IN THE FOREFRONT. COL MAJANO HAS CHOSEN TO MOVE STRONGY -- AND TO A CERTAIN EXTENT --

UNILATERALLY AGAINST THOSE WHO WERE SEEKING TO DEPOSE HIM A FEW DAYS EARLIER. HE JUSTIFIED HIS ACTION ON THE VERY RATIONAL BASIS THAT REPEATED FAILURE TO ACT AGAINST THOSE FROM THE RIGHT SEEKING TO DESTABILIZE THE GOVERNMENT FURTHE WEAKENS THE GOVERNMENT AND ULTIMATELY MIGHT GUARANTEE THE SUCCESS OF THE RIGHTISTS.

4. (C) THE RIGHT, OF COURSE, SEES ITS VERY CONTINUATION ENDANGERED AND CANNOT LET WHAT IT CONSIDERS TO BE MAJANO'S GRAB FOR POWER GO UNCHALLENGED. CONSERVATIVE ELEMENTS, PERHAPS NOT DIRECTLY INVOLVED WITH THE PLOTTERS, MUST ALSO WONDER WHERE THIS DEVELOPMENT WILL LEAD THEM ALSO. WHATEVER CATEGORY INTO WHICH DEFENSE MINISTER GARCIA AND SUB-SECRETARY CARRANZA MIGHT FALL THE CAREERS AND FUTURES ALONG WITH MANY OTHERS ARE AT ZAKE.

5. (C) THE POC HAS APPARENTLY DECIDED TO STAND WITH MAJANO IN DEMANDING THE PUNISHMENT FOR THE PLOTTERS. THERE IS NO WORD YET ON THEIR PRESS CONFERENCE WHICH WAS TO BE HELD TODAY. THE DETERMINATION WITH WHICH THEY MIGHT DEMAND PUNISHMENT AND THE SEVERITY THEY MAY ADVOCATE WILL BE OF CONSIDERABLE IMPORTANCE IN THE REPERCUSSIONS FOR THE POC IN ITS UNEASY ROLE WITH THE MILITARY IN THE JRG.

6. (C) THE VARIOUS FORCES ARE STILL TAKING THEIR SIDES AND IT REMAINS TO BE SEEN IF ENOUGH OF THEM WILL STAND FIRM SO THAT THERE WILL BE A CONFRONTATION THAT PRODUCES SPLITS OR LEADS TO SOME TYPE OF A DEFINITIVE SOLUTION, OR WHETHER, AS IN SO MANY CASES IN THE RECENT PAST, THINGS WILL QUIETLY WIND DOWN AND BE PAPERED OVER, ONLY TO ERUPT AGAIN SHORTLY.

7. (C) ON SUM, IT WOULD APPEAR IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE COUNTRY FOR THERE TO BE TAKEN SOME DECISIVE ACTION AGAINST THE RIGHT, POSSIBLY ELIMINATING THAS SERIOUS DIVISIVE FACTOR ONCE AND FOR ALL SO THAT THE GOVERNMENT CAN GAIN A LITTLE MANEUVERIN SPACE ON THE RIGHT AND TO WIN SOME CREDIBILITY WITH THE MODERATE LEFT AND MOVE FORCEFULLY AGAINST THE EXTREME LEFT. BUT DECISIVE ACTION WILL CREATE ADDITIONAL STRESSES AND STRAINS, AND IT IS NOT AT ALL CERTAIN THAT THE JRG IS CAPABLE OF SURVIVING THEM.

SUBJ: PDC'S DEMAND FOR JUDICIAL ACTION AGAINST D'AUBUISSON AND OTHER CONSPIRATORS

1. (U) PDC PRESS CONFRENCE ANNOUNCEMENT MAY 9 THAT PARTY DEMANDS PUNISHMENT OF MAJOR D'AUBUISSON AND OTHERS ARRESTED WITH HIM IS RECEIVING WIDE PUBLICITY IN PRESS AND RADIO. SPEAKING FOR THE PDC, SAN SALVADOR MAYOR REY PRENDES SAID THE PLOTTERS SHOULD BE TRIED ACCORDING TO THE LAW AND IF THEY WERE NOT, THE PDC WOULD WITHDRAW FROM THE GOVERNMENT. REY PRENDES SAID THAT DOCUMENTS CAPTURED WITH D'AUBUISSON IMPLICATED VARIOUS PROFESSIONALS, BUSINESSMEN AND INDUSTRIALSISTS WHOSE NAMES WOULD BE REVEALED DURING THE PROCESS. HE ALSO SAID D'AUBUISSON FRONTED FOR A GROUP THAT HAS CONTACTS WITH CONSERVATIVE U.S. SENATORS AND SOUGH AMERICAN SOUTHERN CONE COUNTRIES, PARTICULARLY CHILE. REY PRENDES, HOWEVER, WAS APPARENTLY CAREFUL NOT TO NAME ANY PERSONS, SALVADORAN OR FOREIGN, EXCEPT D'AUBUISSON.

2. (U) PRESS ALSO ANNOUNCES THAT RELATIVES OF D'AUBUISSON AND THE OTHERS ARRESTED ARE REQUESTING A WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS FROM THE SUPREME COURT DEMANDING THE PRISONERS BE REMANDED TO THE COMMON COURTS IF THEY ARE BEING CHARGED WITH THE VIOLATION OF ANY LAWS. THE REQUEST REPORTEDLY STATES THAT THE MEN ARE BEING HELD INCOMMUNICADO AT THE SAN CARLOS BARRACKS. OTHER NAMES INCLUDED IN THE HABEAS CORPUS REQUEST ARE: MAJOR ALVARO SARAVIA, ANTONIO CORNEJO ARANGO, FERNANDO SAGRERA ABERLE, FRANCISCO ARKIN, ROBERTO MUYSHONDT YUDICE, AND RICARDO VALDIVIESO.

3. (U) DIARIO DE HOY CARRIES A STORY IN WHICH D'AUBUISSON IS IDENTIFIED AS BEING A MEMBER OF THE "ANTI-COMMUNIST" BROAD NATIONAL FRONT (FAN) AND WHICH CITES HIS RADIO AND TELEVISION BROADCASTS "IN DEFENSE OF THE PRESTIGE AND SURVIVAL OF THE ARMED FORCES" AGAINST COMMUNIST ASSAULT. THE STORY ALSO CLAIMS D'AUBUISSON HAS MET WITH U.S. SENATORS AND IMPORTANT PEOPLE OF THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE TO INFORM THEM ABOUT THE SITUATION IN EL SALVADOR. SENATORS STROM THURMOND, RICHARD STONE, S.I. HAYAKAWA, AND HARRY BYRD ARE THE ONLY PERSONS LISTED BY NAME. THE ARTICLE FURTHER CLAIMS THAT INTERVIEWS WERE BROADCAST BY THE BBC AND VOICE OF AMERICA AND THAT D'AUBUISSON HAS BEEN INVITED TO APPEAR ON THE CBS TELEVISION PROGRAM "29-29".

4. (C) COMMENT: THE PUBLICITY GIVEN TO THE PDC'S DEMAND FOR JUDICIAL ACTION AGAINST D'AUBUISSON, INCLUD-

9698 SAN SA 03311 1617592

INT ITS VERY FREQUENT REPETITION ON THE GOVERNMENT RADIO, SERVES TO LOCK THE PDC AND OTHER SECTORS MORE FIRMLY INTO POSITION. CONCEIVABLY IT COULD BE A PLOY BY THE MILITARY TO SHIFT ANY ONUS FOR JUDICIAL ACTION FROM ITS OWN SHOULDERS TO THAT OF THE PDC. IT COULD, ON THE OTHER HAND, BE AN INITIATIVE BY THE PDC TO MAKE CERTAIN ITS DEMAND IS KNOWN AND UNDERSTOOD. IN any EVENT, IT HAS BECOME INCREASINGLY DIFFICULT FOR THE PARTIES INVOLVED TO QUIETLY LET THE WHOLE THING DIE DOWN AND FADE AWAY.

SUBJ: DD D'AUBUISSON AND OTHER COUP-PLOTTERS RELEASED

1. [redacted] BEGIN SUMMARY: MAJOR D'AUBUISSON AND THE OTHERS ARRESTED FOR COUP-PLOTTING WERE RELEASED THE EVENING OF MAY 13. IN PRACTICAL TERMS THIS PROBABLY MEANS THE END OF THE CASE. THERE ARE HOWEVER REPERCUSSIONS FOR THE PDC AND COL MAJANO. THE PDC IS PUBLICLY COMMITTED TO WITHDRAWAL FROM THE GOVERNMENT IF D'AUBUISSON IS NOT PUNISHED. IT WILL BE HARD FOR THE PARTY TO EAT ITS WORDS. MAJANO HAS BEEN STRUCK A SERIOUS BLOW BRINGING INTO QUESTION HIS ABILITY AND WILLINGNESS TO CONTINUE ON IN THE JUNTA. THE SITUATION IN EL SALVADOR IS AT ANOTHER CROSSROADS, WITH SERIOUS RAMIFICATIONS FOR U.S. POLICY. END SUMMARY.
2. [redacted] MAJOR D'AUBUISSON AND 23 OTHERS ARRESTED WITH HIM FOR COUP-PLOTTING WERE RELEASED AT 2808 HOURS MAY 13. ONE OF MAJOR MORNING NEWSPAPERS QUOTES DEFENSE MINISTER GARCIA AS SAYING THE MILITARY INVESTIGATING JUDGE HAD TOLD HIM THAT HE (THE JUDGE) "FOUND NO MERIT" IN DETAINING THE PRISONERS BEYOND THE 72 HOUR DEADLINE SET BY THE LAW, RATHER THAN ORDERING THEIR CONTINUED ETENTION AND INITIATING A COURT MARTIAL. GARCIA ALSO IS QUOTED AS SAYING THAT THE LAW ALLOWS THE INVESTIGATING JUDGE TO CONTINUE THE INTERROGATIONS AND STUDYING THE EVIDENCE FOR 20 DAYS, DURING WHICH TIME HE MAY AGAIN ORDER THE DETENTION OF THE ACCUSED AND INITIATE A COURT MARTIAL. ACCORDING TO THE NEWSPAPER GARCIA SUMMARIZED, "I AM SATISFIED, BECAUSE THE ACTIONS IN THIS CASE HAVE BEEN LEGAL AND CORRECT". THE OTHER MAJOR MORNING PAPER REPORTS -- WITH SOME OBVIOUS SATISFACTION -- D'AUBUISSON'S RELEASE AS THE END OF THE PROCESS.

3. [redacted] COMMENT: IT IS HIGHLY UNLIKELY THAT THIS INITIAL DECISION WILL BE REVERSED AND THE RE-ARREST OF D'AUBUISSON BE ORDERED. IN THAT UNLIKELY EVENT, IT IS INCONCEIVABLE THAT D'AUBUISSON AND ANY OF THE OTHERS WOULD BE READY AND WAITING TO BE PICKED UP AGAIN. FOR ALL PRACTICAL PURPOSES, THEN, THE PRESENT D'AUBUISSON COUP-PLOT CASE APPEARS FINISHED.

4. [redacted] BUT THE REPERCUSSIONS ARE FAR FROM FINISHED. THE PDC PUBLICLY COMMITTED ITSELF TO THE DEMAND THAT D'AUBUISSON BE PUNISHED WITH THE WARNING THAT OTHERWISE THE PDC WOULD WITHDRAW FROM THE GOVERNMENT. INTERNALLY, THE PDC HAS REAFFIRMED AND STRENGTHENED THIS DECISION. IN PRIVATE CONVERSATIONS WITH EMBOFFS, PARTY LEADERS HAVE STRESSED NOT ONLY THE PARTY'S BUT THEIR OWN DETERMINATION ON THIS ISSUE. IN FACT, SEVERAL OF THE LEADERS HAVE REFLECTED A CERTAIN SENSE OF RELIEF THAT THE ISSUE WAS JOINED AND THAT THE MILITARY IN THE PROCESS WOULD HAVE TO DEFINE ITSELF AND ITS RELATIONS WITH THE PDC. THESE SAME PDC LEADERS INDICATE A WEARINESS WITH THE UNCERTAINTY OF THEIR ROLE AND THE FUTURE OF THE PARTY IN THE GOVERNMENT, INDICATING IT IS BETTER TO SEE THE ISSUES RESOLVED NOW WITHOUT FURTHER DELAY, WHETHE THE RESOLUTION GOES IN FAVOR OF THE PARTY OR NOT. THE PDC MAY BE ABLE TO SWALLOW ITS WORDS AND ITS PRIDE, BUT AT BEST IT IS LIKELY TO CAUSE SOME SEVERE CHOKING.

5. [redacted] FOR COL MAJANO THE SITUATION IS STILL MORE DIFFICULT. HE HAD MORE OR LESS UNILATERALLY ENGINEERED D'AUBUISSON'S ARREST AND HAD THE MOST DIRECT PERSONAL AND POLITICAL INTERESTS IN SEEING HIM PUNISHED AND REMOVED AS A POLITICAL FIGURE. D'AUBUISSON'S RELEASE, FOLLOWING IMMEDIATELY ON THE HEELS OF MAJANO'S LOSS TO GUTIERREZ IN THE ELECTION TO THE POSITION OF SUPREME COMMANDER OF THE ARMED FORCE, IS A SERIOUS BLOW TO MAJANO, PLACING IN JEOPARDY HIS ABILITY AND/OR WILLINGNESS TO CONTINU
E OR IN THE JUNTA.

6. [redacted] IT WOULD BE HARD NOT TO SEE IN D'AUBUISSON'S RELEASE A PLOT TO SECURE REMOVAL OR WITHDRAWAL OF MAJANO AND THE PDC. BUT ALTHOUGH THESE ARE READILY APPARENT CANDIDATES FOR THE VILLIAN ROLE, THE SITUATION IS STILL TOO UNCLEAR AND FLUID FOR FINAL JUDGEMENTS. EL SALVADOR IS AT ANOTHER CROSSROADS, WITH SERIOUS RAMIFICATIONS FOR U.S. POLICY.

2. I WAS CONCERNED THAT THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS MIGHT MEET AGAIN THIS EVENING AND COME TO THE WRONG DECISION. THEREFORE, I FELT IT IMPORTANT TO GIVE NAPOLEON DUARTE THE BOWDLER/CHEEK MESSAGE THAT WHATEVER DECISION THE PARTY CAME TO SHOULD BE RELAYED TO US IN CONFIDENCE WITH SUFFICIENT TIME TO ALLOW US TO TOUCH BASES IN WASHINGTON.

3. TO MY RELIEF, DUARTE SAID THAT WHILE THE PARTY HAD NOT YET COME TO A DECISION, HE WAS MOVING THINGS IN SUCH A WAY THAT HE WAS REASONABLY CONFIDENT THAT THE PDC "WOULD STAY AND RIDE IT OUT."

4. I APPLAUDED HIS DECISION BUT SAID THAT AT THE SAME TIME THE PARTY SHOULD BE PREPARED FOR ANOTHER MANEUVER AGAINST IT. HE SAID THAT IS PRECISELY WHAT WE ARE GOING TO MEET ON TONIGHT. (COMMENT: THIS CRYPTIC LAST PARAGRAPH REFERRED TO OUR CONVERSATION EARLIER TODAY IN WHICH DUARTE, THEN IN A MUCH MORE DISCOURAGED MOOD, SAID THAT IF THE PDC ABSORBED THIS BLOW, THE NEXT THING IN STORE FOR THEM WOULD BE THE MILITARY REINSTATEMENT OF THE CONSPIRATOR D'AUBUISSON. I SHOULD ADD THAT I KNOW THAT DUARTE TALKED TO COL MAJANO DURING THE DAY AND I CAN ONLY ASSUME THAT THIS MEANS THAT MAJANO WILL STAY ALSO.) WHITE

1. IT IS BEGINNING TO APPEAR THAT THE CRISIS THAT LOOMED SO LARGE YESTERDAY MAY BE MANAGEABLE. IN MY HOUR LONG DISCUSSION DURING THE MORNING OF MAY 14 WITH JUNTA MEMBER NAPOLEON DUARTE, I FOUND HIM DISCOURAGED AND CONFUSED. DUARTE'S OWN WORDS WERE THAT HE FELT "USED, BATTERED, AND DECEIVED". DUARTE SAID THAT HE WAS CERTAIN THAT THE MILITARY INTENDED TO FORCE THE POC INTO A POSITION WHERE THE PARTY PROVIDED NOTHING BUT A FRONT FOR THE MILITARY, THE TRUE RULERS OF THE COUNTRY. DUARTE SAID THAT HE WAS CONVINCED NOW THAT VICE MINISTER OF DEFENSE CARRANZA HAS IMPORTANT LINKS WITH THE EXTREME RIGHT AND EXERCISES THE REAL POWER IN THE HIGH COMMAND. DUARTE SAID THAT MINISTER OF DEFENSE GARCIA IS THE PUBLIC RELATIONS MAN AND COL. ABDUL GUTIERREZ WILL BE THE SOMEWHAT CREDIBLE FIGUREHEAD IN THE JUNTA BECAUSE OF HIS LEADERSHIP IN THE OCT 15 OVERTHROW AND SUBSEQUENT REFORM MOVEMENT. BUT THE PROGRAM WILL SHIFT TO THE FAR RIGHT AND IT WILL BE IMPOSSIBLE FOR THE POC TO STAY IN THE GOVERNMENT.

2. WHEN I SPOKE TO DUARTE IN THE LATE AFTERNOON (SAN SALVADOR 3414) HE PRACTICALLY TOLD ME THE MATTER HAD BEEN WORKED OUT. WE HAVE A SUBSEQUENT REPORT THAT HE WAS MOST PESSIMISTIC LAST NIGHT, HOWEVER, BUT I AM NOT SURE WHAT HAPPENED IN THE MEANTIME TO CHANGE HIS OUTLOOK. THE POC'S DAY-LONG EMERGENCY SESSION PRODUCED A DECISION TO REMAIN IN THE JRG AT LEAST FOR THE MOMENT. RADIO REPORTS LAST NIGHT SAID THAT THE JRG (AS A WHOLE) HAS ASKED THE MILITARY COURT JUDGE IF IT IS LEGAL TO REPEAL THE RELEASE ORDER AND ARREST D'AUBUISSON ET.AL. IF THEY ARE STILL IN EL SALVADOR. SESO REPORTS THAT THE POC IS DISPOSED TO GIVE THE MILITARY THE LEGAL 28 DAYS TO PRODUCE A CASE AGAINST THE COUP PLOTTERS BUT THEREAFTER, IF NOTHING IS DONE, THEY WILL HAVE TO LEAVE THE JRG EN MASSE.

3. THIS MORNING, MAY 15, SAN SALVADOR MAYOR AND POC PARTY STALWART ADOLFO REY PRENDES IS QUOTED IN THE PRESS AS SAYING THAT HE HOPED THAT THE JUNTA WOULD ORDER THE REARREST OF EX-MAJOR D'AUBUISSON AND THAT IN THE INTERIM THE POC WOULD LOOK FOR MORE EVIDENCE TO MAKE CERTAIN THAT [redacted]

WAS TRIED AND PUNISHED. REY PRENDES ALSO STATED THAT THE POC MUST TAKE THE LONG VIEW AND THAT WHETHER THE POC STAYED IN THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD NOT DEPEND ON THE FATE OF ONE MAN BUT ON A SERIES OF POSITIVE ACTS.

WGE

4. COMMENT: WHETHER THE POC WAS ACTED CORRECTLY ONLY THE NEXT COUPLE OF WEEKS WILL TELL. UNLESS THE MILITARY GIVES THEM SOMETHING IN RETURN FOR THE TWO SEVERE BLOWS ADMINISTERED TO THE PROGRESSIVE FORCES OF THIS GOVERNMENT OVER THE LAST WEEK, THIS GOVERNMENT WILL INCREASINGLY BE REGARDED AS A RIGHT-WING MILITARY REGIME. SOME OF THE STATEMENTS OF COL. ABDUL GUTIERREZ IN GUATEMALA WILL REINFORCE THIS OPINION.

CEN
PPC

5. THE D'AUBUISSON CASE WILL BECOME AN IMPORTANT, EVEN CRUCIAL, ISSUE AGAIN IF D'AUBUISSON DECIDES TO STAY IN THE COUNTRY AND ASSUME LEADERSHIP OF THE PAN. THE BEST THING THAT CAN HAPPEN NOW IS FOR D'AUBUISSON TO FLEE THE COUNTRY AND 28 DAYS HENCE IT WILL BE MUCH EASIER FOR THE JUDGE TO FIND AGAINST HIM.

6. I HAVE A REQUEST IN TO SEE COL. GUTIERREZ AND DUARTE HAS PROMISED TO CALL ME IF THERE IS ANY IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENT. COL. MAJANO INVITED HIMSELF TO BREAKFAST TOMORROW MORNING. HE ASKED TO SEE ME ALONE AND I AGREED.

SUBJECT: VISIT BY GROUP OF TEN LEADER TO U.S.

REF: A) 79 SANTIAGO 6469, B) SANTIAGO 2303, C) SANTIAGO 2449, D) SANTIAGO 2977

1. (LOU) EDUARDO RIOS, PRESIDENT OF THE GROUP OF TEN (G-10), AND AIFLD CPD JAY WILL BE TRAVELLING TO WASHINGTON (ARRIVING THERE MAY 27) TO MEET WITH TOP LEADERS OF THE AFL-CIO. RIOS WAS ORIGINALLY INVITED BY THE AFL-CIO TO GO TO GENEVA FOR THE UPCOMING ILO MEETING, BUT AFTER SOUNDING OUT THE EUROPEANS AND THE ORIT ON TALKS WITH RIOS, THE AFL-CIO WITHDREW THE INVITATION. INSTEAD HE WAS ASKED TO COME TO WASHINGTON TO MEET WITH THE US LABOR DELEGATION AND OTHER AFL-CIO OFFICERS.

2. (U) EUROPEANS AND LATIN TRADE UNIONISTS APPARENTLY REFUSED TO MEET WITH RIOS BECAUSE OF G-10 LAST MINUTE NON-PARTICIPATION IN A MAY DAY ASSEMBLY SPONSORED BY A NUMBER OF TRADE UNION GROUPS AND ATTENDED BY A NUMBER OF ICFTU-AFFILIATED EUROPEAN DELEGATES (REF D). RIOS HAD LEARNED THAT THE COMMUNISTS WERE PREPARING STREET INCIDENTS DESIGNED TO LEAD TO SERIOUS CONFRONTATIONS WITH GOC SECURITY FORCES. THEREFORE, BOTH THE G-10 AND THE PRIVATE SECTOR EMPLOYEES CONFEDERATION (CEPCH) ANNOUNCED THEY WOULD NOT PARTICIPATE. THE CATHOLIC CHURCH ON PERSONAL INSTRUCTION OF THE CARDINAL ALSO CALLED OFF ITS TRADITIONAL MAY DAY MASS FOR THE SAME REASON.

3. (C) THE G-10'S REFUSAL TO PARTICIPATE WITH THE MARXISTS IN JOINT MAY DAY ACTIVITIES BRINGS TO THE FORE ONCE AGAIN THE PROBLEM OF EXTERNAL FINANCING FOR CHILE'S TRADE UNIONS. ALTHOUGH WE MAY REGRET THE NEED FOR SUCH FINANCING, THE TRADITION EXTENDS BACK A LONG WAY AND, IF ANYTHING, CHILE'S NEW LABOR LEGISLATION MAKES INTERNAL FINANCING EVEN MORE PRECARIOUS. APART FROM FUNDS CHANNELLED DIRECTLY TO THE CHILEAN COMMUNIST PARTY BY THE USSR OR OTHER FRIENDLY GOVERNMENTS, THE MAJOR SOURCE OF EXTERNAL SUPPORT FOR CHILE'S TRADE UNIONS HAS BEEN THE WESTERN EUROPEAN LABOR MOVEMENT. MISTAKINGLY, IN OUR VIEW, THEY CONTINUE TO INSIST ON COLLABORATION BETWEEN DEMOCRATS AND MARXISTS AS A CONDITION FOR SUCH ASSISTANCE. PRIMARILY TO GAIN ACCESS TO WEST EUROPEAN FUNDS, RIOS AND THE G-10 TOOK A LEAD ROLE IN FORMING THE COMANDO NACIONAL DE DEFENSE DE LOS DERECHOS SINDICALES, EMBRACING MARXISTS AS WELL AS DEMOCRATIC OPPONENTS OF GOC LABOR POLICY. BECAUSE OF CONFLICTING IDEOLOGIES AND DISAGREEMENT OVER TACTICAL MOVES, THE COMANDO NEVER FUNCTIONED WELL. MAY 1 MAY HAVE MARKED ITS DEMISE.

4. (C) FOR THE PRESENT RIOS AND THE GROUP OF TEN FIND THEMSELVES CUT OFF FROM EUROPEAN FINANCING AND, ACCORDING TO RIOS, EVEN THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC ORIENTED ORIT WAS HIGHLY CRITICAL OF THE G-10'S REFUSAL TO PROCEED WITH JOINT ACTIVITIES ON MAY DAY. RIOS SAYS THE G-10 IS CONFIDENTIAL

DEMORALIZED TO THE POINT THAT RIOS PRESENTED HIS OWN RESIGNATION AS G-10 PRESIDENT AT THE LAST MEETING. IT WAS NOT ACCEPTED.

5. (LOU) RIOS SAID HIS MESSAGE TO THE AFL-CIO WILL BE A SUMMARY OF THE ABOVE. HE SAID HE WILL ALSO POINT OUT THAT IF THE G-10 CANNOT COUNT ON FINANCIAL SUPPORT FROM THE AFL-CIO, THE TOP LEADERSHIP WILL RETIRE FROM THE SCENE LEAVING THE REST FREE TO DO WHAT THEY MUST TO SURVIVE (I.E., JOIN FORCES WITH MARXIST ELEMENTS SO AS TO BECOME "ELIGIBLE" ONCE AGAIN FOR EUROPEAN FUNDING).

6. (C) COMMENT: WITH AFL-CIO AND AIFLD SUPPORT THE G-10 HAS DONE MUCH TO UPHOLD THE IDEA OF INDEPENDENT AND DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNIONISM IN WHICH THE TIES OF INDIVIDUAL LEADERS TO SPECIFIC POLITICAL PARTIES ARE OF SECONDARY, NOT PRIMARY, IMPORTANCE. THIS EMBASSY HOPES THAT FUNDS FOR THE AIFLD/CHILE SPECIAL PROGRAM REQUEST NOW PENDING (REFTELS B AND C) CAN BE APPROVED PROMPTLY. DIRECT AFL-CIO SUPPORT FOR DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNIONISM IS, OF COURSE, A MATTER FOR THAT ORGANIZATION TO DECIDE IN TERMS OF ITS OWN CRITERIA AND PRIORITIES. WE HAVE NO DOUBT RIOS WILL MAKE A STRONG CASE.

7. (U) DEPARTMENT: PLEASE BRING THE SUBSTANCE OF THIS MESSAGE TO THE ATTENTION OF AIFLD AND AFL-CIO PRIOR TO RIOS' ARRIVAL IN WASHINGTON MAY 27.

ANOTHER GROUP TO ADD TO THE PROLIFERATING LEFTIST CLANDESTINE ORGANIZATIONS IS THE COMAANDO REVOLUCIONARIO PARA LA LIBERACION (COREL) WHICH, ACCORDING TO EMBASSY SOURCES, IS A FACTION OF THE ERP MADE UP OF EXTREMELY WELL-ORGANIZED, ARMED CAMPESINOS OPERATING IN KIDNAPPINGS AND ASSASSINATIONS. SOURCES SAY GROUP WAS HEAVILY INVOLVED IN KIDNAPPING AND RELEASE NEGOTIATIONS OF MIGUEL MENENDEZ SALAZAR (REFTEL). WHETHER COREL WILL HAVE ANY TYPE OF INDEPENDENT LIFE ROR IS A ONE-SHOT FACADE OF THE ERP REMAINS TO BE SEEN.

SUBJ (U) RIGHTIST TERRORIST GROUPS REPORTEDLY FORM NEW ORGANIZATION TO KILL COMMUNISTS

1. (U) LOCAL PRESS MAY 22 SUMMARIZED A COMMUNIQUE FROM THE "SECRET ANTI-COMMUNIST ARMY" (EJERCITO SECRETO ANTI-COMUNISTA - 3-), CLAIMING THAT THE MILITARY ANTI-COMMUNIST ORGANIZATIONS, I.E. WHITE WARRIORS UNION (UGB), DEATH SQUADRON (EM), ORGANIZATION FOR THE LIBERATION FROM COMMUNISM (OLC), WHITE HAND, CARIBBEAN LEGION, AND THE SALVADORAN ANTI-COMMUNIST BRIGADE, HAD UNITED IN THE NEW GROUPING FOR THE PURPOSE OF PHYSICALLY ELIMINATING COMMUNISTS, COMMON CRIMINALS AND THE CORRUPT OF ALL TYPES. THE COMMUNIQUE CLAIMED THAT EVEN THE JUNTA AND THE CABINET ARE INFILTRATED WITH COMMUNISTS. IT CALLED UPON A BROAD NUMBER OF OTHER ORGANIZATIONS INCLUDING THE ARMED FORE, FAN, PCN, ORDEN, AND ANEP TO JOIN IN ITS CRUSADE, WHICH IS TO BEGIN WITH A METHODICAL PLAN OF OPERATIONS.

2. [redacted] COMMENT: IF THIS COMMUNIQUE HAS SOME SUBSTANCE, RATHER THAN BEING STILL ANOTHER IN A LONG LIST OF FACADES, IT IS A CHILLING DEVELOPMENT. THERE IS A QUESTION, HOWEVER, OF HOW MUCH OF AN ACTUAL ORGANIZATION EXISTS IN ANY OF THESE GROUPINGS AND HOW MUCH IS FREE-LANCE, ANARCHICAL VIOLENCE BY ANYONE WISHING TO COVER THEMSELVES WITH AN ORGANIZATIONAL DESIGNATION. SUCH LEADERS AS MAY EXIST ARE LIKELY TO BE FEW IN NUMBERS AND ASSOCIATED WITH THE NAMES OF SEVERAL OF THE GROUPS AND AT SOME LEVEL AN INTERFACE WITH THE SECURITY FORCES IS A VIRTUAL CERTAINTY.

3. [redacted] THE MISSION HAS OBTAINED A COPY OF THE ESA COMMUNIQUE. THEIR "HIT LIST" INCLUDES THE NAMES OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE FAR LEFT, JESUITS, MANY MODERATE INDEPENDENTS, CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS (INCLUDING DUARTE AND MORALES EHRLICH), AND HIGH RANKING MILITARY OFFICERS (INCLUDING COL. MAJANO). THE ONLY FOREIGNER NAMED IS AMBASSADOR WHITE. COPY OF COMMUNIQUE IS BEING POUCHED TO ARAA/CEN.

SUBJ: MID MAY 28; STILL NO SIGN OF ALL-OUT LEFTIST OFFENSIVE

1. BEGIN SUMMARY. RUMORED ALL-OUT OFFENSIVE BY THE LEFT FOR THE PERIOD OF MAY 28-22 HAS FAILED TO MATERIALIZE. RUMORS WERE WIDELY BELIEVED, BUT DO NOT APPEAR TO HAVE BEEN ANY ORGANIZED EFFORT BY THE LEFT. THEY VENTURED LITTLE, IF ANYTHING, AND THEIR LOSSES -- IF ANY -- WERE COMMENSURATE. THE QUIET MAY BE INTERPRETED AS A LOSS OF MOMENTUM, HOWEVER. OTHER VIOLENCE CONTINUED UNABATED, AND THE LEFT HAS OFFERED TRAINING CLASSES IN FIRST AID, TERRORIST TACTICS, AND MANUFACTURING OF HOME-MADE WEAPONS. FAPU AND FENASTRAS HAVE LAUNCHED A "PROGRESSIVE" STRIKE AS PART OF THEIR "PREPARATION FOR A GENERAL STRIKE". IN SAN SALVADOR, MAY 1980 HAS BEEN RELATIVELY QUIET COMPARED TO MAY 1979, BUT THE FOCUS OF VIOLENCE HAS SHIFTED TO RURAL AREAS. THE SITUATION REMAINS DELICATE, BUT THERE ARE AS OF YET NO IMMEDIATE SIGNS OF ANY ALL-OUT LEFTIST OFFENSIVE. END SUMMARY.

2. THE PERIOD OF MAY 20-22, NOW RUMORED AS THE STARTING DATE FOR THE EXTREME LEFT'S ARMED OFFENSIVE AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT, HAS PASSED THUS FAR WITHOUT ANY MAJOR INCIDENTS AND WITHOUT ANY EVIDENCE THAT THE LEFT SERIOUSLY CONTEMPLATED OPENING AN OFFENSIVE. IT APPEARS THAT THE PERSISTENT AND INSISTENT RUMORS THAT ACHIEVED SUFFICIENT CREDIBILITY TO LEAD TO PANIC BUYING AND HOARDING AND TO INHIBIT BUSINESS AND SOCIAL ACTIVITY WERE NOT THE PRODUCT OF ANY LEFTIST CAMPAIGN, BUT WERE LARGELY SELF-GENERATING AND SELF-PERPETUATING WITHIN THE POPULATION, ESPECIALLY AMONG THE MIDDLE AND UPPER CLASSES. THE FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF THE BLOODY INCIDENT AT THE VENEZUELAN EMBASSY WAS CONSIDERED ANOTHER NATURAL DATE FOR SOME VIOLENT COMMEMORATION BY THE LEFT WHICH, COUPLED WITH SOME NOT UNUSUAL LEFTIST RHETORIC, WAS SUFFICIENT TO SPOOK A VERY WARY PUBLIC.

3. ALTHOUGH THERE IS THE TEMPTATION TO CHALK THIS UP AS A FURTHER DEFEAT FOR THE EXTREME LEFT, THE FACT IS THAT THEY VENTURED LITTLE IF ANYTHING AND THEIR LOSSES.-- IF ANY -- WERE COMMENSURATE. ADMITTEDLY THIS CONTINUATION OF THE QUIET ON THE LEFT MAY BE AN INDICATION THAT IT HAS LOST ITS MOMENTUM AND IS UNABLE TO MUSTER THE ENTHUSIASM AND THE WILLINGNESS TO FACE POSSIBLE DEATH IN THE STREETS WHICH WERE THE HALLMARKS OF MAY 1979 BUT WERE LAST SEEN IN THE JAN 22, 1980 LEFTIST MARCH IN SAN SALVADOR.

4. THE ABSENCE OF EXTRAORDINARY INCIDENTS DURING THE PERIOD SHOULD NOT OBSCURE THE FACT THAT THE ESCALATING VIOLENCE THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY HAS CONTINUED, WITH SOME OF THE CONFRONTATIONS BETWEEN THE LEFT AND THE SECURITY FORCES AND MILITARY PRODUCING CASUALTIES REPORTEDLY AS HIGH AS 100. THE POLITICAL ASSASSINATIONS AND THE WAVE OF COMMON CRIMES HAVE CONTINUED UNABATED.

5. IN THE MEANTIME, THE LEFT EVACUATED MOST OF THE CHURCHES IT HAD OCCUPIED WITH AS LITTLE FANFARE AS IT HAD OCCUPIED THEM (SAN SALVADOR 3468). THE REASON GIVEN WAS THAT THE COMMEMORATION OF THOSE KILLED IN THE PREVIOUS MAY HAD BEEN TERMINATED. ACCORDING TO KNOWLEDGEABLE AND RELIABLE SOURCES, THE EXTREME LEFT HAS BEEN SPONSORING FIRST AID CLASSES, INSTRUCTING IN HOW TO DRESS COMBAT INJURIES AND CARE FOR THE WOUNDED, AS WELL AS HOW TO CARRY OUT TERRORIST ACTIONS AND, HOW TO PRODUCE ONE-MADE WEAPONS AND BOMBS. ALSO, THERE ARE REPORTS THAT THE LEFT IS DISTRIBUTING FLYERS ON INDIVIDUAL SECURITY MEASURES IN CASE OF MILITARY ACTION, INCLUDING BOMBING, IN THE CITY. REPORTEDLY, THOSE DISTRIBUTING THE FLYERS HAVE EXPLAINED THAT THEY ARE FOR THE PROTECTION OF THE CITIZENRY WHEN FIGHTING BREAKS OUT, "LATER THIS WEEK".

7. FAPU, THROUGH ITS UNION CONFEDERATION AFFILIATE, FENASTRAS, HAS LAUNCHED A "PROGRESSIVE" STRIKE, PART OF ITS "PREPARATION FOR A GENERAL STRIKE" (SAN SALVADOR 3525). THE ACTION BEGAN WITH THREE FACTORIES ON MAY 28 AND WAS SUPPOSED TO EXTEND TO OTHER ENTITIES UNTIL ALL FENASTRAS UNIONS, INCLUDING THE ELECTRICAL UNION, STECEL, ARE ON STRIKE BY MAY 22. ACCORDING TO A REPORT IN THE LEFTIST "LA CRONICA" A STECEL SPOKESMAN SAID THAT THERE COULD BE A POWER CUT-OFF IF THE STRIKES ARE SUPPRESSED. A REVOLUTIONARY DEMOCRATIC FRONT (FDR) CONTACT OF THE EMBASSY HAS INDICATED THAT THIS IS A FAPU INITIATIVE NOT COORDINATED WITH THE FDR OR PROBABLY WITH THE COORDINADORA REVOLUCIONARIA DE MASAS - CRM BUT HAS AT LEAST THE TACIT APPROVAL OF THESE BODIES AS AN APPROPRIATE MEASURE. EMBASSY DOES NOT YET HAVE INFORMATION AS TO HOW EFFECTIVE THE STRIKE MAY BE, BUT THE LAST FENASTRAS-SPONSORED GENERAL STRIKE WAS A TOTAL FAILURE. THIS ONE, TOO, IS UNLIKELY TO BE EFFECTIVE UNLESS STECEL RESORTS TO ITS ULTIMATE WEAPON, A POWER BLACK-OUT.

8. WITHIN THE CITY OF SAN SALVADOR, THE CONTRAST BETWEEN MAY 1979 AND MAY 1980 IS GREAT. MAY 1979 WAS MARKED BY EMBASSY OCCUPATORS, THE CATHEDRAL AND VENEZUELAN EMBASSY "MASSACRES", THE ASSASSINATION OF THE SWISS CHARGE, AND AN UNBROKEN SERIES OF DEMONSTRATIONS BY ONE OR ANOTHER OF THE POPULAR ORGANIZATION AFFILIATES. BY THOSE STANDARDS MAY 1980 HAS BEEN RELATIVELY QUIET WITHIN THE CITY, AND SOLELY ON THOSE CRITERIA, ONE WOULD BE FORCED TO SAY THAT THERE HAS BEEN A DRASTIC DECLINE IN THE DEMONSTRATED POWER OF THE LEFT. THE COUNTERVAILING FACTOR, HOWEVER, IS THE TRANSFER OF ACTION TO THE RURAL AREAS, WITH STEPPED UP TERRORIST ACTIONS BOTH FROM LEFT AND RIGHT, (THE LATTER INCLUDING ILLEGITIMATE SECURITY FORCE ACTIVITIES), AND MORE LEGITIMATE, OFFICIAL SUPPRESSION MEASURES AGAINST THE LEFTIST EXTREMISTS. ON BALANCE, THE DAILY NUMBER OF DEATHS THIS YEAR ARE MUCH HIGHER, BUT THE EVENTS LAST YEAR WERE MORE SPECTACULAR AND WITH GREATER NEWS IMPACT.

9. SITUATION WILL PROBABLY REMAIN WORRISOME AND DELICATE, BUT THERE ARE AS OF YET NO IMMEDIATE SIGNS OF ANY ALL-OUT OFFENSIVE BY THE LEFT. HOWEVER, THE POTENTIAL FOR FURTHER ESCALATION OF VIOLENCE, INCLUDING A POSSIBLE CIVIL WAR CONTINUES.

10. AMBASSADOR'S COMMENT: I DISAGREE WITH THE CONCLUSION EXPRESSED IN PARA 4 THAT THE LEFT VENTURED LITTLE AND LOST LITTLE. RADIO AND NEWSPAPER ANNOUNCEMENTS BEGINNING FROM LATE APRIL CONTENDED THAT MAY WOULD BE "THE DECISIVE MONTH." THERE WERE EVEN PUBLISHED NEWSPAPER REPORTS THAT AS A RESULT OF THE EXPECTED SUCCESS OF THE OFFENSIVE IN MAY, A GOVERNMENT IN EXILE WOULD BE SET UP. I BELIEVE THAT THIS MONTH HAS BEEN A DISASTER FOR THE FAR LEFT. IT'S WEAKNESS HAS BECOME MANIFEST TO ALL OBSERVERS WITH WHOM I HAVE SPOKEN. THE ONLY SENSE IN WHICH YOU CAN SAY THAT THE LEFT HAS NOT BEEN WEAKENED SUBSTANTIALLY IS THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN UNABLE TO CAPITALISE ON THE LEFT'S PROGRESSIVE WEAKENING. THIS IS IN LARGE PART DUE TO THE GOVERNMENT'S INEPT HANDLING OF THE D'AUBUISSON CASE AND THE RESULTING AND UNFORTUNATE PERCEIVED SHIFT TO THE RIGHT BY THE JRG.

SUBJ: (U) FPL CLAIMS RESPONSIBILITY FOR TERRORIST INCIDENTS

1. [redacted] AN FPL COMMUNIQUE APPEARING IN EL INDEPENDIENTE MAY 26 LISTS 23 VIOLENT INCIDENTS FOR WHICH THE TERRORIST ORGANIZATION CLAIMED RESPONSIBILITY DURING THE FIRST 15 DAYS OF MAY. THE INCIDENTS ARE RATIONALIZED AS BEING THE RESPONSE TO THE "ABHORRENT GENOCIDAL ACTS" OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT JUNTA, THE OLIGARCHY, AND YANKEE IMPERIALSIM. THE COMMUNIQUE LISTS 55 MEMBERS OF ORDEN, THE SECURITY FORCES, AND THE MILITARY AS HAVING BEEN KILLED IN THESE OPERATIONS. THE MAJORITY ARE LISTED AS HAVING BEEN "EXECUTED", RATHER THAN HAVING BEEN KILLED IN CONFRONTATIONS.

2. [redacted] COMMENT: IF THE FPL, AS ONLY ONE OF THE TERRORIST ORGANIZATIONS, DID INDEED KILL 55 DURING THE PERIOD, IT WOULD BE A MUCH HIGHER KILL RATE THAN IS NORMALLY ATTRIBUTED TO LEFTIST TERRORIST ACTION EITHER BY OFFICIAL SOURCES OR THE LEFTIST SYMPATHIZING GROUPS THAT COMPILE STATISTICS ON POLITICAL VIOLENCE. THE STATISTICS COMPLIERS HAVE A BIAS TOWARDS SHOWING THAT THERE IS DISPROPORTIONATE VIOLENCE FROM THE SECURITY FORCES AND THE RIGHT. BUT THE COMMUNIQUE'S CLAIMS -- WHETHER FACT OR EXAGGERATION -- REFUTE THE ARGUMENT THEY ARE ONLY REACTING TO PERSECUTION.

SUBJECT: (U) BISHOP RIVERA COMMENTS ON INDISCRIMINATE KILLING AND GOVERNMENT NON-INTERVENTION

1. (U) IN HIS HOMILY MAY 25, APOSTOLIC ADMINISTRATOR RIVERA SAID THERE ARE "TRULY ALARMING" REPORTS REGARDING "INDISCRIMINATE KILLING" INCLUDING CHILDREN IN THE MILITARY OPERATIONS IN THE NORTHERN PART OF THE COUNTRY. IN THE PAST WEEK, HE SAID, THERE HAD BEEN A SERIES OF VIOLENT INCIDENTS, AND HE EXPRESSED GRAVE CONCERN OVER THE GROWING SPIRAL OF VIOLENCE. IN PARTICULAR HE CITED THE STRAFING OF TWO CHURCHES, THREATS AGAINST PRIESTS AND NUNS AND IN "TIMES WE THOUGHT WERE OVERCOME", DEATH THREATS CAUSING MANY TO FLEE THE COUNTRY, INVASIONS OF HOSPITALS, ASSASSINATIONS OF DOCTORS, AND EXECUTIONS OF WHOLE FAMILIES. (NOTE: THERE HAS BEEN A WAVE OF MULTIPLE KILLINGS WITHIN SINGLE FAMILIES, INCLUDING YOUNG CHILDREN. IT APPEARS LIKELY THAT AT LEAST SOME OF THE DEATHS RESULTED FROM COMMON RATHER THAN POLITICAL CRIMES.)

2. (U) BISHOP RIVERA CALLED FOR AN END TO THE FRATICIDAL STRIFE, AND REPEATED HIS PREVIOUS CALL FOR ALL PARTIES TO ENTER INTO A DIALOGUE TO FIND SOLUTIONS LEADING TOWARD A MORE JUST SOCIETY. AT THE SAME TIME, HE WAS CRITICAL OF THE GOVERNMENT FOR APPEARING TO STAND ALOOF, NOT INTERVENING IN THE BATTLE BETWEEN THE EXTREMES OF RIGHT AND LEFT.

3. [redacted] COMMENT: IN INVOKING FORMER ARCHBISHOP ROMERO'S NAME, BISHOP RIVERA NOTED THAT IT HAD BEEN TWO MONTHS SINCE ROMERO'S DEATH AND SAID IT WAS IMPORTANT NOT ONLY TO HONOR HIS NAME, BUT TO FOLLOW HIS PRECEPTS. IN CITING "INDISCRIMINATE KILLING" IN THE CHALATENANGO OPERATION AND CRITICIZING THE GOVERNMENT FOR NON-ACTION IN HALTING THE VIOLENCE, RIVERA CAME CLOSER TO FOLLOWING SOME OF ROMERO'S PRECEPTS THAN HE HAS PREVIOUSLY DONE. STILL IT WAS A FAR CRY FROM THE VEHEMENCE AND RHETORIC OF ROMERO'S STYLE.

4. [redacted] IT MAY BE APPROPRIATE TO NOTE THAT ROMERO HAD A QUIET, CONSERVATIVE REPUTATION BEFORE BECOMING ARCHBISHOP AND THAT IT WAS ONLY LATER THAT HE TOOK UP HIS CURSADE. WHILE THERE MAY BE GREAT DIFFERENCES BETWEEN RIVERA AND ROMERO IN STYLE AND SUBSTANCE, RIVERA'S CRITICAL REMARKS ON THE MILITARY OPERATIONS AND THE GOVERNMENT INDICATE HE MAY FEEL THAT EVENTS ARE FORCING HIM TO SPEAK OUT. THE GOVERNMENT CAN ILL AFFORD

SUBJECT: CONTACTS WITH THE SALVADORAN LEFT IN MEXICO

1. [redacted]

2. FOR EMBASSY MEXICO: THE DEPARTMENT HAS CAREFULLY CONSIDERED THE PROPOSAL OUTLINED IN REFTEL TO BRING THE USG INTO CONTACT WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF THE COORDINADORA DE MASAS (CRM). FOR SOME MONTHS WE HAVE SOUGHT CONTACT WITH THE CRM IN EL SALVADOR. TO DATE THESE EFFORTS HAVE BEEN THWARTED BY THE CRM'S IMPOSITION OF PRIOR CONDITIONS, ESPECIALLY ITS INSISTENCE ON PUBLIC DISCLOSURE OF ANY SUCH CONTACTS. IF THE CRM GENUINELY WISHES TO MEET WITH USG REPRESENTATIVES WITHOUT PRECONDITIONS, WE SEE NO REASON WHY THESE CONFIDENTIAL MEETINGS CANNOT TAKE PLACE IN EL SALVADOR. FYI. WE BELIEVE THAT FACTORS SUCH AS ABSENCE OF ANY SIGN THAT CRM IS INTERESTED IN NEGOTIATING WITH THE JRG, ADDED UNCERTAINTIES OF FMLN INVOLVEMENT AND CURRENT UNSETTLED STATE OF RELATIONS BETWEEN PDC AND THE MILITARY ARGUE STRONGLY AGAINST OUR UNDERTAKING SUCH A HIGH RISK CONTACT OUTSIDE OF EL SALVADOR AT THIS TIME. END FYI.

3. IN VIEW OF ABOVE, EMBASSY MEXICO SHOULD RESPOND TO ALONSO AS FOLLOWS:

-- THE USG HAS FOR SOME MONTHS SOUGHT DIRECT CONFIDENTIAL CONTACTS WITH THE CRM BUT THE CRM HAS IMPOSED UNACCEPTABLE PRECONDITIONS, PARTICULARLY ITS INSISTENCE ON PUBLIC DISCLOSURE.

-- IF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE CRM ARE GENUINELY INTERESTED IN SUCH CONTACTS WE BELIEVE THEY SHOULD TAKE PLACE IN EL SALVADOR.

-- WE WOULD APPRECIATE ALONSO INFORMING HIS CRM CONTACTS OF OUR POSITION AND ADVISING US OF THEIR REACTION. WE ALSO APPRECIATE ALONSO'S WILLINGNESS TO SERVE AS AN INFORMAL LINK BETWEEN US AND THE CRM AND HOPE HE WILL CONTINUE TO DO SO.

4. FOR EL SALVADOR: WE DOUBT THAT CRM WILL ACCEPT OUR COUNTER OFFER. HOWEVER, SHOULD IT DO SO WE WOULD INTEND

SUBJ: (U) DIFFERING VERSIONS OF ATTACK ON UCS COOPERATIVE

REF FBIS CHIVA CHIVA PM 8317

1. (U) MAY 29 AFTERNOON NEWSPAPER REPORTS THAT IN THE EARLY MORNING OF THAT DAY TWELVE MEMBERS OF AN AGRICULTURAL COOPERATIVE, INCLUDING TWO ISTA EMPLOYEES, WERE ASSASSINATED AT HACIENDA SAN FRANCISCO GUAJOYO BY "A LARGE GROUP OF ARMED INDIVIDUALS". ACCORDING TO THE ARTICLE, THE "SUBVERSIVES" TOOK THE VICTIMS FROM THEIR HOMES AND SHOT THEM, SAYING "TRAITORS TO THE REVOLUTIONARY CAUSE MUST BE EXECUTED".

2. (U) ON THE SAME DAY A HIGH RANKING FDC OFFICIAL TOLD POLOFF THAT THIS INCIDENT WOULD TURN CAMPESINOS AGAINST THE EXTREME LEFT BECAUSE CAMPESINOS KNEW VERY WELL THE LEFT WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR IT.

3. (U) REF GUATEMALA MANAGUA RADIO SANDINO BROADCAST SAYING "GUERRILLAS ATTACKED AND TOOK OVER GUAYOJO...AT LEAST 38 SOLDIERS AND PARAMILITARY UNITS, WHO ARE PARTICIPATING IN ARMY AND POLICE ACTIONS AGAINST GUERRILLAS AND PEASANTS WERE KILLED IN THIS ACTION."

4. [redacted] MOST OF THE DEAD WERE UCS MEMBERS. AIFLD REP ATTENDED PART OF A UCS EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING CALLED ON MAY 29 T DISCUSS THE TRAGEDY. THE BOARD TOOK NO POSITION ON WHO WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE KILLING. IT DECIDED TO PUBLICLY CONDEMN THE INCIDENT WITHOUT REFERNCE TO THE PERPETRATORS, AND TO REQUEST AN AUDIENCE WITH THE JRG TO DISCUSS THE PROBLEM OF VIOLENCE IN THE COUNTRYSIDE. FROM OTHER UCS SOURCES AIFLD REP LEARNEDD THAT SOME UCS MEMBERS BELIEVE THE NATIONAL GUARD COMMITTED THE MURDERS. EYEWITNESSES REPORTED THAT SOME OF THE THIRTY OR FORTY ATTACKERS WORE WHAT APPEARED TO BE NATIONAL GUARD UNIFORMS AND SOME WERE DRESSED IN CIVILIAN CLOTHES. THEY BROUGHT WITH THEM A LIST OF THEIR VICTIMS'S NAMES.

5. [redacted] TWO AMERICAN REPORTERS VISITED THE SCENE OF THE INCIDENT APPROXIMATELY SIX HOURS AFTERIT OCCURRED AND TALKED WITH ANUMBER OF WITNESSES. LATER THE REPORTERS TOLD THE PAO THAT NONE OF THE WITNESSES ACCUSED THE NATIONAL GUARD DIRECTLY, BUT THE WITNESSES GAVE THE IMPRESSION THAT THE NATIONAL GUARD WAS RESPONSIBLE. THE LARGE AMOUNT OF AMMUNITION EXPENDED ON THE VICTIMS ALSO SUGGESTED NATIONAL GUARD, RATHER THAN GHERRILLA, INVOLVMENT.

SAN SA 03895 3181832

6. [redacted] ON MAY 30 AIFLD REP MET WITH A SURVIVOR OF THE INCIDENT. THE SURVIVOR, WHO LIKE MANY OF THE CAMPESINOS IN THE COOPERATIVE IS SYMPANTHETIC TO FAPU, STATED THAT HE WA TAKEN FROM HIS HOUSE BY TWO MEN IN NATIONAL GUARD UNIFORMS AND A MASKED CIVILAN. THE UNIFORMED MEN CARRIED WEAPONS NORMALLY ISSUED TO THE NATIONAL GUARD. A "TANQUETE" (APC) WAS SEEN BY SOME VILLAGERS. THE SURVIVOR TOOK ADVANTAGE OF THE DARKNESS TO RUN FROM HIS CAPTORS AND HIDE. HE TOLD THE AIFLD REP, WHO HAS KNOWN HIM FOR SEVERAL YEARS AND VOUCHES FOR HIS VERACITY, THAT THE INDIVIDUALS INVOLVED WERE DEFINITELY NATIONAL GUARDSMEN.

7. [redacted] ALSO ON MAY 30 CHARGE INTERVIEWED AN INDIVIDUAL WHO ARRIVED ON THE SCENE AFTER THE INCIDENT AND TALKED WITH EYEWITNESSES AND A WOUNDED SURVIVOR. ALL CLAIMED THE NATIONAL GUARD COMMITTED THE KILLINGS BUT WERE TERRIFIED OF REPRISALS AND WOULD NOT SPEAK OUT PUBLICLY.

8. [redacted] COMMENT. THE NATIONAL GUARD AND THE GUERRILLAS SOMETIMES WEAR SIMILAR UNIFORMS AND USE THE SAME TACTICS. IN THIS CASE, HOWEVER, THE WEIGHT OF THE EVIDENCE POINTS TO THE NATIONAL GUARD. WHATEVER THE TRUTH OF THE MATTER, TWO DEVASTATING FACTS ARE APPARENT: FIRST, THE CAMPESINOS BELIEVE THE NATIONAL GUARD IS KILLING THEM; AND SECOOND, EARLY ON MAY 30 THE REMAINING MEMBERS OF THE COOPERATIVE ABANDONED IT AND TOOK REFUGE WHEREEVER THEY COULD. IT IS A SAD COMMENTARY ON VIOLENCE HERE THAT EVEN THE ISTA (GOVERNMENT WORKERS) AND THE UCS (ALLIES OF THE GOVERNMENT) SUSPECT THE NATIONAL GUARD (SUPPOSEDLY A GOVERNMENT SECURITY FORCE) IS GUILTY OF THESE LARGE SCALE KILLINGS.

REF SAN SALVADOR 2445

1. (U) THE SALVADORAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION (COHES) HAS JUST RELEASED ISSUES #3 (MARCH) AND #4 (APRIL) OF ITS "INTERNATIONAL INFORMATION BULLETIN." REF DESCRIBED #1-2, A SINGLE PAMPHLET COVERING JANUARY AND FEBRUARY.

2. (U) FOLLOWING ARE EXCERPTS FROM THE INTRODUCTION TO ISSUE #4: "THE VIOLENCE IN EL SALVADOR IS INCREASING, AND WITH IT THE VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS. THE NUMBER OF DEAD IS NOW

DEATHS IN MARCH AND 592 IN APRIL. THE EXPLANATION IS SIMPLE: OUR DATA ARE INCREASINGLY INCOMPLETE...THE VIOLENCE IN EL SALVADOR IS DIVIDED INTO TWO TYPES: THAT WHICH KILLS PEOPLE OF THE RIGHT AND IS CARRIED OUT PRINCIPALLY BY GUERRILLAS... THAT WHICH ASSASSINATES MEMBERS OF THE POPULAR ORGANIZATIONS AND PEOPLE IN GENERAL, AND THAT WE CALL REPRESSION ORIGINATED BY THE SECURITY CORPS, REACTIONARY SECTORS OF THE ARMY, AND THE FASCIST AND PARAMILITARY GROUP....THE REPRESSION HAS NOT STOPPED INCREASING SINCE JAN 1980, THAT IS, SINCE THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE SECOND JRG, COMPOSED ONLY OF THE MILITARY AND THE PDC. ALSO, THE INCREASE IN TECHNICAL AND MILITARY AID FROM THE UNITED STATES SHOULD BE NOTED. THE PRESNCE OF NORTH AMERICAN ADVISORS IN THE SECURITY CORPS AND THE MILITARY UNITS SPECIALIZING IN COUNTER-INSURRECTION, BESIDES THE PRESENCE OF MERCENARIES FROM DIFFERENT COUNTRIES (SIC). THUS THE REPRESSION IS ORIGINATED AND PLANNED BY THE FASCIST SECTORS OF THE ARMY AND ITS ACCOMPLISCE THE PDC, AND IS BACKED BY THE OLIGARCHY AND THE U.S...IN CONCLUSION, WE THINK THAT THE ONLY SOLUTION TO THE VIOLATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS HAS TO BE A POLITICAL ONE, WITH THE COMING TO POWER OF A POPULAR AND DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT...."

3. (U) THE TABLE AT THE END OF THE MARCH REPORT SHOWS A TOTAL OF 591 DEATHS DURING THE MONTH, INCLUDING 514 "CIVILIAN DEATHS" AND 77 "DEATHS OF PRO-OLIGARCHS BECAUSE OF VIOLENT POPULAR REACTION" THE BODY OF THE REPORT, A DAY-BY-DAY ACCOUNT OF EVENTS IN EL SALVADOR, ACTUALLY ENUMERATES 436 KILLINGS. IT ALSO LISTS A NUMBER OF INSTANCES IN WHICH INDIVIDUALS DISAPPEARED UNDER SUSPICIOUS CIRCUMSTANCES.

4. [redacted] IN THE NEXT OF PAMPHLET #3, THE COHES ASSIGNS

LEFT GROUPS, AND ONLY 112 ARE IDENTIFIED WITH THE MILITARY, THE SECURITY FOCES, OR THE EXTREME RIGHT.
-- THE ONLY EXTREME RIGHT GROUP REFERRED TO BY NAME IN EITHER REPORT IS THE DEATH SQUADRON, WHICH IS CREDITED WITH FIFTEEN KILLLINGS
-- ACCORDING TO COHES, DURING THE TWO MONTH PERIOD THE FOLLOWING TEXTREME LLEFT GROUPS CLAIMED CREDIT FOR KILLIGS: FPL (68), ERP (2), AND PRTC (1).
- BECAUSE THE COHES OFTEN REFERS TO "JOINT FORCES" OR "SECURITY FORCES", IT IS NOT POSSIBLE TO PROVIDE AN ACCURATE BREAKDOWN OF COMPLAINTS AGAINST SPECIFIC ORGANIZATIONS, BUT THERE APPEAR TO BE MORE MENTIONS OF THE NATIONAL GUARD THAN ANY OTHER UNIT.

8. [redacted] COMMENT: THE COHES REPORTS ARE NOT OF MUCH HELP AT US IN UNDERSTANDING THE PATTERN OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS OR IN ATTEMPTING TO CORRECT THEM. BASICALLY THESE DOCUMENTS ARE INTENDED AS GENERAL INDICTMENTS OF THE POLITICAL AND SOCIAL SYSTEMS IN THIS COUNTRY, AND THE UNDERLYING ASSUMPTION IS THAT THOSE SYSTEMS' FAULTS ARE SO SERIOUS THAT THEY MUST BE RADICALLY CHANGED, NOT CORRECTED. NOWHERE DO THE BULLETINS ACCUSE INDIVIDUALS OR SPECIFIC UNITS WITHIN THE ARMY, THE NATIONAL GUARD, OR THE OTHER SECURITY FORCES. INSTEAD, IT DESCRIBES INDIVUDALS AS BEING KILLED BY "THE SECURITY CORPS", BY "RIGHTISTS", BY "MILITARY OPERATIONS", OR EVEN BY "THE REPRESSION."

9. [redacted] ANOTHER PROBLEM WIT THE COHES REPORTS IS THE DISCREPANCY BETWEEN THE STATEMENTS MADE IN ITS NAME AND THE RAW DATA IT PRESENTS TO BACK UP THOSE STATEMENTS. FOR INSTANCE, COHES [redacted] (AND ITS OFFICIALS SOMETIMES STATE) THAT THE

GOES IS RESPONSIBLE FOR OVER 1600 DEATHS DURING THE FIRST FOUR MONTHS OF THIS YEAR. HOWEVER, EVEN IF ALL ITS ACCUSATIONS ARE ACCEPTED AT FACE VALUE, AND INCLUDING IN THE TOTAL THOSE DEATHS ATTRIBUTED TO SUCH CAUSES AS "MILITARY OPERATIONS" AND "THE REPRESSION", BULLETINS 1-4 ACTUALLY ACCUSE THE MILITARY AND SECURITY FORCES OF ABOUT 500 OF THE ROUGHLY 1100 KILLINGS THEY HAVE REPORTED. IN SOME 20 PERCENT OF THE CASES IT DESCRIBES, THE COHES MAKES NO ACCUSATION AT ALL, BUT SIMPLY REPORTS THE DISCOVERY OF BODIES, OFTEN WITHOUT ANY INDICATION OF WHO THEY WERE OR WHY THEY WERE KILLED. THE REMAINING DEATHS ARE ATTRIBUTED IN ALMOST EQUALLY PROPORTIONS TO THE EXTREME RIGHT, THE EXTREME LEFT, AND TO CONFRONTATIONS BETWEEN EXTREME LEFT GROUPS AND THE MILITARY OR SECURITY FORCES. THUS THE COHES PRESENTS BIASED DATA TO SERVE A POLITICAL PURPOSE BUT UNBIASED DATA ON THE VIOLENCE IN EL SALVADOR IS UNAVAILABLE AND WE REPORT THE LEFT'S VERSION FOR WHAT IT IS WORTH.

2. ACCUSATIONS MADE BY REVOLUTIONARY DEMOCRATIC FRONT (FDR) REPRESENTATIVES VISITING MEXICO'S PRI THAT THE U.S. HAS MILITARY ADVISORS AND 100 MARINES IN EL SALVADOR, PLUS THAT WE HAVE HELICOPTER BASES THERE, ARE, OF COURSE, NONSENSE. THE CHARGES REPRESENT PART OF A CONTINUING CAMPAIGN OF MISINFORMATION ABOUT U.S. POLICY AND ACTIVITIES, AS WELL AS ABOUT THE PROGRAM OF EL SALVADOR'S REVOLUTIONARY JUNTA OF GOVERNMENT. THE STATEMENTS ARE SO ASSURD THAT THE DEPARTMENT IS DISINCLINED TO DIGNIFY THEM WITH A PUBLIC DENIAL.

3. THE PARTICIPATION IN THESE CHARGES OF THE MNR'S (SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC) GUILLERMO MANUEL UNGO IS PARTICULARLY DISAPPOINTING. HE IS CERTAINLY AWARE THAT THE STATEMENTS ARE FALSE AND HIS JOINING THEM IS A SAD DEMONSTRATION OF HOW STRONGLY DOMINATED BY THE EXTREME LEFT IS THE OSTENSIBLY BROAD-BASED FDR.

4. AS OPPORTUNITIES PRESENT THEMSELVES, PARTICULARLY WITH INTERESTED HOST GOVERNMENT AND SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY OFFICIALS, ADDRESSEES SHOULD POINT OUT THAT CHARGES OF U.S. MILITARY INTERVENTION IN EL SALVADOR ARE ABSURD AND LAMENT THE FACT OF THE MNR'S AND UNGO'S PARTICIPATION IN THE EXTREME LEFT'S SLANDER CAMPAIGN. 1. (U) IN HIS JUNE 1 HOMILY, ACTING ARCHBISHOP RIVERA SAID, "ACCORDING TO THE REPORT OF SOCORRO JURIDICO OF THE ARCHBISHOPRIC, FROM THE 22ND TO THE 29TH OF MAY THERE WERE 164 DEATHS, THE MAJORITY AS A RESULT OF MILITARY OPERATIONS AND OF TERRORIST ACTIONS OF THE EXTREME RIGHT. THE EXTREME LEFT HAS ALSO BEEN RESPONSIBLE FOR MANY DEATHS AND EXECUTIONS, LIKE THAT OF THE FORMER LEGAL ADVISOR OF THE NATIONA POLICE...SOCIAL STRUGGLES, IF THEY ARE REALLY FOR THE GOOD OF THE PEOPLE, MUST HELP THOSE WHO MOST NEED IT. WHEN THESE STRUGGLES ARE CONVERTED INTO THE CULT OF POWER OR INTO IDEOLOGICAL STRUGGLES, THE RISK IS RUN OF SEEKING AS THE PRIME OBJECTIVE THE DOMINANCE OF A CERTAIN IDEOLOGY, AND THE ATTAINMENT OF BENEFITS FOR THE MAJORITY PASSES TO SECOND PLACE, UNTIL ONE ARRIVES AT THE ABSURD POINT OF SACRIFICING THE DEPRIVED AND THE POOR THEMSELVES FOR THE SAKE OF POWER OR IDEOLOGY. FINALLY, THE PACIFICATION OF THE COUNTRY CANNOT BE ACCOMPLISHED BY KILLING AND SPREADING FEAR AND TERROR. WE NEED A CLIMATE OF CONFIDENCE AS A MEANS FOR ARRIVING AT A DIALOGUE THAT WILL PROVIDE STABLE, JUST AND FIRM BASES FOR PEACE IN EL SALVADOR."

2. [redacted]ON JUNE 2 JUAN RAMIREZ RANDA, SECGEN OF THE PDC, TALKED WITH PAO. RAMIREZ WAS PESSIMISTIC ABOUT THE FUTURE OF EL SALVADOR AND THE PDC'S CONTINUED ROLE IN GOVERNMENT. HE EXPRESSED DISAPPOINTMENT WITH THE MILITARY WHO ARE, HE SAID, ACCOMPLICES IN THE REPRESSION IF NOT ITS INSTIGATORS. THE MILITARY, RAMIREZ ADDED, ARE TEARING THE COUNTRY APART. THEY ARE FORCING THE CAMPESINOS TO TAKE SIDES AGAINST THEM, EXACTLY AS SOMOZA'S NATIONAL GUARD DID. RAMIREZ CLASSIFIED THE MILITARY INTO TWO GROUPS, "THE BAD AND THE WORSE." HE STRESSED THE FACT THAT MORE PDC MEMBERS ARE BEING KILLED NOW THAN AT ANY TIME WHEN THEY WERE IN OPPOSITION TO THE GOVERNMENT.

3. (U) THE SALVADORAN CAMPESINO CENTER (CCS), A CAMPESINO ORGANIZATION WITH TIES TO THE PDC, HELD A CONFERENCE MAY 24 AND 25. THE CONCLUDING DOCUMENT RELEASED BY THE CONFERENCE INCLUDES THE FOLLOWING STATEMENTS: "CERTAINLY THE ESCALATION OF VIOLENCE THAT RULES THE COUNTRY ORIGINATES FROM GROUPS OF THE EXTREME LEFT AND EXTREME RIGHT, BUT ONE CANNOT FAIL TO RECOGNIZE THAT THE SO-CALLED 'FORCES OF PUBLIC ORDER' IN UNHOLY ALLIANCE WITH GROUPS OF THE EXTREME RIGHT REPRESS AND ASSASSINATE IN A COWARDLY MANNER HONORABLE AND PEACEFUL CITIZENS, PROVOKING A REAL BLOOD BATH. WITH THIS IN VIEW, WE CANNOT CEASE AFFIRMING THAT THE HUMAN RIGHTS AND THE DEMO-CRATIC LIBERTIES FOR THE WORKERS AND THEIR ORGANIZATIONS HAVE NO LEGAL FORCE, BUT ON THE CONTRARY ARE PERMANENTLY TRAMPLED UNDER FOOT."

. CONFIDENTIAL ENTIRE TEXT)

2. SUMMARY. DISSIDENT GROUPS SEEKING TO UNSEAT THE GOVERNMENTS OF EL SALVADOR AND GUATEMALA HAVE ATTRACTED CONSIDERABLE INTERNATIONAL ATTENTION AND SUPPORT. INFLUENTIAL AND RESPECTED ORGANIZATIONS WHICH ESPOUSE GOALS IN BOTH COUNTRIES SIMILAR TO THOSE OF THE U.S. -- DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT AND PROGRESSIVE REFORMS -- OUTSPOKENLY OPPOSE U.S. POLICIES WHICH THEY SEE AS SUPPORTING REPRESSIVE REGIMES. THE DISSIDENTS' CAMPAIGN MAY PORTEND EARLY FORMATION OF A SHADOW GOVERNMENT IN EL SALVADOR, POSSIBLY TIMED TO COINCIDE WITH AN INSURGENT MILITARY OFFENSIVE, AND MAY ADVERSELY AFFECT THE CHANCES FOR PEACEFUL EVOLUTION IN GUATEMALA. WE ARE BECOMING INCREASINGLY CONCERNED ABOUT THESE DEVELOPMENTS. THIS CABLE IS INTENDED TO PROVIDE AMBASSADORS AND OTHER EMBASSY OFFICERS WITH NECESSARY INFORMATION TO CONTINUE THE DIALOGUE WITH HOST GOVERNMENT AND POLITICAL LEADERS INITIATED IN RESPONSE TO REFTEL. END SUMMARY.

3. BACKGROUND. IN LATE MAY, A DELEGATION REPRESENTING SALVADOR'S LEFT-COALITION (MARXIST DOMINATED) REVOLUTIONARY DEMOCRATIC FRONT (FDR) VISITED MEXICO TO SOLICIT THE SUPPORT OF THE DOMINANT PRI PARTY. THE DELEGATION, HEADED BY THE FORMER RECTOR OF THE NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF EL SALVADOR, REVEALED PLANS TO TRAVEL WIDELY IN LATIN AMERICA AND EUROPE. THIS CONTINUES THE SUCCESSFUL CAMPAIGN BY LEFTIST DISSIDENTS TO ENLIST INTERNATIONAL SUPPORT FOR THEIR CAUSE. NUMEROUS EUROPEAN AND LATIN AMERICAN PARTIES, AS WELL AS CHURCH AND HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS, HAVE LENT THEIR PRESTIGE TO THE INSURGENTS.

4. A SERIES OF CONFERENCES HAS BEEN HELD SINCE THE BEGINNING OF THE YEAR TO PROMOTE THE REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENT. IN LATE JANUARY, THE SOCIALIST INTERNATIONAL (SI) AND THE FRIEDRICH EBERT FOUNDATION (LINKED TO THE GERMAN SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY) SPONSORED A CONFERENCE ON EL SALVADOR WHICH WAS DOMINATED BY RADICALS AND PRODUCED STRIDENT DENUNCIATIONS OF BOTH THE GOVERNMENT OF EL SALVADOR (JRG) AND THE U.S. POLICY OF SUPPORT FOR IT. THE LATIN AMERICAN AND CARIBBEAN REGIONAL MEETING OF THE SI WAS HELD IN MARCH IN THE WAKE OF THE ASSASSINATION OF SALVADORAN ARCHBISHOP ROMERO. FORMER VENEZUELAN PRESIDENT CARLOS ANDRES PEREZ SHARPLY CONDEMNED JRG REPRESSION AND CRITICIZED U.S. MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO EL SALVADOR. U.S. POLICY IN CENTRAL AMERICA ALSO CAME UNDER STRONG ATTACK THERE FROM EUROPEANS SUCH AS MAARTEN VAN TRAA (DUTCH LABOR PARTY) AND PIERRE SCHORI (SWEDISH SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY). SUCH SI NOTABLES AS WILLY BRANDT AND MARIO SOARES APPEARED TO AT LEAST TACITLY SUPPORT THIS CRITICISM. AT A CONFERENCE OF SI AND OTHER LEFT-OF-CENTER GROUPS IN PERU IN APRIL, PEREZ ONCE AGAIN CRITICIZED THE JRG AND SPOKE OF AN INEVITABLE CIVIL WAR BETWEEN THE MILITARY/OLIGARCHY AND THE PEOPLE.

5. THE STAGE IS THUS BEING SET FOR THE FORMATION OF A SHADOW GOVERNMENT IN EL SALVADOR. THE FDR HAS REVEALED THAT AT THE "OPPORTUNE TIME" IT WILL REQUEST GOVERNMENTS

TO BREAK RELATIONS WITH THE JRG AND ACCORD IT "BELLIGERENT" STATUS. SUCH A MOVE MAY COINCIDE WITH AN INSURGENT MILITARY OFFENSIVE WITHIN EL SALVADOR.

6. A SIMILAR INTERNATIONAL CAMPAIGN HAS BEGUN AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT OF GUATEMALA, WHERE THE LEFTIST THREAT IS LESS IMMINENT. IN MID-MAY, A GUATEMALAN SOLIDARITY CONFERENCE ATTENDED BY SOME OF THE SAME GROUPS WAS HELD IN SAN JOSE. THE ADMINISTRATION OF GUATEMALAN PRESIDENT LUCAS WAS DENOUNCED AS A "TERRORIST MILITARY DICTATORSHIP." THE U.S. WAS BLAMED FOR ESTABLISHING IN 1954, AND SINCE THEN SUPPORTING, SUCCESSIVE REPRESSIVE REGIMES IN GUATEMALA.

7. HEAVY BLAME FOR THE SITUATION IN BOTH GUATEMALA AND EL SALVADOR WAS LAID ON THE U.S. AND OUR POLICIES HAD NO DEFENDERS, AT LEAST NONE WHOSE REMARKS WERE PUBLISHED. AGAIN, OUR MOST SEVERE CRITIC WAS PIERRE SCHORI OF THE SWEDISH SOCIALIST PARTY WHO HAD CONSULTED WITH A NUMBER OF DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS IN WASHINGTON ON HIS WAY TO SAN JOSE. HE SAID, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE U.S. "HAS CREATED A FRANKENSTEIN'S MONSTER MORE REAL AND FATAL THAN THE SPECTER OF FIDEL CASTRO ... WE DIFFER PROFOUNDLY WITH CUBA ... BUT AT THE PRESENT TIME, WE PREFER A CUBAN DOCTOR TO AN AMERICAN MARINE." BOTH SCHORI AND MARIA EMILIO DE MELO (PORTUGUESE SOCIALIST PARTY) CHARGED, THAT THE U.S. HAD MOUNTED A "DIPLOMATIC OFFENSIVE" AGAINST THE CONFERENCE ITSELF TO WEAKEN INTERNATIONAL SOLIDARITY AMONG SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTIES IN LATIN AMERICA AND EUROPE RESISTING REPRESSION.

8. ACTION REQUESTED: NO SPECIAL DEMARCHE IS REQUESTED AT THIS TIME. HOWEVER, ALL ADDRESSEES, INCLUDING INFO ADDRESSEES, SHOULD TAKE ADVANTAGE OF ANY APPROPRIATE OPPORTUNITY TO EXPRESS OUR CONCERN ABOUT GROWING INTERNATIONAL SUPPORT FOR OPPOSITION GROUPS IN EL SALVADOR AND GUATEMALA. TALKING POINTS ARE PROVIDED IN FOLLOWING PARAGRAPHS AND IN REFTEL.

9. TALKING POINTS

-- MY GOVERNMENT BELIEVES THAT DEMOCRACY IS VITAL TO THE FUTURE OF LATIN AMERICA. CONTACTS BETWEEN EUROPEAN DEMOCRATIC LEADERS AND THEIR LATIN AMERICAN COUNTERPARTS CAN SUPPORT THE DEVELOPMENT OF DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS AND PROMOTE PEACEFUL CHANGE IN THE HEMISPHERE.

-- IN EL SALVADOR, THE SITUATION HAS LONG BEEN CRITICAL, BUT A MAJOR CHANGE FOR THE BETTER OCCURRED IN OCTOBER OF LAST YEAR, WHEN A GROUP OF REFORM-MINDED YOUNG MILITARY OFFICERS ASSUMED CONTROL AND INITIATED A PROCESS OF URGENTLY NEEDED REFORMS.

-- DURING HIS VISIT TO THE DEPARTMENT, PIERRE SCHORI ACKNOWLEDGED THE WORTH OF THE JRG'S REFORM MEASURES. HE INDICATED THAT THEY COULD PROVIDE THE BASIS FOR BROADER INTERNATIONAL SUPPORT FOR THE JRG PROVIDED VIOLENCE COULD BE BROUGHT UNDER CONTROL.

-- INTERNATIONAL SUPPORT FOR INSURGENT GROUPS IN EL SALVADOR (LEFT OR RIGHT) APPARENTLY GROWS OUT OF A CONVICTION THAT THE JRG IS WEAKENING AND WILL NOT SURVIVE. THIS TENDS TO BECOME, OF COURSE, A SELF-FULFILLING PROPHECY.

-- WE ALSO HAVE THE FEELING THAT SOME EUROPEANS VIEW THE POLITICAL SITUATION IN EL SALVADOR AS A RIVALRY BETWEEN SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC AND CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTIES. THIS IS NOT A EUROPEAN-TYPE PARTY CONTROVERSY BUT A LIFE AND DEATH STRUGGLE WITH SERIOUS REGIONAL IMPLICATIONS.

-- WE CONTINUE TO BELIEVE THAT THE JRG REPRESENTS THE BEST HOPE FOR EL SALVADOR. SUPPORT FOR THIS GOVERNMENT AND THEIR REFORM INITIATIVES IS THE BASIS FOR ALL OUR POLICIES AND ASSISTANCE.

-- THE ALTERNATIVE TO THE JRG IS ASSUMPTION OF POWER BY THE EXTREME RIGHT OR LEFT IN EL SALVADOR.

-- EITHER EVENTUALITY WOULD PROBABLY BE PRECEDED BY CIVIL WAR, AND MOST CERTAINLY DESTROY THE FRAGILE PROGRESS TOWARD ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL REFORM INITIATED BY THE PRESENT GOVERNMENT.

-- UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES WE FIND IT DIFFICULT TO UNDERSTAND WHY INTERNATIONAL GROUPS DO NOT OFFER THEIR SUPPORT TO THE JRG.

-- IN GUATEMALA, LONG TERM POLITICAL EROSION, EXACERBATED BY REVOLUTION IN NICARAGUA AND TURMOIL IN EL SALVADOR, IS INCREASING THE PROBABILITY OF VIOLENT CHANGE.

-- THE SITUATION IN THAT COUNTRY, HOWEVER, IS SUBSTANTIALLY DIFFERENT FROM THAT OF ITS CENTRAL AMERICAN NEIGHBORS.

-- GUATEMALA IS NATURALLY WEALTHY AND HAS DEVELOPED RELATIVELY STRONG INSTITUTIONS. THE MIDDLE CLASS IS DEVELOPING, HAS A GROWING STAKE IN THE SYSTEM, AND IS A POTENTIALLY STABILIZING FORCE. THE NUCLEUS OF A MODERN PARTY SYSTEM EXISTS.

-- THE CURRENT GOVERNMENT, AS WELL AS THE PRIVATE SECTOR, INCLUDE MANY INFLUENTIAL FIGURES WHO CLEARLY RECOGNIZE THAT POLITICAL, SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC REFORM IS ESSENTIAL. THEY UNDERSTAND THAT VIOLENCE MUST BE CONTROLLED, THE ELECTORAL PROCESS STRENGTHENED AND LEGITIMATE CHANNELS FOR DISSENT ESTABLISHED.

-- FURTHER, GUATEMALAN COOPERATION IS ESSENTIAL TO A NEGOTIATED SETTLEMENT OF GUATEMALAN TERRITORIAL CLAIMS AGAINST BELIZE AND AN ORDERLY TRANSITION TO INDEPENDENCE FOR BELIZE.

-- GUATEMALAN REFUSAL TO DEAL WITH OR AID RIGHTISTS IN EL SALVADOR WHO ARE ATTEMPTING TO OVERTHROW THE REFORMIST GOVERNMENT IS ALSO ESSENTIAL AT THIS POINT. A MORE POSITIVE ATTITUDE BY THE GOG CONCERNING THE JRG WOULD STRENGTHEN ITS CHANCES OF SURVIVAL SIGNIFICANTLY.

-- WE BELIEVE THAT ANY IMPROVEMENTS IN GUATEMALA MUST RESULT FROM ACTIONS AND DECISIONS BY THE PRESENT GOVERNMENT AND ITS SUPPORTERS.

-- BUT ACHIEVEMENT OF OUR OBJECTIVES -- INTERNAL STABILITY AND REFORM, COOPERATION ON REGIONAL ISSUES -- IS BEING DEFEATED BY A CROVING SIEGE MENTALITY ON THE PART OF THE GUATEMALAN LEADERSHIP.

NATIONAL COMMUNITY, AND ARE BECOMING INCREASINGLY RESISTANT TO INTERNATIONAL PRESSURE FOR CHANGE.

-- WE BELIEVE THE BEST HOPE IS TO BREAK DOWN THIS MENTALITY, REESTABLISH A DIALOGUE BETWEEN MODERATE GUATEMALAN LEADERS AND THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY, AND THUS PROMOTE PEACEFUL CHANGE IN THAT COUNTRY.

-- INTERNATIONAL CRITICISM OF THE SORT THAT CAME OUT OF THE SAN JOSE CONFERENCE DEFEATS THIS PURPOSE BY REINFORCING THE GUATEMALAN SENSE OF ISOLATION.

-- IN SUM, WE BELIEVE THAT OUR POLICIES WITH RESPECT TO EL SALVADOR AND GUATEMALA ARE BASED ON AND CONSISTENT WITH PRINCIPLES GENERALLY ACCEPTED IN THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY. WE FIND IT DIFFICULT TO UNDERSTAND WHY THESE POLICIES ARE SUBJECTED TO THE SORT OF STRIDENT AND BIASED CRITICISM THAT RESULTED FROM RECENT INTERNATIONAL MEETINGS IN SAN JOSE AND SANTO DOMINGO.

10. FOR OSLO: WE UNDERSTAND THAT THERE WILL BE A SOCIALIST INTERNATIONAL BUREAU MEETING IN OSLO JUNE 12-13, AT WHICH LATIN AMERICAN ISSUES WILL BE DISCUSSED. WE WOULD APPRECIATE ANY INFORMATION YOU CAN

DEVELOP ON PARTICIPATION AND RESULTS. HUSKIE

3. MUCH OF THE PRESENT VIOLENCE, THEY SAID, IS CAUSED DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY BY THE ARMY AND THE SECURITY COPRS. THE ARMY, WHICH UNTIL RECENTLY HAD BEEN RELATIVELY FREE FROM ABUSES, IS NOW ENTERING VILLAGES WITH LISTS OF NAMES AND KILLING THE PEOPLE WHOM IT SUSPECTS OF INVOLVEMENT WITH LEFTIST GROUPS. THE ARMS OF THE EXTREME LEFT. THE ATTORNEY GENERAL SAID THAT EIGHTY PERCENT OF THE PEOPLE WHOSE NAMES APPEAR ON THE LISTS HAVE LITTLE OR NO CONNECTION WITH THE EXTREME LEFT.

4. ACCORDING TO THE TWO MEMBERS OF THE POLITICAL COMMISSION, PDC OFFICIALS WILL MEET THIS MORNING WITH THE MILITARY'S HIGH COMMAND AND SOME LOCAL COMMANDERS. THE PDC PLANS TO ASK THE MILITARY TO STOP THE REPRESSION, TO REAFFIRM ITS PACT WITH THE PDC AND TO PROTECT ITS LOCAL OFFICIALS. IT WILL ALSO SUGGEST THAT A "STATE OF EMERGENCY" BE DECLARED, WHICH WOULD BE A LESSER MEASURE THAN A DECLARATION OF WAR, BUT WOULD ALLOW THE GOVERNMENT TO MAKE CHANGES IN SOME OF ITS INSTITUTIONS IN ORDER TO COPE WITH EXTREMIST VIOLENCE.

5. A NUMBER OF PDC MAYORS ARE STANDING BY AWAITING THE RESULTS OF THE PDC'S CONFERENCE WITH THE MILITARY. ORELLANA EXPRESSED THE CONCERN THAT THE MAJORS WILL RESIGN EN MASSE IF THE MILITARY DOES NOT MAKE A SATISFACTORY RESPONSE.

6. CHARGE ASSURED THE TWO PDC OFFICIALS OF OUR CONTINUING SUPPORT AND OUR CONCERN ABOUT THE PRESENT LEVEL OF VIOLENCE. GUEVARA AND ORELLANA THEN LEFT TO VISIT OTHER EMBASSIES IN THEIR SEARCH FOR DIPLOMATIC SUPPORT.

7. COMMENT: THE PRESSURE ON THE PDC'S LEADERSHIP FROM ITS MEMEBERS IS IMMENSE. ORELLANA COMMENTED THAT AT THE FUNERAL ON SATURDAY FOR ONE OF THE PDC'S ASSASSINATED LOCAL OFFICIALS, SOME MEMBERS ACCUSED THE NATIONAL LEADERSHIP OF DIRECT RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE ASSASSINATION ON THE GROUNDS THAT IT WAS CARRIED OUT BY THE GOVERNMENT OF WHICH THEY ARE A PART.

1. JUNE 11 NEWSPAPER CARRIES A FULL PAGE ADVERTISEMENT BY PDC MAYORS ENTITLED "ENOUGH!". AFTER GIVING THE NAMES OF NINE PDC LOCAL OFFICIALS WHO HAVE BEEN ASSASSINATED IN THE LAST FEW DAYS, THE ADVERTISEMENT STATES THAT "MEMBERS OF ACTUAL EXECUTION SQUADS HAVE UNDERTAKEN A REAL STRATEGY OF EXTERMINATION OF PDC OFFICIALS."

2. IT CONTINUES, "FACED WITH THIS SITUATION WE FEEL ESTRANGED AND CONFUSED, UNABLE TO EXPLAIN TO OURSELVES WHAT IS HAPPENING AND WHO THE BACKERS ARE BEHIND THOSE TO HAVE DEVISED AS AN OBJECTIVE THAT EVIDENT STRATEGY OF LIQUIDATION OF ALL OF US. INDEED WE KNOW THAT THESE ATTACKS DO NOT ORIGINATE FROM THE EXTREME LEFT, BUT ON THE OTHER HAND WE ARE MEMBERS OF THE PRESENT REGIME. THIS CIRCUMSTANCES MAKES OUR SITUATION ABSURD AND CREATES A GRAVE CONTRADICTION, SINCE AS AUTHORITIES WE SHOULD ENJOY THE PROTECTION OF THE SECURITY CORPS BUT WE ARE, RATHER SUBJECT TO CONTINUING THREATS ON OUR LIVES."

3. ARTICLE CONTINUES WITH THE FOLLOWING RESOLUTIONS:
QUOTE:
- TO ENERGETICALLY PROTEST AND CONDEMN THE ASSASSINATIONS AND ATTACKS AGAINST OUR FELLOW MEMBERS OF THE MUNICIPAL COUNCILS MENTIONED PREVIOUSLY AND THE TERROR CAMPAIGN UNLEASHED AGAINST THE MEMBERS OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT MUNICIPAL COUNCILS.
- A SPECIAL MOTIVE OF OUR CONDEMNATION AND REPUDIATION IS THE USELESS SACRIFICE OF ALL SALVADORANS WHO HAVE BEEN VICTIMS OF THE WAVE OF VIOLENCE AND TERROR IN WHICH OUR COUNTRY LIVES.
- TO DEMAND THAT THE JRG AND THE ARMED FORCES CONDUCT AN EXHAUSTIVE INVESTIGATION OF THE DENOUNCED FACTS, AND CONSEQUENT PUNISHMENT OF THOSE WHO ARE GUILTY.
- REQUEST TO THE JRG TO REFORM DECREE NO. 160 ON THE CARRYING OF ARMS, TO INCLUDE, AMONG THOSE AUTHORITIES WHO ARE PERMITTED TO CARRY ARMS, THE MAYORS AND MUNICIPAL COUNSELORS.
- TO REQUEST TO THE JRG THAT THEY ESTABLISH PERSONAL SECURITY MEASURES FOR THE MEMBERS OF THE MUNICIPAL COUNCILS OF THE WHOLE COUNTRY, AND AUTHORIZE LIFE INSURANCE POLICIES.
- TO MAINTAIN OURSELVES IN A VIGILANT ATTITUDE, WHILE WAITING FOR CLEAR SIGNS THAT INDICATE A CHANGE OF ATTITUDE TOWARD THE MUNICIPAL COUNCILS; AND A POSITIVE ANSWER TO OUR DEMANDS.
END QUOTE.

4. APPROXIMATELY 175 PDC MAYORS AND OFFICIALS SIGNED THE ADVERTISEMENT.

5. COMMENT. AS IT HAS IN PAST CRISES, THE PDC IS WAITING FOR SIGNALS FROM THE MILITARY REGARDING THE MILITARY'S INTENTIONS. WE UNDERSTAND THAT THE PDC IS MEETING WITH THE MILITARY TODAY, JUNE 11.

SUBJ: (C) POC MEETINGS WITH MILITARY AND MAYORS

[redacted]

1. SUMMARY. ON JUNE 10 TWO POC OFFICIALS COMMENTED ON THEIR CONFERENCE WITH THE MILITARY AND SUBSEQUENT MEETING WITH THEIR OWN MAYORS, ON ATTEMPTS TO FORM A GROUP TO PROTEST THE VIOLENCE, AND ON SECRET RIGHTIST ARMIES. END SUMMARY.

3. ON JUNE 10 POC TREASURER OSCAR QUIROS AND SECRETARY OF ADMINISTRATION EDUARDO MOLINA TALKED WITH LABOR ATTACHE ABOUT THE PARTY'S RESPONSE TO THE CURRENT WAVE OF VIOLENCE IN EL SALVADOR.

4. MEETING WITH MILITARY. ON JUNE 9 THE POC'S EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE PLUS MINISTER OF THE PRESIDENCE ALVERGUE AND FOREIGN MINISTER CHAVEZ MENA MET WITH THE MILITARY HIGH COMMAND AND GENERAL STAFF PLUS THE ARMY'S DEPARTMENTAL COMMANDERS AND THE HEADS OF THE SECURITY FORCES. ACCORDING TO QUIROS THE MEETING WAS DIFFICULT BUT THE PARTY WAS PLEASED BY THE RESULTS. AT ONE POINT, HE ADDED, THE MEETING ALMOST BROKE DOWN UNDER MUTUAL RECRIMINATIONS, BUT THE CONCILIATORY ATTITUDE OF JRG MEMBER COL. GUTIERREZ SAVED THE DAY. WHEN THE POC OFFICIALS COMPLAINED THAT THEY WERE TAKING CASUALTIES (SEVEN POC MEMBERS WERE ASSASSINATED LAST WEEK) THE MILITARY REPLIED WITHOUT SYMPATHY THAT THERE ARE PRESENTLY 123 SOLDIERS HOSPITALIZED WITH WOUNDS. FINALLY, HOWEVER, THE MILITARY DID PROMISE TO PROVIDE PROTECTION FOR THE POC MAYORS WHEN IT IS REQUESTED. MOST IMPORTANT FROM THE POC'S POINT OF VIEW WAS THE MILITARY'S FRANK ADMISSION THAT IT NEEDS THE POC'S PARTICIPATION IN GOVERNMENT TO MAINTAIN INTERNATIONAL RESPECTABILITY. WHEN THE POC SAID THAT IT FAVORED THE RELEASE OF FORMER MINISTER SANAYOA THE MILITARY MADE NO RESPONSE. (QUIROS BELIEVES THE MILITARY IS DIVIDED ON THE QUESTION ABOUT WHAT TO DO WITH SHAAYOA.) DURING THE MEETING THE MILITARY MADE NO ADMISSION OF WRONG-DOING, EITHER IN THE CASE OF THE ASSASSINATED POC MEMBERS OR WHEN TOLD ABOUT ASSASSINATIONS OF CAMPESINOS DURING ARMY OPERATIONS, BUT MOLINA COMMENTED THAT SOME OF THE OFFICERS APPEARED "CONFUSED" BY THE INFORMATION. THE TWO POC OFFICIALS SAID THAT THE PARTY EXPECTS THE MILITARY TO RESPOND TO THIS MEETING WITH "ENCOURAGING SIGNALS" IN THE NEAR FUTURE. AT ONE POINT, MOLINA IMPLIED THAT TRANSFERS OF OFFICERS MIGHT TAKE PLACE. THE POC PLANS TO HOLD MORE MEETINGS WITH THE MILITARY. WHEN ASKED WHO IN THE MILITARY APPEARED WILLING TO STOP THE VIOLENCE AND COULD BE USEFULLY INFLUENCED, BOTH POC MEMBERS IMMEDIATELY MENTIONED GUTIERREZ. WHEN ASKED FOR ANOTHER NAME, MOLINA RESPONDED, SURPRESINGLY, "NAPOLEON DUARTE." HE THEN EXPLAINED THAT DUARTE IS HELD IN VERY HIGH REGARD BY MANY WITHIN THE MILITARY. NEITHER POC OFFICIAL TRUSTED OR RESPECTED MINDEF GARCIA OR SUBSECRETARY CARRANZA.

5. MEETING WITH MAYORS. AFTER THE MEETING WITH THE MILITARY, THE POC OFFICIALS HELD A CONFERENCE WITH 156 OF THEIR APPROXIMATELY 210 MAYORS. MOLINA DESCRIBED THE MEETING AS INITIALLY DIFFICULT SINCE THE POC LEADERS HAD BROUGHT NO CONCRETE RESULTS FROM THEIR EARLIER CONFERENCE. THE MAYORS, HE SAID, BELIEVE THAT THE CHIEF THREAT TO THEM IS FROM THE RIGHT, AND MANY ARE AFRAID OF THE ARMY AND THE SECURITY FORCES. MANY MAYORS HAVE ALSO RECEIVED LETTERS FROM THE UDN AND THE CRN CONTAINING VEILED THREATS. THE DEMANDS OF THE LOCAL POC OFFICIALS, HOWEVER, WERE NOT RADICAL. THEY ASK FOR THE RIGHT TO CARRY WEAPONS, FOR LIFE INSURANCE POLICIES, AND THAT THE GOVERNMENT CONTINUE ITS REFORM POLICY. MOLINA AND QUIROS APPEARED RELIEVED AND SOMEWHAT SURPRISED THAT THE POC'S LOCAL OFFICIALS HAD NOT BEEN IN A MORE CONFRONTATIONAL MOOD.

6. SUPPORT FOR PEACE. THE POC IS CURRENTLY SEEKING SUPPORT FROM A NUMBER OF GROUPS, INCLUDING CHURCH GROUPS, SOME LABOR UNIONS, PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS, AND THE ASSOCIATION OF SMALL BUSINESSMEN (ENAPEES), IN AN ATTEMPT TO PUT PRESSURE ON THE JRG TO REDUCE THE VIOLENCE. WHEN ASKED WHETHER THEY HAD CONTACTED ANY OTHER GROUPS OF BUSINESSMEN, THEY REPLIED THAT CONTACTS WITH SUCH GROUP ARE MADE ONLY AT THE LEVEL OF DUARTE AND MORALES EHRLICH.

7. SECRET ARMIES. QUIROS AND MOLINA STATED THAT THERE ARE FOUR SECRET RIGHTIST ARMIES OPERATING IN VARIOUS SECTIONS OF EL SALVADOR. THE FOUR, THEY SAID, ACT SEPARATELY BUT MAINTAIN CONTACTS. FOR EXAMPLE, IN AHUACHAPAN THERE IS AN ARMY OF 40-50 PEOPLE. THE OTHER SECRET ARMIES, WHICH ARE OF A SIMILAR SIZE, ARE FINANCED BY LOCAL AND GUATEMALAN RIGHTISTS AND COMPOSED OF FORMER OFFICERS WHO HAVE SERVED IN THE SALVADORAN NATIONAL GUARD AND "SOMOCISTAS." ROBERTO HILL, THEY SAID, IS HEAVILY INVOLVED IN ARRANGING FINANCING FOR THESE GROUPS. THEY ADDED THAT SOME MILITARY OFFICERS ARE AWARE OF THESE GROUPS BUT ALLOW THEM TO OPERATE WITH IMPUNITY. WHEN ASKED WHETHER ANY OFFICERS WERE INVOLVED IN THE ACTIVITIES OF THESE ARMIES, THEY ANSWERED THAT THAT WAS A POSSIBILITY AND THEN MENTIONED THE NAMES OF SUBSECRETARY OF DEFENSE CARRANZA AND THE HEAD OF THE TREASURY POLICE MORAN. QUIROS, WHO MAINTAINS CONTACTS WITH AND RECEIVES INFORMATION FROM MOST OF THE POC'S LOCAL OFFICIALS, SAID HE HAS A LIST OF NAMES OF MEMBERS OF ALL FOUR ARMIES WHICH HE PLANS TO PRESENT TO GUTIERREZ LATER IN THE WEEK.

8. CONTACTS WITH LEFT. BOTH MOLINA AND QUIROS REMAINED OPTIMISTIC THAT AN UNDERSTANDING CAN BE REACHED WITH AT LEAST SOME GROUPS OF THE EXTREME LEFT, AND THEY MENTIONED FAPU SPECIFICALLY. THEY DID NOT INDICATE THAT THERE HAVE BEEN ANY RECENT CONTACTS. QUIROS NOTED THAT ONE PROBLEM IN CONDUCTING SUCH NEGOTIATIONS IS THAT THE REAL LEADERS OF THE EXTREME LEFT DO NOT RESIDE IN EL SALVADOR.

MODERATES FROM BOTH THE LEFT AND RIGHT TO DEAL WITH IT. SERIOUS ATTEMPTS TO REACH AN UNDERSTANDING WITH THE PRIVATE SECTOR ARE INCIPIENT AT BEST. THE GOES ITSELF, AS A RESULT OF RECENT CABINET CHANGES AND WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE, APPEARS CAPABLY LED. THE BUREAUCRACY, HOWEVER, WHILE PROBABLY MORE HONEST THAN IN THE PAST, REMAINS AS INEFFICIENT AS EVER. WE CONTINUE TO HEAR COMPLAINTS THAT THE BUREAUCRACY, AND ESPECIALLY MAG, IS NOT DOING ENOUGH IN SUPPORT OF THE AGRARIAN REFORM. INTERNATIONAL SUPPORT FOR THE JRG APPEARS TO BE GROWING GRADUALLY.

4. THE MILITARY. THE ARMY REMAINS THE MAJOR POLITICAL FORCE IN EL SALVADOR AND THE MAINSTAY OF THE GOVERNMENT. THROUGH ITS SUPPORT THE VARIOUS REFORM MEASURES WERE IMPLEMENTED. IN SPITE OF ITS COMMITMENT TO THE ABSTRACT IDEA OF REFORM, HOWEVER, IT IS CONFUSED BY AND SUSPICIOUS OF SOME OF THE GOVERNMENT'S LEADERS AND SOME OF THE GOVERNMENT'S ACTIONS, INCLUDING THE "LAND TO THE TILLER LAW". IT VOTED TO ELECT JRG MEMBER COL. GUTIERREZ AS (IN EFFECT) ITS SOLE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF, AND IT APPEARS THAT IT IS BEGINNING TO UNITE BEHIND HIM. THE ARMY HAS BEEN BADLY PROVOKED BY THE AGGRESSIVE ACTIONS OF THE EXTREME LEFT, IS TAKING AND GIVING CASUALTIES, AND APPEARS INCREASINGLY EAGER FOR A MILITARY RATHER THAN POLITICAL SOLUTION TO THE EXTREME LEFT'S CHALLENGE. REPORTS ABOUT THE TAKING AND SHOOTING OF PRISONERS DURING ITS "SWEEPS". THE D'AUBUISSON AFFAIR DEMONSTRATED ITS INABILITY TO ACT AGAINST ONE OF ITS OWN WHO WAS CLEARLY INVOLVED IN ACTIVITIES OF THE EXTREME RIGHT.

5. DAO COMMENT: THE MILITARY'S VOTE FOR GUTIERREZ MUST BE PERCEIVED AS A VOTE FOR THE INSTITUTION AND A VOTE AGAINST EITHER THE PDC OR MAJANO TRYING TO DICTATE UNILATERAL ACTION. MOST OFFICERS CONSIDER MAJOR D'AUBUISSON A LIABILITY. END DAO COMMENT.

6. THE PDC. THE PLAS OF THE PDC AT THE BEGINNING OF THE PERIOD UNDER REVIEW TO MOUNT A MAJOR ORGANIZATIONAL DRIVE FOUNDERED DURING A SERIES OF CRISES THAT HAVE SERIOUSLY DIMINISHED ITS CONFIDENCE. THE ASSASSINATION CAMPAIGN OF EARLY JUNE AGAINST ITS LOCAL OFFICIALS (WHICH THEY BELIEVE IO CARRIED OUT BY THE EXTREME RIGHT WITH CONSIDERABLE PARTICIPATION FROM THE SECURITY CORPS) IS CURRENTLY IMPERILING ITS CONTINUED PARTICIPATION IN THE GOVERNMENT. IN SPITE OF THESE SETBACKS, HOWEVER, THE PDC HAS MADE PROGRESS. SUPPORT FROM NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC GROUPS CONTINUES. WITHIN EL SALVADOR, SOME MEMBERS WHO HAD DROPPED AWAY OVER THE YEARS ARE RETURNING TO THE PARTY, AND SOME INDEPENDENTS ARE NOW WILLING TO COOPERATE WITH IT. THE PDC IS FINDING IT EASIER TO ATTRACT QUALIFIED PEOPLE FOR A RANGE OF GOVERNMENTAL JOBS. ON THE MINUS SIDE, ITS RELATIONS WITH THE MILITARY REMAIN

ALTHOUGH GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS HAVE MADE STATEMENTS ABOUT THE NEED TO COOPERATE WITH THE PRIVATE SECTOR, FEW ACTIONS HAVE YET BEEN TAKEN TO REACH AN UNDERSTANDING. 10. THE EXTREME RIGHT. CAPITALIZING ON OPPOSITION TO THE "LAND TO THE TILLER LAW" AND ENCOURAGED BY THE RELEASE OF D'AUBUISSON, THE EXTREME RIGHT HAS BECOME MORE ACTIVE. THE

ANNOUNCED UNIFICATION OF EXTREME RIGHT GROUPS PROBABLY HAS MORE TO DO WITH PSYCHOLOGICAL WARFARE THAN REALITY, BUT VIOLENCE IN THE COUNTRYSIDE, SOME OF WHICH IS REPORTEDLY CARRIED OUT BY THE SECURITY CORPS AND MUCH OF WHICH IS DIRECTED AGAINST MODERATES OR INDIVIDUALS WITH TENUOUS TIES TO THE EXTREME LEFT, HAS CLEARLY INCREASED.

11. DAO COMMENT: THE ACTIVITIES OF THE EXTREME RIGHT MUST BE SEPARATED FROM GOVERNMENT SANCTIONED REPRESSION, ALTHOUGH THERE IS SOME OVERLAPPING OF ACTORS, BECAUSE CONTROL OF THE PROBLEM INVOLVES A TWOFOLD APPROACH. THE FIRST CATEGORY IS THE MOST BRUTAL. THE PARTICIPANTS ARE PROBABLY GUARDIA AUXILIARIES, HISTORICALLY HIRED BY THE RICH TO SERVE THE PURPOSES OF THE RICH, THEY ARE IDENTIFIED AS GUARDIA IN THE COUNTRYSIDE AND WEAR GUARDIA UNIFORMS. SOME IN THIS CATEGORY ARE HIRED MERCENARIES, INCLUDING SOME IN THE WESTERN ZONE WHO WORK BOTH IN GUATEMALA AND EL SALVADOR. ALSO IN THIS CATEGORY ARE FORMER MEMBERS OF ORDEN AND MOONLIGHTING ACTIVE DUTY SECURITY FORCE AND ARMY PERSONNEL. A CATEGORY OF SEMI-SANCTIONED REPRESSION OCCURS AT THE SMALL UNIT LEVEL WHERE CORPORALS' AND SERGEANTS' ACTS OF VENGEANCE KILL CAMPESINOS WHO MAY OR MAY NOT BE TERRORISTS. THE SECOND CATEGORY OF REPRESSION IS CONDUCTED BY SECURITY FORCES AND ARMY UNITS IN SOME OF THEIR OPERATIONS. THIS IS TYPIFIED [redacted]

BY SEARCH AND DESTROY MISSIONS WHERE ALL PEOPLE ON A LIST OR IN A PARTICULAR AREA ARE CONSIDERED TO BE TERRORISTS AND SHOT. THESE OPERATIONS ARE CHARACTERIZED BY POOR ORGANIZATION AND COORDINATION, AND DEMONSTRATE HOW UNPROFESSIONAL SOME UNITS OF THE SECURITY FORCES AND ARMY ARE. END DAO COMMENT.

12. COMMENT: THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE AGRARIAN REFORM IS DAMAGING THE PROSPECTS OF BOTH THE EXTREME LEFT AND THE EXTREME RIGHT, AND THEIR OPPOSITION TO IT IS INCREASINGLY BITTER AND VIOLENT. BOTH GROUPS HAVE STEPPED UP THEIR ACTIVITIES AGAINST THE MODERATES, AND THE RESULT IS THAT IN SOME AREAS OF THE COUNTRY THE AGRARIAN REFORM HAS BEEN DISRUPTED. THE JRG'S POSITION IS IMMENSELY COMPLICATED BY THE FACT THAT MANY OF THE EXTREME RIGHT ARE NOMINALLY UNDER ITS CONTROL, BUT IT HAS NOT BEEN ABLE TO TAKE EFFECTIVE ACTION AGAINST THEM.

13. THE MAGNITUDE OF THE CHANGE THAT THE JRG IS ATTEMPTING TO BRING ABOUT GUARANTEES THAT IT WILL CONTINUE TO EXPERIENCE CRISES FOR THE FORESEEABLE FUTURE. WHEN AND IF IT GETS BY THE FIRST GENERATION PROBLEMS OF FORMULATION AND PASSAGE OF THE REFORMS, SECOND GENERATION PROBLEMS OF IMPLEMENTATION AND UNINTENDED CONSEQUENCES WILL APPEAR (AND IN THE CASE OF THE AGRARIAN REFORM, ARE ALREADY APPEARING). IN THE COMING MONTHS THE JRG WILL CONTINUE TO NEED ALL OF THE MORAL AND FINANCIAL SUPPORT WE CAN GIVE IT. ONE AREA IN WHICH WE HAVE A ROLE TO PLAY IS THAT OF STRENGTHENING THE UNEASY ALLIANCE BETWEEN

THE MILITARY AND THE PDC, WHICH IS PRESENTLY THREATENED BY THE PDC'S SUSPICIONS THAT THE MILITARY IS UNWILLING TO PROTECT THE PARTY'S MEMBERS.

14. ANOTHER AREA IN WHICH U.S. EMBASSY CAN PLAY AN IMPORTANT ROLE IS THAT OF ENCOURAGING A RECONCILIATION BETWEEN PDC AND PRIVATE SECTOR IN TERMS OF CONCENTRATING ON SHARED INTERESTS RATHER THAN HISTORICAL DIFFERENCES, WITH PRINCIPAL SHARED INTEREST BEING THE RESTORATION OF POLITICAL/ECONOMIC STABILITY. MOREOVER, SINCE BOTH THE PDC AND PRIVATE SECTOR

MAY. INTERNATIONALLY, THE FDR HAS NOT ATTRACTED SIGNIFICANT SUPPORT. THE MILITARY EFFORTS OF THE EXTREME LEFT HAVE HAD SUCCESS IN SEVERAL AS YET SMALL-SCALE GUERRILLA OPERATIONS. BOTH THE NUMBER OF THESE OPERATIONS AND THE CASUALTIES RESULTING FROM THEM HAVE INCREASED SUBSTANTIALLY.

10. THE EXTREME RIGHT. CAPITALIZING ON OPPOSITION TO THE "LAND TO THE TILLER LAW" AND ENCOURAGED BY THE RELEASE OF D'AUBUISSON, THE EXTREME RIGHT HAS BECOME MORE ACTIVE. THE

DECLASSIFIED

DECLASSIFIED

ANNOUNCED UNIFICATION OF EXTREME RIGHT GROUPS PROBABLY HAS MORE TO DO WITH PSYCHOLOGICAL WARFARE THAN REALITY, BUT VIOLENCE IN THE COUNTRYSIDE, SOME OF WHICH IS REPORTEDLY CARRIED OUT BY THE SECURITY CORPS AND MUCH OF WHICH IS DIRECTED AGAINST MODERATES OR INDIVIDUALS WITH TENUOUS TIES TO THE EXTREME LEFT, HAS CLEARLY INCREASED.

11. DAO COMMENT: THE ACTIVITIES OF THE EXTREME RIGHT MUST BE SEPARATED FROM GOVERNMENT SANCTIONED REPRESSION, ALTHOUGH THERE IS SOME OVERLAPPING OF ACTORS. BECAUSE CONTROL OF THE PROBLEM INVOLVES A TWOFOLD APPROACH. THE FIRST CATEGORY IS THE MOST BRUTAL. THE PARTICIPANTS ARE PROBABLY GUARDIA AUXILIARIES. HISTORICALLY HIRED BY THE RICH TO SERVE THE PURPOSES OF THE RICH, THEY ARE IDENTIFIED AS GUARDIA IN THE COUNTRYSIDE AND WEAR GUARDIA UNIFORMS. SOME IN THIS CATEGORY ARE HIRED MERCENARIES, INCLUDING SOME IN THE WESTERN ZONE WHO WORK BOTH IN GUATEMALA AND EL SALVADOR. ALSO IN THIS CATEGORY ARE FORMER MEMBERS OF ORDEN AND MOONLIGHTING ACTIVE DUTY SECURITY FORCE AND ARMY PERSONNEL. A CATEGORY OF SEMI-SANCTIONED REPRESSION OCCURS AT THE SMALL UNIT LEVEL WHERE CORPORALS' AND SERGEANTS' ACTS OF VENGEANCE KILL CAMPESINOS WHO MAY OR MAY NOT BE TERRORISTS. THE SECOND CATEGORY OF REPRESSION IS CONDUCTED BY SECURITY FORCES AND ARMY UNITS IN SOME OF THEIR OPERATIONS. THIS IS TYPIFIED

BY SEARCH AND DESTROY MISSIONS WHERE ALL PEOPLE ON A LIST OR IN A PARTICULAR AREA ARE CONSIDERED TO BE TERRORISTS AND SHOT. THESE OPERATIONS ARE CHARACTERIZED BY POOR ORGANIZATION AND COORDINATION, AND DEMONSTRATE HOW UNPROFESSIONAL SOME UNITS OF THE SECURITY FORCES AND ARMY ARE. END DAO COMMENT.

12. COMMENT: THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE AGRARIAN REFORM IS DAMAGING THE PROSPECTS OF BOTH THE EXTREME LEFT AND THE EXTREME RIGHT, AND THEIR OPPOSITION TO IT IS INCREASINGLY BITTER AND VIOLENT. BOTH GROUPS HAVE STEPPED UP THEIR ACTIVITIES AGAINST THE MODERATES, AND THE RESULT IS THAT IN SOME AREAS OF THE COUNTRY THE AGRARIAN REFORM HAS BEEN DISRUPTED. THE JRG'S POSITION IS IMMENSELY COMPLICATED BY THE FACT THAT MANY OF THE EXTREME RIGHT ARE NOMINALLY UNDER ITS CONTROL, BUT IT HAS NOT BEEN ABLE TO TAKE EFFECTIVE ACTION AGAINST THEM.

13. THE MAGNITUDE OF THE CHANGE THAT THE JRG IS ATTEMPTING TO BRING ABOUT GUARANTEES THAT IT WILL CONTINUE TO EXPERIENCE CRISES FOR THE FORESEEABLE FUTURE. WHEN AND IF IT GETS BY THE FIRST GENERATION PROBLEMS OF FORMULATION AND PASSAGE OF THE REFORMS, SECOND GENERATION PROBLEMS OF IMPLEMENTATION AND UNINTENDED CONSEQUENCES WILL APPEAR (AND IN THE CASE OF THE AGRARIAN REFORM, ARE ALREADY APPEARING). IN THE COMING MONTHS THE JRG WILL CONTINUE TO NEED ALL OF THE MORAL AND FINANCIAL SUPPORT WE CAN GIVE IT. ONE AREA IN WHICH WE HAVE A ROLE TO PLAY IS THAT OF STRENGTHENING THE UNEASY ALLIANCE BETWEEN

DECLASSIFIED DECLASSIFIED UNCLASSIFIED

THE MILITARY AND THE PDC, WHICH IS PRESENTLY THREATENED BY THE PDC'S SUSPICIONS THAT THE MILITARY IS UNWILLING TO PROTECT THE PARTY'S MEMBERS.

14. ANOTHER AREA IN WHICH U.S. EMBASSY CAN PLAY AN IMPORTANT ROLE IS THAT OF ENCOURAGING A RECONCILIATION BETWEEN PDC AND PRIVATE SECTOR IN TERMS OF CONCENTRATING ON SHARED INTERESTS RATHER THAN HISTORICAL DIFFERENCES, WITH PRINCIPAL SHARED INTEREST BEING THE RESTORATION OF POLITICAL/ECONOMIC STABILITY. MOREOVER, SINCE BOTH THE PDC AND PRIVATE SECTOR [redacted]

PAGE 04 SAN SA 04154 02 OF 02 141851Z

ARE GROWING INCREASINGLY UNEASY WITH GROWING LEVEL OF POLITICAL VIOLENCE, WHETHER FROM THE SECURITY FORCES, ULTRA-RIGHT OR ULTRA-LEFT. BOTH PDC AND PRIVATE SECTOR HAVE IN COMMON THE GOAL OF CONVINCING MILITARY TO INHIBIT AND EVENTUALLY STOP VIOLENCE AND KILLING.

Dear Peter:

Following our telephone conversation regarding the death of Pedro Andurandegui, I asked DEA SAIC Bruce Stock to see what he could find out. Andurandegui was arrested by personnel of Investigaciones. Despite the allegation at the time that he was using marijuana, Stock is told emphatically that the narcotics unit of Investigaciones was in no way involved. Furthermore, both Investigaciones and the Carabineros narcotics office tell Stock that there was no previous record of Andurandegui for narcotics related offenses. It would appear, although we can never be totally sure, that individuals we hope to reach through the DEA training course are not those who killed Andurandegui.

The investigation of the Andurandegui death continues. I enclose a copy of a recent article from "Hoy" magazine.

Dear Sir:

Recent news articles describe actions taken by the Chilean government to exile a number of university students, including some Americans. I believe today's Washington Post reports that 22 students were arrested and sent into exile in remote villages.

One of my constituents has expressed concern for the safety and welfare of an American student who may be among the individuals exiled. His name is Nathan Stone, a volunteer with the Holy Cross Foundation in Santiago. I would appreciate your assistance in determining whether Mr. Stone has been arrested so that I may respond to my constituent. Your quick cooperation will be greatly appreciated.

Cordially,

Bob Packwood

3. SEEN FROM CHILE, A DECISION AT THIS TIME TO GRANT PAROLE TO MICHAEL TOWNLEY WOULD BE DELETERIOUS TO OUR FOREIGN POLICY INTEREST. THE INTEREST AT STAKE IS DETERRENCE OF INTERNATIONAL TERRORISM. TO THAT END WE HAVE IMPOSED VARIOUS SANCTIONS AS THE RESULT OF THE FAILURE OF THE GOC TO INVESTIGATE FULLY THE LETELIER/MOFFITT ASSASSINATIONS. WHILE NOT LIKELY TO LEAD TO THE TRIAL AND CONVICTIONS WE BELIEVE WARRANTED, THAT INVESTIGATION CONTINUES.

4. PLEA BARGAINING AS WE KNOW IT DOES NOT EXIST IN CHILEAN JUDICIAL PRACTICE.

5. IF AND WHEN TOWNLEY IS RELEASED ON PAROLE, THERE WILL BE EVEN LESS LIKELIHOOD THAN AT PRESENT THAT THE GOC WILL PURSUE SERIOUSLY ITS OWN INVESTIGATION INTO THE ACTIVITIES OF CONTRERAS, ESPINOZA AND FERNANDEZ. IN ADDITION, THOSE CHILEANS WHO PREFER TO SEE USG ACTIONS IN THE LETELIER/MOFFITT CASE AS POLITICAL, RATHER THAN BASED ON SEEKING JUSTICE, WILL HAVE A STRONGER ARGUMENT.

Dear Mac:

This letter replies to yours of June 20 which included a copy of Pat Flood's Memorandum to the Files. It is now clear why Peter was so concerned about Santiago 2489 and the reference to men dying while under police detention. I had thought it related primarily to the issue of a DEA training course. Quite obviously the matter carries much greater weight in HA and perhaps elsewhere.

From what we know of these two cases (mainly from the Vicariate), as well as other instances of citizens being killed or wounded by police officers, there does not appear to be a political angle. I realize that this argument cuts both ways. HA may argue that police violence has now become so institutionalized in Chile that even common criminals (or innocent persons) are sometimes subjected to physical mistreatment resulting in death. It seems to me, however, that there is an important distinction between ad hoc police brutality and the more purposeful policy of torturing prisoners suspected of political activity. The almost certain torture followed by death of Alvarez Santibañez last August falls in the latter category. So may most of the more recent allegations of torture or mistreatment. The two deaths reported in 2489 and which Pat Flood appears to place on an equal footing probably belong in the first.

Police brutality is a fact of life in all countries including the U.S. Not entirely innocently, the local media gave great attention to the recent Miami riots and the precipitating incident. In current day Chile there is probably more police brutality than during some earlier periods, in part because the judiciary still refrains from a vigorously independent role. But, to come to Pat Flood's suggestion in the last paragraph of his memo, I do not think we should make total cessation of such incidents a condition for modifying our stance on Chile in the UNHRC, or UNGA. We might point out to the GOC what they already know — that any deaths or reports of mistreatment while in police custody will be used against Chile in such forums. But to the extent we are talking about ad hoc police brutality, it would be a mistake to tie U.S. policy to something the GOC does not fully control.

GDS 6/30/86 (LANDAU, George W.) OR-M

I have mixed feelings about Pat Flood's proposal that we get involved at an early stage in the drafting of the annual Chile resolutions. I would like to think our more objective and dispassionate view would carry the day but experience to date has not been very encouraging. What does not serve our interest is to be committed to cosponsorship of a resolution which is not accurate, perpetuates the double or multiple standard, and puts us in the company of numerous countries whose objectives are frankly political. Nevertheless, participation in drafting is worth considering as we get closer to the UNGA.

Congratulations on the San Jose assignment. With best regards,

Sincerely,

George W. Landau

1. (C - ENTIRE TEXT)

2. IT IS SOME MEASURE OF THE CURRENT ATMOSPHERE IN SAN SALVADOR THAT THE PAST WEEKEND (JULY 5-6) WAS CONSIDERED BY MANY TO BE A TRANQUIL ONE. THE DOWNTOWN AREAS WERE APPARENTLY FILLED WITH PEOPLE, AS USUAL, AND RESTAURANTS, SHOPS AND MOVIE THEATERS SEEMED TO BE DOING GOOD BUSINESS. AT THE LOCAL AMERICAN SOCIETY JULY 4 PICNIC (HELD JULY 6), ONE MEMBER, A SALVADORAN BUSINESSMAN MARRIED TO A U.S. CITIZEN, MENTIONED THE APPARENT LETUP IN VIOLENCE AND TENSION AND EXPRESSED THE HOPE THAT THIS MIGHT BE THE START OF A TREND.

2. THE ABOVE MUST BE VIEWED IN PROPER CONTEXT.

[redacted]

SATURDAY EVENING, THE HEADQUARTERS OF THE BEER AND SOFTDRINK WORKERS UNION WAS BLOWN UP. THE DAY BEFORE, THERE WAS AN ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT ON A FORMER SAN SALVADOR MAYOR, WHO QUICKLY LEFT THE COUNTRY. ON SUNDAY, GUNMEN WALKED INTO A RESTAURANT ON THE OUTSKIRTS OF SAN SALVADOR AND SHOT AND KILLED NINE PERSONS IN THE RESTAURANT. THE SAME DAY, IN LA LIBERTAD, A COASTAL CITY ABOUT 20 MILES FROM SAN SALVADOR (AND THROUGH WHICH MANY EMBOFFS PASS TO NEARBY BEACHES), TWO INDIVIDUALS CLOSELY IDENTIFIED WITH THE LOCAL U.S. CITIZEN PRIEST WERE SHOT AND KILLED. THE ASSAILANTS WERE OBSERVED BY FAIRLY RELIABLE WITNESSES TO WALK SEVERAL BLOCKS AND TO ENTER A POLICE CAR. AND, OF COURSE, ESTIMATES OF DAILY, COUNTRYWIDE KILLINGS ON THE ORDER OF 20 OR 30 ARE ROUTINELY REPORTED IN THE CONTROLLED, LOCAL PRESS. MOST OBSERVERS BELIEVE THAT THESE FIGURES ARE LOW, PERHAPS HALF OF AN ACCURATE TOTAL.

3. EVERYTHING IS RELATIVE, WE SUPPOSE, AND PERHAPS LAST WEEKEND WAS RELATIVELY CAL. BUT THE FACT REMAINS, OF COURSE, THAT THIS COUNTRY IS EXPERIENCING A GROTESQUE WAVE OF KILLINGS AND VIOLENT ACTS UNMATCHED IN THIS HEMISPHERE AND THE TREND SEEMS TO BE GROWING. IT IS PARTICULARLY UNSETTLING THAT THE VAST MAJORITY OF DEATHS ARE UNATTRIBUTED. QUOTE UNIDENTIFIED END QUOTE GUNMEN SEEM TO BE RESPONSIBLE IN THE LARGEST PERCENTAGE OF CASES.

SUBJECT: (U) VICE PRESIDENT VILLAGRAN KRAMER'S TRAVEL PLANS

1. (C-ENTIRE TEXT.)

2. VICE PRESIDENT VILLAGRAN KRAMER ASKED FOR AND RECEIVED, AFTER SOME BACKING AND FORTHING, PERMISSION FROM CONGRESS TO BE ABSENT FROM GUATEMALA UNTIL AUGUST 31. HE INTIMATED THAT HE PLANNED TO GET MEDICAL TREATMENT IN MEXICO FOR A CHRONIC BACK PROBLEM (WHICH HE HAS AND WHICH IS APPARENTLY QUITE PAINFUL). DURING THE AMBASSADOR'S FAREWELL CALL ON HIM, HE SAID THAT HE INTENDS TO SPEND MOST OF HIS TIME IN THE US AND CANADA. HE HINTED STRONGLY, AS HE HAS ON NUMEROUS OTHER OCCASIONS, THAT HE WOULD SOON BE RELINQUISHING THE VICE PRESIDENCY. HIS CHIEF AIDE TELLS US VILLAGRAN, HIS WIFE PIERANGELA AND A 16-YEAR-OLD DAUGHTER PLAN TO LEAVE GUATEMALA JULY 19 IN THEIR PRIVATE AUTOMOBILE, DRIVE THROUGH MEXICO AND ENTER THE US AT ONE OF THE TEXAS ENTRY POINTS, AND THEN TO CANADA WHERE HE HAS A "GOOD FRIEND" IN PREMIER TRUDEAU. HE SAID HE DOUBTED VILLAGRAN WOULD BE PRESENT FOR THE JULY 19 SANDINISTA

3. WE UNDERSTAND THAT VILLAGRAN DEPARTED JULY 16 FOR PANAMA WHERE HE EXPECTS TO TALK TO TORRIJOS. WE NOTE COINCIDENCE OF MONINICAN PRD LEADER PENA GOMEZ' PLANS TO STOP IN PANAMA (SANTO DOMINGO 4966 (NOTAL)). THE MAVERICK VILLAGRAN, OF COURSE, CONSIDERS HIMSELF A SOCIAL DEMOCRAT.

4. COMMENT. HARD AS IT IS TO TAKE VILLAGRAN'S RESIGNATION SERIOUSLY AFTER SO MANY FALSE STARTS, WE MUST NOTE THAT HIS STAFF APPEARS TO BE VERY SERIOUSLY EXPLORING ONWARD EMPLOYMENT POSSIBILITIES. ORTIZ

THE GOALS OF THE U.S. PROPOSALS WERE LAUDED; THE APPEARANCE THAT THE GOES WOULD BE SUCCUMBING TO USG DICTATES WAS DEPLORED. NEVERTHELESS, THE MEETING WAS GENERALLY POSITIVE AND WE EXPECT A POSITIVE RESPONSOLOO OUR OFFER. END SUMMARY.

3. THE AMBASSADOR, COMUSMILGP, AND POLOFF MET AUGUST 21 WITHTHNE ENTIRE JRG AND THE MEMBERS OF THE HIGH COMMAND. THE PURPOSE OF THE MEETING WAS TO EXPLAIN TO THE GOES THE USG PROPOSAL FOR THE LEASE OF SIX HELICOPTERS TO EL SALVADOR.

4. JRG MEMBER DUARTE OPENED THE MEETING, INDICATING SIMPLY THAT THE AMBASSADOR HAD REQUESTED IT IN ORDER TO DISCUSS A MILITARY RELATED SUBJECT. HE TURNED IT OVER TO THE U.S. REPRESENTATIVES FOR THEIR PRESENTATION.

5. IN HIS INITIAL REMARKS THE AMBASSADOR SUMMARIZED THE STATE OF US-GOES RELATIONS COMPLIMENTING THE JUNTA AND THE MILITARY FOR THEIR ROLE IN INSURING THAT THE GENERAL STRIKE FAILED AND STATING HIS CONVICTION THAT INTERNATIONAL OPINION WAS CHANGING IN A POSITIVE FASHION BOTH FOR THE GOVERNMENT AND FOR US POLICY. HE INDICATED CONTINUING U.S. SUPPORT FOR THE JRG AND ITS POLICIES OF CARRYING OUT REFORMS AND DEMOCRATIZATION. THE AMBASSADOR ALSO NOTED THE SERIOUS PROBLEMS CREATED IN THAT RELATIONSHIP BY THE CONTINUAING VIOLENCE OF THE EXTREMIST RIGHT WHICH IS PERCEIVED INTERNATIONALLY TO BE -- AND OFTEN ACTUALLY IS -- CONDONED BY ELEMENTS WITHIN THE MILITARY. 6. COMUSMILGP FOLLOWED BY READING A STATEMENT WHICH CONTAINED THE USG OFFER TO PROVIDE THE HELICOPTERS, TRAINING AND SPARE PARTS. HIS STATEMENT ALSO CONTAINED THE POINTS MADE IN REF A AND THE FIVE USG CONDITIONS TO THE LEASE OF THE AIRCRAFT. HE CONTINUED BY SUGGESTING A SERIES OF MEASURES WHICH THE GOES COULD UNDERTAKE AND WHICH WOULD SERVE SIMULTANEOUSLY AS THE MEANS TO LIMIT VIOLENCE AND THE MEANS TO MEASURE THE SUCCESS OF THE GOES IN MEETING THE FIVE U.S. CONDITIONS. COMUSMILGP CONCLUDED BY READING THE TIMETABLE FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF THE LEASE (SEE REF A). A DOCUMENT CONTAINING COMUSMILGP'S THREE STATEMENTS, HIS SUGGESTED CODE OF CONDUCT AND HIS ASSESSMENT OF THE MOD AND PUBLIC SECURITY (SEE REFS C AND D) WAS GIVEN TO EACH OFFICIAL PRESENT.

7. DUARTE RESPONDED TO THE U.S. PROPOSAL. HE INDICATED THAT IN THE U.S. DOCUMENT THERE ARE SOME GOOD IDEAS ON HUMAN RIGHTS; HE ALSO SAID THAT HE SAW NO PROBLEM WORKING WITH THE U.S. TO SOLVE THE HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEM. HOWEVER, SOME OF THE PROPOSALS MADE WERE UNACCEPTABLE. THE "TRIAL PERIOD" OF 60 DAYS DURING WHICH THE U.S. WOULD EVALUATE PROGRESS MADE WAS PARTICULARLY GALLING. DUARTE CLAIMED THAT THE U.S. WAS SAYING THAT ONLY "IF YOU ARE GOOD BOYS WILL THE HELICOPTERS BE PROVIDED."

8. DUARTE CONTINUED BY SAYING THAT "ABUSES OF AUTHORITY" EXISTED AND WERE DESTROYING SOME OF THE JRG'S WORK. HE SAID THAT THE JRG AND THE HIGH COMMAND WERE CURRENTLY WORKING ON IMPROVING THE HUMAN RIGHTS PICTURE IN EL SALVADOR. U.S. SHOULD NOT DOUBT THAT THE GOES WOULD COMPLY WITH ITS PART OF THE AGREEMENT. DITIONS THEMSELVES AS THE USG INSISTENCE ON MEASURING PERFORMANCE OVER A SIXTY DAY PERIOD. END COMMENT.)

9. THE AMBASSADOR THEN INDICATED THAT HE DID NOT THINK THAT THE TWO POSITIONS WERE THAT FAR APART. HE REPEATED THE FIVE CONDITIONS AND POINTED OUT THAT THOSE WERE THE ONLY REQUIREMENTS THAT CAME FROM WASHINGTON. (DUARTE HAD TAKEN ISSUE WITH ONE OF COMUSMILGP'S RECOMMENDATIONS AS IF IT ALSO HAD BEEN A CONDITION.) THE AMBASSADOR NOTED THE PRIVATE NATURE OF THE ACCORD BETWEEN THE TWO GOVERNMENTS. HE EMPHASIZED THE NEED FOR PROGRESS IN THE FIVE AREAS CITED AND SAID THAT IN HIS OPINION THE JRG AND MOD WERE ALREADY COMMITTED TO ALL OF POINTS LISTED BUT THAT IN SOME OF THE AREAS PROGRESS WAS IMPERCEPTIBLE.

10. DUARTE RESPONDED BY SAYING THAT HE SAW A POLITICAL PROBLEM WITH THE FOURTH CONDITION, THAT ONE WHICH REQUIRES THAT THE HIGH COMMAND DEAL TOUGHLY WITH EXTREME RIGHT WING ELEMENTS INCLUDING THOSE IN THE MILITARY. HE SAID IT WAS OBVIOUS WHO THIS REFERRED TO -- THE D'AUBUISSON SOPT. HE WENT ON TO SAY THAT NO ACT OF EXTREMIST VIOLENCE, WHETHER OF THE RIGHT OR THE LEFT, SHOULD BE TOLERATED. HE SEEMED, THEN, TO AGREE WITH THE BASIS OF THE FOURTH POINT AND, APART FROM THE POLITICAL PROBLEM THAT HE SAW WITH THAT ONE, HE VOICED NO OBJECTIONS. (COMMENT: THIS WAS A DELIBERATE TACTIC ON DUARTE'S PART TO POINT UP THE PROBLEM OF RIGHT WING EXTREMIST IN THE MILITARY. END COMMENT.

11. JRG MEMBER MORALES EHRLICH ASKED WHETHER THE FIVE CONDITIONS WOULD BE LABELLED AS CONDITIONS WHEN THE PROPOSAL REACHED CONGRESS. IN RESPONSE THE AMBASSADOR INDICATED THAT THE JRG'S SUCCESSES IN THE FIVE AREAS WOULD BE EMPHASIZED OVER THE CONDITIONAL ASPECT OF THE AGREEMENT. WHAT WE WANT, HE SAID, IS TO HAVE A FACTUAL RESPONSE TO CRITICISM WHEN WE AGREE TO PROVIDE THE HELICOPTERS.

12. COL. MAJANO SPOKE UP SAYING THAT HE SAW DUARTE'S PREOCCUPATION AS CENTERING AROUND THE POLITICAL REPERCUSSIONS OF THE AGREEMENT. THAT PROBLEM COULD BE OBVIATED IF THIS WERE TO BE A PRIVATE, "GENTLEMEN'S AGREEMENT." LIKE MORALES EHRLICH, HOWEVER, HE WAS CONCERNED THAT THE PRESENTATION BEFORE CONGRESS WOULD CITE THE CONDITIONS AND ACKNOWLEDGE THAT THE GOES HAD ACCEDED TO THEM. ON [redacted]

THE WHOLE, HOWEVER, MAJANO WAS FAVORABLE TOWARD THE PROPOSAL, SAYING, IN EFFECT, THAT HE WAS IN AGREEMENT WITH THE GOALS AND MEASURES LISTED IN THE DOCUMENT.

13. DEFENSE MINISTER GARCIA HAD A DIFFERENT REACTION. HE CLAIMED THAT WHILE THE HUMAN RIGHTS GOALS IN THE U.S. DOCUMENT WERE GOOD ONES SALVADORAN "IDIOSYNCRACIES" WERE NOT BEING TAKEN INTO ACCOUNT. (BY "IDIOSYNCRACY" GARCIA MEANS THAT ALL ABUSES OF AUTHORITY BY THE MILITARY ARE HANDLED QUIETLY AND "IN HOUSE".) HE AGREED THAT THERE HAVE BEEN ABUSES BUT DIDN'T THINK IT A GOOD IDEA TO "PROCLAIM" THE FACT. HE SEEMED TO THINK THAT THERE WAS NO POINT IN IT. THOSE THAT LOOKED UPON THE JRG AS REPRESSIVE AND THE LEFT AS PROGRESSIVE, WHO CITED AS "CASUALTIES" THE ARMY'S DEAD BUT SAW THE DEAD ON THE LEFT AS "ASSASSINATED" WERE ALREADY CONVINCED AND THE U.S. PROPOSED MEASURES WOULD DO LITTLE TO CHANGE THAT.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

14. GARCIA PERSONALLY VOUCHED FOR THE EFFORTS THAT ARE BEING MADE BY THOSE PRESENT (I.E., THE JRG AND THE HIGH COMMAND) ON BEHALF OF HUMAN RIGHTS. HE CLAIMED THAT THE U.S. RECOMMENDATIONS ARE BEING CARRIED OUT. HOWEVER, IT WAS ONE THING TO CARRY OUT THESE THINGS VOLUNTARILY AND ANOTHER TO HAVE THEM ENFORCED BY ANOTHER COUNTRY. THE COUNTRY'S DIGNITY WAS OFFENDED AND WHILE THEY -- THE JRG AND HIGH COMMAND -- MIGHT BE ABLE TO OVERLOOK THE OFFENSE THE REST OF THE COUNTRY MIGHT NOT.

15. AT THIS POINT THE AMBASSADOR POINTED OUT THAT SOME PROGRESS HAS BEEN MADE IN HUMAN RIGHTS IN EL SALVADOR. HOWEVER, THE REALITY IS THAT MUCH MORE NEEDS TO BE DONE. CONCENTRATING THEIR EFFORTS ON THE FIVE AREAS MENTIONED WOULD DEMONSTRATE TO THE U.S. THAT THE GOVERNMENT WAS SERIOUS ABOUT BRINGING VIOLATIONS UNDER CONTROL, HE POINTED OUT THAT WHILE THE MILITARY IS ENTITLED TO ITS SPECIAL IDIOSYNCRACIES, PUTTING THE JRG INTO INTERNATIONAL DISREPUTE BY CONDONING ACTS OF VIOLENCE SEEMED EXTREME.

16. COL. GUTIERREZ CONTINUED THE CONVERSATION BY SAYING THAT THEY UNDERSTOOD THE MOTIVES FOR THE CONDITIONS. ALL OF THE PROPOSALS, HE SAID, "ARE THINGS WHICH WE SHOULD BE DOING". HE ESPECIALLY LIKED THE COMUSMILGP'S CODE OF CONDUCT, BUT GUTIERREZ WENT ON TO SAY THAT HE WOULD LIKE TO CONSULT WITH HIS OFFICER CORPS. THE RISK OF MISINFORMATION AND MISINTERPRETATION IS GREAT, HE SAID, AND SO BEFORE AGREEING TO THE PROPOSAL HE WOULD LIKE TO INFORM THEM AND ASK FOR THEIR REACTIONS.

17. GUTIERREZ ENDED BY SAYING THAT THEY (THE GOES) WOULD HAVE MUCH PREFERRED A "MORE FRANK ASSISTANCE" AND "A VOTE OF CONFIDENCE IN THEM BY THE U.S."

18. COL. VIDES CASANOVA ASKED WHY THE U.S. WAS SO INSISTENT ON DEALING TOUGHLY WITH THE RIGHT EXTREMISTS AND NOT WITH THOSE OF THE LEFT. HE INDICATED THAT SOME PEOPLE OF THE RIGHT HAVE DONE MORE TO RESOLVE THE COUNTRY'S PROBLEMS SINCE THE OCTOBER COUP THAN THOSE ON THE LEFT.

19. THE AMBASSADOR TOLD COL. VIDES THAT THERE WAS A MISUNDERSTANDING. LIBERTY OF EXPRESSION IS NOT AT ISSUE; PEOPLE SHOULD HAVE THE RIGHT TO THINK IN ANY WAY THEY CHOOSE AND TO ACT WITHIN THE LAW. WHAT THEY DO NOT HAVE A RIGHT TO DO IS TO COMMIT ACTS OF TERRORIST VIOLENCE. FOR EXAMPLE, HE ASKED WHEN THE LAST TIME WAS THAT AN ORDEN MILITANT WAS PUNISHED. NO ONE CAME UP WITH AN ANSWER.

20. DUARTE THEN USED THE OCCASION TO DO SOME STRAIGHT TALKING TO THE MILITARY. HE SAID THAT WHAT WAS UNDER [redacted]

DISCUSSION WERE THOSE INDIVIDUALS WHO ARE PART OF THE MILITARY AND WHO ARE COMMITTING TERRORIST ACTS. HE THOUGHT THAT IT WAS UNDERSTOOD BY THE HIGH COMMAND THAT THEY SHOULD PUT A STOP TO THESE UNJUST, VIOLENT ACTS.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights

21. DUARTE WENT ON TO MAKE FOUR POINTS. HE SAID COL. GUTIERREZ' IDEA OF CONSULTING THE OFFICERS WAS A GOOD ONE. THAT DISCUSSIONS WERE NECESSARY TO DEVELOP THE MEANS TO MAKE THE "POINTS" -- THE U.S. CONDITIONS -- REALIZABLE. HE SUGGESTED A PUBLIC ACT IN EL SALVADOR WITH A U.S. GENERAL PRESENT TO ANNOUNCE THE AGREEMENT. FINALLY, HE SAID THAT HE STILL SAW A DANGER IN THE INTERPRETATION OF THE AGREEMENT. HE SAID THAT THIS CONDITIONAL ASSISTANCE, WITH ITS SUGGESTION OF U.S. INTERFERENCE IN THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF ANOTHER COUNTRY, COULD BE NEGATIVE FOR BOTH THE U.S. AND EL SALVADOR.

2. DUARTE SUMMARIZED. TWO THINGS WERE NECESSARY: MEASURES TO PUT THE PROPOSALS INTO PRACTICE AND MEASURES TO DEAL WITH THE POLITICAL PROBLEMS FACED BY BOTH GOVERNMENTS.

23. COL. MAJANO POINTED OUT THAT IN OCTOBER 1979 THE MILITARY HAD PUBLICLY STATED THAT THERE WERE FAULTS IN ITS OWN INSTITUTION. MAJANO WAS IN EFFECT RESPONDING TO MOD GARCIA AND TO THE NEED TO REFORM THE MILITARY AS STATED IN THE OCTOBER 15 REVOLUTION. ANY MEMBER OF THE ARMED FORCES WHO HAS UNAUTHORIZED DEALINGS WITH EXTREMIST GROUPS OF EITHER THE RIGHT OR LEFT SHOULD BE DISCIPLINED, SAID MAJANO. THE PROBLEM IS ONE OF BALANCE ("EQUILIBRIO").

24. MAJANO MADE A SECOND POINT. EVERYTHING PRESENTED HE VIEWED AS "CORRECT" BUT HE NOTED THAT THE PUBLIC PRESENTATION COULD BE A PROBLEM. HE VIEWED THE CRUCIAL QUESTION AS HOW TO SOLVE WASHINGTON'S PROBLEMS WHILE AT THE SAME TIME NOT GIVING THE APPEARANCE THAT EL SALVADOR SUCCUMBED TO A POLITICAL SET OF CONDITIONS.

25. AIR FORCE COL. BUSTILLOS REFLECTED ON THE OFFER AND COMPARED IT WITH A PREVIOUS U.S. OFFER OF 5.7 MILLION DOLLARS OF MILITARY ASSISTANCE. THE INTERNATIONAL REACTION, HE SAID, WAS VERY BAD. THE REACTION TO THE HELICOPTER AGREEMENT WOJULD BE AS BAD OR WORSE AND WOULD PROVOKE INCREASED ASSISTANCE TO THE LEFT FROM CUBA OR THE SOVIET UNION. IMPLICIT IN BUSTILLO STATEMENT WAS THE VIEW THAT THE U.S. WAS GIVING LITTLE AND DEMANDING A LOT.

28. DUARTE ENDED THE MEETING BY SAYING THAT BUSTILLOS' THESIS WAS VALID BUT THAT IT WAS LESS IMPORTANT NOW THAN IT WAS TWO OR THREE MONTHS AGO. IN THE INTERIM THE JRG AND THE ARMED FORCES HAVE GAINED THE BACKING OF THE PEOPLE. WHATEVER AID THE LEFT RECEIVES WILL BE OF LITTLE USE TO THEM AS THEY HAVE LOST THE PEOPLE'S SUPPORT.

27. DUARTE CONTINUED BY SAYING THAT THE PROBLEM THAT THE U.S. SEES IS THAT THE PROCESS OF DEMOCRATIZATION AND PROGRAM OF REFORMS WILL STOP SHORT OF ITS GOALS. HE SYMPATHIZED WITH THE U.S. CONCERN. HE THOUGHT THAT TO ENSURE THAT THOSE GOALS ARE REALIZED THE MILITARY SHOULD REDEDICATE ITSELF TO THE POLITICAL DEFINITION OF OCTOBER 1979. HE SAID THAT POLITICAL CONSCIENCE MUST BE DEVELOPED THROUGHOUT THE ARMED FORCES. THE HIGH COMMAND MAY SEE THINGS CLEARLY BUT CLEAR SIGNALS MUST BE SENT TO ALL ELEMENTS OF THE MILITARY.

28. COMMENT: WHILE WE DID EVERYTHING WE COULD TO SOFTEN THE PRESENTATION, THERE WAS NO WAY TO DISGUISE THAT THE DEAL CONSISTED OF HELICOPTERS IN EXCHANGE FOR A MEASURABLY IMPROVED PERFORMANCE IN DETERMINED AREAS OVER A FIXED TIME SPAN. DUARTE HAS NO REAL OBJECTION TO THIS AND IN FACT ASSURED ME LATER THAT THE WHOLE PROBLEM WOULD BE WORKED OUT SATISFACTORILY. DUARTE LED OFF AS HE DID IN ORDER TO PRECLUDE A STRONGER REACTION FROM THE CONSERVATIVE MEMBERS OF THE HIGH COMMAND.

29. THE REAL DANGER HERE IS THAT AS THE MILITARY DISCUSS OUR PROPOSAL THE WHOLE MATTER WILL BECOME PUBLIC AND INTERPRETED IN SUCH A WAY THAT IT WILL APPEAR THAT THE UNITED STATES IS IMPOSING CONDITIONS AND AFFRONTING THE SOVEREIGNTY OF EL SALVADOR. ON THE OTHER HAND, AT THIS POINT JUST ABOUT ANY MEETING ON ANY SUBJECT THAT INVOLVES THE ENTIRE MILITARY WILL PROBABLY BENEFIT OUR OVERALL POLICY. IT IS PAST TIME THAT PROGRESSIVE AND CONSERVATIVE OFFICERS MET ON A SUBJECT THAT DOES NOT HAVE DIRECTLY TO DO WITH CAUSES OF INTERNAL DISSENSION AND WILL PROVIDE THE OPPORTUNITY FOR A FULL AIRING OF VIEWS. TAGS: PINT, GT

SUBJECT: (U) VICE PRESIDENT QUITS

1. (C) SUMMARY. VICE PRESIDENT FRANCISCO VILLAGRAN KRAMER FINALLY MADE GOOD ON REPEATED THREATS TO RESIGN. HIS SEPTEMBER 1 RESIGNATION STATEMENT IS A SOBERLY COUCHED BUT NONETHELESS BITING LITANY OF DISILLUSIONMENT WITH THE REPRESSIVE COURSE OF THE LUCAS GOVERNMENT. WE EXPECT LITTLE DOMESTIC IMPACT FROM A DECISION LONG-RUMORED AND HENCE DISCOUNTED; INTERNATIONAL REPERCUSSIONS COULD BE MORE IMPORTANT. THE CONSTITUTION EMPOWERS THE CONGRESS JOINTLY WITH THE COUNCIL OF STATE TO ELECT A SUCCESSOR. PRESUMABLY THAT PERSON WILL BE SOMEONE MORE COMPATIBLE WITH THE PRESIDENT. AFTER 26 MONTHS, THE, THE CURTAIN FALLS ON "THE ODD COUPLE." END SUMMARY.

2. (U) THE RESIGNATION CAME IN THE FORM OF A LETTER [redacted]

THE COUNTRY. DESIGNATION OF SUCCESSOR FALLS TO THE CONGRESS AND THE COUNCIL OF STATE VOTING TOGETHER, PRESUMABLY ON THE PRESIDENT'S CHOICE. THE CONSTITUTION PROVIDES NO TIME LIMIT FOR THIS PROCESS. VILLAGRAN WAS THE THIRD PUBLICLY DISAFFECTED VICE PRESIDENT IN THE LAST FOUR TERMS, BUT THE FIRST TO RESIGN.

3. (U) VILLAGRAN'S RESIGNATION MESSAGES WERE RELATIVELY MUTED COMPARED TO THE OFTEN SARCASTIC SWIPES AT GOVERNMENT POLICY HE EMPLOYED SINCE TAKING OFFICE TWENTY-SIX MONTHS AGO. THEY FALL SHORT OF A DIRECT, PERSONAL ATTACK ON LUCAS. THE MEDIA PUBLISHED THEM IN THEIR ENTIRETY. HIS SHORT MESSAGE TO LUCAS ALLUDES TO "VIRTUAL IMPOSSIBILITY" OF A DIALOGUE WITH HIM. IT EXHORTS PRESIDENT TO RETURN TO ORIGINAL ELECTORAL PROGRAM OF THE FRENTE AMPLIO IN ORDER TO RESTORE DOMESTIC PEACE.

4. (U) THE LONGER MESSAGE TO CONGRESS TAKES THE REGIME TO TASK FOR ABANDONING ITS "CENTER-LEFT" COMMITMENT AND YIELDING TO THE "PREPONDERANCE OF THE MOST RADICAL RIGHTWING SECTORS." THUS, ASSASSINATIONS CLOSED OFF THE PROMISED POLITICAL OPENING; PERSECUTION AND KILLIING OF UNION LEADERS AND "NO FEW" BUSINESSMEN DEALT HEAVY BLOW TO TRADE UNION DEVELOPMENT AND COLLECTIVE BARGAINING; HARASSMENT OF INDIANS IMPEDES SOCIAL INTEGRATION; LACK OF A "GLOBAL AND NATIONALIST" VISION COMPROMISES THE NATION'S ECONOMIC HERITAGE; SAN CARLOS UNIVERSITY IS UNDER SIEGE BY THOSE WHO WANT EDUCATION IDEOLOGICALLY IDENTIFIED WITH THE REGIME. THE COUNTRY, VILLAGRAN

ASSERTED, DEMANDS NATIONAL HARMONY, FREE IDEOLOGICAL PLAY AND RESPECT FOR BASIC RIGHTS, NO BARRICADES AND TRENCHES. "DISAGREEMENTS WITH THE PRESIDENT AND THE ABSENCE OF INSTITUTIONAL FORUMS FOR DEBATING(THESE)SERIOUS NATIONAL PROBLEMS". MADE NECESSARY HIS IRREVOCABLE RESIGNATION, THE MESSAGE CONCLUDED.

5. (C) COMMENT. THE MAVERICK VILLAGRAN CRIED "WOLF" TOO OFTEN NOT TO DISSIPATE AND CAUSE TO BE DISCOUNTED THE IMPACT OF HIS RESIGNATION WHEN IT FINALLY CAME. DOMESTICALLY IT IS A MANAGEABLE EMBARRASSMENT. MANY REGIME SUPPORTERS SHARE THE "GOOD RIDDANCE" SENTIMENT THROWN AT VILLAGRAN BY THE MLN SPOKESMAN WHEN HE HEARD THE NEWS.

UNCLASSIFIED

AS WE HAVE SAID OFTEN, VILLAGRAN, ALTHOUGH ONE OF THE MOST INTELLECTUALLY GIFTED INDIVIDUALS IN THE LUCAS GOVERNMENT, HAD LITTLE LOCAL CONSTITUENCY. EVEN THE LEFTWING FUR CHIDED HIM PUBLICLY FOR SKIPPING OUT.

6. (C) WE SPEAK WITH LESS ASSURANCE ABOUT THE EVENT'S INTERNATIONAL IMPACT. PERSONS AND SECTORS WITH SUPERFICIAL ACQUAINTANCE WITH GUATEMALA COULD ATTACHE HEAVY SYMBOLIC IMPORTANCE TO VILLAGRAN'S DECISION; AND VILLAGRAN'S INTERNATIONAL FRIENDS, MANY IN HIGH PLACES, COULD WELL RALLY ROUND IN WAYS WHICH FURTHER DISCREDIT OR PUT PRESSURE ON THE LUCAS GOVERNMENT.

7. (C) ACCORDING TO HIS CHIEF AIDE, EDGAR PONCE, WHO PERSONALLY DELIVERED THE RESIGNATION MESSAGE SEPTEMBER 1, VILLAGRAN HAS NO CURRENT PLANS TO ALLY HIMSELF WITH THE LARGELY EXILE DEMOCRATIC FRONT AGAINST REPRESSION (FDCR). PONCE TELLS US VILLAGRAN AND HIS WIFE HAVE NO SPECIFIC PLANS YET FOR THE FUTURE - - THAT THEY HOPE TO REMAIN IN THE UNITED STATES FOR THE TIME BEING AND LIVE OFF INVESTMENT INCOME. PONCE HIMSELF IS IN SEMI-HIDING ON THE CHANCE THERE MIGHT BE SOME REPRISAL AGAINST HIMSELF AS MESSENGER. WE CONSIDER THIS UNLIKELY.

8. (C) AS VILLAGRAN DISCOVERED, THE POST ITSELF HAS LITTLE CONTENT. AGAINST THE REMOTE POSSIBILITY OF "CONSTITUTIONAL COUP" INTRIGUES IN THE REMAINING TWO YEARS OF HIS ADMINISTRATION, WE EXPECT LUCAS TO LOOK FOR A SUCCESSOR COMBINING LOYALTY AND ABSENCE OF POLITICAL AMBITION. TIMMINS

1. [redacted] ENTIRE TEXT

2. SUMMARY. AN ACTIVE TERRORIST HAS TURNED UP IN CUSTODY RATHER THAN REMAINING DISAPPEARED. THIS DEVELOPMENT IS MOST UNUSUAL AND SEEMINGLY FOLLOWS THE INTERVENTION OF PRESIDENT VIDELA AFTER A DEMARCHE ON THE CASE BY THE EMBASSY. IT IS TOO EARLY TO TELL, HOWEVER, WHETHER THIS DEVELOPMENT REFLECTS A CHANGE IN THE WAY THE GOA WILL DEAL WITH ACTIVE TERRORISTS. IT IS, NEVERTHELESS, A PRECEDENT ON WHICH WE WILL SEEK TO BUILD. END SUMMARY.

3. ON AUGUST 28 THE EMBASSY WAS INFORMED OF THE DISAPPEARANCE OF AIXSA EDITH BONA, A 28-YEAR OLD ARGENTINE CITIZEN. ACCORDING TO OUR INFORMANT, A DISTANT RELATIVE OF BONA, BONA'S MOTHER-IN-LAW HAD BEEN CALLED TO A LOCAL POLICE PRECINCT IN BUENOS AIRES AUGUST 27 TO PICK UP BONA'S SMALL DAUGHTER. THE MOTHER-IN-LAW WAS TOLD BY THE POLICE THAT THE CHILD WAS BEING TURNED OVER TO HER AT BONA'S SPECIFIC REQUEST. OUR INFORMANT SAID THAT BONA'S MOTHER-IN-LAW WAS UNABLE TO LEARN ANYTHING FROM THE POLICE ABOUT BONA'S WHEREABOUTS AND THE FAMILY FEARED THAT SHE WAS DISAPPEARED. OUR INFORMANT ALSO STATED, MISTAKENLY AS IT TURNED OUT, THAT SHE UNDERSTOOD THAT BONA'S HUSBAND WAS
[redacted]

LIVING IN MEXICO WHERE THE COUPLE HAD RESIDED FOR SOME TIME BEFORE BONA'S RETURN TO ARGENTINA.

4. THOUGH THE INFORMATION WAS LIMITED WE BELIEVED IT WAS SUFFICIENT EVIDENCE OF A POSSIBLE DISAPPEARANCE. THEREFORE AN EMBASSY OFFICER RAISED THE MATTER IMMEDIATELY WITH A SENIOR MEMBER OF PRESIDENT VIDELA'S STAFF ON AUGUST 28. THE EMBOFF NOTED THAT IF IT WAS A DISAPPEARANCE, WE HAD TO BE CONCERNED FOR HUMANITARIAN REASONS AND FOR THE EFFECT OF SUCH PRACTICES ON U.S.-ARGENTINE RELATIONS. THE EMBOFF ALSO OBSERVED THAT CONTINUED USE OF DISAPPEARANCE AS AN ANTI-TERRORIST TECHNIQUE IN EFFECT GAVE TO THE TERRORISTS A WHIP HAND IN U.S.-ARGENTINE RELATIONS. SO LONG AS MONTONEROS WERE WILLING TO UNDERTAKE SUICIDAL MISSIONS TO ARGENTINA AND THE SECURITY FORCES CONTINUED TO DESAPPEAR THEM, THE USG WOULD FACE SERIOUS DIFFICULTIES IN REBUILDING ITS RELATIONSHIP WITH ARGENTINA.

5. THE ARGENTINE INTERLOCUTOR TOOK NOTE OF THE SPECIFICS OF THE CASE. HE ALSO MADE IT CLEAR THAT HE UNDERSTOOD THE BROADER ISSUE OF DISAPPEARANCE IN U.S.- ARGENTINE RELATIONS. HE SAID THAT HE PLANNED TO RAISE THE ISSUE IMMEDIATELY WITH GENERAL CRESPI, PRESIDENT VIDELA'S CHIEF OF STAFF. WITHIN HOURS, THE ARGENTINE CALLED THE EMBOFF AT HOME TO INFORM HIM THAT ON THE INSTRUCTIONS OF PRESIDENT VIDELA, AS ISSUED BY GENERAL CRESPI, ARMY COMMANDER IN CHIEF GALTIERI WAS PERSONALLY TASKED WITH LOOKING INTO THIS MATTER.

6. FOLLOWING THIS EXCHANGE, BONA'S RELATIVE INFORMED THE EMBASSY THAT BONA'S "HUSBAND," MARTIN HERVASIO GUADEX, WAS ALSO MISSING IN ARGENTINA. OUR INFORMANT SAID THAT HER EARLIER INFORMATION THAT GUADEX HAD BEEN LIVING IN MEXICO WAS MISTAKEN. THIS REPORT WAS IMMEDIATELY PASSED ON TO THE GOA.

[redacted]

[redacted]

7. ON SEPTEMBER 3 THE GOA INFORMED US THAT BONA WAS IN CUSTODY CHARGED WITH BEING AN ACTIVE MEMBER OF THE MONTONEROS. ACCORDING TO THE INFORMATION GOA PROVIDED, BONA HAD BEEN ARRESTED ON AUGUST 27 AND WAS "SUBSEQUENTLY" PLACED BEFORE A CIVILIAN JUDGE. THE GOA ALLEGES THAT SHE HAD BEGUN HER ASSOCIATION WITH THE MONTONEROS IN 1977, HAD RECEIVED TRAINING IN MEXICO IN 1978 AND HAD RETURNED CLANDESTINELY TO ARGENTINA IN 1979 ALONG WITH HER COMMON LAW HUSBAND. WHEN ARRESTED SHE WAS REPORTEDLY IN POSSESSION OF CODES, LIGHT ARMS, A GRENADE LAUNCHER, MUNITIONS AND AN OFFSET PRINTING PRESS.

8. GOA ALSO DENIED TO US THAT IT ALSO ARRESTED GUADEX WHO THEY ALLEGE IS A FUGITIVE.

9. BONA'S SISTER CALLED ON THE EMBASSY SEPTEMBER 7. SHE VOLUNTEERED THAT BOTH HER SISTER AND GUADEX HAD BEEN MEMBERS OF THE MONTONEROS OPERATING CLANDESTINELY IN THE COUNTRY. SHE SAID THAT HER FAMILY HAD LITTLE DIRECT CONTACT WITH THEM. THE FAMILY HAS NOT YET BEEN ABLE TO SPEAK DIRECTLY WITH BONA SO SHE WAS UNABLE TO SAY WHETHER GUADEX HAD BEEN ARRESTED AT THE SAME TIME AS HER SISTER.

10. COMMENT: WITH ONE EXCEPTION, WE KNOW OF NO OTHER CASE IN WHICH AN ACTIVE MONTONERO TERRORIST SUCH AS BONA HAS TURNED UP ALIVE AND IN CUSTODY IN THE LAST YEAR. THE SINGLE EXCEPTION WAS THE DISAPPEARANCE OF A COUPLE AND THEIR CHILDREN DURING LAST YEAR'S VISIT OF THE IAHRC. FOLLOWING TREMENDOUS PUBLICITY THAT FOCUSED ON THIS DEISPPEARANCE, THE WIFE APPEARED IN CUSTODY AND RECEIVED A LONG JAIL SENTENCE.

11. IT IS PROBABLE THAT THE EMBASSY'S INTERVENTION IN THIS CASE MOVED GOA IN POSITIVE DIRECTION.
BONA'S REAPPEARANCE COULD MARK ANOTHER STEP TOWARDS THE RULE OF LAW AND AWAY FROM THE USE OF SUMMARY EXECUTIONS BY THE SECURITY FORCES IN THEIR OPERATIONS AGAINST TERRORISTS. BUT THIS HOPE IS FAR FROM ESTABLISHED, PARTICULARY GIVE THE UNCERTAINTY
[redacted]
[redacted]

CONCERNING GUADEX'S WHEREABOUTS. FOLLOWING RECEIPT OF OFFICIAL INFORMATION ON BONA, THE EMBASSY OFFICER INVOLVED IN THIS CASE ASKED HIS INTERLOCUTOR ON THE PRESIDENT'S STAFF IF BONA'S REAPPEARANCE REPRESENTED A DEFINITIVE CHANGE IN POLICY. THE ARTENTINE REPLIED THAT HE HOPED SO. HOWEVER, IT WAS CLEAR THAT THE ARGENTINE WAS UNABLE TO GUARANTEE THAT THE TACTIC OF DISAPPEARANCE HAS NOW BEEN LEFT BEHIND. NEVERTHELESS, THE EMBASSY WILL SEEK TO BUILD UPON THIS CASE TO ENCOURAGE THE GOA TO FOLLOW THE RULE OF LAW IN THE FUTURE.

1. [redacted] SUMMARY. DISAPPEARANCE AND REAPPEARANCE. BUENOS AIRES HERALD EDITOR THREATENED AGAIN. PRISON CONDITIONS STILL CONTROVERSIAL. NEW EFFORTS TO CLEAR UP DISAPPEARANCES. LOCAL CENSORSHIP. CONFUSING DEVELOPMENT IN LIMA DISAPPEARANCES. UNIONISTS JAILED. END SUMMARY.

2. [redacted] DISAPPEARANCES. AIXSA EDITH BONA, A MONTONERO LIVING CLANDESTINELY IN ARGENTINA, WAS ARRESTED AND SEEMINGLY DISAPPEARED

THE WEEK OF AUGUST 25, ONLY TO TURN UP AS AN ACKNOWLEDGED PRISONER OF THE GOVERNMENT SEPTEMBER 3. BONA'S COMMON LAW HUSBAND, MARTIN HERVACIO GUADEX, WHO WAS LIVING CLANDESTINELY IN THE COUNTRY, CANNOT BE LOCATED BY HIS FAMILY WHO BELIEVE HIM TO BE DISAPPEARED. ACCORDING TO THE FAMILY, HIS WIFE'S FIRST DEPOSITION BEFORE THE JUDGE, SEPTEMBER 4, INCLUDED THE STATEMENT THAT SHE AND HER HUSBAND WERE TAKEN AT THE SAME TIME. THE GOVERNMENT TELLS US PRIVATELY THAT HE IS A FUGITIVE.

3. [redacted] COMMENT: BONA'S SURFACING IN CUSTODY IS A VERY UNUSUAL DENOUEMENT FOR A MONTONERO -- BOTH HER FAMILY AND THE GOVERNMENT AGREE THAT SHE WAS, LIKE HER HUSBAND, A MONTONERO ACTIVIST WHO RETURNED CLANDESTINELY WITH HER SPOUSE FROM MEXICO. ACCORDING TO THE GOVERNMENT, AT THE TIME SHE WAS ARRESTED SHE WAS IN POSSESSION OF LIGHT ARMS, A GRENADE LAUNCHER AND GRENADES, AND AN OFFSET PRINTING PRESS. IT IS STILL TOO EARLY TO TELL WHETHER BONA'A APPEARANCE IN CUSTODY REPRESENTS A TURN AWAY FROM THE PRACTICE OF DISAPPEARANCE TOWARDS THE RULE OF LOW OR OBEYS SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES, PARTICULARLY SINCE THE INFORMATION ON GUADEX IS DISQUIETING. NEVERTHELESS, THE REAPPEARANCE OF BONA IS A POSITIVE DEVELOPMENT. WE SHALL SEEK TO ENCOURAGE THE GOA TO MAKE IT A PRECEDENT RATHER THAN AN EXCEPTION.

4. (U) BUENOS AIRES HERALD EDITOR THREATENED AGAIN: JAMES NEILSON, BRITISH CITIZEN EDITOR OF THE AMERICAN-OWNED BUENOS AIRES HERALD, RECEIVED TWO THREATENTING PHONE CALLS SEPTEMBER 3 AND 4, IN WHAT APPEARS TO BE A NEW PRESSURE CAMPAIGN AGAINST HIM AND THE PAPER. THE FIRST CALLER STATED THAT NEILSON HAD NOT BEEN FORGOTTEN AND THE SECOND SAID THAT IF HE IS NOT OUT OF THE COUNTRY BY SEPTEMBER 10 "YOU WILL DIE," ACCORDING TO THE HERALD'S REPORT OF THESE THREATS. [redacted]

5. [redacted] COMMENT: THE THREATS TO NEILSON HAVE NOT CAUSED HIM TO CHANGE HIS EDITORIAL POLICY WHICH SEEMS PROFOUNDLY DISTURBING TO SOME GROUPS HERE. NEILSON'S COMMENTARIES ON SUCH SUBJECTS AS ANTI-SEMITISM AND THE POLITICAL PROCESS HERE ARE WRITTEN FROM THE POINT OF VIEW OF A SUPPORTIVE CRITIC OF THE GOVERNMENT. BUT TOLERANCE FOR SUCH CRITICISM -- ESPECIALLY BY A FOREIGNER -- DOES NOT FLOURISH IN SOME SECTORS HERE, INCLUDING THE FAR RIGHT WHERE IT SEEMS PROBABLE THESE THREATS ORIGINATE. IN OUR VIEW, TOO, NEILSON IS PROBABLY A TARGET OF OPPORTUNITY FOR RIGHTISTS WHO OPPOSE THE RELATIVELY MODERATIVE LINE IMPOSED BY PRESIDENT VIEDLA AND EX-ARMY COMMANDER VIOLA, STILL THE FRONTRUNNER IN THIS MONTH'S SELECTION OF VIDELA'S SUCCESSOR. THE GOVERNMENT PROMISED TO PROTECT NEILSON FROM THOSE WHO MIGHT DO HIM HARM WHEN THESE THREATS

STARTED LAST MONTH. THE EMBASSY WILL AGAIN APPROACH THE GOA TO SEEK RENEWALS OF THESE PROMISES.

ASSEMBLY FOR HUMAN RIGHTS (PAHR) SENT A LETTER TO MINISTER OF JUSTICE ALBERTO RODRIGUEZ VARELA CLAIMING "INHUMAN CONDITIONS" UNDER WHICH PRISONERS JAILED FOR SUBVERSION AND TERRORISM ARE HELD. THE PAHR CALLED FOR AN INVESTIGATION OF THESE CONDITIONS, POINTING TO FIVE SUICIDES OF DETAINEES IN THE PAST YEAR. THE PAHR POINTED PARTICULARLY TO THE CONDITION OF PRISONERS WHO ALLEGEDLY ARE "PUNISHED PHYSICALLY AND MORALLY FOR INSIGNIFICANT ACTS BY BEING PLACED IN SPECIAL CELLS FOR SIMPLY NOT LOOKING AT THE GROUND WHEN A GUARD PASSES OR HAVING A BUTTON UNDONE." COINCIDENTALLY, ON SEPTEMBER 3 THE JUDGE INVESTIGATING THE SUICIDE OF ONE PRISONER, RAFAEL FRANCISCO BENEDETTI, JULY 19 IN RAWSON PRISON, RELEASED HIS FINDINGS. IN SUM, THE JUDGE STATED THAT BENEDETTI'S SUICIDE WAS THE RESULT OF PSYCHOLOGICAL DEPRESSION. SEVEN WEEKS BEFORE HE KILLED HIMSELF BENEDETTI HAD BEEN SENTENCED TO 23 YEARS IN PRISON FOR ROBBERY, AND MURDER AS A MEMBER OF A TERRORIST

[redacted]

[redacted]

GROUP. BENEDETTI HAD ALREADY SERVED SIX YEARS UNDER PEN.

7. [redacted] COMMENT: WE ARE TOLD THAT PHYSICAL CONDITIONS AND ACCESS TO EXERCISE AND LITERATURE IN THE PRISONS HAVE IMPROVED SOMEWHAT FOLLOWING LAST MAY'S PRESIDENTIAL DECREE ON THE SUBJECT. ARBITRARY USE OF AUTHORITY APPARENTLY CONTINUES TO BE A PROBLEM, HOWEVER. BUT THIS DOES NOT APPEAR TO BE PART OF A GOVERNMENT POLICY, TENSIONS BETWEEN GUARDS AND PRISONERS WHOM THE GUARDS REGARD AS DANGEROUS SUBVERSIVES, VINDICTIVENESS BY PRISON SUPERVISORS AND INDIVIDUAL SADISTIC TENDENCIES MAY ALL PLAY A ROLE. THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD DO MORE TO CURB THESE FACTORS, BUT IT IS AN OPEN QUESTION WHETHER IT HAS THE MEANS, OR PERHAPS EVEN THE WILL, TO DO SO. THE GROWING REALIZATION ON THE PART OF SOME PRISONERS THAT FREEDOM FOR THEM IS A VERY LONG WAY AWAY UNDOUBTEDLY ALSO TAKES A TOLL ON THEIR MORALE.

8. (U) COURT ORDERS INVESTIGATION OF HIDALGO SOLA'S DISAPPEARANCE: THE SUPREME COURT, REVERSING A LOWER COURT, ORDERED AN INVESTIGATION INTOTHE DISAPPEARANCE OF HECTOR HIDALGO SOLA. HIDALGO SOLA WAS THE GOA AMBASSADOR TO VENEZUELA AND WAS VISITING BUENOS AIRES WHEN, ON JULY 18, 1977 HE WAS SEIZED ON A MAIN STREET OF BUENOS AIRES BY A GROUP OF ARMED MEN. HE NEVER WAS SEEN AGAIN. AT THE TIME OF HIS DISAPPEARANCE IT WAS WIDELY BELIEVED THAT HE WAS TAKEN AS PART OF AN INTERNAL STRUGGLE WITHIN THE SECURITY FORCES AND THE CULPRITS WERE A GROUP WHICH WANTED TO SEND A MESSAGE TO PRESIDENT VIDELA. THE LOWER COURT HAD ACCEPTED SIMPLE STATEMENTS BY THE SECURITY SERVICES THAT THEY HAD NO INFORMATION ON HIDALGO SOLA'S WHEREABOUTS OR FATE. THE SUPREME COURT, REPEATING A DOCTRINE IT ESTABLISHED MOST CLEARLY IN THE MACHADO CASE (BUENOS AIRES 6398), STATED THAT UNDER HABEAS CORPUS PROCEDURES THE COURTS HAVE A RESPONSIBILITY TO SEEK TO CLARIFY THE CIRCUMSTANCES SURROUNDING SUCH A DISAPPEARANCE. IT IS NOW UP THE LOWER COURT TO INVESTIGATE WHAT HAPPENED.

[redacted]

9. [redacted] COMMENT: THOUGH HIDALGO SOLA WAS SEIZED BEFORE MANY WITNESSES THERE IS LITTLE INFORMATION AVAILABLE AS TO HIS SUBSEQUENT FATE. IN SHORT, THE TRAIL FOR THE COURT TO FOLLOW IS NOT ONLY COLD IT IS HARDLY VISIBLE. SO, IT IS DIFFICULT TO KNOW WHAT

THE NEXT STEPS WILL BE. ON THE OTHER HAND, A PETITION WAS PRESENTED TO A COURT TO LOOK INTO THE FATE OF 15 PERSONS WHO DISAPPEARED BETWEEN JULY 18 AND AUGUST 17, 1978. THE PETITION BY A GROUP OF LAWYERS AND RELATIVES OF THE DISAPPEARED PERSONS, STATES THAT THE MISSING INDIVIDUALS WERE SEEN IN CUSTODY BY EIGHT WITNESSES WHO HAVE PRESENTED TESTIMONY TO THAT EFFECT. THE WITNESSES, FORMER INMATES OF THE CAMP WHERE THE FIFTEEN WERE HELD, PRESENTLY RESIDE IN FRANCE AND THE PETITION ASKS THAT THEIR DEPOSITIONS BE TAKEN THERE.

DISTRIBUTION OF A MASS CIRCULATION WEEKLY MAGAZINE. THE MUNICIPALITY USED ITS POWER TO HOLD UP DISTRIBUTION FOR UP TO 48 HOURS TO EXAMINE THE CONTENT OF A PUBLICATION. ON SEPTEMBER 2 THE AUTHORITIES HALTED THE DISTRIBUTION OF "SIETE DIAS," WHICH HAD A SIMILAR PROBLEM IN JULY, ONLY TO ALLOW IT TO GO AHEAD ON SEPTEMBER 3. THEN ON SEPTEMBER 4 THEY REPEATED THE OPERATION AGAINST THE MAGAZINE "RADIOLANDIA," WHICH LIKE "SIETE DIAS" MIXES REPORTAGE WITH PICTURES,

MANY OF THEM OF SHAPELY WOMEN IN BATHING SUITS. THE SAME COMPANY PUBLISHES BOTH MAGAZINES.

11. [redacted] THE MUNICIPALITY GAVE NO CONCRETE REASON FOR HOLDING UP "SIETE DIAS." REPORTEDLY IT HAD TO DO WITH THE MAGAZINE' COVER PHOTO -- WHICH WAS OF A YOUNG WOMAN WEARING A VERY FULL BIKINI. ARGENTINE MAGAZINES, WHILE SHYING AWAY FROM EVEN PARTIAL NUDITY, HAVE LONG PRINTED SEXIER SHOTS THAN THAT ONE. OTHERS SPECULATE [redacted]

[redacted]

THAT BUENOS AIRES MAYOR CACCIATORE IS STILL ANGRY AT A CRITICAL PIECE ON HIS ADMINISTRATION THAT "SIETE DIAS" RAN SEVERAL MONTHS AGO AND IS SEEKING REVENGE. THE POSSIBILITY THAT THE MAGAZINE'S POLITICAL COZENT IS ANNOYING THE LOCAL AUTHORITIES IS GENERALLY DISCOUNTED.

12. (U) LIMA DISAPPEARANCES. THE CASE OF THE 3 ARGENTINES WHO DISAPPEARED IN LIMA IN JUNE CONTINUED IN THE NWS IN BUENOS AIRES. IN ONE OF THE LATEST TWISTS THE LOCAL PRESS REPORTS THAT FINGERPRINTS FOUND IN THE MADRID APARTMENT WHERE THE BODY OF NAOMI ESTHER GIANETTI DE FOLFINO WAS DISCOVERED BELONGED TO JULIO CESAR RAMIREZ AND LUIS ESTEBAN ALMIRON, ACCORDING TO THE MADRID POLICE. RAMIREZ AND ALMIRON, THE PRESS REPORTS, WERE AMONG THE ARGENTINES DEPORTED FROM LIMA ALONG WITH MOLFINO.

13. [redacted] COMMENT: THE ARGENTINE PRESS HAD PLAYED THE ALLEGED DISCOVERY OF THE FINGERPRINTS AS CONCLUSIVE EVIDENCE THAT THE GOA WAS UNINVOLVED IN THE DISAPPEARANCE OF THE ARGENTINES FROM LIMA. IN FACT, HOWEVER, THE TALE IS SOMEWHAT MORE CONFUSING. JULIO CESAR RAMIREZ USED THE ALIAS OF LUIS ESTEBAN ALMIRON, ACCORDING TO PUBLIC DECLARATIONS BY THE PERUVIAN GOVERNMENT AND THE ARGENTINE ARMY. THEREFORE, IT IS HARD TO UNDERSTAND HOW TWO DISTINCT SETS OF FINGERPRINTS COULD BE ATTRIBUTED TO RAMIREZ/ALMIRON. THE PLOT THICKENS.

14. (U) UNIONISTS JAILED. THREE MEMBERS OF A LOCAL UNION WERE JAILED IN SAN LUIS PROVINCE AUGUST 29. THEY WERE ACCUSED OF VIOLATING A NATIONAL SECURITY LAW. ACCORDING TO THEIR LAWYER, THE CHARGES ORIGINATED IN THE DETAINEES' ORGANIZATION OF A CONFEDERATION OF LABOR UNIONS AT THE PROVINCIAL LEVEL.

Honorable Warren G. Magnuson
127 Russell Senate Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Magnuson:

I have recently become aware of an urgent and distressing situation which has affected the lives of people now living in Seattle. I am referring to the reported violations of human rights in Argentina.

A few months ago, the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights of the Organization of American States concluded its report on the atrocities committed by the Argentine authorities against its citizens. Apparently the violations of human rights are continuing. During the past few weeks, I have received reports from Argentine refugees of cases of insanity, illness, and suicide among political prisoners in Argentina as a consequence of the conditions of their imprisonment.

In view of these reports, I solicit your support for the conclusions and recommendations of the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights and for its proposal for sanctions against the Argentine government. I believe very strongly in this nation's commitment to human rights and I believe our nation must take action to end the suffering in Argentina.

Sincerely,

Charles Royer

Dear Sir:

I am writing to you to express my deep concern about the reported kidnapping and disappearance of Argentinian citizens. I am specifically concerned about Peruvian media reports about the disappearance of five Argentinians in a joint action by the Argentinian and Peruvian armies.

I am asking you to do as much as you can toward a rapid investigation of this case so that the lives of those involved may be saved. My letter is motivated by the painful experience of Argentinian families living in my city who have endured the disappearance of their sons, daughters, and friends.

I appeal to you in the name of human rights to take action to end these violations.

ALL OF THE MAJOR UNIVERSITIES HAVE NOW BEEN GIVEN SCHEDULED RE-OPENING DATES. THUS FAR THE UNIVERSITIES THAT HAVE RESUMED CLASSES HAVE DONE SO VERY QUIETLY WITH THE EXCEPTION OF ONE MINOR INCIDENT AT KYUNGHEE UNIVERSITY ON SEPTEMBER 9. IN THIS INCIDENT FOUR STUDENTS WERE ARRESTED FOR DISTRIBUTING PAMPHLETS WHICH REPORTEDLY CALLED ON THE U.S. TO STOP SUPPORTING CHUN, AMONG OTHER TOPICS. ONE OF THE STUDENTS SLASHED HER WRISTS UPON BEING ARRESTED, BUT THE PROTEST, WHICH WAS WITNESSED BY ABOUT 100 OTHER STUDENT DID NOT SPREAD. THE EMBASSY NOTES THAT THE "KAMIKAZE SPIRIT" DOES NOT APPEAR TO BE WIDESPREAD. (RASMUSSEN)

THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY WILL RE-OPEN ON SEPTEMBER 20 FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE IT WAS SUSPENDED ON MAY 17. THE FIRST ORDER OF BUSINESS WILL BE RATIFICATION OF NAM DUCK-WOO AS PRIME MINISTER FOLLOWED BY APPROVAL OF THE BUDGET. APPROXIMATELY 10 PER CENT OF THE MEMBERS OF THE ASSEMBLY ARE EITHER IN JAIL OR HAVE BEEN FORCED TO RESIGN, LEAVING IT COWED AND IN SERIOUS DISARRAY. (RASMUSSEN)

4. [redacted] RE-EDUCATION

MARTIAL LAW COMMANDER LEE HUI-SONG PROVIDED MORE DETAILS OF THE RE-EDUCATION CAMPAIGN FOR "HOOLIGANS" ON SEPTEMBER 9. ACCORDING TO LEE, MORE THAN 37,000 PERSONS HAVE BEEN DETAINED AS SUSPECTED "HOOLIGANS" IN THE PAST MONTH. OF THIS NUMBER 10,381 WERE RELEASED WITH ADMONITIONS, 1,452 "HEINOUS GANGSTERS" WERE REFERRED FOR PROSECUTION, 23,714 "JUDGED TO BE CORRIGIBLE WERE SENT TO MILITARY UNITS FOR FOUR WEEKS OF REFORMATORY EDUCATION, AND THE REMAINING 5,789 "HARDENED CRIMINALS" HAVE BEEN SENT TO THE FRONT LINE FOR A STRICTER COURSE OF RE-EDUCATION. OF THE 23,714 "CORRIGIBLES", 17,889 HAVE ALREADY BEEN RELEASED. APPARENTLY THE OTHER APPROXIMATELY 6,000 REQUIRE ADDITIONAL "RE-EDUCATION" BEYOND THE ORIGINAL FOUR WEEK PERIOD. WE HAVE FEW DETAILS OF WHAT THIS "RE-EDUCATION" CONSISTS OF, BUT IN PAST SWEEPS OF STREET PEOPLE IT HAS BEEN PRIMARILY A COURSE IN HARD MANUAL LABOR UNDER THE WATCHFUL EYE OF MILITARY DRILL INSTRUCTORS. THAT SEEMS TO BE THE PRESENT PATTERN ALSO. WE EXPECT THAT INDOCTRINATION IN THE IDEALS OF THE "NEW ERA" AS WELL AS A DEGREE OF "SELF-CRITICISM" ARE INCLUDED IN THE COURSE WORK. RE-EDUCATION MAY BE SOMEWHAT HARSHER FOR THOSE DISPATCHED TO THE "FRONTLINE." (RASMUSSEN)

SOUTH KOREAN PARANOIA IS RUNNING DEEP, AS THE ROK APPEARS TO BE CONVINCED THAT THE U.S. AND JAPAN ARE ENGAGED IN A SINISTER PLOT TO IMPROVE RELATIONS WITH NORTH KOREA. SUPPOSEDLY, THE OPENING GAMBIT IN THIS PLOT WAS CONGRESSMAN SOLARZ VISIT. TOM RESTON'S VISIT TO PYONGYANG, (HE HAD AN INTERVIEW WITH KIM YONG NAM) HAS APPARENTLY CONVINCED THE SOUTH KOREANS THAT SOMETHING TERRIBLE IS HAPPENING, BUT THEY'RE NOT SURE WHAT IT IS. RESTON'S VISIT HAS DRAWN A [redacted]

DRUMBEAT OF STRONG CRITICISM IN THE ROK PRESS AND THE FOREIGN MINISTER CALLED IN THE EMBASSY'S POLITICAL COUNSELOR TO FORMALLY EXPRESS THE ROKG'S DISPLEASURE OVER HIS VISIT.

SINCE THE SOLARZ VISIT A SERIES OF JAPANESE DELEGATIONS HAVE VISITED THE NORTH. YESTERDAY IN PYONGYANG THE LEADER OF THE AFRO-ASIAN RESEARCH GROUP OF THE LDP SAID THAT JAPANESE-NORTH KOREAN TRADE, NOW BEING CONDUCTED THROUGH DUMMY FIRMS, SHOULD BE UPGRADED TO A MEMORANDUM TRADE AGREEMENT FORMULA SIMILAR TO THE TRADE FORMULA ADOPTED FOR JAPAN-CHINA TRADE PRIOR TO NORMALIZATION OF SINO-JAPANESE RELATIONS IN 1972. AN UNNAMED ROK MOFA OFFICIAL RESPONDED THAT SOUTH KOREA IS CONSIDERING A MEASURE TO FORBID TRADE WITH FOREIGN FIRMS ENGAGED IN DIRECT TRADE WITH THE NORTH (SHADES OF THE ARAB EMBARGO TACTIC). EARLIER ANOTHER UNNAMED MOFA OFFICIAL WAS QUOTED AS SAYING THAT "THE ROKG IS STUDYING YET MORE POSITIVE ACTION IN PREPARATION FOR ANY CHANGE IN US/JAPAN POLICIES TOWARD THE ROK." WE HAVE BEEN BESIEGED BY REQUESTS FROM THE ROK EMBASSY RECENTLY FOR INFORMATION ON OUR TRADE EMBARGO AGAINST NORTH KOREA AND FOR ASSURANCES THAT IT WILL BE EXTENDED AND NOT RELAXED IN ANY WAY. IN ADDITION, SEVERAL OF OUR EMBASSIES HAVE REPORTED THAT, SINCE THE SOLARZ VISIT, NORTH KOREAN DIPLOMATS HAVE MADE UNUSUAL FRIENDLY GESTURES AT SOCIAL OCCASIONS WHERE THEY WOULD NORMALLY STUDIOUSLY IGNORE U.S. OFFICIALS. CERTAINLY THE WORD APPEARS TO BE OUT TO SUSTAIN THE MOMENTUM AFFORDED BY THE SOLARZ VISIT. (RASMUSSEN)

7. [redacted] NORTH KOREA IN THE CARIBBEAN

NORTH KOREA HAS MADE SOME DIPLOMATIC GAINS IN THE CARIBBEAN RECENTLY, THE MOST IMPORTANT OF WHICH WAS MEXICO'S AGREEMENT ON SEPTEMBER 6 TO ESTABLISH DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH THE DPRK. LAST MONTH GRENADA BROKE DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH SOUTH KOREA. MEXICO'S ACTION IN RECOGNIZING NORTH KOREA COULD HELP PROMOTE THE EXPANSION OF NORTH KOREAN REPRESENTATION THROUGHOUT THE REGION. THE DIPLOMATIC RACE BETWEEN THE TWO KOREA'S HAS BECOME VERY CLOSE, AND IF THE RECENT TREND CONTINUES WE COULD SEE THE DPRK SURPASSING SOUTH KOREA IN THE NUMBER OF COUNTRIES WITH WHICH IT HAS RELATIONS IN THE NOT TOO DISTANT FUTURE. SUBJECT: DISAPPEARANCES: A NEW AND LARGER NUMBER FOR THE YEAR?

REF: [redacted]

1. [redacted] SUMMARY. NEW REPORTS HAVE REAISED THE NUMBER OF REGISTERED DISAPPEARANCES HERE FROM SIX TO ELEVEN. AT THE SAME TIME, OTHER INFORMATION SUUGGESTS THAT THE TOTAL NUMBER OF DISAPPEARED THIS YEAR MAY BE SUBSTANTIALLY LARGER, TOTALING 25 OR MORE. THIS NEW DEVELOPMENT HAS BEEN DISCUSSED WITH GEN. VIOLA, THE PAPAL NUNCIO AND ARGENTINE

OFFICIALS. END SUMMARY

2. (U) THE PERMANENT ASSEMBLY ON HUMAN RIGHTS, THE MOST CAREFUL ORGANIZATION IN DOCUMENTING DISAPPEARANCES, NOW LISTS ELEVEN PEOPLE AS HAVING DISAPPEARED AND HAVING THEIR DISAPPEARANCES REGISTERED WITH THE ASSEMBLY BETWEEN JANUARY 1 AND AUGUST 26. NEW CASES WITH THE ASSEMBLY INCLUDE TWO PARAGUAYAN COMMUNISTS (ANTONIO MAIDANA AND EMILIO ROA WHO REPORTEDLY DISAPPEARED IN BUENOS AIRES AUGUST 26. MAIDANA REPORTEDLY HAD SERVED 20 YEARS IN JAIL IN PARAGUAY

(BEFORE HIS RECENT RELEASE THERE) AND MARTIN HERVACIO GUADEX. (GUADEX IS THE HUSBAND OF AIXSA EDITH BONA A MONTONERO WHO AFTER DIS-APPEARING BRIEFLY REAPPEARED IN CUSTODY. WE UNDERSTAND THAT BONA HAS NOW TOLD RELATIVES THAT HER HUSBAND LEFT THE HOUSE ON AUGUST 28 AND NEVER RETURNED. SHE WAS ARRESTED THE NEXT DAY AND TOLD BY HER CAPTORS THAT HER HUSBAND WAS IN CUSTODY TOO. THE GOVERNMENT HAD DENIED TO US THAT IT CAPTURED GAUDEX AND CLAIMS THAT HE IS A FUGITIVE.)

3. (U) IN ADDITION TO THE TOTALS NOW CARRIED BY THE PERMANENT ASSEMBLY, HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS IN ARGENTINA AND ABROAD ARE CIRCULATING A LIST OF 14 INDIVIDUALS WHO REPORTEDLY DISAPPEARED IN MARCH, ONLY FOUR OF WHOM REGISTERED WITH THE ASSEMBLY.

4. [redacted] THE SOURCE OF THIS LIST IS APPARENTLY THE MONTONERO ORGANIZATION IN MEXICO. IT IS POSSIBLE THAT THE MONTONEROS ARE FABRICATING THIS INFORMATION BUT WE ARE INCLINED TO ACCEPT THE ASSERTION THAT THESE PEOPLE DISAPPEARED AS PROBABLY TRUE.

5. [redacted] WE ALSO BELIEVE THAT ALL THOSE ON THE LIST ARE MONTONEROS , AS DO LOCAL HUMAN RIGHTS SOURCES. THE LONG DELAY BETWEEN THEIR ALLEGED DISAPPEARANCE IN MARCH AND THE SURFACING ON THIS LIST IN AUGUST WHEN WE UNDERSTAND IT FIRST APPEARED, MAY BE ACCOUNTED FOR BY THE TERRORIST ORGANIZATION'S WISH TO CONFIRM THEIR LOSS BEFORE PREMATURELY EXPOSING THESE INDIVIDUALS TO CAPTURE BY REVEALING THEIR IDENTITIES, SINCE MANY HAD BEEN INFILTRATED OR HAD BEEN LIVING IN THE COUNTRY CLANDESTINELY. MOREOVER, THE MONTONERO ADMISSION OF MAJOR LOSSES IN MARCH CORRESPONDS TO RELIABLE BUT VERY SENSITIVE INFORMATION WE HAD RECEIVED EARLIER THAT ONE OF THE SECURITY FORCES HAD SCORED A MAJOR COUP AGAINST THE MONTONEROS THAT MONTH. HOWEVER WE CANNOT BE CERTAIN THAT ALL THESE DISAPPEARANCES DID TAKE PLACE THAT MONTH (ONE NAME ON THE LIST WAS EARLIER REPORTED TO US AS HAVING DISAPPEARED IN JUNE).

[redacted]

6. [redacted] LESS SUBSTANTIAL INFORMATION SUGGESTS THAT NEW REPORTS OF OTHER DISAPPEARANCES MAY BE IN THE OFFING. IN THE MIDDLE OF LAST MONTH A SENIOR ARGENTINE MILITARY OFFICER TOLD A RELIABLE WESTERN DIPLOMAT, WHO HAS PASSED THE INFORMATION ON TO US, THAT THE SECURITY FORCES HAD CAPTURED THIRTY-FOUR TERRORISTS UP TO THAT TIME. WE HEARD PRIVATELY FROM A MEMBER OF THE SECURITY FORCES THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAD ROUNDED UP A NUMBER OF MONTONEROS IN MAY-JUNE. THERE ARE RUMORS OF OTHER DISAPPEARANCES CIRCULATING AMONG HUMAN RIGHTS SOURCES. THESE INDIVIDUALS TO OUR KNOWLEDGE HAVE NOT YET SURFACED IN CUSTODY. THUS IT IS POSSIBLE THAT TOTAL DISAPPEARANCES MAY BE OVER 25 AND REACH INTO THE 30'S.

7. [redacted] THERE IS A GENERAL CONSENSUS AMONG OUR CONTACTS, INCLUDING THOSE IN HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS, THAT WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THE TWO PARAGUAYAN COMMUNISTS, PROBABLY ALL WHO HAVE REPORTEDLY DISAPPEARED IN ARGENTINA THIS YEAR WERE ACTIVE MONTONEROS.

8. [redacted] COMMENT: THE NEW AND HIGHER FIGURES FOR DISAPPEARED PEOPLE WILL WE UNDERSTAND BE BROUGHT TO THE ATTENTION OF THE INTER-AMERICAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION PRIOR TO THE OASGA. ONE GROUP IN ARGENTINA IS PREPARING A SPECIAL INTERIM REPORT FOR THE COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS DEVELOPMENTS IN ARGENTINA SINCE ITS VISIT. THIS REPORT WILL INCLUDE THE OBSERVATION THAT THE ORGANIZATION AND THE TACTICS THAT THE GOA USED IN THE COUNTERTERRORIST WAR CONTINUE IN PLACE AND TO BE IMPLEMENTED, ALBEIT ON A FAR MORE SELECTIVE BASIS IN CHOOSING ITS TARGETS, I.E. AGAINST ACTIVE TERRORISTS AND MEMBERS OF THE SUPPORTING INFRASTRUCTURE. AT THIS POINT WE WOULD CONCUR IN THAT JUDGEMENT. IF THIS IS TRUE, IT APPEARS THAT THE SURFACING IN CUSTODY OF BONA LATE LAST MONTH MAY HAVE OBEYED SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES.

9. [redacted] FINALLY, A NOTE ON METHODOLOGY. IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO "PROVE" A DISAPPEARANCE, ESPECIALLY UNDER THESE NEW CIRCUMSTANCES WHEN

[redacted]

INFORMATION IS FROM MONTONERO SOURCES WITHOUT ANY OTHER INDEPENDENT CORROBORATING EVIDENCE. AS OUR ARGENTINE OFFICIAL CONTACTS HAVE BEEN QUICK TO POINT OUT, IN THE PAST WHEN MANY THOUSANDS DISAPPEARED THE QUESTION OF EXACTLY WHAT WERE THE CRITERIS FOR THE USG PUBLICLY ACCEPTING A GIVEN CASE AS CONSTITUTING A BONA FIDE DISAPPEARANCE DID NOT ARISE. WE ARE NOW DEALING WITH MUCH SMALLER FIGURES AND DEFINITIONS ARE IMPORTANT. INCREASINGLY, WE HAVE COME TO TAKE THE ASSEMBLY'S FIGURE FOR DISAPPEARED AS AUTHORITATIVE. TO BE INCLUDED ON THE ASSEMBLY'S LIST MEANS THAT A CONCERNED PERSON, USUALLY A RELATIVE, HAS ACTUALLY REGISTERED IT. FREQUENTLY A HABEAS CORPUS IN BEHALF OF THE DISAPPEARED INDIVIDUAL IS FILED, ALTHOUGH HABEAS CORPUS IS BEING USED LESS SO THAT IN THE PAST. HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS STATE THAT THE USE OF HABEAS CORPUS HAS FALLEN OFF BECAUSE RELATIVES THAT DO COME FORWARD ARE AWARE THE DISAPPEARED ARE TIED TO THE TERRORISTS. IN THESE CIRCUMSTANCES, THE RELATIVES ARE ALLEGEDLY TOO FRIGHTENED BOTH FOR THEIR OWN SAFETY AND FOR THE SAFETY OF THE DISAPPEARED PERSON TO MAKE AN OFFICIAL COMPLAINT IN THE COURT.

10. [redacted] USING PRIMARILY THE ASSEMBLY'S FIGURE MEANS THAT WE WILL INCLUDE SOME CASES ON WHICH WE HAVE CONFLICTING INFORMATION, E.G. THAT OF GAUDEX. IT ALSO MEANS WE MAY EXCLUDE SOMESKASES THAT SEEM TO BE PRETTY SOLID DISAPPEARANCES. HOWEVER, RELYING ON THE ASSEMBLY'S SCREENING PROCESS WILL ALSO MEAN THAT WE WILL PROBABLY AVOID INCLUDING CAES WHICH ON CLOSER EXAMINATION WERE ORDINARY MISSING PERSONS OR THE VICTIMS OF COMMON CRIME (ONE OF THE PEOPLE WE LISTED AS DISAPPEARED EARLIER THIS YEAR NOW SEEMS TO HAVE BEEN THE VICTIM OF ORDINARY CRIME.)

11. [redacted] IN THE FINALY ANALYSIS WE ARE NOT DEALING WITH A DISCRETE NUMBER BUT WITH THE TREND THAT NUMBERS INDICATE. FOR THIS PURPOSE WE THINK THAT THE ASSEMBLY'S FIGURE IS THE MOST PUBLICLY DEFENSIBLE ONE WE CAN USE. BUT FOR INTERNAL USE IN CONSIDERING THE TREND HERE [redacted]

WE WILL CONTINUE TO USE ALL AVAILABLE SOURCES.

12. [redacted] NEVERTHELESS, TO ESTABLISH THE QUANTITATIVE TREND HERE, THE BEST AVAILABLE COMPARISON WOULD BE BETWEEN THE PERMANENT ASSEMBLY'S CURRENT FIGURE OF 11 DISAPPEARANCES IN 1980 AND THE TOTAL OF 44 FOR DISAPPEARANCES IN 1979 PUBLISHED IN THE DEPARTMENT'S HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT, WHICH WAS ESTABLISHED WITH APPROXIMATELY THE SAME CRITERIS.

13. [redacted] THE EMBASSY HAS RECENTLY AND REPEATEDLY RAISED THE ISSUE OF DISAPPEARANCES WIT THE GOA: THE CHARGE HAS SPOKEN TO GENERAL VIOLA ON THIS SUBJECT AND WITH THE PAPAL NUNCIO AND FOREIGN OFFICE DIRECTOR GENERAL ROS (SEPTELS). EMBASSY OFFICERS HAVE RAISED IT AT THE PRESIDENCY AND WITH SENIOR MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES. THE MISSION WILL PURSUE THIS MATTER FURTHER IN ITS CONTACTS OVER THE COMING WEEKS IN A CONCERTED MANNER.

MEXICO'S ROLE IN THE CONFERENCE OF LATIN AMERICAN POLITICAL PARTIES (COPPAL)

Summary

With the fall of dictator Anastasio Somoza in Nicaragua in the summer of 1979, Mexico's leadership perceived the beginning of a new power balance in Central America. It welcomed the decline of US "imperialist" influence in the area, but was concerned lest the expanding power vacuum be filled by totalitarian communism.

To counter this possibility, not only in Central America but also in the Caribbean, Mexico sought to provide a third model, itself, for the area's small nations in political transition to emulate. Rather than step forward too boldly in this effort, the Mexicans placed the government's alter ego, the ruling Institutional Revolutionary Party (PRI), in the vanguard. This tactic was designed to save the government from the stigma of interventionism, from possible rebuffs from other governments, and from blame if the initiative failed.

In October 1979, after considerable preparation, PRI President Gustavo Carvajal called a meeting of 24 "democratic, nationalistic, progressive" parties from 15 hemispheric countries. These parties organized themselves into the Conference of Latin American Political Parties, with Carvajal as president and such leading hemispheric figures as Jamaica's Manley, the Dominican Republic's Pena Gomez, and Bolivia's Paz Estenssoro among the six vice-presidents.

September 22, 1980

COPPAL, or elements of it, has held a number of meetings since its inception, centered on such topics as energy, the situations in El Salvador and Guatemala, and human rights. The organization seems to have caught on and, at least as far as Mexico's preliminary aims are concerned, is successfully playing the role for which it was established. Its future depends on continued Mexican concern over expanding instability in the Central American-Caribbean region.

Even though some COPPAL initiatives may be aimed at reducing US influence, the movement has potential for strengthening US-Latin American ties. The Mexicans have aimed COPPAL at supplanting or preempting Soviet and Cuban encroachments as well as at limiting what they have perceived as US hegemony. COPPAL's basic aim of achieving relatively moderate, if strongly nationalistic, solutions to area problems, as opposed to radical and externally dominated solutions, appears more akin to US objectives than to those of our major adversaries.

Whether from ideological conviction or simple alarm at the course of events in Central America and the Caribbean, President Lopez Portillo has chosen to make Mexico a force in inter-American affairs. For the first time in this century, Mexico has a dynamic foreign policy that seeks to use its prestige and strengths to influence regional affairs.

Political Party as Government Surrogate

The overthrow of Somoza in Nicaragua produced a profound change in the Central American power balance. It brought to the fore a new political force, Sandinismo. Outside Nicaragua (and perhaps Cuba), little was known of this group, its leaders, or its aims. Mexico, like other nations of the hemisphere, found it necessary to educate itself about the Sandinistas. Simultaneously, other relatively unknown political groups were seeking to bring about change in other hemispheric countries, such as El Salvador, Grenada, and Guatemala.

Mexico decided it could not ignore these groups. But, because they were self-professed revolutionaries, not traditional opposition parties, contact with them could jeopardize relations with the governments in power. To solve this dilemma, and at the same time exercise influence over events in volatile regions of the hemisphere, particularly Central America and the Caribbean, the Mexican Government turned to its own Institutional Revolutionary Party (PRI).

Through the PRI, the government sought not only to learn about the new revolutionary groups, but also to establish a framework within which it might influence them.

In internal matters, it is not unusual for the Mexican President to use the PRI in this manner, especially when government involvement could be unseemly, or when official action could appear contrary to Mexico's avowed revolutionary doctrines.

The Nicaraguan situation was ideal for Mexico to test the use of the PRI as a surrogate for official action in the international sphere. In Nicaragua, the Mexicans were concerned that outside forces were becoming increasingly involved. Somoza was seen by the Mexicans both as a fascist dictator and as a lackey of the United States. But, while the Mexican left would have applauded government support for a leftist overthrow of Somoza, the Mexican middle class, which runs Mexico, would have felt uneasy at the prospect of radical change which might spill over into other countries in the area. Lopez Portillo's use of the PRI to implement a foreign policy program vis-a-vis Nicaragua avoided seeming to favor one group over another.

The PRI accommodates nearly all points of view in the Mexican political spectrum. Its domestic policies are never extreme, and they fit comfortably with the European-based social democratic movement. Not surprisingly, the PRI turned to the social democratic parties of the hemisphere in establishing an institution to monitor and influence area insurrectionists.

Projecting PRI Power Abroad

The selection of Gustavo Carvajal, formerly a personal assistant to Lopez Portillo, as PRI president was somewhat of a surprise in that he had not previously attained much stature in the party. Almost immediately after assuming the presidency, Carvajal, in April, publicly called for Mexico to break relations with the Somoza regime. His sudden action seemed to be a gaffe. But in all likelihood he was acting with the approval of Lopez Portillo, who probably wished to probe Mexican public reaction to such a move.

There was little reaction, and in May, Lopez Portillo announced that Mexico was severing diplomatic relations with Somoza's government.

Once relations had ended, Carvajal traveled throughout Latin America to seek support for Mexico's policy. The journey gave him the international exposure he needed to take the lead in calling for a hemispheric conference of 24 social democratic parties at Oaxaca, Mexico, in October 1979. He also let it be known that the PRI was willing to pay most of the meeting's expenses.

Membership Requirements

As Carvajal explained it, the conference was to include only parties that were "democratic, nationalistic, progressive, and anti-imperialistic." He added that they would have to be non-ideological and anti-hegemonic, conditions that allowed the conference to exclude both Communist and Christian Democratic-oriented parties, the chief rivals of the PRI and most of the other participants.

Furthermore, the conference was not to permit observers or representatives from outside the hemisphere, which enabled the organizers to finesse the question of Socialist International participation. Among those to be admitted were representatives of Nicaragua's Sandinistas, as well as the nominally social democratic parties from other hemispheric countries, including some parties that exist more in the minds of their leaders than in fact, e.g., the Brazilian Workers Party.

COPPAL's Establishment

The meeting, held in a distant, out-of-the-way provincial capital, received little advance publicity. None of the few reporters present in Oaxaca at the time was permitted to attend the sessions. The communique was a laundry list of causes that Latin American "liberals" usually discuss when they assemble. For almost all the participants' countries the list contained a call to right a wrong or, if the participating party was in power, a laudatory resolution. The communique also accused the United States of reintroducing the Cold War into the hemisphere and called for Puerto Rican independence. (The Puerto Rican Independence Party attended.)

The participants agreed to form themselves into the permanent Conference of Latin American Political Parties (COPPAL).* Carvajal was elected president. Other officers chosen were:

Vice-Presidents:

Tomas Borge, Sandinist National Liberation Front, Nicaragua
Leonal Brizola, Brazilian Workers' Party
Michael Manley, People's National Party, Jamaica
Daniel Oduber, National Liberation Party, Costa Rica
Victor Paz Estenssoro, National Revolutionary Movement, Bolivia
Jose Francisco Pena Gomez, Dominican Revolutionary Party, Dominican Republic

Executive Secretary:

Oscar Campero, Institutional Revolutionary Party, Mexico

COPPAL's Aims

In contacts with the US Embassy in Mexico City after the conference, Carvajal stressed the moderate nature of COPPAL and explained that its object was to help keep the new leftist movements from coming under Cuban domination. (Cuba was not invited to the meeting, nor was it mentioned in the communique.) Carvajal apparently believes that COPPAL can influence the new leftists in the same way that the PRI brings domestic opposition under its wing, by co-opting its positions and people, thereby blunting its force. (Domestically, of course, the PRI resorts to payoffs when necessary and, less frequently, overcomes the opposition by strong-arm tactics.)

UNCLASSIFIED

To gain the confidence of the dissident movements, the PRI decided that COPPAL must establish its own credentials. This undoubtedly was the reason Carvajal asked Embassy Mexico City to intercede in setting up an appointment for the COPPAL leadership to meet with President Carter. The Embassy deflected the request, but Carvajal has reiterated it several times since, almost as if he feels a need to deliver on a promise to the membership. Inasmuch as no other officer of COPPAL has brought up the question, it would appear that Carvajal was solely responsible for the initiative. But it is not likely that he would have made the proposal without the concurrence of Lopez Portillo.

It is difficult to measure how much influence the PRI, and through it the Mexican Government, has been able to exert by using COPPAL. Generally, COPPAL has taken positions that are consonant with Lopez Portillo's policies, such as denouncing the short-lived November 1979 Bolivian coup. There have been three subsequent meetings of elements of COPPAL, and in at least two of these the issues discussed reflected Mexican concerns.

Subsequent Meetings

Quito, Ecuador

In February 1980, representatives of COPPAL member-parties in oil-producing countries met in Quito to discuss energy topics. Not much is known about what was said, but the meeting undoubtedly was influential in shaping Mexican attitudes leading to the agreement with Venezuela to assist oil-importing countries in Central America and the Caribbean.

Cocoyoc, Mexico

Shortly after the February meeting, various Mexican groups issued a call for Mexico to recognize a Salvadoran revolutionary group, the Revolutionary Coordinating Board of the Masses, as the legitimate representative of the Salvadoran people. This move, similar to the one Carvajal had made earlier in favor of Nicaragua's FSLN, did not arouse any general sympathetic reaction from the Mexican public.

BEST COPY AVAILABLE

On March 3 and 4, the Directorate of COPPAL met at Cocoyoc, Mexico. Carvajal and three vice-presidents--Borge, Paz Estensorro, and Pena Gomez--were present. The communique maintained the position that the Mexican Government had been taking on El Salvador. Thus, although the document supported "the right to self-determination of the Salvadoran people," it did not espouse the cause of the insurrectionists at the expense of the ruling junta, a position paralleled by official Mexican policy. (Since then, Mexico has maintained a neutral public stance toward El Salvador. But it did remove its Ambassador from San Salvador, leaving only a charge, possibly signaling the beginning of a tilt toward the insurgents. Mexico also reportedly unsuccessfully sought Venezuelan consent to exclude Salvador from the joint Mexican-Venezuelan oil-financing facility.)

Other statements in the communique were similarly moderate, yet appealing to hemispheric insurgent groups. The rhetoric used in voicing opposition to US policies was similar to that of the October communique, although there was no reference to Puerto Rico. An interesting new element was introduced: the communique denounced the information media as "dominated by centers which distort the image of democratic movements." This directly reflected a deep concern of Lopez Portillo, who reportedly once told a foreign journalist that he was opposed to the activities of US press and information agencies because they were at the service of transnational companies and were part of the US plan for dominating worldwide news resources. Transnational corporations were also criticized by the COPPAL communique.

San Jose

The PRI did not attend the COPPAL meeting on Guatemala in San Jose in May. Carvajal told Embassy Mexico City that the Mexican Government wanted to avoid the appearance of meddling in Guatemalan internal affairs.

Other PRI Initiatives

The pattern of the PRI's other international contacts, outside the framework of COPPAL but paralleling its general thrust, is consistent with Lopez Portillo's evident desire to involve Mexico more actively with the forces for hemispheric political change. For example:

UNCLASSIFIED BEST COPY AVAILABLE

--Although nothing has come of it, Carvajal reportedly made an offer of assistance to the Guatemalan Army of the Poor.

--Carvajal has stated that Mexico intends to draw Jamaica's Michael Manley away from radical left influences. (Manley was made a COPPAL vice-president even though he has never attended a meeting.)

--The PRI reportedly has provided financial aid to Peru's American Popular Revolutionary Alliance and to the Uruguayan opposition's Broad Front.

Another example, classically convoluted, was the PRI's support for the Puerto Rican independence conference in Mexico City, November 30-December 2, 1979. The PRI provided funds to the minuscule Mexican Communist Party (PCM), which bankrolled the Mexican Peace Movement (MPM), which in turn sponsored the conference on Puerto Rico.

In addition, while the PRI has been lining up the region's "social-democratic" parties through COPPAL, it has also been working on "socialist" parties through the Mexican Socialist Workers' Party (PST). The PST, assisted by the PRI and with the help of Mexican Government largesse, hosted on June 22 a meeting of Socialist parties from Chile, Costa Rica, Peru, Uruguay, Venezuela, and Puerto Rico. Also participating were Nicaragua's FSLN, El Salvador's Revolutionary Front, and a Haitian exile group. Mexico's Communist Party and Peace Movement attended as observers, along with the COPPAL Secretariat.

COPPAL's Future

COPPAL is seen by its Mexican proponents as a league of progressive elements constructing a bulwark against imperialist forces of the left and of the right--with Mexico in the vanguard. Its overriding purpose is, then, to promote basic Mexican policy at minimum risk.

COPPAL also appeals to Mexican policymakers for several secondary reasons:

--It mollifies the Mexican left's demands for an anti-imperialist stance.

--It demonstrates Mexican independence of the US.

--It polishes Mexico's Third World image.

--It projects the PRI as progressive and democratic.

To the Mexicans, COPPAL, and probably also the Mexico-Venezuela oil facility, is a way to lead other Latin American countries toward a new political balance in the hemisphere. Mexico believes in the necessity to counterbalance US primacy. But it probably also perceives a decline in US ability to exercise effective indirect control and does not want the void filled by Cuba and communism. The Mexicans may also fear that a decline in US influence and indirect control over area events could lead to increasingly active or more direct US intervention. For example, Mexico reasons that governments such as the FSLN-led coalition in Nicaragua are potential allies for efforts to constrain US hegemony. But Mexico also holds that these new governments must be prevented from taking a radical path, such as Cuba's.

COPPAL's future therefore depends on a continued or heightened Mexican concern over growing area instability. As long as this concern remains high, COPPAL probably will continue to be used as an instrument through which Mexico can attempt to influence area events. If hemispheric conditions change, i.e., if international tensions diminish significantly, COPPAL will no longer be very important to Mexico.

Overall, COPPAL has the potential to serve as a vehicle for strengthening US-Latin American relations. Even though some of its attitudes and initiatives pose problems for the United States (e.g., regarding El Salvador), COPPAL aims at achieving relatively moderate, if strongly nationalistic, solutions as opposed to radical and externally dominated ones. COPPAL member-parties, particularly the PRI, will seek to limit and counter US influence and domination, but they will also seek to supplant or preempt Soviet and Cuban influence. The advent of COPPAL emphasizes the multipolar context of the hemisphere's international relationships. As one US Embassy observed, the competition with the Soviets--more precisely, with their Cuban surrogates--remains a harsh reality. Mexico, with considerable prestige in some sectors of the hemisphere and new-found oil wealth, appears to be buying into the competition with a respectable sum of both intellectual and material leverage.

A MEETING, ATTENDED BY EMBOFF OBSERVER, BETWEEN INTERIOR MINISTER HERNANDEZ AND SONSONATE MILITARY COMMANDER LEIVA SEPTEMBER 19 DID MUCH TO ILLUSTRATE THE TENUOUS RELATIONS BETWEEN CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT MEMBERS OF THE GOVERNMENT AND THEIR MILITARY COLLEAGUES. AT ISSUE WERE TWO RECENT INCIDENTS IN WHICH SONSONATE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT DIGNITARIES HAD BEEN BADLY TREATED BY LOCAL MILITARY OFFICERS. THAT THE INTERIOR MINISTER CHOSE TO MAKE THE CALL RATHER THAN SUMMON LEIVA IS PERHAPS THE MOST INTERESTING DEMONSTRATION OF HOW, STILL, THE CARDS ARE REALLY STACKED. 3. POLOFF TRAVELED WITH GOES INTERIOR MINISTER OVIDIO HERNANDEZ AND CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDC) LEGAL ADVISOR LUIS HIDALGO TO SONSONATE SEPTEMBER 19. SOME OBSERVATIONS FROM THAT TRIP FOLLOW.

4. HERNANDEZ WAS TRAVELING TO SONSONATE IN ORDER SPEAK WITH THE DEPARTMENTAL MILITARY COMMANDER ABOUT RECENT PROBLEMS BETWEEN PDC MEMBERS AND THE MILITARY. IN ONE INCIDENT AN ACAJUTLA CITY COUNCILMAN HAD BEEN ARRESTED AT NIGHT AND IN HIS HOUSE BY NAVY POLICE, VERBALLY ABUSED, AND THEN SENT HOME THE NEXT DAY WEARING LITTLE MORE THAN HIS SOCKS. THE ACAJUTLA NAVY COMMANDER HAD BEEN UNIMPRESSED BY THE SUBSEQUENT PROTESTS OF THE MAYOR AND OTHER OFFICIALS. IN A SECOND INCIDENT, TWO CIVILIAN EMPLOYEES OF THE SONSONATE GARRISON WERE IDENTIFIED BY A PDC MEMBER AS BANDITS WHO WHILE OFF DUTY MASQUERADED AS FPL MEMBERS IN ORDER TO STEAL FROM THE CITIZENRY.

5. THE MINISTER POINTED OUT EN ROUTE TO HIS MEETING THAT THIS TYPE OF PROBLEM WAS HINDERING AN EFFECTIVE WORKING RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE MILITARY AND THE PDC. A GREAT DEAL HAD BEEN DONE TO IMPROVE THAT RELATIONSHIP AT THIE SENIOR LEVEL, HE SAID, BUT MUCH MORE REMAINED TO BE DONE AT THE MIDDLE AND LOWER LEVELS. HERNANDEZ POINTED OUT THAT THE PROBLEM WAS ESPECIALLY DIFFICULT IN THE WESTERN PORTION OF THE COUNTRY, AN AREA, HE SAID, WHERE THE RIGHT WING IS PARTICUARLY STRONG.

6. POLOFF PARTICIPATED -- AS AN OBSERVER -- IN HERNANDEZ' MEETING WITH THE COMMANDER. THE MINISTER [redacted]

HE SAID THAT HE HAD ASKED FOR THE MEEETING IN ORDER TO DISCUSS CERTAIN INCIDENTS WHICH HAD A DISRUPTING EFFECT ON THE CIVILIAN-MILITARY RELATIONSHIP. HE POINTED OUT THAT THE GOVERNMENT SIDE, FACED BY A SERIOUS SUBVERSIVE THREAT, COULD ILL AFFORD THESE INTERNAL CONTROVERSIES. HE CITED THE SEPARATE INCIDENTS.

7. THE COMMANDER, LT. COL. MAXIMILIANO LEIVA, RESPONDED BY SAYING THAT HE WAS SURPRISED BY THE FIRST CITED INCIDENT. [redacted]

HE CLAIMED THAT HE HAD NOT PREVIOUSLY HEARD OF IT. HE HAD HEARD OF THE SECOND INCIDENT, HOWEVER, AND HAD ALREADY ORDERED THE REMOVAL OF THE CULPRITS AND HAD TURNED THEM OVER T JUDICIARY. HE AGREED THAT THE CIVILINS AND THE MILITARY SHOULD COOPERATE AND SHOULD NOT ALLOW THESE PROBLEMS TO DISTRACT ATTENTION FROM THE PRINCIPAL PROBLEM WHICH BOTH FACED; I.E. THE SUBVERSIVES.

8. ALSO PRESENT AT THE MEETING WERE SEVERAL MILITARY OFFICERS, INCLUDING ONE NAVY OFFICER, THE AGGRIEVED CITY COUNCILMAN AND THE ACTING MAYOR OF ACAJUTLA. THE NAVY REPRESENTATIVE WAS LESS WILLING THAN THE OTHER OFFICERS TO SEE ANY POINT IN THE CIVILIANS' COMPLAINTS. HE INDICATED THAT THE INCIDENT WHICH PROVOKED THE ARREST -- THE BOMBING OF AN OCCUPIED CAR BY A GROUP OF TERRORISTS -- WAS ACCOMPLISHED WITHOUT ANYONE NOTIFYING THE MILITARY OF THE PRESENCE OF THE GROUP IN THE TOWN. HE SAID THAT THIS DEMONSTRATED THE PASSIVITY OF THE TOWNSPEOPLE AND THE LACK OF COOPERATION ON THEIR PART. THE CIVILIANS STOOD THEIR GROUND AND SAID THAT NO ONE IN HIS RIGHT MIND IS OUT IN THE MIDDLE OF THE NIGHT TO WITNESS THE TERRORISTS' MOVEMENTS, FEW PEOPLE HAVE TELEPHONES, AND, IN ANY EVENT, THE CITY POLICE ARE SUPPOSED TO TAKE CARE OF NOTIFYING THE MILITARY OF ANY PROBLEMS.

CABEZAS. HILB SOON THEREAFTER EMERGED IN CUSTODY. SHE STATES THAT HER CAPTORS HAVE TOLD HER THAT CABEZAS WAS ALSO UNDER ARREST, BUT NEITHER THE FRG EMBASSY NOR ANY MEMBER OF THE FAMILY HAS BEEN ABLE TO SEE HIM OR LOCATE HIM AS OF SEPTEMBER 25.

2. [redacted] COMMENT: THE GERMANS TELL US THAT EVERYBODY--THE FAMILY, THE GOA AND HILB--AGREES ON ONE THING IN THIS CASE: HILB AND CABEZAS WERE LIVING IN THE COUNTRY CLANDESTINELY AS MEMBERS OF A MONTONERO AGITATION TEAM. WHEN CAPTURED THEY WERE IN POSSESSION OF ARMS AND A PRINTING MACHINE. PRIOR TO RETURNING TO ARGENTINA EARLIER THIS YEAR, THE TWO HAD BEEN IN MEXICO. THIS CASE BEARS A GREAT SIMILARITY TO THAT OF AIXA EDITH BONA AND MARTIN HERVACIO GUADEX, MONTONEROS WHO WERE ALSO CAPTURED LATE LAST AUGUST (BUENOS AIRES 7249). CABEZAS IS THE SON OF THELMA JARA DE CABEZAS WHO IS ONE OF THE MOST REKNOWNED DISAPPEARANCES BECAUSE OF HER CONNECTION WITH THE MOTHERS OF THE PLAZA DE MAYO.

3. [redacted] TIGHTENING THE LIMITS FOR POLITICAL ACTIVITY? IN THE LAST SEVERAL MONTHS POLITICIANS HAVE ENJOYED SUBSTANTIALLY EXPANDED OPPORTUNITIES TO MEET AND TO SPEAK OUT ON ISSUES. AS A RESULT, THE PRESS HAS BEEN FILLED WITH CRITICISMS OF GOVERNMENT POLICY AND POLITICAL LEADERS HAVE CRISSCROSSED THE COUNTRY SPEAKING TO THEIR FAITHFUL.

4. [redacted] THE WELTER OF SHARP ATTACKS ON THE GOA AND THE RUSH OF ACTIVITY DOES NOT SEEM TO BE AIMED AT HUSTLING THE MILITARY OUT OF POWER. RATHER, THE ACTIVITY AND THE STATEMENTS SEEM TO BE BASED FIRST ON EXPECTATIONS THAT THE [redacted]

MILITARY MAY FULFILL ITS PROMISE TO ISSUE A PARTY LAW THAT WILL ALLOW THE PARTIES TO REORGANIZE AND TO RENEW THEIR LEADERSHIP, WHICH HAS BEEN FROZEN IN PLACE SINCE 1976. THE FACTIONS WITHIN THE RADICAL AND THE PERONIST PARTIES ARE JOCKEYING FOR POSITION FOR THAT INTERNAL SELECTION. SECONDLY, THERE IS A PERCEPTION AMONG POLITICIANS--PERHAPS FOUNDED IN WISH--THAT THE SANDS ARE BEGINNING TO RUN OUT FOR THE MILITARY GOVERNMENT AND THE TIME HAS COME TO BEGIN TO CAMPAIGN FOR POPULAR SUPPORT.

5. [redacted] THE GOVERNMENT IS DISCOMFORTED BY SO MUCH POLITICKING. IT HAS NOW SENT SIGNALS TO THE POLITICIANS

THAT THEY BEST PULL THEMSELVES IN. THE ARREST AND EXILING OF A REGIONAL-LEVEL PERONIST LEADER WAS BASED ON HIS VIOLATION OF THE LAW SUSPENDING POLITICAL ACTIVITY. PERONIST LEADER DEOLINDO BITTEL WAS DETAINED BY THE POL8:3 AND QUESTIONED FOR FIVE HOURS AFTER HE BLASTED THE GOVERNMENT FOR ALLEGEDLY ARRESTING AND TORTURING A MEMBER OF THE PERONIST YOUTH EARLIER THIS MONTH. THEN THE GOVERNMENT HAS PUBLICIZED A MEETING BETWEEN INTERIOR MINISTER HARGUINDEGUY AND PRESIDENT VIDELA IN WHICH THE MINISTER BRIEFED THE PRESIDENT ON "THE INCREASING ACTIVITY OF POLITICAL SECTORS...THUS VIOLATING THE LAW IN FORCE." FOLLOWING THIS "BRIEFING" A PERONIST GATHERING SCHEDULED IN TUCUMAN AND A RADICAL "SEMINAR" IN CORDOBA WERE BANNED. OTHER POLITICAL MEETINGS WHICH HAD NOT RECEIVED THE PUBLICITY OF THE BANNED GATHERINGS WENT AHEAD, HOWEVER.

6. [redacted] WHILE THE GOVERNMENT MAY WANT THE POLITICIANS TO SLOW DOWN, IT WAS WILLING TO ACCEPT MORE FIREWORKS WHEN IT INVITED FORMER PRESIDENT ARTURO FRONDIZI TO PARTICIPATE IN THE "DIALOGUE" WITH INTERIOR MINISTER HARGUINDEGUY. EMERGING FROM THAT MEETING ON SEPTEMBER 23, FRONDIZA PREDICTABLY THREW SOME VERY HARD BALLS AT THE MILITARY: PARTICULARLY, HIS STATEMENT THAT THE PERONISTS REPRESENT THE "IMMENSE MAJORITY OF THE WORKING CLASS;" THAT POLITICAL DETAINEES MUST BE FREED; AND THAT THE ECONOMIC PROGRAM IS "INCOMPATIBLE WITH THE EXISTENCE OF 27 MILLION ARGENTINES." FRONDIZI [redacted]

SOFTENED THESE BLOWS BY ACKNOWLEDGING THAT THE MILITARY HAD MADE A GREAT CONTRIBUTION IN DEFEATING SUBVERSION AND RECOGNIZED THAT THE ARMED FORCES MUST PLAY AN IMPORTANT ROLE IN THE FUTURE. HE ALSO STATED THAT THERE CURRENTLY IS NO GREAT POPULAR PRESSURE FOR ELECTIONS. FRONDIZI, IN KEEPING WITH THE PHILOSOPHY THAT GUIDES THE MID WHICH HE HEADS, SEEMED TO BE SERVING UP TO THE MILITARY AS A SOLUTION TO THE PRESENT SITUATION SOME SORT OF COMBINATION OF MILITARY POPULISM WHICH WOULD LINK THE ARMED FORCES, THER PERONISTS, AND OF COURSE THE MID AS THE ECONOMIC THINKERS OF SUCH A REGIME.

7. (U) DISAPPEARED: THE CHIEF OF POLICE ATTACKS. FEDERAL POLICE CHIEF GENERAL JUAN SASIAIN GAVE A SPEECH SEPTEMBER 19 IN WHICH HE ADDRESSED THE ISSUE OF THE DISAPPEARED AT LENGTH. HE CRITICIZED POLITICIANS, INTELLECTUALS AND LEADERS WHO HAVE CALLED FOR INVESTIGATIONS AND CLARIFICATION OF THE THOUSANDS OF DISAPPEARANCES. HE CHARGED THAT THE PEOPLE WHO CRITICIZE THE GOVERNMENT WERE THE SAME ONES WHO WERE RESPONSIBLE FOR ARGENTINA'S SOCIAL, POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC BREAKDOWN IN THE PAST. IN VIEW OF THAT RESPONSIBILITY, HE SAID, THESE CRITICS WOULD DO BETTER TO "MAINTAIN" THE DECORUM OF SILENCE." SASIAIN LAMENTED THAT THOSE WHO SEARCH FOR THE DISAPPEARED MAKE NO SIMILAR EFFORT TO TURN UP THE KILLERS OF MILITARY MEN WHO FELL TO TERRORIST ASSASSINATIONS.

8. (U) TURNING HIS ATTENTION TO HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS, SASIAIN REPORTEDLY IMPLIED THAT MOST OF THEM ARE MANIPULATED BY "MARXISTS" PARTICIPATING IN "DISMAL COALITIONS". HE SAID THAT THESE ORGANIZATIONS PUBLISH

LISTS OF "PRESUMED SUBVERSIVES WHO HAVE DISAPPEARED." HE ADDED "THEY EVEN INDULGE THEMSELVES TO THE POINT OF EXPLOITING MATERNAL SENTIMENT, A CRUEL SENTIMENT LOADED WITH GUILT AND DESPERATION BECAUSE IT DRIVES THOSE WHO NEVER KNEW HOW TO FIND THEIR LOVED ONES WHO THEY LOST BEFORE THEY WERE LOST...THIS SAD BITTERNESS WILL PERHAPS NEVER HAVE AN ANSWER BECAUSE THE DISAPPEARED SHOULD HAVE BEEN SOUGHT OUT BEFORE THEY WERE LOST AND MANY OF THE ORGANIZATIONS THAT NOW SEARCH FOR THEM ARE THE SAME ONES THAT CONFUSED THE PATH FOR THEM."
[redacted]

9. [redacted] COMMENT: SASIAIN'S COMMENTS WERE SHRUGGED OFF BY THE HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS WE TALKED TO AS NO MORE THAN WHAT CAN BE EXPECTED. THE THOUGHT THAT THE MOTHERS OF THE DISAPPEARED ARE AT FAULT FOR THE DISAPPEARANCE OF THEIR CHILDREN IS NOT A NEW ONE AMONG SOME OF THE MILITARY HERE. THIS IDEA IS ROOTED IN THE BELIEF THAT THE TERRORISTS WERE THE PRODUCT OF FLAWED UPBRINING. SASIAIN'S COMPLAINT THAT THE MOTHERS ARE BEING MANIPULATED BY POLITICIANS WITH ULTERIOR MOTIVES IS ALSO SOMETHING WE HAVE HEARD FROM OTHER MILITARY MEN. IT IS POSSIBLE THAT HIS VITRIOLIC REMARKS PRESAGE SOME SORT OF CRACKDOWN ON HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS, BUT WE DO NOT THINK SO AND THERE HAVE BEEN NO ACTS SUGGESTING THAT THE GOA IS MOVING IN THAT DIRECTION.

10. (U) HABEAS CORPUS FOR DETAINED. THIRTY-FIVE LAWYERS PRESENTED A COLLECTIVE HABEAS CORPUS PETITION FOR 3,259 PEOPLE DETAINED UNDER PEN WITHOUT TRIAL. THE PETITION CHARGED THAT PRISON CONDITIONS ARE "INHUMAN" AND DEMANDED THAT THE DETAINEES BE ALLOWED TO EXERCISE THE RIGHT OF OPTION.

11. [redacted] WE WERE TLD RECENTLY BY A GOA SOURCE THAT OPTIONS WILL BE ANNOUNCED ONLY TWICE A YEAR. THE NEXT ANNOUNCEMENT WILL BE MADE IN THE SPRING, PROBABLY IN NOVEMBER.

12. (U) ANOTHER TRIALS ENDS. THE COURTS CONTINUE TO TRY AND SENTENCE DETAINEES WHO WERE ARRESTED AS TERRORISTS OR SUBVERSIVES

2. HERRERA HAS CHARGED THAT THE VENEZUELAN GOVERNMNET ALTERED EVIDENCE AGAINST THE ACCUSED TO FACILITATE THEIR PARDON, WITH FULL KNOWLEDGE OF THEIR GUILT. IN ADDITION, HERRERA CLAIMS THAT ORLANDO BOSCH AND LUIS POSADA CARRILES ADMITTED TO HER THAT THEY AUTHORED THE 1976 BOMBING. SHE CHARGED THAT ALL FOUR WERE RECEIVING MONTHLY SALARIES FROM $500 TO $2,000 FROM THE VENEZUELAN GOVERNMENT.

3. VENEZUELAN OFFICIALS QUICKLY DENIED THE CHARGES. DISIP DIRECTOR REMBERTO UZCATEGUI, AFTER CONSULTING WITH MINISTER OF INTERIOR RAFAEL MONTES DE OCA, SAID THAT THE VENEZUELAN GOVERNMENT HAS KNOWN FOR "A LONG TIME" THAT HERRERA IS A CUBAN SPY, ALTHOUGH SHE NEVER COMMITTED A CRIME AGAINST VENEZUELA. UZCATEGUI SAID HERRERA WAS REPEATING WHAT HER CUBAN BOSSES WANT HE TO SAY AND ADDED THAT VENEZUELA WAS STUDYING THE POSSIBILITY OF TRYING HERRERA FOR TREASON. MONTES DE OCA CATEGORICALLY DENIED THE CHARGES OF MUNIPULATION OF EVIDENCE IN THE BOSCH CASE.

4. MEANTIME DIARIO DE CARACAS REPORTS, SEPTEMBER 30, THAT THE GOV IS STUDYING THE POSSIBILITY OF WITHDRAWING ITS PERSONNEL FROM THE MISSION IN HAVANA. A STICKING POINT, BASED ON COMMENTS BY LEOPOLDO CASTILLO, SECRETARY OF THE FOREIGN MINISTRY'S ADVISORY COMMISSION, IS FINDING A THIRD COUNTRY IN CUBA TO REPRESENT VENEZUELAN INTERESTS AND PSO TO ASSUME RESPONSIBILITY -- WITH CUBAN APPROVAL-- FOR THE NINETEEN ASYLEES PRESENTLY IN THE VENEZUELAN MISSION.

AND SECOND, THE GOVERNMENTS'S FAILURE TO END THE VIOLENCE, TO STABLIZE THE ECONOMY, AND TO ADMINISTER ITS DUTIES IN A MORE DFFICIENT FORM HAVE GIVEN THE RIGHT SOME ISSUES.

2. SUMMARY: WHILE KOREANS ACKNOWLEDGE THAT PRESIDENT CHUN'S DRAFT CONSTITUTION IS MORE LIBERAL THAN ITS PREDECESSOR, THEY BELIEVE THE PROOF OF A CONSTITUTION IS IN ITS IMPLEMENTATION, AND THEY EXPECT THE CHUN REGIME TO BE A FIRM ONE. END SUMMARY.

3. IN THE TWO DAYS SINCE PRESIDENT CHUN DOO-HWAN'S (M-R: CHON TU-HWAN) DRAFT OF A NEW CONSTITUTION WAS MADE PUBLIC, WE HAVE HAD AN OPPORTUNITY TO DISCUSS IT WITH A WIDE CROSS SECTION OF INFORMED KOREANS. THE REACTIONS REPORTED BELOW HAVE PROBABLY BEEN FORMING FOR LONGER THAN TWO DAYS, HOWEVER. MOST OF THE KEY PROVISIONS OF THE CONSTITUTION [redacted]

HAVE BEEN AUTHORITATIVELY LEAKED TO THE PRESS OVER THE PAST TWO MONTHS.

4. WHILE THERE ARE NOTABLE EXCEPTIONS, PERHAPS THE STRONGEST REACTION TO THE NEW CONSTITUTION IS TO DOWNPLAY ITS SIGNIFICANCE. POLITICIANS, ACADEMICS AND JOURNALISTS HAVE ALL BEEN SOMEWHAT BLASE' IN THEIR RESPONSE. NEVERTHELESS, THERE SEEMS TO BE A CONSENSUS THAT THE NEW CONSTITUTION IS A NOTABLE IMPROVEMENT OVER ITS PREDECESSOR

(PRESIDENT PARK'S YUSHIN CONSTITUTION) IN A NUMBER OF IMPORTANT RESPECTS. THESE INCLUDE THE LIMITATION OF THE PRESIDENT TO A SINGLE SEVEN-YEAR TERM, THE ELECTION OF ALL MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY (ONE-THIRD WERE APPOINTED UNDER THE OLD SYSTEM), THE FACT THAT THE ASSEMBLY MUST CONCUR IN ANY DECLARATION OF A STATE OF EMERGENCY, AND THE FACT THAT THE CONSTITUTION MAY BE AMENDED ONLY THROUGH A NATIONAL REFERENDUM. ONLY THE FIRST, HOWEVER--THE LIMITATION TO A SINGLE SEVEN-YEAR TERM--SEEMS TO GENERATE ANY REAL ENTHUSIASM. POLITICIANS IN PARTICULAR WITH WHOM WE HAVE TALKED BELIEVE THAT PRESIDENT CHUN HAS EFFECTIVELY BOXED HIMSELF IN ON THIS ISSUE, AND THAT SEVEN YEARS HENCE THERE WILL BE A TRUE PEACEFUL TRANSITION OF POWER IN KOREA. IN THE MEANTIME, THE FACT THAT IN A LITERAL SENSE THE DRAFT CONSTITUTION IS CLEARLY MORE LIBERAL THAN THE EXISTING DOCUMENT SEEMS TO BE VALUED MUCH MORE HIGHLY BY WESTERN OBSERVERS THAN BY THE KOREANS THEMSELVES. KOREANS TEND TO BELIEVE THAT IMPLEMENTATION IS THE KEY TO THE PROTECTIONS AFFORDED BY ANY CONSTITUTION, AND THAT WHATEVER THE DOCUMENT SAYS THE FIRST FEW YEARS OF THE CHUN REGIME WILL BE QUITE AUTHORITARIAN.

5. A DRP ASSEMBLYMAN EXPANDED ON THE IMPORTANCE OF LIMITING THE PRESIDENT TO A SINGLE TERM. HE BELIEVES THAT [redacted]

UNDER CHUN'S SYSTEM A PARTY MAY PERPETUATE ITSELF IN POWER, BUT THE FACT THAT A PRESIDENT CANNOT IS A GREAT IMPROVEMENT OVER KOREA'S RECENT POLITICAL HISTORY. HE SAID THE SINGLE TERM, HOWEVER, RAISES OTHER PROBLEMS. SPECIFICALLY, HE BELIEVES THAT IN MEXICO AND OTHER LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES THE SINGLE TERM HAS ENCOURAGED CORRUPTION.

6. A GROUP OF EDITORIAL WRITERS, REPRESENTING TWO MAJOR KOREAN LANGUAGE DAILIES, AGREED THAT THE DRAFT CONSTITUTION REPRESENTS SOME IMPROVEMENT OVER THE YUSHIN CONSTITUTION, BUT THEY FEEL STRONGLY THAT IT REPRESENTS THE WILL OF PRESIDENT CHUN AND NOT THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE. FOR EXAMPLE, THEY BELIEVE THAT THE PEOPLE WANT DIRECT ELECTIONS FOR THE PRESIDENCY, NOT AN ELECTORAL COLLEGE. THE CONSTITUTION WAS WRITTEN BY "BAMBOO PROFESSORS AND CIVIL SERVANTS," BENDING BEFORE THE WISHES OF CHUN. THE SEVEN-YEAR TERM FOR THE PRESIDENCY IS "MEANINGLESS." "CHUN COULD LAST THREE WEEKS OR 18 YEARS," AND "THE VOTING PROCEDURE IS A FARCE. A "YES" VOTE MEANS CONFIDENCE IN CHUN. A "NO" VOTE MEANS CONFIDENCE IN PARK. WHERE IS THE REAL CHOICE?"

7. IN A SENSE THE TEN SUPPLEMENTARY ACTIONS WHICH ACCOMPANY THE DRAFT CONSTITUTION (SEE PARA 4 REFTEL) ARE MORE CONTROVERSIAL THAN THE DRAFT CONSTITUTION ITSELF. THEY ASSIGN TO THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL FOR NATIONAL

Dear Ms. Ferraro:

Thank you for your letter of September 9 on behalf of your constituent, Mrs. Nora del Valle M. de Chalabe, concerning the disappearance in Argentina of her husband Pablo Jacobe Chalabe.

The Department of State has no information concerning the whereabouts or welfare of Mr. Chalabe. We will ask our Embassy in Buenos Aires to inquire into his case at the Argentine Foreign Ministry's Working Group on Human Rights. As soon as any information is available concerning Mr. Chalabe, our Embassy will contact your office directly.

Be assured that we remain concerned about the human rights situation in Argentina and take every opportunity to press Argentine officials for improvements in this area.

Sincerely,

RELEASED

October 10, 1980

The Honorable Edmund Muskie
Secretary of State
Washington, D.C. 20520

Dear Secretary Muskie:

In behalf of the Mexican-American Coordinating Council of the Synod of the Sun of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A., and the Synod of Red River of the Presbyterian Church, U.S., we urge you to use your influence to "halt all future assistance to the military and police of El Salvador until there is assurance that all repression has ended. Further, that the United States not intervene directly or indirectly in the fate of the people of El Salvador."

The above recommendation was adopted by the Synod of the Sun and Synod of Red River at their joint meeting held in Ft. Worth on September 29 & 30, and October 1, 1980.

The Synods of Sun/Red River bring together all the Presbyterian Churches in the states of Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana.

Thank you for your assistance in the implementation of the above resolution. Paz! Gozo! Amor!

Sinceramente,

Rodolfo L. Guerrero

SUBJ: (U) GOC PROHIBITS RETURN OF PDC PRESIDENT ZALDIVAR FOR ALLEGED SEDITIOUS REMARKS; ZALDIVAR DENIES MAKING SUCH STATEMENTS

1. (U) IN AN INTERIOR MINISTRY STATEMENT ISSUED THE NIGHT OF 16 OCTOBER, THE GOC ACCUSED ANDRE ZALDIVAR, PRESIDENT OF THE CHILEAN CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDC), OF MAKING STATEMENTS WHILE TRAVELLING ABROAD WHICH VIOLATED INTERNAL SECURITY, AND ANNOUNCED FURTHER THAT UNDER DECREE LAW 604 HE WOULD NOT BE PERMITTED TO REENTER CHILE. THE GOC STATEMENT BASED THE ACCUSATION PRIMARILY ON COMMENTS ATTRIBUTED TO SALDIVAR IN AN INTERVIEW PUBLISHED RECENTLY BY THE MEXICAN NEWSPAPER, "UNO MAS UNO," AND QUICKLY PICKED UP BY RADIO MOSCOW. THE GOVERNMENT CLAIMED THAT ZALDIVAR WAS CARRYING OUT A CAMPAIGN TO TARNISH THE REPUTATION OF CHILEAN INSTITUTIONS AND TO FOSTER DIVISION AND INSUBORDINATION WITHIN THE ARMED FORCES.
CONFIDENTIAL

2. (U) ACCORDING TO SUBSEQUENT PRESS REPOTS, HOWEVER, THE MEXICAN NEWSPAPER HAS ACKNOWLEDGED THE INACCURACY OF ITS INTERVIEW, SAYING THERE WERE TWO "INEXCUSABLE" ADDITIONS TO THE TEXT AS PUBLISHED. SPECIFICALLY THE PAPER DISCLAIMED THAT ZALDIVAR HAD SAID THAT A CIVIL WAR WAS POSSIBLE UNDER THE CURRENT GOVERNMENT, OR THAT THE PDC WAS

MAINTAINING CONTACTS WITH THE ARMED FORCES WITH THE INTENT OF PROMOTINGANY DIVISION OR INSUBORDINATION. ZALDIVAR, NOW IN JERUSALEM, IS QUOTED AS DENYING THAT HE HAD BEEN IN MEXICO OR THAT HE HAD MADE ANY STATEMENTS WHILE TRAVELLING ABROAD. HE IS QUOTED FURTHER AS SAYING THAT, ON THE CONTRARY, HE CONSIDERS UNITY OF THE ARMED FORCES ESSENTIAL AND THEIR DIVISION HARMFUL TO THE COUNTRY. THE LOCAL PRESS CITED PDC SOURCES WHO SPECULATED THAT THE INTERVIEW HAD BEEN BASED ON COMMENTS MADE BY ZALDIVAR AFTER THE PDC-SPONSORED PLEBISCITE RALLY HELD AT THE CAUPOLICAN THEATER IN SANTIAGO.

3. (C) WITH THE ISSUANCE OF THE RETRACTION BY THE MEXICAN NEWSPAPER AND THE DENIAL BY ZALDIVAR, THE MAJOR RATIONALE CITED BY THE GOVERNMENT IN BARRING REENTRY HAS BEEN UNDERCUT. ACCORDING TO DECREE LAW 604, A SPECIFIC DECREE WOULD HAVE TO BE ISSUED IN ORDER TO MAKE THE PRO-HIBITION OF ZALDIVAR'S REENTRY OFFICIAL. AS YET THERE HAS BEEN NO PUBLIC REPORT THAT THIS HAS OCCURRED. FURTHER, THE AMBASSADOR HAD OCCASION TO DISCUSS THE MATTER WITH FONMIN ROJAS AND DEPUTY INTERIOR MINISTER MONTERO WITHIN MINUTES OF THE GOC ANNOUNCEMENT. BOTH OFFICIALS WERE CLEARLY UNCOMFORTABLE OVER THE LIKELY INTERNAL AND FOREIGN REACTIONS TO THIS HARSH ACTION. WHILE MORNING PRESS ACCOUNTS WERE ESSENTIALLY FACTUAL REPORTS, LATE AFTERNOON AND PRO-GOC PAPER "LA SEGUNDA" INCLUDED A SURPRIS-INGLY SYMPATHETIC EDITORIAL EXPRESSING THE HOPE THAT THE CONFIDENTIAL

RETRACTION BY THE MEXICAN PAPER AND THE CLARIFICATION BY ZALFIVAR COULD RESOLVED THE CONTROVERSY IN A WAY THAT AVOIDED AN EXTREME AND OUTMODED SANCTION WHILE ALSO CLARIFYING THE LIMITS WITHIN WHICH THE OPPOSITION SHOULD OPERATE. LA SEGUNDA ALSO CITED UNIDENTIFIED GOVERNMENT SOURCES TO THE EFFECT THAT INTERIOR MINISTER FERNANDEZ WAS RECONSIDERING THE CASE BUT THAT NO DECISION WOULD BE TAKEN BEFORE MONDAY.

4. (C) COMMENT: THERE IS STILL SOME CHANCE THAT COOLER HEADS WILL PREVAIL OVER THE WEEKEND AND THE GOVERNMENT WILL BACK OFF ITS ORIGINAL HASTY DECISION TO PUNISH ZALDIVAR. BUT OUTSIDE CRITICISM OR PRESSURE COULD AROUSE RESENTMENT AND PROVOKE A HARD-LINE REACTION TO TOUGH IT OUT. FOR NOW, WE SHOULD NOT SAY OR DO ANYTHING TO INJECT OUR VIEWS IN THE CONTROVERSY, BUT THE AMBASSADOR WILL SEE THE FOREIGN MINISTER AGAIN ON MONDAY, AT WHICH TIME WE CAN WEIGH IN AS NECESSARY.

Attached request for an "advisory visit"

Attached is a description of a visit by an Assistant Chilean Naval Attache to the U.S. Navy Clothing and Textile Research Facility (NCTRF) in Natick, Mass. The Assistant Naval Attache has asked if the NCTRF were able to send representatives to Chile for "advisory visits." SUBJECT: U.S. REACTION TO EXPULSION OF ANDRES ZALDIVAR

1. CONFIDENTIAL -- ENTIRE TEXT.

2. DEPT HAS RECEIVED WORD THAT THE GOC HAS ISSUED A DECREE FORBIDDING THE RETURN TO CHILE OF CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDC) LEADER ANDRES ZALDIVAR. WE UNDERSTAND ZALDIVAR IS CURRENTLY IN ISRAEL AND WILL TRAVEL FROM THERE TO ROME. ACCORDING TO THE INFORMATION WE HAVE RECEIVED THE GOC TOOK ACTION ON THE BASIS OF A MEXICAN MAGAZINE STORY BASED ON PUBLIC STATEMENTS ZALDIVAR HAD MADE IN SANTIAGO AUGUST 30. WE ARE ALSO TOLD THAT THESE STATEMENTS ARE REPORTED INCORRECTLY AND/OR TAKEN OUT OF CONTEXT AND THAT ZALDIVAR HAS ISSUED A DENIAL.

3. WE REALIZE THAT PINOCHET GOVERNMENT, HAVING FINALLY TAKEN THIS ACTION AGAINST THE INCUMBENT LEADER OF THE LARGEST DEMOCRATIC PARTY (REPORTEDLY AN EFFORT LAST YEAR WAS TURNED OFF ONLY AT THE LAST MOMENT), MAY NOT READILY REVERSE ITSELF. WE ARE ALSO AWARE OF COMPLICATIONS CREATED BYERRONEOUSBELIEF AMONGSOME GOC SUPPORTERS THAT USG

HAS A SPECIAL RELATIONSHIP WITH THE PDC. NEVERTHELESS,

AS MATTER OF PRINCIPLE AND IN INTEREST OF LONGER TERM U.S./CHILE RELATIONS, WE BELIEVE IT IMPORTANT THAT AN EFFORT BE MADE TO PURSUADE THE GOC TO REVOKE EXPULSION DECREE. THIS RESULT IS PROBABLY MORE LIKELY IF IMMEDIATE EFFORTS ARE CONDUCTED PRIVATELY TO THE GREATEST EXTENT POSSIBLE. FOR YOUR INFORMATION, AND POSSIBLE COORDINATED ACTION IN SANTIAGO, WE HAVE BEEN TOLD THAT THE PDC IS SEEKING, AND BELIEVES IT HAS, SUPPORT IN THIS EFFORT FROM VENEZUELAN AND POSSIBLY OTHER ANDEAN GOVERNMENTS, AS WELL AS FROM SOME OF THE WEST EUROPEANS.

4. DEPT WOULD APPRECIATE EMBASSY ASSESSMENT AND RECOMMENDA TIONS. HOWEVER, UNLESS YOU BELIEVE IT COUNTERPRODUCTIVE AT THIS TIME, YOU SHOULD SEEK EARLY MEETING WITH FOREIGN MINISTER ROJAS OR OTHER TOP OFFICIAL TO EXPRESS USG CONCERN FOR EXPLUSION OF WELL-KNOWN DEMOCRATIC LEADER AND THE FACT, OBVIOUS THOUGH IT MAY BE, THAT ACTIONS OF THIS SORT DO NOTHING TO HELP U.S./CHILE RELATIONS OR TO ESTABLISH THE CREDIBILITY FOR ITS NEW CONSTITUTION AND TRANSITION PLAN WHICH THE GOC CLEARLY SEEKS.

5. WHILE WE DO NOT PLAN DEPT STATEMENT AT THIS TIME ON ZALDIVAR EXPULSION, SPOKESMAN MAY WELL RECEIVE A QUESTION EARLY NEXT WEEK. IF SO, WE WILL REPLY IN LOW KEY MANNER SAYING USG OPPOSES THE EXPULSION OF ANY CITIZEN

1. (U) DURING EVENING OF OCTOBER 17, INTERIOR MINISTER FERNANDEZ ISSUED NEW STATEMENT ON ZALDIVAR CASE IN WHICH HE ACKNOWLEDGED DENIAL BY ZALDIVAR OF ALLEGED SEDITIOUS REMARKS AND RETRACTION BY MEXICAN NEWSPAPER "UNO MAS UNO" AND SAID GOC WOULD RECONSIDER ITS DECISION TO BAR ZALDIVAR'S RETURN IF THE LATTER ISSUED AN "ADEQUATE DENIAL" OF HIS COMMENTS TO THE PAPER AND ALSO MADE A "PUBLIC AND OFFICIAL COMMITMENT TO RESPECT THE FRAMEWORK OF OUR JURIDICAL SYSTEM". WHILE THIS NEW STATEMENT PROVIDES OFFICIAL CONFIRMATION THAT GOC IS PREPARED TO RECONSIDER THE CASE, THE TONE IS TOUGH AND FERNANDEZ REPEATS HIS EARLIER CONTENTION THAT THE COMMENTS ATTRIBUTED TO ZALDIVAR BY THE MEXICAN PAPER ARE ONLY THE CULMINATION OF A SYSTEMATIC EFFORT INSIDE AND OUTSIDE CHILE BY ZALDIVAR TO DENY VALIDITY TO CHILE'S

JURIDICAL SYSTEM AND TO THE NEW CONSTITUTION. WHILE THE GOVERNMENT IS PREPARED TO ACCEPT LEGITIMATE CRITICISM OF ITS ACTS, FERNANDEZ ADDED, IT WILL NOT PERMIT EFFORTS TO DENY RESPECT FOR CONSTITUTED AUTHORITY, THE JURIDICAL SYSTEM, OR THE NEW CONSTITUTION, AND THOSE WHO PERSIST IN SUCH EFFORTS, HE WARNED, SHOULD BE AWARE OF THE CONSEQUENCES.

2. (LOU) THERE HAS BEEN NO PUBLIC REACTION SO FAR FROM THE PDC AND WE UNDERSTAND THE LEADERSHIP IS HUDDLING TO DECIDE HOW TO RESPOND, PRESUMABLY IN CONSULTATION WITH ZALDIVAR, NOW IN ROME. THE NEW STATEMENT BY FERNANDEZ AND ITS APPARENT OPENING WILL CALL FOR ADDITIONAL CONSIDERATION BY PARTY LEADERS.

3. (C) THE GOVERNMENT HAS NOW OPENED THE DOOR AT LEAST SLIGHTLY, BUT IT IS NOT CLEAR WHAT THEY MAY INSIST ON BY WAY OF FURTHER DENIALS OR CLARIFICATION BY ZALDIVAR, ESPECIALLY SINCE HIS ALLEGED COMMENTS WERE MADE IN AN INTERVIEW GIVEN BEFORE THE VOTE OF SEPTEMBER 11. ON THE OTHER HAND, IT OUGHT NOT BE TOO DIFFICULT FOR ANY SEASONED POLITICAL LEADER TO DECLARE HIS UNSWERVING LOYALTY TO THE TRADITIONS AND IDEALS OF CHILE'S LEGAL ORDER WITHOUT PLEDGING ALLEGIANCE TO PINOCHET. SINCE THE BALL IS IN PLAY, WE CONTINUE TO BELIEVE THAT OUTSIDE PRESSURE MUST BE AVOIDED FOR NOW. FOR THE TIME BEING, THEREFORE, THE DEPARTMENT SHOULD REFRAIN FROM ANY STATEMENT ON THE CASE AND, IF ASKED, SHOULD ONLY NOTE THAT THE GOC DECISION APPEARS TO BE UNDER REVIEW AND WE ARE WAITING TO SEE WHAT THE OUTCOME MAY BE.

THE LARGEST OF THESE IS THE U.S. ARMY SCHOOL OF THE AMERICA (USARSA) AT FORT GULICK. YEARS, IAAFA HAS TAUGHT OVER 15,000 STUDENTS IN A BROAD RANGE OF SUBJECTS, PRIMARILY OF A TECHNICAL NATURE.

"USARSA DATES ITS EXISTENCE TO 1946, WHEN IT ORIGINATED AS THE LATIN AMERICAN TRAINING CENTER. IT BY FAR HAS THE LARGEST ROLL OF GRADUATES -- SOME 38,500 TO DATE. AS MANY AS 40 DIFFERENT COURSES HAVE BEEN OFFERED IN SOME PAST YEARS, ALTHOUGH THE CURRENT CURRICULUM HAS 15.

"SCIATT IS THE YOUNGEST AND SMALLEST OF THE SCHOOLS. SINCE ITS ESTABLISHMENT IN 1963, IT HAS PROVIDED TRAINING IN THE GENERAL AREAS OF SMALL CRAFT OPERATION, REPAIR AND MAINTENANCE TO 1,400 LATIN AMERICAN NAVY MEN.

"OVER THE YEARS, MILITARY STUDENTS FROM 20 DIFFERENT HEMISPHERIC COUNTRIES HAVE COME TO PANAMA TO ENJOY THE MODERN TRAINING FACILITIES AND TECHNIQUES, ALONG WITH EXPERT INSTRUCTION FROM HIGHLY QUALIFIED U.S. INSTRUCTORS AND GUEST INSTRUCTORS FROM VARIOUS NATIONS OF THE AMERICAS.

"MOST OF THE COURSES OFFERED FOLLOW TRAINING GIVEN AT U.S. SERVICE SCHOOLS. HOWEVER, COURSES OFTEN CAN BE TAILORED TO FIT THE SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS OF INDIVIDUAL COUNTRIES. FOR EXAMPLE, 250 SALVADORANS ARE RECEIVING TRAINING AT USARSA THIS YEAR IN A COURSE ENTITLED 'HUMAN RIGHTS ASPECTS IN INTERNAL DEFENSE AND DEVELOPMENT.' THIS THREE-WEEK COURSE IS INTENDED TO ENHANCE SELF-DISCIPLINE AND THE CONTROL OF THE USE OF FORCE, AND IS IN LINE WITH THE SALVADORAN GOVERNMENT'S POLICY THAT THEIR SECURITY FORCES MUST RESPECT THE HUMAN RIGHTS OF ALL SALVADORANS.

"AS THE STATE DEPARTMENT EXPLAINED, THE SALVADORAN GOVERNMENT

AND ITS ARMED FORCES ARE COMBATING TERRORISM FROM BOTH THE RIGHT AND THE LEFT, AND SEEKING TO REDUCE VIOLENCE IN THAT COUNTRY. THEY REQUESTED THE TRAINING FROM THE U.S. AND THEY, AS WELL AS THE U.S., VIEW THE TRAINING AS SUPPORTING THEIR CONCERN FOR HUMAN RIGHTS, THE SPOKESMAN ADDED.

"IN ALL, 308 SALVADORANS ARE BEING TRAINED THIS YEAR AT PANAMA, IN ADDITION TO THOSE AT USARSA, OTHERS ARE RECEIVING INSTRUCTION IN PRIMARILY TECHNICAL SKILLS, SUCH AS MAINTENANCE AND SUPPLY, AT IAAFA AND SCIATT.

"THE CONTRIBUTIONS OF THE SCHOOLS TO THE WELL-BEING AND DEVELOPMENT OF LATIN AMERICA HAVE BEEN GREAT AND VARIED, SCHOOLS OFFICIALS NOTE, AND ARE BOTH TANGIBLE AND INTANGIBLE. COLLECTIVELY THEY HELP FORM THE BACKBONE OF INTERNAL DEVELOPMENT.

"THE INFUSION OF PROFESSIONALISM INTO THE LEADERSHIP OF THE LATIN AMERICAN ARMED FORCES THROUGH ATTENDANCE AT THE SCHOOLS IS CONSIDERED TO HAVE HELPED PROVIDE -- THROUGH STRONG DEFENSE AND SECURITY -- A CLIMATE OF TRANQUILITY AND STABILITY IN MANY COUNTRIES SO THAT NATIONAL ENERGIES COULD BE CONCENTRATED ON ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL IMPROVEMENT FOR THEIR CITIZENS.

"MANY GRADUATES HAVE GONE ON TO BECOME NATIONAL LEADERS IN GOVERNMENT AS WELL AS THE ARMED SERVICES. THEY INCLUDE BRIGADIER GENERAL OMAR TORRIJOS, COMMANDER OF THE PANAMA NATIONAL GUARD, WHO ATTENDED FOUR COURSES AT USARSA; AND EX-PRESIDENT OF BOLIVIA HUGO BANZER.

"AND THOUSANDS OF LESS FAMOUS GRADUATES HAVE MADE THEIR CONTRIBUTIONS TO THEIR NATION'S PROGRESS THROUGH SKILLS LEARNED AT THE PANAMA SCHOOLS. STUDENTS WHO LEARNED TO OPERATE EARTH-MOVING EQUIPMENT OR TO MAINTAIN VEHICLES AT USARSA LATER WENT ON TO BUILD ROADS OR BECOME AUTOMOTIVE REPAIRMEN FOR THE CIVILIAN SECTOR OF THEIR RESPECTIVE COUNTRIES.

"SIMILARLY, IAAFA OFFICIALS NOTE THAT THERE ISN'T A MAJOR COMMERCIAL AIRPORT OR NATIONAL RADIO/TELEVISION NETWORK IN LATIN AMERICA THAT DOESN'T HAVE AT LEAST ONE OF ITS GRADUATES AT WORK THERE. THEY COMMENT, TOO, ON THE PARTICULAR IMPORTANCE OF AVIATION TO THE ANDEAN NATIONS, WHERE AIR IS VIRTUALLY THE SOLE MEANS OF EAST-WEST TRAVEL. THEY SAY THEIR GRADUATES KEEP THE PLANES FLYING THAT MAINTAIN CONTACT WITH OTHERWISE INACCESSIBLE PARTS OF THESE NATIONS.

"SCIATT'S GRADUATES, WHO HAVE STUDIED ELECTRICAL MAINTENANCE, AIR CONDITIONING OR WELDING, HAVE ALSO BEEN ABLE TO APPLY THEIR TRADES TO ECONOMIC PROGRESS.

"SCHOOL OFFICIALS POINT OUT THAT THESE CONTRIBUTIONS BY TECHNICIANS ARE REALLY INCALCULABLE, SINCE THERE IS A MULTIPLIER

OF WHAT HE HAS LEARNED -- MAINTENANCE, SUPPLY, WELDING, MECHANICS, OR WHATEVER -- TO OTHER PERSONS AT HOME. THEY IN TURN HAVE TAUGHT STILL OTHERS, CONSTANTLY BROADENING THE TECHNICAL BASE THAT IS ESSENTIAL TO DEVELOPMENT.

"THE SCHOOLS ALSO HELP FOSTER INTERAMERICAN RELATIONS THROUGH THE STUDENT MIX OF MEMBERS OF THE DIFFERENT ARMED FORCES WHO HAVE GATHERED TOGETHER SOLELY FOR THE PURPOSE OF LEARNING. MANY NATIONAL ANIMOSITIES HAVE DIMINISHED BETWEEN PERSONS OF NATIONS WHICH HAVE LONG FEUDED. SCHOOL OFFICIALS POINT OUT. 'WE BELIEVE, TOO, THAT SOME OF OUR DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES AND THE SUBORDINATION OF THE MILITARY TO CIVILIAN AUTHORITY IN THE U.S. RUB OFF ON OUR STUDENTS,' THEY ADDED.

"CONTRARY TO SOMETIMES HEARD SPECULATION, PARTICULARLY ABOUT USARSA, NO SECRET, COUNTERINSURGENCY OR 'TORTURE-TYPE' COURSES ARE CONDUCTED. NOR ARE INTELLIGENCE OR POLICE COURSES. EVERY COURSE'S PROGRAM OF INSTRUCTION IS OPENLY PUBLISHED, AND AVAILABLE TO ALL STUDENTS AND FACULTY MEMBERS, INCLUDING THE LATIN AMERICAN GUEST INSTRUCTORS WHO MAKE UP HALF OF THE FACULTY. 'THE SCHOOLS ARE AN OPEN BOOK,' SAYS ONE OFFICIAL.

"DURING THE NEXT YEAR 10 COUNTRIES ARE SCHEDULED TO HAVE STUDENTS AT THE THREE SCHOOLS. SOME NATIONS HAVE BEEN BANNED FROM ANY SECURITY ASSISTANCE FROM THE U.S. BECAUSE OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUE, AND THUS ARE INELIGIBLE TO ATTEND.

"UNDER AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN PANAMA AND THE UNITED STATES SIGNED IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE NEW PANAMA CANAL TREATY, THE U.S. CONTINUES TO OPERATE THE SECURITY ASSISTANCE SCHOOLS IN PANAMA. THE AUTHORITY TO OPERATE USARSA EXPIRES SEPTEMBER 30, 1984, UNLESS PANAMA AGREES TO ITS CONTINUATION.

"PANAMA IS ONE OF THE MAJOR USERS OF THE U.S. SCHOOLS." UNQUOTE MUSKIE

E.O. 12065: GDS 10/19/93
TAGS: PINS, PINT, ES
SUBJECT: RIGHTIST COUP PLOTTING: CURRENTLY INCIPIENT BUT PRESENT WITH POSSIBILITIES

REF: SAN SALVADOR 7068

1. SUMMARY: RIGHTWING COUP PLOTTING IS INCIPIENT AND SO FAR APPARENTLY CONFINED TO A PREDOMINANTLY MILITARY CLIQUE. UNFORTUNATELY, LOCAL PERCEPTIONS OF PREVAILING TRENDS, BOTH IN EL SALVADOR AND THE U.S., ARE MORE LIKELY TO FOSTER THAN RETARD COUP PROSPECTS. AT A MINIMUM, PLOTTERS SEEK TO OUST COLONEL MAJANO FROM JRG AND RADICALLY REORIENT GOES PACIFICATION CAMPAIGN FROM A PREDOMINANTLY POLITICAL TO A PREDOMINANTLY MILITARY EFFORT. WHILE PRINCIPAL DETERRENT TO COUP IS POSSIBILITY OF A STRONG ADVERSE REACTION BY CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDC), THE U.S., MEXICO, EUROPE, ETC., PLOTTERS APPARENTLY BELIEVE THREAT IS MORE APPARENT THAN REAL, GIVEN THEIR PERCEPTION OF PREVALENT TRENDS HERE AND IN THE U.S. TO MINIMIZE HOSTILE REACTION, COUP WILL BE DOWNPLAYED AS NOTHING MORE THAN A PALACE AFFAIR IN WHICH ONE MILITARY MAN IS REPLACED BY ANOTHER. WHILE COUP PLANNING IS LIKELY TO PICK UP CONSIDERABLE MOMENTUM BY NOVEMBER 4, ACTUAL COUP IS NOT LIKELY TO COME BEFORE U.S. POLITICAL INTERREGNUM BETWEEN NOVEMBER 6 AND JANUARY 20. PRESUMPTION OF PLOTTERS, OF COURSE, IS THAT REPUBLICANS WILL WIN. FINALLY, WHILE A REAGAN VICTORY WILL CONSIDERABLY ENHANCE COUP PROSPECTS, A CARTER VICTORY WILL DIMINISH, BUT NOT NECESSARILY ELIMINATE THREAT OF A SHARP RIGHTWARD SHIFT.
COMMENT: INHERENT IN ABOVE SCENARIO IS DANGER THAT, ESPECIALLY WITH MAJANO OUT OF THE JUNTA, REPRESSION WILL INTENSIFY SHARPLY TOGETHER WITH STEPPED UP MILITARY EFFORT AGAINST GUERRILLAS. IF, AS IS NOT UNLIKELY, INCREASED MILITARY EFFORTS, EXEMPLIFIED BY CURRENT OFFENSIVE IN MORAZAN, FAILS TO BREAK BACK OF INSURGENCY IN BORDER AREAS, UNBRIDLED TERROR AGAINST ALL SUSPECTED ENEMIES COULD THEN ERRONEOUSLY AND TRAGICALLY BE PERCEIVED AS COUNTRY'S ONLY REMAINING DEFENSE AGAINST DREADED LEFTIST TAKEOVER. END COMMENT. END SUMMARY.

2. INITIAL REPORT OF RIGHTIST COUP PLOTTING IN SAN SALVADOR DOES NOT SEEM SUBSTANTIATED IN RECENT DAYS BY FURTHER EVIDENCE. WHILE PRELIMINARY INDICATIONS ARE THAT COUP PLOTTING IS STILL AT AN INCIPIENT STAGE AND CONFINED TO A SMALL, PREDOMINANTLY MILITARY CLIQUE, SALVADORAN PERCEPTION OF APPARENTLY PERVASIVE VICTORY BY THE U.S. IS LIKELY TO FOSTER RATHER THAN DISCOURAGE COUP PLOTTING. SALVADORAN PERCEPTION [illegible]

[illegible] THAT A REAGAN VICTORY WILL RESULT IN A MARKED SHIFT IN U.S. POLICY TOWARD EL SALVADOR THAT WILL RELEGATE HUMAN RIGHTS TO LAST PLACE, WELL BEHIND NEED TO COMBAT THREAT OF INTERNATIONAL COMMUNISM AND TO SHORE UP FREE ENTERPRISE ABROAD BY BACKING PRIVATE SECTORS.

(B) THAT JRG'S EFFORTS TO DEFEAT TERRORISTS BY POLITICAL MEANS HAVE FAILED TO STOP TERRORISTS' WAR OF ATTRITION AIMED AT DISRUPTING ECONOMY AND INFLICTING CASUALTIES ON MILITARY/SECURITY FORCES.

(C) THAT COLONEL MAJANO IS CAUSING MORE PROBLEMS IN THE JUNTA THAN HE COULD OUTSIDE AND THAT MAJANO WILL RESIST STEPPED UP MILITARY CAMPAIGN AGAINST GUERRILLAS AS WELL AS URBAN TERRORISTS.

(D) THAT POC HAS FAILED TO WIN POPULAR SUPPORT AND IS TIED TO MILITARY, FOR BETTER OR WORSE.

(E) THAT POC IS INCOMPETENT ADMINISTRATIVELY AND CANNOT IMPLEMENT REFORM PROGRAM IT INITIATED WHILE CONTINUING TO COLD SHOULDER PRIVATE SECTOR, WHICH DOES HAVE MANAGERIAL AND TECHNICAL ABILITY POC DESPERATELY NEEDS.

(F) THAT FOREIGN AFFAIRS AGENCIES OF USG ARE INCREASINGLY DIVIDED OVER POLICY TOWARD EL SALVADOR, ESPECIALLY CONCERNING RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN HUMAN RIGHTS AND MILITARY ASSISTANCE.

(G) THAT THREAT OF POC PULLOUT OR LOSS OF US/VENEZUELAN SUPPORT AND END TO TOLERANCE BY MEXICO, PANAMA, ETC. ARE MORE APPARENT THAN REAL. ALL COULD BE OFFSET, AT LEAST PARTIALLY, BUT GREATER PRIVATE SECTOR PARTICIPATION AND INCREASED SUPPORT FROM GUATEMALA/SOUTHERN CONE COUNTRIES.

5. EVEN MOST REACTIONARY CIVILIAN/MILITARY RIGHTISTS NO LONGER CONTEMPLATE TURNING CLOCK BACK TO THE STATUS QUO ANTE; AT A MINIMUM COUP INSTIGATORS SEEK OUSTER OF COLONEL MAJANO AND A SHARP SHIFT FROM A PREDOMINANTLY POLITICAL TO A PREDOMINANTLY MILITARY EFFORT AGAINST THE LEFT. COUP PLOTTERS BELIEVE THAT POC'S POLITICAL SOLUTION HAS FAILED TO INHIBIT LEFT'S WAR OF ATTRITION AND, IN THEIR VIEW, ONLY REMAINING RECOURSE IS AN ALL OUT MILITARY EFFORT TO EXTERMINATE TERRORISTS ONCE AND FOR ALL (ONLY LEFTWING TERRORISTS, OF COURSE.).

6. COUP PLOTTERS FACE OBVIOUS RISKS, CHIEF ONES BEING:

(A) RE-ELECTION OF PRESIDENT CARTER.

(B) POC PULLOUT FROM JRG.

(C) WITHDRAWAL OF U.S./VENEZUELAN SUPPORT AND BREAK IN RELATIONS WITH MEXICO/PANAMA/NICARAGUA.

(D) FOR GAINS ALLEGIANCE OF MAJANO AND/OR POC.
IF PRESIDENT CARTER IS RE-ELECTED, CHANCES ARE THAT COUP WILL BE PIGEON-HOLED UNLESS PLOTTERS BELIEVE THAT USG IS STILL DIVIDED OVER WHAT TO DO IN EL SALVADOR. WITHDRAWAL OF POC AND END TO US/VENEZUELAN SUPPORT ARE SEEN AS UNLIKELY BECAUSE ALL ARE TOO TIGHTLY TIED TO JRG AND HAVE TOO MUCH TO LOSE IF EL SALVADOR FALLS TO MARXISTS.

7. COUP PLOTTERS ARE LIKELY TO PLAY DOWN ITS IMPORTANCE TO AVOID BAD REACTION BY PORTRAYING IT AS NOTHING MORE THAN A PALACE COUP IN WHICH ONE MILITARY FIGURE IN THE JRG (MAJANO) IS REPLACED BY ANOTHER. ONCE COUP GENIE IS OUT OF THE BOTTLE, HOWEVER, IT WILL BE HARD TO AVOID REAL BREAKDOWN OF JRG. FOR EXAMPLE, OUSTER OF MAJANO IN CONJUNCTION WITH SHARP INCREASE IN VIOLENCE IS SURE TO ANTAGONIZE FOREIGN SUPPORTERS AND CAUSE SHARP DOMESTIC REACTION. REFORM PROGRAM WOULD BE EASILY VICTIM OF REPRESSION AND STEPPED UP VIOLENCE. SHIFT AWAY FROM REFORM TOWARD REPRESSION WOULD ALMOST CERTAINLY GIVE THE FDR A NEW LEASE ON LIFE AND STEP UP ITS RECRUITMENT.

8. COUP IS LIKELY TO PICK UP STEAM AS NOVEMBER 4 APPROACHES BUT WILL PROBABLY NOT TAKE PLACE UNLESS THERE IS AN INTERREGNUM IN THE U.S.

9. IF GOV. REAGAN WINS, COUP PROSPECTS WILL BE ENHANCED CONSIDERABLY. IF PRESIDENT CARTER WINS, COUP PROSPECTS WILL FADE, BUT THIS DEPENDS ON HOW MUCH MOMENTUM BUILDS UP BEFORE NOVEMBER.

10. COMMENT: THE CHIEF DANGER IS THAT THE COUP WILL GO OFF PREMATURELY AND PRESENT US WITH A CRISIS IN THE NEXT TWO WEEKS. THE OUSTER OF MAJANO IN CONJUNCTION WITH A STEPPED UP MILITARY CAMPAIGN AGAINST LEFT WILL ALMOST CERTAINLY PROVOKE A DRASTIC RISE IN REPRESSIVE VIOLENCE BY THE RIGHT AND SECURITY FORCES. THE CURRENT GOVERNMENT OFFENSIVE IN MORAZAN WILL PROBABLY FAIL TO ROUTE OUT THE GUERRILLAS ON ANY GREAT SCALE AND THE MILITARY MAY TURN THEN TO UNBRIDLED REPRESSION AS THE COUNTRY'S ONLY REMAINING DEFENSE. THE RESULTING OFFICIALLY SANCTIONED REPRESSION, COMBINED WITH SLACKING OFF OF REFORMS AND POLITICAL PROCESS, WILL SOON LEAD TO RECRUDESCENCE OF POPULAR SUPPORT FOR THE FAR LEFT. IF FDC PROVES ITSELF INEXTRICABLY LINKED TO REPRESSIVE MILITARY, OR QUITS JRG EN MASSE, A REVIVED FDR WOULD PROBABLY TAKE ROUND TWO BY DEFAULT. END COMMENT. WHITE

SUBJECT: GOC SETS REQUIREMENT FOR PDC PRESIDENT ZALDIVAR'S RETURN

REF: SANTIAGO 6480 AND PREVIOUS

1. (U) INTERIOR MINISTER SERGIO FERNANDEZ ISSUED A STATEMENT THIS AFTERNOON (OCTOBER 20) IN WHICH HE SET FORTH THE SPECIFIC CONDITIONS REQUIRED BY THE GOC FOR THE RETURN OF ANDRES ZALDIVAR, PRESIDENT OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDC).

2. (U) THE DECLARATION EMPHASIZES THAT THE GOC'S ACTION IN INITIALLY PROHIBITING ZALDIVAR'S REEENTRY INTO CHILE WAS NOT BASED SOLELY ON HIS ALLEGED STATEMENTS TO A MEXICAN DAILY "UNO MAS UNO" (SINCE REFUTED BY BOTH THE DAILY AND ZALDIVAR), BUT ON THE "TOTALITY OF HIS RECENT ACTIONS". FERNANDEZ THEN SETS FORTH THAT ZALDIVAR MUST SIGN A WRITTEN STATEMENT, TO BE PREPARED BY THE GOC, BEFORE A CHILEAN CONSUL IN ACCORDANCE WITH DECREE LAW 604. IN HIS STATEMENT ZALDIVAR MUST STATE THAT HE "ACCEPTS AND RESPECTS THE AUTHORITY OF THE PRESENT GOVERNMENT, ITS JURIDICAL SYSTEM, AND THE RESULTS OF THE SEPTEMBER 11 PLEBISCITE".

3. (U) PRO-GOC AFTERNOON DAILY "LA SEGUNDA" QUOTED

"GOVERNMENT SOURCES" AS SAYING THAT THE REQUIRED STATEMENT WILL NOT FORCE ZALDIVAR TO ACCEPT SOMETHING THAT WOULD BE IDEALOGICALLY EMBARRASSING FOR HIM, SUCH AS REQUIRING HIS COMPLETE ACCEPTANCE OF THE PRESENT SYSTEM. RATHER, THE SOURCES SAY, ZALDIVAR IS SIMPLY BEING ASKED TO RESPECT THE PRESENT AUTHORITIES, THE NEW CONSTITUTION AND THE LAW.

4. (C) COMMENT: WE EXPECT FURTHER NEWS TOMORROW. UNTIL THEN, THE DEPARTMENT SHOULD CONTINUE TO REFRAIN FROM MAKING ANY STATEMENT ON THE CASE AND, IF ASKED, SHOULD NOTE THAT THE MATTER IS STILL PENDING.

REF: SANTIAGO 6480 AND PREVIOUS

1. (LOU) DESPITE RUMORS OF AN IMMINENT DECLARATION BY THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY ON THE ZALDIVAR CASE, THERE HAS BEEN NO STATEMENT AS OF COB OCTOBER 22. WE UNDERSTAND FROM OPPOSITION AS WELL AS CONSERVATIVE SOURCES, HOWEVER, THAT THERE ARE ACTIVE EFFORTS UNDERWAY TO TRY TO TURN THE GOC DECISION AROUND. CENTER-RIGHT MAGAZINE "QUE PASA", FOR EXAMPLE, IN ITS EDITORIAL STATES EXPLICITLY THAT THE ACTION BY THE INTERIOR MINISTER IS NOT CONSISTENT WITH CHILEAN LAW AND IS A GRAVE ERROR WHICH UNDERMINES THE CONSTRUCTIVE PURPOSES OF THE GOVERNMENT. COMMENTARY FROM OTHER SOURCES WHICH ARE NORMALLY SUPPORTIVE OF THE GOC AND CRITICAL OF THE PDC FOLLOWS SIMILAR LINES.

2. (C) A NEW AND POSSIBLY MORE HOPEFUL ELEMENT IN THE SITUATION IS THE INVOLVEMENT OF THE CHURCH; WE UNDER-

STAND THAT CARDINAL SILVA AND THE PAPAL NUNCIO HAVE DISCUSSED THE CASE WITH GOVERNMENT LEADERS. THE LATE AFTERNOON PAPER "LA SEGUNDA" ATTRIBUTES THE DELAY BY THE PDC IN MAKING A STATEMENT TO HOPES BY PARTY LEADERS THAT THE CHURCH MIGHT BE ABLE TO DEFUSE THE CONFRONTATION.

3. (C) COMMENT: THE SITUATION IS STILL VERY MUCH IN FLUX BUT THE MODERATE AND DEMOCRATIC SECTORS SEEM TO BE INCREASING THE PRESSURE ON PINOCHET AND THE HARDLINERS. WE HAVE STAYED IN CLOSE TOUCH WITH PDC LEADERS BUT HAVE NOT BEEN ASKED TO TAKE ANY ACTION TO HELP. CHILEAN SENSITIVITY TO OUTSIDE PRESSURES IS ALSO ILLUSTRATED, IN SAME ISSUE OF "QUE PASA" WHICH SUPPORTED ZALDIVAR'S RETURN BY SHARP CRITICISM OF ITALIAN DC LEADER MARIANO RUMOR FOR MAKING HASTY REMARKS ABOUT THE SITUATION HERE. WE CONTINUE TO BELIEVE, THEREFORE, THAT DEPARTMENT SHOULD AVOID PUBLIC COMMENT ON THIS CASE UNTIL THE OUTCOME IS CLEAR. (FYI: THE NECESSARY LEGAL DECREE TO MAKE THE GOC DECISION EFFECTIVE HAS NOT YET BEEN ISSUED.)

SUBJECT: PDC ISSUES STATEMENT ON ZALDIVAR CASE EXPRESSING HOPE THAT GOC WILL ALLOW HIS RETURN

REF: SANTIAGO 6601 AND PREVIOUS

1. (U) LATE ON OCTOBER 22, THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDC) ISSUED A SEVEN-POINT STATEMENT IN SUPPORT OF PDC PRESIDENT ANDRES ZALDIVAR, BARRED BY THE GOVERNMENT FROM RETURNING TO CHILE. THE STATEMENT, SIGNED BY EDUARDO FREI AND 45 OTHER MEMBERS OF THE PDC, ARGUES IN MODERATE LANGUAGE THAT THE INTERIOR MINISTRY DECISION HAS NO BASIS AND SHOULD BE RESCINDED.

2. (U) THE FOLLOWING IS A SUMMARY OF THE PDC'S MAJOR POINTS:

-- IT IS CLEAR THAT ZALDIVAR DID NOT MAKE ANY STATEMENTS ABROAD, OR SEEK TO PROMOTE DIVISION AND SUBVERSION

AMONG THE MILITARY, OR DENIGRATE THE COUNTRY AND ITS INSTITUTIONS. GIVEN THE DENIAL OF ZALDIVAR AND THE RETRACTION OF THE MEXICAN NEWSPAPER, "UNO MAS UNO," THE SPECIFIC REASONS CITED BY THE GOVERNMENT FOR ACTING AGAINST ZALDIVAR ARE UNSUBSTANTIATED.
-- SIMILARLY WITHOUT BASIS ARE THE GOVERNMENT'S

STATEMENTS THAT ZALDIVAR'S RECENT PUBLIC ACTIVITIES DISCREDITED THE CONSTITUTION AND JURIDICAL SYSTEM AND SERVED AS AN ADDITIONAL JUSTIFICATION FOR BARRING HIS RETURN. ZALDIVAR'S ACTIVITIES WERE PART OF THE PRE-PLEBISCITE DEBATE, IN WHICH HE WAS SUPPORTED BY AT LEAST TWO MILLION PEOPLE (VOTING "NO"). THE ARGUMENTS HE USED WERE IN THE HIGHEST FORM OF PUBLIC DISCUSSION, EMPLOYING FREEDOM OF THOUGHT AND EXPRESSION UNDER THE MARGIN OF LIBERTY GUARANTEED BY THE GOVERNMENT. IT WAS NO ONE'S UNDERSTANDING THAT SUCH A DEBATE WAS TO RESULT IN SANCTIONS. THE EXTREME MEASURE TAKEN AGAINST ZALDIVAR CANNOT BE EXPLAINED AND IS IMPROPER.
-- THE CASE SERVES TO POINT OUT THE RISKS FACED BY ANYONE WHO OFFERS A DIFFERING POLITICAL OPINION AND SHOULD THEN HAPPEN TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY.
-- THE RESTRICTION AGAINST RETURNING IS FOR AN UNLIMITED PERIOD. THIS NOT ONLY IS JURIDICALLY WRONG BUT IT CAUSES HARM TO THE FAMILY AND CIVILIZED LIFE.
-- THE GOVERNMENT'S STATEMENTS HAVE CONFUSED THE RIGHT OF THE STATE TO REQUIRE RESPECT FOR NORMS WITH THE RIGHT OF EACH CITIZEN TO EXERCISE FREEDOM OF THOUGHT AND EXPRESSION. THE NEED FOR CIVIL OBEDIENCE DOES NOT EMPOWER THE STATE TO OBTAIN A STATEMENT REGARDING POLITICAL CONVICTIONS. IF ZALDIVAR'S ACTIONS HAVE BROKEN THE LAW, HE SHOULD BE TRIED BY THE COURTS AND NOT SANCTION BY ADMINISTRATIVE DECREE.
CONFIDENTIAL

-- THE GOVERNMENT'S PROPOSAL THAT ZALDIVAR SIGN A STATEMENT, WHICH THE GOVERNMENT ITSELF HAS DRAFTED, IS UNJUST AND INTENDED AS AN ACT OF HUMILIATION.
-- ALTHOUGH PRESIDENT PINOCHET SAID ON THE DAY OF THE PLEBISCITE THAT THERE WERE NEITHER VICTORS NOR LOSERS, THE COUNTRY CAN SEE THAT DEEDS HAVE NOT FOLLOWED WORDS. NO PEACEFUL AND STABLE ORDER CAN BE ESTABLISHED EXCEPT ON THE BASIS OF RESPECT FOR DIGNITY AND ESSENTIAL RIGHTS, WHATEVER THE PERSON'S POSITION, POWER OR IDEAS. THE SIGNERS EXPRESS THE HOPE THAT THE MEASURE AGAINST ZALDIVAR WILL BE RESCINDED.

3. (C) COMMENT: THE PDC HAS TAKEN THE HIGH ROAD OF REASON AND LEGALITY IN THIS EFFORT TO GET THE GOVERNMENT TO BACK OFF ITS ACTION AGAINST ZALDIVAR. WE UNDERSTAND THAT THIS COURSE WAS ADOPED OVER THE OPPOSITION OF YOUNGER ACTIVISTS WHO WANTED SOMETHING MORE FORCEFUL, POSSIBLY INCLUDING A CALL FOR PUBLIC DEMONSTRATIONS. THE FACT THAT THE PDC HAS SOUGHT TO AVOID A HEAD-ON CONFRONTATION IS FURTHER EVIDENCE THAT EFFORTS ARE UNDERWAY OUT OF PUBLIC VIEW TO FIND A SOLUTION.

ELEMENTS THIS MONTH WHICH DISAPPROVE OF OUR USE OF BASES HERE FOR MILITARY ASSISTANCE PURPOSES, INCLUDING ONE OFFICIAL STATEMENT ACCUSING US OF A TREATY "VIOLATION." WE BELIEVE THAT IT IS TIME TO REVIEW OUR MILITARY ACTIVITIES HERE IN LIGHT OF THE NEW POLITICO/LEGAL ENVIRONMENT SURROUNDING OUR BASES (SEE SEPTEL). END SUMMARY.

FOCUS ON CANAL TREATY RIGHTS

3. IN RECENT MONTHS, CRITICISM OF US SUPPORT FROM PANAMA FOR THE SALVADORAN MILITARY HAS EXPANDED FROM GENERALIZED POLITICAL COMPLAINTS IN AND OUT OF PANAMA TO INCLUDE REFERENCES TO US MILITARY TREATY RIGHTS HERE. MEDIA COMMENTARY ORIGINALLY EMANATED FROM CONSISTENTLY ANTI-US SOURCES LIKE THE CUBAN PRELA NEWS SERVICE. IN EARLY SEPTEMBER, HOWEVER, THE GOP-CONTROLLED PANAMANIAN STUDENT FEDERATION (FEP) HELD A SEMINAR OF LATIN AMERICAN "STUDENTS" HERE DEVOTED TO "IMPERIALIST MILITARY BASES", AT WHICH THE GOP MINISTER OF GOVERNMENT AND JUSTICE REPORTEDLY TOLD THE STUDENTS THAT US BASES WERE OBJECTIONABLE IN PRINCIPLE TO PANAMA. THE SEMINAR ADOPTED A RESOLUTION DENOUNCING BASES USED BY THE US AGAINST "SALVADORAN AND OTHER [redacted]

PEOPLES" AND CONDEMNING THE CONTINUING "VIOLATIONS" OF THE PANAMA CANAL TREATY (REF A).

4. SHORTLY BEFORE THE SEMINAR, A MORE PRECISE LEGAL REFERENCE TO U.S. MILITARY ACTIVITIES BASED IN PANAMA HAD APPEARED. AN ARTICLE IN THE GOP DAILY "LA REPUBLICA" (REF. E), BY SECUNDINO TORRES, A REPUTABLE LAWYER CLOSE TO THE GOVERNMENT AND CONSIDERED BY SOME HERE AS A TREATY "WATCH DOG", REFERRED TO PUBLIC CHARGES THAT US TROOPS IN PANAMA WERE TO BE USED TO STRENGTHEN THE SALVADORAN GOVERNMENT. TORRES CITED ARTICLE IV OF THE PANAMA CANAL TREATY OF 1977, AND ASSERTED THAT QUOTE THE PLACING OF TROOPS DESTINED FOR EL SALVADOR OR ANY OTHER COUNTRY... FOR THE SAKE OF NATIONAL DEFENSE IS... A VIOLATION OF THE TREATY. IN THAT TERRITORY WHICH WE SHARE MILITARILY UNTIL THE YEAR 2,000, THERE CAN BE ONLY TROOPS DESTINED TO PROTECT AND DEFEND THE CANAL. THERE CANNOT BE MILITARY FORCES DESTINED TO RENDER SUPPORT TO ANY GOVERNMENT OF THE AREA. END QUOTE. THE TORRES ARTICLE FOCUSED ATTENTION ON TREATY QUESTIONS WHICH COULD BE RAISED SHOULD THE US WISH TO USE PERSONNEL FROM PANAMANIAN BASES IN OTHER LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES. ALTHOUGH WE HAD NO INDICATION WHETHER TORRES WAS SPEAKING FOR THE GOP IN THAT INSTANCE, WE HAVE LITTLE DOUBT THAT THE GOVERNMENT SHARES HIS LEGAL

CONCERTED ANTI-US PROPAGANDA

5. IN SEPTEMBER, A PROPAGANDA ORGANIZATION OF OSTENSIBLY SALVADORAN BUT AS YET UNKNOWN ORIGIN, CALLING ITSELF THE "ANASTASIO AQUINO SPECIAL BRIGADE", BEGAN OPERATIONS HERE AND SENT A SERIES OF THREATENING LETTERS TO US OFFICIALS (REFS C, D AND E). THE PUBLIC PROFILE OF U.S. MILITARY ASSISTANCE FOR EL SALVADOR BY HAVING ITS PROPAGANDA HANDOUTS PUBLISHED AND COMMENTED UPON WIDELY. COLUMNISTS WRITING IN THE GOP-OWNED DAILIES "MATUTINO" (9/17 AND 9/27) AND "CRITICA" (9/13) CHARGED THAT THE U.S. WAS GUILTY OF "OPEN VIOLATION OF THE PANAMA CANAL NEUTRALITY TREATY...IN USING ITS MILITARY BASES IN THE PANAMA CANAL AREA TO REENFORCE THE GOVERNMENT...OF EL SALVADOR"; IDENTIFIED PANAMA-BASED UNITS AND PER-

SONNEL BY NAME; QUERIED WHETHER THE GOP WOULD PERMIT THE U.S. TO LAUNCH A "WAR AGAINST CENTRAL AMERICA" FROM PANAMA; AND CHARGED "THE U.S. MISSION AND THE OFFICERS OF THE PENTAGON WHO ARE WORKING IN PANAMA" WITH SENDING WAR MATERIEL FROM PANAMA TO EL SALVADOR (FBIS PA 280433Z SEPT 80, PA 172223Z SEPT 80). REF. F CONTAINS A SUMMARY OF LOCAL AND FOREIGN PROPAGANDA AND PRESS ATTENTION AS OF THE END OF SEPTEMBER.

6. DURING OCTOBER, LOCAL PRESS ATTENTION TO US MILITARY ASSISTANCE FOR EL SALVADOR FROM PANAMA HAS CONTINUED, THOUGH THE GOP SEEMS TO HAVE REINED IN ITS PRESS SOMEWHAT. A "CRITICA" COLUMNIST CHARGED ON OCTOBER 8 THAT THE US PLANS TO PROVIDE HELICOPTER PILOT TRAINING TO SALVADORANS IN PANAMA, BUT ON THE OTHER HAND THAT WRITER PROFESSED HIS ASSURANCE THAT NO "SALVADORAN GUERRILLA FRONT IS BEING OPENED IN PANAMANIAN TERRITORY NOR WOULD PRO-GUERRILLA ACTIVITY IN PANAMA INCLUDE SABOTAGE OR TERRORISM" (FBIS PA 081756Z OCT 80). LOCAL PRESS COVERAGE WAS ALSO STIMULATED RECENTLY BY PUBLIC RELEASES BY AMBASSADOR WHITE AND SOUTHCOM PUBLIC AFFAIRS OFFICERS, AS WELL AS BY LOCALLY PUBLISHED EXCERPTS FROM THE WASHINGTON POST ARTICLE OF OCTOBER 9 AND THE [redacted]

DEPARTMENT'S NOON PRESS BRIEFING THE SAME DAY. THE VARIOUS US EXPLANATIONS OF AID TO EL SALVADOR WERE GENERALLY CARRIED HERE IN A STRAIGHTFORWARD MANNER. A PROMINENT TV COMMENTATOR, MARIO VELAZQUEZ, WHO OFTEN REFLECTS GOP VIEWS, OPINED THAT, ALTHOUGH TRAINING OF SALVADORANS (WHICH HE DETAILED ACCURATELY, USING INFORMATION PROVIDED BY SOUTHCOM) WAS PERMITTED BY THE TREATIES, IT WAS "UNTIMELY" AND "NOT IN LINE WITH THE PEACEFUL GOALS OF THE CANAL" (FBIS PA 110202 AND FBIS PA 110328Z OCT 80). THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE STAR AND HERALD NOTED OCTOBER 11 THAT "SOME OBSERVERS" BELIEVE THAT "THE USE OF PANAMANIAN TERRITORY TO TRAIN ARMED FORCES, ESPECIALLY IN THE CASE OF EL SALVADOR... IS A VIOLATION OF THE NEUTRALITY OF THE PANAMA CANAL," AND IT QUESTIONED WHETHER SUCH TRAINING HAD THE "APPROVAL OR FOREKNOWLEDGE OF THE PANAMANIAN GOVERNMENT."

PANAMANIAN SENTIMENT: GOVERNMENT AND DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION

ARIAS WAS ALSO AMONG THE SPEAKERS WHO ADDRESSED A SMALL ANTI-US RALLY HERE OCTOBER 15 DEVOTED TO SIMILAR CRITICISM, REPORTEDLY ORGANIZED BY VARIOUS STUDENT GROUPS, "OFFICIAL" AND OTHERWISE, AND THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE PEOPLE.

9. OPPOSITION TO THE PRESENCE OF OUR BASES AND SCRUTINY OF HOW WE USE THEM ALSO HAS COME FROM THE DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION, NOT ONLY HISTORICALLY BUT IN RECENT DAYS. THE WELL KNOWN POSITION OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY, TO THE EFFECT THAT THE 1977 TREATIES ARE OBJECTIONABLE BECAUSE THEY WERE ARRIVED AT IN SECRET, APPROVED BY PLEBISCITE IN AN UNDEMOCRATIC ENVIRONMENT, AND LEGITIMIZED THE US MILITARY PRESENCE HERE FOR THE FIRST TIME, FOUND EXPRESSION IN AN EDITORIAL IN THE OPPOSITION "LA PRENSA" OF OCTOBER 23. CRATIC OPPOSITION IS UNOPPOSED TO OUR MILITARY ACTIVITIES FROM BASES IN PANAMA. RATHER, THERE IS AN UNFORTUNATELY BROAD CONSENSUS HERE THAT THE BASES ARE UNWELCOME AND THAT THEIR ACTIVITIES ARE SUSPECT, A CONSENSUS WHICH MODERATES OF VARIOUS PERSUASIONS SHARED LONG BEFORE THERE WAS AN ANTI-US RADICAL LEFT IN PANAMA.

COMMENT

10. IN A SEPARATE MESSAGE WE MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS ON DEFINING AND PROTECTING VITAL US MILITARY FUNCTIONS, BOTH THOSE IN PANAMA AND THOSE INVOLVING FORCES OPERATING OR SUPPORTED FROM PANAMA. WHILE WE HAVE RECEIVED NO OFFICIAL DEMAND OR INQUIRY FROM THE GOP REGARDING THE LEGALITY OF MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO OTHER LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES UNDER THE TERMS OF THE 1977 TREATY AND SOFA, WE BELIEVE THAT IT IS TIME TO REVIEW THE SCOPE AND NATURE OF MILITARY ACTIVITIES HERE IN LIGHT OF THE CURRENT POLITICO/LEGAL ENVIRONMENT IN WHICH OUR BASES EXIST. PANAMANIAN OFFICIAL ATTENTION TO MILITARY AID FOR EL SALVADOR INVOLVING THESE INSTALLATIONS HAS MADE SUCH A REVIEW MORE URGENT. MOSS

ELEMENTS THIS MONTH WHICH DISAPPROVE OF OUR USE OF BASES HERE FOR MILITARY ASSISTANCE PURPOSES, INCLUDING ONE OFFICIAL STATEMENT ACCUSING US OF A TREATY "VIOLATION." WE BELIEVE THAT IT IS TIME TO REVIEW OUR MILITARY ACTIVITIES HERE IN LIGHT OF THE NEW POLITICO/LEGAL ENVIRONMENT SURROUNDING OUR BASES (SEE SEPTEL). END SUMMARY.

FOCUS ON CANAL TREATY RIGHTS

3. IN RECENT MONTHS, CRITICISM OF US SUPPORT FROM PANAMA FOR THE SALVADORAN MILITARY HAS EXPANDED FROM GENERALIZED POLITICAL COMPLAINTS IN AND OUT OF PANAMA TO INCLUDE REFERENCES TO US MILITARY TREATY RIGHTS HERE. MEDIA COMMENTARY ORIGINALLY EMANATED FROM CONSISTENTLY ANTI-US SOURCES LIKE THE CUBAN PRELA NEWS SERVICE. IN EARLY SEPTEMBER, HOWEVER, THE GOP-CONTROLLED PANAMANIAN STUDENT FEDERATION (FEP) HELD A SEMINAR OF LATIN AMERICAN "STUDENTS" HERE DEVOTED TO "IMPERIALIST MILITARY BASES", AT WHICH THE GOP MINISTER OF GOVERNMENT AND JUSTICE REPORTEDLY TOLD THE STUDENTS THAT US BASES WERE OBJECTIONABLE IN PRINCIPLE TO PANAMA. THE SEMINAR ADOPTED A RESOLUTION DENOUNCING BASES USED BY THE US AGAINST "SALVADORAN AND OTHER [redacted]

Special Project (1993)

PEOPLES" AND CONDEMNING THE CONTINUING "VIOLATIONS" OF THE PANAMA CANAL TREATY (REF A).

4. SHORTLY BEFORE THE SEMINAR, A MORE PRECISE LEGAL REFERENCE TO U.S. MILITARY ACTIVITIES BASED IN PANAMA HAD APPEARED. AN ARTICLE IN THE GOP DAILY "LA REPUBLICA" (REF. E), BY SECUNDINO TORRES, A REPUTABLE LAWYER CLOSE TO THE GOVERNMENT AND CONSIDERED BY SOME HERE AS A TREATY "WATCH DOG", REFERRED TO PUBLIC CHARGES THAT US TROOPS IN PANAMA WERE TO BE USED TO STRENGTHEN THE SALVADORAN GOVERNMENT. TORRES CITED ARTICLE IV OF THE PANAMA CANAL TREATY OF 1977, AND ASSERTED THAT QUOTE THE PLACING OF TROOPS DESTINED FOR EL SALVADOR OR ANY OTHER COUNTRY... FOR THE SAKE OF NATIONAL DEFENSE IS... A VIOLATION OF THE TREATY. IN THAT TERRITORY WHICH WE SHARE MILITARILY UNTIL THE YEAR 2,000, THERE CAN BE ONLY TROOPS DESTINED TO PROTECT AND DEFEND THE CANAL. THERE CANNOT BE MILITARY FORCES DESTINED TO RENDER SUPPORT TO ANY GOVERNMENT OF THE AREA. END QUOTE. THE TORRES ARTICLE FOCUSED ATTENTION ON TREATY QUESTIONS WHICH COULD BE RAISED SHOULD THE US WISH TO USE PERSONNEL FROM PANAMANIAN BASES IN OTHER LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES. ALTHOUGH WE HAD NO INDICATION WHETHER TORRES WAS SPEAKING FOR THE GOP IN THAT INSTANCE, WE HAVE LITTLE DOUBT THAT THE GOVERNMENT SHARES HIS LEGAL

SONNEL BY NAME; QUERIED WHETHER THE GOP WOULD PERMIT THE U.S. TO LAUNCH A "WAR AGAINST CENTRAL AMERICA" FROM PANAMA; AND CHARGED "THE U.S. MISSION AND THE OFFICERS OF THE PENTAGON WHO ARE WORKING IN PANAMA" WITH SENDING WAR MATERIEL FROM PANAMA TO EL SALVADOR (FBIS PA 280433Z SEPT 80, PA 172223Z SEPT 80). REF. F CONTAINS A SUMMARY OF LOCAL AND FOREIGN PROPAGANDA AND PRESS ATTENTION AS OF THE END OF SEPTEMBER.

6. DURING OCTOBER, LOCAL PRESS ATTENTION TO US MILITARY ASSISTANCE FOR EL SALVADOR FROM PANAMA HAS CONTINUED, THOUGH THE GOP SEEMS TO HAVE REINED IN ITS PRESS SOMEWHAT. A "CRITICA" COLUMNIST CHARGED ON OCTOBER 8 THAT THE US PLANS TO PROVIDE HELICOPTER PILOT TRAINING TO SALVADORANS IN PANAMA, BUT ON THE OTHER HAND THAT WRITER PROFESSED HIS ASSURANCE THAT NO "SALVADORAN GUERRILLA FRONT IS BEING OPENED IN PANAMANIAN TERRITORY NOR WOULD PRO-GUERRILLA ACTIVITY IN PANAMA INCLUDE SABOTAGE OR TERRORISM" (FBIS PA 081756Z OCT 80). LOCAL PRESS COVERAGE WAS ALSO STIMULATED RECENTLY BY PUBLIC RELEASES BY AMBASSADOR WHITE AND SOUTHCOM PUBLIC AFFAIRS OFFICERS, AS WELL AS BY LOCALLY PUBLISHED EXCERPTS FROM THE WASHINGTON POST ARTICLE OF OCTOBER 9 AND THE [redacted]

DEPARTMENT'S NOON PRESS BRIEFING THE SAME DAY. THE VARIOUS US EXPLANATIONS OF AID TO EL SALVADOR WERE GENERALLY CARRIED HERE IN A STRAIGHTFORWARD MANNER. A PROMINENT TV COMMENTATOR, MARIO VELAZQUEZ, WHO OFTEN REFLECTS GOP VIEWS, OPINED THAT, ALTHOUGH TRAINING OF SALVADORANS (WHICH HE DETAILED ACCURATELY, USING INFORMATION PROVIDED BY SOUTHCOM) WAS PERMITTED BY THE TREATIES, IT WAS "UNTIMELY" AND "NOT IN LINE WITH THE PEACEFUL GOALS OF THE CANAL" (FBIS PA 110202 AND FBIS PA 110328Z OCT 80). THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE STAR AND HERALD NOTED OCTOBER 11 THAT "SOME OBSERVERS" BELIEVE THAT "THE USE OF PANAMANIAN TERRITORY TO TRAIN ARMED FORCES, ESPECIALLY IN THE CASE OF EL SALVADOR... IS A VIOLATION OF THE NEUTRALITY OF THE PANAMA CANAL," AND IT QUESTIONED WHETHER SUCH TRAINING HAD THE "APPROVAL OR FOREKNOWLEDGE OF THE PANAMANIAN GOVERNMENT."

THE WELL KNOWN POSITION OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY, TO THE EFFECT THAT THE 1977 TREATIES ARE OBJECTIONABLE BECAUSE THEY WERE ARRIVED AT IN SECRET, APPROVED BY PLEBISCITE IN AN UNDEMOCRATIC ENVIRONMENT, AND LEGITIMIZED THE US MILITARY PRESENCE HERE FOR THE FIRST TIME, FOUND EXPRESSION IN AN EDITORIAL IN THE OPPOSITION "LA PRENSA" OF OCTOBER 23. 1. C- ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: THE GOVERNMENT DECISION TO EXILE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDC) PRESIDENT ZALDIVAR CONTINUES TO OVERHAND THE POLITICAL SCENE. THE PINOCHET REGIME HAS NOTT BEEN WILLING TO YIELD, ZALDIVAR HAS SO FAR NOTT ACCEPTED THE CONDITIONS TO RETURN, AND MODERATES WITHIN THE GOVERNMENT AND OPPOSITION CAMPS HAVE BEEN CAUGHT OFF-BALANCE. PRIVATE INQUIRIES AND APPEALS FROM OTHER GOVERNMENTS--AND THE VATICAN--HAVE SO FAR NOTT HELPED ACHIEVE A SOLUTION. THIS CABLE ADDRESSES THE QUESTIONS OF WHY THE GOVERNMENT MAY HAVE TAKEN THIS HARSH MEASURE AND HOW IT AFFECTS THE PDC; IT ALSO

OFFERS A PRELIMINARY ASSESSMENT OF ITS IMPACT ON THE POLITICAL PROCESS. END SUMMARY.

3. THE OCTOBER 15 DECISION BY THE PINOCHET GOVERNMENT TO BAR THE RETURN OF PDC PRESIDENT ANDRES ZALDIVAR SET OFF SHOCKWAVES WITHIN POLITICAL CIRCLES WHICH, WHILE

FADING FROM PUBLIC CONSCIOUSNESS, HAVE NOTT YET SUBSIDED. WHILE THE IMMEDIATE QUESTION REMAINS WHETHER ZALDIVZR WILL AGREE TO SIGN THE DECLARATION TO RESPECT CURRENT CHILEAN LAW AND AUTHORITIES WHICH THE GOC HAS SET AS THE PRICE OF R, THE CASE ALSO POSES TWO MORE FUNDAMENTAL QUESTIONS.

4. WHY DID THE GOVERNMENT ACT? FIRST, THE PRO-DEMOCRATIC ELEMENTS, INCLUDING CONSERVATIVES WHO SUPPORT THE POLICIES IF NOTT THE PERSON OF PINOCHET, MUST BE CONCERNED ABOUT WHAT THIS CASE MAY PORTEND FOR THE NEXT PHASE OF THE TRANSITION PROCESS. THE MORE PESSIMISTIC VIEW, WHICH WE HEAR FROM HUMAN RIGHTS AS WELL AS OPPOSITION SOURCES, IS THAT THIS ACTION IS THE OPENING SHOT IN A DELIBERATE GOVERNMENT CAMPAIGN TO WEAKEN ITS OPPONENTS AND TO REDUCE THE RANGE OF TOLERATED POLITICAL ACTIVITY. IN THIS VIEW, THE GOVERNMENT WAS JUST WAITING FOR A PRETEXT TO CRACK DOWN ON OPPOSITION LEADERS AND USED THE CRITICAL COMMENTS ATTRIBUTED TO ZALDIVAR BY A LEFT-WING MEXICAN NEWSPAPER AS THE HANDIEST OCCASION. FURTHER, SO THE STORY GOES, ALL OPPOSITION GROUPS CAN EXPECT SIMILAR GOVERNMENT HARRASSMENT UP TO AND BEYOND THE MARCH 11 ENTRY INTO FORCE OF THE NEW CONSTITUTION; PINOCHET HAS GOTTEN WHAT HE WANTED FROM THE PLEBISCITE EXERCISE AND IS NO LONGER WILLING TO PUT UP WITH EVEN VERBAL OPPOSITION, LET ALONE REAL POLITICAL ACTIVITIES.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

5. A SOFTER INTERPRETATION OF THE CASE, LHICH COMES FROM MORE CONSERVATIVE SOURCES AND IS HINTED AT BY "BLANDOS" WITHIN THE GOVERNMENT, IS THAT PINOCHET BLEW HIS STACK WHEN HE SAW THE ALLEGED ZALEDIVAR COMMENTS IN FOREIGN PAPERS (AND RADIO MOSCOW), ORDERED INTERIRO MINISTER FERNANDEZ TO TAKE ACTION, AND HAS SO FAR BEEN UNWILLING TO RELENT. THAT IS, THE DECISION IS AIMED ONLY AT ZALDIVAR AS ONE OF THE MOST OUTSPOKEN AND PERSISTENT CRITICS AND, THEREFORE, WHILE IT MAY INDICATE WHERE THE GOVERNMENT THINKS LEGITIMATE DISSENT SHOULD STOP, DOES NOTT PRESAGE A WIDER EFFORT AGAINST THE PARTIES OR INDIVIDUAL OPPOSITION LEADERS.

6. WE HAVE NO DIRECT INFORMATION TO CONFIRM EITHER HYPOTHESIS, BUT ARE STRUCK BY THE FACT THAT THE GOVERNMENT DID NOTT ADVANTAGE OF AN APPARENTLY EASY WAY OUT, WHEN THE MEXICAN PRESS STORY WAS DISPROVEN , TO LET ZALIDVAR BACK IN, LEAVING THE ORIGINAL DECISION AS THE OBJECT LESSON AS TO THE LIMITS ONDISSENT. FURTHER, THE TONE AND CONTENT OF SUBSEQUENT GOVERNMENT STATEMENTS, WHILE UNDERSTANDABLE IN THE CONTEXT OF JUSTIFICATIONS FOR ACONTROVERSIAL ACTION, HAVE HAD THE EFFECT OF STIFFENING THE TERMS FOR RECONSIDERATION OF THE BAN TO INCLUDE A PLEDGE OF FUTURE GOOD BEHAVIOR.

7. THE NUNCIO TOLD THE AMBASSADOR THAT CARDINAL SILVA HAD SOPKEN TO PRESIDENT PINOCHET, THAT CARDINALS HAD RAISED THE MATTER WITH CHILE'S AMBASSADOR TO THE HOLY SEE, AND THAT HE, THE NUNCIO, HAD APPEALED TO FOREIGN MINISTER ROJAS. THE NUNCIO ALSO SAID THAT CARDINAL SAMORE, IN CHARGE OF THE MEDIATION, HAD TAKEN AN INTEREST IN THE CASE. WHILE WE KNOW OF ONLY ONE EMBASSY HERE THE ITALIAN, WHICH HAS APPROACHED THE GOC ON INSTRUCTIONS,

OTHER WESTERN AMBASSADOR HAVE FOLLOWED OUR LEAD IN EXPRESSING CONCERN AND CERTAINLY CHILEAN AMBASSADORS ABROAD WILL HAVE REPORTED THE UNPLEASANT IMPRESSION THIS CASE HAS MADE. SO FAR, THE GOVERNMENT IS STANDING FIRM, BUT AN INTERESTING PIECE IN GENERALLY PRO-GOVERNMENT "LA SEGUNDA" HINTED THAT THE "LOYALTY OATH" ZALDIVAR MUST SIGN WOULD NOTT IN FACT REQUIRE HIM TO STOP CRITICIZING THE GOVERNMENT, DEMANDING CHANGES IN THE CONSTITUTION , OR SEEKING REPLACEMENT OF CURRENT OFFICIALS, SO LONG AS HE DID NOTT ADVOCATE VIOLENCE OR OTHER ILLEGAL MEANS TO THE ENDS.

THIS VIEW DOES NOTT GO SO FAR AS ANOTHER OPINION WE HAVE HEARD FROM THE NUNCIO AND OTHER CHURCH SOURCES,; THAT ANY

8. HOW DOES THIS AFFECT THE PDC? THE SECOND CONFIDENTIAL

IMPORTANT QUESTION IS HOW THE BAN ON ZALDIVAR AFFECTS THE PDC AND THE REST OF THE OPPOSITION. OUR PERCEPTION, AS FORMED FROM REPORTS COMING FROM VARIOUS SOURCES, IS THAT THE TOP LEADERSHIP OF TH PDC IS DIVIDED AND INDECISIVE, CAUGHT BETWEEN THE IMMEDIATE PROBLEMS OF HOW TO HELP ZALDIVAR AND WHO MIGHT REPLACE HIM AND THE LONGER-TERM PROBLEM OF PARTY STRATEGY IN THE POST-PLEBISCITE ERA. THE VARIOUS SECTORS WITHIN THE PARTY OFFER COMPETING CANDIDATES AND COMP STRATEGIES, AND SO FAR THERE IS LITTLE INDICATION OF EITHER FIRM DIRECTION FROM FREI OR OF AN EMERGING CONSENSUS AT LOWER LEVELS.

9. ONE SPECIFIC STRATEGIC ISSUE WITHIN THE PARTY HAS BEEN BROUGHT INTO PUBLIC LIGHT, NAMELY THE QUESTION OF WHETHER THE PARTY SHOULD CONTINUE ITS REJECTION OF THE PLEBISCITE AND THE CONSTITUTION, SEEKING TO DENY VALIDITY TO THE TRANSITION PROCESS, OR WHETHER IT SHOULD TACITLY ACCEPT THE NEW RULES OF THE GAME, SEEKING TO MAXIMIZE ITS ADVANTAGES AND INFLUENCE FOR THE FUTURE. BY TEMPERAMENT AND PAST HISTORY, ZALDIVAR HAS BEEN IDENTIFIED AS A PROPONENT OF THE HARDER ANTI-GOVERNMENT LINE, ALONG WITH MANY OF THE YOUNGER PARTY ACTIVISTS IN HJMAN RIGHTS AND STUDENT AFFAIRS, SUCH AS GUILLERMO YUNGE, JAMIE CASTILLO, AND TOMAS REYES. FREI HIMSELF, ALONG WITH RAUL TRONCOSO, JUAN HAMILTON AND PATRICIO AYLWIN, SEEMS TO BELIEVE THE PATY SHOULD TONE DOWN THE RHETORIC AND BEGIN TO LOOK FOR CONSERVA-TIVE BUT DEMOCRATIC INTERLOCUTORS WITHIN THE GOVERNMENT CAMP.

10. PDC CONSIDERATION OF STRATEGY HAS OF COURSE BEEN INTERRUPTED AND COMPLICATED BY THE GOVERNMENT ACTION CONFIDENTIAL

AGAINST ZALDIVAR. FOR NOW, AT LEAST, IT APPEARS THAT THE SOFT-LINERS WILL FIND IT HARD TO TAKE ANY DECISIONS WHICH WOULD APPEAR TO REPUDIATE ZALDIVAR; FURTHER, EVEN IF HE EVENTUALLY RETURNS, THE ARBITRARINESS OF THE GOVERNMENT ACTION WILL SERVE AS AMMUNITION FOR THOSE ARGUING THAT PINOCHET AND HIS FOLLOWERS RESPECT ONLY FORCE, NOTT REASON. ON THE OTHER HAND, AND SOONER OR LATER, PARTY LEADERS WILL HAVE TO DEAL WITH THE UNCOMFORTABLE REALITY THAT MANY OF THEIR TRADITIONAL SUPPORTERS VOTED FOR THE GOVERNMENT IN THE PLEBISCITE, A SIGNAL THAT UNREMITTING OPPOSITION, ESPECIALLY WHEN THIS PARALLELS THE STANCE OF THE OLD UP FRAGMENTS, PROVIDES A VERY NARROW BASE FOR THE FUTURE.

11. EMBASSY ASSESSMENT: IT IS TOO EARLY TO OFFER ANY DEFIE CONCLUSIONS AS TO THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THIS CASE, BUT WE OFFER THREE OBSERVATIONS. FIRST, THE MEASURE REFLECTS THE HARSH SIDE OF THE PINOCHET REGIME, READY TO LASH OUT AT CRITICS REGARDLESS OF INTERNAL COSTS OR FOREIGN RACTIONS. GIVEN THE DELICATE STAGE OF THE ALL-IMPORTANT BEAGLE MEDIATION, NO PRUDENT ANALYSIS OF GAINS AND RISKS COULD JUSTIFY A SPECTACULAR ACTION AT THIS TIME AGAINST A MAJOR CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC LEADER ABROAD ON A TRIP WHICH INCLUDED ROME. THE REGIME GZBLANDOS" ARE DISCOMFITED AND DEFENSIVE, WHILE THE HARDEST-LINERS LIKE PABLO RODRIQUEZ ARE CHEERING. SECOND, THE MORE PROGMATIC ELEMENTS WITHIN THE OPPOSITION ARE ALSO ON THE DEFENSIVE AND WILL FIND IT MORE DIFFICULT TO MAKE THE CASE FOR COMPROMISE AND DIALOGUE. THE NET EFFECT, THOUGH PERHAPS NOTT LASTING, WILL BE TO DELAY THE MUCH-NEEDED PROCESS THROUGH WHICH THE "APERTURISTAS" AND THE LESS-RADICAL OPPOSITIONISTS COULD BEGIN TO WORK TOGETHER TO ACHIEVE A REAL TRANSITION. THIRD, THE SENSITIVITIES AROUSED BY THIS CASE MAKE IT INADVISABLE FOROUTSIDERS TO OFFER PUBLIC ADVICE OR COMMENT. UNDER PRESENT CIRCUMSTANCES, THE VATICAN HS THE HIGH CARDS TO PLAY

SUBJECT: ANOTHER BANK ASSAULTED

1. SHORTLY AFTER 09:00 THIS MORNING (NOV. 3) A BANK IN EASTERN SANTIAGO WAS ROBBED AT GUNPOINT BY THREE INDIVIDUALS, REPORTEDLY INCLUDING A WOMAN. SEVERAL SHOTS WERE FIRED DURING THE HOLDUP, BUT REPORTEDLY ONLY ONE PERSON (OUTSIDE THE BANK) WAS SLIGHTLY WOUNDED. SEVERAL REPORTS CLAIM THAT THE ROBBERS GOT AWAY WITH BETWEEN 2 AND 2.5 MILLION PESOS (50-60 THOUSAND DOLLARS), ALTHOUGH ONE RADIO REPORT SAID THAT ONLY 137 THOUSAND PESOS (ABOUT 3,500 DOLLARS) WAS TAKEN. DESPITE POLICE AND SECURITY FORCE EFFORTS, THE ASSAILANTS ARE STILL AT LARGE. TWO PERSONS WERE KIDNAPPED AND THEIR VEHICLE COMMANDEERED DURING THE GETAWAY, BUT BOTH THE HOSTAGES AND THE VEHICLE WERE REPORTEDLY ABANDONED NEAR DOWNTOWN SANTIAGO A SHORT TIME LATER.

2. AFTERNOON DAILY "LA SEGUNDA" REPORTED THAT THE ROBBERS CLAIMED AT LEAST TWICE DURING THE COURSE OF EVENTS THAT THEY BELONGED TO "THE RESISTANCE" AND WERE NOT COMMON CRIMINALS. DESPITE THIS, WE HAVE NO REAL EVIDENCE THAT THIS WAS A TERRORIST ATTACK, AS OPPOSED TO A CRIMINAL ASSAULT. WE WILL REPORT FURTHER WHEN

SUBJECT (C) EL SALVADOR, ONE YEAR AFTER THE COUP

1. [redacted] ENTIRE TEXT)

2. SUMMARY. A YEAR AFTER THE COUP THAT BROUGHT IT TO POWER, THE REVOLUTIONARY GOVERNING JUNTA (JRG) HAS A MIXED RECORD. THE NUMBER OF REFORMS IT HAS ACTUALLY INSTITUTED IS SMALL, BUT THEIR IMPACT IS GREAT. ALTHOUGH IT HAS SUCCEEDED IN ISOLATING THE EXTREMISTS OF THE RIGHT AND LEFT, IT HAS NOT BEEN ABLE TO STOP THE INCREASE IN THEIR VIOLENCE. IN PART BECAUSE OF THIS VIOLENCE, BUSINESS AND INDUSTRIAL LEADERS ARE RAPIDLY FALLING INTO DESPAIR AND CYNICISM, WHICH FURTHER ACCELERATES THE CRITICAL FLIGHT OF CAPITAL, TALENT, AND PRODUCTIVE CAPACITY.

MEANWHILE, SOME MAJOR REFORMS WHICH MIGHT ESTABLISH A SIZEABLE POPULAR BASE FOR THE JRG, SUCH AS THE PROPOSED [redacted]

CHANGES IN THE LABOR CODE AND THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE "LAND-TO-THE-TILLER" LAW, HAVE YET TO APPEAR. THE JRG'S VERY SURVIVAL, HOWEVER, HAS RELIEVED THE SALVADORAN PEOPLE OF THE NEED TO MAKE A PAINFUL CHOICE BETWEEN THE FANATICS OF THE RIGHT AND LEFT, AND IT HAS WON THE PEOPLE'S GRATITUDE FOR ITS BOLD ACTIONS AGAINST THE OLIGARCHY. AT THE LOCAL LEVEL MANY OFFICIALS HAVE BEEN REPLACED, BUT SOME OF THE HOLDOVERS, INCLUDING A NUMBER OF THE "LOCAL COMMANDANTES", CONTINUE TO RESIST THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT'S REFORMS.

THE MILITARY AND SECURITY FORCES FORM THE SEVEREST TEST [redacted]

[redacted]

FOR THE JRG'S POLICY OF REVOLUTION WITHOUT INSTITUTIONAL DESTRUCTION. THEIR SUPPORT IS NECESSARY TO THE JRG, AND THEY HAVE COME A LONG WAY IN THE PAST YEAR, BUT THEY CONTINUE TO HUNT DOWN AND KILL SUSPECTED LEFTIST SUBVERSIVES, OFTEN ON THE BASIS OF FLIMSY EVIDENCE. VIOLENCE ORIGINATES FROM NEARLY ALL SIDES AND MANY CAUSES IN EL SALVADOR. THE GOVERNMENT'S FAILURE TO TAKE STRONG ACTION AGAINST THE VIOLENCE WHICH COMES FROM WITHIN ITS RANKS IS ITS WEAKEST POINT, BUT IT SHOULD BE NOTED THAT DOMESTIC CRITICISM ALMOST INVARIABLY ALLEGES THE GOVERNMENT IS KILLING TOO MANY OF THE WRONG PEOPLE AND NOT ENOUGH OF THE RIGHT ONES.

THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY HAS MADE LITTLE ORGANIZATIONAL PROGESS, BUT IT ENJOYS GREATER UNITY AND A CLEARER PLAN FOR THE FUTURE THAN DO ITS RIVALS. NONE OF THE VARIOUS ELEMENTS OF THE LEFT HAS FARED WELL DURING THE PAST YEAR. THE FDR'S UNARMED "DEMOCRATIC" GROUPS, WHICH HAD EXPECTED A BRIEF STRUGGLE AND AN EASY VICTORY OVER THE JRG, NOW FIND THEMSLVES TRAPPED IN A PROLONGED ALLIANCE WITH INCREASINGLY VIOLENT GUERRILLA PARTNERS WHOM THEY BARELY KNOW AND SCARECELY INFLUENCE. THE GUERRILLA GROUPS HAVE FALLEN SHORT OF THEIR GOALS AND BEGUN TO DECREASE, BUT STILL POSSESS CONSIDERABLE DESTRUCTIVE

CAPACITY. THE RIGHT HAS LITTLE ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE BUT MUCH SYMPATHY, AND THE DISCONTENT WITHIN THE SOCIETY MAY BE STRENGHTHENING IT.

THE JRG HAS BEGUN A REVOLUTION IN EL SALVADOR, A FUNDAMENTAL CHANGE IN THE WAY PEOPLE THINK ABOUT EACH OTHER AND THEIR SOCIETAL INSTITUTIONS. IT IS NO LONGER TAKEN FOR GRANTED THAT THE SECURITY CORPS CAN KILL CAPESINOS TO UPHOLD LANDLORDS' INTERESTS, THAT BUSINESSMEN CAN EXPLOT WORKERS AT WILL, OR

THAT GOVERNMENT JOBS ARE A LICENSE TO APPROPRIATE TAX MONEY FOR PRIVATE USES. BUT, WHILE CHANGES ARE OCCURRING IN THIS COUNTRY, THEY ARE OCCURRING SLOWLY, AND IT IS FAR FROM CERTAIN WHETHER THESE CHANGES WILL CONTINUE, OR HOW FAR THEY WILL GO. END SUMMARY.

3. THE JRG. ON OCTOBER 15, 1979 PROGRESSIVE ARMY OFFICERS OVERTHREW THE ROMERO REGIME AND REPLACED IT WITH A COALITION GOVERNMENT HEADED BY A FIVE MAN JUNTA. FRUSTRATED BY ITS INABILITY TO BRING ABOUT IMMEDIATE CHANGE OR TO END THE RIGHTIST VIOLENCE PARTICIPATED IN BY THE SECURITY FORCES AND, TO A LESSER EXTENT, THE ARMY, THE CIVILIAN MEMBERS OF THE CABINET AND JUNTA RESIGNED AFTER TWO AND A HALF MONTHS IN OFFICE. THE ARMED FORCES THEN REACHED AN AGREEMENT WITH THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDC) TO FORM A NEW GOVERNMENT. BESEIGHED BY VIOLENCE ON THE LEFT AS WELL AS THE RIGHT AND WRITTEN OFF AS A LOST CAUSE BY THE GREAT MAJORITY OF SALVADORANS, THE SECOND VERSION OF THE JRG WAS UNABLE EVEN TO FILL ALL ITS CABINET POSITIONS FOR SEVERAL MONTHS.

4. NATIONAL, WITHOUT QUESTION, THE GREATEST ACCOMPLISHMENT OF JRG NUMBER TWO HAS BEEN SURVIVAL. THE FACT OF ITS EXISTENCE

PAGE 03 SAN SA 07724 02 OF 05 050105Z

HAS RELIEVED THE SALVADORAN PEOPLE'S PAINFUL NECESSITY FOR CHOOSING BETWEEN A FANATIC RIGHT AND A RADICALIZED LEFT. EARLY IN ITS TERM, THE CURRENT VERSION OF THE JRG DECREED AND IMPLEMENTED THREE IMPORTANT REFORMS --THE 263 LARGEST FARMS IN THE COUNTRY WERE TURNED INTO COOPERATIVES; THE BANKS WERE NATIONALIZED; AND THE GOVERNMENT TOOK CONTROL OF THE MARKETING APPARATUS FOR THE MAJOR EXPORT CROPS. THE EFFECT OF THESE REFORMS WAS TO DIMINISH GREATLY THE POWER OF THE OLIGARCHY, THE OLD RULING CLASS COMPOSED OF THE LARGE LANDOWNERS WITH INTERESTS IN BANKING, MILLING, SHIPPING AND INSURANCE.

5. THE JRG'S FRONTAL ATTACK ON THE OLIGARCY WAS BOLD,

[redacted]

DECLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED DECLASSIFIED

DANGEROUS, AND POPULAR. BUT IT HAS BEEN MUCH HARDER FOR THE GOVERNMENT TO DEAL WITH THE REST OF THE POWER STRUCTURE, AND PARTICULARLY TO MAKE ROOM IN IT FOR THE URBAN AND RURAL POOR. THE JRG'S PHILOSOPHY OF REVOLUTION THROUGH GRADUAL CHANGE RATHER THAN VIA DESTRUCTION OF EXISTING INSTITUTIONS IMPLIES NEGOTIATION AND PATIENCE, BUT ABOVE ALL, IT NEEDS TIME. IMPORTANT AND MUCH DISCUSSED DECREES THAT HAVE YET TO APPEAR INCLUDE REFORM OF THE LABOR CODE, THE IMPLEMENTING OF THE "LAND-TO-THE-TILLER" LAW, AND CONCRETE STEPS TOWARD THE ELECTION OF A CONSTITUENT ASEMBLY BY 1982.

6. MEANWHILE, THE ECONOMY CONTINUES TO DETERIORATE, AND THE VIOLENCE IS GETTING WORSE. SOME OF THE REFORMS WHICH MIGHT HAVE ESTABLISHED A SIZEABLE POPULAR BASE FOR THE JRG ARE STILL UNDER DISCUSSION OR NOT YET IMPLEMENTED, AND OTHERS ARE TOO NEW FOR THE PEOPLE TO FEEL THEIR FULL IMPACT. THE GOVERNMENT SURVIVES BECAUSE THE PEOPLE ARE GRATEFUL FOR ITS MEASURES TO CONTROL A STIFLING AND OVER COMPENSATED UPPER CLASS, BECAUSE THEY RECOGNIZE THE JRG'S SYMPATHY FOR THEIR NEEDS, BECAUSE OF THE SUPPORT OF THE USG AND THE VENEZUELAN GOVERNMENT FOR THE JRG, AND, LAST BUT NOT LEAST, BECAUSE OF THE INEPTITUDE OF THE GOVERNMENT'S OPPONENTS. BUT IN EL SALVADOR TIME IS RUNNING OUT ON GOOD INTENTIONS.

[redacted]

7. LOCAL. AT THE LOCAL LEVEL THE PROBLEM OF REBUILDING THIS SOCIETY WITHOUT FIRST TEARING IT APART RIGHT DOWN TO GROUND

[redacted]

[redacted] SECTION 03 OF 05 SAN SALVADOR 7724

LEVEL SHOWS UP IN ELEMENTARY WAYS. UNDER PREVIOUS GOVERNMENTS, THE FOUR LEADING OFFICIALS IN THE MUNICIPALITIES (EL SALVADOR'S SMALLEST ADMINISTRATIVE DIVISION, EQUIVALENT TO OUR COUNTRIES) WERE THE MAYOR, THE JUSTICE OF THE PEACE, THE LOCAL COMMANDANTE, AND THE HEAD OF ORDEN, A RIGHTIST PARA-MILITARY GROUP CREATED BY THE NATIONAL GUARD AND USED TO PROTECT LANDOWNERS' INTEREST. (THE VILLAGES HAVE THEIR OWN COMMANDANTES AND ALCALDES BUT, ALTHOUGH THE LEFT HAS DESTROYED PART OF THIS STRUCTURE, IT APPEARS THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAS NOT YET MADE MANY PERSONNEL CHANGES.) ALL FOUR ELEMENTS COMPOSED THE TRADITIONAL SYSTEM OF SOCIAL CONTROL THAT WAS TIED DIRECTLY TO THE INTERESTS OF THE WEALTHY. THE JRG HAS REPLACED ALL THE MAYORS AND A LARGE NUMBER OF JUSTICES OF THE PEACE. ORDEN HAS BEEN FORMALLY DISSOLVED, BUT MANY OF ITS MEMBERS MAINTAIN THEIR LONG-STANDING ASSOCIATION WITH THE SECURITY CORPS. ONE ELEMENT SURVIVES INTACT: THE LOCAL COMMANDANTE, WHO IS PAID BY THE MINISTRY OF DEFENSE TO HEAD A SMALL LOCAL RESERVE FORCE WHICH CARRIES OUT THE INITIATIVES OF THE ARMY'S DEPARTMENTAL COMMANDER.

8. TENSIONS BETWEEN THE OLD AND NEW OFFICIALS RESULTED IN THE KILLINGS OF SEVERAL MAYORS LAST JUNE. THEIR DEATHS NEARLY ENDED THE PDC'S ALLIANCE WITH THE MILITARY. THE PDC AND THE MILITARY THEN MADE AN EFFORT TO INCREASE THE COOPERATION, OR AT LEAST TOLERANCE, AMONG MUNICIPAL OFFICIALS.

[redacted]

HOWEVER, AND THAT PROBLEM HAS BEEN ALL BUT ENDED. SOME LOCAL COMMANDANTES, HOWEVER, AS WELL AS SOME MILITARY AND SECURITY CORPS OFFICERS, CONTINUE TO OPPOSE LAND REFORM. STILL REGARD PEASANTS WHO STAND UP AGAINST THE OLD SYSTEM AS SUBVERSIVES, AND ADAMANTLY OPPOSE THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT'S POLICY IN OTHER WAYS.

9. MILITARY/SECURITY FORCES. THE MILITARY AND PARTICULARLY THE SECURITY FORCES (THE NATIONAL GUARD, NATIONAL POLICE, AND TREASURY POLICE) REPRESENT THE SEVEREST TEST FOR THE JRG'S POLICY OF GUIDED REVOLUTION WITHOUT INSTITUTIONAL DESTRUCTION. PLAINLY PUT, THE MILITARY HAVE THE POWER! NO GOVERNMENT CAN

[redacted]

[redacted] EXIST WITHOUT THEIR APPROVAL. A YEAR AGO; THE SECURITY FORCES, AND TO A LESSER EXTENT THE ARMY, WERE A LAW UNTO THEMSELVES, HOLDING LIFE OR DEATH POWER OVER ALMOST EVERYONE AND EXERCISING IT AT WILL. HUNDREDS OF THE WORST OFFENDERS WERE RETIRED AFTER THE COUP, AND DISCIPLINARY MEASURES HAVE BEEN HANDED OUT LIBERALLY SINCE THEN. IN RETROSPECT, IT IS SURPRISING HOW FAR THE SECURITY FORCES HAVE COME SINCE THE ROMERO DAYS.

10. BUT THE PRICE FOR THE MILITARY'S POLITICAL SUPPORT OF THE JRG HAS BEEN HIGH. MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY CORPS AND, TO A LESSER EXTENT, OF THE ARMY HAVE CONTINUED TO HUNT DOWN AND KILL SUSPECTED LEFTIST SUBVERSIVES, OFTEN ON THE BASIS OF FLIMSY EVIDENCE. IT IS WIDELY BELIEVED IN EL SALVADOR THAT THE NUMBER OF DEATHS FROM SUCH ACTIONS DURING THE PAST YEAR IS AT LEAST IN THE HUNDREDS, BUT THE MINISTRY OFDEFENSE HAS YET TO PUNISH PUBLICLY ANYONE, CIVILIAN OR MILITARY, FOR KILLING A LEFTIST. IT DOES APPEAR, HOWEVER, THAT EFFORTS HAVE BEEN MADE TO NARROW THE DEFINITION OF THE TERM "SUBVERSIVE" TO INCLUDE ONLY SUSPECTED MEMBERS OF GROUPS WHICH USE VIOLENCE TO POOSE THE GOVERNMENT. SINCE THE COUP, ATTACKS AGAINST

[redacted] SECTION 04 OF 05 SAN SALVADOR 7724

POLITICIANS, LABOR AND CAMPESINO LEADER, AND TEACHERS WHO ARE EITHER PRO-GOVERNMENT OR NEUTRAL, AND "RESPECTABLE" LEFTISTS, SUCH AS THE SOCIALISTS, HAVE DROPPED SHARPLY. THE JRG'S RECENT ORDER TO THE MILITARY TO END HUMAN RIGHT ABUSES IS A STEP IN THE DIRECTION OF CHANGING THE MENTALITY OF THE MILITARY/SECURITY FORCES, BUT ITS PRACTICAL EFFECT HAS YET TO BE SEEN.

11. THE VIOLENCE. THE SECURITY CORPS HAVE NO MONOPOLY ON VIOLENCE, OF COURSE. EL SALVADOR HAS A VIOLENT COUNTRY LONG BEFORE A WHOLE SPECTRUM OF GROUPS TURNED TO KIDLING AS A ROUTE TO POLYMICAL POWER. WHAT IS GOING TO NOW, BEYOND POLITICAL WAR-FARE, IS A WAVE OF DELINQUENCY, A WAR BETWEEN THE GENERATIONS, A CLASS STRUGGLE, AND AN UPSURGE IN IDOLOGICAL FANATICISM ALL JUMBLED TOGHETHER. THE LEFT KILLS TO MAINTAIN ITS DISCIPLINE, TO ELIMINATE IS ATAGONISTS, TO KEEP ITS WOUNDED OUT OF THE HANDS OF THE ENEMY, TO STIMULATE RECRUITMENT, AND TO DEMON-STRATE REVOLUTIONARY FERVOR. THE RIGHT KILLS TO SAVE THE SOCIETY FROM THE "ABSOLUTE EVEIL" OF COMMUNISM, TO PROTECT ECONOMIC INTERESTS, TO AVENGE ITS DEAD COMRADES, AND TO ASSURE THE SELF PRESERVATION OF THE MILITARY AND THE MIDDLE CLASS. THE CHOICE OF VICTIMS ON EITHER SIDE APPEARS TO DEPEND MORE ON CONVENIENCE THAN LOGIC.

12. RIGHTIST VIOLENCE PROBABLY ORIGINATES FROM THREE GROUPS-- PRIVATE PERSONS, SOME OF WHOM WERE ORDEN MEMBERS; THE LOCAL

[redacted]

PAGE 03 SAN SA 07724 04 OF 05 050114Z

COMANDANTE'S FORCE1AND SOME MID-LEVEL MEMBERS OF THE MILITARY AND SECURITY CORPS. IT IS NOT POSSIBLE TO ASSIGN PROPORTIONS AMONG THESE THREE, BUT THE TOTAL OF THEIR VICTIMS IS RISING. ACCORDING TO SOME REPORTS, ORDEN INCREASED ITS ACTIVITIES IN AUGUST AFTER ARMED LEFTISTS TOOK OVER A FEW VILLAGES AND PUBLICLY EXECUTED FORMER ORDEN MEMBERS.

13. THE FAILURE TO TAKE STRONG ACTION AGAINST THE VIOLENCE WHICH COMES FROM WITHIN ITS RANKS IS THE ACHILLES' HEEL OF THE JRG. REASONS USUALLY GIVEN FOR THIS FAILURE ARE THAT IN THE MIDST OF THE VICIOUS AND BRUTAL STRUGGLE WAGED BY THE LEFT, THE MILITARY WILL NOT ACT AGAINST THOSE WHO ARE KILLING ITS ENEMIES LEST A PANDORA'S BOX OF ACCUSATIONS BE OPENED. THE STRUGGLE GOING ON IN EL SALVADOR IS A BITTER ONE-- NO QUARTER IS GIVEN OR ASKED--AND THERE IS VERY LITTLE POSSIBILITY OF COMPROMISE. HUMAN RIGHTS IN THIS COUNTRY TAKE A BACK SEAT TO SURVIVAL. THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION, AN ARDENT LEFTIST PARTISAN IN THE FIGHT, HAS LOST TWO OF ITS OWN MEMBERS IN RECENT WEEKS. INDICATIVE OF THE MOOD HERE IS THAT DOMESTIC CRITICISM OF GOVERNMENTAL VIOLENCE ALMOST INVARIABLY ALLEGES THAT THE GOVERNMENT IS KILLING TOO MANY OF THE WRONG PEOPLE, AND NOT ENOUGH OF THE RIGHT ONES.

14. THE PDC. THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDC) IS STRUGGLING NOT ONLY TO ISOLATE AND POLITICALLY NEUTRALIZE THE EXTREMES OF THE RIGHT AND LEFT, BUT ALSO TO EASE TS PARTNER, THE MILITARY, OT OF THE GOVERNING PROCESS. PROGRESS HAS BEEN MADE ONALL FRONT, BUT ONLY AT THE COST OF CONSTANT AND OFTEN PARALYZING CRISES. THE PDC, LIKE THE GOVERNMENT ITSELF, HS SPENT MOST OF THE LAST YEAR FIGHTING TO SURVIVE. IT IS SLOWLY WINNING BACK THE SYMPATHY IT LOST WHEN IT JOINED FORCES WITH THI MILITARY, ITS LONG-TIME ADVERSARY. THE PDC'S RECENTLY-ELECTED SLATE OF OFFICERS SHOULD BEGIN TO CURE ITS ORGANIZATIONAL MALAISE. WHAT THE PDC HAS, AND WHAT ITS RIVALS LACK, IS UNITY AND CLEAR INSTITUTIONAL GOAL --THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A CIVILIAN GOVERNMENT IN A SYSTEM CHARACTERIZED BY THE PARTICIPATION OF ALL CLASSES IN THE COUNTRY'S POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC LIFE.

UNFORTUNATELY, MANY SALVADORANS DO NOT SHARE THE PDC'S ASPIRATION, AND MANY WHO DO REFUSE TO DIRTY THEIR HANDS IN A MESSY AND DANGEROUS TRANSITIONAL PHASE WITH AN UNCERTAIN ENDING.

15. THE LEFT. EL SALVADOR'S LEFT IS COMPOSED OF AT LEAST FOUR ELEMENTS (THE ARMED GROUPS, THE MASS ORGANIZATIONS CONTROLLED BY THE ARMED GROUPS, THE MORE TRADITIONAL, "DEMOCRATIC" LEFTISTS WHO JOINED WITH THE MASS ORGANIZATIONS TO CREATE THE DEMOCRATIC REVOLUTIONARY FRONT - FDR -, AND THE TRADITIONAL ELEMENTS WHICH DID NOT JOIN THE FDR) AND NONE HAVE FARED WELL DURING THE PAST YEAR DESPITE FOREIGN PROPAGANDA ABOUT THE INEVITABILITY OF VICTORY. THE MASS ORGANIZATIONS, GROUND DOWN BETWEEN THE REFORMIST POSICIES OF THE GOVERNMENT ON ONE SIDE AND A CAMPAIGN OF PHYSICAL ELIMINATION CARRIED OUT BY RIGHTIST TERRORISTS ON THE OTHER, AND HANDICAPPED BY POOR JUDGEMENT AND TACTICAL ERRORS, LOST MUCH OF THEIR PUBLIC SUPPORT. THE FDR'S UNARMED "DEMOCRATIC" GROUPS, WHICH HAD EXPECTED A BRIEF, EASY STRUGGLE AND A DENOUEMENT A LA NICARAGUA, NOW FIND THEMSELVES TRAPPED IN A PROLONGED ALLIANCE WITH INCREASINGLY VIOLENT GUERRILLA PARTNERS WHOM THEY BARELY KNOW AND SCARCELY INFLUENCE. SOME GROUPS WHICH DID NOT JOIN THE FDR FORMED THEIR OWN FRONT IN SEPTEMBER, BUT HAVE ALSO FAILED TO ATTRACT POPULAR SUPPORT.

16. THE GUERRILLA AND TERRORIST GROUPS MISJUDGED THE WILLINGNESS OF SALVADORANS TO PARTICIPATE IN A VIOLENT REVOLUTION. ATTEMPTS TO TRANSFER RESOURCES FROM THE MASS ORGANIZATIONS TO THE GUERRILLAS DID MORE HARM TO THE FORMER THAN GOOD FOR THE LATTER. THE MUCH TOUTED FEDERATION OF THE ARMED GROUPS PRODUCED MORE SQUABBLING THAN UNIFICATION. IT NOW APPEARS THAT THE COMMAND STRUCTURE WITHIN THE INDIVIDUAL GROUPS IS WEAKENING, ALTHOUGH "RE-ORGANIZATIONS" TAKE PLACE TO GIVE THE APPEARANCE OF COHERENCE. THE GUERRILLA GROUPS ARE STRONGER THAN THEY WERE A YEAR AGO.

UNCLASSIFIED
DECLASSIFIED

BUT THEY HAVE FALLEN FAR SHOURT OF WHERE THEY EXPECTED TO BE BE, AND THEY HAVE CLEARLY BEGUN TO DECLINE. THE GENERAL ATTITUDE IN THIS SOCIETY NOW IS THAT THE ARMED GROUPS ARE LOSING THEIR STURGGLE AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT. PEASANTS ARE INFORMING AGAINST THEM, RECRUITMENT APPEARS TO BE DOWN, SUPPLIES ARE SHORT, AND THE ARMY IS ON THE OFFENSIVE. BUT THE STRUGGLE IS FAR FROM OVER. THE EXTREME LEFT RETAINS CONSIDERABLE DESTRUCTIVE CAPACITY, AND IT APPEARS TO BE MARSHALLING ITS RESOURCES IN A DETERMINED EFFORT TO ROIN THE COUNTRY'S ALREADY STAGGERING ECONOMY. THE GUERRILLAS HAVE YET TO TEST THEIR STRENGTH SERIOUSLY AGAINST THE ARMED FORCES, BUT THEY ARE OPERATING IN EVER LEAGER UNITS, AND A FEV SUCCESSFUL ENGAGEMENTS COULD REVERSE DRAMATICALLY THEIR DECLINING FORTUNES.

17. THE RIGHT. THE POWER OF THE RIGHT IS THE UNKNOWN IN EL SALVADOR'S POLITICAL EQUATION. IT HAS LITTLE ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE, BUT MUCH SYMPATHY AMONG THE MIDDLE CLASSES, INCLUDING SOME MILITARY OFFICERS, WHICH OFTEN THREATENS TO CRYSTALLIZE INTO A COUP ATAINST THE JRG. THE

EXTREME RIGHT'S POLITICAL GROUPS HAVE BEEN DISCREDITED RATHER THOROUGHLY, BUT ITS LEADERS STILL OPERATE FREELY, PLOTTING AND SEARCHING FOR ALLIES. SEVERAL RECENT MURDERS SUGGEST THAT ITS PRIVATE ASSASSINATION SQUADS ARE BUSY

[redacted]

AGAIN. GROUPS REPRESENTING THE OWNERS OF INDUSTRIAL AND

[redacted] SECTION 06 OF 06 SAN SALVADOR 7724

AGRARIAN INTERESTS ARE ACTIVE IN THEIR OWN DEFENSE, THOUGHT UNDER MORE PROGRESSIVE LEADERSHIP THAN IN THE PAST. A RESURGENCE OF A HARD-LINE RIGHT COULD BE IN THE OFFING. IMPORTANT CONSERVATIVE MILITARY OFFICERS DISTRUST THE GOVERNMENT'S REFORMS, BUSINESSMEN ARE INCREASINGLY UNHAPPY WITH THE DETERIORATING ECONOMIC SITUATION, AND TWO RECENT INVESTIGATIONS INTO CORRUPTION IN PREVIOUS GOVERNMENTS HAVE MADE A NUMBER OF PEOPLE NERVOUS. THE MOST IMMEDIATE DANGER TO THE JRG IS THAT THE RESULTS OF THE U.S. ELECTIONS WILL BE READ BY THE LOCAL RIGHT AS A SIGNAL THAT THE USG WILL SUPPORT A RETURN TO SOMETHING VERY SIMILAR TO THE OLD ORDER.

18. ECONOMICS. AS DEMONSTRATED BY THE FAILURE OF THE GENERAL STRIKE MOST RECENTLY CALLED BY THE LEFT, LABOR UNREST HAS ABATED DURING THE LAST SEVERAL MONTHS, LARGELY DUE TO THE GOVERNMENT'S ACCEPTANCE AMONG THE WORKING CLASS, ITS HARDER LINE AGAINST LABOR AGITATORS, AND THE DESPERATION FO THE WORKERS IN THE FACE OF ROCKETING NATIONAL UNEMPLOYMENT. AMONG BUSINESS AND INDUSTRIAL LEADERS, HOWEVER, THE LACK OF CONFIDENCE OF SIX MONTHS AGO IS RAPIDLY T[redacted] INTO DESPAIR AND CYNICISM, FURTHER ACCELERATING THE [redacted]

[redacted]

FLIGHT OF CAPITAL, TALENT, AND PRODUCTIVE CAPACITY. THREE MAJOR UNCERTAINTIES DOMINATE THE ECONOMIC SPHERE: THE AVAILABILITY OF HARD CURRENCY FINANCING TO CONTINUE PRODUCTION AND TRADE, THE CAPACITY OF THE UPCOMING HARVEST IN COFFEE, COTTON AND SUGAR TO OVERCOME LOSSES DUE TO DISINVESTMENT AND TERRORIST DEPREDATIONS, AND THE POSSIBLY RAPID EXPANSION OF TRADE WITH HONDURAS.

19. COMMENT. THIS HAS BEEN A YEAR OF DESTRUCTION IN EL SALVADOR--OF OLD POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC PATTERNS, OF CERTAIN AUTHORITY GROUPS THAT SUPPORTED AND OPPOSED THEM.

AND OF THE LIVES OF A GREAT MANY PEOPLE CAUGHT IN THE MEATGRINDER OF CHANGE. THE TASK OF REBUILDING HAS HARDLY BEGUN; THE FUTURE IS WIDE OPEN HERE. WHILE SOME OPTIONS HAVE BECOME LESS LIKELY DURING THE PAST YEAR, THERE ARE STILL NO ALTERNATIVES TOO UNPLEASANT TO COME TRUE.

20. BY FAR THE BEST ALTERNATIVE, FROM THE POINT OF VIEW OF BOTH USG GOALS FOR THE REGION AND SALVADORAN ASPIRATIONS, REMAINS THE JRG. IT HAS ITS PROBLEMS. IT WILL NEVER SERVE AS A MODEL FOR HUMAN RIGHTS OR A TEXTBOOK CASE IN THE IMPLEMENTATION OF REFORMS. BUT LOOKED AT FROM THE PERSPECTIVE OF HOW FAR IT HAS COME, RATHER THAN HOW FAR IT STILL HAS TO GO, IT HAS MADE COURAGEOUS PROGRESS AGAINST HIGH ODDS. GIVEN ENOUGH TIME, ENOUGH LUCK, AND ENOUGH HELP, THE JRG WILL ACCOMPLISH ITS OBJECTIVES, AND OUR OWN.

EXCISE

November 21, 1980

Dear Mr. Thompson:

Thank you for your letter of November 7, in which you enclose information sent to you by [redacted] and inquire about the recent arrest of nine persons in Chile.

We have contacted our Embassy in Santiago and learned that eight of the nine persons were arrested in a single investigation, and the remaining individual was detained in a separate case. Tapia Bricelo, Munoz Benitez, Garcia Corales, Romario Moya, [redacted] Gomez Ocaranza, Domancic and Perez Rosales were picked up in a National Information Center (CNI) investigation of an alleged Communist splinter group, named the Revolutionary Communist Party. Human rights sources believe that as many as seventeen persons were detained. All but six are now free. The six persons were handed over to the civilian courts and subsequently were indicted for violations of Degree Law 77, which proscribes Marxist activity. No physical mistreatment is alleged. Of the names on [redacted] list, Garcia Corales, Sarraute Peron, Gomez Ocaranza, Domancic and Perez Rosales are presently awaiting the action of the civilian courts.

The ninth individual, Montes Garcia, was accused of participating in several extremist attacks, reportedly detained on September 29, transferred to the courts on October 17 and indicted for violations of the Arms Control and Internal Security Laws.

If we can be of any further assistance, please let us know.

Sincerely,

J. Brian Atwood
Assistant Secretary for Congressional Relations

Enclosure:
Correspondence returned.

Frank Thompson, Jr.,

TEXT OF TELEGRAM 8OSTATE 296322

SUBJECT:FORMATION OF A PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT BY SALVADORAN LEFT

1. SEVERAL WIRE SERVICES, NOTABLY HAVANA PRELA FROM MEXICO CITY, REPORTED OCTOBER 29 THAT THE SALVADORAN DEMOCRATIC REVOLUTIONARY FRONT (FDR) HAS ANNOUNCED THE IMMEDIATE FORMATION OF A REVOLUTIONARY GOVERNMENT LED BY THE FARABUNDO MARTI NATIONAL LIBERATION FRONT(FMLN). THE FMLN WAS FORMED IN EARLY OCTOBER AND APPEARS TO HAVE ASSUMED SOME OF THE COORDINATING FUNCTIONS OF THE UNIFIED REVOLUTIONARY DIRECTORATE (DRU) OF WHICH THE FDR IS A MEMBER. IT IS COMPRISED OF THE FARABUNDO MARTI PEOPLES LIBERATION FORCES (FPL), THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF EL SALVADOR (PCES), THE PEOPLES REVOLUTIONARY ARMY (ERP), AND THE ARMED FORCES OF NATIONAL RESISTENCE (FARN). ACCORDING TO THE FDR, THE FMLN GOVERNMENT "WILL BE ESTABLISHED IN THE LIBERATED NORTHERN ZONE OF EL SALVADOR." OTHER REPORTS SAY THAT THE FMLN GOVERNMENT HAS RECEIVED FORMAL RECOGNITION FROM "SEVERAL GOVERNMENTS IN EUROPE AND THE CARIBBEAN" AND IS REPRESENTED AT THE UN BY A "PERMANENT COMMISSION".

2. THE TRUTH IS THAT THE GUERRILLA FORCES IN EL SALVADOR DO NOT PERMANENTLY CONTROL ANY SALVADORAN TERRITORY,

ALTHOUGH UNTIL RECENTLY THEY HAD OPERATED RELATIVELY FREELY IN POCKETS ALONG THE HONDURAN BORDER WHEN BY MUTUAL AGREEMENT NEITHER HONDURAS NOR EL SALVADOR EXERCISED JURISDICTION. WE ARE NOT AWARE THAT THE FMLN HAS BEEN ACCORDED RECOGNITION BY ANY COUNTRY AS EITHER A GOVERNMENT OR A BELLIGERENT. THE FDR HAS NOT NAMED ANY OF THE COUNTRIES ALLEGEDLY RECOGNIZING THE FMLN AND NO COUNTRY HAS SO IDENTIFIED ITSELF. AT THE UN , TUILLERMO UNGO AND OTHER SALVADORAN MEMBERS OF THE FDR FOR A TIME WERE LOBBYING THEIR CAUSE IN THE CORRIDORS, WITH THE HELP OF THE CUBAN AND NICARAGUAN DELEGATIONS, BUT THEY WERE GRANTED NO OFFICIAL RECOGNITION OR STATUS.

3. FOR MEXICO: PLEASE ASCERTAIN THE MEXICAN GOVERNMENT'S ATTITUDE TOWARD THIS MOST RECENT DEVELOPMENT.

4. IF THE QUESTIONS OF THE FMLN'S STATUS AS A "GOVERNMENT," CONTROL OF TERRITORY, AND/OR CLAIM TO BE REPRESENTED AT THE U.N. ARISE, ADDRESSEES MAY WISH TO DRAW ON PARA 2 ABOVE IN SETTING THE RECORD STRAIGHT.

SUPPORTED BY NICARAGUA AND LIBYA, HAS NOT YET BEEN THE SUBJECT OF BROADER ATTENTION. WE WOULD EXPECT A RESOLUTION ALONG THE LINES OF THAT PROVIDED IN REF C TO SURFACE IN THE NEXT FEW DAYS, THOUGH NEITHER WE NOR THE SALVADORANS HAVE BEEN ABLE TO DISCERN ANY ORGANIZED EFFORT TO BROADEN POTENTIAL SPONSORSHIP. CONSIDERATION MAY COME UNDER UNGA ITEM 12, REPORT OF ECOSOC, SCHEDULED FOR NOVEMBER 27 THROUGH DECEMBER 5, ALTHOUGH IT COULD EMERGE EARLIER IN ANOTHER CONTEXT. THE POSSIBILITY REMAINS THAT NO RESOLUTION WILL BE INTRODUCED, BUT THIS SEEMS UNLIKELY.

3. WE HAVE BEEN DISCUSSING WITH THE SALVADORAN MISSION PLANS TO COUNTER THE ANTICIPATED ATTEMPT TO GAIN APPROVAL FOR THE HEAVILY-SLANTED RESOLUTION CONTAINED IN THE CUBAN WORKING PAPER. THREE MEETINGS HAVE BEEN HELD WITH SALVADORAN PERMREP ROSALES AND CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT LEADER AND SAN SALVADOR MAYOR REY PRENDES. AMB. WEISSMAN, MISOFF STRASSER AND ARA/CEN DIRECTOR BLACKEN (WHO PARTICIPATED IN THE NOVEMBER 7 DISCUSSION) HAVE BEEN PRESSING ROSALES TO ORGANIZE SUPPORT TO CO-SPONSOR EITHER AMENDMENTS TO THE ANTICIPATED RESOLUTION OR A SUBSTITUTE DRAFT, WHICHEVER ALTERNATIVE SHOULD EMERGE AS THE MOST EFFECTIVE COUNTER TO THE [redacted]

CUBAN-LIBYAN-NICARAGUAN EFFORT.

4. ROSALES AND REY PRENDES APPEAR TO LEAN TOWARD FINDING EUROPEAN CO-SPONSORS FOR THIS PURPOSE. THE FORMER AT OUR URGING HAS MET WITH LATIN AMERICAN GROUP CHAIRMAN LIEVANO OF COLOMBIA TO SEEK SOME REGIONAL SUPPORT, WITH DISCOURAGING RESULTS. HE IS NOT SANGUINE ABOUT POSSIBILITIES OF FULL ANDEAN GROUP HELP IN ORGANIZING OPPOSITION, AND DOES NOT BELIEVE VENEZUELA ALONE OR IN CONJUNCTION WITH COSTA RICA, LIKELY CANDIDATES FOR CO-SPONSORSHIP, WOULD BE SUFFICIENTLY CONVINCING, GIVEN THEIR STRONG IDENTIFICATION WITH GOES AND USG POLICIES TO DATE. REY PRENDES IS IN MADRID FOR THE SOCIALIST INTERNATIONAL MEETINGS AND WILL ASSESS POSSIBILITIES FOR EUROPEAN SUPPORT. THE SALVADORANS APPEAR TO BELIEVE BELGIUM OR ITALY MIGHT SPEARHEAD THE COUNTER-EFFORT TO THE HOSTILE RESOLUTION. WE HAVE ENCOURAGED ROSALES TO EXPAND HIS CONTACTS ON AN URGENT BASIS, TAKING INTO ACCOUNT THE DESIRABILITY OF REPRESENTATIVE CO-SPONR-SHIP FROM COUNTRIES IN OTHER REGIONS AS WELL.

5. AT THE SAME TIME, WE HAVE MANAGED TO GET ROSALES TO REVIEW THE CUBAN DRAFT WITH A VIEW TO THE MINIMUM AMENDING REQUIRED TO MAKE THE RESOLUTION ACCEPTABLE. ROSALES AND REY PRENDES HAVE SHOWN THEMSELVES TO BE REALISTIC IN RECOGNIZING THAT A POSITIVE EFFORT,

DECLASSIFIED UNCLASSIFIED

DECLASSIFIED UNCLASSIFIED

ACKNOWLEDGING RESPONSIBILITY ON BOTH EXTREMES FOR THE CURRENT VIOLENCE AND HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS GENERALLY, MIGHT HAVE THE GREATEST APPEAL TO UN MEMBERSHIP NOT ALREADY COMMITTED TO A COURSE OF ACTION.

6. THERE FOLLOWS A DESCRIPTION OF THE CHANGES ROSALES NOW BELIEVES SUFFICIENT TO MAKE THE CUBAN DRAFT ACCEPTABLE:

THE LEAD, HOWEVER, NOW SITS WITH IRELAND, WHOSE THIRD COMMITTEE REPRESENTATIVE, DECLAN O'DONOVAN, HAS PRODUCED A REDRAFT OF THE CUBAN WORKING PAPER, THE TEXT OF WHICH IS PROVIDED IN THE FINAL PARAGRAPH OF THIS MESSAGE.

3. THE STILL HIGHLY UNSATISFACTORY NATURE OF O'DONOVAN'S DRAFT, WHICH REACHED ROSALES LATE NOVEMBER 13, LED HIM TO MEET WITH THE FORMER ON AN URGENT BASIS NOVEMBER 14. (EARLIER, WE HAD PROVIDED ROSALES WITH O'DONOVAN'S NAME AS ONE OF FOUR OR FIVE KEY CONTACTS HE SHOULD MAKE IN THE THIRD COMMITTEE.) O'DONOVAN, ACCOMPANIED BY A MEMBER OF NORWAY'S DELEGATION, WAS SYMPATHETIC TO ROSALES' GENERAL CONCERNS AND ASKED ROSALES TO SUGGEST OTHER LANGUAGE. ROSALES REPORTS THAT O'DONOVAN'S MAIN PROBLEM SEEMED TO BE WITH ANY ATTEMPT TO DROP THE "SUPPLY OF ARMS" QUESTION, REFERRED TO IN PREAMBULAR AND OPERATIVE PARAGRAPHS OF BOTH THE CUBAN AND IRISH DRAFTS. O'DONOVAN DID SAY THAT HE WAS ANXIOUS TO REACH AGREEMENT ON SOME KIND OF REVISED TEXT, SEEKING THEREBY TO FORESTALL INTRODUCTION OF THE CUBAN TEXT. (DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION OF ALL THIRD COMMITTEE DRAFT RESOLUTIONS HAS BEEN SET FOR NOV. 19.)

5. TEXT OF THE IRISH DRAFT RESOLUTION IS AS FOLLOWS:

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

(1) CONSCIOUS OF ITS RESPONSIBILITY TO PROMOTE AND ENCOURAGE RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS FOR ALL,

(2) NOTING THAT ALL GOVERNMENTS HAVE AN OBLIGATION TO RESPECT AND PROMOTE HUMAN RIGHTS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE RESPONSIBILITIES THEY HAVE UNDERTAKEN UNDER VARIOUS INTERNATIONAL INSTRUMENTS,

SUBJECT:REPORTED ARREST OF ANTONIO HANDAL

1. SENATOR EDWARD KENNEDY HAS CONTACTED THE DEPARTMENT ON BEHALF OF SEVERAL CONSTITUENTS CONCERNED ABOUT THE WELFARE AND WHEREABOUTS OF SALVADORAN CITIZEN ANTONIO HANDAL. ACCORDING TO VARIOUS INCOMPLETE REPORTS, HANDAL WAS ARRESTED NOVEMBER 11 OR EARLY ON THE MORNING OF NOVEMBER 12 BY NATIONAL GUARDSMEN IN AN ART GALLERY IN WESTERN SAN SALVADOR. THE ARREST REPORTEDLY WAS WITNESSED BY HANDAL'S COLLEAGUES AND MEMBERS OF THE PRESS.

2. HANDAL IS SAID TO BE THE PRESIDENT OF THE ARCHITECTS COLLEGE, A PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATION. HIS ASSOCIATES HAVE REPORTED THAT THE SALVADORAN AUTHORITIES HAVE DENIED ANY KNOWLEDGE OF HIS DETENTION OR WHEREABOUTS. KENNEDY'S OFFICE UNDERSTANDS THAT HANDAL IS THE BROTHER OF FARID HANDAL, A MEMBER OF THE FDR WHO RESIDES IN MEXICO CITY.

-- ACCORDING TO MONSIGNOR RIVERA Y DAMAS, ON 11/14 A GROUP OF GUERRILLAS ENTERED THE TOWN OF SAN ESTEBAN CATARINA (SAN VICENTE), KIDNAPPED A GROUP OF FARMERS AND KILLED THEM; THIS, HE SAID, WAS IN RETRIBUTION FOR THE KILLING EARLIER IN THE WEEK OF SEVERAL GUERRILLAS BY THE NATIONAL GUARD.

RETROSPECTIVE: LEFTIST NEWSPAPER AND REVOLUTIONARY BULLETIN BOARD 'EPENBNDEPENDENTE' FOR NOVEMBER 11 PUBLISHED AN FMLN (FARABUNDO MARTI NATIONAL LIBERATION FRONT) TRACT IN WHICH THE ORGANIZATION REITERATES ITS RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE KILLING OF INTERNATIONAL FAIR MANAGER MANUEL RIVAS AND FAIR PARTICIPANT GERARDO CASTRO. THE STATEMENT EXPLAINED CASTRO'S ASSASSINATION. IT CLAIMED THAT THE SECURITY AROUND CASTRO AND HIS BUSINESS WAS MADE UP OF "FORMER SOMOZA GUARDSMENUMO RIGHTIST MEMBERS OF THE DEATH SQUADRON WHO WERE CONNECTED TO THE NATIONAL GUARD AND THE NATIONAL POLICE."

PROSPECTIVE: POLOFF WAS TOLD BY A FREQUENT EMBASSY CONTACT THAT HE HAS HEARD THAT RIGHTIST ARE INTENT ON KILLING JRG MEMBER COL. MAJANO AND AT LEAST ONE JESUIT IN THE NEAR FUTURE, POSSIBLY NEXT WEEK. OUR SOURCE WAS RELUCTANT TO SAY HOW HE HAD STUMBLED ONTO THIS INFORMATION, SAYING THAT HE PREFERRED TO CONFIRM THE STORY BEFORE OING INTO MORE DETAIL. THIS INFORMATION MAY BE NOTHING MORE THAN A REPETITION OF A PUBLIC RUMOR--THAT ARE FEW PEOPLE IN THIS COUNTRY WHO ARE NOT AWARE THAT THE RIGHT WOULD LIKE TO DO IN MAJANO AND THE JESUITS, AMONG OTHERS.

WEEKEMD UPDATE: APART FROM A ROUTINE BOMB EXPLOSION DURING THE EVENING OF NOVEMBER 16 NO SIGNIFICANT ACTS OF VIOLENCE HAVE COME [redacted]

TO OUR ATTENTION AS OF 5:00 P.M. ON NOVEMBER 16.

~~C O N F I D E N T I A~~L SECTION 10 OF 10 SANTIAGO 6010

A CHILE ITEM APPEARS EACH YEAR ON THE AGENDA OF THE UN GENERAL ASSEMBLY AND COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS. THE 1979 GENERAL ASSEMBLY PASSED A RESOLUTION EXPRESSING "PARTICULAR CONCERN THAT THE CHILEAN AUTHORITIES HAVE FAILED TO TAKE AND URGE EFFECTIVE MEASURES, AS REQUESTED IN ITS RESOLUTION 33/175, TO INVESTIGATE AND CLARIFY THE FATE OF PERSONS REPORTED TO HAVE DISAPPEARED FOR POLITICAL REASONS," AND URGING THE AUTHORITIES OF CHILE TO RESPECT AND PROMOTE HUMAN RIGHTS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE RESPONSIBILITIES IT HAS UNDERTAKEN UNDER VARIOUS INTERNATIONAL INSTRUMENTS. IN FEBRUARY THIS YEAR, THE COMMISSION ALSO EXPRESSED CONCERN OVER HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS IN CHILE, AS WELL AS THE FATE OF NUMEROUS PERSONS WHO HAD DISAPPEARED, AND RENEWED THE RAPPORTEUR'S MANDATE FOR AN ADDITIONAL YEAR. THE COMMISSION REQUESTED SPECIFICALLY THAT HIS SUBMISSION CONTAIN A REPORT ON THE DISAPPEARED.

THE INTER-AMERICAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION ALSO MAINTAINS A WATCHING BRIEF ON THE CHILEAN SITUATION. THE OAS GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN OCTOBER 1979 ADOPTED A RESOLUTION BASED ON THE COMMISSION'S 1979 REPORT NOTING THAT "THERE REMAIN IN CHILE SERIOUS LIMITATIONS ON THE EXERCISE OF HUMAN RIGHTS" AND URGED THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE "TO

RECALLING ITS RESOLUTIONS 31/124, 32/118, 33/175 AND 34/179 ON THE PROTECTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE, AND 33/173 ON DISAPPEARED PERSONS,

RECALLING ALSO RESOLUTION 11 (XXXV) OF THE COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS ON VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE, WHICH, INTER ALIA, DECIDED TO APPOINT A SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR ON THE SITUATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE,

DEPLORING THAT THE CHILEAN AUTHORITIES HAVE CONSISTENTLY REFUSED TO CO-OPERATE WITH THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR APPOINTED BY THE COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS,

NOTING IN THE REPORT OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR CONTAINED IN DOCUMENT A/35/522, THAT THE SITUATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS HAS FURTHER DETERIORATED IN THE LAST PERIOD WITH A DEFINITE INCREASE OF THE TENDENCIES REFERRED TO IN THE PREVIOUS REPORT;

ALARMED AT THE FACT THAT THE CHILEAN AUTHORITIES HAVE PRETENDED TO LEGITIMIZE THIS SITUATION THROUGH A "PLEBISCITE" HELD WITHOUT LIFTING THE "STATE OF EMERGENCY", AND WITHOUT MEETING THE MOST ELEMENTAL CONDITIONS AND GUARANTEES INHERENT IN A DEMOCRATIC PROCESS;

DEEPLY CONCERNED THAT THE SAID "CONSTITUTION", IF APPLIED, WOULD GIVE THE HIGHEST RANK AND A PERMANENT CHARACTER TO THE PRESENT BODY OF LEGISLATION WHICH, BY DEFINITION, VIOLATES THE CIVIL, POLITICAL, ECONOMIC, SOCIAL AND CULTURAL RIGHTS OF THE CHILEAN PEOPLE;
NOTING WITH INCREASING CONCERN THAT THE CHILEAN AUTHORITIES CONTINUE TO IGNORE THE REPEATED APPEAL OF THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY REFLECTED IN THE VARIOUS RESOLUTIONS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY AND OTHER INTERNATIONAL ORGANS AND HAVE FAILED TO TAKE URGENT AND EFFECTIVE MEASURES TO INVESTIGATE AND CLARIFY THE FATE OF PERSONS WHO HAVE DISAPPEARED,

3. REITERATES ITS INDIGNATION AT THE CONTINUED VIOLATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE, AND CONCLUDES THAT IT SHOULD CONTINUE TO EXERCISE VIGILANCE WITH REGARD TO THE SITUATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN THAT COUNTRY;

4. EXPRESSES ALSO ITS GRAVE CONCERN THAT THERE HAS BEEN A FURTHER DETERIORATION, IN PARTICULAR CONCERNING:

TO: ARA - Samuel D. Eaton

FROM: ARA/SC - Robert E. Service

SUBJECT: Chilean Military Requests for Assistance

REFERENCE: (A) Oct. 17 and Nov. 13 memos from ARA/SC to L
(B) Santiago DAO cable No. 723, Oct. 1980

FYI, we have two requests for assistance from the Chilean military which may come under the aegis of the 1976 Kennedy Amendment.

The most urgent one concerns the Chilean Air Force petition for data on the winter operations of C-130 aircraft which "should be incorporated in the pilot's manual and maintenance technical orders." In a separate but related request, the Chilean Air Force requests that we send two pilots and two mechanics to consult directly with them to help clarify some questions they have with the use of ski equipped C-130's. All costs for such a visit would be covered by the Chilean Air Force.

The other request is from the Assistant Naval Attache at the Chilean Embassy in Washington for the United States Navy Clothing and Textile Research Facility (NCTRF) in Natick, Massachusetts, to send a representative to Chile on an "advisory visit" to help the Chilean Navy with clothing and textile problems they have.

We favor going ahead with providing the manual information. On the visits we can foresee possible problems. However, they do not involve U.S.G. expenditures so we could go along with them if they are not contrary to the law. On October 17 and November 13 we sent memos to L/ARA on this subject. The action on the memos was shifted to L/PM, and we are awaiting a response. The C-130 request is particularly urgent in the Embassy's view.

2. ON NOVEMBER 20 LABOR ATTACHE'S CONVERSATION WITH PDC CONTACT WAS INTERRUPTED BY THE ARRIVAL OF LOCAL OFFICIALS FROM SAN LORENZO, DEPARTMENT OF AHUACHAPAN. THE OFFICIALS DESCRIBED THEIR VILLAGE AS THE MOST SECURE TOWN IN EL SALVADOR. "THERE IS NO SUBVERSION IN THE AREA," THEY SAID. NEVERTHELESS DURING THE PRESENT WEEK THE NATIONAL GUARD AND THE HACIENDA POLICE HAVE KILLED SEVEN INDIVIDUALS IN THE TOWN. THE OFFICIALS STATED THAT THE MOTIVE FOR THE KILLINGS MUST HAVE BEEN PERSONAL, AND THAT TWO OF THE DEAD, A FATHER AND DAUGHTER, WERE APPARENTLY MURDERED BECAUSE THEY HAD WITNESSED SOME OF THE OTHER KILLINGS.

EXPLAINING OUR VOTE WHICH WILL BE PROVIDED FROM THE DEPT.

3. CHANGE IN PARAGRAPH 3 IS TO DELETE FINAL PHRASE "UNTIL SUCH STEPS HAVE INDEED BEEN TAKEN." AS NOTED IN REF (B), THE IMPLICATION OF PRESENT PARAGRAPH 3 IS THAT THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR SHOULD CONTINUE UNTIL STEPS ARE TAKEN WHICH, IN THEIR TOTALITY, WOULD FULLY RESTORE DEMOCRATIC PRACTICES AND INSTITUTIONS IN CHILE. THE CONTINUED NEED FOR A SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR FOR CHILE IS OPEN TO QUESTION; IT IS UNREASONABLE TO PROJECT HIS CONTINUATION INTO THE INDEFINITE FUTURE. IT IS NOT UNREASONABLE, HOWEVER, TO CONCLUDE THAT CONTINUED VIGILANCE ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE IS WARRANTED, SO LONG AS NO UNREALISTIC CONDITIONSLAID DOWN FOR ENDING THE VIGILANCE.

4. PRESENT PARAGRAPH 7 REQUESTS THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION TO EXTEND THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR'S MANDATE FOR ANOTHER YEAR. AS IN THE PAST SUCH AN UNGA REQUEST AT THIS TIME MAY BE VIEWED BY SOME COUNTRIES AS PRE-EMPTING A DECISION PROPERLY MADE BY THE UNHRC WHEN IT CONSIDERS THE RAPPORTEUR'S REPORT NEXT MARCH. USDEL SHOULD REQUEST DUTCH TO AMEND PARAGRAPH 7 TO READ "TO CONSIDER EXTENDING" THE RAPPORTEUR'S MANDATE FOR ANOTHER YEAR. MUSKIE

1. (U) CUBAN RESOLUTION ON EL SALVADOR, MODIFIED FROM TEXT CONTAINED REF B, WAS TABLED LATE NOV 20 AND APPEARED IN THE THIRD COMMITTEE NOV 21 AS DRAFT RESOLUTION A/C.3/35/L.71. DRAFT IS COSPONSORED BY ANGOLA, DEMOCRATIC YEMEN, IRAQ, MOZAMBIQUE, NICARAGUA AND SAO TOME AND PRINCIPE, IN ADDITION TO CUBA.

2. [redacted] FOLLOWING APPEARANCE OF CUBAN DRAFT, AMB. WEISSMAN SPOKE TO IRISH DELOFF O'DONOVAN CONCERNING HIS VIEW OF THE SITUATION. O'DONOVAN SAID THAT NOW THAT CUBANS HAD TABLED AND GIVEN FAILURE TO FIND LATIN CO-SPONSOR FOR IRISH DRAFT (VENEZUELANS, ECUADORANS AND FINALLY COSTA RICANS HAD ALL TURNED DOWN COSPONSORSHIP ON BASIS OF TRADITIONAL POSITION OF OPPOSITION TO COUNTRY-SPECIFIC HUMAN RIGHTS RESOLUTIONS RE SISTER REPUBLICS), HE DID NOT NOW INTEND TO PURSUE HIS DRAFT. HE ALSO SAID HE HAD BEEN ASKED BY THE CUBANS TO COSPONSOR THEIR DRAFT AND HAD TURNED THEM DOWN, SAYING THAT HE WOULD NOT WANT IRELAND TO APPEAR AMONG SUCH AN UNDISTINGUISHED LIST OF COSPONSORS. HE SPECULATED THAT AS THE CUBAN DRAFT RESOLUTION NOW STOOD, IT WOULD DRAW A SIGNIFICANT NUMBER OF ABSTENTIONS. THIS IS EVEN MORE LIKELY, HE SAID, GIVEN APPARENT POSITION OF UNGO AND COMPANY AGAINST ACCEPTING SIGNIFICANT AMENDMENTS TO THE TEXT IN THEIR LATEST TALKS, SUGGESTING THAT MEANINGFUL, CONSTRUCTIVE AMENDMENTS WILL NOT BE WELCOMED BY CURRENT CO-SPONSORS.

3. [redacted] IF THIS IS FIRM IRISH POSITION, IT APPEARS IMPROBABLE THAT A SECOND DRAFT RESOLUTION WILL BE TABLED DURING FEW REMAINING HOURS BEFORE COB NOV. 21 DEADLINE

FOR THAT TO OCCUR. ONLY POSSIBILITY OF WHICH WE ARE AWARE IS BASED UPON INSTRUCTION SALVADORAN PERMREP ROSALES RECEIVED NIGHT OF NOV 20 FROM FM CHAVEZ MENA'S PARTY IN WASHINGTON TO APPROACH NICARAGUAN PERMREP HERE AS FOLLOW-UP TO REPORTED NOV 20 CONVERSATION BETWEEN CHAVEZ MENA AND HIS NICARAGUAN COUNTERPART, D'ESCOTO. ACCORDING TO ROSALES, D'ESCOTO HAD EXPRESSED WILLINGNESS TO CONSIDER CO-SPONSOR ING IRISH DRAFT, PRESUMABLY WITHDRAWING FROM ITS CURRENT CO-SPONSORSHIP OF THE CUBAN VERSION. ROSALES REPORTED THAT HE WAS TOLD NICARAGUANS MIGHT EVEN BE WILLING TO PRESENT IRISH DRAFT AS THEIR OWN.

4. [redacted] ROSALES IS MOST SKEPTICAL (A VIEW WE TEND TO SHARE) THAT HE WILL EITHER FIND TINOCO WITH INSTRUCTIONS ON THE MATTER, OR THAT WHAT NICARAGUANS MIGHT BE WILLING TO DO WOULD NOW SERVE EL SALVADOR'S BEST INTERESTS. IT MAY WELL BE THAT WORKING TO LIMIT SUPPORT TO THE CURRENTLY POORLY CO-SPONSORED CUBAN DRAFT WILL PROVE TO BE THE BEST COURSE OF ACTION REMAINING.

SUBJ: [redacted] AFTER THE OPERATION IN MORAZAN

2. SUMMARY. ON NOVEMBER 20 THREE ALCALDES FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF MORAZAN TALKED ABOUT THE AFTERMATH OF THE MILITARY OPERATION IN THEIR DEPARTMENT. ONE STATED THAT HIS "MUNICIPALIDAD" HAD FEW SECURITY PROBLEMS BEFORE THE OPERATION AND THAT THE SITUATION REMAINS UNCHANGED. THE OTHER TWO CLAIMED THAT THEIR AREAS NOW HAVE MORE SECURITY PROBLEMS THAN THEY DID BEFORE THE OPERATION. END SUMMARY.

3. ON NOVEMBER 20 THREE ALCALDES FROM MORAZAN WHO WERE VISITING SAN SALVADOR TALKED WITH LABOR ATTACHE ABOUT THE RESULTS OF THE MILITARY OPERATION AGAINST GUERRILLAS IN THEIR DEPARTMENT. (A "MUNICIPALIDAD" IS ROUGHLY COMPARA-BLE TO A COUNTY AND ITS "ALCALDE" IS ITS CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER.) THE ALCALDE OF CHILANGA (CENTRAL MORAZAN JUST NORTH OF THE DEPARTMENT'S CAPITAL CITY) SAID THAT HIS AREA HAD HAD FEW SECURITY PROBLEMS BEFORE THE OPERATION BECAUSE OF ITS PROXIMITY TO THE CITY OF SAN FRANCISCO GOTERA AND THE TROOPS STATIONED THERE. CHILANGA, HE ADDED, CONTINUES TO HAVE FEW PROBLEMS.

4. CORINTO IS LOCATED IN EAST-CENTRAL MORAZAN. ITS

ALCALDE STATED THAT CORINTO'S SECURITY PROBLEMS ARE GREATER THAN BEFORE BECAUSE THE OPERATION ADDED TO THE HATREDS" IN THE AREA AND THE ARMY LEFT NO TROOPS THERE TO DEAL WITH THE GUERRILLAS' INCREASED ANTAGONISM. ASKED WHETHER THE ARMY HAD CAPTURED ANY GUERRILLAS, HE SAID HE HAD HEARD THAT IT CAUGHT "A FEW WOMEN." THERE WERE NO CONFRONTATIONS WITH THE GUERRILLAS IN HIS AREA, HE ADDED. THE ALCALDE SAID HE HAD GOOD INFORMATION THAT AFTER ESCAPING FROM THE ARMY THE GUERRILLAS HAD PICKED UP LARGER CALIBER WEAPONS IN THE DEPARTMENT OF LA UNION AND HAD THEN RETURNED. SOON AFTER THE ARMY LEFT SEVERAL SERIOUS GUERRILLA ATTACKS OCCURRED IN THE AREA. THE ALCALDE COMPLAINED THAT THE NATIONAL GUARD IN CORINTO DID NOT PROTECT THE PEOPLE BUT RATHER CONSUMED THEIR SCARCE RESOURCES.

5. THE ALCALDE OF SAN ISIDRO (WEST-CENTRAL MORAZAN) STATED THAT THE GUERRILLA THREAT HAS INCREASED SINCE THE MILITARY OPERATION. HE HAD HEARD THAT THE ARMY HAD CAPTURED "12 TO 20" GUERRILLAS IN HIS AREA, BUT NO CONFRONTATIONS WITH THE GUERRILLAS HAD OCCURRED NEAR SAN ISIDRO. HE DESCRIBED THE MILITARY'S OPERATION DEPRECATINGLY AS "THE ARMY'S VISIT."

[redacted]

6. THE ALCALDES AGREED THAT THE SECURITY SITUATION WOULD NOT IMPROVE UNTIL THE ARMY STATIONED TROOPS PERMANENTLY IN THEIR AREA.

7. CONUSMILGP COMMENT:
A) IT IS IMPOSSIBLE FOR THE MILITARY TO STATION TROOPS IN EVERY AREA. PLANNING IS NOW IN PROGRESS TO DETERMINE CRITICAL AREA, TO PROTECT THEM, AND TO DETERMINE LOCATION OF RESERVE/REACTION FORCES.
B) THE KEY TO SUCCESSFUL OPERATIONS IN THESE MOUNTAINOUS AREAS WITH FEW ROADS IS AN AIR MOBILE CAPABILITY. THE CURRENT ASSETS OF THE GOES MILITARY DO NOT PROVIDE THIS CAPACITY, SINCE THEIR FEW HELICOPTERS CANNOT SUPPORT THEIR TOTAL REQUIREMENTS.
C) NO MENTION WAS MADE OF THE BASE AND TRAINING CAMPS WHICH WERE CAPTURED OR WEAPONS AND MATERIALS PICKED UP BY THE MILITARY. THIS OPERATION AS A WHOLE CERTAINLY HAD DELETERIOUS EFFECTS ON THE GUERRILLA CAPABILITIES WITHIN THE AREA, BUT IT MANIFESTLY DID NOT DESTROY ALL THE GUERRILLA INFRASTRUCTURE OR ORGANIZATION.

8. DATT COMMENT: THE REMARKS MADE BY THE "ALCALDES" ARE PROBABLY TRUE. THE MAIN MORAZAN OPERATION TOOK PLACE NORTH OF THE RIVER TOROLA AND WEST OF THE PERQUIN-MEANGUERA ROAD (CA-7). THE TOWNS CITED IN THE REPORT ABOVE ARE NOT IN THAT SECTOR. THE SECOND PHASE OF THE OPERATION

WAS TO SWEEP EAST THROUGH CORINTO. THE GUERRILLAS, HOWEVER, WERE ABLE TO ESCAPE PRIOR TO THE ARRIVAL OF THE ARMED FORCES IN THAT AREA. ALTHOUGH TROOPS WERE LEFT BEHIND TO PREVENT THE RETURN OF THE INSURGENTS, THE LACK OF PERSONNEL AND TRANSPORTATION WOULD MAKE SUCH A TASK HIGHLY DIFFICULT TO ACCOMPLISH.

PANAMA ALSO FOR RSS

SUMMARY: THE FIRST WEEK IN NOVEMBER WAS ANOTHER WEEK OF WIDESPREAD VIOLENCE IN EL SALVADOR. ONE MEMBER OF THE JRG, COL. MAJANO, WAS VERY NEARLY KILLED BY A POWERFUL CAR BOMB. THE INCIDENT IS INDICATIVE OF THE NATURE OF THE VIDLENCE IN THIS COUNTRY-- SOME CLAIM THAT THE RIGHT WAS TRYING TO GET MAJANO, OTHERS SAY NOT SO; IT WAS THE LEFT TRYING TO GET DEFENSE MINISTER GARCIA, AND AT LEAST ONE IVENTIVE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT SAYS THAT MAJANO PROBABLY SET THE BOMB HIMSELF IN ORDER TO GET BACK INTO THE NEWS-PAPERS. IN ANY EVENT, MAJANO WAS SPARED BY THE BOMB, BUT AT LEAST 222 PEOPLE WERE NOT AS LUCKY THIS WEEK. AMONG THE VICTIMS

FINALLY, THERE ARE UNCONFIRMED REPORTS OF A BRUTAL ACTION BY THE MILITARY IN A POOR SECTION OF SAN SALVADOR: ABOUT FIFTY PEOPLE, MOSTLY YOUNG, WERE SUPPOSEDLY ROUNDED UP BY THE MILITARY IN IN AMZYEPEC, AND THEIR BODIES ARE REPORTEDLY NOW BING FOUND IN GROUPS IN DIFFERENT AREAS.
DEATHS: THERE WERE AT LEAST 222 VICTIMS OF POLITICAL VIOLENCE
IN EL SALVADOR DURING THE WEEK NOVEMBER 1-7. OF THESE VICTIMS
AT LEAST THIRTY-TWO WERE KILLED BY LEFTISTS, FIVE BY THE MILITARY AND FIVE BY RIGHTIST TERRORISTS.
INCIDENTS: --ACCORDING TO NEWSPAPER REPORTS, ON 1/1 A CLASH
BETEEEN SOLDIERS AND GUERILLAS IN THE AMATEPEC SECTION OF SOYAPANGO
(SAN SALVADOR) RESULTED IN THREE DEATHS AND AN UNDETERMINED NUMBER OF INJURIES. (COMMENT: A SOURCE CLOSE TO THE EMBASSY

ARRIVED IN THE AREA AND BEGAN A HOUSE-TO-HOUSE SEARCH. HE CLAIMED THAT ABOUT FIFTY PEOPLE WERE TAKEN AWAY AND THAT AT LEAST TEN OF THOSE PEOPLE HAVE BEEN FOUND DEAD. THIS VERSION OF EVENTS
MAY OR MAY NOT BE TRUE; EMBASSY WILL ATTEMPT TO DETERMINE WHETHER IT IS ACCURATE. END COMMENT.)

AREA. DETAILS OF THE INCIDENT ARE STILL MURKY; IT IS NOT CERTAIN WHO OR WHAT ORGANIZATION PLACED THE BOMB, HOW MANY PEOPLE, IF ANY, DIED IN THE INCIDENT, OR EVEN IF THE BLAS WAS DIRECTED AT COL. MAJANO.
--ON 11/3 THE MANAGE OF THE INTERNATIONAL FAIR, MANUEL RIVAS
RODRIGUEZ, WAS ASSASSINATED IN SAN SALVADOR BY A GRROUP WHICH INCLUDED TWO WOMAN. RIVAS' WIFE IS REPORTED TO HAVE DIED LATER
FROM WOUNDS SUFFERED IN THE INCIDENT. THE POPULAR LIBERATION FORCES (FPL) CLAIMED RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE ASSASSINATION.
--ON 11/3 THE TOWN OF NEJAPA (SAN SALVADOR) WAS OCCUPIED BY A GROUP OF GUERRILLAS WHO BURNED THE ANTEL BUILDING AND SACKED
SEVERAL STORES WHILE SHOUTING REVEDUTIONARY SLOGANS AND THREATENING TO CARRY OUT PUBLIC EXECUTIONS. (COMMENT: NEWSPAPER REPORTS CLAIMED OVER 200 GUERILLAS PARTICIPATED IN THIS ACTION BUT AN EMBASSY SOURCE WHO TRAVELLED TO NEJAPA TOLD US THAT RESIDENTS SPOKE IN TERMS OF THIRTY TO FITY. END COMMENT)
--ON 11/3 SEVERAL SAN SALVADOR RADIO STATIONS WERE TAKEN OVER BY MEMBERS OF LEFTIST GROUPS (ORU, FDR, AND FMLN) WHO USED THE OPPORTUNITY TO BROADCAST MESSAGE SEVERELY CRITICAL OF THE GOES.
--ON 11/3 APPROXIMATELY TWENTY-FIVE ARMED MEN ENTERED THE TOWN OF SAN BARTOLOME PERULAPIA (CUSCATLAN), KILLED ONE MAN IN HIS HOUSE, WENT ON TO KILL A WOMAN WHOSE HUSBAND THEY COULD NOT FIND, AND ENDED BY BLOWING UP THE HOUSE OF THE DEAD WOMAN'S MOTHER.
--ON OR ABOUT 11/3 GUERILLAS AMBUSHED A MILITARY PATRO ON THE MEMORANDUM

TO: ARA/SC - Mr. Robert E. Service

FROM: L/PM - Ted A. Borek TAB

SUBJECT: Chilean Military Requests for Assistance

Your memoranda on the above subject have been referred to this office for reply. For the reasons outlined below, it is our opinion that a favorable U.S. Government response to the two Chilean requests in question would be precluded by section 406 of the International Security Assistance and Arms Export Control Act of 1976 (P.L. 94-329). For convenience of analysis, each request is treated separately.

Technical Assistance Relating to C-130 Aircraft

The Chileans have requested us to provide USAF technical information concerning winter operation and maintenance of C-130 military transport aircraft in their inventory. Such information constitutes a "defense service" within the meaning of section 47(4) of the Arms Export Control Act (the AECA), and hence may not be furnished by the U.S. Government on a reimbursable basis under the foreign military sales (FMS) program in light of section 406(a)(2) of P.L. 94-329, which precludes the making of any new FMS sales to Chile. This prohibition obtains regardless of whether the sales in question are financed by the U.S. Government under FMS, or from Chile's own resources. We are unaware of any other authority under which the requested information could lawfully be furnished to Chile on either a reimbursable or grant basis. (Grants of defense articles and services under the military assistance program (MAP) authorized by the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, as amended (the FAA), are prohibited insofar as Chile is concerned by section 406(a)(1) of P.L. 94-329 and, in any case, would require express statutory authorization.)

While it might (depending on the facts) be possible to bring the provision of the requested information within the scope of some FMS case concluded prior to the enactment of P.L. 94-329, and hence not affected by the limitations of section 406(a)(2), the Administration's cancellation of all existing FMA "pipeline" cases for Chile presumably removes this is an avenue for a favorable response to the Chilean request.

It should be noted that the foregoing applies regardless of the manner in which the information is furnished, that is, whether by the provision of technical manuals or other publications, or directly by USAF personnel.

C-130 aircraft are available through commercial as well as FMS channels. Inasmuch as they constitute defense articles on the U.S. Munitions List, their commercial export from the United States requires prior licensing from the Department's Office of Munitions Control (PM/MC). Unclassified information that "can be used, or be adapted for use in the . . . operation [or] maintenance" of Munitions List defense articles constitutes a "defense service" the commercial export of which also requires prior licensing. ("Export" in this context includes disclosure of Munitions List information to a foreign national within the United States.) In either case, section 406(a)(2) of P.L. 94-329 prohibits the issuance of any license for the export of Munitions List defense articles or services to or for Chile.

Although section 125.11(a)(7) of the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (the ITAR) exempts from the licensing requirement exports of unclassified technical information which consists of "operations, maintenance, and training manuals, and aids relating to [Munitions List] equipment, the export of which has been authorized to the same recipient", section 126.01 of the ITAR provides that such exemption does not apply with respect to countries to which such exports would "not be in furtherance of world peace and the security and foreign policy of the United States." The latter proviso would include those countries to or for which Munitions List exports are prohibited by statute. This exemption-from-an-exemption does not apply, however, where the information sought to be exported falls within either of two catefories:

(1) If it is in published form and subject to public dissemination by being:

(i) Sold at newsstands and bookstores;

(ii) Available by subscription or purchase without restrictions to any person or available without cost to any person;

(iii) Granted second class mailing privileges by the U.S. Government; or

(iv) Freely available at public libraries.

(2) If it has been approved for public release by any U.S. Government department or agency having authority to classify information or material under Executive Order 11652, as amended, and other applicable Executive Orders, and does not disclose the details of design, production, or manufacture of any arms, ammunition, or implements of war on the U.S. Munitions List.

These categories encompass, essentially, information that would be generally and freely available to the public, either through dissemination by non-governmental sources or from the U.S. Government (including information the release of which may be required under the Freedom of Information Act, as amended.) In the former case, the "published form and subject to public dissemination" exemption has been construed narrowly to exclude technical information and other data made available by the manufacturer of a defense article for sale only to purchasers of that defense article. In any event, there is a strong possibility that information of the type requested by the Chileans is proprietary either to the manufacturer (Lockheed) or to the Department of Defense, and hence would not fall within either of the two categories above. In short, it is possible, but not probable, that the needed information is available sources not subject to the limitations of section 406(a)(2) of P.L. 94-329.

"Advisory Visits" to Chile by NCTRF Personnel

The provision of technical advice regarding naval uniforms and their manufacture by representatives of the Navy Clothing and Textile Research Facility would also represent a "defense service" which may be furnished to a foreign country only on a MAP or FMS basis. (I assume from Cdr. Sewell's letter, in which he speaks of reimbursement for services provided, that NCTRF is contemplating an FMS transaction. As with the C-130 problem, we know of no other legal authority for the provision of such services.) Accordingly, section 406(a)(2) of P.L. 94-329 would again operate to prevent a favorable response to the Chilean request.

Uniforms per se are not, as a rule, Munitions List articles (although military life support systems could be, under certain circumstances) and as such section 406 of P.L. 94-329 would not preclude related technical assistance being furnished to Chile from U.S. commercial sources.

I would note in this regard that both the FAA and the AECA define "training" (as a "defense service") quite broadly so as to include "formal or informal instruction . . . by . . . orientation, and military advice to foreign military units and forces". The courtesies already extended to Chilean military representatives by NCTRF arguably fall within this definition, and we would advise that caution be taken in the future to ensure that all activities viz a viz the Chilean military are clearly consistent with the limitations imposed by section 406 of P.L. 94-329.

Please let me know if you have any comments or questions concerning the foregoing.

THE TWELVE INVOLVED WERE PART OF A GROUP OF 31 PEOPLE ARRESTED IN CURICO AND MOLINA IN EARLY NOVEMBER BY SECURITY FORCES AND CHARGED WITH BEING MEMBERS OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY. SEVEN WERE EXILED EARLIER WITH THE REMAINING 24 RELEASED UNCONDITIONALLY BY THE COURT OF APPEALS IN TALCA. 3. THE WATERS REMAINED TROUBLED AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CHILE'S MACUL CAMPUS, WHICH HAS A HISTORY OF LEFTIST AGITATION. TROUBLES GOING BACK TO JULY HAVE RESULTED IN SEVERAL PERSONS BEING SUSPENDED OR EXPELLED.

RECENTLY, CONTINUED STUDENT EFFERVESCENCE, CENTERED IN THE SCHOOLS OF "HUMAN SCIENCES" AND PHILOSOPHY AND LETTERS, RESULTED IN A FURTHER NINE EXPULSIONS AND 40 SUSPENSIONS. STUDENTS PROMPTLY BEGANS A HUNGER STRIKE AND TRIED TO ORGANIZE A GENERAL CLASSROOM BOYCOTT. IN A MOVE TO LOWER TEMPERATURES, THE SCHOOL OF PHILOSOPHY DECIDED TO END CLASSES FOR THE YEAR AS OF LAST WEEK, ONE WEEK EARLIER THAN SCHEDULED. STUDENTS WILL STILL HAVE TO TAKE SEMESTER EXAMS IN EARLY DECEMBER.

SOME 1700 PERSONS REPORTEDLY WILL HAVE THEIR SENTENCES REDUCED BY ONE YEAR, WHILE ANOTHER 700, WITH LESS THAN ONE YEAR REMAINING TO BE SERVED, WILL BE RELEASED IMMEDIATELY.

5. THE SPECIAL MAGISTRATE APPOINTED TO INVESTIGATE THE UNION TRADING CO. TAX FRAUD CASE RECENTLY DECLARED HIMSELF INCOMPETENT TO HANDLE THE CASE. PRECEDENCE OVER THE UNION TRADING CASE. THE ACTION BY THE MAGISTRATE IS LIEKWY TO PROLONG EVEN FURTHER THE SLOW-MOVING CHILEAN LEGAL PROCESS. THE PRESS HAS REPORTED THAT THE UNION TRADING CASE IS THE BIGGEST CASE OF TAX FRAUD IN CHILEAN HISTORY, PERHAPS AMOUNTING TO TENS OF MILLIONS OF DOLLARS. ONE OF THE ALLEGED "BIG FISH" IN THE TAX FRAUD CASE, PRESENTLY IN JAIL AWAITING TRIAL, IS AN ASSOCIATE OF RETIRED GENERAL MANUEL CONTRERAS, EX-HEAD OF THE DIN-, AND IS ALLEGED TO HAVE BEEN A DINA AGENT AT ONE TIME. ON THE FIVE COUNTRIES WHICH IN RECENT DAYS HAVE BEEN THE SUBJECT OF ATTENTION FOLLOWS, AS WELL AS USUN'S RECOMMENDATIONS FOR FURTHER ACTION:

A. BOLIVIA: AS REPORTED USUN 5365, BOLIVIA IS THE ONLY COUNTRY IN THE GROUP ON WHICH MORE THAN ONE RESOLUTION

HAS BEEN TABLED. THE WATERED-DOWN DUTCH/SWEDISH TEXT (USUN 5288) WILL PROBABLY RUN INTO FEW PROBLEMS AND THE PANAMANIAN/NICARAGUAN DRAFT WILL PROBABLY NOT BE VOTED UPON (ON PROCEDURAL GROUNDS). USUN RECOMMENDS THAT WE VOTE IN FAVOR, BUT ALSO THAT WE MAKE A CLEAR STATEMENT REINFORCING OUR CONCERN, POSSIBLY MAKING REFERENCE TO WHATEVER EMERGES FROM THE OASGA IN THE MEANTIME.

B. CHILE: THE DUTCH DID NOT TABLE AN ANTICIPATED SECOND DRAFT. THEY SAID THE SWEDES ARE WORKING WITH THE CO-SPONSORS OF THE "MEXICAN" RESOLUTION TO SOFTEN IT, HAVING INFORMED THE MEXICANS THAT WESTERN EUROPEAN SUPPORT WILL NOT BE FORTHCOMING OTHERWISE. WE HAVE MADE OUR CONCERNS KNOWN TO THE DUTCH. THEY SAY THE SWEDES HAVE ALREADY SUCCEEDED IN ELIMINATING SEVERAL OBJECTIONABLE PARAGRAPHS AND REWORDING OTHERS TO PRODUCE A SHORTER, MORE OBJECTIVE AND MORE BALANCED DRAFT. THE DUTCH EXPECT A REVISED DRAFT TO EMERGE ON OR ABOUT NOVEMBER 26. WE WILL ADVISE AND MAKE A RECOMMENDATION AT THAT TIME.

C. CUBA: THE DRAFT WORKING PAPER THAT SURFACED BRIEFLY (USUN 5197) GOT NOWHERE, OSTENSIBLY BECAUSE OF A LACK OF SATISSACTORY WESTERN EUROPEAN CO-SPONSORSHIP. WE DOUBT THAT IT WAS A SERIOUS INTENT. IT DID RATTLE THE CUBANS SUFFICIENTLY, HOWEVER, TO CAUSE REPORTED THREATS THAT THEY WOULD RETALIATE

WITH COUNTRY-SPECIFIC RESOLUTIONS ON THE DUTCH/ MOLLUCAN AND IRELAND/NORTHERN IRELAND ISSUES, AMONG OTHERS.

D. EL SALVADOR: ONLY THE CUBAN/NICARAGUAN DRAFT (USUN 5316) WAS TABLED. THE IRISH ARE STILL ATTEMPTING TO NEGOTIATE CHANGES, BUT HAVE INDICATED TO THE SALVADORANS (AS HAVE THE DUTCH TO US) THAT THEY WILL END UP SUPPORTING THE DRAFT EVENTUALLY, SUGGESTING THAT DEPSITE QUESTIONABLE CURRENT CO-SPONSORSHIP, THE CUBAN/NICARAGUAN RESOLUTION WILL GET SOME RESPECTABLE SUPPORT. SALVADORAN PERMREP ROSALES HAS CEASED EFFORTS TO ACHIEVE CHANGES IN THE DRAFT, HIS GOVERNMENT HAVING DECIDED (CORRECTLY, WE BELIEVE) THAT THE RESULTS WOULD BE UNACCEPTABLE IN ANY CASE. WE HAVE REEMPHASIZED HERE -- AND WILL CONTINUE TO DO SO AT EVERY OPPORTUNITY -- THE VIEW THAT THE CUBAN/ NICARAGUAN DRAFT IS FAR FROM BALANCED OR CONSTRUCTIVE. WE SHOULD BE PREPARED TO MAKE DEMARCHES ASAP IN APPRO-PRIATE CAPITALS TO MAKE CLEAR THIS VIEW. WE HAVE URGED THE SALVADORANS TO DO LIKEWISE, HERE AND ELSEWHERE. BARRING EXTENSIVE MODIFICATIONS, WE PROBABLY SHOULD VOTE NO, BUT WITH A FORCEFUL STATEMENT OF THE REASONS, POINTING TO THE GOES' CONSIDERABLE EFFORTS TO IMPROVE THE SITUATION.

E. GUATEMALA: THE DRAFT WORKING PAPER (USUN 5178) WAS NOT TABLED, EVIDENTLY BECAUSE THE CUBANS AND NICARAGUANS DID NOT WISH TO DETRACT FROM THEIR INITIATIVE ON EL SALVADOR.

1. THE FOLLOWING IS THE TEXT OF A DRAFT RESOLUTION SPONSORED BY DENMARK, FINLAND, ICELAND, NORWAY AND SWEDEN WHICH HAS BEEN DISTRIBUTED AS A/C.3/35/L.66.

BEGIN TEXT:

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY,

RECALLING ITS RESOLUTION 33/174 BY WHICH IT ESTABLISHED A UNITED NATIONS TRUST FUND FOR CHILE AS A VOLUNTARY FUND TO RECEIVE CONTRIBUTIONS AND DISTRIBUTE HUMANITARIAN, LEGAL AND FINANCIAL AID TO PERSONS WHOSE HUMAN RIGHTS HAVE BEEN VIOLATED IN CHILE,

RECALLING ALSO ITS RESOLUTION 34/176,

NOTING THAT ALL GOVERNMENTS HAVE AN OBLIGATION TO RESPECT AND PROMOTE HUMAN RIGHTS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE RESPONSIBILITIES THEY HAVE UNDERTAKEN UNDER VARIOUS INTERNATIONAL INSTRUMENTS,

NOTING WITH CONCERN THAT GROSS AND FLAGRANT VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS TAKE PLACE IN VARIOUS COUNTRIES,

CONSIDERING THE PLIGHT OF VICTIMS OF GROSS AND FLAGRANT HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS WHEREVER THEY TAKE PLACE, DECIDES TO REQUEST THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMSSION TO STUDY, AT ITS THIRTY-SEVENTH SESSION, THE POSSIBILITY OF EXTENDING THE MANDATE OF THE UNITED NATIONS TRUST FUND FOR CHILE TO RECEIVE VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS AND FURTHER TO STUDY CRITERIA FOR THEIR DISTRIBUTION, THROUGH ESTABLISHED CHANNELS OF ASSISTANCE, AS HUMANITARIAN, LEGAL AND FINANCIAL AID TO PERSONS, NOT COVERED BY THE MANDATE OF OTHER EXISTING UNITED NATIONS TRUST FUNDS, WHOSE HUMAN RIGHTS HAVE BEEN GROSSLY AND FLAGRANTLY VIOLATED, UNCLASSIFIED

TO THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN FORCED TO LEAVE THEIR COUNTRIES AS A RESULT OF GROSS AND FLAGRANT VIOLATIONS OF THEIR HUMAN RIGHTS AND TO RELATIVES OF PERSONS IN THE ABOVE-MENTIONED CATEGORIES, AND TO REPORT THEREON TO THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL AT ITS FIRST REGULAR SESSION IN 1981, REQUESTS THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL TO PRESENT TO THE THIRTY-SIXTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY RECOMMENDATIONS CONCERNING THE EXTENSION OF THE MANDATE OF THE EXISTING UNITED NATIONS TRUST FUND FOR CHILE TO BECOME A UNITED NATIONS TRUST FUND FOR VICTIMS OF GROSS AND FLAGRANT VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS.

END TEXT.

2. COMMENT: USDEL RECOMMENDS WE VOTE IN FAVOR OF THE RESOLUTION. EVENTUAL CONVERSION OF THE CHILE TRUST FUND TO AN UNIVERSAL FUND WOULD BE CON-SISTENT WITH OUR EFFORT TO PROMOTE EVEN-HANDED TREATMENT OF HUMAN RIGHTS QUESTION WITHIN THE UN SYSTEM. SUCH A STEP WOULD ALSO BE COMPATIBLE WITH OUT OPPOSITION TO THE PROLIFERATION OF COUNTRY-SPECIFIC UN TRUST FUNDS FOR VARIOUS PURPOSES. MORE IMPORTANT, ESTABLISHMENT OF AN UNIVERSAL FUND FOR VICTIMS OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS WOULD HELP STRENGTHEN THE PRINCIPLE OF INTERNATIONAL RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE PROTECTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS OF INDIVIDUALS. AS THE DRAFT RESOLUTION MERELY REQUESTS THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION TO STUDY THE SUBJECT, OUR SUPPORT WOULD NOT COMMIT US TO ACCEPT THE RESULTS. BY SUPPORTING THE PROPOSAL FOR A STUDY, WE PUT OURSELVES IN A STRONGER POSITION TO SHAPE ITS OUTCOME IN WAYS TO OUR LIKING. CO-SPONSORS FINLAND AND NORWAY BELIEVE RESOLUTION WILL PASS EASILY. THEY ARE AWARE OF NO OPPOSITION OTHER THAN FROM SOVIET/EE COUNTRIES.

AND SHOULD BE MADE, IF POSSIBLE, BEFORE THE VOTE IS TAKEN.

3. THE UNITED STATES DELEGATION WOULD LIKE TO HAVE SUPPORTED A RESOLUTION ON THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN EL SALVADOR. THE UNITED STATES SHARES THE CONCERN OF THE MEMBER NATIONS OF THIS ORGANIZATION FOR THE GRAVE VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS WHICH ARE OCCURRING EVERY DAY IN EL SALVADOR.

WE DO NOT, HOWEVER, CONSIDER THE RESOLUTION BEFORE THIS ASSEMBLY A BALANCED OR ACCURATE PICTURE OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN EL SALVADOR.

THE GOVERNMENT OF EL SALVADOR IS FACED WITH EXTREME VIOLENCE EMANATING FROM BOTH THE LEFT AND THE RIGHT. WE CONDEMN THE VIOLENCE OF BOTH SIDES.

WE CONDEMN THE ASSASSINATION OF ARCHBISHOP ROMERO, THE ASSASSINATION OF THE RECTOR OF THE UNIVERSITY OF SAN SALVADOR, THE ASSASSINATION OF MEMBERS OF HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS AND COUNTLESS OTHER VICTIMS ATTRIBUTED TO RIGHT-WING VIOLENCE. THE MOST RECENT EXAMPLE OF APPARENT RIGHT-WING VIOLENCE WAS THE KIDNAPPING AND KILLING OF FDR LEAD-

ERS IN SAN SALVADOR ON NOVEMBER 27. AT THE SAME TIME, WE CONDEMN ASSASSINATIONS ATTRIBUTED TO LEFT-WING TERRORIST GROUPS. WE NOTE THAT ON JULY 19 A LEADER OF ONE OF THE LEFT-WING GUERRILLA GROUPS, PUBLICLY STATED IN MANAGUA THAT HIS ORGANIZATION WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR MORE THAN 2,000 CASUALTIES DURING 1980. SINCE THAT TIME, LEFT-WING OPPONENTS OF THE GOVERNMENT HAVE CLAIMED RESPONSIBILITY FOR ASSASSINATIONS OF CIVILIANS INCLUDING THOSE OF MELVIN RIGOBERTO ORELLANA, THE SECRETARY OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY, ON OCTOBER 10; MANUEL RODRIGUEZ, THE MANAGER OF THE INTERNATIONAL FAIR, AND HIS WIFE ON NOVEMBER 4; AND A ROCKET ATTACK ON THE CITY OF SANTA ANA NOVEMBER 7 IN WHICH EIGHT PERSONS INCLUDING A NINE YEAR OLD BOY DIED.

A WAR BULLETIN ISSUED BY A GROUP KNOWN AS THE FARABUNDO MARTI NATIONAL LIBERATION FRONT (FMNL) ON OCTOBER 27 REPORTED THAT IT HAD CARRIED OUT ATTACKS AGAINST CIVILIAN TARGETS SUCH AS SHOPPING CENTERS AND BANKS USING EXPLOSIVES AS BOOBY TRAPS. THE FMNL IN ITS "WAR BULLETIN" ALSO STATED THAT IT CONDUCTED ACTIONS AGAINST CIVILIAN TARGETS WITH ITS PERSONNEL DRESSED AS NATIONAL GUARDSMEN USING SALVADORAN ARMY JEEPS.

ELEMENTS OF THE SECURITY FORCES HAVE PARTICIPATED AND ARE

PARTICIPATING IN VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS AS WELL. THE SALVADORAN GOVERNMENT FOR THIS REASON HAS PROMULGATED A CODE OF CONDUCT DESIGNED TO ENSURE A STRICT OBSERVANCE OF HUMAN RIGHTS BY ITS ARMED FORCES. IT HAS ALSO INVITED INTERNATIONAL OBSERVERS FROM THE INTER AMERICAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION TO VISIT THAT COUNTRY AND TO STUDY FIRST HAND THE MULTIPLE SOURCES OF THE VIOLENCE.

NO REFERENCE IS MADE IN THE RESOLUTION TO THE EFFORTS OF [redacted]

THE GOVERNMENT TO CURB HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES. THE GOVERNMENT, IN THE FACE OF EXTREME LEFT-WING AND RIGHT-WING VIOLENCE, HAS BEEN MAKING A DETERMINED EFFORT TO CURB HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS AND VIOLENCE. THE GOVERNMENT IS IMPLEMENTING NEEDED SOCIO-ECONOMIC REFORMS TO ALLEVIATE LONG-STANDING INJUSTICES. IT HAS ANNOUNCED A TIMETABLE FOR POPULAR ELECTIONS. ON OCTOBER 15, THE GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED AN AMNESTY FOR ALL INSURGENTS WHO WISH TO LAY DOWN THEIR ARMS AND PARTICIPATE PEACEFULLY IN THE POLITICAL PROCESS. SEVERAL HUNDRED HAVE DONE SO.

THE GOVERNMENT, UNFORTUNATELY, HAS NOT BEEN ABLE TO BRING UNDER CONTROL EXTREMISTS WHO HAVE REJECTED APPEALS TO PARTICIPATE IN A DIALOGUE OR IN A DEMOCRATIC POLITICAL PROCESS. IT IS NEVERTHELESS COMMITTED TO DOING SO.

ON OCTOBER 18, THE EPISCOPAL CONFERENCE OF EL SALVADOR OFFERED TO MEDIATE BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND ITS OPPONENTS. THE GOVERNMENT ACCEPTED THE MEDIATION IN PRINCIPLE BUT REGRETTABLY, ON OCTOBER 29, THE DEMOCRATIC REVOLUTIONARY FRONT REJECTED THE MEDIATION OFFER. WE ARE CONCERNED THAT THE KILLINGSOF T FDR LEADERS O NOVEMBER 27 HAVE FURTHER DAMAGED PROSPECTS FOR MEDIATION AND A PEACEFUL SOLUTION.

MR. PRESIDENT, THE RESOLUTION BEFORE THIS ASSEMBLY IS NOT A BALANCED ONE. IT MAKES NO REFERENCE TO THE MILITARY EQUIPMENT AND ARMS FLOWING INTO EL SALVADOR WHICH ARE DESTINED FOR TERRORIST AND GUERRILLA GROUPS THAT HERETOFORE HAVE REJECTED MEDIATION, DIALOGUE, AND PARTICIPATION IN A DEMOCRATIC POLITICAL PROCESS.

B. FOLLOWING IS THE TEXT OF STATEMENT: MR. CHAIRMAN, MY DELEGATION WISHES TO ANNOUNCE THAT WE WILL VOTE IN FAVOR OF THE RESOLUTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE CONTAINED IN DOCUMENT A/C 3/35/L61. WE DO THIS BECAUSE WE WISH TO ASSOCIATE OURSELVES WITH THE RECOMMENDATIONS CALLING UPON THE AUTHORITIES IN CHILE TO IMPROVE THE OBSERVANCE OF AND RESPECT FOR

HUMAN RIGHTS. AS IN PAST YEARS, WE CONTINUE TO WELCOME AND SUPPORT UNITED NATIONS DEMONSTRATION OF CONCERN FOR HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE.

WHILE SIGNIFICANT DEFICIENCIES REMAIN IN CHILE IN THE RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS, DEFICIENCIES WITH WHICH THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE SHOULD CONTINUE TO BE CONFRONTED AND CALLED ON TO IMPROVE, THERE HAVE BEEN SIGNIFICANT POSITIVE CHANGES SINCE 1977. THESE IMPROVEMENTS HAVE BEEN CITED IN VARIOUS PUBLIC REPORTS ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE, BUT THEY ARE IGNORED IN THIS RESOLUTION AS THEY HAVE BEEN IN PREVIOUS RESOLUTIONS. IF RESOLUTIONS ON HUMAN RIGHTS BY THE UN ARE TO BE LISTENED TO BY THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE AND BY OTHER GOVERNMENTS, WE BELIEVE AN EFFORT MUST BE MADE TO MAKE THEM AS OBJECTIVE AS POSSIBLE.

WE FURTHER WOULD NOTE THAT SOME OF THE PRINCIPAL PROMOTERS AND CO-SPONSORS OF THIS RESOLUTION ARE EXPRESSING CONCERN OVER VIOLATIONS WHICH ARE WORSE IN THEIR OWN COUNTRIES THAN IN CHILE AND ARE CALLING FOR REFORMS WHICH ARE FARTHER FROM REALITY IN THEIR NATIONS THAN IN CHILE.

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

CONTINUING TO SINGLE OUT CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS PRACTICES, WHEN THERE ARE NO REPORTS OR RESOLUTIONS ON COUNTRIES IN WHICH HUMAN RIGHTS PRACTICES ARE INFERIOR TO THOSE IN CHILE, SUGGEST AN UNFORTUNATE DOUBLE STANDARD AND TENDS TO WORK AGAINST THE CRUCIAL ROLE OF PROMOTING A GREATER RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS IN THE WORLD. THE GOAL OF THIS BODY AND THE UNHRC SHOULD BE AN EFFECTIVE AND EVEN-HANDED APPROACH TO SITUATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES.

WE WOULD HOPE THAT THE CHILEAN AUTHORITIES WOULD CONTINUE TO TAKE STEPS TO IMPROVE THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN THAT COUNTRY AND THAT THE UNHRC AT ITS NEXT SESSION, IN THE LIGHT OF CIRCUMSTANCES AT THAT TIME, WILL BE OPEN TO CONSIDERING APPROACHES TO THE HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEM IN CHILE OTHER THAN THAT OF A SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR.

THE UNITED STATES REMAINS CONCERNED ABOUT THE NEED TO END ALL HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS IN CHILE. WE CONTINUE TO MONITOR THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN

CHILE AND TO REPORT ON IT TO OUR CONGRESS. WE BELIEVE THAT PROGRESS TOWARDS IMPROVING HUMAN RIGHTS CAN BE BEST ACHIEVED BY MAINTAINING A FIRM AND CREDIBLE STAND AND ONE THAT IS BASED ON A COMPREHENSIVE AND OBJECTIVE VIEW OF THE SITUATION. MUSKIE

1. [redacted] ENTIRE TEXT)
2. SUMMARY: THIS REPORT STATES THAT THE SECURITY FORCES OF THE GOVERNMENT KIDNAPPED AND KILLED SIX OF THE FDR LEADERSHIP. IT DISCUSSES VARIOUS POSSIBLE CONSEQUENCES WHICH COULD FLOW FROM THIS EVENT INCLUDING THE PROBABLE [redacted]

DEPARTURE OF COLONEL MAJANO FROM THE JUNTA AND A POSSIBLE CONFRONTATION BETWEEN THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS AND THE MILITARY. THE ANALYSIS CONCLUDES THAT STRONG UNITED STATES ACTION WILL BE REQUIRED TO KEEP THE GOVERNMENT INTACT AND AVOID THE SLIDE OF THE GOVERNMENT INTO A REPRESSIVE MILITARY DICTATORSHIP WITH AN UNSTATED POLICY OF PERMITTING THE SECURITY FORCES TO KILL WITH IMPUNITY. THE RECOMMENDATIONS INCLUDE AN IMMEDIATE SUSPENSION OF MILITARY ASSISTANCE UNTIL THE GOVERNMENT DEALS WITH THE ASSASSINATION OF THE FDR LEADERS IN A SATISFACTORY WAY. THE REPORT DISCUSSES OUR POLICY TOWARDS EL SALVADOR OVER THE PAST YEAR AND CONCLUDES THAT THIS IS THE LAST OPPORTUNITY TO MAKE THAT POLICY WORK. END SUMMARY.
3. WHILE SOME OF THE DETAILS OF THE ASSASSINATION OF THE FDR LEADERS ARE STILL SUFFICIENTLY CLEAR TO COME TO A NUMBER OF SOLID CONCLUSIONS. THE EVIDENCE THAT THE SECURITY FORCES ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THIS ACTION IS OVERWHELMING.
---THE COMMANDER OF THE NATIONAL GUARD, COLONEL CARLOS EUGENIO VIDES CASANOVA, TOLD ME THAT THE SECURITY FORCES MAINTAIN A CONSTANT SURVEILLANCE OF THE OFFICES OF THE SOCORRO JURIDICO. HE TOLD ME THIS SEVERAL MONTHS AGO [redacted]

WE HAVE ANOTHER REPORT THAT [redacted] MEDICAL DOCTORS WHO HAVE A CLINIC ACROSS THE STREET [redacted]

RECOGNIZED SOME OF THE PARTICIPANTS AS MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY FORCES. A REPORTER WHOSE SYMPATHIES LIE WITH THE CONSERVATIVE SECTOR REPORTED THE PRESENCE OF A NUMBER OF OFFICERS OF THE SECURITY FORCES AT THE BREAK-IN. HE HAS GONE INTO HIDING.

--WHEN I SPOKE TO THE ACTING FOREIGN MINISTER EARLY LAST EVENING ABOUT THE ARREST OF THE FDR LEADERS, HE STATED THAT IT WAS NOT GOING TO BE A BIG PROBLEM BECAUSE THE MILITARY WOULD HAND THEM OVER TO THE JURIDICAL BRANCH AND THEY WOULD BE TRIED. IN RESPONSE TO MY QUESTION, HE SAID THAT THE MINISTER OF THE INTERIOR TOLD HIM THAT THIS WOULD BE THE PROCEDURES. HE ADDED THAT IF THERE WAS NO EVIDENCE AGAINST SOME OF THE MEN, THEY WOULD BE PROMPTLY RELEASED.

--IT IS COMMONLY ACCEPTED THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY THAT THE BRIGADA ANTICOMUNISTA MAXIMILIANO HERNANDEZ MARTINEZ WHICH HAS CLAIMED RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE ASSASSINATIONS IS ONLY A PSEUDONYM FOR ELEMENTS OF THE SECURITY FORCES.

--LASTLY, IT IS INCONCEIVABLE THAT A LARGE GROUP OF HEAVILY ARMED MEN COULD SURROUND THE SOCORRO JURIDICO'S OFFICES, ACCOMPLISH A ROOM BY ROOM SEARCH OF THE PREMISES AND TAKE AWAY SIX MEN WITHOUT THE PERMISSION, NOT TO SAY PARTICIPATION, OF THE SECURITY FORCES. IT WILL BE RECALLED THAT THIS OPERATION TOOK PLACE IN A BUSY SECTOR OF SAN SALVADOR, WITH PEOPLE MOVING ALONG THE STREETS PURSUING THEIR NORMAL BUSINESS DAY'S ACTIVITIES.

A NUMBER OF CONSEQUENCES COULD FLOW FROM THE ASSASSINATION OF THE FDR LEADERS.

--IT IS PROBABLE THAT COLONEL ADOLFO MAJANO WILL RESIGN FROM THE JUNTA UNLESS THE MILITARY MOVE PROMPTLY TO FIND AND PUNISH THOSE RESPONSIBLE. THIS IS UNLIKELY AS THE MINISTER OF DEFENSE, COLONEL GARCIA, HAS OFFICIALLY DENIED ANY SECURITY FORCES PARTICIPATION IN THE AFFAIR.

--IT IS ALSO POSSIBLE THAT RODOLFO VIERA, HEAD OF ISTA, THE AGRARIAN REFORM INSTITUTE, WILL RESIGN FROM THE [redacted]

DECLASSIFIED

GOVERNMENT. VIERA HOLDS THE SECURITY FORCES RESPONSIBLE FOR A NUMBER OF RECENT KILLINGS OF CAMPESINO LEADERS AND ITS EMPLOYEES.
-- A SUBSTANTIAL NUMBER OF INFLUENTIAL CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS WILL URGE THE PARTY TO CONFRONT THE MILITARY ON THIS ISSUE. [redacted] WILL INSIST THAT UNLESS THE CULPRITS ARE ARRESTED, TRIED, AND PUNISHED, THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS SHOULD LEAVE THE GOVERNMENT.
-- DEPENDING ON HOW COLONEL MAJANO REACTS AND DEPENDING ON THE ATTITUDE OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS AND, MOST OF ALL, ON THE ATTITUDE OF THE UNITED STATES, THE PROGRESSIVE AND CENTRIST MILITARY OFFICERS COULD REACT AGAINST THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE ASSASSINATION AND THOSE WHO HAVE MOVED TO COVER IT UP. IT IS TRUE THAT THE PROGRESSIVE FORCES HAVE LOST COHESIVENESS THROUGH TRANSFERS OVER THE LAST FEW MONTHS BUT IT IS IMPORTANT TO RECALL THAT MAJANO RECEIVED OVER 3[illegible] PERCENT OF THE VOTE OF THE OFFICERS IN THE CONFRONTATION WITH GUTIERREZ SOME MONTHS AGO. IT IS PROBABLE THAT A SUBSTANTIAL NUMBER OF OFFICERS REGARD THE ASSASSINATION OF THE FDR LEADERS AS UNACCEPTABLE CONDUCT AND A CONFRONTATION WITHIN THE MILITARY COULD RESULT.
-- SHOULD THE MILITARY LEADERSHIP PERSUADE JUNTA MEMBER NAPOLEON DUARTE THAT THIS WAS A REGRETTABLE ABERRATION, IT IS POSSIBLE THAT THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS MIGHT STAY IN THE GOVERNMENT WITH SOME PRIVATE AGREEMENT THAT THE WORST ACTORS IN THE MIDDLE LEVELS OF THE SECURITY FORCES WOULD BE CASHIERED OR TRANSFERRED. I DO NOT REGARD IT AS ANYTHING MORE THAN A SCANT POSSIBILITY THAT COLONEL MAJANO WOULD CONTINUE IN THE JUNTA UNDER THIS ARRANGEMENT. IT WILL ALSO BE DIFFICULT TO CONVINCE SOME OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS WHO ARE OUTSIDE THE GOVERNMENT THAT THEY ARE NOT IN GRAVE DANGER FROM RIGHTIST MILITARY OFFICERS.
-- IT IS ALSO POSSIBLE THAT IF CONFRONTED WITH A CHRISTIAN

DEMOCRAT ULTIMATUM TO PUNISH THE GUILTY MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY FORCES OR FACE A WITHDRAWAL OF THE PDC, THE MILITARY WOULD YIELD TO THE RIGHTWING BUSINESS COMMUNITY'S PLEAS AND FORM A NEW RIGHTIST GOVERNMENT WITH CIVILIAN PARTICIPATION FROM SMALL SPLINTER PARTIES OF THE RIGHT AND REPRESENTATIVES OF THE PRIVATE SECTOR.
-- THERE ARE A NUMBER OF OTHER VARIATIONS BUT THESE WILL SERVE TO ILLUSTRATE THE RANGE OF POSSIBILITIES. IT IS MOST [redacted]O UNDERSTAND, HOWEVER, THAT IT IS STILL POSSIBLE TO KEEP THE JUNTA INTACT AND THE MILITARY TOGETHER AS AN INSTITUTION IF THE JUNTA CAN FORCE THE MILITARY HIGH COMMAND TO ARREST AND PUNISH THE GUILTY OFFICERS AND [redacted]EN OF THE SECURITY FORCES

MP DISMISS C[illegible] OF TWO TOP RANKING MILITARY COMMANDERS
HOSE INVOLVEMENT IN THE WAVE OF KILLINGS IS WELL KNOWN.
S. R[illegible] COMMUNICATIONS: I RECALL THAT IN A RECENT TELEGRAM I STATED THAT THE POLITICAL HISTORY OF EL SALVADOR SINCE OCT. 15, 1979, HAS BEEN THE STRUGGLE OF THE CIVILIAN-MILITARY JUNTA TO GAIN CONTROL OVER THE MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT AND SPECIFICALLY TO PERSUADE THE MILITARY HIGH COMMAND TO END THE VIOLENT REPRESSION OF THE SECURITY FORCES. OUR POLICY IS EXPLICITLY TO ASSIST THIS PROCESS AND TO ENCOURAGE THE DEMOCRATIC ELEMENTS ON THE LEFT, CENTER, AND RIGHT TO SET ASIDE VIOLENCE AND TO CHOOSE INSTEAD DIALOGUE AND THE POLITICAL PROCESS. THUS IT WAS SPECIFICALLY WITHIN OUR POLICY FRAME-WORK THAT WE WELCOMED THE BISHOPS' OFFER OF MEDIATION AND THE GOVERNMENT'S IMMEDIATE ACCEPTANCE OF THE MEDIATION OFFER.
HIS ACCEPTANCE COMMITTED THE GOVERNMENT TO TREAT WITH THE FDR AS A POLITICAL FORCE. (THERE IS A REPORT THAT THE FDR SCHEDULED PRESS CONFERENCE WAS TO HAVE ANNOUNCED ITS WILLING-NESS IN PRINCIPLE TO ACCEPT MEDIATION.) BY KILLING THE LEADERS OF THE FDR THE MILITARY HAVE EXPLICITLY REJECTED DIALOGUE AND HERALDED A POLICY OF EXTERMINATION. THOSE WHO KIDNAPPED THE FDR LEADERSHIP WARNED THE PRIESTS THEY

6. THERE IS NO WAY THAT THIS GOVERNMENT CAN BRING THIS COUNTRY TO ELECTIONS IF THE REPRESSION IS NOT BROUGHT TO AN END. THE REPRESSION WILL NOT END UNLESS THE DEMOCRATIC ELEMENTS WITHIN THE GOVERNMENT AND WITHIN THE MILITARY GAIN CONTROL OVER THE SECURITY FORCES.
7. AT THIS POINT THERE IS NO REAL DOUBT THAT THE SECURITY FORCES ARE OUT OF CONTROL. THE SAME CIVILIAN ELEMENTS WHICH APPLAUDED THE ASSASSINATION OF MSGR. ROMERO ARE URGING THE MIDDLE LEVEL OFFICERS OF THE SECURITY FORCES TO RID THE COUNTRY OF LEFTIST PRIESTS, LABOR AGITATORS, DISSIDENTS OF ANY KIND SPECIFICALLY INCLUDING CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS.
8. IN MY VIEW, THIS IS THE LAST CHANCE TO MAKE OUR POLICY
[redacted] WORK. WE MUST SEND STRONG, UNAMBIGUOUS SIGNALS THAT WILL HEARTEN THE DEMOCRATIC FORCES WITHIN AND WITHOUT THE GOVERNMENT AND PERSUADE THE MILITARY TO CLEAN HOUSE. IF WE DO NOT SEND THESE CLEAR SIGNALS, WITHIN [redacted] MONTHS THE GOVERNMENT OF EL SALVADOR WILL BE JUST ANOTHER REPRESSIVE MILITARY DICTATORSHIP REVERSING THE REFORMS AND REJECTING ANY MOVEMENT TOWRDS PLURALISM AND ELECTIONS.
MOREOVER, ABSENT A STRONG REACTION WHICH CONTAINS IMPORTANT PENALTIES FOR THE MILITARY'S BEHAVIOR, THIS TYPE OF KILLING WILL CONTINUE AND INCREASE.
9. SPECIFICALLY, I RECOMMEND:
A. A STRONG NOTE TO THE GOVERNMENT STATING THAT WE ARE SUSPENDING ALL MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO EL SALVADOR UNTIL

STORIES ARE BEGINNING TO COME OUT ABOUT THE PRESENCE OF U.S. MILITARY ADVISORS AND ACCUSATIONS THAT THEY HAVE PARTICIPATED IN VARIOUS MILITARY OPERATIONS INCLUDING ENTRY BY THE SECURITY FORCES INTO THE PREMISES OF THE ARCHBISHOP'S HOUSE IN SEARCH FOR THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE MURDER OF COLONEL CHOTO.)
—A JOINT MESSAGE TO THE GOES BY THE OUTGOING AND INCOMING ADMINISTRATIONS REAFFIRMING THE BROAD LINES OF OUR SUPPORT FOR THIS GOVERNMENT WITH SPECIAL MENTION OF ITS RESPONSIBILITY TO AVOID VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND RECALLING THE OBJECTIVES OF THE OCTOBER 15 REVOLUTION.

OR NEUTRAL TO ADOPT A NEGATIVE ATTITUDE AND ONE OF ISOLATION...
B) INTERNALLY, TO CREATE AN ATHOSPHERE OF TERROR AND DEMORALIZATION THAT MIGHT PERMIT THEM TO MOVE FORWARD WITH A COUP. ANOTHER REASON FOR THIS ACTION IS THAT THE EXTREME RIGHT IS TRYING TO SHOW THE SALVADORAN ARMY WHICH IS BEING SEVERELY ATTACKED BY THE EXTREME LEFT, THAT THE ONLY FORM OF SOLVING THE PROBLEM IS BY MEANS OF STRICTLY MILITARY ACTIONS...THE PDC ENERGETICALLY CONDEMNS (THE KILLINGS OF THE FDR LEADERS) AND CALLS ON THE EPOPLE AND THE ARMY NOT TO FALL INTO THE TRAP THAT THE EXTREME RIGHT IS SETTING, AND ALSO CALLS ON THE DIFFERENT POLTIITICAL ORGANIZATIONS TO JOIN WITH US IN A STATE OF DIALOGUE AND PACIFIC DISCUSSION... THE JRG, FAITHFUL TO ITS PROMISE TO THE PEOPLE, MUST TAKE IMMEDIATELY JUST AND ENERGETIC MEASURES TO BREAK UP THE PARAMILITARY BANDS THAT ARE OPERATING IN OUR COUNTRY...THE AUTHORS OF THE ASSASSINATION OF THE FDR LEADERS, BY THE FORM AND THE METHODS THEY USED, UNDOUBTEDLY ARE THE SAME THAT FOR SOME DAYS HAVE BEEN OPERATING IN OUR COUNTRY AND HAVE NOT FELT THE WEIGHT OF THE LAW, THUS PERMITTING THEM TO ASSASSINATE MANY SALVADORANS OF DIFFERENT IDEAS AND TENDENCIES, AMONG WHOM ARE NUMEROUS HEROES AND MARTYRS OF THE PDC...THE EXTREME RIGHT IS TRYING TO INCITE THE EXTREME LEFT INTO AUGMENTING THE SPIRAL OF VIOLENCE IN THE COUNTRY IN ORDER TO FIND A JUSTIFICATION FOR A COUP. IN THIS CRITICAL MOMENT OF DEFINITION, THE GOVERNMENT OUGHT TO TAKE IMMEDIATELY NECESSARY AND EFFECTIVE MEASURES TO MAINTAIN ITS CREDIBILITY AND THE CONFIDENCE OF THE PEOPLE IN THE REVOLUTIONARY DEMOCRATIC PROCESS...END QUOTE.

TO THE FOR: JUAN CHACON, SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE POPULAR REVOLUTIONARY BLOC (BPR); NUMBERTO MENDOZA, HEAD OF THE POPULAR LIBERATION MOVEMENT (MLP); AND DOROTEO HERNANDEZ, A MEMBER OF THE SLUM DWELLERS UNION (UPT, WHICH IS AFFILIATED WITH THE BPR).

2. FUNERAL. THE FOR HAS YET TO MAKE AN AUTHORITATIVE STATEMENT OF ITS PLANS FOR COMMEMORATING THE EVENT, BUT IT NOW APPEARS THAT THERE WILL BE NO PUBLIC FUNERAL TOMMORROW. A PUBLISHED DEATH NOTICE FOR ONE OF THE INDIVIDUALS STATES THAT THE FUNERAL WILL NOT TAKE PLACE UNTIL DECEMBER 8. ALL SIX BODIES ARE BELIEVED TO BE IN SAN SALVADOR'S CATHEDRAL, WHICH WAS TAKEN OVER BY LEFTISTS ON THURSDAY.

3. OFFICIAL STATEMENTS. THE JRG HAS ISSUED A STATEMENT CONDEMNING THE MURDERS, BLAMING EXTREMISTS, AND AGAIN DESCRIBING ITSELF AS A GOVERNMENT CAUGHT BETWEEN TWO TERRORIST GROUPS. THE ARMED FORCES HAS ALSO ISSUED A COMMUNIQUE "PROFOUNDLY LAMENTING" THE KILLINGS.

4. MNR. BOTH MORNING NEWSPAPERS CARRY AN MNR NOTICE LAMENTING THE DEATHS OF ALL SIX INDIVIDUALS. ACCORDING TO THE NOTICE, "THE CRIMINAL ACTION CARRIED OUT ON THURSDAY THE 27TH DEMONSTRATES AGAIN TO NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL PUBLIC OPINION THE DEGREE OF REPRESSION AND VIOLENCE THAT GRIEVES OUR COUNTRY, AT THE SAME TIME THAT IT CONSTITUTES A BLOW AGAINST THE DEMOCRATIC SECTORS ON THE PART OF THE TRADITIONAL ENEMIES OF THE SALVADORAN PEOPLE..THE MNR IN HOMAGE TO THE FALLEN ONES, EXPRESSES ITS UNAVOIDABLE DECISION TO CONTINUE IN THE UNITED STRUGGLE FOR LIBERTY AND JUSTICE FOR THE SALVADORAN PEOPLE."

2. SUMMARY. ON NOVEMBER 27 FIVE ALCALDES FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF MORAZAN GAVE A MORE POSITIVE ASSESSMENT OF THE RESULTS OF THE MILITARY OPERATION IN THEIR DEPARTMENT THAN HAD THEIR COLLEAGUES (REFTEL). THOSE ALCALDES FROM THE AREA IN WHICH THE SWEEP TOOK PLACE AGREED THAT THEY HAD FEWER SECURITY PROBLEMS NOW. ONE ADDED THAT THE 53 INDIVIDUALS WHO HAVE SURRENDERED IN HIS DISTRICT SINCE THE OPERATION ARE BEING TREATED WELL BY THE ARMY. END SUMMARY.

3. ON NOVEMBER 27 FIVE ALCALDES FROM MORAZAN WHO WERE [redacted]

THE OPERATION. HE COMMENTED THAT ONLY ONE CONFRONTATION BETWEEN THE GUERRILLAS AND THE ARMY HAD OCCURRED NEAR PERQUIN, BUT HE HAD NO SPECIFICS ON THE NUMBER OF GUERRILLAS KILLED OR CAPTURED THERE. THERE ARE ABOUT 1500 DISPLACED PERSONS (DPS) IN PERQUIN, HE ADDED, AND THEY CANNOT YET RETURN TO THEIR VILLAGES.

5. SAN FERNANDO. SAN FERNANDO IS SITUATED A FEW KILOMETERS WEST OF PERQUIN. ITS ALCALDE STATED THAT THE SECURITY SITUATION IS NOW "A LITTLE BETTER" AND "CALMER". WHEN ASKED FOR A CLARIFICATION HE SAID THAT NO GUERRILLAS HAD BEEN SIGHTED IN THE IMMEDIATE VICINITY OF SAN FERNANDO SINCE THE OPERATION. SAN FERNANDO HAS APPROXIMATELY 600 DPS AND SOME ARE NOW RETURNING TO THEIR VILLAGES.

6. ARAMBALA. THE ALCALDE OF ARAMBALA, LOCATED A FEW KILOMTETERS SOUTH OF PERQUIN, SAID THAT THE OPERATION HAD BYPASSED HIS AREA. IT HAD NO SECURITY PROBLEMS BEFORE THE SWEEP, HE CONTINUED, AND HAD NONE NOW. NO GUERRILLAS HAD SURRENDERED IN ARAMBALA SINCE THE SWEEP, AND THE TOWN WAS HOSTING 50-100 REFUGEES.

7. JOATECA. WHEN ASKED ABOUT THE OPERATION, THE ALCALDE OF JOATECA (NORTHEASTERN MORAZAN NEAR THE DISPUTED [redacted] BORDER WITH HONDURAS) STATED THAT IT "WA CONTINUING." THE ARMY HAD LEFT 45 SOLDIERS IN JOATECA, HE SAID, IN ADDITION TO THE 13 NATIONAL GUARD REGULARLY STATIONED THERE. THE SOLDIERS, HE ADDED, ARE STILL ACTIVE, BUT ARE NOT TAKING CASUALTIES. THE ALCALDE DESCRIBED THE SECURITY SITUATION NOW AS "MUCH BETTER." FIFTY-THREE GUERRILLAS HAVE SURRENDERED SINCE THE OPERATION, HE STATED. THE ARMY IS KEEPING THEM IN A SPECIAL AREA WITHIN THE TOWN FOR THEIR OWN PROTECTION. THEY ARE FREE TO LEAVE AND RETURN TO THIS AREA AT CERTAIN PERIODS DURING THE DAY. THE MAYOR STATED THAT THE ARMY WAS GIVING THESE FORMER GUERRILLAS GOOD TREATMENT. DURING THE OPERATION, HE SAID, ONE CONFRONTATION OCCURRED IN HIS AREA, RESULTING IN TWO GUERRILLAS KILLED. THERE ARE NOW APPROXIMATELY 1,000 . DPS IN JOATECA.

8. YOLOAIQUIN. THE ALCALDE OF YOLOAIQUIN (CENTRAL MORAZAN NEAR THE DEPARTMENT'S CAPITAL CITY) SAID HIS AREA HAD FEW SCURITY PROBLEMS BEFORE THE SWEEP AND HAS LESS NOW.

SUBJECT: AMBASSADOR'S CONVERSATION WITH JESUIT FATHERS
NOVEMBER 29TH.

1. [redacted]-ENTIRE TEXT)

2. SUMMARY: I SPOKE WITH THREE JESUIT FATHERS ON NOVEMBER 29 AT THE SCHOOL WHERE THE SIX FDR LEADERS WERE ABDUCTED ON THURSDAY. ONE OF THE PRIESTS HAD ARRIVED WHILE THE CAPTURE WAS IN PROGRESS AND TOLD ME THAT HE SAW ABOUT TWENTY ARMED MEN NONE OF WHOM WORE EITHER UNIFORMS OR MASKS. THERE WAS AN UNCLEAR REFERENCE MADE TO THE POSIBLE COMPLICITY IN THE KIDNAPPINGS AND SUBSEQUENT MURDERS BY A MAN IDENTIFIED ONLY AS "CAPTAIN SOSA." THE THREE PRIESTS AFFIRMED THAT THERE HAD BEEN GOVERNMENT COMPLICITY IN THE KIDNAPPING AND KILLINGS. ONE POINTED OUT THAT WHILE THE VICTIMS WERE BEING TAKEN FROM THE SCHOOL THE AVENUE BEHIND THE [redacted]

SCHOOL WHICH WOULD BE THE MOST LOGICAL ESCAPE ROUTE WAS HEAVILY PATROLLED BY GOES TROOPS. THE JESUITS' BELIEF THAT THERE HAD BEEN OFFICIAL APPROVAL OF THE ACTION AGAINST THE FDR LEADERSHIP WAS REINFORCED BY THE DILATORY AND MEAGRE NATURE OF THE OFFICIAL "INVESTIGATION."

3. I SPOKE WITH THREE JESUIT FATHERS THE AFTERNOON OF NOVEMBER 29 AT THE EXTERNADO SAN JOSE, THE JESUIT HIGH SCHOOL WHERE THE FDR LEADERS WERE MEETING WHEN THEY WERE CAPTURED. THE THREE FATHERS WERE THE EXTERNADO RECTOR PEDRO SANTAMARIA, JON SOBRINO, AND ROGELIO PEDRAZ. SOME OF THEIR COMMENTS FOLLOW.

4. SANTAMARIA INDICATED THAT HE ARRIVED AT THE EXTERNADO ON THURSDAY WHILE THE ABUDCTION OF THE LEFTIST LEADERS WAS IN PROGRESS. HE SAID THAT HE PERSONALLY SAW AS MANY AS TWENTY ARMED, NON-UNIFORMED AND UNMASKED MEN ON THE SCHOOL GROUNDS. (COMMENT: THIS CONTRADICTS THE OFFICIAL VERSION CLAIMING THAT THE KIDNAPPERS WORE MASKS.) THESE, HE SAID, IGNORED HIS QUESTION ABOUT WHY THEY WERE THERE AND ORDERED HIM TO JOIN THE PEOPLE--SCHOOL PERSONNEL, PARENTS OF STUDENTS AND OTHERS--WHO WERE ALREADY ON THE GROUND. SANTAMARIA SAID THAT THE GUNMEN REPEATED SEVERAL TIMES THAT EVERYONE WAS TO KEEP HIS EYES CLOSED FOR FIVE MINUTES. THIS, HE SAID, HAMPERED THE ABILITY OF MANY WHO WERE THERE--INCLUDING HIMSELF--TO DETERMINE WHAT WAS OCCURRING. WHEN THE ASSAILANTS DEPARTED SANTAMARIA STILL DID NOT KNOW WHAT OBJECTIVE THEY HAD HAD. IT WAS SEVERAL MINUTES BEFORE HE DISCOVERED THAT THE FDR LEADERSHIP HAD BEEN TAKEN.

5. SANTAMARIA CONTINUED BY SAYING THAT FIVE HOURS AFTER THE INCIDENT TWO POLICE DRESSED IN CIVILIAN CLOTHES ARRIVED AT HIS OFFICE. THIS APPARENTLY WAS THE GOVERNMENT'S INVESTIGATORY FORCE. HE SAID THAT HE TOLD THE POLICE WHAT HE KNEW BUT POINTED OUT TO THEM THAT SINCE HE WAS FORCED TO LIE FACE DOWN ON THE GROUND

WITH HIS EYES CLOSED HE HAD SEEN LITTLE OF WHAT HAD TRANSPIRED. SANTAMARIA CLAIMED THAT THE POLICE SPOKE WITH THREE OTHERS, ONE OF WHOM HAD NOT BEEN PRESENT DURING THE INCIDENT, AND THEN LEFT.

6. FATHER PEDRAZ THEN RELATED THE STORY OF A NUN WHO HAD SPOKEN WITH A MAN IDENTIFIED AS "CAPTAIN SOSA." THIS CONVERSATION HAD TAKEN PLACE, SAID PEDRAZ, ABOUT THREE HOURS AFTER THE ABDUCTION OF THE FDR LEADERS. SOSA WAS REPORTED TO HAVE TOLD THE NUN, REFERRING TO THE ABDUCTION, "NOW WE HAVE TWO TURKERY FOR CHRISTMAS." FATHER SOBRINO INTERJECTED A VAGUE COMMENT ABOUT MENTION OF SOSA'S NAME HAVING BEEN MADE BY AT LEAST ONE EXTERNADO WATCHMAN AFTER THE CAPTURE. THE THREE FATHERS WERE NOT CLEAR ABOUT WHO SOSA WAS OR ABOUT WHAT PARTICIPATION, IF ANY, HE HAD IN THE FDR KIDNAPPINGS AND SUBSEQUENT MURDERS. THEY IMPLIED THAT HE HAD BEEN INVOLVED IN SOME WAY.

7. PEDRAZ, SUPPORTING THE THESIS THAT THERE WAS OFFICIAL COMPLICITY IN THURSDAY'S EVENTS, POINTED OUT THAT SIMULTANEOUSLY WITH THE ENTRY INTO THE EXTERNADO THERE WERE TROOPS PATROLLING THE PRINCIPAL AVENUE BEHIND THE SCHOOL. HE SAID THAT THE LOGICAL ROUTE OF ESCAPE WOULD BE ALONG THAT AVENUE.

8. SOBRINO TURNED THE CONVERSATION AWAY FROM THURSDAY'S KIDNAPPINGS AND MURDERS IN ORDER TO FOCUS ON THE JESUITS' POSITION ON THE COUNTRY'S CURRENT SITUATION. HE REITERATED THE JESUIT ARGUMENT THAT ALL OF THE EFFORTS IN THE PAST TO CHANGE THIS SOCIETY BY PEACEFUL MEANS HAVE FAILED THUS, HE SAID, PROVOKING THE WAR NOW IN PROGRESS. THE CHURCH, HE SAID, REQUIRES THAT ALL PEACEFUL MEANS BE EXHAUSTED BEFORE WAR IS RESORTED TO; THAT IS WHAT HAS OCCURRED HERE. SOBRINO WENT ON TO CLAIM THAT EIGHTY OR NINETY PERCENT OF THE PUBLIC SUPPORTED THE FDR.

9. REPORTERS WERE WAITING FOR ME WHEN I EMERGED FROM THE MEETING. I HAD ANTICIPATED THIS AND MADE THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT: QUOTE: I HAVE COME HERE TODAY TO EXPRESS MY FEELING OF HORROR AND REPUGNANCE FOR THE UNSPEAKABLE CRIME PERPETRATED HERE ON THURSDAY AGAINST THE LEADERS OF THE FRENTE DEMOCRATICO REVOLUCIONARIO. I WANT THE MEMBERS OF SOCORRO JURIDICO AND THE STAFF OF THE EXTERNADO SAN JOSE TO KNOW THAT THEY DO NOT STAND ALONE. THE

OF THIS NATION, AND INDEED ALL OF HUMANITY LOSES EACH TIME A LIFE IS TAKEN. AND EACH DEATH MOVES EL SALVADOR CLOSER TO ANRACHY AND CIVIL WAR.

WHAT HAPPENED HERE ON THURSDAY IS ALL THE MORE REGRETTABLE BECAUSE IT REDUCES THE CHANCES OF A DIALOGUE BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND THE LEFT. EVEN THOUGH THE FDR HAD REJECTED AN OFFER BY THE CHRUCH TO MEDIATE, WE WERE HOPEFUL THAT THEY WOULD RECONSIDER. WITH THE RUTHLESS KILLING OF THE POLITICAL LEADERS OF THE FDR, THIS POSSIBILITY BECOMES MORE REMOTE. MY GOVERNMENT BELIEVES THAT SUCH PROVOCATIVE ACTS ONLY STRENGTHEN THE GROWING VICIOUS CIRCLE OF VIOLENCE AND TERRORISM ALTERNATING BETWEEN THE FAR RIGHT AND THE FAR LEFT. UNQUOTE:

2. I AM MOST GRATEFUL TO THE DEPARTMENT FOR ITS PROMPT AND EXCELLENT RESPONSE TO MY RECOMMENDATIONS.

3. THERE WILL ALMOST CERTAINLY BE NO MEETING BETWEEN [redacted] THE JRG AND MC TODAY. MY STRATEGY, FOR THE MOMENT AT LEAST, IS TO AVOID SUCH A MEETING BECAUSE I DO NOT BELIEVE A CONFRONTATION IS THE WAY TO GAIN OUR OBJECTIVES. INSTEAD I AM MEETING WITH VARIOUS ACTORS ONE-ON-ONE OR IN GROUPS OF TWO OR THREE TO GET OUR MESSAGE ACROSS.

4. I HAD A GOOD DISCUSSION WITH DUARTE EARLY THIS MORNING AND HE IS ACTING MUCH MORE SENSIBLY. HE TOLD ME HE HAD TAKEN A VERY STRONG LINE WITH COLONEL GUTIERREZ, HIS FELLOW JUNTA MEMBER AND CHIEF SUPPORTER. GUTIERREZ, HE SAID, HAS NOW COME OFF HIS HARD LINING POSITION AND IS TRYING TO WORK OUT SOMETHING WITH HIS FELLOW OFFICERS. DUARTE HAS REQUESTED A MEETING BETWEEN THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS AND THE HIGH COMMAND AND THIS WILL TAKE PLACE THIS AFTERNOON. THE PDC WILL DEMAND PUNISHMENT FOR THE GUILTY, A JOINT REDEDICATION OF THE MILITARY AND THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS TO THE OCT 15 REVOLUTION AND TO EACH OTHER AND LASTLY THE PDC WILL INSIST ON A PUBLIC REAFFIRMATIONHE WILLINGNESS TO DIALOGUE WITH THE LEFT.

5. IMMEDIATELY ON RECEIVING THE INSTRUCTIONS, I WENT TO SEE FOREIGN MINISTER CHAVEZ MENA. WE HAD ABOUT FORTY-FIVE MINUTES TOGETHER BEFORE HE HAD TO LEAVE FOR A STRATEGY SESSION WITH THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS PRIOR TO MEETING WITH THE MILITARY. CHAVEZ MENA WAS PLEASED THAT WE WERE TAKING A STRONG STAND AND SAID THAT NOW THAT HE KNEW OUR POSITION IT WOULD ASSIST THE GOVERNMENT TO COME TO A REASONABLE COURSE OF ACTION.

6. CHAVEZ MENA SAID THAT HE HAD COME VERY CLOSE TO RESIGNING FROM THE GOVERNMENT ON FRIDAY. THE ONLY THING THAT HAS KEPT HIM IN, HE SAID, WAS THE REALIZATION THAT IF THE [redacted]

CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS GO, THE CO-ORDINADORA TAKES OVER.

7. I SAID THAT I AGREED WITH HIM BUT WARNED HIM THAT THOSE ON THE RIGHT DO NOT SEE IT THAT WAY. MANY OFFICERS HAVE BEEN INFLUENCED BY RIGHT-WING CIVILIANS AND THERE ARE CONSTANT CONSPIRACIES TO OUST THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS AND COLONEL MAJANO. I ASKED CHAVEZ MENA IF HE BELIEVED THAT MAJANO WOULD RETURN TO THE JUNTA.

8. CHAVEZ MENA SAID HE DID NOT KNOW BUT ADDED THAT, IN [redacted]

HIS OPINION, THE WHOLE GOVERNMENT HAD TO BE RESTRUCTURED STARTING WITH THE JUNTA. HE SAID THAT IN PART BECAUSE OF ITS OWN INEPTNESS, IN PART BECAUSE IT HAD TAKEN THE HARD DECISION, THE PRESENT JUNTA COULD NO LONGER WORK AND MUST BE REPLACED. IN RESPONSE TO MY QUERY, HE SAID THIS COULD WELL FORM PART OF THE DISCUSSION THIS AFTERNOON.

9. I EMPHASIZED TO CHAVEZ MENA THAT WE DID NOT SEEK TO DICTATE SOLUTIONS TO SALVADORAN PROBLEMS BUT THAT WE HOPED THAT OUR POSITION AS I HAD EXPRESSED IT WOULD ASSIST THE MILITARY TO COME TO THE REALIZATION THAT IT HAD A CANCER IN ITS BODY THAT MUST BE CUT OUT IF THE MILITARY WERE TO SURVIVE AS AN INSTUTION.

10. CHAVEZ MENA SAID THAT TORRIJOS HAD SENT A MESSAGE THAT HE WANTED TO SPEAK WITH HIM URGENTLY AND THAT HE INTENDED TO TRAVEL TO PANAMASDAY. CHAVEZ MENA SAID HE HOPED TO HAVE A DISCUSSION WITH FOR LEADER RUBEN ZAMORA IN NICARAGUA EN ROUTE TO PANAMA. CHAVEZ MENA REFERRED TO HIS RECENT MEETING WITH ASSISTANT SECRETARY BOWDLER AND SAID HE WAS CONVINCED THAT MEDIATION WITH INTERNATIONAL PARTICIPATION WAS THE ONLY WAY OUT OF EL SALVADOR'S PROBLEMS. I ENCOURAGED HIM IN THIS LINE OF THINKING AND TOLD HIM THAT IN YESTERDAY'S MEETING BETWEEN THE SECRETARY AND THE FOREIGN MINISTER OF MEXICO, CASTANEDA HAD SEEMED TO BE SLIGHTLY MORE POSITIVE TOWARDS EL SALVADOR AND SOME TYPE OF

MEDIATED SOLUTION.

The situation of human rights and fundamental freedoms in El Salvador

49. At the same meeting, the Committee adopted draft resolution A/C.3/35L.71/Rev.2, as revised, by a recorded vote of 63 to 13, with 48 abstentions.

46. The revised draft resolution read as follows:

"The General Assembly,

"Guided by the principles embodied in the Charter of the United Nations and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,

"Conscious of its responsibility to promote and encourage respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms for all,

"Noting that all Governments have an obligation to respect and promote human rights in accordance with the responsibilities they have undertaken under various international instruments,

"Bearing in mind resolution 19 of 30 July 1980 of the World Conference of the United Nations Decade for Women,

"Dismayed by reports of human rights violations in El Salvador and especially by the death of thousands of persons and the climate of repression and insecurity prevailing in the country,

"Deeply shocked by the vile assassination of Archbishop Oscar Arnulfo Romero, a prestigious personality, outstanding for his defense of the human rights of the Salvadorean people, and by the persecution of religious figures, and other prominent persons,

"Gravely concerned about the unknown fate of many persons detained by the authorities,

"Considering that the supply of arms and other military assistance will serve to aggravate the situation in that country,

"1. Expresses its deep concern for the grave violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms in El Salvador;

"2. Deplores the murders, disappearances and other violations of human rights reported in El Salvador;

"3. Urges the Salvadorean Government to take the necessary steps to ensure full respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms in that country;

"4. Appeals for a cessation of violence and for the establishment of full respect for human rights in El Salvador;

"5. Calls on Governments to refrain from the supply of arms and other military assistance in the current circumstances;

"6. Requests the Commission on Human Rights to examine, at its thirty-seventh session, the situation of human rights in El Salvador."

47. A draft resolution (A/C.3/35/L.71/Rev. 2) was introduced on behalf of Angola, Benin, Cuba, Democratic Yemen, Ecuador, Iraq, Mozambique, Nicaragua, Panama and Sao Tome and Principe, subsequently joined by Algeria, Mexico, Viet Nam and Yugoslavia.

1. [redacted] SUMMARY: AMONG THE 179 VICTIMS OF VIOLENCE THIS WEEK WERE SIX OF THE PRINCIPAL LEADERS OF THE REVOLUTIONARY DEMOCRATIC FRONT. THE SIX WERE KILLED IN THE USUAL FASHION: KIDNAPPED BY A GROUP OF ARMED MEN WHO APPEARED AS CIVILIANS, TAKEN AWAY IN THE UBIQUITOUS PICK-UP TRUCKS, SHOT OR STRANGLED OR BOTH, AND THEN DUMPED ALONG ROADSIDES. HUNDREDS OF OTHER DEATHS HAVE OCCURRED IN EXACTLY THE SAME MANNER. THE DEATHS OF THESE SIX MEN ARE USUSUAL IN THAT THEY HAVE GONE NOTICED. BUT, DESPITE THE FUROR THAT THESE KILLINGS HAVE PROVOKED, THERE HAS BEEN ALMOST NO PUBLIC DEMONSTRATION OF IT. SINCE THE THURSDAY KIDNAPPING THIS CITY HAS BEEN STRANGELY QUIET. OF THE VIOLENCE THAT HAS OCCURRED; IT WAS TAKEN OVER BETWEEN THURSDAY EVENING AND FRIDAY MORNING AND THEN BOMBED ON FRIDAY EVENING. WE HAVE LEARNED THAT THE BODIES OF THREE OF THE DEAD FOR LEADERS--THOSE OF CHACON, HERNANDEZ AND FRANCO--WERE IN THE CATHEDRAL YESTERDAY, NOVEMBER 29, BUT ARE NOT THERE TODAY. THOSE HAVE BEEN REPLACED WITH THE BODIES OF THE OTHER THREE MEN. WE SUSPECT THAT THIS MACABRE APPEARANCE AND DISAPPEARANCE IS DUE TO THE POSTPONEMENT OF THE FUNERAL TO WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 3. THERE ARE OBVIOUS FUNERARY REQUIREMENTS THAT THAT POSTPONEMENT

ENTAILS.

2. [redacted] DEATHS: THERE WERE AT LEAST 179 NEW VICTIMS OF POLITICAL VIOLENCE THIS WEEK IN EL SALVADOR. ONCE AGAIN WE COULD NOT IDENTIFY--EVEN IN GENERAL TERMS--THE KILLERS OF A LARGE MAJORITY OF THOSE PEOPLE--114. HOWEVER, WE ARE CERTAIN THAT AT LEAST FORTY-THREE WERE KILLED BY THE MILITARY OR SECURITY FORCES, FIFTEEN BY LEFTISTS, AND SEVEN BY RIGHTIST TERRORIST SQUADS. (COMMENT: THE DISTINCTION BETWEEN "THE MILITARY" AND "RIGHTIST TERRORISTS" WHICH WE HAVE BEEN MAKING IN THESE WEEKLY VIOLENCE SUMMARIES MAY BE IRRELEVANT; THIS WEEK, FOR EXAMPLE,WE INCLUDE IN THE RIGHTIST CATEGORY THE SIX FOR VICTIMS OF NOVEMBER 27.)

3. INCIDENTS:
--ON 11/22 FOUR MEMBERS OF ONE OF THE MOST VIOLENT OF THE LEFTIST GUERRILLA ORGANIZATIONS, THE REVOLUTIONARY ARMY OF THE PEOPLE (ERP), WERE KILLED DURING A CONFRONTATION WITH A MILITARY PATROL NEAR CANTON AGUA BLANCA (LA UNION).
--ON OR ABOUT 11/22 A GROUP OF ABOUT FIFTY GUERRILLAS WAS REPORTED TO HAVE RAIDED CANTON EL CERRON (CHALATENANGO). THE ATTACKERS REPORTEDLY RANSACKED SEVERAL HOUSES BEFORE SETTING FIRE TO THEM.
--ON OR ABOUT 11/22GUERRILLAS WERE REPORTED TO HAVE SET FIRE TO THE CASERIO EL ARROZALITO NEAR CANTON HUANACASTE (CHALATENANGO).
--ON 11/23 THE CHIEF OF ANTEL (THE STATE TELEPHONE ENTERPRISE) [redacted]

FOR SANTA ANA WAS INJURED WHEN GUERRILLAS MACHINE GUNNED HIS CAR NEAR COLON (LA LIBERTAD).
--ON 11/23 A BOMB SERIOUSLY DAMAGED A PHILIPS DISTRIBUTORSHIP IN SAN SALVADOR.
--ON 11/23 A GROUP OF REPORTEDLY HEAVILY ARMED GUERRILLAS SERIOUSLY DAMAGED TWO INCAFE COFFEE PROCESSING INSTALLATIONS IN VERAPAZ AND GUADALUPE (SAN VICENTE) AND DESTROYED A LARGE AMOUNT OF COFFEE.
--ON OR ABOUT 11/23 A LARGE GROUP OF GUERRILLAS ATTEMPTED TO TAKE OVER THE TOWN OF SAN BARTOLOME PERULAPIA (CUSCATLAN) BUT WERE REPORTEDLY REPELLED BY MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY CORPS. THE ATTACK RESULTED IN SERIOUS DAMAGE TO THE TOWN AND A POSSIBLY LARGE BUT AS YET UNDETERMINED NUMBER OF CASUALTIES.
--ON 11/24 AT LEAST EIGHTEEN ERP MEMBERS WERE KILLED BY TROOPS WHO RAIDED A GUERRILLA SAFEHOUSE IN AYUTUXTEPEQUE (A POOR SUBURB LOCATED IN THE NORTH SECTION OF GREATER SAN SALVADOR). ONE REPORT SPECULATED THAT AMONG THE VICTIMS THERE MIGHT BE SEVERAL HIGH LEVEL ERP LEADERS. THE RAIDING PARTY UNCOVERED A LARGE AMOUNT OF WEAPONRY INCLUDING GALIL AND UZI SUBMACHINE GUNS; FAL, G-3, AND M-16 RIFLES; TWELVE GUAGE SHOTGUNS; AND SEVERAL LAND MINES. IN ADDITION, ERP DOCUMENTS OUTLINING THE ORGANIZATION, ITS STRATEGY AND TACTICS WERE REPORTED TO ALSO HAVE BEEN DISCOVERED.
--ON 11/24 AT LEAST FOUR PEOPLE WERE KILLED AND SEVEN INJURED IN A CONFRONTATION NEAR THE GOVERNMENT BUILDING COMPLEX IN SAN SALVADOR. NEWS REPORTS INDICATED THAT TWO CUSTOMS POLICE WERE KILLED WHEN GUERRILLAS ATTACKED THE TRUCK IN WHICH THEY WERE RIDING. THE SURVIVING POLICE APPARENTLY REACTED BY MACHINE GUNNING

--ON 11/24 AT LEAST FIVE PEOPLE WERE KILLED DURING A CONFRONTATION BETWEEN GUERRILLAS AND GOVERNMENT TROOPS IN A SAN SALVADOR SHANTYTOWN NAMED "EL PARAISO." REPORTS INDICATED THAT RESIDENTS OF ONE SHANTY CAUGHT THE ATTENTION OF THE PASSING TROOPS BY FIRING ON THEM AND THUS PROVOKING THEM TO RAID THE HOUSE. THE TROOPS WERE REPORTED TO HAVE UNCOVERED A SIZEABLE ARMS CACHE.
--ON OR ABOUT 11/24 SEVERAL POPULAR LIBERATION FORCES (FPL) MEMBERS MOMENTARILY TOOK OVER A SAN VICENTE RADIO STATION BUT FLED WHEN TROOPS APPEARED ON THE SCENE.
--ON 11/25 SIX OF A GROUP OF TWENTY-FIVE GUERRILLAS WERE REPORTED KILLED DURING AN ENCOUNTER WITH NATIONAL GUARD TROOPS AT A LOCATION BETWEEN TEJUTEPEQUE AND JUTIAPA (CABANAS).
--ON 11/25 A BOMB EXPLOSION SERIOUSLY DAMAGE THE COJUTEPEQUE (CUSCATLAN) MUNICIPAL BUILDING, NEIGHBORING HOUSES AND A CHURCH CLOCK.

--ON 11/26 A BOMB EXPLOSION DESTROYED AN ANTEL TELEPHONE INSTALLATION IN SANTA TECLA (LA LIBERTAD).
--ON 11/27 AT MIDDAY A GROUP OF ABOUT TWENTY ARMED MEN ENTERED THE EXTERNADO SAN JOSE, A JESUIT HIGH SCHOOL, AND CAPTURED SIX LEADERS OF THE REVOLUTIONARY DEMOCRATIC FRONT (FDR) WHO WERE MEETING THERE. THOSE CAPTURED WERE: ENRIQUE ALVAREZ CORDOVA, MANUEL FRANCO, JUAN CHACON, DROTEO HERNANDEZ, ENRIQUE BARRERA, AND HUMBERTO MENDOZA. THE BODIES OF ALL SIX MEN WERE FOUND EITHER THAT EVENING OR THE FOLLOWING MORNING; ALL HAD BEEN EITHER STRANGLED, SHOT OR BOTH. A RIGHTIST TERRORIST ORGANIZATION, THE GENERAL MAXIMILIANO HERNANDEZ MARTINEZ BRIGADE, CLAIMED RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE MURDERS.
--ON 11/27 NEWSPAPERS INDICATED THAT ONE OR TWO DAYS PREVIOUSLY A SMALL AIRCRAFT TRANSPORTING ARMS FOR GUERRILLAS HAD CRASH LANDED AT A LOCATIION BETWEEN ZACATECOLUCA (LA PAZ) AND TECOLUCA (SAN VICENTE). THE DISPOSITION OF THE WEAPONS AND THE FATE OF THE CREW WAS LEFT UNCLEAR. ONE REPORT INDICATED THAT THE CREW WAS PICKED UP BY A SECOND AIRCRAFT AFTER THE ARMS ABOARD BOTH PLANES WERE DELIVERED TO THE INTENDED RECIPIENTS.
--ON 11/27 A GROUP OF TEN ARMED MEN SET FIRE TO AN INCAFE INSTALLATION NEAR IZALCO (SONSONATE).

--ON 11/28 A POWERFUL BOMB APPARENTLY PLACED INSIDE A VEHICLE EXPLODED IN FRONT OF SAN SALVADOR'S METROPOLITAN CATHEDRAL. THE EXPLOSION INJURED SEVERAL PEOPLE WHO WERE AMONG THOSE WHO TOOK OVER THE CHURCH IN PROTEST OVER THE KILLINGS OF THE SIX FDR LEADERS. PART OF THE STRUCTURE WAS SERIOUSLY DAMAGED BY THE EXPLOSION AND THE ENSUING FIRE.

4. WEEKEND UPDATE: THIS WEEKEND HAS APPARENTLY PASSED QUIETLY. THE INCIDENTS OF VIOLENCE OF WHICH WE ARE AWARE AS OF 7:00 P.M. ON SUNDAY ARE THE BURNINGS OF SEVERAL BUSES EARLY ON SATURDAY MORNING AND A SHOOTING ENGAGEMENT IN THE EASTERN SECTOR OF SAN SALVADOR ON SATURDAY EVENING IN WHICH--ONE LISTNER CLAIMED--A BAZOOKA-LIKE WEAPON WAS USED. ALSO, THIS MORNING THERE WAS SHOOTING IN THE AREA OF--BUT NOT DIRECTED AT--THE EMBASSY.

SUBJ: GRN JUNTA AND FSLN NATIONAL DIRECTORATE DENOUNCE KILLING OF FDR LEADERS

1. THE GRN JUNTA AND FSLN NATIONAL DIRECTORATE HAVE BOTH ISSUED DENUNICATIONS OF THE KILLINGS OF SIX DEMOCRATIC REV-OLUTIONARY FRONT (FDR) LEADERS IN EL SALVADOR:

- GRN JUNTA COMMUNIQUE, DATED 29NOV SIGNED BY ALL FIVE JUNTA MEMBERS, CALLED THE KILLINGS A "CLEARLY GUIDED MANEUVER" WHICH IT CONDEMNED AS A "COWARDLY ACT" THE COMMUNIQUE RE-PUDIATED THE ESCALATION OF REPRESSION AND DEATH, CALLED ON THE GOVTS AND PEOPLES OF THE WORLD TO ACTIVELY EXPRESS SOLIDARITY WITH THE VALIANT FIGHT OF THE SALVADORAN PATRIOTS, AND CONDEMNED ALL FOREIGN INTERFERENCE OR INTERVENTION IN THE INTERNAL MATTERS OF EL SALVADOR.

- THE FSLN COMMUNIQUE, DATED 29 NOV AND SIGNED BY COMMANDER BAYARDO ARCE AS COORDINATOR OF THE POLITICAL COMMITTEE, FSLN NATIONAL DIRECTORATE, SAID THAT WITH THE KILLINGS THE WAR OF EXTERMINATION AGAINST THE SALVADORAN PEOPLE BY THE CIV-ILIAN-MILITARY CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC JUNTA HAD RECHED INTOLERABLE

LEVELS. ACCORDING TO THE COMMUNIQUE THE DEATHS OF THE SIX "DEMOCRATIC AND REVOLUTIONARY" LEADERS SHOW THAT WHAT IS AT STAKE IN EL SALVADOR IS THE SURVIVAL OF THE PEOPLE, ALERTS NICARAGUANS AND TH WORLD TO THE CRIMINAL EAGERNESS OF A SMALL GROUP OF OLIGARCHIC POLITICIANS AND THE GENOCIDAL SALVADORAN ARMY TO CUT SHORT THE UNDERTAINABLE MARCH OF THE SALVADORAN PEOPLE TOWARD LIBERATION, AND IS A "BLOW TO THE CONSCIENCE" OF THOSE WHO HAVE SUPPORTED IN A SENSELESS MANNER THE EXTERMINATING ACTIONS OF THE SALVADORAN JUNTA. THE COMMUNIQUE EXPRESSED CONVICTION THAT THE "NEW CRIME" WILL STRENGTHEN THE DECISION OF SALVADORANS TO FIGHT, THAT EFFORTS AND REVOLUTIONARY ORGANIZATIONS WILL BE REDOUBLED, AND THAT VICTORY IN EL SALVADOR WILL BE GAINED, AS IN NICARAGUA, BY THE REVOLUTIONARY FORCES.

2. THE FSLN-DOMINATED POPULAR REVOLUTIONARY FRONT (FPR) ALSO ISSUED A STATEMENT ON THE KILLINGS IN SALVADOR. THE FPR CONDEMNED "THAT EXECRABLE CRIME" IN WHICH THE MOST RE-ACTIONARY SECTORS OF THE UNITED STATES ARE IMPLICATED BY MAINTAINING THE JRG I POWER. THE FPR SOUNDED AN ALERT AGAINST THE MANEUVERS OF NORTH AMERICAN IMPERIALISM AND THE MILITARY DICTATORSHIPS OF CENTRAL AMERICA THAT ARE LEADING TO THE INFERNAL WORK OF UNCHAINING AN ARMED FOREIGN INTERVENTION IN ELSALVADOR. IN ADDITION TO THE FSLN, THE PLI, PPSC, AND PS

SIGNED THE FPR STATEMENT.

3. THE NOV 30 BARRICADA CARRIED GRN AND FSLN STATEMENTS ON ITS FRONT PAGE. FPR STATEMENT WAS BURIED INSIDE SAME ISSUE. PRO FSLN DIARIO PUBLISHED THE FSLN COMMUNIQUE ON THE FIRST PAGE OF THE NOV 30 EDITION UNDER THE TITLE "FSLN: EL SALVADOR WILL CONQUER," AND RAN THE GRN JUNTA DENUNCIATION ON PAGE 10 WITH THE FSLN CONTINUATION. THE NOV 30 LA PRENSA PUBLISHED THE GRNJUNTA STATEMENT ON PAGE ONE WITH THE HEADLINE, "JGRN CONDEMNS ASSASSINATION OF FDR LEADERS" AND DID NOT CARRY THE FSLN STATEMENT.

2. USDEL SHOULD ABSTAIN ON PROPOSED NIGERIAN DRAFT DECISION SIMPLY REFERRING BOLIVIAN AND SALVADORAN HUMAN RIGHTS QUESTIONS TO 37TH SESSION OF HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION NEXT FEBRUARY/MARCH AS REPORTED REF A. IF CUBAN RESOLUTION ON EL SALVADOR COMES TO A VOTE DESPITE NIGERIAN EFFORTS, EARLIER INSTRUCTION FOR NEGATIVE VOTE (REF B) HAS BEEN REVIEWED AND CONFIRMED.

3. IF NIGERIANS GO AHEAD WITH THEIR PROPOSAL, AND IF THEY ARE ABLE TO CARRY MAJORITY OF THIRD WORLD DELEGATIONS WITH THEM OVER CUBA'S OPPOSITION, THEY WILL HAVE EXTRACTED US FROM A DILEMMA ON CUBA'S RESOLUTION ON SALVADORAN HUMANRIGHTS.RESOLUTION L.71/REV.2 ON EL SALVADOR IS LESS ACCEPTABLE THAN REV.1 HAD BEEN BUT ON THE OTHER HAND

INCLUDES ECUADOR AND PANAMA AS NEW CO-SPONSORS. OUR DIFFICULTY IN REFRAINING FROM A NEGATIVE VOTE ON RESOLUTION PRINCIPALLY SPONSORED BY CUBA, OUR ANTAGONIST IN EL SALVADOR, CONFLICTS WITH OUR DESIRE TO SHARE LEGITIMATE [redacted]

CONCERN OVER SALVADORAN HUMAN RIGHTS, PARTICULARLY IN LIGHT OF LAST WEEK'S DEVELOPMENTS. ON THE OTHER HAND, WE MUST TAKE INTO ACCOUNT WESTERN EUROPEAN RESERVATIONS ON NIGERIAN APPROACH ON GROUNDS THAT THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY INDEED IS COMPETENT TO DEAL WITH URGENT AND FLAGRANT HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATIONS. LATTER POINT MIGHT BE SATISFIED BY TEXT OF NIGERIAN DRAFT, WHICH IS NOT YET AVAILABLE, IF IT REFERS TO BOLIVIAN AND SALVADORAN HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATIONS EXPLICITLY. WHILE WE WOULD HAVE PREFERRED A SEPARATE RESOLUTION ON BOLIVIA, OUR VITAL INTEREST IN EL SALVADOR IN THIS INSTANCE MUST TAKE PRECEDENCE ON THIS PROCEDURAL DECISION.

4. IF NIGERIAN PROPOSAL IS ADOPTED, USDEL SHOULD MAKE EXPLANATORY STATEMENT COVERING BOTH BOLIVIA AND EL SALVADOR. STATEMENT ON BOLIVIA WAS TRANSMITTED REF C, AND FOLLOWING TEXT ON EL SALVADOR IS REVISED FROM TEXT TRANSMITTED REF B. DELEGATION SHOULD ADJUST THESE TEXTS AS NECESSARY TO FIT EXPLANATION OF VOTE ON NIGERIAN DECISION. BEGIN TEXT:

- THE UNITED STATES SHARES THE CONCERN OF THE MEMBER NATIONS OF THIS ORGANIZATION FOR THE GRAVE VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS WHICH ARE OCCURRING EVERY DAY IN EL SALVADOR. THERE IS NO DISAGREEMENT THAT THESE VIOLATIONS REPRESENT A MATTER OF DEEP PREOCCUPATION TO ALL OF US.

[redacted]

UNCLASSIFIED

- MY GOVERNMENT HAS VOTED AGAINST THIS RESOLUTION BECAUSE WE FEEL IT IS UNBALANCED AND BECAUSE IT DOES NOT ADEQUATELY PORTRAY THE NATURE OF THE STRUGGLE GOING ON IN THAT TROUBLED COUNTRY AND DOES NOT GIVE AN ACCURATE PICTURE OF ALL SOURCES OF THE VIOLATIONS WHICH ARE TAKING PLACE.

- THE GOVERNMENT OF EL SALVADOR IS FACED WITH EXTREME VIOLENCE EMANATING FROM BOTH THE LEFT AND RIGHT. WE [redacted]

CONDEMN THE VIOLENCE OF BOTH SIDES.

- WE CONDEMN THE ASSASSINATION OF ARCHBISHOP ROMERO, THE ASSASSINATION OF THE RECTOR OF THE UNVIERSITY OF SAN SALVADOR, THE ASSASSINATION OF MEMBERS OF HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS AND COUNTLESS OTHER VICTIMS ATTRIBUTED TO RIGHT-WING VIOLENCE. WE CONDEMN THE ABDUCTION AND MURDER OF ENRIQUE ALVAREZ CORDOVA AND FIVE OTHER MEMBERS OF THE REVOLUTIONARY DEMOCRATIC FRONT ON NOVEMBER 25. WE URGE

THAT THE PERPETRATORS OF THESE MURDERS BE PROMPTLY APPREHENDED AND BROUGHT TO JUSTICE.

- AT THE SAME TIME, WE CONDEMN ASSASSINATIONS ATTRIBUTED TO LEFT-WING TERRORIST GROUPS. ON JULY 19 A LEADER OF ONE OF THE LEFT-WING GUERRILLA GROUPS PUBLICLY STATED IN MANAGUA THAT HIS ORGANIZATION WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR MORE THAN 2,000 CASUALTIES DURING 1980. SINCE THAT TIME, LEFT-WING OPPONENTS OF THE GOVERNMENT HAVE CLAIMED RESPONSIBILITY FOR ASSASSINATIONS OF CIVILIANS INCLUDING MELVIN RIGOBERTO ORELLANA, SECRETARY OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY, ON OCTOBER 10 AND MANUEL RODRIGUEZ, MANAGER OF THE INTERNATIONAL FAIR, AND HIS WIFE ON NOVEMBER 4 AS WELL AS FOR A ROCKET ATTACK ON THE CITY OF SANTA ANA NOVEMBER 7 IN WHICH EIGHT PERSONS DIED.

- A WAR BULLETIN ISSUED BY A GROUP KNOWN AS THE FARABUNDO MARTI NATIONAL LIBERATION FRONT (FMNL) ON OCTOBER 27 REPORTED THAT IT HAD CARRIED OUT ATTACKS AGAINST CIVILIAN TARGETS SUCH AS SHOPPING CENTERS AND BANKS USING EXPLOSIVES AS BOOBY TRAPS. THE FMNL IN ITS "WAR BULLETIN" ALSO STATED THAT IT CONDUCTED ACTIONS [redacted]

AGAINST CIVILIAN TARGETS WITH ITS PERSONNEL DRESSED AS NATIONAL GUARDSMEN USING SALVADORAN ARMY JEEPS.

- ELEMENTS OF THE SECURITY FORCES HAVE PARTICIPATED AND ARE PARTICIPATING IN VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS AS WELL. WE ARE PROFOUNDLY DISTURBED BY THIS, AND CALL ON THE GOVERNMENT OF EL SALVADOR TO TAKE IMMEDIATE AND EFFECTIVE STEPS TO BRING THESE UNDISCIPLINED MEMBERS OF ITS SECURITY FORCES TO JUSTICE.

- THE GOVERNMENT HAS TAKEN SOME STEPS. IT HAS INVITED INTERNATIONAL OBSERVERS FROM THE INTER-AMERICAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION TO VISIT THAT COUNTRY AND TO STUDY FIRST HAND THE MULTIPLE SOURCES OF THE VIOLENCE. IT IS IMPLEMENTING NEEDED SOCIO-ECONOMIC REFORMS TO ALLEVIATE LONG-STANDING INJUSTICES. IT HAS ANNOUNCED A TIMETABLE FOR POPULAR ELECTIONS. ON OCTOBER 15, THE GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED AN AMNESTY FOR ALL INSURGENTS WHO WISH TO LAY DOWN THEIR ARMS AND PARTICIPATE PEACEFULLY IN THE POLITICAL PROCESS. SEVERAL HUNDRED HAVE DONE SO.

- THE GOVERNMENT, UNFORTUNATELY, HAS NOT BEEN ABLE TO BRING UNDER CONTROL EXTREMISTS WHO HAVE REJECTED APPEALS TO PARTICIPATE IN A DIALOGUE OR IN A DEMOCRATIC POLITICALPROCESS. ON OCTOBER 18,THE EPISCOPAL CONFERENCE OF EL SALVADOR OFFERED TO MEDIATE BETWEEN THE

GOVERNMENT AND ITS OPPONENTS. THE GOVERNMENT ACCEPTED THE MEDIATION IN PRINCIPLE BUT REGRETTABLY, ON OCTOBER 29, THE DEMOCRATIC REVOLUTIONARY FRONT REJECTED THE MEDIATION OFFER. NOW THE NOVEMBER 25 KILLINGS OF THE FRONT LEADERS HAVE FURTHER DAMAGED PROSPECTS FOR MEDIATION AND A PEACEFUL SOLUTION.

- THE RESOLUTION BEFORE THIS BODY IS AN UNBALANCED ONE. IT DOES NOT TAKE INTO ACCOUNT THE MULTIPLE SOURCES

[redacted]

OF VIOLENCE IN THE COUNTRY. IT FURTHER DOES NOT MAKE REFERENCE TO THE MATERIAL ASSISTANCE CLANDESTINELY BEING PROVIDED EL SALVADOR FROM THE OUTSIDE. IT IS NOT WITHOUT SIGNIFICANCE THAT TWO AIRCRAFT CARRYING CLANDESTINE SHIPMENT OF ARMS HAVE CRASH-LANDED IN EL SALVADOR IN RECENT MONTHS, THE MOST RECENT BEING AN AIRPLANE REPORTED TO BE CONNECTED WITH ONE OF THE SPONSORS OF THIS RESOLUTION. GIVEN THESE CIRCUMSTANCES MY GOVERNMENT CANNOT SUPPORT A RECOMMENDATION DENYING A GOVERNMENT THE RIGHT TO RECEIVE ASSISTANCE WITH WHICH TO PROTECT THE RIGHTS AND LIVES OF PEOPLE OPPOSED TO THE VIOLENCE OF THE RADICAL GROUPS AT BOTH EXTREMES.

- (IF APPROPRIATE) MR. CHAIRMAN, WE HAVE NO DOUBT THAT THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY IS COMPETENT TO CONSIDER THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATIONS IN BOLIVIA OR IN EL SALVADOR,

[redacted]

UNCLASSIFIED

OR ANY OTHER COUNTRY FOR THAT MATTER. WE ARE PLEASED THAT THE SITUATIONS IN THESE TWO COUNTRIES WILL AT LEAST BE ON THE AGENDA FOR THE 37TH SESSION OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION. NOTICE ASKING ITS MEMBERS TO ATTEND. THE MILITARY AND SECURITY FORCES REMAIN ON ALERT, BUT WE UNDERSTAND THAT THEY WILL BE KEPT OUT OF THE AREA OF THE FUNERAL, AND WILL ONLY BE USED IN THE EVENT OF OUTBREAKS OF VIOLENCE.

3. AS OF THIS MORNING, THE PDC HAD NO RESPONSE FROM THE MILITARY TO THE SEVEN POINTS WHICH IT HAD PRESENTED. ONE PDC OFFICIAL STATED CONFIDENTIALLY THAT THE PDC HAD PROPOSED THAT THE JRG BE REDUCED FROM FIVE TO THREE INDIVIDUALS, ELIMINATING COL. MAJANO (WHO RETURNED TO EL SALVADOR YESTERDAY) AND ONE OF THE CIVILIANS. THE SEVEN POINTS, ADDED THE OFFICIAL, DID NOT INCLUDE A THREAT TO LEAVE THE GOVERNMENT.

4. COMMENT. WE HAVE NO REPORTS OF PLANNED VIOLENCE DURING THE FUNERAL, BUT AN UGLY INCIDENT APPEARS TO BE IN THE INTERESTS OF BOTH THE EXTREME RIGHT AND THE EXTREME LEFT. THERE IS NO INDICATION THAT VIOLENCE WILL BE DIRECTED AGAINST THE EMBASSY, BUT, ACCORDING TO FBIS REPORTS, SOME LEFTISTS HAVE BLAMED "IMPERIALISM" FOR THE KILLINGS. THE FUNERAL IS NOT, REPEAT NOT SCHEDULED TO PASS NEAR THE EMBASSY.

5. ADDENDUM. ON TUESDAY AFTERNOON A DELEGATION OF PDC MEMBERS REQUESTED A WEDNESDAY MORNING MEETING WITH THE AMBASSADOR TO DISCUSS THE MILITARY'S INTRANSIGENCE AND ITS REFUSAL TO YIELD ON THE MATTER OF DISCHARGING RIGHTISTS FROM ITS RANKS.

2. USDEL SHOULD ABSTAIN ON PROPOSED NIGERIAN DRAFT DECISION SIMPLY REFERRING BOLIVIAN AND SALVADORAN HUMAN RIGHTS QUESTIONS TO 37TH SESSION OF HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION NEXT FEBRUARY/MARCH AS REPORTED REF A. IF CUBAN RESOLUTION ON EL SALVADOR COMES TO A VOTE DESPITE NIGERIAN EFFORTS, EARLIER INSTRUCTION FOR NEGATIVE VOTE (REF B) HAS BEEN REVIEWED AND CONFIRMED.

3. IF NIGERIANS GO AHEAD WITH THEIR PROPOSAL, AND IF THEY ARE ABLE TO CARRY MAJORITY OF THIRD WORLD DELEGATIONS WITH THEM OVER CUBA'S OPPOSITION, THEY WILL HAVE EXTRACTED US FROM A DILEMMA ON CUBA'S RESOLUTION ON SALVADORAN HUMANRIGHTS.RESOLUTION L.71/REV.2 ON EL SALVADOR IS LESS ACCEPTABLE THAN REV.1 HAD BEEN BUT ON THE OTHER HAND

INCLUDES ECUADOR AND PANAMA AS NEW CO-SPONSORS. OUR DIFFICULTY IN REFRAINING FROM A NEGATIVE VOTE ON RESOLUTION PRINCIPALLY SPONSORED BY CUBA, OUR ANTAGONIST IN EL SALVADOR, CONFLICTS WITH OUR DESIRE TO SHARE LEGITIMATE [redacted]

CONCERN OVER SALVADORAN HUMAN RIGHTS, PARTICULARLY IN LIGHT OF LAST WEEK'S DEVELOPMENTS. ON THE OTHER HAND, WE MUST TAKE INTO ACCOUNT WESTERN EUROPEAN RESERVATIONS ON NIGERIAN APPROACH ON GROUNDS THAT THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY INDEED IS COMPETENT TO DEAL WITH URGENT AND FLAGRANT HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATIONS. LATTER POINT MIGHT BE SATISFIED BY TEXT OF NIGERIAN DRAFT, WHICH IS NOT YET AVAILABLE, IF IT REFERS TO BOLIVIAN AND SALVADORAN HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATIONS EXPLICITLY. WHILE WE WOULD HAVE PREFERRED A SEPARATE RESOLUTION ON BOLIVIA, OUR VITAL INTEREST IN EL SALVADOR IN THIS INSTANCE MUST TAKE PRECEDENCE ON THIS PROCEDURAL DECISION.

4. IF NIGERIAN PROPOSAL IS ADOPTED, USDEL SHOULD MAKE EXPLANATORY STATEMENT COVERING BOTH BOLIVIA AND EL SALVADOR. STATEMENT ON BOLIVIA WAS TRANSMITTED REF C, AND FOLLOWING TEXT ON EL SALVADOR IS REVISED FROM TEXT TRANSMITTED REF B. DELEGATION SHOULD ADJUST THESE TEXTS AS NECESSARY TO FIT EXPLANATION OF VOTE ON NIGERIAN DECISION. BEGIN TEXT:

- THE UNITED STATES SHARES THE CONCERN OF THE MEMBER NATIONS OF THIS ORGANIZATION FOR THE GRAVE VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS WHICH ARE OCCURRING EVERY DAY IN EL SALVADOR. THERE IS NO DISAGREEMENT THAT THESE VIOLATIONS REPRESENT A MATTER OF DEEP PREOCCUPATION TO ALL OF US.

- MY GOVERNMENT HAS VOTED AGAINST THIS RESOLUTION BECAUSE WE FEEL IT IS UNBALANCED AND BECAUSE IT DOES NOT ADEQUATELY PORTRAY THE NATURE OF THE STRUGGLE GOING ON IN THAT TROUBLED COUNTRY AND DOES NOT GIVE AN ACCURATE PICTURE OF ALL SOURCES OF THE VIOLATIONS WHICH ARE TAKING PLACE.

- THE GOVERNMENT OF EL SALVADOR IS FACED WITH EXTREME VIOLENCE EMANATING FROM BOTH THE LEFT AND RIGHT. WE [redacted]

CONDEMN THE VIOLENCE OF BOTH SIDES.

- WE CONDEMN THE ASSASSINATION OF ARCHBISHOP ROMERO, THE ASSASSINATION OF THE RECTOR OF THE UNVIERSITY OF SAN SALVADOR, THE ASSASSINATION OF MEMBERS OF HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS AND COUNTLESS OTHER VICTIMS ATTRIBUTED TO RIGHT-WING VIOLENCE. WE CONDEMN THE ABDUCTION AND MURDER OF ENRIQUE ALVAREZ CORDOVA AND FIVE OTHER MEMBERS OF THE REVOLUTIONARY DEMOCRATIC FRONT ON NOVEMBER 25. WE URGE THAT THE PERPETRATORS OF THESE MURDERS BE PROMPTLY APPREHENDED AND BROUGHT TO JUSTICE.

- AT THE SAME TIME, WE CONDEMN ASSASSINATIONS ATTRIBUTED TO LEFT-WING TERRORIST GROUPS. ON JULY 19 A LEADER OF ONE OF THE LEFT-WING GUERRILLA GROUPS PUBLICLY STATED IN MANAGUA THAT HIS ORGANIZATION WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR MORE THAN 2,000 CASUALTIES DURING 1980. SINCE THAT TIME, LEFT-WING OPPONENTS OF THE GOVERNMENT HAVE CLAIMED RESPONSIBILITY FOR ASSASSINATIONS OF CIVILIANS INCLUDING MELVIN RIGOBERTO ORELLANA, SECRETARY OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY, ON OCTOBER 10 AND MANUEL RODRIGUEZ, MANAGER OF THE INTERNATIONAL FAIR, AND HIS WIFE ON NOVEMBER 4 AS WELL AS FOR A ROCKET ATTACK ON THE CITY OF SANTA ANA NOVEMBER 7 IN WHICH EIGHT PERSONS DIED.

- A WAR BULLETIN ISSUED BY A GROUP KNOWN AS THE FARABUNDO MARTI NATIONAL LIBERATION FRONT (FMNL) ON OCTOBER 27 REPORTED THAT IT HAD CARRIED OUT ATTACKS AGAINST CIVILIAN TARGETS SUCH AS SHOPPING CENTERS AND BANKS USING EXPLOSIVES AS BOOBY TRAPS. THE FMNL IN ITS "WAR BULLETIN" ALSO STATED THAT IT CONDUCTED ACTIONS [redacted]

AGAINST CIVILIAN TARGETS WITH ITS PERSONNEL DRESSED AS NATIONAL GUARDSMEN USING SALVADORAN ARMY JEEPS.

- ELEMENTS OF THE SECURITY FORCES HAVE PARTICIPATED AND ARE PARTICIPATING IN VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS AS WELL. WE ARE PROFOUNDLY DISTURBED BY THIS, AND CALL ON THE GOVERNMENT OF EL SALVADOR TO TAKE IMMEDIATE AND EFFECTIVE STEPS TO BRING THESE UNDISCIPLINED MEMBERS OF ITS SECURITY FORCES TO JUSTICE.

- THE GOVERNMENT HAS TAKEN SOME STEPS. IT HAS INVITED INTERNATIONAL OBSERVERS FROM THE INTER-AMERICAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION TO VISIT THAT COUNTRY AND TO STUDY FIRST HAND THE MULTIPLE SOURCES OF THE VIOLENCE. IT IS IMPLEMENTING NEEDED SOCIO-ECONOMIC REFORMS TO ALLEVIATE LONG-STANDING INJUSTICES. IT HAS ANNOUNCED A TIMETABLE FOR POPULAR ELECTIONS. ON OCTOBER 15, THE GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED AN AMNESTY FOR ALL INSURGENTS WHO WISH TO LAY DOWN THEIR ARMS AND PARTICIPATE PEACEFULLY IN THE POLITICAL PROCESS. SEVERAL HUNDRED HAVE DONE SO.

- THE GOVERNMENT, UNFORTUNATELY, HAS NOT BEEN ABLE TO BRING UNDER CONTROL EXTREMISTS WHO HAVE REJECTED APPEALS TO PARTICIPATE IN A DIALOGUE OR IN A DEMOCRATIC POLITICALPROCESS. ON OCTOBER 18,THE EPISCOPAL CONFERENCE OF EL SALVADOR OFFERED TO MEDIATE BETWEEN THE

GOVERNMENT AND ITS OPPONENTS. THE GOVERNMENT ACCEPTED THE MEDIATION IN PRINCIPLE BUT REGRETTABLY, ON OCTOBER 29, THE DEMOCRATIC REVOLUTIONARY FRONT REJECTED THE MEDIATION OFFER. NOW THE NOVEMBER 25 KILLINGS OF THE FRONT LEADERS HAVE FURTHER DAMAGED PROSPECTS FOR MEDIATION AND A PEACEFUL SOLUTION.

- THE RESOLUTION BEFORE THIS BODY IS AN UNBALANCED ONE. IT DOES NOT TAKE INTO ACCOUNT THE MULTIPLE SOURCES

OF VIOLENCE IN THE COUNTRY. IT FURTHER DOES NOT MAKE REFERENCE TO THE MATERIAL ASSISTANCE CLANDESTINELY BEING PROVIDED EL SALVADOR FROM THE OUTSIDE. IT IS NOT WITHOUT SIGNIFICANCE THAT TWO AIRCRAFT CARRYING CLANDESTINE SHIPMENT OF ARMS HAVE CRASH-LANDED IN EL SALVADOR IN RECENT MONTHS, THE MOST RECENT BEING AN AIRPLANE REPORTED TO BE CONNECTED WITH ONE OF THE SPONSORS OF THIS RESOLUTION. GIVEN THESE CIRCUMSTANCES MY GOVERNMENT CANNOT SUPPORT A RECOMMENDATION DENYING A GOVERNMENT THE RIGHT TO RECEIVE ASSISTANCE WITH WHICH TO PROTECT THE RIGHTS AND LIVES OF PEOPLE OPPOSED TO THE VIOLENCE OF THE RADICAL GROUPS AT BOTH EXTREMES.

- (IF APPROPRIATE) MR. CHAIRMAN, WE HAVE NO DOUBT THAT THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY IS COMPETENT TO CONSIDER THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATIONS IN BOLIVIA OR IN EL SALVADOR.

REF: SANTIAGO 7314

1. SUMMARY: PERHAPS TAKING ADVANTAGE OF THE IMMINENT END OF THE ACADEMIC YEAR, PRESIDENT PINOCHET MOVED UNEXPECTEDLY TO REPLACE MOST OF CHILE'S UNIVERSITY RECTORS. ALREADY IDENTIFIED AS THE NEW HEADS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CHILE AND THE STATE TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY (UTE) ARE TWO ACTIVE ARMY GENERALS, CLOSE CONFIDANTS OF PRESIDENT PINOCHET. THE PRESIDENT, MEANWHILE, WARNED IN HIS PUBLIC COMMENTS THAT AUTHORITIES WOULDSACT VIGOROUSLY TO END DISTURBANCES AND POLITICAL ACTIVITIES ON CAMPUS. NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN DISSIDENT STUDENTS AND THE AUTHORITIES ON THE UNIVERSITY OF CHILE'S MACUL CAMPUS CONTINUE, BUT RECENT SIGNS OF COMPROMISE MAY FADE IN THE LIGHT OF THESE SUBSEQUENT DEVELOPMENTS. MORE ARRESTS OCCURRED NEAR THE MACUL CAMPUS; AND FOUR STUDENTS DETAINED EARLIER HAVE NOW BEEN RELEGATED. DESPITE SOME ESTABLISHMENT URGINGS TO THE CONTRARY, PINOCHET

HAS GIVEN A CLEAR SIGN THAT HE AND THE GOC WILL CONTINUE A FIRM AND STRICT CONTROL OVER UNIVERSITY AFFAIRS. END SUMMARY.

2. ON DECEMBER 2, THE DAY AFTER PRESIDENT PINOCHET DIVULGED PUBLICLY IN IMPROMPTU FASHION THAT ALL UNIVERSITY RECTORS HAD OFFERED THEIR RESIGNATIONS, THE PRESIDENTIAL PRESS SECRETARY IDENTIFIED GENERALS ENRIQUE

MOREL AND JORGE O'RYAN AS THE NEW RECTORS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CHILE AND THE STATE TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY (UTE). RETIRED VICE-ADMIRAL SWETT, RECTOR AT THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY, WILL REPORTEDLY BE THE LONE HOLD-OVER. ANNOUNCEMENTS ON OTHER REPLACEMENTS ARE TO FOLLOW.

3. IN ANNOUNCING THE MASS RESIGNATION, THE PRESIDENT REVEALED HE WOULD NOT BE LOOKING WITHIN THE RESPECTIVE UNIVERSITIES FOR REPLACEMENTS: ". . . I BELIEVE THAT PROFESSORS SHOULD DEVOTE THEMSELVES WHOLLY TO TEACHING, WHICH IS THEIR TRUE VOCATION." HE REFUSED COMMENT ON WHETHER ANY PROFOUND CHANGES WOULD OCCUR. WHAT WAS CLEAR, HOWEVER, WAS THAT ANY CHANGES WOULD BE DESIGNED TO END STUDENT DISSIDENT ACTIVITY ON CAMPUS: "WHEN THERE IS ENERGY AND THE AUTHORITY ACTS AS IT SHOULD, THERE IS NO FERMENT ANYWHERE. FERMENT IS FINISHED IN THE UNIVERSITY."

4. PINOCHET CONTINUED THIS LINE ON DECEMBER 2 IN HIS NATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY ADDRESS TO WOMEN VOLUNTEERS GATHERED AT DIEGO PORTALES BUILDING. HE CHARACTERIZED UNIVERSITY DISTURBANCES AS THE PRODUCT OF A VIOLENT AND AGGRESSIVE MINORITY, STIMULATED FROM THE OUTSIDE. THESE ACTIVITIES WERE UNACCEPTABLE TO THE GOVERNMENT, HE SAID; THE SACRIFICES MADE OVER A LONG PERIOD OF TIME WERE NOT GOING TO BE LOST IN A MATTER OF DAYS. UNIVERSITIES WERE LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

CENTERS OF HIGHER STUDIES, OF RESEARCH, DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF ITS SUBJECTS, AND NOT CENTERS OF POLITICS. RESPONDING TO A CALL FROM THE CONFERENCE OF BISHOPS FOR RECONCILIATION AND THE EASING OF RESTRICTIONS, PINOCHET SAID THAT THERE WERE CERTAIN SECTORS, MISINFORMED OR EMPLOYING FALSE CONCEPTS OF UNITY AND RECONCILIATION, WHO APPEARED TO HAVE FORGOTTEN THEIR RESPONSIBILITY IN THE MORAL IND INSTITUTIONAL CRISIS OF THE PAST. PINOCHET RENEWED THE GOVERNMENT'S COMMITMENT "TO ERADICATE ALL THE VICES OF THE PAST AND NOT ACCEPT HYPOCRISY, FALLACIES OR POLITICAL GAMES . . ." BESIDES OFFERING A GENERAL HOMAGE TO WOMEN IN CHILEAN SOCIETY, HE ALSO ANNOUNCED THAT A NEW MINISTRY OF THE FAMILY WOULD BEGIN OPERATING MARCH 1 OF NEXT YEAR.

5. AS FOR THE NEW RECTORS, GENERAL ENRIQUE MOREL, FORMERLY SANTIAGO MILITARY ZONE COMMANDER AND MILITARY JUDGE (IN THE PASSPORT FRAUD CASE), REPORTEDLY WILL BRING WITH HIM TO THE UNIVERSITY OF CHILE A MILITARY TEAM TO HELP HIM RUN THE UNIVERSITY. (PINOCHET REFUSED COMMENT ON THIS, HOWEVER). MOREL HAS BOTH COMMAND AND MILITARY ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE. GENERAL O'RYAN, FORMERLY THE HEAD OF ARMY INTELLIGENCE, COMES TO THE UTE WITHOUT ANY SUBSTANTIAL ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE. BOTH OFFICERS ARE CLOSE TO PRESIDENT PINOCHET.

6. AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CHILE'S EAST CAMPUS (MACUL), THE RECENT STUDENT DISTURBANCES (REFTEL) HAVE LED TO A SERIES OF DISCUSSIONS BETWEEN CAMPUS AUTHORITIES AND REPRESENTATIVES OF OPPOSITION STUDENTS. THERE ARE ESSENTIALLY FOUR ITEMS BEING DISCUSSED: A CLARIFICATION OF THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE MACUL CAMPUS SECURITY FORCES (OFICINA COORDINADORA ADMINISTRATIVA), WHICH DISSIDENT STUDENTS BELIEVE PLAYS TOO INFLUENTIAL A ROLE IN EFFECTING SUSPENSIONS AND OTHER DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS; THE REQUIREMENT THAT ID CARDS BE SHOWN TO ENTER THE CAMPUS; THE CLEAR IDENTIFICATION BY MEANS OF UNIFORM OF ANY UNIVERSITY GUARDS; AND THE REINCORPORATION OF PREVIOUSLY SUSPENDED OR EXPELLED STUDENTS. RECENT PRESS REPORTS HAVE SUGGESTED THAT COMPROMISE MAY BE REACHED ON ESTABLISHING THE UNIFORMED GUARDS AND NO LONGER REQUESTING IDENTIFICATION FOR ENTRANCE ON CAMPUS.

7. THE PROSPECTS FOR COMPROMISE ARE FADING, NOT ONLY AS A RESULT OF THE CHANGE IN RECTORS AND PRESIDENT PINOCHET'S VERBAL BLASTS, BUT ALSO BECAUSE OF NEWLY-

REPORTED ARRESTS AND THE RELEGATION OF FOUR MACUL STUDENTS. THE LATTER (JAVIER SAEZ, CLAUDIO GUTIERREZ, FRANKLIN SANTIBANEZ AND CLAUDIO LEIVA) PREVIOUSLY HAD BEEN DETAINED ON NOVEMBER 29 AFTER AN UNAUTHORIZED CEREMONY AT THE ANDRES BELLO MONUMENT. THEY HAVE NOW BEEN SENT INTO ENFORCED RESIDENCE FOR THREE MONTHS IN DIFFERENT LOCATIONS ON THE ISLAND OF CHILOE. IN A SEPARATE INCIDENT, SEVEN AS YET UNIDENTIFIED PERSONS WERE DETAINED THE NIGHT OF DECEMBER 2 FOR CARRYING OUT AN ANTI-GOVERNMENT DEMONSTRATION. REPORTEDLY, THEY HAVE BEEN ACCUSED OF VIOLATING THE INTERNAL SECURITY LAW.

8. COMMENT: SECTORS OF THE ESTABLISHMENT, PERHAPS BEST EXEMPLIFIED BY THE PRESTIGIOUS "EL MERCURIO", HAVE LONG BEEN PRESSING THE GOVERNMENT TO END THE PRESENT SYSTEM OF APPOINTED RECTORS, ARGUING THAT IT HAS OUTLIVED ITS PURPOSE. PRESIDENT PINOCHET CLEARLY DID NOT AGREE. HIS FIRM STANCE IS CONSISTENT WITH HIS INTEREST AND CONCERN, ALREADY KNOWN, IN UNIVERSITY AFFAIRS. THE MOST RECENT INCIDENTS IN THEMSELVES DO NOT APPEAR SIGNIFICANT ENOUGH

TO PROVOKE THE HOUSECLEANING AND THE RESTATED TOUGHNESS--THE MOST DISRUPTIVE ACTS WERE LOCALIZED IN ONLY PART OF ONE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CHILE'S CAMPUSES. THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY REMAINS UNAFFECTED IN PART BECAUSE THE VATICAN RECENTLY AFFIRMED SUPPORT FOR SWETT AND ALSO BECAUSE THE ELECTED PRO-GOVERNMENT STUDENT ORGANIZATION ENJOYS OVERWHELMING MAJORITY STUDENT SUPPORT. IN THESE RECENT EVENTS PINOCHET HAS GIVEN A CLEAR MESSAGE TO ALL THAT HE AND THE GOC WILL RETAIN A FIRM AND DIRECT CONTROL OVER THE UNIVERSITIES. IN SO DOING, IT WILL BE DIFFICULT FOR THE GOVERNMENT TO ARGUE CONVINCINGLY THAT PROGRESS TOWARD A NEW INSTITUTIONALITY IN THE UNIVERSITIES IS ANYTHING MORE THAN RHETORIC. FURTHER, A GOVERNMENT CRACKDOWN IS LIKELY TO PERSUADE MORE STUDENTS THAT PEACEFUL PRESSURES TO BRING ABOUT CHANGE ARE FUTILE, LEADING TO MORE POLARIZATION WITHIN THE UNIVERSITIES. THE WHOLE EPISODE SEEMS A SEVERE AND UNWARRANTED PUBLIC CRITICISM OF FORMER UNIVERSITY OF CHILE RECTOR AGUSTIN TORO DAVILA, A VERY SENIOR AND HIGHLY RESPECTED GENERAL ONLY RECENTLY RETIRED. SOME BELIEVE TORO DAVILA WILL, IN FACT, BE MOVED TO ANOTHER JOB OF IMPORTANCE (DAO UNDERSTANDS HE MAY BECOME MINISTER OF DEFENSE WHEN THE CURRENT MINISTER BENAVIDES BECOMES THE NEW ARMY JUNTA MEMBER).

Dear Mr. Bonker:

Thank you for your letter of [illegible] November 10 in which you express [illegible] human rights situation [illegible] tration to consider cosponsorship [illegible] in the Third Committee of the United Nations General Assembly. On November 19 a draft resolution was circulated that was cosponsored by Algeria, Cuba, Mexico, Mozambique, Nicaragua, [illegible], Vietnam and Yugoslavia. We believed this resolution was inaccurate in important respects and that it was not in our interest to cosponsor it. After discussion and negotiations a better resolution emerged which we supported. After casting our "yes" vote, we issued the following explanatory statement:

> Mr. Chairman, my delegation wishes to explain our vote in favor of the resolution on human rights in Chile contained in document A/C 3/35/L61. We do this because we wish to associate ourselves with the recommendations calling upon the authorities in Chile to improve the observance of and respect for human rights. As in past years, we continue to welcome and support United Nations demonstration of concern for human rights in Chile.
> While significant deficiencies remain in Chile in the respect for human rights, deficiencies with which the Government of Chile should continue to be confronted and called on to improve, there have been significant positive changes since 1977. These improvements have been cited in various public

We further note that some [illegible] are inferior to those in Chile, suggests an unfortunate double standard and tends to work against the crucial role of promoting a greater respect for human rights in the world. The goal of this body and the debate should be an effective and evenhanded approach to situations of human rights abuses.

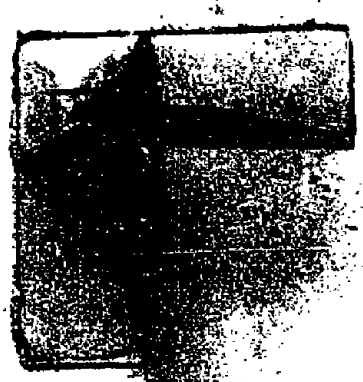
We would hope that the Chilean authorities would continue to take steps to improve the human rights situation in that country and that the UNHRC at its next session, in the light of circumstances at that time, will be open to considering approaches to the human rights problem in Chile other than that of a Special Rapporteur.

The United States remains concerned about the need to end all human rights violations in Chile. We continue to monitor the human rights situation in Chile and to report on it to our Congress. We believe that progress towards improving human rights can be best achieved by maintaining a firm and credible stand and one that is based on a comprehensive and objective view of the situation.



We appreciate your sharing your views with us. If we can be of further assistance, please let us know.

2. At 4:00 p.m. on December 3, Father Paul Schindler, a U.S. Catholic citizen [redacted] priest resident in Saragosa near La Libertad, called the Ambassador to report the disappearance of three U.S. citizen nuns and one U.S. citizen lay missionary. One nun attached to his parish, Sister Rita Kazel, accompanied by lay missionary Jean Donovan, went to the international airport at 5:00 p.m. on December 2 to meet Sister Maura Clark and Sister Ita Ford, resident in Managua, who were arriving on a Lanica flight due in at 6:00 p.m. The four never returned. Father Schindler had not been alarmed because he assumed that they had gone directly to San Salvador and stayed with friends. When they never appeared in San Salvador or Saragosa, he became alarmed and phoned the Ambassador for help.

3. On the Ambassador's instructions, MILGP Commander Col. Cummings telephoned Defense Minister Garcia to request his assistance in finding the missing missionaries. Col. Garcia promised full cooperation and, over the next ten hours, spoke repeatedly with Col. Cummings. Meanwhile, U.S. Consul Patricia Lasbury, a personal friend of the two missionaries resident in Saragosa, telephoned the Director of the National Police, Col. Lopez Nuila, to ask his assistance. Thereafter Col. Lopez Nuila spoke to Miss Lasbury and Col. Cummings by telephone throughout the night of December 3. At approximately 8:00 p.m. the Ambassador was informed by Father Schindler that the parish vehicle, a jeep waggoner, had been found by local people some nine km from the airport exit road on the main highway to San Salvador. The vehicle was off the highway some distance and had been burned. No one was in the vehicle. This information was passed immediately to the Defense Minister and the Police Chief. They promised to send investigators to the site immediately.

4. Early on the morning of December 4th the Ambassador and Miss Lasbury met at the Camino Real Hotel with a group of Canadian missionaries who had arrived via Taca from Miami shortly before the Lanica flight carrying the nuns from Managua. The Canadian group had spoken with all four of the missing missionaries but departed the airport some time before the other group. The Canadians were stopped approximately three miles from the International airport by uniformed soldiers in black boots who carried G-3 rifles and wore helmets. They were forced to get out of their vehicles and stand kx by the side of the road with their hands up while the soldiers searched the cars thoroughly. They were then allowed to proceed. This was at approximately 6:00 p.m. (after dark in El Salvador). The Canadian group was leaving for the airport morning of December 4 and the Ambassador offered to accompany them so they could show hm the spot where they had been searched.

5. At 10:40 a.m. on December 4th Msgr. Freddy Delgado, Vicar of the Archdiocese of San Vicente, called to speak to the Ambassador. DCM took the call. He was told that the bodies of the four nuns were found by parishoners near Santa Rita Almendro in the vicinity of Zacatecoluca. They were buried on the farm of Pulgencio Guzman. The four were wearing sandals and dresses or slacks and have the appearance of North Americans. He is certain they are the four missing nuns. The parishoners who found the bodies are terrified to be identified. Their pastor called the Archbishophric of San Vicente and provided all the information.

Apostolic Administrator Rivera y Damas spoke to DCM by phone at 11:00 a.m. He had received the same information from Msgr. Delgado and was forming a committee to proceed to the site in order to identify the bodies. He asked if the Embassy would want to send a representative with the committee or separately, noting that the missionaries were unbr the jurisdiction of the archbishopric and were therefore his responsibility although as U.S. citizens clearly the Embassy had a legitimate interest in the identification. DCM told Msgr. Rivera y Damas that full details on the location of the Guzman ~~finca~~ farm had been given Ambassador White by telephone at the airport and that the Ambassador planned to go there directly. He would be accompanied by U.S. Consul, Miss Lasbury. Archbishop Rivera y Damas expressed satisfaction with this information and promised to send his group directly.

7. DCM phoned the MILGP Commander, Col. Cummings at the office of Police Chief Lopez Nuila and provided him the above information. Col. Cummings has now reported that he made the strongest representation to Lopez Nuila, and will see Col. Garcia now, to express the shock and dismay of the U.S. Embassy with this tragic incident and to counsel that a thoroughgoing investigation be made immediately into the circumstances with the aim of punishing the guilty as promptly as possible.

ON "U.S. SUPPORTS NEW U.N. RESOLUTION ON CHILE." (BEGIN TEXT)

UNITED NATIONS, DEC. 4 -- A NEW UNITED NATIONS CALL ON CHILE TO IMPROVE OBSERVANCE AND RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS IS FULLY ENDORSED BY THE UNITED STATES.

PATRICK FLOOD, THE U.S. REPRESENTATIVE TO THE 35TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY THIRD COMMITTEE (SOCIAL, CULTURAL, HUMANITARIAN), ASSOCIATED HIMSELF WITH THE VOTE OF A RESOLUTION ADOPTED ON PROTECTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS DECE,BER 3. THE VOTE WAS 90 IN FAVOR TO EIGHT AGAINST WITH 37 ABSENTIONS. IT CALLS ON THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY TO EXPRESS GRVE CONCERN AT THE DETERIORATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE IN COMPARISON WITH THE SAME PERIOD LAST YEAR.

CHILEAN AUTHORITIES ARE URGED TO RESPECT AND PROMITE HUMAN RIGHTS AND INVESTIGATE AND CLARIFY THE FATE OF PERSONS WHO HAVE DISAPPEARED FOR POLITICAL REASONS.

FLOOD MADE THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT OF ENDORSEMENT:

MR. CHAIRMAN, MY DELEGATION WISHES TO ANNOUNCE THAT WE VOTED IN FAVOR TO THE RESOLUTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE CONTAINED IN DOCUMENT A/C. 3/35/L.61/REV.1. WE DO THIS BECAUSE WE WISH TO ASSOCIATE OURSELVES WITH THE RECOMMENDATIONS CALLING UPON THE AUTHORITIES IN CHILE TO IMPROVE THE OBSERVANCE OF AND RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS. AS IN PAST YEARS, WE CONTINUE TO WELCOME AND SUPPORT UNITED NATIONS DEMONSTRATION OF CONCERN FOR HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILEM

WHILE SIGNIFICANCE DEFICIENCIES REMAIN IN CHILE IN THE RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS, DEFICIENCIES WITH WHICH THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE SHOULD CONTINUE TO BE CONFRONTED AND CALLED ON TO IMPROVE, THERE HAVE BEEN SIGNIFICANT POSITIVE CHANGES SINCE 1977. THESE IMPROVEMENTS HAVE BEEN CITED IN VARIOUS PUBLIC REPORTS ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE, BUT THEY ARE IGNORED IN THIS RESOLUTION AS THEY HAVE BEEN IN PREVIOUS RESOLUTIONS. IF RESOLUTIONS ON HUMAN RIGHTS BY THE UNITED NATIONS ARE TO BE LISTENED TO BY THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE AND BY OTHER GOVERNMENTS, WE BELIEVE AN EFFORT MUST BE MADE TO MAKE THEM AS OBJECTIVE AS POSSIBLE.

WE FURTHER WOULD NOTE THAT SOME OF THE CO-SPONSORS

88FS BOX 32

OF THIS RESOLUTION ARE EXPRESSING CONCERN OVER VIOLATIONS WHICH ARE WORSE IN THEIR OWN COUNTRIES THAT IN CHILE AND ARE CALLING FOR REFORMS WHICH ARE FARTHER FROM REALITY IN THEIR NATIONS THAN IN CHILE.

CONTINUING TO SINGLE OUR CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS PRACTICES, WHEN THERE ARE NO REPORTS OR RESOLUTIONS ON

COUNTRIES IN WHICH HUMAN RIGHTS PRACTICES ARE INFERIOR TO THOSE IN CHILE, SUGGESTS AN UNFORTUNATE DOUBLE STANDARD AND TENDS TO WORK AGAINST THE CRUCIAL ROLE OF PROMOTING A GREATER RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS IN THE WORLD. THE GOAL OF THIS BODY AND THE UNHRC SHOULD BE AN EFFECTIVE AND EVEN-HANDED APPROACH TO SITUATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES.

WE WOULD HOPE THAT THE CHILEAN AUTHORITIES WOULD CONTINUE TO TAKE STEPS TO IMPROVE THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN THAT COUNTRY AND THAT THE UNHRC AT ITS NEXT SESSION, IN THE LIGHT OF CIRCUMSTANCES AT THAT TIME, WILL BE OPEN TO CONSIDERING APPROACHES TO THE HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEM IN CHILE OTHER THAN THAT OF A SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR.

THE UNITED STATES REMAINS CONCERNED ABOUT THE NEED TO END ALL HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS IN CHILE. WE CONTINUE TO MONITOR THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN CHILE AND TO ON IT TO OUR CONGRESS. WE BELIEVE THAT PROGRESS TOWARDS IMPROVING HUMAN RIGHTS CAN BE BEST ACHIEVED BY MAINTAINING A FIRM AND CREDIBLE STAND AND ONE THAT IS BASED ON A COMPREHENSIVE AND OBJECTIVE VIEW OF THE SITUATION.

JUNTA MEMBER COLONEL GUTIERREZ IS SOMEHOW INVOLVED. AMBASSADOR VALDES INDICATED THAT FUTURE GOM ACTION--PRESUMABLY WITH REGARD TO MAINTENANCE OF DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH JRG--WOULD BE DETERMINED BY FUTURE COURSE OF EVENTS. HE SAID THAT IF FURTHER "REPRESSION" TAKES PLACE AND RIGHTISTS CONTINUE TO ACT WITH IMPUNITY, IT WILL BE HARDER TO SUPPORT THE JUNTA. IF, ON THE OTHER HAND, A MORE FREE ATMOSPHERE IS CREATED ("WHERE PEOPLE HAVE LIBERTY TO EXPRESS THEMSELVES, INCLUDING IN THE STREETS"), THE GOM COULD MAINTAIN ITS CURRENT POSTURE VIS-A-VIS THE JRG.

5. AMBASSADOR VALDES STRONGLY ASSERTED THAT THE JUNTA SHOULD NOT BE GIVEN MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO INCREASE "REPRESSION." (IN THIS REGARD, WE NOTE THAT THE GOM IS LISTED AS A LATE CO-SPONSOR OF THE SALVADORAN HUMAN RIGHTS RESOLUTION PASSED BY THE UNGA THIRD COMMITTEE, DECEMBER 3, WHICH CALLS ON GOVERNMENTS NOT TO PROVIDE MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO EL SALVADOR. ON GENERAL QUESTION OF SUPPORT FOR JUNTA, WE INDICATED THAT, IF JUNTA IS WEAK AND UNABLE TO CONTROL RIGHTIST VIOLENCE, AS MEXICANS BELIEVE, OUTSIDE STATES SHOULD SEEK TO SUPPORT, NOT DEBILITATE, JUNTA, ESPECIALLY IF ALTERNATIVE IS A MORE REPRESSIVE REGIME. AMBASSADOR VALDES TOOK NOTE OF POINT, [redacted]

BUT MAINTAINED THAT OUTSIDE SUPPORT WILL ONLY FACILITATE JUNTA "REPRESSION.")

6. SEPARATELY, SALVADORAN CHARGE NAZA TOLD US, DECEMBER 4, THAT JUNTA IS "BACK TO ZERO" IN ITS RELATIONS WITH GOM IN WAKE OF FDR ASSASSINATIONS. NAZA SAID THAT PRESIDENT LOPEZ PORTILLO, AFTER FDR ASSASSINATION, TURNED DOWN HONDURAN INVITATION TO ATTEND CEREMONY MARKING DEPOSIT OF SALVADORAN-HONDURAN BORDER TREATY. NAZA ADDED THAT HE IS ALSO PREOCCUPIED OVER FATE OF FINANCIAL AGREEMENT UNDERLYING VENEZUELAN-MEXICAN PETROLEUM FACILITY ACCORD WITH EL SALVADOR WHICH HAS NOT YET BEEN SIGNED. (COMMENT: PRESIDENT LOPEZ PORTILLO, IN A PRESS CONFERENCE, DECEMBER 2, REITERATED THE GOM'S POSITION THAT THE VENEZUELAN-MEXICAN PETROLEUM ARRANGEMENT IS ABOVE POLITICS AND, THEREFORE, WILL REMAIN IN EFFECT.)

7. IN OTHER RELATED DEVELOPMENTS, FOREIGN SECRETARY CASTANEDA, IN CARACAS, DECEMBER 2, CONDEMNED MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO ANY GROUP IN EL SALVADOR. UPON HIS RETURN TO MEXICO, DECEMBER 3, THE SECRETARY REPORTEDLY STATED THAT NO PEACEFUL SOLUTION THROUGH DIALOGUE IS NOW POSSIBLE IN EL SALVADOR. (COMMENT: CASTANEDA EXPRESSED INTEREST IN SOME TYPE OF OUTSIDE MEDIATION IN HIS TALKS WITH SECRETARY MUSKIE, NOVEMBER 29.)

JUNTA MEMBER COLONEL GUTIERREZ IS SOMEHOW INVOLVED. AMBASSADOR VALDES INDICATED THAT FUTURE GOM ACTION--PRESUMABLY WITH REGARD TO MAINTENANCE OF DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH JRG--WOULD BE DETERMINED BY FUTURE COURSE OF EVENTS. HE SAID THAT IF FURTHER "REPRESSION" TAKES PLACE AND RIGHTISTS CONTINUE TO ACT WITH IMPUNITY, IT WILL BE HARDER TO SUPPORT THE JUNTA. IF, ON THE OTHER HAND, A MORE FREE ATMOSPHERE IS CREATED ("WHERE PEOPLE HAVE LIBERTY TO EXPRESS THEMSELVES, INCLUDING IN THE STREETS"), THE GOM COULD MAINTAIN ITS CURRENT POSTURE VIS-A-VIS THE JRG.

5. AMBASSADOR VALDES STRONGLY ASSERTED THAT THE JUNTA SHOULD NOT BE GIVEN MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO INCREASE "REPRESSION." (IN THIS REGARD, WE NOTE THAT THE GOM IS LISTED AS A LATE CO-SPONSOR OF THE SALVADORAN HUMAN RIGHTS RESOLUTION PASSED BY THE UNGA THIRD COMMITTEE, DECEMBER 3, WHICH CALLS ON GOVERNMENTS NOT TO PROVIDE MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO EL SALVADOR. ON GENERAL QUESTION OF SUPPORT FOR JUNTA, WE INDICATED THAT, IF JUNTA IS WEAK AND UNABLE TO CONTROL RIGHTIST VIOLENCE, AS MEXICANS BELIEVE, OUTSIDE STATES SHOULD SEEK TO SUPPORT, NOT DEBILITATE, JUNTA, ESPECIALLY IF ALTERNATIVE IS A MORE REPRESSIVE REGIME. AMBASSADOR VALDES TOOK NOTE OF POINT, [redacted]

BUT MAINTAINED THAT OUTSIDE SUPPORT WILL ONLY FACILITATE JUNTA "REPRESSION.")

6. SEPARATELY, SALVADORAN CHARGE MAZA TOLD US, DECEMBER 4, THAT JUNTA IS "BACK TO ZERO" IN ITS RELATIONS WITH GOM IN WAKE OF FDR ASSASSINATIONS. MAZA SAID THAT PRESIDENT LOPEZ PORTILLO, AFTER FDR ASSASSINATION, TURNED DOWN HONDURAN INVITATION TO ATTEND CEREMONY MARKING DEPOSIT OF SALVADORAN-HONDURAN BORDER TREATY. MAZA ADDED THAT HE IS ALSO PREOCCUPIED OVER FATE OF FINANCIAL AGREEMENT UNDERLYING VENEZUELAN-MEXICAN PETROLEUM FACILITY ACCORD WITH EL SALVADOR WHICH HAS NOT YET BEEN SIGNED. (COMMENT: PRESIDENT LOPEZ PORTILLO, IN A PRESS CONFERENCE, DECEMBER 2, REITERATED THE GOM'S POSITION THAT THE VENEZUELAN-MEXICAN PETROLEUM ARRANGEMENT IS ABOVE POLITICS AND, THEREFORE, WILL REMAIN IN EFFECT.)

7. IN OTHER RELATED DEVELOPMENTS, FOREIGN SECRETARY CASTANEDA, IN CARACAS, DECEMBER 2, CONDEMNED MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO ANY GROUP IN EL SALVADOR. UPON HIS RETURN TO MEXICO, DECEMBER 3, THE SECRETARY REPORTEDLY STATED THAT NO PEACEFUL SOLUTION THROUGH DIALOGUE IS NOW POSSIBLE IN EL SALVADOR. (COMMENT: CASTANEDA EXPRESSED INTEREST IN SOME TYPE OF OUTSIDE MEDIATION IN HIS TALKS WITH SECRETARY MUSKIE, NOVEMBER 29.)

1. San Salvador dailies the morning of December 5 printed a GOES declaration on the slayings of the three American nuns and one American lay missionary. Our informal translation of the text of that declaration follows.

2. BEGIN TEXT.

The Government of El Salvador together with the Salvadoran public in this delicate moment in its history profoundly deplores and energetically condemns the crime committed against the persons of the nuns of the Maryknoll order, Ita Ford and Maura Clark; of the Ursuline nun Dorothy Hazel (sic) and of the secular missionary Jean Donovan.

The Revolutionary Salvadoran government [redacted] of the gravity of the problem and disposed to take wide-ranging measures to put an end to the system of violence, as well as to punish the guilty wherever they may be found since it is impossible to continue bearing [redacted] this situation which has caused so much damage to our country and to our people.

It is important under these circumstances to remind international public opinion that forces external to our own nation throughout the world have been mobilized to disinform and disorient as part of their plans for the capture of power in El Salvador by violent means. In that effort the actions of terrorists of the extreme left and of the extreme right coincide; they have demonstrated an absolute lack of scruples and have committed bloody acts including in their political plans some who believe in good faith in their repeated propagandistic schemes.

Viewing the Salvadoran situation with objectivity, the profound reforms that the Government of El Salvador is realizing in favor of the great majority of the people are combatted and obstructed by means of terror, attempting in that way to annul the possibilities of a complete consolidation and success.

The Salvadoran public knows this but [redacted] it is opportune to remind all the peoples of the world of this.

The failure of the revolutionary government process here is desired and promoted by two sectors: international Marxism which seeks to increase itself geographically and those oligarchical gentlemen who seek the return to past systems of injustice and of privileges for opulent minorities.

To all the citizens of the country who are able to do so the Revolutionary Salvadoran Government asks their help and cooperation in the investigations begun in order to clarify the crime committed against the four North American citizens.

The Revolutionary Governing Junta has given orders to the Attorney General's office and to the office of the Director General of the National Guard and has asked the Supreme Court of Justice that this case be investigated rapidly.

1. SUMMARY: AS DEPARTMENT AND ADDRESSEE POSTS ARE AWARE, NIGERIAN DELEGATION TO UNGA THIRD COMMITTEE HAD BEEN LOBBYING FOR SEVERAL DAYS ON BEHALF OF A PROPOSED DRAFT DECISION TO MERELY REFER THE DRAFT RESOLUTIONS ON BOLIVIA AND EL SALVADOR TO THE UN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION. IN THE AFTERNOON OF DECEMBER 4, NIGERIA REVISED THE PROPOSAL TO COVER ALL FUTURE COUNTRY-SPECIFIC SITUATIONS. IN THE END, THOUGH, NEITHER VERSION WAS FORMALLY INTRODUCED OR DEBATED. WE HAVE HEARD A RUMOR THAT NIGERIA MAY ATTEMPT TO [redacted]

AFTER SEVERAL DELEGATIONS SPOKE ON L.52, MEXICO MOVED CLOSURE OF THE DEBATE. MOROCCO THEN APPEALED TO CHAIRMAN TO WAIT FOR EXPECTED NIGERIAN DRAFT DECISION. CHAIRMAN OBSERVED THAT NIGERIAN DELEGATE WAS NOT PRESENT, DENIED THE REQUEST, AND HELD A VOTE WITH THE RESULT THAT COMMITTEE APPROVED CLOSURE BY.74-36(US)-21. CHAIRMAN THEREUPON INITIATED VOTING PROCESS ON THE DRAFT RESOLUTION ITSELF. NIGERIAN DELEGATE RETURNED BEFORE VOTE ON THE RESOLUTION WAS TAKEN AND ATTEMPTED TO INTRODUCE HER DRAFT DECISION. CHAIRMAN RULED HER OUT OF ORDER ON THE GROUNDS THAT THE VOTING PROCESS WAS UNDERWAY. COMMITTEE THEN ADOPTED RESOLUTION L.52/REV. 2 BY A RECORDED VOTE OF 77(US)-8-49.

3. LATER IN THE EVENING, DURING EXPLANATION OF VOTE ON EL SALVADOR RESOLUTION, NIGERIA REGISTERED STRONG COMPLAINT ABOUT THE CHAIRMAN'S EARLIER RULINGS AND PROCEEDED TO EXPLAIN RATIONALE FOR HER DRAFT DECISION. ALTHOUGH ALGERIA AT THAT POINT ASKED CHAIRMAN TO RULE NIGERIA OUT OF ORDER AGAIN, CHAIRMAN THIS TIME CHOSE [redacted]

1. (U) At least one San Salvador radio station, Radio Sonora, reported the morning of December 8 that the Justice of the Peace (JOP) who had carried out the official "recognition" of the four murdered Americans had been killed. That report is false. Reporters continue to confuse the JOP for Santiago Nonualco who has not been murdered with another JOP who lived in Santiago Nonualco but worked in Zacatecoluca -- that was the man killed on Thursday, December 4, shortly after the exhumation of the bodies of the four slain Americans. The murdered JOP, Juan Plutarco Dominguez, was killed by unknown assailants and for as yet undetermined reaons.

2. (C) On Saturday, December 6, Poloff spoke ~~with~~ by telephone with the JOP for Santiago Nonualco, Juan Santos Ceron. This man, along with his secretary, had authorized the burial of the murdered Americans on December 3, had also been with the Ambassador when the bodies were exhumed on December 4 and had returned to San Salvador with the Ambassador later that afternoon. Embassy was concerned that the assistance provided to us by the JOP and his secretary ~~xxxxx~~ should not result in any retribution against them. We have GOES assurances that the lives of these men will be protected. We have been informed that he is under special protection in San Salvador since late afternoon December 6.

Chilean Universities: Still No Room for Dissent

Since the founding of the University of Chile by Andres Bello in 1843, Chilean centers of higher education have been noted for their academic excellence and political independence. Subsequent to the 1973 coup, however, all Chilean universities have been administered by government-appointed rectors, in most cases military officers. With the relaxation of internal political tensions since then, strict government control over the universities--including the prestigous Catholic University in Santiago--has been seen as out of step with national reality. Even such conservative members of the Chilean "establishment" as Santiago's

El Mercurio have urged the government to end the system of appointed rectors.

The plebiscite of September 11, in which Chileans approved by a wide margin a draft constitution and transition plan for the return to constitutional rule, was also interpreted as evidence that a relaxation of tight government controls is warranted.

Nevertheless, President Pinochet announced on December 2 that most currently university heads would be replaced at the end of the academic year (mid-to-late December) and that he would not choose replacements from within the universities. The two new rectors identified thus far are army officers and close associates of Pinochet.

The designation of new rectors foreshadows an effort to end student dissidence--on the upswing after years of quiescence--on Chilean campuses. The government believes that leftist terrorists, responsible for the recent wave of violence have ties in Chilean universities. As a warning to dissidents, students of the University of Chile's eastern campus were recently arrested for holding an unauthorized ceremony at a monument to Andres Bello and sent to different locales on the southern island of Chiloe for three months of exile.

Pinochet's determination to strengthen control over the universities and to end student ferment belies claims that the government is seeking accommodation with moderate and opposition forces. His actions are likely to persuade students that peaceful pressures to bring about change are futile.

SUBJ: MORE ON THE ZALDIVAR CASE

REF: SANTIAGO 6851 (NOTAL) AND PREVIOUS

1. (C) SUMMARY: THE CASE OF CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY PRESIDENT, ANDRES ZALDIVAR (WHO, WHILE TRAVELLING RECENTLY IN EUROPE, WAS PROHIBITED FROM RE-ENTERING CHILE BY THE GOC BECAUSE OF COMMENTS FALSELY ATTRIBUTED TO HIM BY A MEXICAN NEWSPAPER--COMMENTS WHICH THE PAPER LATER RETRACTED), HAS HEATED UP AGAIN. A UPI STORY FROM CARACAS GAVE THE IMPRESSION THAT HE WOULD TRY TO ENTER CHILE SOON IN DEFIANCE OF THE PROHIBITION. CHILEAN POLICE WAITED AT THE INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT IN SANTIAGO WITH ORDERS TO PREVENT HIS ARRIVAL, WHILE HIS PARENTS FILED A WRIT OF AMPARO IN HIS BEHALF. ALL AGREE THAT THE COURT WILL DENY THE WRIT. MANY IN THE PARTY WOULD LIKE TO SEE ZALDIVAR FORCE THE ISSUE
CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

BY TRYING TO ENTER CHILE, BUT PARTY MODERATES, WHO ARE IN CONTROL, THINK THIS UNWISE. THE HIERARCHY IS MORE CONCERNED WITH WHO WILL CONTROL THE PARTY AND ARE SENDING A DELEGATION TO LIMA TO MEET AND DISCUSS THE SUBJECT WITH ZALDIVAR. IF NOTHING ELSE, THE TRIP AND THE SPECULATION ON HIS INTENTIONS HAVE ALLOWED ZALDIVAR

TO KEEP THE ISSUE PUBLIC. END SUMMARY.

2. (U) A UPI STORY OF DECEMBER 9 FROM CARACAS HAS BROUGHT THE ZALDIVAR CASE (REFTEL) INTO THE PUBLIC EYE ONCE AGAIN. QUOTING "SOURCES CLOSE TO THE (VENEZUELAN) CHILEAN EXILE COMMUNITY", THE STORY SAID THAT ZALDIVAR HAD LEFT THAT DAY FOR LIMA FROM WHERE HE WOULD ENTER CHILE IN DEFIANCE OF THE GOC'S ORDER PROHIBITING HIS ENTRY UNLESS HE MEETS CERTAIN CONDITIONS.

3. (U) AS A RESULT, A HEAVY POLICE TURNOUT AT THE AIRPORT LATE IN THE AFTERNOON OF DECEMBER 9 AWAITED (IN VAIN) THE ARRIVAL OF ZALDIVAR ON TWO INTERNATIONAL FLIGHTS, ONE FROM CARACAS AND THE OTHER FROM LIMA. THE NUMBER TWO OFFICIAL OF THE INVESTIGATIVE POLICE, WHO WAS PRESENT, TOLD INTERVIEWERS THAT HE HAD ORDERS TO PREVENT ZALDIVAR FROM LEAVING THE PLANE IF HE WAS ON IT. ZALDIVAR ALSO ISSUED A WRITTEN DECLARATION QUESTIONING THE LEGALITY OF THE PROHIBITION AND ANNOUNCING THAT A WRIT OF AMPARO WOULD BE PRESENTED IN HIS BEHALF. LATER THE SAME AFTERNOON, ZALDIVAR'S PARENTS PRESENTED THE WRIT, ASKING THE COURT TO SET ASIDE THE GOC'S ORDER PROHIBITING HIS RETURN TO CHILE.

4. (C) COMMENT: IN FACT, THE PARTY HAS INFORMED US AND A SUPREME COURT JUDGE TOLD THE AMBASSADOR THAT THE WRIT HAS NO CHANCE; THE COURT WILL RULE NOT ON THE MERITS OF CONFIDENTIAL

THE CASE, BUT ON THE TECHNICAL POINT THAT, UNDER EXISTING LAWS, THE GOC ACTION WAS LEGAL. INDEED, THE PRESENTATION OF THE WRIT OF AMPARO SEEMS TO INDICATE THAT THE PDC HAS GIVEN UP HOPE OF A NEGOTIATED RETURN FOR ZALDIVAR (SEE DURKEE-HAMILTON MEMCON OF 12/3/80). PARTY SOURCES TELL US THAT ZALDIVAR HIMSELF HAD HOPED THAT THIRD COUNTRY INTERVENTION (SPECIFICALLY SPAIN AND THE VATICAN) WOULD RESULT IN HIS RETURN. MANY IN THE PARTY WOULD LIKE TO SEE ZALDIVAR TRAVEL TO CHILE, EVEN IF HE HAS TO DO SO CLANDESTINELY, AND PRESENT HIMSELF TO THE COURTS, DEMANDING THE REVERSAL OF THE GOC PROHIBITION ORDER. THE RESULTANT PUBLICITY, IN THEIR VIEW, WOULD CAUSE MUCH FAVORABLE PUBLICITY FOR THE PARTY AND AN EQUAL AMOUNT OF EMBARRASSMENT FOR THE GOC. THE CONTROLLING MODERATES, HOWEVER, PERCEIVE A DIRECT CONFRONTATION WITH PINOCHET AS TACTICALLY UNSOUND AT THIS POINT.

5. (C) A RELIABLE PARTY SOURCE HAS TOLD US THAT THE PARTY LEADERSHIP'S MAIN CONCERN AT THIS MOMENT IS WHO WILL LEAD IT. THE MODERATES UNDER FREI, WHO PRESENTLY CONTROLS AFFAIRS, ARE APPARENTLY VERY MUCH AFRAID THAT THE LEFT, LED BY TOMAS REYES, EVENTUALLY WILL TAKE OVER. WHATEVER THE CASE, THE PARTY HAS DECIDED TO SEND REYES, JUAN HAMILTON AND RAUL TRONCOSO TO LIMA SOON TO MEET WITH ZALDIVAR (THUS CONFIRMING THAT ZALDIVAR WILL SOON BE IN LIMA, IF HE IS NOT ALREADY THERE) AND ASK FOR HIS DEFINITIVE PRONOUNCEMENT AS TO WHETHER HE WANTS TO CONTINUE TO LEAD THE PARTY FROM EXILE, OR IF, UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES, HE WISHES TO STEP DOWN AND ALLOW A NEW LEADER TO BE CHOSEN. PARTY MODERATES SAY THAT ZALDIVAR WANTS THE PARTY LEADERSHIP TO TELL HIM WHAT TO DO, AND THUS FEAR THAT THE MEETING WILL RESULT IN A "DIALOGUE OF THE DEAF" WITH NOTHING SETTLED.

6. (C) WE ARE ALSO INFORMED THAT ZALDIVAR'S WIFE AND FAMILY WILL ALSO TRAVEL TO LIMA TO MEET HIM, AND THAT
CONFIDENTIAL

ZALDIVAR WILL MEET WITH OTHER PARTY LEADERS (INCLUDING FREI'S SON-IN-LAW) LATER IN BUENOS AIRES. THUS, HE WILL BE AT LEAST CLOSE TO CHILE FOR A WHILE SHOULD HE DECIDE (OR IT BE DECIDED FOR HIM) TO TRY TO FORCE THE ISSUE BY ATTEMPTING TO ENTER THE COUNTRY. WE THINK THIS UNLIKELY FOR NOW, BUT BY TRAVELLING TO NEARBY CAPITALS ZALDIVAR IS KEEPING HIS PREDICAMENT BEFORE DOMESTIC AND INTERNATIONAL PUBLIC OPINION. PINOCHET SEEMS IMMUNE TO SUCH PRESSURE BUT MODERATES BOTH INSIDE AND OUTSIDE THE REGIME ARE AT LEAST UNCOMFORTABLE BY THE ARBITRARINESS OF THE GOC ACTION.

HE CONTINUED BY SAYING THAT FATHER MARCIAL SERRANO, KIDNAPPED TWO WEEKS AGO, HAD BEEN KILLED BY THE NATIONAL GUARD (GN). Date & Place: February 21, 1981

Subject: Conversation with National Guard Officer: Speculations about the Nuns' Deaths and FDR Murders; The Current Political-Security Situation

DEPARTMENT PLEASE DISTRIBUTE PER PAGE 3.

Department of ... Declassified under ... portions withheld ... law enforcement ( ), privacy ( ), ... not relevant to ...

SUMMARY: On February 21 a National Guard (GN) officer told PolOff that, based on rumors circulating within the GN, he believed that members of the GN post in Zacatecoluca were responsible for the murders of the four American churchwomen. We believe this is information that should be taken into account, and have suggested to JRG President Duarte that new investigations be pointed toward this lead, but at the same time it appears that our informant was reporting hearsay rather than direct knowledge. He also talked about the Sheraton murders, claiming that either the right or the left could have been responsible. If the former, then he thought participation by GN S/2 (intelligence branch) personnel was likely. The November FDR massacre, he averred, was a right-wing operation with some military involvement. The source downplayed any possibility of a right-wing coup, saying that the military was largely behind the reforms and favors civilian control of the government. Recent USG statements indicating continued support for the reform program have been decisively important, he said. Finally, the source told of significantly lower levels of official/rightist violence. END SUMMARY.

On February 21 PolOff spoke with a National Guard (GN) officer about murders, coups and violence. The source is of low rank and is posted in a small provincial town in western El Salvador. Some of his comments follow:

MURDERS: The source told PolOff that, while he was still not certain, he believed that GN personnel posted in Zacatecoluca were responsible for killing the three American nuns and one lay worker. He indicated that the story circulating within the GN is that the Zacatecoluca guardsmen (not rpt not San Juan Talpa, as we reported in a previous cable) were actually waiting for someone else and had mistakenly taken the women. PolOff expressed some scepticism, noting that there are few people in El Salvador who could have been confused with the four Americans. The source acknowledged the point and, while defending his version of events, promised to uncover the whole story and pass on the information. He added that GN Commander Vides Casanova told a group of officers that if any guardsmen were implicated in the killings he would have them jailed since he - Vides - had repeatedly insisted that such wanton violence should end.

The source knew less about the Sheraton killings and said he was at a loss to explain that event. He seemed at first to accuse the left for the murders, saying that the deaths of the two Americans worked in favor of the left. He went on, however, to acknowledge that the Death Squadron had attempted to kill Rodolfo Viera at least twice; Squadron members, he said, were convinced that Viera was an FPL commander. The source said that if the right was responsible then GN S/2 member Lt. Lopez was certainly aware and probably involved. He indicated that he would find out from his friend Lopez who had committed the murders.

The informant continued by saying that the November massacre of the six FDR leaders was a right wing operation with participation by sympathetic military members. [redacted] He said that the man in charge of the operation had been a military officer who has since been cashiered and is currently in Guatemala. The operation, he said, succeeded in part because of the collaboration of the police (presumably National Police) watch commander on duty that day. The source indicated that he was absolutely in agreement with those who carried out the murders. To emphasize the point he added that he would gladly accept the task of travelling to Mexico in order to kill Guillermo Ungo should the job - and the funding - be offered to him.

COUPS: The source said that the possibility of a right-wing coup had diminished to almost nothing. He said, in fact, that anyone now openly talking about a coup is putting himself and/or his career in jeopardy. The military, he said, is substantially behind the reforms and in favor of allowing civilians to control the government. The idea of staging a coup and returning to a Romero-style status quo ante was, he said, effectively put to rest by recent USG statements indicating support for the reform program. The source seemed especially pleased that wealthy rightists poised for the expected USG renouncing of support for reforms were left "with their arms folded and their mouths open." Nevertheless, he said that in the opinion of many military officers the reforms carried out to date should be consolidated before any others - specifically Phase II - are begun. He explained that it is precisely because the military want to see the reform program succeed that they are advocating caution.

VIOLENCE: The source indicated that he was certain that at least in his part of the country (the western part) the level of violence had diminished. He said that the "bunches" of bodies seen along the roadsides last year were no longer in evidence. The security corps, he said, were carrying out fewer summary executions of suspects and the Death Squadrons were no longer functioning. The source was proud to announce to PolOff that he had only killed one person since their November conversation. He indicated that the reasons for this fall off included tougher measures by commanding officers against unnecessary violence, the obvious failure of the right, and a growing sense within the military that wanton violence is counter-productive. Another reason, he said, was that Major D'Aubuisson was now devoting himself more to helping direct the Guatemalan Death Squads and less to killing fellow Salvadorans.

The source went on to talk about the nature of violence in El Salvador. To illustrate his point he told the following story. One of his troops, he said, had asked to be allowed to travel home in order to murder the man who had killed his - the trooper's - father in an argument. The guard's request was denied by another officer but granted by the source, who claimed he knew nothing of the guard's intention. The next morning the guard reappeared, claiming that the FPL had busted up his town during the night. Several days later the guard was arrested and thrown in jail, he having killed the entire family of his father's killer but only wounded his intended victim. The source pointed out what to him were the salient points: (a) progress could be seen in that the multiple murderer was arrested and will face punishment; (b) much of the violence going on in El Salvador has a personal rather than a political motive. The source, however, pointed out that the multiple killing also demonstrated the "sickness" of many troops - inured to killing after having seen - and accomplished - so much of it.

BISHOP RIVERA OPENED THE CONVERSATION BY EXPRESSING HIS GRATITUDE FOR MY ACTIONS FOLLOWING THE KIDNAPPING AND MURDER OF THE THREE AMERICAN NUNS AND ONE LAY MISSIONARY. HE CONTINUED BY SAYING THAT FATHER MARCIAL SERRANO, KIDNAPPED TWO WEEKS AGO, HAD BEEN KILLED BY THE NATIONAL GUARD (GN). RIVERA SAID THAT SERRANO HAD BEEN STRANGLED AND HIS BODY THROWN INTO LAKE ILLOPANGO ON FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 28. HE ADDED THAT MONS. APARICIO, [redacted]

A VERY CONSERVATIVE PRELATE, WAS CONVINCED THAT IT HAD BEEN TWO LOW RANKING GN MEMBERS, A CORPORAL AND A PRIVATE; THAT HAD KILLED SERRANO AND THEN TAKEN AND KEPT HIS VEHICLE. FOLLOWING THE INTERVENTION OF ALEJANDRO DUARTE, THE SON OF JRG MEMBER NAPOLEON DUARTE, THE TWO RESPONSIBLE SOLDIERS WERE ARRESTED AND HAVE APPARENTLY CONFESSED. RIVERA TALKED AT LENGTH ABOUT THE MURDER OF SERRANO, USING THAT AS A BASIS FOR HIS ASSERTION THAT A PERSECUATION OF THE CHURCH EXISTS AND THE MILITARY IS BEHIND IT.

Dear Mr. Hinton:

As you know, the Subcommittee on Government Activities and Transportation, of which I am chairman, conducted an investigation into the involvement of LAN Chile Airlines facilities and personnel in the assassination of former Chilean ambassador to the United States, Orlando Letelier, and Mrs. Ronni Moffitt. Hearings were held by this subcommittee on May 9, 1980 to look into this matter.

At that hearing, Malcolm Barnebey, Director of the Office of Andean Affairs testified that:

> . . . the U.S. Government in the present political context has not agreed to the request for additional authority which (LAN Chile) made in July, 1979, and which, if approved, would have permitted LAN Chile to fly to Los Angeles. We also decided not to enter at this time into negotiation of a new bilateral air transport agreement with the Chilean Government.

He further testified that our aviation agreement with Chile provides for revocation of LAN Chile's permit if they fail to comply with U.S. aviation laws and regulations within U.S. territory, and stated that, "Unless there is an established use of aviation for an illegal act, therefore, we would not terminate operations." I understand that Mr. Barnebey's comments continue to serve as an accurate reflection of the State Department's policy concerning LAN Chile.

In fact, "use of aviation for an illegal act" has been established in Letelier v. Republic of Chile, No. 78-1477 (D.D.C. filed November 5, 1980) (copy enclosed) wherein Judge Green's opinion stated that "facilities and personnel of LAN Chile Airlines, a foreign air carrier owned and operated by the Government of Chile, were used by Townley in connection with the preparation and carrying out of the assassination of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt." Id., slip. op. at 5. Moreover, that opinion holds that "employees of the Republic of Chile committed tortious acts of negligent transportation and detonation of explosives." Id., slip. op. at 11. In spite of Judge Green's decision it appears that the State Department has not altered any of its policies concerning LAN Chile Airlines.

In light of the foregoing, my questions to you are as follows:

UNCLASSIFIED

1. Is it correct that the State Department has not taken any steps to revoke the bilateral agreement? If not, why not? What more than a decision by a U.S. District Court would be necessary in order for the State Department to conclude that there has been an established use of aviation for an illegal act? If you have undertaken such efforts, please describe what steps you have taken thus far.

2. Although Mr. Barnebey contends that in failing to negotiate a new bilateral landing rights agreement Chile has been punished, does not this action merely assure that the current agreement continues in effect? If not, why not?

3. Does not the failure of the U.S. to officially reject LAN Chile's request for additional landing rights simply mean that that request is "still pending" and may be granted at any time? Is there not a practical effect between not responding to LAN Chile's request and rejecting it outright? Under what circumstances would you recommend that such action be taken?

In closing, I must emphasize that the recalcitrance of the United States Government to take clear, unambiguous action against LAN Chile becomes more disturbing in light of the Court's recent decision. Please respond to these questions by December 31, 1980.

Sincerely,

/s/

Dear Mr. Dworkin:

As you may know, the House Subcommittee on Government Activities and Transportation, which I chair, has been examining the extent to which U.S. laws and regulations were violated by LAN Chile Airlines, in connection with the scheme to assassinate the former Chilean Ambassador to the United States, Orlando Letelier. Enclosed is a copy of a letter which I have sent to Assistant Secretary Hinton, expressing my concern over the failure of the United States Government to impose sanctions on LAN Chile in spite of the evidence that such violations did occur.

I would appreciate any thoughts that you have about the matters raised in that letter, and hope that you will do what you can to ensure that the State Department provides a prompt and complete response.

Sincerely,

JOHN L. BURTON

FROM: ARA - William G. Bowdler WGB

SUBJECT: Your Meeting with Richard Allen on El Salvador

SUMMARY: You are meeting with Richard Allen to inform him of the situation created in El Salvador by the kidnapping and killing on November 25 of six leaders of the Revolutionary Democratic Front (FDR), and of our initial reaction to the killings.

Talking Points:

-- Faced in El Salvador with the alternatives of a takeover by an undeniably radical Marxist left and an equally radical and violent right seeking to restore the old feudal order we have backed the moderate and reformist military-civilivan coalition government (the JRG). The JRG had succeeded through its implementation of reforms and more professional use of military force in gradually turning back the leftist challenge, both politically and militarily and had deterred several rightist coup attempts. It was still struggling to gain wide international acceptance and to end the violence, particularly that which emanates from the right and involves elements of the security forces.

-- Recently new pressures have been generated by Salvadoran conservatives for a shift to the right, perhaps by replacing the centrist Christian Democratic members of the Junta with conservatives from the private sector.

-- Concurrently rightwing terrorism has increased. A dramatic example was the kidnapping and killing on November 25 of six leaders of the leftist Revolutionary Democratic Front (FDR). Although the killings were done by men dressed in civilian clothes, we have reports that members of the security forces were involved.

-- These killings have caused a major crisis and placed in jeopardy the survival of the present Junta, which had pledged to seek to control abuses and cri[redacted] by the security forces.

-- A shift to the right and departure of the Christian Democrats from the Junta would mean the loss of the limited international support that the Junta now has, and would probably cause governments such as Mexico to favor the left in El Salvador.

-- The US has deplored the killings, but refrained from any pubic acknowledgement of involvement by the security forces.

-- The Christian Democrats are attempting to save their credibility and participation in the Junta by insisting on a thorough investigation, and arrest and trial of the civilians involved in the killing and the discharge of the members of the security forces judged guilty.

-- We are considering ways to help give the Christian Democrats and moderates in the military added leverage in their efforts to save the situation.

-- Unfortunately our efforts to do so lack credibility and force because of widespread uncertainty in El Salvador, especially among the military and private sector, as to the future course of U.S. policy.

-- Any statement deploring the violence and expressing hope that the perpetrators of the FDR assassinations be apprehended and punished would greatly support our efforts to strengthen the moderate forces and to prevent an ever escalating spiral of extremist violence, thereby preserving options for the incoming Administration.

MANRIQUE WAS A PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE IN THE LAST GENERAL ELECTIONS (1973) AND WAS THE THIRD HIGHEST VOTE-GETTER WITH NEARLY 15 PERCENT OF THE TOTAL VOTE. THAT A CALL FOR SUCH AN ACCOUNTING SHOULD COME FROM MANRIQUE IS SIGNIFICANT NOT ONLY BECAUSE OF HIS CONSIDERABLE PERSONAL FOLLOWING, BUT BECAUSE THE FEDERALIST PARTY AND OTHER MEMBERS OF THE COALITION CALLED FEDERALIST POPULAR FORCE (FUFEPO) WERE STRONG SUPPORTERS OF THE MILITARY TAKEOVER IN 1976 AND HAVE BEEN GOA ALLIES EVER SINCE. INDEED, SOMETIMES FUFEPO HAS BEEN CONSIDERED THE NATURAL EMBRYO FROM WHICH TO BUILD AN OFFICIAL PARTY THAT COULD INHERIT THE GOVERNMENT ONCE THE MILITARY HAS COMPLETED ITS REFORMS. THE THRUST OF MANRIQUE'S MESSAGE TO THE GOA WAS POSITIVE -- CLEAR UP THE RECORD OF THE DEAD AND DISAPPEARED BEFORE VIOLA TAKES OFFICE IN MARCH SO THAT HE CAN DEAL WITH THE HOST OF OTHER PROBLEMS HE FACES WITHOUT THIS ADDITIONAL HANDICAP. THERE ARE, HOWEVER, NO INDICATIONS THAT THE MILITARY GOVERN-MENT WILL HEED MANRIQUE'S ADVICE.

7. (U) ON DECEMBER 28 THE ARGENTINE ARMY ISSUED A COMMUNIQUE STATING THAT GERVASIO MARTIN GUADIX (AKA ALBERTO LUCIO CASTILLO), AND ALLEGED TERRORIST, COMMITTED SUICIDE BY SWALLOWING CYANIDE ON THE ARGENTINE-BRAZILIAN BORDER ON DECEMBER 2. THE ARMY COMMUNIQUE SAID THAT GUADIX HAD PARTICIPATED IN VARIOUS TERRORIST ACTS SINCE 1974 AND THAT ON HIS PERSON WERE FOUND VARIOUS FALSE AND BLANK IDENTIFICATION CARDS, INSTRUCTIONS TO CARRY OUT LABOR AND POLITICAL AGITATION AND SECRET CODES TO RECEIVE RADIO INSTRUCTIONS FROM MONTONERO GROUPS OUTSIDE THE COUNTRY. REP. NORMAN Y. MINETA
SAN JOSE OFFICE

6 January 1981

The Honorable Norman Y. Mineta
1245 Winchester Blvd.
San Jose, California

Dear Mr. Mineta,

I am chairman of group 62 of Amnesty International, the 1977 Nobel Prize winning human rights organization.

Group 62 has recently adopted an Argentinian "prisoner of conscience", Eduardo Antonio Czainik.

Since the March, 1976 coup by the military junta, fifteen thousand Argentinians are estimated to have disappeared after arrest by the police, security forces or parapolice. Many have been killed and others brutally tortured in secret concentration camps. Eduardo Antonio Czainik is one of the "desaparecidos".

The details of Eduardo's case are as follows:

I.D. # 7.594.983
Age 34 Born April 27, 1947
Arrest August 25, 1977 in Buenos Aires
Writs of habeas corpus have been filed

Other details are available, but could endanger other family members living in Buenos Aires. These are the facts relevant for the Argentine government.

Our group would like to request that you use your office to write to two Argentine officials requesting an investigation of Eduardo's arrest and his whereabouts. It is important that Amnesty International is not mentioned in your correspondence.

Many personal letters from our group members have gone unanswered. In the past, before our group adopted Eduardo, the Argentine government claimed to have no knowledge of Eduardo's existence.

We are most grateful to you for any help you can give us. Please feel free to contact me for any further information.

esty International is a worldwide human rights movement which works impartially for the release of prisoners of conscience: men and women detained anywhere for their beliefs, color, ethnic origin, religion or language, provided they have neither used nor advocated violence. Amnesty International opposes torture and the death penalty in all cases without reservat on and advocates fair and ot trials for all political prisoners. Amnesty International is independent of all governments, political factions, ideologies, economic interests and religious creeds. It has consultative status with the ed Nations (ECOSOC), UNESCO, and the Council of Europe, has cooperative relations with the Inter American Commission on Human Rights of the Organization of American States, and has observer s with the Organization of African Unity (Bureau for the Placement and Education of African Refugees). 3. FYI. IN KEEPING WITH ITS POLICY OF ACTING AS A BULLETIN BOARD FOR THE FAR LEFT, "EL INDEPENDIENTE" ON 7 JANUARY PRINTED A PAGE OF INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW THE POPULATION SHOULD RESPOND TO THE FINAL OFFENSIVE. THESE RECOMMENDATIOONS INCLUDED HAVING ON HAND THE MAKINGS OF MOLOTOV COCKTAILS AND OTHER INFLAMMABLES, HOME PRODUCTION OF BOARDS STUDDED WITH NAILS TO STOP MILITARY CONVOYS, A PROGRAM OF DELIBERATE DISINFORMATION IN THE CASE THAT ANY MEMBER OF THE SECURITY FORCES SHOULD ASK FOR DIRECTIONS OR THE WHEREABOUTS OF SOMEONE, AND THE PRIOR SPOTTING OF THE HOUSES OF GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS, MILITARY OFFICERS AND ALLEGED SPIES. THE GOVERNMENT OF NICARAGUA, BECAUSE OF DECLARATIONS WITH NEITHER BASIS NOR SERIOUSNESS, WHICH HAVE BEEN PUT OUT BY REPRESENTATIVES OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, AND WHICH AFFECT OUR COUNTRY.
IN EFFECT, ON THE 14TH OF JANUARY, THE AMBASSADOR OF THE UNITED STATES IN EL SALVADOR, MR. ROBERT WHITE, AS IF THE GOVERNMENT OF EL SALVADOR COULD NOT SPEAK FOR ITSELF, ACCUSED THE GOVERNMENT OF NICARAGUA OF BEING RESPONSIBLE FOR A SUPPOSED DISEMBARKATION OF GUERRILLAS ON THE SALVADORAN COAST, WITHOUT THIS HASTY REMARK BEING RECTIFIED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE. LATER, MR. JOHN TRATTNER, OFFICIAL SPOKESMAN FOR THE STATE DEPARTMENT, INSTEAD OF DENYING MR. WHITE'S STATEMENT, INFORMED THE PRESS, THAT YOU (PEZZULLO) AS UNITED STATES AMBASSADOR TO NICARAGUA, PRESENTED OUR GOVERNMENT WITH YOUR OFFICIAL CONCERN ON THE SAME MATTER.
SUCH AFFIRMATIONS, CONTRADICT IN A FLAGRANT MANNER THE CLIMATE OF UNDERSTANDING AND OF MUTUAL RESPECT WHICH HAS UNTIL NOW CHARACTERIZED RELATIONS BETWEEN OUR TWO GOVERNMENTS; AND IT WORRIES US DEEPLY THAT SPOKESPEOPLE FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES ARE MAKING SUCH AFFIRMATIONS THAT AT THE SAME TIME IN WHICHNOT HAS BEEN DECIDED TO RENEW MILITARY AID TO THE GOVERNMENT OF EL SALVADOR, WHERE AT PRESENT, AN INTERNAL WAR IS BEING WAGED. WE CONSIDER DECLARATIONS OR ACTS WHICH TEND TO PROVOKE AN EXTENSION OF THIS CONFLICT TO OTHERPARTS OF THE CENTRAL AMERICAN AREA TO BE UNFORTUNATE.
AS LONG AS THEY ARE NOT RECTIFIED, SUCH DECLARATIONS SEEM INTENDED TO CONFUSE PUBLIC OPINIONS, NORTH AMERICAN AS WELL AS INTERNATIONAL, ON THE RESPECTFUL ATTITUDE WHICH OUR GOVERNMENT HAS OBSERVED IN REGARDS TO THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF EL SALVADOR, WITHIN THE FRAME-

[redacted]

WORK OF SOVEREIGNTY AND SELF-DETERMINATION WHICH WE RESPECT AND SUPPORT. SINCE WE ARE CONVINCED THAT THE SALVADORAN PEOPLE MUS RESOLVE ITS OWN PROBLEMS WITHOUT ANY KIND OF INTERFERENCE FROM OTHER COUNTRIES, OUR GOVERNMENT IS ACUTELY INTERESTED THAT THE PRESENT CONFLICT IN EL SALVADOR BE RESOLED IN A WAY THAT WOULD AVOID FURTHER BLOODSHED.
I TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO SEND MY COMPLIMENTS TO YOUR EXCELLENCY. END TEXT

4. REPORTS ALSO HAVE BEEN MADE OF 20 OR 30 PEOPLE "SPEAKING WITH A STRANGE ACCENT" WHO HAVE MADE THEMSELVES KNOWN TO PEOPLE IN THE CAPITAL ASKING FOR FOOD OR SOME KIND OF ASSISTANCE. IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO EVALUATE THE MEANING OR ACCURACY OF THESE REPORTS AT THIS TIME. OTHER GUERRILLA CONCENTRATIONS ARE SAID TO EXIST NEAR THE CAPITAL AT SAN MARCOS AND SANTO TOMAS.

5. THE SECURITY WATCH COMMITTEE OF THE EMBASSY WILL MEET THIS AFTERNOON AT 2:30 TO DETERMINE WHAT MEASURES MUST BE TAKEN, ESPECIALLY CONSIDERING THAT WE ARE UNDER CURFEW FROM 1900 AND IT WOULD BE IMPOSSIBLE FOR EMBASSY PERSONNEL EXCEPT POSSIBLY MILITARY OFFICERS OF DATT AND MILGP TO LEAVE THE LOCATION IN WHICH THEY FIND THEMSELVES AFTER THAT TIME.

6. YESTERDAY THERE WERE REPORTS OF GUERRILLA ACTIVITIES NEAR ZARAGOZA AND TWO OTHER SMALL TOWNS ALSO ON THE ROUTE TO THE INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT. THE ROAD TO THE AIRPORT WAS BRIEFLY CUT, BUT IS OPEN AGAIN TODAY.

7. LA UNION: LATEST REPORTS FROM THE GENERAL STAFF ARE THAT IN FIGHTING IN LA UNION PROVINCE SOME 200 OF THE GUERRILLAS WHO LANDED AT PLAYA EL CUCO HAVE BEEN ROUTED AND ARE FLEEING TO THE WEST. THE GOVERNMENT IS CLAIMING APPROXIMATELY 52 GUERRILLAS KILLED AND IS ADMITTING THAT EIGHT GOVERNMENT TROOPS HAVE DIED IN ACTION. OTHER GUERRILLA RAIDS ARE REPORTED IN TECOLUCA (SAN VICENTE PROVINCE) AND TWO OTHER SMALL TOWNS. COMMENT: WE FOUND A MANAGUA "RADIO MUNDIAL" REPORT OF JANUARY 14 INTERESTING. IT SAID IN PART THAT "SOME 200 INTERNATIONALIST FIGHTERS HAVE ARRIVED IN EL SALVADOR AND THEY HAD A FIERCE CLASH WITH ARMY MEMBERS."

THE GOVERNMENT OF NICARAGUA, BECAUSE OF DECLARATIONS WITH NEITHER BASIS NOR SERIOUSNESS, WHICH HAVE BEEN PUT OUT BY REPRESENTATIVES OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, AND WHICH AFFECT OUR COUNTRY.
IN EFFECT, ON THE 14TH OF JANUARY, THE AMBASSADOR OF THE UNITED STATES IN EL SALVADOR, MR. ROBERT WHITE, AS IF THE GOVERNMENT OF EL SALVADOR COULD NOT SPEAK FOR ITSELF, ACCUSED THE GOVERNMENT OF NICARAGUA OF BEING RESPONSIBLE FOR A SUPPOSED DISEMBARKATION OF GUERRILLAS ON THE SALVADORAN COAST, WITHOUT THIS HASTY REMARK BEING RECTIFIED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE. LATER, MR. JOHN TRATTNER, OFFICIAL SPOKESMAN FOR THE STATE DEPARTMENT, INSTEAD OF DENYING MR. WHITE'S STATEMENT, INFORMED THE PRESS, THAT YOU (PEZZULLO) AS UNITED STATES AMBASSADOR TO NICARAGUA, PRESENTED OUR GOVERNMENT WITH YOUR OFFICIAL CONCERN ON THE SAME MATTER.
SUCH AFFIRMATIONS, CONTRADICT IN A FLAGRANT MANNER THE CLIMATE OF UNDERSTANDING AND OF MUTUAL RESPECT WHICH HAS UNTIL NOW CHARACTERIZED RELATIONS BETWEEN OUR TWO GOVERNMENTS; AND IT WORRIES US DEEPLY THAT SPOKESPEOPLE FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES ARE MAKING SUCH AFFIRMATIONS THAT AT THE SAME TIME IN WHICHMOT HAS BEEN DECIDED TO RENEW MILITARY AID TO THE GOVERNMENT OF EL SALVADOR, WHERE AT PRESENT, AN INTERNAL WAR IS BEING WAGED. WE CONSIDER DECLARATIONS OR ACTS WHICH TEND TO PROVOKE AN EXTENSION OF THIS CONFLICT TO OTHERPARTS OF THE CENTRAL AMERICAN AREA TO BE UNFORTUNATE.
AS LONG AS THEY ARE NOT RECTIFIED, SUCH DECLARATIONS SEEM INTENDED TO CONFUSE PUBLIC OPINIONS, NORTH AMERICAN AS WELL AS INTERNATIONAL, ON THE RESPECTFUL ATTITUDE WHICH OUR GOVERNMENT HAS OBSERVED IN REGARDS TO THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF EL SALVADOR, WITHIN THE FRAME-

[redacted]

WORK OF SOVEREIGNTY AND SELF-DETERMINATION WHICH WE RESPECT AND SUPPORT. SINCE WE ARE CONVINCED THAT THE SALVADORAN PEOPLE MUS RESOLVE ITS OWN PROBLEMS WITHOUT ANY KIND OF INTERFERENCE FROM OTHER COUNTRIES, OUR GOVERNMENT IS ACUTELY INTERESTED THAT THE PRESENT CONFLICT IN EL SALVADOR BE RESOLED IN A WAY THAT WOULD AVOID FURTHER BLOODSHED.
I TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO SEND MY COMPLIMENTS TO YOUR EXCELLENCY. END TEXT

MARXIST ARMED
OPONENTS OF THE SALVADORA GOVERNMENT,
AND THEIR BACKERS ABROAD, HAVE MAINTAINED THAT THEIR TERRORIST AND CHAOS-PROVOKING ACTIVITIES CONSTITUTE AN "INTERNAL WAR." THEY HAVE CLAIMED THAT NO FOREIGN NATION

BUT THE TRUTH IS OTHERWISE. IT IS THE MARXIST ARMED GROUPS, ENCOURAGED BY OUTSIDE FORCES, WHICH ARE SEEKING TO IMPOSE THEIR IDEAS BY TERRORIST MEANS ON THE SALVADORAN
PEOPLE. IT IS THE MARXIST ARMED GROUPS THAT HAVE SOUGHT GREATER MILITARY CAPABILITIES IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES TO WAGE AN INTENSIFIED, ALBIET STILL INEFFECTIVE, "GENERAL OFFENSIVE" AGAINST THE SALVADORAN GOVERNMENT, ARMED FORCES AND PEOPLE.
THE GOVERNMENT AND AREMED FORCES ARE COMMITTED TO STIMULATING DEMOCRATIC ELECTIONS, PLURALISM, AND THE PROCESS OF ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL REFORM.
THE FAILURE OF THE MARXIST ARMED GROUPS TO GAIN PUBLIC SUPPORT FOR THEIR AGITATIONAL ACTIVITIES (STRIKES, DEMONSTRATIONS, AND SO FORTH), AND THEIR REFUSAL TO SEEK PARTICIPATION IN THE DEMOCRATIC POLITICAL OPENING OFFERED BY THE GOVERNMENT, HAVE DICTATED THIS TURN BY THE MARXIST ARMED GROUPS TO A PROCESS WHICH BRINGS SUFFERING TO THE SALVADORAN PEOPLE. REGRETTABLY, INTERESTS OUTSIDE
EL SALVADOR HAVE ENCOURAGED THE MARXIST ARMED GROUPS BY PROVIDING THEM WITH NEW WEAPONS, NOT HERETOFORE AT THEIR DISPOSAL. THE APPEARANCE OF THESE NEW WEAPONS OF FOREIGN ORIGIN HAS COINCIDED WITH, AND HAS FACILITATED, THE LAUNCHING OF THE MARXIST ARMED GROUPS' "GENERAL OFFENSIVE."
THESE NEW WEAPONS RECEIVED FROM ABROAD HAVE CONSTITUTES AN UNCALLED FOR INTERVENTION.

WHILE THE PRECISE EXTENT OF THIS INTERVENTION IN THE AMMUNITION IS NOT IN THE SALVADORAN ARMED FORCES INVENTORY.

NUMERICAL SERIES OF THIS AMMUNITION, MORE THAN 22,000
ROUNDS OF WHICH WERE RECOVERED FROM A CONTRABAND AIR
SHIPMENT IN JUNE 1980, DOES NOT CORRESPOND WITH SALVADORAN WEAPONS INVENTORIES. (IT SHOULD BE NOTED THAT ANOTHER AIRCRAFT WHICH APPARENTLY SUPPLIED CONTRABAND ARMS CRASHED
HERE ON NOVEMBER 25.)
ACQUISITION OF THESE FOREIGN WEAPONS HAS INCREASED THE CAPABILITY OF THE MARXIST ARMED GROUPS TO ATTACK FROM A DISTANCE MILITARY OR CIVILIAN TARGETS. THE PROVISION OF VARIOUS TYPES OF EXPLOSIVE WEAPONS OF HIGH POWER PROVIDES NEW MEANS TO THE MARXIST ARMED GROUPS TO DESTROY BUILDINGS AND VEHICLES. THE DELIVERY OF FRAGMENTATION GRENADES INCREASES THE LETHAL RADIUS OF THE ACTION OF THESE WEAPONS PARTICULARLY LETHAL WHEN USED AGAINST GROUPS OF UNPROTECTED PEOPLE. AND THE INCREASE OF AMMUNITION STOCKS PERMITS LENGTHIER AND MORE WIDESPREAD ENGAGEMENTS BY THE MARXISTS ARMED GROUPS.
THE FACT THAT, DESPITE THESE NEW FOREIGN ORIGIN

IN THE "GENERAL OFFENSIVE" TESTIFIES TO THEIR LACK OF

NEVERTHELESS, THE INITIAL LACK OF SUCCESS DOES NOT LESSEN THE SERIOUSNESS OF THE MARXIST ARMED GROUPS'
INTENTION TO ATTACK THE SALVADORAN GOVERNMENT AND PEOPLE THROUGH FRATRICIDAL ATTACKS AND TO STRENGTHEN THEIR HAND
THROUGH THE ASSISTANCE OF FOREIGN INTERESTS. FOR THIS

1. (LOU) SUMMARY: THE PEACEFUL OCCUPATION OF THE SWEDISH EMBASSY GARDEN BY CHILEANS PROTESTING HOUSING SHORTAGES HAS SETTLED INTO A STANDOFF, ALTHOUGH TALKS CONTINUE. A MAN IDENTIFIED AS A COMMUNIST PARTY MILITANT TRAINED OVERSEAS DIED IN A REPORTED SHOOTOUT WITH MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL INFORMATION CENTER (CNI) IN SANTIAGO. INFORMATION ABOUT HIS ACTIVITIES MAY HELP TO CLARIFY PCCH STRATEGY. ALSO IN SANTIAGO, THE CNI TURNED OVER TO THE COURT A MAN ACCUSED OF BEING A LEADER OF THE MOVEMENT FOR UNITARY POPULAR ACTION (MAPU). END SUMMARY.

2. (C) SITUATION AT SWEDISH EMBASSY. THE EMBASSY OCCUPATION, BEGUN ON 14 JANUARY IN CONJUNCTION WITH AN ATTEMPTED TAKEOVER OF GOVERNMENT SOCCER FIELDS TO DRAMATIZE HOUSING SHORTAGES (REF A AND B), CONTINUES PEACEFULLY WITH LITTLE CHANGE. EMBOFF VISITED SWEDISH FIRST SECRETARY PERSSON FOR A CONFIDENTIAL

BRIEFING AND FIRST-HAND VIEW. BY PERSSON'S COUNT, THERE ARE A TOTAL OF 31 PROTESTERS (7 MEN, 10 WOMEN AND 14 CHILDREN) CAMPING OUT IN THE EMBASSY'S BACK PATIO, ALMOST OUT OF VIEW FROM THE STREET. HE CONTINUES TO HAVE DISCUSSIONS WITH THE LEADERS OF THE PROTEST, WHOM HE DECLINED TO IDENTIFY OTHER THAN TO SAY THAT THEY WERE NOT AMONG THE GROUP AT THE EMBASSY. WHILE BEING VAGUE ABOUT SPECIFIC PROPOSALS, HE DID SAY THAT THE SWEDES AND THE INTERGOVERNMENTAL COMMITTEE ON MIGRATION (ICM) HAVE OFFERED TO TRY TO ASSIST THE PROTESTERS IN LEAVING THE COUNTRY BUT WITH THE UNDERSTANDING THAT THEY WOULD BEP PROCESSED ONLY AFTER THEY LEFT THE EMBASSY.

3. (C) PERSSON CHARACTERIZED THE PROTESTERS AS HAVING REALIZED THAT "THEY HAVE NO WAY OUT": THE SWEDES CANNOT HELP ON THE ISSUE OF HOUSING, BECAUSE OF THEIR MINIMAL INFLUENCE WITH THE GOC; THE GOC WILL NOT SUBMIT TO THE PRESSURE OF THE TAKEOVERS; AND WITHDRAWAL BY THE PROTESTERS WOULD ADD TO THE IMAGE OF ACCUMULATING FAILURES. HE BELIEVES THAT THE PROTESTERS RECOGNIZE THAT THEY PERHAPS ARE BEING USED. THE SWEDES CONSIDER THE RATIONALE FOR OCCUPYING THE EMBASSY AS ILLOGICAL, CONSIDERING THE ASSISTANCE THAT THEY HAVE EXTENDED TO CHILEANS AND THEIR PRESENT LOW STANDING WITH THE GOC: "THE GOVERNMENT IS PROBABLY LAUGHING". PERSSON DID NOT SPECULATE ON PROSPECTS FOR A RESOLUTION; FOR THE MOMENT THERE APPEARS TO BE A STANDOFF. ONE POSSIBLE PROBLEM MAY ARISE, HOWEVER, SHOULD THE CARABINEROS, WHO ARE MONITORING ACCESS TO THE EMBASSY, BEGIN TO CUT OFF THE FLOW OF FOOD FROM OUTSIDE TO THE ADULTS (THE SWEDES ARE PROVIDING FOOD AND MEDICAL CARE TO THE CHILDREN ONLY, PERSSON SAYS).

BY PROTESTING STUDENTS CONTINUES, BUT IS NO LONGER GETTING ANY PRESS COVERAGE. (REF B).

5. (LOU) COMMUNIST PARTY MILITANT KILLED. ACCORDING TO A PUBLIC STATEMENT BY CNI, THEIR AGENTS WERE ABOUT TO SEARCH A HOUSE IN CENTRAL SANTIAGO SHORTLY AFTER MIDNIGHT ON JANUARY 18 WHEN THEY WERE MET BY GUNFIRE. ONE AGENT WAS WOUNDED. IN THE RETURN FIRE, A MAN INSIDE THE HOUSE DIED. CNI IDENTIFIED HIM AS LEANDRO ABRAHAM ARRATIA REYES, A COMMUNIST PARTY MILITANT. ARRATIA REPORTEDLY HAD TRAVELED TWICE TO THE SOVIET UNION (1969 AND 1972) AND ONCE TO MEXICO (1972), CUBA (1973) AND FINLAND (1977). CNI PRESUMES THAT HE RECEIVED GUERRILLA TRAINING ON SOME OF THESE TRIPS. ALSO FOUND IN THE "SAFE HOUSE" REPORTEDLY WERE AN AKA MACHINE GUN, VARIOUS MATERIALS FOR EXPLOSIVES AND GRENADES, DOCUMENTS, GUERRILLA INSTRUCTION MANUALS, AND PHOTOGRAPHIC EQUIPMENT.

6. (LOU) ACCUSED MAPU LEADER. ACCORDING TO PRESS REPORTS

OF 20 JANUARY, CNI PLACED CARLOS MONTES CISTERNAS IN THE HANDS OF THE COURT AFTER DETAINING HIM FOR 20 DAYS. MONTES, ACCUSED OF BEING THE SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE MAPU, HAS BEEN FORMALLY CHARGED WITH VIOLATING THE INTERNAL SECURITY LAW AND DECREE LAW 77 (OUTLAWING MARXIST POLITICAL ACTIVITY).

7. (C) COMMENT: IF ADDITIONAL DETAILS ABOUT ARRATIA REYES (PARA 5) SHOULD SURFACE, THEY MAY PROVIDE A FIRMER BASIS FOR EVALUATING JUDGEMENTS EXPRESSED BY CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC AND OTHER SOURCES THAT, IN THE WAKE OF LAST SEPTEMBER'S PLEBISCITE, THE COMMUNIST PARTY MAY HAVE ADOPTED ARMED VIOLENCE AS ONE OF ITS STRATEGIES. PREVIOUSLY, IT WAS GENERALLY ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THE COMMUNISTS WERE AGAINST SUCH A TACK, LEAVING THAT FIELD TO THE MOVEMENT OF THE REVOLUTIONARY LEFT (MIR) AND ITS FRONT ORGANIZATIONS--WHICH HAVE TAKEN CREDIT FOR MANY OF THE RECENT EXTREMIST ACTIONS. THE MAPU IN RECENT YEARS, ON THE OTHER HAND, HAS NORMALLY LIMITED ITSELF TO NON-VIOLENT POLITICAL ACTIVITY. ILLUSTRATIVE OF THIS IS THE MONTES CASE (PARA 6). IT PROVIDES AN EXAMPLE IN ANOTHER SENSE AS WELL, IN THAT MONTES WAS HELD FOR 20 DAYS (THE AUTHORIZED PERIOD IN INTERNAL SECURITY CASES INVOLVING KIDNAPPING, INJURY OR DEATH), BUT THEN ULTIMATELY CHARGED FOR MUCH LESS SERIOUS ACTIONS.

URGENT!

22 January 1981

Dear friend of Chile:

On 30 December 1980, Carlos Montes Cisternas was arrested while leaving the offices of Academia de Humanismo Cristiano (the Academy of Christian Humanism, a research institute), in Santiago, Chile. Sr. Montes is 38, married with three children, an economist and professor. The next day he was turned over to the CNI - Chile's secret police (formerly DINA). He temporarily "disappeared." There was great international protest, his family filed writ of amparo (habeas corpus) and finally the CNI admitted holding him but did not disclose where.

In the initial part of his detention, a news source inside Chile published that Sr. Montes is prominent in an outlawed political party (MAPU -- Movement for United Political Action, of the Popular Unity. All political parties have been outlawed in Chile.)

THIS NEWS STORY HAS INCREASED THE DANGER AND THREAT OF TORTURE GREATLY.

Sr. Montes has been held for more than the allowed twenty days, without being charged or his family knowing his whereabouts.

In your cables/letters it is imperative to refer only to Sr. Montes' affiliation with the Academia de Humanismo Cristiano and the indiscriminate arrest. To refer to the news story of the outlawed party would add to his danger -- it is only for your information.

DEFEAT TO THE FOREIGN-SUPPORTED AND ORCHESTRATED "FINAL OFFENSIVE" OF THE LOCAL MARXIST GUERRILLAS. THE LONG-PREDICTED MASS INSURRECTION FAILED TO MATERIALIZE AS DID THE PROMISED GENERAL STRIKE, DESPITE THE FEVERED INCITEMENTS TO REVOLT BY RADIO MOSCOW, HAVANA AND MANAGUA PLUS THE CLANDESTINE NICARAGUA-BASED "RADIO LIBERACION." THE PEOPLE STUCK WITH THE GOVERNMENT BECAUSE, DESPITE ITS FLAWS, IT HAS BROUGHT THEM THE HOPE THAT EL SALVADOR'S UNJUST AND REPRESSIVE SOCIO-ECONOMIC STRUCTURE WILL BE CHANGED IN THEIR FAVOR. THE PEOPLE ALSO SEEM TO UNDERSTAND THAT MARXIST TERRORISTS ARE JF T AS LETHAL AS THE RIGHTIST DEATH SQUADS THAT HAVE VICTIMIZED THEM FOR SO LONG. OUR ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE HERE HAS BEEN MASSIVE OVER THE LAST YEAR AND HAS STRENGTHENED THE BEST ELEMENTS IN THE SALVADORAN GOVERNMENT; OUR MILITARY ASSISTANCE HAD BEEN LIMITED TO NON-LETHAL EQUIPMENT INTENDED TO STRENGTHEN THE COMMAND STRUCTURE AND LIMIT REPRESSIVE TENDENCIES IN THE BRUTAL AND CORRUPT SECURITY FORCES. NOW, IN RESPONSE TO FOREIGN-INTERVENTION, WE ARE RESUPPLYING THE ARMED FORCES TO MAKE UP THE DRAWDOWN OF THEIR STOCKS OCCASIONED BY THE LEFTISTS' "FINAL OFFENSIVE." THE SALVADORAN ARMED FORCES ARE DETERMINED THAT OUR LAST MINUTE MILITARY SUPPORT NOT TAKE CREDIT AWAY FROM THEIR VICTORY OVER A FOREIGN-SUPPLIED AND TRAINED GUERRILLA FORCE. WE MUST CONTINUE TO CALIBRATE OUR MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO EL SALVADOR TO STRENGTHEN THE CIVILIANS AND MODERATE MILITARY OFFICERS IN THEIR STRUGGLE TO CONTROL REPRESSIVE ELEMENTS IN THE SECURITY FORCES. THE RETURNABF RIGHTIST EMIGRES ASSOCIATED WITH DEATH SQUADS AND RESPONSIBLE FOR DECADES OF CORRUPTION OF THE SECURITY FORCES COUND LEAD TO A RIGHTIST-SPONSORED MASSACRE AND THE RECRUDESCENCE OF THE LEFT. IN THE END, A FUTILE EFFORT TO REIMPOSE A DISCREDITED AND ANACHRON-

ISTIC SOCIO-ECONOMIC STRUCTURE, WHATEVER THE LEVEL OF FOREIGN SUPPORT OR PARTICIPATION, WOULD RESULT IN A LEFTIST VICTORY BUT ONLY AFTER A BLOODY CIVIL WAR. WE SHOULD REFLECT CAREZALLY ON THIS SCENARIO IN CONSIDERING FUTURE U.S. POLICY TOWARD EL SALVADOR. THE LESSON TO BE LEARNED FROM THE PAST YEAR HERE IS THAT IT IS UNNECESSARY AND EVEN COUNTERPRODUCTIVE TO FURNISH MILLIONS IN MILITARY ASSISTANCE, TO SEND DOZENS OF MILITARY ADVISORS OR TO SPONSOR "SPECIAL OPERATIONS." WHAT IS NEEDED TO DEFEAT THE MARXIST-LENINISTS IN CENTRAL AMERICA IS SOLID U.S. BACKING FOR GOOD GOVERNMENT THROUGH EFFECTIVE

DIPLOMACY--AN EMBASSY SPEAKING WITH ONE VOICE AND AN AID PROGRAM THAT GIVES A GOVERNMENT THE TOOLS IT NEEDS TO BETTER THE LIVES OF THE PEOPLE. THAT IS HOW A DEMOCRACY FIGHTS COMMUNISM. AND IT WORKS. END SUMMARY.

3. UNLESS FOREIGN NATIONS INTERVENE MASSIVELY AND SOON, THE REVOLUTIONARY GOVERNING JUNTA OF EL SALVADOR (JRG) HAS NOW DEFEATED THE VAUNTED "FINAL OFFENSIVE" OF THE INDIGENOUS MARXIST/LENINIST GUERRILLA ORGANIZATIONS DESPITE HEAVY DOSES OF PROPAGANDA, SUPPLIES AND TRAINING PROVIDED BY EXTERNAL COMMUNIST SOURCES. THE JRG PREVAILED BECAUSE THE MAJORITY OF SALVADORANS HAVE LOST THEIR SYMPATHY FOR THE LEFTIST MOVEMENT AND, WHILE THEY MAY NOT SUPPORT THE GOVERNMENT YET, THEY HAVE DONE NOTHING TO IMPEDE ITS EFFORTS TO SUPPRESS THE LEFTIST OFFENSIVE. MOREOVER, THEY MADE THE LEFTISTS' GENERAL STRIKE A TOTAL FAILURE DESPITE DESPERATE PROPAGANDA EFFORTS ABROAD TO QUALIFY IT AS A "PARTIAL SUCCESS." WELL-ARMED AND TRAINED LEFTIST GUERRILLAS ARE STILL ABLE TO ATTACK SMALL POPULATION CENTERS IN SCATTERED AREAS OF THE COUNTRY. BUT SINCE THE WIDESPREAD AND COORDINATED SERIES OF ATTACKS ON MAJOR CITIES, INCLUDING POOR AREAS OF THE CAPITAL, ON THE NIGHT OF JANUARY 10, THE GUERRILLAS HAVE HAD NO SUCCESS IN TAKING OR HOLDING TERRITORY FOR ANYTHING MORE THAN A FEW HOURS, I.E., ANY TAKEOVER IS TERMINATED BY THE ARRIVAL OF ARMY REINFORCEMENTS WITHIN A FEW HOURS.

[redacted]

EVEN SOME WESTERN PRESS SOURCES CONTINUE TO DESCRIBE THIS AS EVIDENCE THAT THE GOVERNMENT DOES NOT CONTROL THE WHOLE TERRITORY BUT THE FACT THAT NO GUERRILLA ENCLAVE EXISTS AND THAT THE LEFTISTS WERE UNABLE TO DECLARE A GOVERNMENT INSIDE THE COUNTRY, AS THEY PROMISED, PROVES THE FAILURE OF THE MAIN POLITICAL/DIPLOMATIC PURPOSE OF THE OFFENSIVE.

4. HOW DID THE OFFENSIVE PROCEED? FOR SEVERAL MONTHS THE LEFTIST TERRORIST GROUPS HAVE BEEN THREATENING A "FINAL OFFENSIVE, GENERAL STRIKE AND MASS INSURRECTION" THAT WOULD SWEEP AWAY THE JRG AND LEAVE THEM IN CONTROL OF E SALVADOR. UNDER HEAVY PRESSURE FROM THE CUBANS AND OTHER COMMUNIST BACKERS, THE DISPARATE LEFTIST ORGANIZATIONS, BOTH THE GUERRILLAS AND THEIR ALLEGEDLY PEACEFUL FRONT ORGANIZATIONS, WERE MELDED FIRST INTO TWO LARGE UNITS AND FINALLY INTO ONE SUPPOSEDLY MONOLITHIC COALITION

THE FARABUNDO MARTI LIBERATION MOVEMENT (FMLN), NOW HEADED BY DR. GUILLERMO MANUEL UNGO, IS THE NEW HOLDING COMPANY FOR WHAT HAD BEEN TWO OSTENSIBLY SEPARATE ORGANIZATIONS THAT HAVE CONDUCTED POLITICAL AGITATION AND TERRORISM RESPECTIVELY FOR THE LAST SIX MONTHS. THE ALLEGEDLY PEACEFUL DEMOCRATIC REVOLUTIONARY FRONT (FDR) HEADED BY DR. UNGO AND THE ARMED, TERRORIST UNIFIED REVOLUTIONARY DIRECTORATE (DRU), HEADED BY CAYETANO CARPIO.

5. ONCE THE UMBRELLA COALITION WAS IN PLACE, I.E. IN EARLY DECEMBER, A GRAND ORCHESTRATED CAMPAIGN OF INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL PROPAGANDA BEGAN TO PROMISE A FINAL FMLN OFFENSIVE THAT WOULD BE ACCOMPANIED BY MASS INSURRECTION. 5*3 7)?3*8,5 2- :)3-4)6 THAT USED AGAINST SOMOZA'S NICARAGUA IN WHICH AN ENTIRE PEOPLE ROSE UP AGAINST A HATED DICTATOR WHO BY THEN HAD BECOME ISOLATED INTERNATIONALLY AND INTERNALLY BY A DOCUMENTED SERIES OF OUTRAGES

AGAINST THE POPULATION. LEFTIST PROPAGANDA AGAINST EL SALVADOR ATTEMPTED TO CAPITALIZE ON A SERIES OF APPALLING VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS CONNECTED WITH OR DIRECTLY CHARGEABLE TO BRUTAL AND VICIOUS ELEMENTS WITHIN THE SECURITY FORCES WHICH HAD REMAINED LARGELY OUT OF THE CONTROL OF THE JRG. A WORLDWIDE CAMPAIGN OF IFAMATION OFFERED AMPLE EVIDENCE OF SECURITY FORCE EXCESSES THAT INCREASED THE DIPLOMATIC ISOLATION OF THE JRG, ESPECIALLY FROM SUCH IMPORTANT EUROPEAN COUNTRIES AS GERMANY, FRANCE AND SPAIN. THE MURDER OF THE AMERICAN CHURCHWOMEN IN EARLY DECEMBER, WHICH WAS CERTAINLY THE WORK OF THE SALVADORAN SECURITY FORCES ALMOST COMPLETED THE JRG'S DIPLOMATIC ALIENATION, EVEN FROM ITS MOST IMPORTANT INTERNATIONAL SUPPORTER, THE USG.

6. AT THIS POINT, UNDER INTENSE PRESSURE FROM THE USG, VENEZUELA AND OTHER SYMPATHETIC BUT OFFENDED DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENTS, THE JRG AT LAST MOVED TO BEGIN TO ROOT OUT THE CANCER THAT HAD SO WEAKENED THE ANTI-COMMUNIST POSITION IN THIS COUNTRY THROUGHOUT THE LAST YEAR. THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS IN THE REGIME THREATENED TO WALK OUT UNLESS THE MINISTRY OF DEFENSE RESTRUCTURED ITSELF IN A WAY THAT REMOVED FROM COMMAND THE WORST OFFENDERS IN THE SECURITY FORCES. THE PDC ALSO ASKED THAT THE OFFICER CORPS PLEDGE ARMED FORCE COMMITMENT TO THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE SWEEPING

REFORM PROGRAM THAT HAD SUCCEEDED IN WEANING PUBLIC SUPPORT AWAY FROM THE LEFT SO DRAMATICALLY SINCE ITS INCEPTION IN MARCH 1980. BOTH STEPS WERE TAKEN FOLLOWING A CONSULTATION OF ALL MILITARY OFFICERS. SUBSEQUENT RENEWAL OF U.S. ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE GAVE THE JRG A NEW LEASE ON LIFE AT A CRITICAL JUNCTURE AND ITS PROMISES TO REFORM THE COMMAND STRUCTURE, INVESTIGATE THE DEATHS OF THE CHURCHWOMEN AND BRING RIGHTIST DEATH SQUADS UNDER CONTROL RENEWED HOPES HERE AND ABROAD THAT A DECENT REFORM

GOVERNMENT COMMITTED TO DEMOCRATIZATION COULD BE PUT BACK ON TRACK BEFORE THE "FINAL ASSAULT."

7. WEEKS OF MOUNTING AND CLEARLY ORCHESTRATED PROPAGANDA, SUPPLEMENTED OVER THE LAST TWO MONTHS BY LARGE CLANDESTINE SHIPMENTS OF SOPHISTICATED NEW WAR SUPPLIES, CULMINATED IN THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE GREAT OFFENSIVE ON THE EVENING OF JANUARY 10TH. FOR SEVERAL DAYS, THE LEFTIST NEWSPAPER EL INDEPENDIENTE HAD PUBLISHED ELABORATE INSTRUCTIONS TELLING THE POPULATION HOW TO PARTICIPATE IN THE INSURRECTION, E.G., BY FABRICATING MOLOTOV COCKTAILS AT HOME, PREPARING BOARDS FULL OF NAILS TO THROW IN THE STREETS BEFORE THE ARMY CONVOYS, PAINTING DEATHS HEADS ON THE HOUSES OF SUSPECTED GOVERNMENT INFORMERS, ETC. A CLANDESTINE RADIO TRANSMITTER LOCATED IN NICARAGUA WENT ON THE AIR SEVERAL DAYS BEFORE THE OFFENSIVE WITH THE SAME KINDS OF INSTRUCTION AND INCITATIONS TO INSURRECTION. FOUR LOCAL RADIO STATIONS WERE SEIZED AT DUSK ON SATURDAY, JANUARY 10 AND THE POPULATION WAS CALLED TO ARMS. MEANWHILE, COORDINATED GUERRILLA ATTACKS TOOK PLACE IN MANY AREAS OF THE COUNTRY, INCLUDING AN ASSAULT ON THE MAIN AIR FORCE BASE AT ILOPANGO, A MUTINY IN THE SANTA ANA BARRACKS AND GUERRILLA ASSAULTS ON A LONG LIST OF SMALL MILITARY POSTS IN WIDESPREAD AREAS OF THE COUNTRY

8. BY 11:00 P.M. THE OFFENSIVE HAD LARGELY SPENT ITSELF. THERE WAS NO MASS UPRISING. ON THE CONTRARY, THE GUERRILLAS RECEIVED LITTLE OR NO ENCOURAGEMENT EVEN IN THE MOST IMPOVERISHED AND ALIENATED DISTRICTS OF SAN SALVADOR WHERE TERRORIST INCIDENTS HAVE OCCURRED ALMOST NIGHTLY OVER THE LAST YEAR. ON SUNDAY, GOVERNMENT CONTROL WAS

CENTERS, STILL WITH NO EVIDENCE OF PUBLIC SYMPATHY FOR THE LEFTIST INSURGENTSYM THE GENERAL STRIKES CALLED FOR MONDAHGN JANUARY 12TH, THEN TUESDAY, JANUARY 13TH AND LAST, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 14TH WERE UNIFORMLY IGNORED BY 90 PERCENT OR MORE OF THE WORKING POPULATION. ONLY TWO FACTORIES WERE CLOSED IN SAN SALVADOR ON THE FIRST DAY AND THEY REOPENED AT NOON: BUSES WERE OFF THE STREETS FOR SEVERAL HOURS ONEMONDAY AND TUESDAY MORNINGS IN RESPONSE TO TERRORIST THREATS THAT THEY WOULD BE BURNED ON SIGHT BUT SERVICE WAS RESTORED BY MID-MORNING BOTH DAYS: HUNDREDS OF FOREIGN JOURNALISTS HERE FOR THE FINAL OFFENSIVE COULD FIND GUERRILLA ATTACKS UNDER WAY IN REMOTE AREAS OF THE COUNTRY BUT NO EVIDENCE OF ANY SUPPORT FOR THE GENERAL STRIKE. NONETHELESS, COMMUNIST CONTROLLED AND INFLUENCED NEWS ORGANIZATIONS, CONSISTENT WITH THEIR EARLIER PROPAGANDA, REPORTED THAT VAST AREAS OF THE COUNTRY INCLUDING MAJOR POPULATION CENTERS WERE UNDER GUERRILLA CONTROL AND THAT THE WHOLE COUNTRY WAS WRACKED BY INSURRECTION, GENERAL STRIKES AND HAND-TO-HAND FIGHTING. ALL OF THIS WAS UNTRUE AND ULTIMATELY THE INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICES ESTABLISHED WHAT WAS REALLY HAPPENING IN EL SALVADOR FOR READERS AND LISTENERS NOT UNDER COMMUNIST CONTROL.

9. IN THE MIDST OF THE GENERAL OFFENSIVE THE UNITED STATES ANNOUNCED RENEWAL OF MILITARY ASSISTANCE WHICH HAD BEEN SUSPENDED FOLLOWING THE DEATHS OF THE AMERICAN CHURCHWOMEN AND PENDING THE COMMAND SHIFTS, PURSUIT OF INVESTIGATIONS AND ATTEMPT TO CONTROL RIGHTIST VIOLENCE THAT THE JRG HAD PROMISED. A FURTHER PRESSING DECISION FOR THE USG WAS WHETHER TO RENEW LETHAL MILITARY ASSISTANCE WHICH HAD ENDED IN 1977 WHEN THE ROMERO REGIME REFUSED U.S. MILITARY AID IN ANGER OVER HUMAN RIGHTS RESTRICTIONS ON ITS USE.
THE OFFENSIVE FROM THE LEFT, ALTHOUGH OF RELATIVELY BRIEF DURATION, WAS SUFFICIENTLY INTENSIVE TO RUN DOWN STOCKS OF SALVADORAN AMMUNITION AND OTHER MATERIEL. THE MOST PRESSING NEED WAS FOR SMALL ARMS AMMUNITION. ON FRIDAY EVENING, JANUARY 17TH, I INFORMED JUNTA PRESIDENT NAPOLEON DUARTE THAT THE UNITED STATES WOULD RENEW LETHAL MILITARY ASSISTANCE IN RESPONSE TO THE JRG'S REQUEST FOR EMERGENCY REPLACEMENT OF DEPLETED AMMUNITION STOCKS. DUARTE ACCEPTED THE OFFER WITH SOME RESERVE, ASKING THAT MINIMAL PUBLICITY BE GIVEN AND THAT U.S. MILITARY ADVISORS NOT BE SENT TO EL SALVADOR EXCEPT AS TECHNICIANS PERFORMING REQUIRED PILOT OR MAINTENANCE INSRUCTION FOR THE SALVADORAN AIR FORCE. DEFENSE MINISTER GARCIA HAS EXPRESSED THE SAME CONCERNS TO U.S. OFFICERS.

10. MEANWHILE, THE SALVADORAN NATIONAL RADIO, WHICH HAS MONOPOLIZED ALL BROADCAST TIME SINCE THE OPENING OF THE OFFENSIVE ON JANUARY 10TH, SPENT THIS WEEKEND ASSURING THE POPULATION THAT THE GUERRILLAS HAD BEEN DEFEATED UNILATERALLY BY THE ARMED FORCES AND REFORM GOVERNMENT WHICH ENJOY FULL PUBLIC SUPPORT AND ARE MORE THAN CAPABLE OF DEFENDING THE NATIONAL TERRORITY. THESE BROADCASTS MADE CLEAR THAT THE JRG HAD DEFEAT D THE GUERRILLAS BECAUSE THE PUBLIC WAS ON ITS SIDE AND THAT THE ARMED FORCES NEEDED NO OUTSIDE HELP IN CONTAINING THE LEFTIST OFFENSIVE SO LONG AS FOREIGN INTERVENTION WAS CURBED. THE DOMESTIC PRESS AND RADIO HAS MADE MUCH OF EVIDENCE OF FOREIGN SUPPORT FOR THE LEFT IN THE FORM OF CAPTURED WEAPONS, INCLUDING LIGHT ARTILLERY, AND THE BARRAGE OF PROPAGANDA AND DISINFORMATION FROM RADIO MOSCOW, HAVANA AND MANAGUA. THESE JRG BROADCASTS AND STORIES EXPLOITED HEAVY NATIONALIST CHORDS AND SEEM TO HAVE HAD A STRONG PUBLIC IMPACT.

11. COMMENT: IN THE LAST HOURS OF THE CARTER ADMINISTRATION AND ON THE INAUGURATION DAY OF PRESIDENT REAGAN, IT IS IMPORTANT TO TRY TO UNDERSTAND WHY THE JRG HAS SUCCEEDED IN DEFEATING AKONCERTED LEFTIST CONSPIRACY TO SEIZE POWER IN EL SALVADOR. IT IS CRUCIAL TO COMPREHEND THAT THIS

[redacted]

GOVERNMENT HAS GIVEN HOPE TO AN ENTIRE PEOPLE THAT THE GROSS INJUSTICES AND ABUSES OF THE LAST 50 YEARS ARE COMING TO AN END AND THAT LIFE WILL IMPROVE FOR THE 90 PCT OF THE POPULATION WHO LIVED HERE IN NEAR FEUDAL SERVITUDE UNTIL THE REVOLUTION OF 1979. ONLY TEN MONTHS AGO, VAST LEFTIST FRONT ORGANIZATIONS COULD MASS AS MANY AS 200,000 PEOPLE IN THE STREETS OF SAN SALVADOR; THEY COULD TAKE OVER GOVERNMENT MINISTRIES, FOREIGN EMBASSIES AND THE NATIONAL UNIVERSITY IN UTTER DEFIANCE OF AN INDECISIVE NEW REGIME THAT PROMISED PROGRESS BUT WAS INEPT AND WEAK. IT WAS ALSO VIOLENTLY OPPOSED BY THE FAR RIGHT FROM EXILE IN MIAMI AND GUATEMALA. IN THE FACE OF BRUTAL ATTACK FROM BOTH EXTREMES THE JRG WENT AHEAD WITH A SERIES OF SWEEPING SOCIAL REFORMS THAT DESTROYED THE POWER BASE OF THE FAR LEFT AND THE MONOPOLY POSITION OF THE FAR RIGHT IN THIS COUNTRY, PERHAPS FOREVER. THE REFORMS HAVE SAVED THE CENTER IN EL SALVADOR. IT WAS THE REFORMS THAT MADE THE PEOPLE BREAK WITH THE LEFT. THE REFORMS RESULTED IN THE INCREASING VIOLENCE AGAINST THE PEOPLE BY BOTH EXTREMIST GROUPS, AND COMPLETED THE ALIENATION OF THE MASSES FROM BOTH FACTIONS. THE FAR RIGHT'S VICIOUS TERRORISM AGAINST THE CENTER AS WELL AS UNARMED LEFTIST SYMPATHIZERS BLACKENED THE NAME OF THE JRG ABROAD BECAUSE SOME OF THESE RIGHTIST ELEMENTS HAD CONNECTIONS WITH THE SECURITY FORCES. MILITARY AND CIVILIAN MODERATES WERE UNABLE OR AFRAID TO BREAK THESE LINKS. THE EXCESSES OF THE SECURITY FORCES AND THE DEPREDATIONS OF THE RIGHT-WING DEATH SQUADS THREATENED TO DESTROY THE JRG AS A GOVERNMENT AND TO ISOLATE IT TOTALLY FROM THE REST OF THE WORLD. ONLY THE CRISIS PROVOKED BY THE MURDERS OF THE FOR LEADERS FOLLOWED BY THOSE OF THE AMERICAN CHURCHWOMEN REVERSED THIS FATAL SLIDE TOWARD RUIN.

12. OVER THE LAST YEAR, THE JRG'S DEFEAT OF THREE ATTEMPTED RIGHT-WING COUPS, FINANCED BY EXILES IN GUATEMALA AND MIAMI AND LED BY THEIR CHOSEN INSTRUMENT, THE PSYCHOTIC MAJOR D'AUBUISSON, HELPED CONVINCE THE MASS O

THE POPULATION THAT THE JRG MEANT TO CONTINUE ITS COURSE TOWARD DEMOCRATIZATION, ECONOMIC/SOCIAL JUSTICE AND CONTROL OF REPRESSIVE FORCES IN THE MILITARY. THE SHIFTS IN THE COMMAND STRUCTURE OF LATE DECEMBER, THE RENEWED COMMITMENT TO AGRARIAN REFORM FOLLOWING THE BRUTAL MURDERS OF ADOLFO VIERA AND HIS TWO AMERICAN ADVISORS AND THE RENEWAL OF U.S. ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE IN RESPONSE TO THE JRG'S PROMISES TO CONTROL RIGHTIST EXCESS, REASSURED THE POPULATION THAT REFORMS WOULD BE MAINTAINED. ON THE VERGE OF THE "FINAL OFFENSIVE" PEOPLE STILL BELIEVED THIS GOVERNMENT COULD BE EXPECTED TO CONTINUE TO PURSUE THE COURSE THAT HAS DRAWN AWAY SUPPORT AND SYMPATHY FROM THE LEFT AND THAT HAS ISOLATED THE TERRORISTS OF THE FAR RIGHT AND FAR LEFT AS CRIMINAL ELEMENTS BENT ON OVERTHROWING A MODERATE

RESPONSIBLE GOVERNMENT. ON THE EVENING OF JANUARY 10TH, WHEN THE RADIO STATIONS WERE SEIZED AND THE PEOPLE CALLED UPON TO RISE, NO ONE SPOKE UP. THE LEFTISTS HAVE REVEALED THEMSELVES TO BE IRRESPONSIBLE, FOREIGN-DIRECTED TERRORISTS AND PEOPLE KNOW IT. THEY STAYED OFF THE STREETS AFTER DARK, NOT MERELY IN RESPONSE TO THE 7:00 P.M. CURFEW BUT BECAUSE THEY WANTED NO INVOLVEMENT IN THE ALLEGED INSURRECTION. PEOPLE WENT TO WORK ON MONDAY MORNING NOT MERELY BECAUSE THE GOVERNMENT EXHORTED THEM TO DO SO, BUT BECAUSE THEY WANTED TO KEEP THEIR JOBS AND HELP END THE ECONOMIC CRISIS THAT THE FAR RIGHT AND FAR LEFT HAVE VISITED ON THIS COUNTRY.

13. IT IS COMMON KNOWLEDGE HERE THAT THE BOMBINGS OF FACTORIES AND OFFICES, KILLINGS OF LABOR LEADERS AND TECHNICIANS, AND KIDNAPPINGS OF MODERATE BUSINESSMEN AND GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS ARE THE WORK OF BOTH THE FAR RIGHT AND THE FAR LEFT. VICIOUS GANGS OF SELF-RULED TERRORISTS, OF THE FAR RIGHT AND FAR LEFT, ARE OPERATING IN FOREIGN CITIES AND

[redacted]

ARE SPONSORING THE DESTRUCTION OF THIS COUNTRY IN ORDER TO REBUILD IT ACCORDING TO THEIR BLUEPRINT WHEN ITS RUIN IS TOTAL.

14. HOW SHOULD THE UNITED STATES PROCEED IN THE FACE OF THE SUCCESS THIS LAST WEEK OF THE MODERATE FORCES IN EL SALVADOR AGAINST THE LEFTIST FINAL OFFENSIVE AND LAST MONTH AGAINST A THIRD RIGGT-WING COUP ATTEMPT? WHY HAVE RIGHTIST TERROR AND LEFTIST INSURRECTION FAILED TO DESTROY THE JRG? WE MUST UNDERSTAND THAT THE COMPLEX EQUATION THAT OPERATES IN THIS COUNTRY HAS SEVERAL POTENTIALLY EXPLOSIVE COMPONENTS, NAMELY THE FAR RIGHT AND FAR LEFT. EL SALVADOR'S MODERATE CIVILIAN/MILITARY LEADERSHIP MUST BE SUPPORTED IN ITS ATTEMPT TO CONTROL EXTREMISTS ON BOTH SIDES AND DEMOCRATIC COUNTRIES TRYING TO HELP THE JRG SHOULD LIMIT THEIR INSIDE PARTICIPATION AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE IN ORDER TO REINFORCE THE MODERATE TENDENCIES OF THE JRG. THE MODERATES ARE SUCCEEDING IN THEIR STRUGGLE TO FIND A PEACEFUL SOLUTION WITHOUT A CIVIL WAR. WE HAVE DENIED THE JRG MILITARY ASISTANCE ON ANY IMPORTANT SCALE FOR THE EXCELLENT REASON THAT WITHOUT FIRM MODERATE CONTROL OF THE MEANS OF REPRESSION IT WOULD LIKELY BE USED IN CONDEMNABLE EXCESSES THAT WOULD BRING OUR COUNTRY AS WELL AS THEIRS INTO DISREPUTE. ONLY ABOUT HALF OF THE NON-LETHAL ASSISTANCE IN COMMUNICATIONS AND TRANSPORT PROGRAMMED FOR LAST FISCAL YEAR HAS EVEN REACHED THIS COUNTRY. NEW LETHAL ASSISTANCE HAS JUST BEGUN TO ARRIVE IN RESPONSE TO PRESIDENT CARTER'S DECISION OF JANUARY 16TH. THE SALVADORAN ARMED FORCES ARE COMPLETELY TRUTHFUL. THEREFORE, IN ANNOUNCING TO THE PEOPLE THAT THEY HAVE PUT DOWN A FOREIGN-SPONSORED, TRAINED, DIRECTED AND SUPPLIED COMMUNIST OFFENSIVE USING ONLY THEIR OWN RESOURCES. THIS IS AN IMPORTANT NATIONALIST CONSIDERATION. THE REINFORCEMENT WE ARE NOW PROVIDING WILL REPLACE SALVADORAN AMMUNITION AND MATERIEL USED IN DEFEATING THE LEFTISTS OVER ONE LAST WEEK. WE SHOULD ENSURE THAT IT NOT BE USED IN A GENERAL CAMPAIGN TO ERADICATE THE LEFT WHI

BY HARSH "SEARCH AND DESTROY" MEASURES.

15. THE MATANZA (MASSACRE) SO EARNESTLY SOUGHT BY THE FAR RIGHT MUST BE AVOIDED FOR IT WOULD SURELY BRING ULTIMATE VICTORY TO THE FAR LEFT GUERRILLAS WHO ARE NOW IN DEFEAT BECAUSE THE PEOPLE HAVE ABANDONED
THEIR CAUSE. TO BRING BACK
THE PATRONS OF RIGHT-WING TERRORISM FROM THEIR SELF-IMPOSED EXILE, TO ATTEMPT TO INSTALL THEM IN POWER ONCE AGAIN OR TO ABET THEIR CAMPAIGN TO DISMANTLE THE JRG'S REFORM PROGRAM B INSTALLING A MILITARY DICTATOR UNDER THEIR TUTELAGE, WOULD FOLLY ON OUR PART. SOONER OR LATER, PROBABLY AFTER A BLOODY REGIONAL WAR, THE LEFT WOULD WIN BECAUSE CENTRAL AMERICA'S ANACHRONISTIC STRUCTURE OF DECADES PAST CANNOT BE REIMPOSED HERE BY ANY NUMBER OF TROOPS, FOREIGN OR DOMESTIC. EL SALVA WAS ON THE VERGE OF FALLING TO MARXISTS-LENINISTS A YEAR AGO BECAUSE INSURRECTION SEEMED T ONLY HOPE FOR CHANGE AND PROGRESS. A SMALL, WILFUL GROUP OF AMORAL OLIGARCHS AND TERRORIST ACCOMPLICES IN THE SECURITY FORCES HAD STAVED OFF CHANGE HERE FOR DECADES AT THE COST OF MOUNTING SOCIAL TENS THAT FINALLY THREATENED TO BLOW THE SOCIETY APART. MARXIST REVOLUTION WAS JUST ABOUT TO TAKE POWER LAST YEAR FOR THE SIMPLE REASON THAT IT SEEMED THE ONLY ALTERNATIVE TO THE MALFEASANCE AND CRUELTY OF THE SMALL GROUP WHICH CONTROLLED THIS COUNTRY. WHEN A GROUP OF MODERATE MILITARY OFFICERS AND PROGRESSIVE CIVILIANS SEIZED POWER IN OCTOBER 1979, THE FORMER OWNERS OF THIS COUNTRY FLED IN UNDIGNIFIED HASTE TO GUATEMALA AND MIAMI. FROM THERE THEY HAVE SPONSORE AND DIRECTED A TERRORIST CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE MODERATE

CENTRIST FORCES IN THIS COUNTRY. THAT CAMPAIGN HAS CLAIMED THOUSANDS OF LIVES. THEIR ROLE IS WELL KNOWN HERE.

16. OVER THE INTERVENING TEN MONTHS, THROUGH SWEEPING

[redacted]

REFORMS OF THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL STRUCTURE, AN ESSENTIALLY MIDDLE CLASS GROUP OF OFFICERS AND CIVILIANS, AT GREAT RISK TO THEIR OWN LIVES, HAS FOUGHT TO DRAW THE PEOPLE BACK. THEY HAVE FOUGHT TO DETACH THE MASSES FROM A MARXIST MOVEMENT THAT, IN THE FACE OF DWINDLING PUBLIC SUPPORT, HAS RESORTED TO TERRORISM AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT, AND, INCREASINGLY, AGAINST THE PEOPLE THEMSELVES. THE TERRORISTS OF THE RIGHT AND LEFT HAVE MURDERED AND ALIENATED THE POPULATION OF THIS COUNTRY. UNLESS ONE OR THE OTHER OF THESE EXTREMIST FACTIONS SEEMS ON THE POINT OF GAINING POWER, THE JRG WILL CONTINUE TO EXPAND ITS BASE AMOUNG THE POPULATION AND WILL REBUILD THE SHATTERED STRUCTURE OF SALVADORAN SOCIETY ON A NEW FOUNDATION.

17. U.S. ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE IN THIS EFFORT IS VITAL AND SHOULD BE EXPANDED RAPIDLY IN ALL PRODUCTIVE SECTORS OF THIS ECONOMY. MILITARY ASSISTANCE SHOULD CONTINUE TO BE KEYED TO IMPROVEMENT IN HUMAN RIGHTS PERFORMANCE IN ORDER NOT TO STRENGTHEN THE REPRESSIVE TENDENCIES OF THOSE STILL IN THE SECURITY FORCES WHO RESPOND TO DIRECTION FROM RIGHTIST TERRORISTS. I WOULD ASK THE NEW ADMINISTRATION TO GIVE THE MOST CAREFUL CONSIDERATION TO THESE CONCERNS AND CALIBRATE FURTHER U.S. ASSISTANCE POLITICAL, MILITARY AND ECONOMIC, AS DELICATELY AS POSSIBLE IN ORDRE TO ENCOURAGE DEMOCRATIC, MODERATE AND PROGRESSIVE FORCES IN THIS COUNTRY TO SAVE IT AND THE REGION FROM TYRANNY OF THE LEFT OR RIGHT.

18. THE LEFT HERE HAS BEEN DEFEATED. NOT ONE AMERICAN CARTRIDGE WAS FIRED AND NOT ONE CENT OF LETHAL AMERICAN ASSISTANCE WAS USED. THE LESSON TO BE LEARNED FROM THE LAST YEAR IN EL SALVADOR IS THAT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO PROVIDE MILLIONS IN MILITARY ASSISTANCE, THAT IT IS COUNTER-PRODUCTIVE TO BRING IN DOZENS OF MILITARY ADVISORS, THAT DIRTY TRICKS ARE NOT NEEDED AND THAT IN CENTRAL AMERICA ALL THAT IS NECESSARY TO DEFEAT THE MARXIST-LENINISTS IS TO BACK

2. ON JAN. 23 LABOR ATTACHE MET WITH TWO MODERATE LEFTISTS TO DISCUSS THEIR PERCEPTIONS OF EL SALVADOR AFTER THE LEFTIST OFFENSIVE. BOTH EXPRESSED PLEASURE AT THE GUERRILLAS' DEFEAT AND THE RESUMPTION OF U.S. MILITARY AID. ONE COMMENTED THAT THE PROBLEM NOW IS TO GET THE STRUGGLE OUT OF THE MILITARY AND BACK TO THE POLITICAL ARENA.

3. BOTH BELIEVED THAT MANY OF THE MOST INFLUENTIAL SOCIALIST PARTY (MNR) MEMBERS ARE NOW READY TO CONSIDER LEAVING THE DEMOCRATIC REVOLUTIONARY FRONT (FDR). THE PROCESS WOULD HAVE TO BE A GRADUAL ONE WHICH WOULD AVOID AN ABRUPT BREAK. THEY STRESSED, BUT MANY OF THEIR MNR CONTACTS

4. ONE OF THE SOURCES REPORTED THAT HECTOR OQUELI, AN MNR MEMBER WHO WORKS FOR THE SOCIALIST INTERNATIONAL, BROKE WITH GUILLERMO UNGO WHEN THE LATTER ACCEPTED PRESIDENCY

1. [redacted] ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY

AMBASSADOR HARGAIN AND ACOSTA CALLED ON BUSHNELL AND BRIGGS ON JANUARY 26 TO DISCUSS SALVADOR. BUSHNELL COVERED RECENT U.S. ACTIONS AND SAID THEY WERE TAKEN IN RECOGNITION OF THE FACT THAT THE SITUATION IN EL SALVADOR NO LONGER CAN PROPERLY BE VIEWED AS STRICTLY A DONESTIC SALVADORAN PROBLEM. HARGAIN PASSED ALONG UNGO'S REQUEST TO CASTANEDA FOR DIRECT, HIGH-LEVEL TALKS WITH USG. BUSHNELL EXPLAINED THAT THIS MIGHT BE UNDESIRABLE SINCE IT WOULD PUT THE U.S. IN THE MIDDLE OF THE SALVADORAN DISPUTE. HARGAIN [redacted]

3. MEXICAN AMBASSADOR MARGAIN, ACCOMPANIED BY MINISTER COUNSELOR ACOSTA, AT OURSUGGESTIONCALLEDTODAY ON ACTING ASSISTANT SECRETARY BUSHNELL AND COUNTRY

DIRECTOR BRIGGS FOR A REVIEW OF THE SALVADORAN SITUATION. BUSHNELL EXPLAINED THAT THE PURPOSE OF THE REVIEW WAS TO GIVE EFFECT TO BOTH SIDES' STATED INTENTION TO CONSULT CLOSELY ON EVENTS IN CENTRAL AMERICA.

4. BUSHNELL BEGAN BY SAYING THAT U.S. POLICY TOWARD EL SALVADOR WAS UNDER ACTIVE REVIEW BY THE NEW ADMINISTRATION. THE VIEWS HE WOULD EXPRESS WERE THEREFORE PRELIMINARY TO A COMPLETION OF THAT REVIEW. THE PURPOSE OF CONSULTING WITH MEXICO WAS TO GIVE EFFECT TO THE UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN PRESIDENT LOPEZ PORTILLO AND THEN PRESIDENT-ELECT REAGAN WHEN THEY MET IN JUAREZ, THAT WE SHOULD KEEP IN CLOSE TOUCH ON EVENTS IN CENTRAL AMERICA.

5. BUSHNELL SAID THERE WERE TWO WAYS TO LOOK AT EL SALVADOR: AS AN INTERNAL PROBLEM OR AS AN INTERNATIONAL TROUBLE SPOT. UNTIL RECENTLY BOTH MEXICO AND THE U.S. HAD FOCUSED MORE ON THE FORMER. THE FACT OF LARGE-SCALE EXTERNAL SUPPORT TO THE GUERRILLAS HAD FORCED US TO TAKE ANOTHER LOOK, AND TO CONSIDER SERIOUSLY THE IMPLICATIONS FOR MAINTAINING PEACE AND STABILITY IN THE REGION.

6. THE CURRENT SITUATION IN EL SALVADOR IS REMINISCENT

OF WHAT HAPPENED IN MAY-JUNE 1979, WHEN CUBA OPENED A MAJOR, DIRECT SUPPLY LINE TO NICARAGUA. MATERIEL IS NOW BEING FUNNELED TO EL SALVADOR BY AIR, SEA, AND ACROSS HONDURAS. THE GUERRILLAS ARE INCREASINGLY USING SOPHISTICATED WEAPONS, SOME OF RUSSIAN MANUFACTURE (WHICH NEVER OCCURRED IN NICARAGUA). MOST, HOWEVER, ARE AMERICAN, SOME OF WHICH HAVE BEEN TRACED TO WHAT WE LEFT BEHIND IN VIETNAM. THIS EQUIPMENT INCLUDES ITEMS THE SALVADORAN MILITARY NEVER HAD, AND RAISES THE QUESTION: WHEN THERE IS INTERVENTION,

WHAT SHOULD THE U.S. DO?

7. BUSHNELL SAID THAT WE HAD ONLY DELIVERED A VERY SMALL AMOUNT OF EQUIPMENT TO SALVADOR IN THE RECENT PAST, PRINCIPALLY $1 MILLION WORTH OF COMMUNICATIONS GEAR AND A MILLION OR SO WORTH OF MEDICAL SUPPLIES AND PERSONAL EQUIPMENT. IN 1980 $5 MILLION WERE OBLIGATED, OF WHICH HALF WAS FOR TRUCKS (ONLY NOW ABOUT TO BE DELIVERED). THE POINT WAS THAT THE SALVADORAN MILITARY ON THEIR OWN HAD SUCCEEDED IN BLOCKING THE LEFTIST OFFENSIVE, BUT ESCALATION BY THEGUERRILLAS THANKS TO EXTERNAL SUPPORT LEFT THE JRG IN NEED OF ADDITIONAL SUPPLIES. HENCE THE CARTER ADMINISTRATION HAD DECIDED TO PROVIDE CERTAIN LETHAL WEAPONS ($3-4 MILLION IN M-16S, AMMUNITION, GRENADES AND LAUNCHERS) PLUS SIX HELICOPTERS -- DELIVERED BY AIR QUICKLY TO BALANCE THE EQUATION.

8. BUSHNELL SAID NO ONE IN THE USG WANTS TO BE IN THE POSITION OF -- OR TO BE SEEN AS -- WAGING A PROXY WAR. WHAT WE WANT IS FOR EXTERNAL SUPPORT TO SALVADORAN GUERRILLAS TO CEASE. TO DATE THIS HAS NOT HAPPENED. THE HONDURANS HAD JUST DISCOVERED A HUGE CACHE OF WEAPONS, DESTINED FOR THE GUERRILLAS. PERHAPS MEXICO'S INTELLIGENCE ALREADY KNEW THESE THINGS.

9. AS FAR AS THE USG KNOWS, NEITHER GUATEMALA NOR HONDURAS HAVE INTERVENED TO DATE. THE GOG IS TRYING TO CURTAIL THE USE OF ITS TERRITORY BY REBEL GROUPS; AND ALTHOUGH THE SUPPOSITION IS THAT GUATEMALAN REBELS MAY BE IN EL SALVADOR FOR ON THE JOB TRAINING, THERE IS NO FIRM PROOF OF THIS.

10. REGARDING THE INTERNAL SITUATION, BUSHNELL REVIEWED THE CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE 1979 MILITARY COUP LED BY YOUNGER OFFICERS WHO DID NOT WANT TO SEE A REPEAT OF NICARAGUA, WHO THEN SOUGHT CIVILIAN PARTNERSHIP, WHICH PARTNERSHIP BROKE DOWN BECAUSE OF PERSONAL ANIMOSITIES AND AMBITIONS, WITH THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS EVENTUALLY ASSUMING A LEADERSHIP ROLE WITH THE MILITARY. HE EXPLAINED THE AGRARIAN REFORM IN DETAIL (WITH ACOSTA TAKING CAREFUL NOTE AND MARGAIN EXPRESSING WONDER).

11. MARGAIN THANKED BUSHNELL FOR THE BRIEFING. HE RECALLED THAT AT JUAREZ PRESIDENT-ELECT REAGAN AND LOPEZ PORTILLO HAD AGREED TO KEEP IN TOUCH ON THE SITUATION IN CENTRAL AMERICA. BOTH HAD AGREED IN PRINCIPLE THAT BOTH THE U.S. AND MEXICO SHOULD SUPPORT PEACE, SELF-DETERMINATION AND NON-INTERVENTION IN THE REGION. A WEEK AGO, HE SAID, FOR LEADERS AND UNGO HAD CALLED ON FOREIGN SECRETARY CASTANEDA AND ASKED HIM TO CONVEY THEIR INTEREST IN MEETING ANYWHERE, ANYTIME AND WITH ANYONE FROM THE USG TO TRY TO RESOLVE THE SALVADORAN CRISIS. MARGAIN SAID HE HAD MENTIONED THIS TO NSC ADVISER RICHARD ALLEN DURING THE INAUGURATION. ALTHOUGH THERE HAD BEEN

NO REPLY, ACCORDING TO THE PRESS THE USG POSITION WAS TO REFUSE SUCH CONTACTS.

12. MARGAIN SAID THAT CASTANEDA BELIEVES THE JUNTA HAS NO POPULAR SUPPORT. FURTHER, HE DOES NOT CONSIDER UNGO AND HIS ASSOCIATES TO BE MARXISTS. IN ANY EVENT, MEXICO'S POSITION IS TO LET THE SALVADORANS WORK OUT THEIR OWN PROBLEMS, WITHOUT INTERFERENCE FROM ABROAD. THIS WAS MEXICO'S EXPERIENCE DURING ITS OWN REVOLUTIONARY PERIOD. (BUSHNELL INTERJECTED: YOU MEXICANS DIDN'T HAVE THE CUBANS TRYING TO DETERMINE THE OUTCOME.) THE LAST THING MEXICO WANTS IS FOR ANY DIFFERENCES TO ARISE WITH THE U.S. OVER EL SALVADOR. "WE HAVE ENOUGH BILATERAL PROBLEMS ALREADY," HE SAID.

13. REGARDING A MEETING WITH UNGO, BUSHNELL SAID THIS WOULD BE DIFFICULT, SINCE THE U.S. POSITION IS THAT TALKS SHOULD TAKE PLACE DIRECTLY BETWEEN THE SALVADORANS THEMSELVES. THE U.S. CANNOT BE IN THE MIDDLE. THE JRG HAS SOUGHT PRECISELY SUCH A DIALOGUE, FOR WHICH THE CHURCH HAS OFFERED ITS GOOD OFFICES. SO FAR THE FDR HAS REFUSED. ONE OF THE PROBLEMS IS THAT SO MANY OF THE FDR LEADERS

ARE OUTSIDE THE COUNTRY, IN MEXICO, PANAMA AND ELSEWHERE. THOSE STILL IN SALVADOR ARE MORE APT TO BE MARXISTS, AND THERE IS NO WAY TO JUDGE HOW MUCH INFLUENCE UNGO AND ASSOCIATES MIGHT BE ABLE TO WIELD INSIDE SALVADOR. WHILE WE MIGHT POSSIBLY BE WILLING AT SOME TIME TO SIT DOWN WITH UNGO AND OTHER FDR LEADERS TO HEAR WHAT THEY HAVE TO SAY, WE OULD WANT THIS TO HAVE THE JRG'S PRIOR APPROVAL. WE WILL REVIEW THIS QUESTION.

14. MARGAIN SAID HE AGREED ENTIRELY WITH THE U.S.

POSITION, AS BUSHNELL HAD STATED IT. THE GOH HAD FELT OBLIGED TO TRANSMIT UNGO'S MESSAGE TO THE U.S., BUT IN FACT THE GOH HAD MADE EXACTLY THE SAME POINTS TO UNGO ABOUT ENTERING INTO DIRECT DIALOGUE WITH DUARTE. BUSHNELL SAID THAT EFFORTS WERE BEING MADE BY OTHERS -- VENEZUELA AND COSTA RICA -- TO BRING ABOUT DIRECT DISCUSSIONS. THE U.S. WAS CONSCIOUSLY TRYING NOT TO GET IN THE WAY OF SUCH EFFORTS.
15. BUSHNELL MADE THE POINT THAT WE HAVE HAD CONTACTS WITH THE FDR ALL ALONG, THROUGH OUR EMBASSY IN SAN SALVADOR AND IN MEXICO WHERE AN EMBASSY OFFICER KEEPS IN TOUCH WITH THEM. WHAT THE FDR SEEMS TO WANT, HOWEVER, ARE HIGHLY VISIBLE CONTACTS WITH HIGH-LEVEL USG OFFICIALS. THE FDR IS FAR AHEAD OF THE JRG ON PROPAGANDA, IS VERY ADEPT AT MANIPULATING THE MEDIA, AND DOES NOT LACK ARTICULATE SPOKESMEN AROUND THE WORLD. IT HAS THE WHOLE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA APPARATUS AT ITS COMMAND.

16. BUSHNELL SAID OUR PREFERENCE WOULD BE TO LET EL SALVADOR SOLVE ITS PROBLEMS, BUT WE CANNOT SIMPLY STAND ASIDE AND LET OTHERS INTERVENE. THOSE SUPPORTING THE GUERRILLAS HAVE THE ADVANTAGE OF BEING ABLE TO DO SO COVERTLY, WHEREAS ANYTHING WE DO HAS TO BE DONE OPENLY.

17. BEFORE DEPARTING MARGAIN ASKED FOR BUSHNELL'S ASSESSMENT OF NICARAGUA. HE ASKED IF THE MARXISTS ARE GAINING GROUND. BUSHNELL SAID THEY ARE NOT, POLITICALLY SPEAKING, BUT THAT THEY ARE BUILDING

INTRODUCTION

The democratic and revolutionary movement of El Salvador, organized through the alliance between the Farabundo Marti National Liberation Front and the Democratic Revolutionary Front (FMLN-FDR), extends its respectful and patriotic greetings to the governments and peoples of all the world.

The FMLN-FDR feels that some government who sympathize with noble causes and who respect the deep-rooted principles of non-intervention and national sovereignty do not have complete and truthful information about "The Case of El Salvador." Certain forces which contribute to the preservation of an unjust social order are interested in distorting the truth and have orchestrated an international press campaign aimed at spreading the news that El Salvador has a "moderate reformist" government which, unfortunately, finds itself beseiged by two hard-line extremes which, for their own motives, do not want a democratic moderate government to become consolidated.

In addition, these same forces are trying to give the false impression that the military offensive launched by the FMLN has been completely defeated.

The FMLN-FDR feels that in these times of important political, diplomatic, and military battles over the Salvadorean situation, it is vital that the governments of all the world concern themselves with studying and carefully analyzing the facts. It is certain that after such an analysis their decision will be to support the fundamental principles of respect for self-determination and legitimate insurrection of the people and for non-intervention in the internal affairs of El Salvador.

For this reason the FMLN-FDR has prepared this document which contains a brief report on El Salvador, its political process, human rights violations and the war of extermination, the composition of the Democratic Revolutionary Front and the Farabundo Marti National Liberation Front, as well as the basic principles of the future democratic revolutionary government that we intend to establish in the near future.

This report also includes some important statements by the North-american and Salvadorean Churches, by the United Nations, and by the Socialist International in support of the struggle of the Salvadorean people.

In addition, a brief description of the reality of the current military government, the present state of the struggle of the Salvadorean people, and information about the growing military assistance received by the tottering "Christian-democratic" military government, appear in this report.

The document ends with a petition from the FMLN-FDR to the governments to obtain their support.

1. BACKGROUND ON EL SALVADOR

1.1 The political process in El Salvador

With the uprising of 1932, in which more than 30,000 workers and peasants were massacred, the military dictatorship in El Salvador consolidated itself. Since then, the political power has been taken over by the Army, alternatively placing military men at the head of the government through coups or fraudulent elections. The dictator Martinez is overthrown by the military after 13 years in power. In 1948 the so-called "young military officers" entered the scene for the first time by means of a coup, and they proceeded to establish a "democratic" program of government and decreed a new constitution. The principal objectives of this program were: a) to encourage a capitalistic economy in order to permit the economic development of industrialization, basically to facilitate an increase in investments; b) to absorb the economic gains generated by the favorable situation of the international coffee market; c) modernize the political system to accomodate it to "the democratic standards of the western world."

Subsequently, two presidential elections took place which brought to power two military officers, who combined democracy with repression in order to mitigate political activity. This reformist formula reached a crisis at the end of the '50's, provoking a new coup. A new civilian military junta with modernizing concepts was established. This brought about a few months later another coup which brought to power military men who were absolutely loyal to the oligarchy. To "legalize" the new presidency of one of the participants in the coup, they called for a new electoral farce.

Special Project (1993)

In the '60's, with the inspiring triumph of the Cuban Revolution, the U. S. government was forced to encourage democratic participation, thus encouraging the formation of opposition parties, with electoral politics; like the Christian Democratic Party (P.D.C.) and the Reforming Action Party (P.A.R.) which became part of the democratic game. During this time in the same way, the trade union organizations experienced a strong development.

The elections were always taken by the Salvadorean people as opportunities to get rid of the military presidents, despite the fact that the opposition parties never presented real alternative solutions to the great national problems. Nevertheless, broad sectors of the population expressed their repudiation by giving their majority vote to the opposition party. This political activity of democratic participation and the development of union organizing were answered by the oligarchy with increased repression which by the middle of the decade reached alarming proportions, with murders and crimes at every election whether it was for president, assemblyman, or mayor. The military dictatorship increased its forms of repression by creating the first para-military organization, the Democratic Nationalist Organization (ORDEN), with the task of obstructing political education in the rural areas by means of terrorism.

In this context of tampered elections in which our people's blood has always been shed, we entered the seventies. During these years, the military dictatorship tried to show a better democratic appearance, manipulating the denunciation of the terrible social and economic conditions and offering to carry out reforms that would favor the Salvadorean people. At times this policy of reform gave the appearance of conflict between the military and the oligarchy. Actually, there reformist attempts were only a piece of rhetoric in the ramblings of the military and their laws never got off the paper. Meanwhile, the opposition parties attempted to gain political strength by forming a coalition called UNO (the National Opposition Union). This coalition, composed of the D. C. (Christian Democrats), the MNR (National Revolutionary Movement) and the UDN (National Democratic Union), defeated the official party again and again without coming to power.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993

Repression and political crime intensified again, on the pretext of fighting the "communist menace", which included the same candidates of the Christian Democracy. The people's discontent with the chronic situation of misery, unemployment, and the police state, developed in broad sectors a higher state of consciousness about the country's social and political reality, creating the democratic and revolutionary organizations that proposed structural changes. The Salvadorean people, after a long chain of sorrowful experiences, realized that it was necessary to use the only language their murderers and exploiters understood: the language of armed struggle.

Simultaneously, the electoral opposition parties continued participating in a legal struggle with such fraudulent results that in 1974 and 1977 people took to the streets to express their indignation. The response didn't take too long, passing from selective to massive repression, as in the slaughter of 1977. The secret para-military organizations proliferated, created and directed by the armed forces, while the people enlisted in the ranks of the revolutionary organizations and the political parties decided not to participate in the electoral process again.

The U. S. Government considered it difficult to continue backing

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

this policy of generalized repression due to the international loss of prestige. Consequently the State Department decided to organize a coup which took place October 15, 1979, where once more the young military officers came to power, with a supposedly democratic platform and with civilian participation. This plan failed again due to the structural impossibility of bringing about the smallest amount of change in the exploitive system and the fascist character of the army.

Due to the evident failure of this renewed reformist program, the military dictatorship, the oligarchy and the U. S. Government decided to wage a war of extermination against the Salvadorean people as the only alternative for maintaining the privileged status of the transnationals and the oligarchy. The systematic extermination of a whole people shows the nonexistence of even the minimum respect for human life, with this continued violation of human rights, the justice of the liberation struggle of our people distinguishes itself. It is a struggle where the right of the Salvadorean people to self-determination must be defended by all those who love independence and liberty. All the people of the world must condemn the flagrant violation of the most basic rights of the Salvadorean men, women and children. The Christian-Democratic Junta and its most recent invention - the civilian "President" Napoleon Duarte must be held responsible and charged with genocide. The revolutionary struggle of the people of El Salvador is the only real alternative that will make possible the dreams of peace, independence and liberty for all those who have offered their lives for these ideals.

1.2 Characterization of the Salvadorean social-economic situation

El Salvador is a country with an area of approximately 8,000 square miles, bordered on the northwest by Guatemala, on the northeast by Honduras; on the east by the Gulf of Fonseca, a point of intersection for El Salvador, Honduras and Nicaragua; and on the south by the Pacific Ocean. The estimated population, as of 1980, is 4,800,000 inhabitants. The population density is the highest in Latin America, with 600 inhabitants per square mile.

Since the Central American colonies became independent, El Salvador has been characterized by a mono-producing and mono-exporting agrarian economy, characteristics which have to lead to the formation of an agrarian oligarchy and a specific pattern of accumulation, with the wealth concentrated in the hands of a small minority and the exclusion of the general population from the satisfaction of basic needs. This same oligarchy holds the power and control over the agricultural, financial, commercial and industrial means of production, profiting on a large scale from its products.

Salvadorean society has experienced permanent social-political crises throughout this century, which have been constantly pacified or mediated by the joint action of the military dictatorship, the oligarchy, and the United States of America.

The system of exploitation which our people suffer has brought the Salvadorean people to a desperate, where they are not able to satisfy their most basic needs for health, nourishment, education, housing, clothing, employment, and not able to exercise their right to participate in the political decisions over their destiny. This situation can be illustrated by the following figures, although the cold data in itself may not clearly show the inhuman conditions under which our people live. The state of privilege enjoyed by the exploiting minority is shielded by principles which have a demagogical impact on our people, such as: democracy, liberty, equality, and private property, and which up until now have only meant social and economic marginalization.

1.3 Violation of Human Rights and War of Extermination

The history of our people can be condensed in terms of repression, murder, torture, prison, exile, and social marginalization. The Salvadorean has been forced to live under shameful and unjust conditions, which are brought about in a context of elemental survival. Because of this experience, and not necessarily as a result of ideological conceptions, the Salvadorean people have come to understand that the revolutionary struggle is the only alternative remaining to reach a human way of life. In the face of this vital necessity, no ideological concept has the right to offer opposition, much less foreign interests or those of a minority whose modus vivendi has been the exploitation of the Salvadorean people. Nevertheless, foreign interests back the military dictatorship, whose only purpose is to perpetuate the status quo. During the last year, El Salvador has experienced levels of repression such as those reached only during the 1932 massacre, with the added difference that the present repression is carried out by more "perfected" methods of human vexation, and in times in which modern society concerns itself with the violation of human rights. Before the world we are denouncing, one more time, the degree of institutionalized violence which our people are suffering, criminality which is justified in the United Nations by countries that pretend to be the most civilized defenders of human rights. While they espouse this rethoric openly, they supply military equipment, advisors and economic aid at the same time to support one of the most criminal and inhuman governments which has ever existed. We can summarize all of the above analysis in the following statistics, which bring to light the cruel manhunt conducted against a people who struggle for self-determination, who love to live in peace, to enjoy the respect of human rights, and to end for ever the inhuman society in which Salvadoreans have had to live in until now.

2. ORGANIZATIONS IN THE STRUGGLE FOR DEMOCRACY

2.1 The Democratic Revolutionary Front (F.D.R.)

A long list of repressive acts against the people, the crisis of a military tyranny and oligarchy, the failure of the first Junta (which was an attempt to make possible a democratic option for the country based on the support of the armed forces without any substantial modification of them), and the organized popular democratic struggle - all these culminated on April 18, 1980 in a united movement of all revolutionary and democratic organizations: THE DEMOCRATIC REVOLUTIONARY FRONT (F.D.R.).

The Front (as it is known) is the broadest alliance of progressive forces in the whole history of El Salvador. It includes three political parties: the Social Democratic Party, the National Revolutionary Movement, the Popular Social Christian Movement, organized by leaders of the Christian Democratic Party who refused to accept Napoleon Duarte's and six other party members' civilian cloaking of the military tyranny, and the Democratic Nationalist Union. Besides these political organizations, the Front includes the principal union organizations which gather together more than 90% of the organized working class. Also forming part of the Front are an association of professional workers, the two most important universities in El Salvador (the National and Jesuit universities) and five popular mass organizations which unite thousands of workers, peasants, teachers, students, slumdwellers, public service employees, women market-sellers, etc.

The breadth and plurality of the FDR is also evident in the fact that its members come from a wide range of social sectors: workers, peasants, intellectuals, professionals, students, merchants and other people of the businessworld. The Front's first president, Enrique Alvarez Cordoba, cruelly assassinated on the 27th of November, 1980, by government forces, was a member of the oligarchy and had been a member of the cabinet in previous regimes. The current president, Guillermo Ungo is a university professor with lengthy political experience who was a member of the Junta which replaced the tyrant general Carlos Romero.

Within the Front there are people of the most varied political and religious creeds possible, most of the members being Christians.

This social, political and ideological plurality makes the Front the authentic representative of majority concerns and makes it at this time the only viable political alternative for the country, since it is, as its first public declaration declares, a "...political instrument of the Salvadorean people to press forward their liberation struggle and to build a new, just and humane society, free of corruption, of continual violations to human rights, and of every exploitation of one human being by another; a society in which the human person will be both the departure point and the center of economic and social development."

The following is a list of organizations and institutions which form part of the Democratic Revolutionary Front:

- The Revolutionary Coordinator of Masses (CRM) made up of the People's Revolutionary Block (BPR), the Popular Unified Front (FAPU), the Popular Leagues "28th of February" (LP-28), the Democratic Nationalist Union (UDN), and the Movement of Popular Liberation (MLP)

- The General Association of Salvadorean University Students (AGEUS)
- The Association of Salvadorean Bus Owners (AEAS)
- The National Union Federation of Salvadorean Workers (FENASTRAS)
- The Federation of Workers' Unions in the Food, Clothing, Textile and Related Industries of El Salvador (FESTIAVTSCES)
- The Revolutionary Union Federation (FSR)
- The Unitary Salvadorean Union Federation (FUSS)
- The Independent Movement of Professionals and Technicians of El Salvador (MIPTES)
- The National Revolutionary Movement (MNR)
- The Popular Social Christian Movement (MPSC)
- The Union of the Institute of Salvadorean Social Security Workers (STISS)
- The Textile Union of United Industries, Inc. (STIUSA)
- The Central American Jose Simeon Canas (Catholic-Jesuit) University (UCA)
- The University of El Salvador (UES)

2.2 The Farabundo Marti Front for National Liberation (F.M.L.N.)

At the beginning of October 1980 political-military revolutionary organizations announced the establishment of the Farabundo Marti Front for National Liberation.

Since 1970, the Salvadorean people, oppressed by tyranny and conscienticized by circumstances, entered a stage of intense organization which resulted in the setting up and development of political-military organizations which, by constant and heroic struggle together with permanent contact with the needs of the people, consolidated their existence, and became through their actions the vanguard of the revolutionary process, giving the Salvadorean people a patriotic and revolutionary people's army which, with the popular militia and in alliance with the progressive forces of the Democratic Revolutionary Front, will inaugurate a Democratic and Revolutionary Government.

Having passed through various stages of an admirable process toward unity, the Farabundo Marti Front for National Liberation is presently formed by:

- The "Farabundo Marti" Popular Liberation Forces (FPL)
- The People's Revolutionary Army (ERP)
- The Armed Forces of National Resistance (FARN)
- The Armed Forces of Liberation (FAL), armed branch of the Salvadorean Communist Party
- The Revolutionary Party of Central American Workers (PRTC-El Salvador)

The members of these organizations are for the most part courageous and honest working men and peasants who joined these organizations with the desire to build a just and humanitarian society in their country. Besides these, there are members of other social sectors as well; for example, it is public knowledge that Father Ernesto Barrera Moto and Protestant Pastor Augusto Coto, both fallen during the liberation process, were committed to these organizations; and that presently university professors and former public officials are among their members - such as Lic. Salvador Samayoa, who was Minister of Education under the governmental junta which replaced the dictator General Romero.

Due to the intense campaign to distort the news internationally, it is easy for people who do not know the Salvadorean situation personally to imagine that the FMLN is a terrorist movement seeking violence for violence's sake.

Nevertheless, the facts prove that in El Salvador the only terrorist forces are the government ones. These are clearly the forces that, with their horrendous crimes against priests, religious, teachers, FDR leaders, children, pregnant women, etc., have provoked people's indignation and condemnation throughout the world.

Whoever has lived in El Salvador for a time must have noticed how workers, peasants, women market-sellers, slum dwellers, teachers, etc. become frightened and rush off when they see the wrongly named "security forces". On the other hand, they feel secure and uplifted when the militia, guerrillas or popular Army fighters - the different groups which make up the FMLN - live among them.

There is no doubt that the FMLN is an eminently popular movement: its members are the people; they live among the people and are fully identified with the people.

So far, there has been not a single human rights institution condemning the Salvadorean revolutionary movement as terrorist or as a systematic violator of human rights. But there have been innumerable international organizations repeating time and time again their condemnation of the Salvadorean government and military forces. For example: the Legal Aid Office of the Archdiocese of San Salvador, the Human Rights Commission of El Salvador, Amnesty International, the International Commission of Jurists, the Inter-American Human Rights Commission of the Organization of American States, the United Nations General Assembly, etc.

We repeat once again that the FMLN loves peace and democracy. It has been obliged to fight simply because that is the only way left open to it by the oligarchy and the Salvadorean Army to achieve peace and build an authentic democracy in El Salvador.

2.3 The Political and Diplomatic Commission of the FMLN-FDR

The Salvadorean people's organizations struggling for democracy - the FMLN and FDR - have set up a commission of distinguished leaders to establish dialogue with the various governments of the world and to make concrete the formation of the new Democratic Revolutionary Government which will be established very soon. The following people are members of the Commission:

GUILLERMO MANUEL UNGO, 49, married with three children; lawyer and university professor; General Secretary of the National Revolutionary Movement; party member of the Socialist International and the Latin American Permanent Conference of Political Parties (COPPAL); ex-member of the Salvadorean governmental junta from October through December of 1979; candidate for the Vice-Presidency of the Republic in 1972 for the United National Opposition; ex-president of the Center for Legal Studies; ex-director of the Research Institute at the Jesuit Central American University "Jose Simeon Canas"; ex-director of the Department for Due Process at the University of El Salvador; at this time President of the Democratic Revolutionary Front.

RUBEN ZAMORA, 38, married with four children, lawyer. He has taught at the Universities of El Salvador, at the San Carlos University in Guatemala, and Essex University in England; cabinet minister from October to December of 1979; member of the El Salvador National Justice and Peace Commission, a Catholic entity which seeks to protect human rights and has national branches throughout the world; Secretary of the External Commission of the Democratic Revolutionary Front.

FABIO CASTILLO, 59, married with four children, Doctor and university Professor; ex-professor of Physiology; ex-Dean of Sciences and Humanities and ex-president of the University of El Salvador; member of El Salvador's governmental junta from 1960 to 1961.

JOSE RODRIGUEZ RUIZ, 49, married with four children, lawyer, Professor of Law, ex-Dean of the Humanities Faculty, ex-Vice President and presently President of the University of El Salvador.

ANA GUADALUPE MARTINEZ, 28, single, studied Medicine at the University of El Salvador. In 1974 she became a militant in the political-military revolutionary movement. She was imprisoned and tortured by the military tyranny. After obtaining her freedom, she wrote the book: "Clandestine Prisons of El Salvador" which won her the position of finalist in the Casa de las Americas awards in 1979.

MARIO AGUINADA, 38, married with four children, Accountant and Journalist. Ex-student leader at the High School level and ex-union leader; General Secretary of the Democratic Nationalist Union Party, UDN; former director of the progressive papers "Tribuna Popular" and "Voz Popular" (People's Tribune and Voice of the People). Congressional Candidate for the United National Opposition, UNO, from 1972 to 1974.

SALVADOR SAMAYOA, 30, single, philosopher. Professor at the Jesuit Central American University, "Jose Simeon Canas", of El Salvador. Minister of Education from October through December of 1979. He became a member of the political-military revolutionary movement when he became convinced that there was no other alternative to achieve freedom and democracy in El Salvador. He was captured by the Security Forces and later freed-due to popular pressure both nationally and internationally.

3. CHARACTERISTICS AND OBJECTIVES OF THE FUTURE GOVERNMENT

The FMLN-FDR now struggles that the Salvadorean People may take power and establish a Democratic Revolutionary Government which will undertake, as leader of its people, the construction of a new society. The Government will be pluralistic, democratic, revolutionary, a non-alligned government respectful of people's fundamental human rights.

The Democratic Revolutionary Government will be constituted by representatives of the popular and revolutionary movements and democratic political parties. The programatic platform of the future Government will be based on the following six basic points:

1) The Democratic Revolutionary Government will guarantee sovereignty and national independence while assuring and defending the self-determination of the salvadorean people.

2) The Democratic Revolutionary Government will guarantee the Salvadorean People the peace, freedom, welfare and progress for which political, economic and social reforms are carried out, assuring a just distribution of wealth, the enjoyment of culture and health benefits and the effective working out of the majority's democratic rights.

3) The Democratic Revolutionary Government will carry out a policy of peace and non-allignment internationally.

4) The Democratic Revolutionary Government will guarantee the democratic representation of all the democratic, popular and revolutionary sectors which have contributed actively to the unseating of the military dictatorship.

5) The Democratic Revolutionary Government will create an army of a new type, the Revolutionary People's Army, made up of soldiers from the FMLN and honest, patriotic people who are now among the troops, classes, and officers of the present army.

6) The Democratic Revolutionary Government will support all those private businessmen who cooperate and press for the economic development of the country and the carrying out of its governmental program (See in Annex #1 the Programatic Platform of the Democratic Revolutionary Government).

4. THE SUPPORT OF THE SALVADOREAN AND UNITED STATES CHURCHES

The support of the Salvadorean Church, above all of the Archdiocese of San Salvador, has been shown in several ways: denouncing and condemning the systematic violation of human rights; the holding responsible of the present government for the repression and most cruel persecution of the people; defending the people's right to rise up and protesting the foreign involvement by way of military aid sent by the U. S. government to the Salvadorean government.

The heroic work of denunciation carried out by San Salvador's martyred Archbishop, Mons. Oscar A. Romero, is known throughout the world.

Besides this, during December 1980 his successor, Bishop Arturo Rivera y Damas, Apostolic Administrator of the Archdiocese of San Salvador, delivered a communique on "the cruel occurences against the Church" of El Salvador. (See Annex #2: Communique from the Bishop-Apostolic Administrator, Priests, and Religious of the Archdiocese of San Salvador - December, 1980).

The Communique, besides condemning the assassination of Srs. Maura and Ita of the Maryknoll Congregation, of Sr. Dorothy of the Cleveland diocese' Ursuline Congregation, and of Lay Missionary Ms. Jean Donovan, all of them United States citizens, explicitly denounces the fact that "...in the almost four years of persecution which the Church has suffered, it has been evident the majority of the persecution against the Church has been carried out by members of the security forces and Para-military Organizations." At another point the same communique declares: "... we hold Security Forces and extreme-rightist squads responsible for the persecution of the Church and specifically for the assassinations both of priests and Pastoral Agents.

RELEASED
El Salvador, Human Rights

And as a consequence, we also hold responsible the Governmental Junta which, by exercizing supreme command of the Armed Forces, is responsible for the actions of its members."

The persecution of the Church during the last four years, as mentioned in Bishop Rivera y Damas' communique, has been cruel and merciless. As a proof of this, we need but read a November, 1980 document from the San Salvador Archdiocesan Legal Aid Office, entitled: "CHRONOLOGY OF PERSECUTION AGAINST THE CHURCH" (See Annex #3). In this document we find listed, month by month, the kidnappings, assassinations, raids, rapings, invasions of private homes, and other abuses committed by the military tyranny which describes itself as "Christian Democrat."

All this persecution has happened because the Church has stood by the side of the People; but the persecution's effect has been to deepen the religious' identification with their People, preparing them to recognize with objectivity from the Christian point of view the legitimacy of the armed struggle led by the FMLN.

On January 1, 1981 a document was published entitled "CHRISTIANS FACING THE INSURRECTION OF THE SALVADOREAN PEOPLE" (See Annex #4). In this document it is said that the Salvadorean People are resolved to free themselves from oppression and are deciding their destiny and future as a people. The Christians who sign the document say that they have opted to "...accompany the people at this time, to recognize the justice of their cause and their struggle, and to acknowldege their right to rise up in arms" since "for fifty years the Salvadorean people have lived under the yoke of gravely unjust economic, social and political oppression which has in no way sought the common good but rather has fostered privileges and the dominion of the few."

The document is signed by:

1) The Archdiocesan Charities

2) The Committee of Pastoral Health Agents (CAPS)

3) The National Confederation of Religious Men & Women in El Salvador (CONFRES)

4) The Federation of Catholic Centers of Learning

5) The Archdiocesan Pastoral Council

6) The National Justice and Peace Commission

7) The "Faith & Joy" Organization

8) The Christian Life Communities

9) The Foundation of Cooperative Promotors (FUNPROCOOP)

10) The Federation of Agricultural Production Cooperatives of El Salvador

11) The Baptist Assembly

12) The Christian Student Movement (MEC)

As to the U. S. government's military aid, Bishop Rivera y Damas above mentioned communique points out that "we demand the U. S. government, as did our prophetic martyred-Archbishop Romero, that it stop sending military aid to our government. For in spite of statements about its purpose, military aid only heightens repression against the people and persecution of the Church."

RELEASED
El Salvador Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

The U. S. Church time after time has shown its solidarity with the Salvadorean Church in this matter, begging the U. S. government not to send military aid to the Salvadorean government. On January 14th of this year, Archbishop Roach, President of the U. S. Catholic Conference, sent out a communique protesting the renewal of U. S. government military aid to the Salvadorean tyranny. In one of its paragraphs the communique says: "The renewal of military assistance, from our point of view, intensifies the possibility of more violence from the Salvadorean security forces and associated the United States with acts of oppression against the majority of the Salvadorean people. A striking form which this oppression takes - a form which worries us deeply - is that of persecution against the Church in that country."

In the last paragraph Archbishop Roach says, "Finally, we are afraid that the type of military aid now being envisioned will increase the possibility of direct U. S. involvement in the Salvadorean conflict in the coming months. Because of all this we consider the giving of military aid a costly game which we cannot support." (See Annex #10: ARCHBISHOP ROACH'S STATEMENT ON THE RENEWAL OF MILITARY AID TO EL SALVADOR).

5. SUPPORT FROM THE UNITED NATIONS

From the beginning of the U. N. General Assembly's thirty-fifth session, Guillermo Ungo and Ruben Zamora, and other leaders of the Democratic Revolutionary Front and members of the FMLN-FDR's Political-Diplomatic Commission, were there at the U. N.'s New York headquarters to make present the real situation of military tyranny called "Christian Democrat" and to make known the justice of the Salvadorean people's struggle, highlighting the need for international solidarity in the Salvadorean people's struggle for democracy.

In a corageous resolution -#35/192 - the U. N. General Assembly declared its position on December 15, 1980, moved by the violations against human rights, the assassination of Archbishop Oscar Arnulfo Romero, the persecution of the Church and the assassination of the Democratic Revolutionary Front's President, Enrique Alvarez Cordoba.

At the heart of the U. N.'s General Assembly resolution was a call for "governments to abstain from the sending of arms and other forms of military aid to El Salvador during the present situation."

Representatives of 137 countries were present at the time of voting for the resolution. The only nations who voted against it were the following: Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, El Salvador (the military regime), the Philippines, Guatemala, Morroco, Paraguay, and Uruguay.

6. THE SUPPORT OF THE SOCIALIST INTERNATIONAL

In November 1980 the Congress of the Socialist International was held in Madrid, Spain, with the active participation of statesmen such as West Germany's Willy Brandt, Spain's Felipe Gonzalez, Venezuela's Carlos Andres Perez, Sweden's Olaf Palme, Costa Rica's Daniel Oduber, and others of similar political and moral status. At this Congress the Socialist International urged the U. S. government to cut off its political and military support for the present Junta and to declare support for the Democratic Revolutionary Front.

The resolution added: "We reject the thesis that the Salvadorean problem is that of a Junta fighting the extreme right and extreme left. On the contrary this is despotic regime whose activities have led to a state of civil war. Our deep hope and active solidarity are with the Democratic Revolutionary Front of El Salvador in which our member party, the National Revolutionary Movement, is an integral part." (See Annex #6: RESOLUTION OF THE 15TH POSTWAR CONGRESS OF THE SOCIALIST INTERNATIONAL, NOVEMBER 1980, MADRID, SPAIN).

Also in November in Madrid the 11th Women's Congress of the Socialist International was held in Madrid which made a declaration to the same effect, stating that "U.S. aid to the Salvadorean Junta has added to the violent and repressive policies of the Salvadorean military government forces", declaring as well "its support for the Democratic Revolutionary Front", calling for all its members to defend the liberation process of that country." (See Annex #7: RESOLUTION ON EL SALVADOR FROM THE 11TH WOMEN'S CONFERENCE OF THE SOCIALIST INTERNATIONAL, NOVEMBER 1980, MADRID, SPAIN).

7. REALITY OF THE ACTUAL "CIVIL" MILITARY GOVERNMENT

On October 15, 1979 a military coup d'etat overthrew dictator, General Carlos H. Romero and attempted to install a government that would allow a democratic solution to the crisis facing Salvadorean society without substantially modifying its Armed Forces. For this, the "golpista" militarymen assembled some honest politicians and formed with them the first government Junta which relied on the support of various political and trade-union organizations.

Regardless of the presence of these honest politicians, the repressive nature of the regime was conserved and even increased. The obstacles to carry forth these economic reforms appeared from the first within the new government itself, thanks to the determinative support of the most reactionary officials of the Army and of the Salvadorean oligarchy. Ten weeks after the first Junta was installed, its two civilian members, Guillermo M. Ungo and Roman Mayorga resigned their posts because they did not want to conceal nor be accomplices of the repressive escalade unleashed by the Armed Forces against the people and its popular organizations. The same was done by all the Ministers and Vice-Ministers with one exception: Colonel Garcia, Defense Minister, hence becoming one of the most important representatives of oligarchic interests and of the fascist tendency of the Army that try to conserve a repressive regime installed for fifty years to prolong a socioeconomic structure, each time more unjust.

RELEASED
El Salvador Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

With this total failure of the First Junta, whatever possibility there was to find a viable political solution based on the actual institution of the Armed Forces remained definitively closed; it was historically demonstrated that in El Salvador the necessary and urgent socioeconomic transformations cannot be effected without counting on the active participation of the democratic and revolutionary organizations.

It is because of this, that from January 1980 a process has been notable accelerated that on the one hand has been deepening the division of the Armed Forces and the Government provoking its constant disintegration, and on the other has been overcoming the differences that existed between the revolutionary organizations, and it has joined them with the democratic sectors to form the FDR-FMLN which defend the same project of a democratic revolutionary government.

The political parties like the Democratic Nationalist Union (UDN) and the National Revolutionary Movement (MNR) and also the more important trade-union Federations FENASTRAS, FUSS and FESTIAVSCES that in October, 1979 supported or formed part of the government now are members of the FDR.

Enrique Alvarez Cordova who during the first Junta was Minister of Agriculture came to be President of the FDR; Guillermo Ungo, member of that Junta, is now President of the FDR; Salvador Samayoa and Ruben Zamora, Ministers of Education and of the Presidency respectively now form part of the political diplomatic Commission of the FMLN-FDR; Hector Oqueli who was then Vice-Minister of Foreign Relations is at this moment Chief of Protocol of the Commission.

RELEASED

The Christian-Democrat is the only political party that after the failure of the first Junta has accepted being part of the government together with the Armed Forces. It is the only party that has lent itself to conceal and be an accomplice of the most cruel genocide that there has been in the history of El Salvador since 1932.

With the object being that the alliance of the Christian-Democrat with the military would not appear to be a betrayal or surrender of its democratic principles, the Christian-Democrat published a series of conditions that was supposedly put forth to the Army to form part of the government. It asked, among other things: to form a pluralistic government; initiate a constructive dialogue with all the popular organizations to incorporate them in its project or at least achieve that they accept a peaceful co-existence; to make a popular and anti-oligarchic project; that the Junta and not the Armed Forces be the ones that really govern; to bring about that these respect human rights, etc. All these conditions obviously have not been complied with. The military-demochristian Junta is just the opposite. For this reason the majority of leaders and members of the Christian-Democrat have preferred being faithful to their partisan principles and to the people, renouncing their government positions and/or leaving the Party to later form the Popular Social Christian Movement which forms a part of the FDR. The Christian-Democrat has been thus disintegrating, until being reduced to a small clique dominated by Engineer, Napoleon Duarte.

Among the leaders who renounced the Christian-Democrat are: Hector Dada who was a member of the second Junta; Ruben Zamora, Alberto Arene,

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

Jorge Alberto Villacorta, etc. who form a part of the Cabinet.

The Armed Forces also are subject to this general process of disintegration which is a consequence of its rightward swing. At this moment the majority of the military that conceived and realized the coup d'etat of the 15th of October, 1979 have either been disregarded, as in the case of Colonel Majano who was expelled from the Junta, or consequently those that bravely deserted the Army to incorporate themselves in the FMLN or FDR, as was done by Colonel Bruno Navarrete, Lieutenant-Colonel Vladimir Cruz and Captain Francisco Mena, etc.

One of the methods that the actual government has utilized to mislead public opinion and conceal its emminently repressive character is to present itself as a promoter of agrarian reform, of the nationalization of Banking and external commerce. The real malice of these reforms has already been discovered and denounced by different sectors.

Monsignor Romero did not hesitate in condemning them, qualifying them as "reforms with repression", "reforms stained with blood."

Various Salvadorean and foreign experts after studying the reality of these reform have demonstrated their enviability, have discovered the grave corruption that exists among many of those responsible for putting these projects into effect. The majority has been in agreement in defining them as unsucessfuly directed political means to gain a popular base in favor of the government, instead of being authentic and effective economic transformations intended to resolve the disproportionate distribution of resources.

Perhaps the most eloquent denunciations are those of its various

RELEASED
El Salvador. Human Rights

principal promoters who have also resigned their post for not wanting to stain themselves with blood and deceive the people with these apparent reforms that try to conceal the systematic antipopular repression. For this reason, Engineer Jorge Alberto Villacorta who was Vice-Minister of Agriculture (see Appendix #8), Carlos Federico Paredes, Vice-Minister of Planning resigned; Nelson Romero until recently President of the National Institute of Coffee, in charge of exportation of this product, etc.

After the cruel and unjustified assassination of the six leaders of the FDR and of the four North American nuns that revealed the repressive character of the military demochristian Junta and provoked its condemnation at the national and international level, the members of the Salvadorean government felt the necessity to reorganize themselves once more to try to recover their moderate image that "justifies" the support of the government of the United States and of Venezuela.

The modifications they achieved culminated the right-ward process of the Army; nevertheless they are trying to present them as a transcendental step for the democratization of the country: in reality Colonel Majano was expelled from the Junta, who was the representative of the moderate sector of the Army, and Colonel Gutierrez consolidated his power, who is known worldwide as a conservative and fascist. He remained as the only Commanding Officer of the Armed Forces and Vice-President of the Junta. This expulsion that finishes with the small sign of pluralism that existed within the Junta have tried to disguise it with the appointment of Engineer Napoleon Duarte as President of the Junta. With that the impression is given that he is now a civilian (the first since close to fifty years) that presides over the country. It is a mere impression because it is evident that Engineer Duarte is not the one that actually govern, as none of the civilian members of the Junta that have governed El Salvador have done not even Roman Mayorga and Guillermo Ungo were able to do it during the first Junta when there were better conditions that now to hope that the civilians would have more weight in the governmental decisions now that the commands of the Army were in more moderate hands than now and the civilians relied on the support of political and trade-union organizations.

RELEASED
El Salvador Human Rights

What this apparent modification clearly shows is that deep down there is no real attitude on the part of the government to want to finish with its repressive character. And precisely, since that attitude does not exist, they have not been able to find more people or institutions, real or apparently honest, that lend themselves to form a part of the government to give them credibility and a better image. It's because of this that "substantial" changes diminished to a designation of merely nominal positions to the interior of the Junta.

The following acts demonstrate that the governmental changes were only supperficial: after Engineer Duarte was named President of the Junta, the level of repression and systematic violation of human rights continued becoming acute.-

A few days ago the government forcibly eliminated the only two informative media opposed to the regime that were left in El Salvador: API and the newspaper "El Independiente".

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

Also, those voices that were raised denouncing the human rights violations and condemning the terrorism of the Salvadorean government have continued to be silenced: the day after the documentary "El Salvador: Another Vietnam?" was televised in the Washington, D. C. area, Mr. Victor Medrano, Administrative Secretary of the Human Rights Commission of El Salvador, was captured in San Salvador, who appeared, in this film, valiantly denouncing the Salvadorean regime. Since then he has "disappeared". Days after, the same security forces assaulted the house of Lic. Marianella Garcia, President of said Commission, she too had made important declarations against the government in the documentary.

At the same time, starting from January 11, 1981, the military demochristian Junta declared martial law and curfew. This repressive measure according to Church opinion, has only served the Security Forces and other paramilitary bodies to commit more flagrantly its crimes against the unorganized civilian population.

In this new reorganization of the government, Colonel Rafael Flores Lima was named Chief of Staff of the Armed Forces who was the Secretary of Information of the Presidency, with rank of Minister, during the government of General Romero. For being so identified with him, he was removed from his office after the military coup of October 15.

In conclusion, the actual reality of the military demochristian government continues being one of a government in decadence and decomposition that in order to subsist it has to abuse its military power and depend fully and openly on the economic,political and military support of the government of the United States, lacking a base and popular representation and having to confront a democratic revolutionary movement headed by the

8. CURRENT STAGE OF THE STRUGGLE OF THE SALVADOREAN PEOPLE

On Saturday, January 10, 1981, the General Command of the FMLN called to initiate the general offensive. (See Appendix #11 A call by the General Command of the FMLN to initiate the general offensive).

From this date, the first phase of the general offensive began, concluding with favorable results. (See Appendix #12, Communique of the FMLN, January 21, 1981).

Among the principle achievements of this offensive is the FMLN's attack on the Air Force. This attack was of such breadth that the Air Force was put completely out of commission either definitively or at least temporarily.

The fatal blow was not as devastating as it might have been due to the prompt military aid of the U. S. government who replace the units that have been destroyed and increased the total military hardware.

It is also important to point out the FMLN's attack on the San Francisco Gotera military post, on that of San Vicente, Chalatenango and the Second Infantry Brigade in Santa Ana, which are the government's best equipped counter-insurgency centers outside of the capital.

During the attack on the Second Infantry Brigade, a company of soldiers headed by two officials rose up and, after setting the base's munitions supply on fire, joined ranks with the people, fighting on the side of the FMLN.

In every military action carried out in the FMLN's four fronts during the first phase of the general offensive, the high level of military capability of the regular units, guerrillas and militia of the popular revolutionary army, stood out. They were able to act simultaneously throughout the country, striking strategic locations of the Military Junta's army and consolidating political and military control in vital areas of the national territory. (See Appendix #13 , Map).

RELEASED

Special Project (1993)

As for the call for a general strike, the General Command of the FMLN recognizes that the most conscientious workers did respond with great courage to this call, but that the strike did not reach a high level.

With the exception of the attack on the Central Air Force base, the FMLN did not manage to exert the other powerful military blows in the capital which would have been necessary for working people to join the insurrectional strike.

It must be taken into account that these military blows within the capital are indispensable, since it is in the capital that the most powerful and repressive government forces are found, and so it is there that of late they have carried out the greatest number of massacres against the defenseless civilian population.

Besides this political and military offensive, the FMLN-FDR, has also engaged through its political - diplomatic Commission, in intense diplomatic activity with very good results: several governments have received members of this Commission officially or semi-officially and have expressed their categorical condemnation of U. S. military aid, their concern that this aid will prolong and internationalize the struggle, and their solidarity with the Salvadorean people and their vanguard, the FMLN-FDR.

In the face of these achievements of the democratic revolutionary struggle,-the military Christian-Democratic government has intensified its criminal actions against the civilian population, declaring "martial law" and curfew since the first day of the offensive, and unleashing a propaganda campaign in an effort to deceive the public, leading people to believe that the offensive has been definitively destroyed. However, the facts have proven the contrary. Days later the U. S. Government had to come to the rescue of the failing military Christian-Democratic tyranny by sending additional aid.

9. FOREIGN MILITARY INTERVENTION FROM ABROAD TO SUPPORT THE JUNTA AND ITS MEANING

After the first successful phase of the FMLN-FDR's general offensive in which the Salvadorean Army was hit at strategic points, the U. S. government reacted quickly to lift its suspension on military aid and increased that aid substantially. (See Appendix #15, "FMLN's Statement on the agressive attitude adopted by the U. S. government"). This decision was adopted without taking into account Resolution #35/192 of the United Nations General Assembly, and without complying with the causes of the suspension as Ambassador White stated.

Such a reaction by the U. S. government is on the one hand a recognition of the FMLN's military capacity - it weakened in a few days the Salvadorean Army so much that its allies had to come to its aid at the spur of the moment with more than Ten Million Dollars in arms, ammunition and military advisors. However on the other hand, taken with the statements of U. S. government personnel working on El Salvador, this U. S. government more expresses a dangerous and irresponsible tendency to impose an interventionist military solution to the Salvadorean crisis.

The consequences of this posture taken by the U. S. government may be that of prolonging unnecesarily the conflict, raising its cost in terms of human lives and addit to its chances of internationalization of the conflict.

The FMLN sent out last January a statement about this which in one of its paragraphs declared:

"The United States agressive conduct and military imposition will have unforeseen consequences in Central America, since the war can spread to Honduras, although we wish not, if they try to crush us within its boundaries. The U. S. attitude also places in danger the carrying out of the Panama Canal Treaty, an agreement reached after a long struggle by the Panamenian people. Belice will see its independence delayed. The Costa Rican people will undoubtedly become caught up in solidarity work, changing with a mood of unrest their country which is already in great tension. The Guatemalan people whose unified vanguard is headed by a growing guerrilla struggle, will help its Salvadorean brothers and sisters and double its efforts to defend itself against bloodthirsty enemies at home in the service of U. S. agression. Nicaragua and its people will have to defend themselves against the agression and we are sure that unified and strengthened by their victorious revolution, they will know how to do that under the wise and proven leadership of the FSLN.

To sum up, this provocation by the United States is an incendiary measure which endangers the peace of the region and of the world, the peace of the United States itself where our struggle enjoys widespread sympathy and support among the people, ever nearer and in greater solidarity with our own people.

10. WILLINGNESS OF THE FMLN-FDR TO INITIATE DIALOGUE WITH THE U. S. GOVERNMENT

The agressive posture of the U. S. government commented on in the previous paragraph was adopted just as the FMLN-FDR, responding to overtures of that same government, had decided to begin a constructive dialogue with the U. S. government.

A communique of the FMLN reads:

"In fact, before taking this line toward a military solution to the Salvadorean crisis, the government of the United States established six points for discussion in order to initiate a dialogue with us. These points were:

1. Ceasefire.
2. Total reorganization of the government.
3. Disbanding of the repressive corps.
4. Reorganization of the Army.
5. Reforms.
6. Elections.

On January 14, a direct emmissary of the FMLN and the FDR, by mutual agreement, visited the U. S. Ambassador in Honduras to communicate our willingness to initiate the dialogue whenever the U. S. terminated all forms of military "aid" to the Genocidal Junta and makes a commitment not to militarily invade our country with either its own or other troops.

The State Department's response was to close all avenues of dialogue with us, to blackmail against Nicaragua and to increase supplies and military advisory teams to the murderous Junta.

(See Appendix #15, Declaration of the FMLN on the agressive attitude adopted by the government of the United States).

In spite of the fact that the U. S. government has closed off all posibility for opening constructive dialogue toward the resolution of the Salvadorean crisis, the FMLN-FDR maintains a flexible, realistic and open position with reference to carrying on a dialogue with the United States, a position based on its strong and unwavering decision to lead our people to its definitive liberation.

After the successful first phase of the FMLN-FDR's general offensive in which the Salvadorean Army was hit at strategic points, the U. S. government reacted quickly, lifting the suspension of military aid and quantitatively increasing that aid (See Appendix #14, Statement from the Democratic Revolutionary Front to stop U. S. military aid to the government of El Salvador (January 19, 1981).

This decision was adopted without taking into account Resolution 35/192 of the United Nations General Assembly and without satisfactorily completing the conditions given for suspending the aid in the first place, as stated by Ambassador White.

> Such a reaction from the United States government is, on the one hand a recognition of the FMLN's military capability that in a few days weakened the Salvadorean Army so much that its allies had to rush to its aid with more than TEN MILLION DOLLARS in arms, ammunitions and military advisors. On the other hand, coupled with declarations by U. S. government officials regarding El Salvador, it expresses a dangerous and irresponsible tendency to impose an interventionist military solution to the Salvadorean crisis.

The consequences of this attitude by the U. S. government may be the unnecessary prolonging of the conflict, raising its cost in terms of human lives and adding chances of internationalization.

The FMLN sent out a declaration on this subject in January which, in one of its paragraphs, said the following:

"The agressive behaviour of military imposition by the U. S. will have unforeseen consequences in Central America, since the war could be extended into Honduras if we are compressed against its borders, which we do not want. It puts into jeopardy the compliance with the Panama Canal Treaties, won through long struggle by the people of Panama. Belice's will see its independence postponed. It will cause, without a doubt, solidarity actions on the part of the people of Costa Rica, changing their already tense environment with violence. The Guatemalan people, whose unified vanguard is leading a growing guerrilla struggle, will come to the aid to their Salvadorean brothers and sisters, they will defend themselves redoubling their armed struggle, from their blood-thirsty internal enemies, unconditional instrument of U. S. agression. Nicaragua and their people will have to defend themselves and will under the wise and proven leadership of the FSLN, doubtlessly acquit themselves in an exemplary manner.

This provocation on the part of the U. S. is an incendiary measure, that puts into jeopardy regional and world peace, also peace in the United States. A country where our struggle enjoys extensive sympathy and support among the people, growing closer and more solidary with our people. The responsibility for these consequences falls, beginning today, on the government of the United States which refuses to carry on a dialogue with the FMLN and puts fire to the prairie. (See Appendix # 15, Declaration of the FMLN on the agressive attitude adopted by the government of the U. S.).

11. PETITIONS FROM THE FMLN-FDR TO THE GOVERNMENTS AND PEOPLE OF THE WORLD.

Through this document to the governments and people of the world, the FMLN-FDR intends to offer full information so that they will support the following petitions with full knowledge of the facts.

The FMLN-FDR with great respect petitions the peaceful, democratic and justice-loving governments and people of the world:

1. To remind the government of the United States that the Thirty-Fifth Session of the General Assembly of the United Nations agreed in the Resolution 95/192 the following: "calls on governments to refrain from the supply of arms and other military assistance" to the Junta of El Salvador.
2. To declare themselves in favor of the right of self-determination of the people of El Salvador.
3. To oppose to any kind of intervention that violates this right.
4. To recognize the legitimacy of the struggle that is actually impelled by the people of El Salvador under the direction of the FMLN-FDR to install a Revolutionary Democratic Government.
5. Do not be deceived by the misinformation campaign that is presenting the FMLN-FDR as opposed to constructive dialogue and as a movement that seeks to establish a totalitarian regime.

PROGRAMATIC PLATFORM OF THE DEMOCRATIC REVOLUTIONARY GOVERNMENT

RELEASED

PROGRAMATIC PLATFORM OF THE DEMOCRATIC REVOLUTIONARY GOVERNMENT

The economic and social structures of our country-which have served to guarantee the disproportionate enrichment of an oligarchic minority and the exploitation of our people by U. S. imperialism- are in deep and insoluble crisis.

The military dictatorship is also in crisis, and with it the entire legal and ideological order that the oligarchic interests and the U. S. imperialists have defended and continue to defend, oppressing the Salvadorean people for half a century. Victims of their own contradictions, the dominant classes have failed due to the decisive and heoric action of the people's movement. It has been impossible to stave off this failure, even with the more and more brazen intervention of the United Sates in support of such efforts against the people.

Unswerving commitment to the interests and aspirations of the Salvadorean people by the revolutionary organizations has led to the deepening and strengthening of their roots among the vast toiling majority and the middle sectors. Being so rooted in the people, the revolutionary movement is now indestructible. It constitutes the only alternative for the Salvadorean people, who can be neither stopped nor diverted from their struggle to gain a Free Homeland in which their vital desires will be made real...

The revolution that is on the march is not, nor can it be, the work of a group of conspirators. To the contrary, it is the fruit of the struggle of the entire people-of the workers, the peasants, the middle layers in general, and all sectors and individuals that are honestly democratic and patriotic.

The most conscious and organized ranks of the Salvadorean people, now multitudinous, are fighting in a more and more broad and united way. The worker and peasant alliance - through its combativity, level of consciousness, daring, organization, and spirit of sacrifice for the sake of the people's triumph - has proven to be the most solid basis for guaranteeing the firmness and consistency of the entire Liberation movement. Expressing the unity of the entire people, this movement unites the revolutionary forces and the democratic forces - the two great torrents generated by the long struggle carried out by the Salvadorean people.

The decisive task of the revolution on which completion of all its objectives depends is the conquest of power and the installation of a democratic revolutionary government, which at the head of the people will launch the construction of a new society.

TASKS AND OBJECTIVES OF THE REVOLUTION

The tasks and objectives of the revolution in El Salvador are the following:

1. To overthrow the reactionary military dictatorship of the oligarchic and U. S. imperialism, imposed and sustained against the will of the Salvadorean people for fifty years; to destroy its criminal political-military machine; and to establish a democratic revolutionary government, founded on the unity of the revolutionary and democratic forces in the People's Army and the Salvadorean people.

2. To put an end to the overall political, economic and social power of the great lords of land and capital.

3. To liquidate once and for all the economic, political, and military dependence of our country on U. S. imperialism.

4. To assure democratic rights and freedoms for the entire people - particularly for the working masses, who are the ones who have least enjoyed such freedoms.

5. To transfer to the people, through nationalizations and the creation of collective and socialized enterprises: the fundamental means of production and distribution that are now hoarded by the oligarchy and the U. S. monopolies, the land held in the power of the big landlords, the enterprises that produce and distribute electricity and other monopolized services, foreign trade, banking, and large transportation enterprises. None of this will affect small or medium-sized private businesses, which will be given every kind of stimulus and support in the various branches of the national economy.

6. To raise the cultural and material living standards of the population.

7. To create a new army for our country, one that will arise fundamentally on the basis of the People's Army to be built in the course of the revolutionary process. Those healthy, patriotic, and worthy elements that belong to the current army can also be incorporated.

8. To encourage all forms of organization of the people, at all levels and in all sectors, thus guaranteeing their active, creative, and democratic involvement in the revolutionary process and securing the closest identification between the people and their government.

9. To orient the foreign policy and international relations of our country around the principles of independence and self-determination, solidarity, peaceful coexistence, equal rights, and mutual respect between states.

10. Through all these measures, to assure our country peace, freedom, the well-being of our people, and future social progress.

THE DEMOCRATIC REVOLUTIONARY GOVERNMENT-ITS COMPOSITION AND PLATFORM OF SOCIAL, STRUCTURAL,AND POLITICAL CHANGES

The democratic revolutionary government will be made up of representatives of the revolutionary and people's movement, as well as of the democratic parties, organizations, sectors, and individuals who are willing to participate in the carrying out of this programmatic platform.

This government will rest on a broad political and social base, formed above all by the working class, the peasantry, and the advanced middle layers. Intimately united to the latter forces will be all the social sectors that are willing to carry out this platform - small and medium-sized industrialists, merchants, artisans, and farmers (small and medium-sized coffee planters and those involved in other areas of agriculture or cattle raising). Also involved will be honest professionals, the progressive clergy, democratic parties such as the MNR (Movimiento Nacionalista Revolucionario - Revolutionary Nationalist Movement), advanced sectors of the Christian Democracy, worthy and honest officers of the army who are willing to serve the interests of the people, and any other sectors, groups, or individuals that uphold broad democracy for the popular masses, independent development, and people's liberation.

All these forces are now coming together to make up a revolutionary and democratic alliance in which the political and/or religious beliefs of all are respected. The organized form to be taken by this voluntary alliance at the service of the Salvadorean people will be the result of consultations among all those who make it up.

IMMEDIATE POLITICAL MEASURES

1. A halt to all forms of repression against the people and release of all political prisoners.

2. Clarification of the situation of those captured and disappeared since 1972; punishment of those responsible (be the military or civilian) for crimes against the people.

3. Disarming and permanent dissolution of the repressive bodies - ANSESAL, ORDEN, National Guard, National Police, Treasury Police, and Customs Police, along with their respective "Special Sections;" of the Gotera "Counterinsurgency School" and the so-called Armed Forces Engineering Training Center in Zacatecoluca; of the cantonal and suburban military patrols; of the oligarchy's private paramilitary bands; and of all other kinds of real or nominal organizations dedicated to criminal action or slander against the people and their organizations. The current misnamed security bodies will be replaced by a civilian police force.

4. Dissolution of the existing state powers (executive, legislative, and judicial); abrogation of the Political Constitution and all decrees that have modified or added to it.

The democratic revolutionary government will decree a constitutional law and will organize the state and its activities with the aim of guaranteeing the rights and freedoms of the people and of achieving the other objectives and tasks of the revolution. In doing so, the democratic revolutionary government will adhere to the United Nations "Universal Declaration of Human Rights."

The constitutional law referred to above will remain in force while the Salvadorean people prepare a new Political Constitution that faithfully reflects their interest.

5. Municipal government will be restructured so as to be an organ of broad participation by the masses in managing the state, so as to be a real organ of the new people's power.

6. The democratic revolutionary government will carry out an intense effort of liberating education, of cultural exposition and organization among the broadest masses, in order to promote their conscious incorporation into the development, strengthening, and defense of the revolutionary process.

7. The People's Army will be strengthened and developed. It will include the soldiers, noncommissioned officers, officers, and chiefs of the current army who conduct themselves honestly, reject foreign intervention against the revolutionary process, and support the liberation struggle of our people.

The new army will be the true armed wing of the people. It will be at their service and absolutely faithful to their interests and their revolution. The armed forces will be truly patriotic, the defenders of national sovereignty and self-determination, and committed partisans of peaceful coexistence among peoples.

8. Our country will withdraw from CONDECA (Central American Defense Council), from TIAR (Rio de Janeiro Inter-American Defense Treaty), and from any other military or police organizations that might be the instruments of interventionism.

RELEASED
El Salvador. Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

9. The democratic revolutionary government will establish diplomatic and trade relations with other countries without discrimination on the basis of differing social systems, on the basis of equal rights, coexistence, and respect for self-determination. Special attention will be paid to the development of friendly relations with the other countries of Central America (including Panama and Belize), with the aim of strengthening peace and upholding the principle of nonintervention. Close fraternal relations with Nicaragua will especially be sought, as the expression of the community of ideals and interest between our revolution and the Sandinist revolution.

Our country will become a member of the Movement of Nonaligned Countries and will develop a steadfast policy toward the defense of world peace and in favor of detente.

STRUCTURAL CHANGES

The democratic revolutionary government will:

1. Nationalize the entire banking and financial system. This measure will not affect the deposits and other interests of the public.

2. Nationalize foreign trade.

3. Nationalize the system of electricity distribution, along with the enterprises for its production that are in private hands.

4. Nationalize the refining of petroleum.

5. Carry out the expropriation, in accord with the national interest, of the monopolistic enterprises in industry, trade, and services.

6. Carry out a thorough agrarian reform which will put the land that is now in the hands of the big landlords at the disposal of the broad masses who work it. This will be done according to an effective plan to benefit the great majority of poor and middle peasants and agricultural wage workers and to promote the development of agriculture and cattle raising.

The agrarian reform will not affect small and medium landholders, who will receive stimuli and support for continued improvements in production on their plots.

7. Carry out an urban reform to benefit the great majority, without affecting small and medium owners of real state.

8. Thoroughly transform the tax system, so that tax payments no longer fall upon the workers. Indirect taxes on widely consumed goods will be reduced. This will be possible not only through reform of the tax system, but also because the state will receive substantial income from the activity of the nationalized sector of the economy.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

9. Establish effective mechanisms for credit, economic aid, and technical assistance for small and medium-sized private businesses in all branches of the country's economy.

10. Establish a system for effective planning of the national economy, which will make it possible to encourage balanced development.

SOCIAL MEASURES

The democratic revolutionary government will direct its efforts in the social arena toward the following objectives:

1. Create sufficient sources of jobs, so as to eliminate unemployment in the briefest possible time.

2. Bring into effect a just wage policy, based on:

   a. Regulation of wages, taking into account the cost of living.
   b. An energetic policy of control and reduction of the prices charged for basic goods and services.
   c. A substantial increase in social services for the popular masses (Social Security, education, recreation, health care, etc.).

3. Put into action a massive plan for construction of low cost housing.

4. Create a Unified National Health System, which will guarantee efficient medical service to the entire population (urban and rural). Preventative care will be the principal aim.

5. Carry out a literacy campaign that will put an end to the social defect of illiteracy in the shortest possible time.

6. Develop the national education system so as to assure primary education to the entire population of school age and substantially broaden secondary and university education. Quality and scientific-technical diversification will be increased at all levels, and free education will be progressively introduced.

7. Promote cultural activity on a broad scale, effectively supporting and stimulating national artists and writers, recovering and developing the cultural heritage of the nation, and incorporating into the cultural assets of the broad popular masses the best of universal culture.

It is the unanimous opinion of the popular and democratic forces that only through realization of the measures contained in this platform can the profound structural and political crises of our country be resolved in favor of the Salvadorean people.

Only the oligarchy, U. S. imperialism, and those who serve their anti-patriotic interests are opposed to and are conspiring against these changes. Since October 15, 1979, various parties and sectors have vainly attempted to use the government to carry out a large part of the measures we propose without first overthrowing the old reactionary and repressive power and without installing a truly revolutionary and popular power. This experience has confirmed with full clarity that only the united revolutionary movement in alliance with all the democratic forces can carry out such a work of transformation.

The moment is approaching for this historic and liberating victory, for which the Salvadorean people have struggled and heroically shed so much of their blood. Nothing and no one will be able to prevent it.

STATEMENT FROM THE BISHOP, APOSTOLIC ADMINISTRATOR, PRIESTS AND WOMEN RELIGIOUS OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF SAN SALVADOR

The Bishop, priests and women religious wish to say to all Christians, to the Salvadorean people, and to all men and women of good will throughout the world a clear and strong word on recent, cruel acts against the Church in this country. As teachers, we feel obliged to tell the truth. As pastors, we have the obligation to accompany, orient and encourage the People of God, who feel themselves terrorized and powerless at this time in the face of so much barbarity. We speak with the responsibility commended to us by God, and by the pain and suffering of the Salvadorean people. We have no other interest than to fulfill our obligation as pastors.

1. In the first place, we want to shed light on the most recent and cruel acts of persecution against the Church. We denounce and strongly condemn the dissapearance on November 28th of Father Marcial Serrano, pastor of Olocuilta, who, from all appearances, has been assassinated. Father Serrano was returning to his parish after having celebrated a mass in the village of Chaltipa. But instead of celebrating mass in his parish, eye-witnesses saw him retrace his steps in the company of members of the Army. Since then, the Father has not reappeared. His pick-up truck was found in the National Guard Post with the license plate changed in San Miguel Tepezontes. Members of the National Guard stated that they had picked up the abandoned truck at a given location. Nevertheless, eye-witnesses contradict this version, as they did not see the pick-up truck at that location; nor did they see the National Guard going to get the vehicle.

We denounce and energetically condemn the kidnapping, torture and very probable raping of three of the victims in the assassination of Sisters Maura and Ita of the Maryknoll Congregation; Sister Dorothy, Ursuline from the Cleveland diocese; and Ms. Jean Donovan, lay missionary. On 2 December, Sister Dorothy and Ms. Donovan, who worked in the La Libertad parish, went to the airport to meet the two other sisters. On their return trip to La Libertad, the four were kidnapped. Shortly thereafter, when attempts were made to find them, their car was found completely burned--at kilometer 41, a short distance from the spot where, just hours earlier, a control point of the Security Forces had stopped two vehicles whose passangers included priests and sisters.

We denounce and condemn the November 23rd disappearance of Father Ernesto Abrego, as he returned to the country from Guatemala in a car with several relatives. Their whereabouts are still unknown to this day. Everything leads us to the conclusion that he also has been an assassination victim.

2. These criminal acts of persecution against the Church are the culmination of four years of persecution, which has grown in frequency and cruelty during 1980, a time period that coincides with the new political leadership of the country by the military and the Christian Democratic party. The victims of assassination this year have included Mgr. Oscar Romero, pastor and prophet of the Church and of the Salvadorean people; two priests, Frs. Spessotto and Manuel Reyes; a seminarian close to ordination; and a great number of catechists, delegates of the Word, and faithful Christians. This year, the various pastoral agents--priests, sisters and religious catechists--have been threatened with death; arrested, kidnapped; their residences searched, machine-gunned or attacked with explosives. These same attacks have occurred in Catholic schools and in offices under the authority of the Archdiocese of San Salvador, such at the CRITERIO print-shop, the YSAX radio station and the Archdiocese Legal Aid Office (Socorro Juridico). This year, churches have been profaned, been subjected to gunfire, their occupants at times assassinated, and even reaching the point of having their Blessed Sacrament profaned. In summary, so far this year, the Church has been attacked through all its manifestations...in its pastoral agents, its educational institutions and its communications media. The Church has been the object of a cruel and systematic persecution which despite the Government's promises, far from diminishing, has increased, as the most recent events demonstrate.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights

3. As we witness these acts, horrified and powerless, we confirm that in the commercial media, in the official statements of the Armed Forces and the Government Junta, very often these facts and their interpretation are silenced, twisted or falsified. On the other hand, the communications media of the Church are silenced with bombs and assassinations, the most striking case being that of the YSAX radio station. Given this situation, we have the sacred obligation to state the truth about the persecution and those responsible for it.

The Church is persecuted because it speaks the truth...truth which irritates the powerful. The Church is persecuted because it has taken a preferential option for this country's poor, who for centuries have been oppressed by unjust structures and who today continue being oppressed with virulence bordering on the unbelievable.

Although those directly responsible would like to avoid accountability by conveniently pointing to violence from the left and violence from the right or to a prepotent political-military apparatus, it has nevertheless been evident during the nearly four years of persecution suffered by the Church that the majority of these acts perpetrated against the Church have been carried out by members of the security forces and para-military organizations. Therefore, we reject interpretations that place blame on other social groups, as has been the assertion of Government members in certain instances.

4. Therefore we hold the Security Forces and ultra-rightist groups responsible for the persecution against the Church and specifically for the assassination of priests and lay pastoral workers. We therefore also hold responsible the Government Junta, which given its ultimate authority over the Armed Forces is responsible for actions by members of the military. We lament the fact that past Governments and the present Government Junta itself have not fulfilled their promise to clarify the criminal assassinations of Mgr. Romero, Priests, Sisters and Lay Pastoral Workers.

Therefore, their statements lose credibility. We can no longer accept the customary excuses, after the fact; nor can we accept promises of investigations.

Only an immediate and effective end to the repression and persecution could demonstrate the clear will to stop such acts; only this could exonerate the Junta, at least to some degree, from its responsibility. And only an immediate end to the repression and persecution would give credibility to the repeated offers of dialogue for bringing peace to the country. In any other case, all possibilities for finding a true peace in the country through non-violent means will be strangled.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights

5. In the recent assassinations, we have the situation, in addition, that the victims have been three sisters and a lay missionary, all North Americans. These Sisters, who came to the country to giver their lives with selflessness and generosity, deserve our tribute of admiration and gratitude, and show us the true greatness, solidarity and help of many Christians in our neighboring country, the United States. But these events also show us in what the U. S. Government assistance should not consist. Therefore, we demand, as did our Martyred Archbishop, Mgr. Romero, in a prophetic gesture, that the United States Government not provide military aid to our Government. Because, in spite of statements as to its use, the military aid facilitates repression against the people and facilitates persecution against the Church.

6. This is our word of truth. But we want to given an encouraging and hopeful word to Christians and to the people who suffer a cruel persecution, as well as a word of solidarity to our Pastoral agents so that they not feel abandoned by their pastors during such hard trials.

Persecution is a sign of the authenticity of the Church, because such persecution brings the Church closer to its Divine Founder, Jesus Christ, who also was persecuted for speaking the truth and opting for the poor, and also because thus the Church becomes part of the pain and suffering of the poor people. For these reasons, we must not grow weak. A persecuted Church is today like Christ, the Servant of God, which takes upon itself the sin of the world, the sin of injustice and of repression. That Church always is crucified, and many Christians today are led to the cross.

But by our faith we know that that cross leads to the glory of the resurrection by Jesus Christ and to historic liberation, which will redound in a more just and fraternal society, in which there will be true peace, in which fear and terror will give way to fellowship and joy.

As Christians, we believe that the bodies of Ita, Maura, Jean and Dorothy, four Christians women who gave their lives for the poor, will be a pledge of hope and Christian strength, of justice for the poor and of the long sought-after peace for the Salvadorean people.

We are in Advent, a time of waiting and hope. We trust in God; let us be faithful to our preferential option for the poor; let us share their suffering. One day soon, this hope will become a reality, and there will be justice and peace for the poor. In the meantime, may we remember the foundation of our hope: "Do not be afraid," says Christ. "I have overcome the world."

CHRISTIANS AND THE INSURRECTION OF THE SALVADOREAN PEOPLE

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

The people of El Salvador is living a critical and decisive hour of its history. It is deciding its future and destiny as a people. It is deciding to liberate itself from oppression, to regain its dignity, and to organize a society that will be fraternal and just for the poor majorities. In these moments the Salvadorean people is preparing itself for an insurrection as a last resort to obtain that justice and peace for which it has so yearned and which have so many times been denied it.

We as Christians, men and women religious, clergy, who work in the diverse areas of pastoral ministry, education, social development, and humanitarian aid, want also to accompany the people in these moments, acknowledge the justice of its cause and its struggle, and recognize the legitimate right which moves it to insurrection.

For years we have been close to the suffering people, to the poor and oppressed; we have experienced their misery but also their hope and their decision for authentic liberation. We have attempted to serve them according to the Gospel, but they also have showed us the ultimate truth of the Gospel -- the love of God as the good news of the kingdom for the poor. In this hour of insurrection, full of suffering and hope, we want to be with the poor, we want to explain our option, and we want to see in the insurrection of the people the very signs of the times, the word that God addresses us as Christians.

1. For fifty years the Salvadorean people has lived under the oppression of gravely unjust economic, social and political structures, which in no wise have promoted the common good of the poor majorities but rather have fostered the privileges and the domination of a few. At every level of life -- health, nutrition, housing, employment, education, etc. -- the horrible reality described by Puebla -- "the distance between the many who have little and the few who have much" -- has existed.

Human rights have been systematically violated under military regimes of national security. Freedom of expression, the right to vote, constitutional guarantees have all been violated. The legislative system and the administration of justice have been corrupted. The successive regimes have repressed the people, used illegal arrests and torture, murdered and brought about the disappearance of many of the poor of El Salvador and of many of those who have been in solidarity with their cause.

This long course of oppression and repression has in no way changed but rather worsened, even to the limits of genocide, with the present government born of the pact between military and the Democratic Christian Party. Despite repeated democratic words and deceptive promises of reform, 1980 has witnessed the increase of misery and unemployment and above all the greatest repressive barbarity against the people. More than 10,000 Salvadoreans have been assassinated by security forces, members of the army, and paramilitary groups. Peasants, laborers, union members, students, teachers, professionals, doctors, hut dwellers have been murdered in horrifying numbers and with a cruelty unparalleled in the history of the country. El Salvador has turned, as Archbishop Romero used to say, into the empire of hell.

The Church has also been persecuted as never before during this year. The assassination of Archbishop Romero has been the most significative crime, the most repugnant and provocative, giving the measure of the cruelty of the current system. And along with him this year have been assassinated four priests, bringing to eleven the martyrs of the Salvadorean clergy, three women religious and one social worker from North America, numerous catechists, and a large number of the Christian faithful. In addition, the quarters of the archdiocese, the Legal Aid office, the church shelters, the radio station, the Catholic presses and libraries, the Christian educational institutions, the dwellings of priests and women and men religious and even churches have frequently been searched, machine-gunned and dynamited.

If we want to inject human warmth into these brief summaries, we have to recall the faces of mothers and wives who go from jail to jail looking for disappeared sons and husbands and whose last hope is to find their corpses in clandestine cemeteries. We have to recall the corpses dumped into garbage trucks, the beheaded corpses with members amputated, skinned corpses. We have to recall the peasants who for months sleep out in the brush for fear that the security forces will come; the peasants who flee terrorized from their settlements and are pursued and machine-gunned from helicopters; the peasants of the Sumpul River who have to choose between dying machine-gunned by the guard or drowning in the river or living in incredible misery if they succeed in crossing the frontier alive. We have to recall the little corpses of children thrown into the air as shooting targets of the guard or discovered in the nets of a fisher of the Sumpul.

This is the true situation of our country. This is the result of the politics of the current regime. Monsenor Romero denounced its intentios as reforms with repression. In the course of this year we have seen not the effectiveness of reforms but the horror of the repression. And despite the fact that the government has wanted to evade its responsibility in the repression by interpreting the deaths as a result of confrontations between extremist groups of different characters, both Monsenor Romero and Monsenor Rivera have dennounced those who are truly responsible: the security corps, some factions of the army, the rightwing paramilitary groups, and in the final analysis the governing junta.

This government, consequently, is not legitimate. It does not seek nor secure the common good but is drowning the country in blood. It has the support only of the oligarchy, the security forces, some military and the government of the United States. The salvadorean people repudiates it and has banded into democratic, popular, and revolutionary organizations to put an end to the barbarity and secure a lasting justice and peace.

2. The Salvadorean people has not chosen armed conflict; but rather conflict has been imposed on it. Over the years it has sought peaceful solutions in elections and used social and political pressure to achieve its aspirations. Everything has proved futile. Elections have been systematically fraudulent and political organizations and parties have been systematically harrassed and threatened with annihilation.

The coup of October 15, which might have been a last peaceful resort to bring about a solution, soon betrayed its ineffectiveness. All the civilian and some of the honest military men have gradually abandoned the successive juntas and their governments. All of them have cited the same reasons: the impossibility of carrying out a genuine policy favoring the people and the impossibility of stopping the repression, decidedly promoted by those entrenched in the armed forces, the government, and the junta.

If the common good does not exist in El Salvador, if peaceful avenues have been continually closed, then we are in that situation in which the church admits the right of legitimate insurrection, "in the case of clear and prolonged tyranny which gravely menaces the fundamental rights of the person and injures the common good of the country" (Paul VI, Populorum Progressio, n. 31; Medellin, Peace, n. 19).

As Salvadoreans and Christians we are conscious of the tragedy of a war, of the human and material costs it brings with it. We are conscious of the fruitfulness of peace and we have worked for it. But we repeat, with Monsenor Romero, that if this is not possible "then it is a case of insurrection, which the church admits when all peaceful means have been exhausted" (Interview in the Caracas Diario, March 19, 1980).

The Salvadorean people has, besides, the right not only to its internal liberation but to its external independence. It has the right to decide its own destiny without the intervention of foreign powers to defend what they term their vital interests. For that reason we repeat what Monsenor Rivera recently affirmed and Monsenor Romero clearly expressed in a letter to President Carter: the United States is not supported by any right to interfere in the destiny of El Salvador in order to determine its future and still less to support militarily the current government. "It would be unjust and deplorable if, because of the interference of foreign powers, the Salvadorean people were to be frustrated, were to be repressed and prevented from deciding autonomously the economic and political course which our nation must follow. It would suppose the violation of a right which we Latin American Bishops, gathered in Puebla, publicly acknowledged when we cited 'the legitimate self-determination of our peoples which will allow them to organize themselves according to their proper genius and the march of their history' (Puebla, 505) (Letter to President Carter, February 17, 1980).

Special Project (1993)

For that reason we joint with the many voices from the entire world and, especially, with the declarations of bishops, priests, religious, and Christians of the United States, to demand of their government not to interfere-in El Salvador.

3. An insurrection for the liberation of a people is not only a legitimate historical reality, but, for Christians, it is also a sign of the times through which God speaks to and calls us. The first thing that a just uprising tells us is that God's patience has run out. The experience of Israel in Egypt is being repeated: "I have seen the affliction of my people, I have heard their cry of complaint against their oppressors; I know well what they are suffering. Therefore, I have come down to liberate them" (Ex 3, 7-8). The God of life, of justice and of liberation is once again present in the rebellion of a people against the sin of society. God is present defending the poor against the oppressors.

In this situation, an uprising speaks to us of Christian resurrection. An oppressed people, crucified like Christ, like the servant of Yahweh, sheds once again its blood for the life of the poor masses. And, like the cross of Christ, this fruitful and salvific. Though in a tragic way, it does produce anew the paschal cycle of death and life, of suffering and hope.

There is sorrow because of the cost in human lives, in the disruption of social life, and in material destruction. We pray, therefore, as Christians, that the uprising be as human as possible and that it not degenerate into a dynamic that is destructive. We pray, as did Monsenor Rivera, that it not become dehumanized, that all respect the laws of war, the rights of civilian people and the combatants, the immunity of churches, hospitals and shelters, and that, even in the midst of armed struggle, no one commit acts of terrorism nor assassinations out of vengeance. We pray that those who struggle for a just cause, struggle with nobility and that those who continue to defend a cause that is against the people stop shooting their own brothers and sisters.

In an insurrection there is, above all, hope. Christian hope clearly, does not reside in arms, even though these may be necessary and legitimate. Christian hope resides in the justice of a people's cause, in the generosity of their gift of self, in the nobility of their struggle. Hope is present when the heroism and valor characteristic of the armed struggle are afterwards transformed into generosity and commitment to the reconstruction of the country as expressed by Isaiah: that swords be turned into plowshares, that the wolf and the lamb shall graze together, that the poor shall live in the houses they build and eat the fruit of the fields they till (Is. 2:4; 65:21-25). Christian hope, finally, resides in there issuing from the uprising the real resurrection of the poor of El Salvador.

As Christians we ask God that the great amount of blood that has been spilled will bear fruit in life, that life given up generously will turn us toward the one God who is love and commitment to the poor, and toward his shon Jesus Christ who came to bring life, life in abundance. We ask God to keep us resolutely with the people in their moments of sorrow and working joyfully in the task of reconstruction.

With faith in God and in the blood shed by so many Salvadorean martyrs, we would like to end with the prophetic words of Monsenor Romero that we may not falter: "The cry of liberation of this people is a cry that reaches up to God and one that nothing and no one can stop." Over these ruins the glory of the Lord will shine.

The situation of human rights and fundamental freedoms in El Salvador

49. At the same meeting, the Committee adopted draft resolution A/C.3/35L.71/Rev.2, as revised, by a recorded vote of 63 to 13, with 48 abstentions.

46. The revised draft resolution read as follows:

"The General Assembly,

"Guided by the principles embodied in the Charter of the United Nations and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,

"Conscious of its responsibility to promote and encourage respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms for all,

"Noting that all Governments have an obligation to respect and promote human rights in accordance with the responsibilities they have undertaken under various international instruments,

"Bearing in mind resolution 19 of 30 July 1980 of the World Conference of the United Nations Decade for Women,

"Dismayed by reports of human rights violations in El Salvador and especially by the death of thousands of persons and the climate of repression and insecurity prevailing in the country,

"Deeply shocked by the vile assassination of Archbishop Oscar Arnulfo Romero, a prestigious personality, outstanding for his defense of the human rights of the Salvadorean people, and by the persecution of religious figures, and other prominent persons,

"Gravely concerned about the unknown fate of many persons detained by the authorities,

"Considering that the supply of arms and other military assistance, will serve to aggravate the situation in that country,

"1. Expresses its deep concern for the grave violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms in El Salvador;

"2. Deplores the murders, disappearances and other violations of human rights reported in El Salvador;

"3. Urges the Salvadorean Government to take the necessary steps to ensure full respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms in that country;

"4. Appeals for a cessation of violence and for the establishment of full respect for human rights in El Salvador;

"5. Calls on Governments to refrain from the supply of arms and other military assistance in the current circumstances;

"6. Requests the Commission on Human Rights to examine, at its thirty-seventh session, the situation of human rights in El Salvador."

47. A draft resolution (A/C.3/35/L.71/Rev. 2) was introduced on behalf of Angola, Benin, Cuba, Democratic Yemen, Ecuador, Iraq, Mozambique, Nicaragua, Panama and Sao Tome and Principe, subsequently joined by Algeria, Mexico, Viet Nam and Yugoslavia.

RESOLUTION FROM THE 15th POST WAR CONGRESS OF THE SOCIALIST INTERNATIONAL

LATIN AMERICA AND THE CARIBBEAN

The Socialist International reaffirms its solidarity with the people of Latin America and the Caribeean in their struggle for freedom, democracy and social justice.

The 1980's will be a crucial decade in proving the viability of democratic socialist development in Third World nations as an alternative to military dictatorships or traditional oligarchic regimes.

For the Socialist International this is especially true in Latin America and the Caribbean.

We express our satisfaction for the process of democratisation which is taking place in some countries of the region, and we maintair our committment to defend their achievements gained through the hard struggles of their people. This is the case in the Dominican Republic and Ecuador.

We believe that the victory and the achievements of the Nicaraguan revolution reflect the hopes for social change in the whole region. We reiterate our support for the Sandinista Front for National Liberation.

In the Southern Cone and several Central American countries, however, violations of human rights and political repression have heightened. We pledge our support to the progressive forces in these countries -- fighting for democracy and freedom. The Socialist International warns in the strongest terms against any attempt by foreign powers to intervene in the internal affairs of Latin American and Caribbean countries.

In our view, Michael Manley and the People's National Government of Jamaica made a decisive contribution to democratic socialism and to the New International Economic Order, not only in the Caribbean but to developing nations around the world: It is clear that external factors inherent in the existing economic order, and its institutions, led to the deterioration of the economic and social situation in Jamaica and had an influence in the outcome of the recent elections.

We will always stand by the PNP.

The Socialist International expresses solidarity with the people of Grenada and our new member party, the New Jewel Movement. The International will not accept foreign intervention in Grenada's affairs, military or economic.

RELEASED

The Socialist International, concerned about the human rights situation in Guyana, expresses its solidarity with the people of that country and calls upon the government to ensure that the coming elections, unlike the last, are free and fair. We salute the Working People's Alliance and its presence at our Congress.

The Socialist International supports the people of Haiti in their struggle against the repressive Duvalier dictatorship.

The Socialist International aks the United States Government to end its political and military support for the present Junta in El Salvador and recognize that this has failed to prevent further bloodshed. We reject the thesis that the Salvadorean problem is one of a Junta fighting the extreme Right or Left. It is rather a despotic regime whose activities have led to a state of civil war.

Our deepest hopes and active solidarity are with the Frente Democratico Revolucionario in El Salvador, of which our member party MNR is a part.

In Guatemala, we are behind the Frente Democratico Contra la Represion as representatives of their people's democratic struggle to end murder, bloodshed and repression.

Belize must be granted its independence from colonial rule, secure within its present borders, as it wishes.

We declare once again our support for the Panama Canal Treaties which are the best proof that in Latin America a negotiated settlement is possible between big countries and small ones to fight wrongs and make possible a relaxation of tensions, to bring peace to the region.

We express our solidarity with the Union Democratica y Popular and the National Unity Government of Bolivia, led by Hernan Siles Suazo and Jaime Paz Samora, in its struggle to restore the democratic process brutally interrupted by a vicious military dictatorship. We plead with all parties concerned to deny recognition and to maintain the isolation of this regime. We express our horror at the murder of socialist leader Marcelo Quiroga Santa Cruz at the hands of the military Junta.

We join with the people of Chile in their ongoing reistance to the military Junta. We support the people's rejection of an oppressive "constitution" imposed following the false referendum.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

In the same terms we denounce the "constitutional referendum" scheduled for November 13th, 1980, in Uruguay as a fraud. We support the Uruguayan people's rejection of this false democratisation programme ("cronograma"). We stand behind the Convergencia Democratica de Uruguay.

Equally, we support the struggle of the Paraguayan people against dictatorship through the instrument of the Acuerdo Nacional whose socialist component is the Partido Revolucionario Febrerista.

We offer our solidarity to the democratic forces in Argentina fighting against repression. We confirm our wholehearted solidarity with the "Madres de Plaza de Mayo" and demand that the Argentine regime be held to account for the fate of the missing people with particular reference to the missing children.

We welcome the statement of the September 13th, 1980 Caracas meeting of the fraternal parties in Latin America and the Caribbean.

We were disturbed by some of the comments on Latin America made by the then Republican candidate for the presidency of the United States -- especially his expressions of support for the dictatorial regimes in El Salvador and Guatemala, and his attacks upon Grenada and Nicaragua. We hope that our fears will not be realized. We will await policies of the new Administration before making our judgments. But we will regard the new Administration's attitude towards Latin America and the Caribbean as a signal of its posture in the whole world. In the 1980's, the growth of further dictatorship, or of democracy, social justice and respect for human rights in the region will be significantly affected by the United States. But the attitude of the United States itself will be determined to a large extent by the pressure of international public opinion.

At the same time we remind our European members that their countries' participation in the economic life of the region should not help to legitimize military dictatorships, as has often been the case.

RESOLUTION ON EL SALVADOR

The Socialist International Women adopt the resolution approved by the Socialist International at the Oslo meeting in June of the current year, in which it is clearly asserted that the continued support by the United States to the present repressive and unstable government Junta is not a viable solution to the situation under which this country is living.

The Socialist International Women also add that the United States' support has contributed to the violent and repressive policies of the military forces of the Salvadorean Government, and has driven the country to a state of civil war.

The Socialist International Women reiterate their support to the Democratic Revolutionary Front's struggle and call upon all the membership to defend El Salvador's liberation process.

EL SALVADOR'S UNDER SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE

JANUARY-MARCH 1980

Special Project (1993)

STATEMENT BY JORGE ALBERTO VILLACORTA

FORMER UNDER-SECRETARY FOR AGRICULTURE OF EL SALVADOR

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights Archive Project (1993)

I, Jorge Alberto Villacorta, was Under-Secretary of Agriculture of El Salvador from January to March 1980; my principal activity was the development of the Basic Law on Agrarian Reform and its corresponding application. After March 6, I participated directly in the process of the take-over of the properties of persons who owned more than 850 acres of land in El Salvador.

This governmental action--undertaken with the direct participation of the Army--was part of the commitment that the Armed Forces made to the P.D.C. (Christian Democrat Party) and the people on 9 January. The reform was aimed at generating a new model of rural development, based on the direct participation of peasants and unsalaried agricultural workers in agricultural production and using self-managed enterprises the fundamental nucleus.

In my opinion, it is important to point out that this agrarian reform law, so essential to El Salvador in resolving the basic problems of our society, has been rendered completely useless by the climate of political violence in which it has been promulgated. The Agrarian Reform had, as a basic political objective, the intention to pacify the country and to channel development within a model of participatory democracy. None of these objectives has been achieved, nor can it be predicted that they can be achieved, due to the repressive action that the very government is carrying out with its security forces and the army.

I resigned from my position on March 26, 1980, because I believed that it was useless to continue in a government not only incapable of putting an end to the violence, but a government which itself is generating the political violence through repression. My remaining in the government was related to compliance with the agreement on 9 January, but these agreements have not been kept. The repressive process has not been stopped. That is an indispensable condition for moving ahead with political reform. Further, the popular sectors have not been incorporated into the provisions of the reform.

In reality, from the first moment that the implementation of the agrarian reform began, what we saw was a sharp increase in official violence against the very peasants who were the supposed "beneficiaries" of the process. With growing concern, I saw how each day the reports that reached us from the countryside clearly indicated increase in the repression against the peasants. This happened at the same time in which we were taking actions to convert these same peasants into subjects of the agrarian reform process.

There exists clear evidence that during the month of March, while I served as Under-Secretary, recently-elected directors of the agricultural enterprises were killed by gunfire. In the first days of the reform, to cite one case, five directors and two presidents of the new peasant management organizations were killed. It can be clearly established that every day this repressive process has become stronger. Recently, in one of the large estates taken over by the agrarian reform, uniformed members of the security forces accompanied by a masked person brought together all the workers; the masked person pointed out the directors of the self-management group and then these individuals were shot in front of their co-workers.

I can also verify that many other presidents and directors had their lives threatened or have experienced attempts to kill them; this has led many of them to resign or simply not accept the position once elected.

In the last three months, a great number of peasants belonging to the agrarian reform sector have been killed; likewise, several technicians of the Ministry of Agriculture and the Institute of Agrarian Transformation, who are advisors and co-managers in these properties, have fallen victim to the repression.

These bloody acts have been carried out by uniformed men of the National Guard and Treasury Police, accompanied by civilians of ORDEN, all heavily armed; they have been accompanied by armoured trucks and heavy arms; furthermore, I gathered testimonies from peasants and workers belonging to Christian organizations against whom many crimes were carried out by heavily-armed civilians acting with total impunity.

Within this framework of reform with repression, it is impossible to implement and complete an agrarian reform program that aims to redistribute income, increase production and productivity, diversify production, generate employment, and transfer power over the land to the dispossessed majorities. All this on the basis of a plan of democratic and free participation. A non-totalitarian and non-state-controlled model can only be carried out with the real participation of the peasants and this cannot be achieved when those supposedly favored are assassinated. In the present situation, perhaps an agrarian reform model of a totalitarian state-controlled nature might be applied, but never a democratic one, as long as there is not a stop to the repression which strikes down the peasants.

My resignation was based on the fact that it is impossible for the agrarian reform to gain popular participation. On the contrary, what one saw was that day-to-day government increasingly distanced itself from the people and established a closer relationship with rightest sectors, whose criminal action is strengthened and stimulated by the complacency of the security forces.

JUSTIFICATION FOR THE RESIGNATION OF THE SALVADOREAN AMBASSADOR TO NICARAGUA

Press Communique from the Salvadorean Ambassador to the Countries of Central America and the World

When I was called to occupy the post of El Salvador's Ambassador to Nicaragua, we talked-among many doubts and reflections of a program of reforms and nationalizations. Program that I believed had already been sincerely initiated, as something indispensable and necessary to get our country out of its horrendous misery. I acepted with the honest desire to help my people.

As time went by (approximately six long months) I began to realize that the minds of those who govern our country were guided not only by greed and the stubornessof the powerful, but also by an insatiable thirst for blood, with torture and crime already as a part of the government programs.

As Ambassador I thought I could represent with justice the 5 million hungry and thirsty Christians of El Salvador, and I must not, and can not, continue sponsoring horrendous crimes. Crimes such as the ones perpetrated against the exemplary lives of the six leaders of the Democratic Revolutionary Front, the crimes against the North American nuns, and the assassinations of Salvadorean priests.

You can not persecute the Church, because, among other reasons, in our case, you would be persecuting a whole Christian people. I now understand that a fight between the ultra-left and ultra-right has never existed, as the Salvadorean government and the most obscure imperialist forces want to make it appear.

In El Salvador there is a war of all the people against a group of military assassins, fascists and the small group of ambitious, christian-democrats that is left.

I have deliberately delayed my resignation until this time, because I have been serving as intermediary to save the lives of some political prisoners; but the ambition for power of the darkest sector of the acting government has condemned these prisoners to certain death.

I leave disgusted with this government. I am not a rat that is abandoning the ship; I simply cannot continue to navigate in a ship commanded by rats.

STATEMENT OF ARCHBISHOP ROACH ON THE RESTORATION OF MILITARY AID TO EL SALVADOR

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

The U.S. government has today announced the resumption of military assistance to the Junta in El Salvador. For several months now, and with particular intensity in the last four weeks, the U.S. Catholic Conference (USCC) has presented to the Carter Administration its position of opposing any military assistance to El Salvador. These discussions with the Administration have been frank and frequent; the President and the Secretary of State have provided us many opportunities to set forth our views, and they are aware of our position, the reasons why we hold it and the popular support the position has among members of the Church in the United States and in El Salvador.

In formulating and expressing our position the USCC has been conscious of the complexity of the situation in El Salvador. We have taken our orientation from the Church in El Salvador, a community of faith which has committed itself to the pastoral task of accompanying the people, specially the poor and the oppressed, in their daily suffering and in their struggle for justice and freedom. That struggle has produced martyrs for the Church in El Salvador: Archbishop Romero, several priests, countless numbers of lay leaders, and most recently the four American women missionaries who selflessly gave their lives in service to the poor. The social struggle for dignity, for justice, for land has resulted in the death of ten thousand Salvadorans during the last year. While many factors are at work in a conflict of this magnitude, we remain convinced that the principal perpetrators of the violence have been the forces of the extreme right, the security forces which continue to function without control and their allies.

In the face of this human and political tragedy, we were aware that any decision made by the United States on military assistance would be a controverted and agonizing one. That decision has now been taken.

While recognizing the factors that were carefully considered in making it, I must frankly express the USCC's profound disappointment and disagreement with the decision to renew military aid to El Salvador.

Our opposition to renewed military aid is based on the conviction that no real evidence exists that the government of El Salvador has brought the security forces under control. The murder last week of three people associated with the land reform program. two of them American citizens, is an illustration of the violence from the right which daily afflicts the citizens of El Salvador. The restoration of military assistance, in our view, enhances the possibility of more violence from the security forces and associates the United States with acts of oppression which can only alienate the majority of the people of El Salvador. A principal form of this oppression which deeply concerns us is the persecution of the Church in that country.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

Providing military aid conveys an image of the United States which contradicts the best aspects of our human rights policy. It contributes to a view that we are prepared to support policies abroad that we would never sanction at home.

Finally, we fear that the kind of military aid now proposed will increase the possibility of further direct American involvement in the conflict with El Salvador in the months ahead. For all these reasons we find the provision of military aid a costly gamble which we cannot support.

A CALL BY THE GENERAL COMMAND OF THE FMLN TO INITIATE THE GENERAL OFFENSIVE

The United Revolutionary Directorate of the Farabundo Marti Front for National Liberation, (FMLN- which has taken the General Command of all the Revolutionary Armed Forces of the five Organizations that make up the FMLN), addresses itself to all the Heroic People of El Salvador: Workers and Peasants, Revolutionary Men and Women, Democrats and Patriots:

The decisive hour has come to initiate the decisive military and insurrectional battles for the seizure of power by the People and the constitution of the Revolutionary Democratic Government.

Decades of suffering, more than 50 years of military dictatorship, are at the point of being destroyed for ever by the upsurge of the popular struggle.

In this crucial and historic moment in the destinies of the Salvadorean and Central American Peoples, the Unified Revolutionary Directorate of the Farabundo Marti Front for National Liberation, which is the General Command, calls upon all the People, on the Workers, Peasants, Students, Teachers, Employees, Democratic Sectors, Soldiers and Progressive Officers; Religious Sectors, to all: men and women - to the Struggles of the Regular and Guerrilla Revolutionary Units to, the Militias of the Revolution and to the Fighting Masses, to immediately initiate the military actions of the Popular Insurrection to win the victory of the Revolution.

We call upon all the people to rise up as one man with all the means of combat, under the orders of their immediate leaders, in all the war fronts and throughout the length and breadth of the national territory, to fight valiently for the definitive overthrow of the regime of repression and genocide of the criolla oligarchy and of imperialism.

EVERYONE TO THE STRUGGLE!!

We call upon all the patriotic and progressive officers and soldiers to join the ranks of the People.

This is the moment to place yourselves with your brothers, the workers!

Turn your arms against the cruel and bloody chiefs of the high command and commanders of the counter-revolutionary army!

The hour of the Revolution has arrived! The hour of Liberation has arrived!

The definitive triumph is in the hands of this Heroic and Valient People, who have shed their blood for so many years to win the right to be free, to partake of Democracy, true Independence, Social Progress, Sovereignty and Self-Determination!

FARABUNDO MARTI FRONT FOR NATIONAL LIBERATION

TO THE SALVADOREAN PEOPLE

TO THE PEOPLE OF CENTRAL AMERICA AND THE WORLD

The General Command of the Farabundo Marti Front for National Liberation (FMLN) declares to all its sister peoples -- those of Central America and of all the world-- that the great operation comprised in the plan for the launching of the general revolutionary offensive, begun on the 10th of January, was carried out with success by the regular units, guerrilla and militia units of our popular revolutionary army.

Since the 10th of January, when this General Command of the FMLN issued the orders for the offensive 1 and 2, the revolutionary armed forces carried out the following actions.

IN THE CENTRAL FRONT - MODESTO RAMIREZ

- Seige of the barracks of Chalatenango and the capture of the city during the 10, 11 and 12th days of January.
- Seige of the barracks of Paraiso and control of the access routes between this point and the city of Chalatenango during the 10th, 11th and 12th days of January.
- Attacks at enemy garrisons in the towns of San Antonio La Cruz, Arcatao, La Palma Patanera, San Francisco Morazan, San Antonio Los Ranchos, all in the province of Chalatenango.
- Taking of Suchitoto and seige of the enemy garrison on January 11 and 12.
- Capture of the city of Apopa on the 10th of January.
- Control of the communication routes between the Troncal del Norte highway and the towns of Aguilares, Suchitoto and San Jose Guayabal.

IN SAN SALVADOR

- The capture of three radio stations on the 11th of January.
- Attack on the Air Force. The Air Force was unable to take off for several days.
- The taking of Soyapango, Mejicanos, Cuscatancingo, and fighting in Ciudad Delgado, Tonacatepeque.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

- Control of the highways of San Marcos, Santo Tomas and Comalapa.
- Harassment of the barracks of the National Guard and of the Rural Police.

WESTERN FRONT - JOSE FELICIANO AMAS

- Attack against the 2nd Infantry Brigade in the city of Santa Ana, a unit in which a company of soldiers led by two officers rose up and went over to fight with the people and the FMLN on the 10th of January, after burning the arsenal of the garrison.
- Attacks against the barracks of the National Police, the National Guard and the Rural Police, on the 10th, 11th and 12th of January in Santa Ana.
- Attack on the enemy garrisons in Metapan, in the province of Santa Ana, and the capture of the city on the 12th and 13th of January.
- Attack on the enemy barracks and popular insurrection in the city of Chalchuapa, the second largest in the province of Santa Ana; attacks on the enemy garrisons in San Julian, Armenia, Acajutla, Sonsonate, Cara Sucia and Bola de Monte.
- Attack on the Border Police, the 10th of January in Santa Ana.

IN THE NEARCENTRAL FRONT - ANASTACIO AQUINO

- Attack and harassment of the National Guard barracks of Villa Victoria.
- Capture and annihilation of enemy military units in Cinquera in the province of Cabanas on January 12th.
- Harassment of enemy forces in Jutiapa the 14th of January.
- Capture of Santa Clara, on January 11th.
- Continuous attacks in Tecoluca between the 10th and 15th of January.
- Harassing actions against the barracks of the city of San Vicente from the 11th of January on.
- Control of the Pan American Highway, from San Rafael Cedros to Apastepeque.
- Control of the coastal highway from Puente de Oro to Zacatecoluca.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights

EASTERN FRONT - FRANCISCO SANCHEZ

- Occupation of the city of Perquin and assault on the enemy garrison on the 11th of January, in the province of Morazan.

- Occupation of the city of Osicala, Morazan on January 13th.

- Occupation of the cities of El Rosario, Corinto, Nueva Esparta Santa Rosa de Lima on the 12th of January (provinces of Morazan and La Union).

- Seige and assault on the barracks at Gotera during the 13, 14 and 15 of January.

- Ambush at the top of Rio Seco of a powerful column of reinforcements marching to Gotera from the Central Barracks of the Infantry Brigade stationed in San Miguel. This column, which included armored vehicles and artillery, was stopped and in large part disorganized.

- Ambush of reinforcements that were going from La Leona to the city of Puerto de La Union.

- Diversionary actions were carried out in the city of San Miguel.

- Control of the highways between San Miguel and Gotera, between San Miguel and Usulutan and El Delirio.

The high degree of coordination of those actions in the four war fronts, the strength of the attacks, the high moral of our fighters-- demonstrate clearly the high military capacity of our forces.

During several days, they managed to annihilate numerous positions, lay seige to and contain strategic military units of the genocidal Junta, stop its communications and supplies, intercept the reinforcements that were sent in the majority of the few cases where the enemy high command was able to move troops in the national territory.

The impact of the initial phase of the general offensive on the ranks of the puppet and assassin army, managed to draw from its ranks patriotic officers and soldiers of our people who are today fighting with their brothers, directing their arms against the real enemies of our people, a valient attitude that is a vibrant call to those decent officers and soldiers who still remain within the structures of the fascist command.

Today, the Salvadorean workers, the entire people, can have proof that their vanguard, the FMLN, has known how to forge the instruments that will bring about a total revolutionary victory.

In San Salvador, where the elite strategic forces of the enemy are concentrated and where the massacre that the fascist dictatorship has carried out for several years reached its highest volume in 1980, the working masses most conscious carried out with great valor the call for the strike. The FMLN recognizes that, except for the attack on the central base of the Air Force, it did not manage to strike the forceful military blows in the capital that were needed to sustain the full development of the strike and to set off the popular insurrection.

The genocidal government has tried to take advantage of this fact through its delirious and lying propaganda. Other voices have also been heard making superficial judgements about the supposed refusal of the popular masses in the capital to take the road of revolution. We are absolutely certain that the heroic and combative people of San Salvador will give full lie to such speculations and we call upon them to prepare for the coming battles, at the same time that we call upon the ranks of our member organizations of the FMLN and their revolutionary armed forces to organize in all details the coming great revolutionary actions in San Salvador.

The Junta has had no recourse but to seek the support of mercenaries and launch a lying campaign of propaganda, backing itself with the muzzling of the means of communications, including permanently tying together all the radio stations.

But this will not permit it to make up for its losses, nor recover the initiative in the war. Our forces, within the context of the general offensive, are now carrying out a necessary and previously planned movement that guarantees the continuation of the offensive to new and higher phases.

The military-Christian Democratic Junta and its murderous armed forces were rocked by the energetic initiation of our general offensive. Desperately, they seized upon the intensification of the repressive terror against an unarmed population as other rotten dictatorships had done as their end approached. They established the curfew and the Martial Law with this end to this end.

The government of the United States rushed to facilitate and increase the sending of military advisors, arms and ammunition to help the Junta maintain itself and extend the massacre against our people. At the same time, the imperialists are threatening the Nicaraguan people and, with the new interventionist steps they have taken, are shaping up the serious danger of the extension of the conflict to all of Central America, thus threatening the peace of the world.

The FMLN, at the head of the heroic Salvadorean people, will continue advancing in its struggle to the final liberation of our people, without taking fright before the stubborn imperialist intervention.

The people of Sandino, who opened the future of Central America, will not kneel before the imperialists. The people of Central America, who are now living in the most important hour of their history, will close ranks to prevent the sad mourderous designes of imperialism from coming to pass.

Nine of every ten U. S. made bullets that come into the hands of the Junta go directly to spill the blood of the unarmed population, and are designed to kill children, women and the elderly. Each new step that imperialism takes in its military escalation against the Salvadorean people, increases the threat against the Nicaraguan revolution and against peace in Central America and the Caribbean, and threatens the peace of the world.

We are sure that the peoples of the world and the governments that love peace and defend the principles of self-determination, will raise their powerful voices and set in motion their actions of solidarity to hold back the military escalation of U. S. imperialism against the Salvadorean people.

Forward fighters, forward guerrillas and militias, forward companeros workers and patriotic soldiers, continue the battles that will bring peace, justice, liberty and true independence to our native country.

STOP MILITARY AID TO EL SALVADOR

The Representation in the United States of the Democratic Revolutionary Front (FDR) of El Salvador warmly greets the people of the United States and thanks them for the growing and innumerable gestures of sympathy and solidarity that they have made on behalf of the Salvadorean people who are fighting for their liberation.

We also respectfully call upon the Churches, the trade unions, professionals, students, minority groups, humanitarian and political organizations, the anti-draft movement, solidarity committees and all justice- and peace-loving people to stop the Reagan government from continuing the rapidly-growing military aid that the Carter administration is sending to the military/Christian-Democrat dictatorship in El Salvador, for the following reasons.

1. It is against the majority opinion of the North American people, who in different ways have demanded from the U. S. government that it cease its continuing support for the military Christian Democrat dictatorship.

2. It goes against the recently-approved resolution of the General Assembly of the United Nations, that "Calls on Governments to refrain from the supply of arms and other military assistance to El Salvador in the present circumstances," considering that it would contribute to the worsening of the situation in that country.

3. It is an underhanded military intervention that violates the right to self-determination of the Salvadorean people.

4. It makes the government of the United States an accomplice of the cruelest genocide that the Salvadorean people have suffered, a genocide that is affecting all of the social sectors, even the Church, and that unfortunately has reached even the people of the United States themselves with the cruel assassination of the three North American nuns and one lay worker.

5. There is a danger in the rapid and aggressive manner that aid is being escalated of precipitating in a short time the direct intervention of military troops, as happened in the Viet Nam war. This painful experience is one that neither the Salvadorean nor the North American people want repeated.

The Representation in the United Sates of the Democratic Revolutionary Front trusts that the North American people will react energetically against military aid to the Salvadorean government, and that they will demand of President Reagan, from the first days of his administration, to suspend it once and for all, respecting the right to self-determination of the Salvadorean people.

DECLARATION BY THE FMLN ON THE AGRESSIVE ATTITUDE ADOPTED BY THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES

FARABUNDO MARTI NATIONAL LIBERATION FRONT

DEMOCRATIC REVOLUTIONARY FRONT

SAN SALVADOR, EL SALVADOR, C.A.

DECLARATIONS BY THE FMLN ON THE AGRESSIVE ATTITUDE ADOPTED BY THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES

The decision by the United States government to intensify its intervention in El Salvador by increasing its "aid" in advisors, arms, helicopter gunships and other war materials, the agressive and false statements made in the last few days by Robert White - the Ambassador to San Salvador, statements made by U. S. present State Department spokeperson Trattner concerning an invented invasion of Nicaraguan guerrillas into the eastern section of our country, together with the refusal of the U. S. government to carry on a dialogue with the FMLN present clear evidence that the imperialists have taken the path of imposing a military solution on the national crisis and impeding, by force, our people's inalienable right to self-determination.

This decision by the U. S. government is condemned to failure, sooner or later. The heroic salvadorean people and their recognized revolutionary vanguard, the FMLN will never kneel. Together with fellow Central American peoples, whose struggles are more and more profoundly interlaced in a multifaceted manner and with inexhaustible international solidarity, we have the capacity to win and we will win.

On the other hand, the decision by the government of the United States to impose a military solution, constitutes a grave threat to the sovereignty and security of the Nicaraguan people who are being openly blackmailed, this constitutes a threat to the right to self-determination of other fellow Central American peoples and causes imminent danger of regionalizing the war.

The General Command of the FMLN considers it a duty to inform the peoples and governments of our region and worldwide public opinion, that the government of the United States has adopted this adventuristic and agressive decision. Decision made at a time when, giving attention to the situation we have communicated our inclination to carry on a constructive dialogue with them.

In fact, before taking this line toward a military solution to the Salvadorean crisis, the government of the United States established six points for discussion in order to initiate a dialogue with us. These points were:

1. Ceasefire.
2. Total reorganization of the government.
3. Disbanding of the repressive corps.
4. Reorganization of the Army.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights Special Project (1993)

5. Reforms.
6. Elections.

On January 14, a direct emmissary of the FMLN and the FDR, by mutual agreement, visited the U. S. Ambassador in Honduras to communicate our willingness to initiate the dialogue whenever the U. S. terminated all forms of military "aid" to the Genocidal Junta and makes a commitment not to militarily invade our country with either its own or other troops.

The State Department's response was to close all avenues of dialogue with us, to blackmail against Nicaragua and to increase supplies and military advisory teams to the murderous Junta.

The agressive behaviour of military imposition by the U. S. will have unforseen consequences in Central America, since the war could be extended into Honduras if we are compressed against its borders, which we do not want. It puts into jeopardy the compliance with the Panama Canal Treaties, won through long struggle by the people of Panama. Belice's will see its independence postponed. It will cause, without a doubt, solidarity actions on the part of the people of Costa Rica, changing their already tense environment with violence. The Guatemalan people, whose unified vanguard is leading a growing guerrilla struggle, will come to the aid to their Salvadorean brothers and sisters, they will defend themselves redoubling their armed struggle, from their-thirsty internal enemies, unconditional instruments of U. S. agression. Nicaragua and their people will have to defend themselves and will under the wise and proven leadership of the FSLN, doubtlessly acquit themselves in an exemplary manner.

This provocation on the part of the U. S. is an incendiary measure, that puts into jeopardy regional and world peace, also peace in the United States. A country where our struggle enjoys extensive sympathy and support among the people, growing closer and more solidary with our people. The responsibility for these consequences falls, beginning today, on the government of the United States which refuses to carry on a dialogue with the FMLN and puts fire to the prairie.

We have been and continue to be respectful of the self-determination of Central American peoples and, feeling profound solidarity with their struggles, have abstained from artificial maneuvers which would bring our conflict to their soil.

We categorically reject Duarte's scandalous statement that Nicaraguan guerrillas entered our country. It is an absurd invention by a traitor to the Salvadorean people, in order to divert attention from his shameful public call to Reagan to invade our country. It is a resort by the Imperialist propaganda to justify the agressive line of military escalation, taken by the United States government against our people and Central America.

The FMLN, has declared on numerous occassions and reiterates today that it maintains a flexible, realistic position, open to dialogue with the U. S. government, based upon the FMLN's firm and undeniable decision to lead our people to definitive liberation.

The U. S. must withdraw, immediately, military aid to the murderous Junta and behave in a civilized manner. This will be the best for all. But they should also be aware that their threats and their weapons do not frighten us, we will defeat them today, tomorrow or later. The world is with us and imperialism moves against the current of history.

UNITED IN COMBAT, UNTIL FINAL VICTORY!!!

COMMUNIQUE FROM THE POLITICAL-DIPLOMATIC COMMISSION OF THE FMLN-FDR CONCERNING STATEMENTS MADE BY U. S. AMBASSADOR TO EL SALVADOR, ROBERT WHITE

The Joint Political-Diplomatic Commission of the Farabundo Marti National Liberation Front, (FMLN) and the Democratic Revolutionary Front (FDR), in compliance with the functions given it by the people of El Salvador through their unified fronts - the FMLN and the FDR - expresses to the people of the world its position with respect to statements made by the United States Ambassador to El Salvador, Mr. Robert White.

1. The statements made by Ambassador White to the effect that his country will not permit the installation of a Marxist-Leninist government in El Salvador not only reveals a fundamental misunderstanding of the nature of the struggle of the Salvadorean people, but also a lamentable intrusion on the part of the United States representative into the internal affairs of El Salvador. This intrusion violates the most basic norms of international relations between sovereign nations approved by the United Nations and the Organization of American States.

   Only the 5 million people of El Salvador can and must decide their own destiny. It is not up to the government of the United States or any other government.

2. Over the past decades, the U. S. government, according to its own desires and interests, has seen liberation movements as a pretext to intervene directly or indirectly in Latin America. This was demonstrated in Guatemala in 1954, in the Dominican Republic in 1965, and in Chile in 1973. Again it is being demonstrated in El Salvador where they are attempting to use the same sad, tired arguments.

3. By speaking of the installation of a Marxist-Leninist dictatorship in El Salvador, Ambassador White outlined a simplistic and misleading description of the type of society the Salvadorean people will be constructing immediately following the overthrow of the military-christian democratic tyranny in El Salvador.

   In essence, Ambassador White pretends to ignore what the FMLN and the FDR have repeatedly undertaken to defend for the Salvadorean people and before all governments and peoples of the world: political pluralism, respect for private industry willing to participate in reconstructing the country and a [illegible] defense of the principles of non-alignment in foreign policy.

4. The Political-Diplomatic Commission of the FMLN-FDR of El Salvador is surprised by White's statements because they constitute a forceful response to our open position and willingness to carry on a dialogue with the United States government and all governments and political forces which do not try to distort the destiny chosen by the Salvadorean people.

5. The Political-Diplomatic Commission of the FMLN-FDR hopes that Mr. White's declarations, which imply underhanded interventionism, are reflective more of personal criteria than of the official position of the United States government.

CHILE: RESUMPTION OF EX-IM FINANCING

In keeping with the intent of legislation that EX-IM financing not be restricted except when denial would "clearly and importantly advance U.S. policy," the prohibition on Ex-Im financing for U.S. exports to Chile has been lifted. As a result, American businesses will be able to compete more effectively with other exporters in Chile's rapidly expanding market. Chile also is being invited to participate in the UNITAS exercise this year. It was not invited last year. Ex-Im financing was suspended and other actions were taken on November 30, 1979 because of the failure of the Government of Chile to make a serious effort to investigate and prosecute three Chilean ex-intelligence officers indicted by a U.S. court for the assassinations of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt. Our willingness to take steps, which affected U.S. interests as well as those of the Government of Chile, demonstrated the seriousness with which we viewed this matter. The actions taken were not intended to be permanent. We continue to hope the Government of Chile will move to prosecute those implicated in the Letelier/Moffitt case but unlike the 1978-1979 request for extradition, we are not an active party to the investigation in Chile.

PRESS GUIDANCE February 20, 1981

CHILE - EX-IM AND UNITAS

Q. The reason given for suspending Ex-Im financing was that it would advance U.S. policy in combatting international terrorism. Secretary Haig has recently stated that combatting international terrorism will be accorded even higher priority by the Reagan administration. How does this action with respect to Chile square with that recent statement?

A. The Letelier/Moffitt assassinations occurred in 1976. The Government of Chile has denied any responsibility but has failed to carry out a full investigation or prosecute those implicated. Our actions in response to Letelier/Moffitt demonstrated that any Government that, in effect, condones acts of international terrorism will incur significant costs in its relations with us.

Q. Does this mean that Ex-IM Bank will resume loans immediately? Are any loans imminent?

A. Decisions on any particular credit or insurance applications will be made by the Export-Import Bank Board of Directors. The Board will now be in a position to consider applications to support U.S. exports to Chile in the same manner as those for other countries.

Under the previous policy, Ex-Im Bank was unable to receive applications for credits or insurance in Chile. We anticipate that once the revised policy is communicated to the U.S. business community, the Bank will receive several applications.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Q. Will this change in policy benefit the Chilean Government?

A. We believe that the principal beneficiaries of resuming normal Ex-Im Bank operations in Chile will be U.S. businesses and their employees and shareholders.

Q. What about other actions taken in response to Letelier/Moffitt? Are they also being lifted?

A. Other actions stemming from Letelier/Moffitt will be reviewed at an appropriate time.

Q. Why will Chile be invited to participate in UNITAS this year?

A. Chile is an important naval power in South America and its participation enhances the value of the UNITAS exercise and strengthens overall hemispheric defense. The decision to exclude Chile last year because of Letelier/Moffitt was not intended to be continued into 1981.

2. AT WEOG MEETING AM FEBRUARY 25, USDEL PRESENTED U.S. POSITION ON AGENDA ITEM 5, HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHILE, AS CONTAINED REFTEL.

3. FIRST COMMENT WAS MADE BY NETHERLANDS REP (VAN DER STOEL) WHO HAS BEEN PLAYING A LEADERSHIP ROLE IN WEOG ON CHILE ISSUE. VAN DER STOEL WAS EMPHATIC IN HIS DISAGREEMENT WITH U.S. POSITION, ARGUING THAT NOW IS NOT THE TIME TO END THE MANDATE OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR BECAUSE THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN CHILE HAS NOT IMPROVED SINCE THE HRC LAST CONSIDERED THE MATTER. VAN DER STOEL FURTHER OBJECTED TO THE SUGGESTION THAT THE CHILE CASE BE CONSIDERED UNDER THE 1503 PROCEDURES. HE SAID IF THE CASE WERE TO BE MOVED TO THE 1503 PROCEDURES, THE HRC WOULD BE CONFIDENTIAL

REDUCED TO PUTTING QUESTIONS BEHIND CLOSED DOORS TO THE CHILEAN REPRESENTATIVE. SUCH A PROCEDURE WOULD BE COMPLETELY INEFFECTIVE SINCE ONLY THROUGH PUBLIC PROCEEDINGS IS THE HRC ABLE TO EXERT PRESSURE FOR CHANGE IN SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATIONS. VAN DER STOEL SAID THAT HE WAS MAINTAINING CONTACT WITH THE DELEGATION OF MEXICO WHICH,

TOGETHER WITH THE DELEGATIONS OF ALGERIA, CUBA, AND YUGOSLAVIA, HAD ALREADY TABLED A DRAFT RESOLUTION (TEXT GENEVA 1825). VAN DER STOEL HAD BEEN ENCOURAGED TO THINK THAT THE MEXICAN DELEGATION WOULD BE REVISING THE DRAFT SO AS TO MODERATE ITS PROVISIONS. HE SAID HE WOULD BE REPORTING FURTHER TO THE GROUP ON THE RESULTS OF HIS EFFORTS.

4. VAN DER STOEL'S POSITION WAS STRONGLY SUPPORTED BY THE REPRESENTATIVES OF AUSTRALIA AND DENMARK, BOTH OF WHOM ARGUED THAT THE CHILE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION HAS NOT SHOWN IMPROVEMENT AND WHAT WAS STILL NEEDED WAS THE EXPOSURE OF THE SITUATION TO THE GLARE OF PUBLICITY THROUGH PUBLIC DEBATE AND ACTION BY THE HRC.

5. THE REPRESENTATIVE OF FRANCE AGREED WITH THE U.S. POSITION THAT THE TIME HAD COME TO TERMINATE THE MANDATE OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR, BUT HE FELT THAT FURTHER MEASURES SUCH AS MOVING THE CASE TO THE 1503 PROCEDURES WOULD NOT NOW BE WARRANTED. THE REPRESENTATIVE OF GREECE EXPRESSED SYMPATHY WITH THE U.S. ARGUMENTS CONCERNING THE SINGULARITY OF THE TREATMENT OF CHILE, BUT HE FELT THAT TO FOLLOW THE POSITION FAVORED BY THE U.S. AT THIS TIME IN THE FACE OF THE LACK OF IMPROVEMENT IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN CHILE WOULD SET A BAD PRECEDENT.

6. SUMMING UP WHAT APPEARED TO HIM TO BE THE GENERAL MOOD OF THE GROUP, THE WEOG CHAIRMAN LORD COLVILLE (UK REP)
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

OBSERVED THAT WHILE EVERYONE WOULD LIKE TO SEE THE TERMINATION OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR'S MANDATE, THIS COULD ONLY BE ACCOMPLISHED WHEN THE GROUP WAS SATISFIED THAT THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN CHILE WAS SUFFICIENTLY IMPROVED. HE SUGGESTED THAT TO ACCOMPLISH THIS OBJECTIVE THE UNITED STATES MIGHT BE ABLE TO ASSIST BY PUTTING EXTRA PRESSURE ON THE CHILEAN AUTHORITIES.

7. USREP NOVAK THANKED THE GROUP FOR THE FRANK EXCHANGE OF VIEWS AND EXPRESSED HIS REGRET THAT THE THREE SPECIFIC ARGUMENTS PUT FORWARD BY THE USDEL HAD NOT BEEN DEALT WITH DIRECTLY. NOVAK STRESSED THE IMPORTANCE WHICH THE USG ATTACHES TO MOVING TO A LESS DISCRIMINATORY TREATMENT OF THE CHILE CASE IN COMPARISON TO OTHER CASES WHICH FEATURED EVEN GRAVER HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATIONS. HE NOTED THAT IN THE CASE OF CHILE THERE WAS A TRADITION OF DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS AND OBSERVANCE OF BASIC HUMAN RIGHTS WHICH NEEDED TO BE ENCOURAGED. THE CONSTANT EXERCISE OF PRESSURE THROUGH THE ADOPTION OF HRC RESOLUTIONS COULD BE COUNTER-

PRODUCTIVE AND FORCE THE CHILEAN AUTHORITIES TO ADOPT EVEN HARDER POSITIONS.
8. IN CLOSING THE DISCUSSION THE WEOG CHAIRMAN ASKED THAT THE NETHERLANDS REP CONTINUE TO CONSULT WITH THE MEXICAN REP WITH A VIEW TO FINDING A RESOLUTION TEXT THAT WOULD ATTRACT WIDESPREAD WEO SUPPORT. HE EXPRESSED THE THANKS OF THE GROUP FOR THE EFFORTS WHICH WERE BEING CARRIED ON BY THE NETHERLANDS REP WITH A VIEW TO ACHIEVING MODIFICATIONS IN THE ORIGINAL MEXICAN DRAFT. LORD COLVILLE STRESSED THAT THE INTENTION OF THE GROUP WAS TO FIND A RESOLUTION WHICH WOULD BE HELPFUL IN BRINGING ABOUT IMPROVEMENTS IN THE CHILEAN HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION.

9. COMMENT: USDEL HAD EARLIER BEEN INFORMED PRIVATELY

COMMENTS OF CUMMINS ENGINE COMPANY, INC.
Proposed Revision of the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR) published in the December 19, 1980 Federal Register
(45 F.R., No. 246, at pp. 83970 et seq.)

Cummins Engine Company, Inc., an Indiana corporation having its principal place of business at 1000 Fifth Street, Columbus, Indiana (hereinafter "Cummins") hereby submits its comments on the Proposed Revision of the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR) published in the December 19, 1980 Federal Register (45 F.R., No. 246, at pp. 83970 et seq.)

Cummins manufactures and sells high-speed, heavy-duty diesel engines in the 140 to 1600 horsepower range and spare parts for these engines to original equipment manufacturers and distributors on a worldwide basis. In 1980, almost seventy-five percent of CUMMINS' sales were made to commercial truck manufacturers principally in the U.S., United Kingdom, Europe, Mexico and Australia. Approximately twenty-five percent of Cummins' 1980 sales were made to the commercial industrial and construction market for end-use application in marine units, generator sets, rail and locomotive units, stationary power units, agricultural machinery and all types of construction and mining equipment.

Virtually all of Cummins' engine production is sold to the commercial market. A very small part of our standard commercial production does undergo modification for the purpose of those military applications subject to control under ITAR. However, we know that these are modifications of commercial engines and parts, not separate product lines. They are produced in the same plants and on the same assembly lines as are all our products intended for the commercial market.

For example, the U.S. Army's new M2 Infantry Fighting Vehicle is powered by a modified commercial Cummins engine built in the same plant and on the same assembly line with commercial engines. The majority of parts used in its manufacture are common to the commercial versions. Because the few specifically designed parts which adapt this engine to the military vehicle are also designed and manufactured in the commercial facility, identification of the parts and technical data requiring control pose special problems for Cummins and other commercial engine manufacturers who follow similar procedures. We can think of no other items of "significant military equipment" on the U.S. Munitions List which are actually built in mixed process with commercial items out of predominently commercial parts.

We believe it is important to emphasize that in Cummins' case most of the modifications to the standard commercial engine for military applications involve no changes to the basic engine but rather involve relatively superficial modifications which are, for the most part, directed at changes outside the basic engine configuration. These modifications relate for the most part to the need to mount the engine in more confined or unusual locations. These modifications are in no way related to the special design characteristics which are common to traditional military engines. For example, engines specially designed for military application do not use normal commercial alloys because of the importance of weight, are generally air cooled and generally have external oil lines. Cummins' modifications bear no relationship whatsoever to these traditional military design features. The subject Cummins' engine is still water cooled, is made of normal commercial alloys and contains the conventional commercial lubricating system. The modifications which might be made affect none of these features and would typically consist of:

(a) reduction of depth of oil pans;

(b) changing angular orientation of the engine;

(c) relocation of turbochargers (e.g., from top to side);

(d) modifying manifold piping; and,

(e) adjustments for additional horsepower on the ordinary commercial production line.

We would note that this practice of modifying standard commercial engines does provide economic benefits to the United States military when Cummins' standard commercial, slightly modified engines are selected for military applications. Engineering and manufacturing modifications of existing, proven commercial engines eliminate many product development and manufacturing costs that would otherwise be incurred to develop, tool and produce a separate diesel engine solely for military application.

For the above reasons, in promulgating revisions to ITAR, Cummins requests your careful consideration of the special problems in defining technical data and parts subject to ITAR control in a manufacturing situation such as ours. In view of the foregoing, we believe that the public purposes underlying ITAR can be fully achieved while at the same time taking into account our manufacturing practices and the economic benefits they offer to our military and to the taxpayers.

Before commenting on the specific portions of the proposed revisions to ITAR, we would like you to consider a policy issue. We would urge that minor modifications to standard commercial products and the related application engineering should not cause either the product or the technical data generated by the application engineering to come within the scope of ITAR. We stand ready and able to work with the Department in an effort to define the meaning of "minor" modifications. Should the Department disagree with this concept, then Cummins urges that, at the very least, ITAR should make clear that ITAR covers only the technical data which is essential to the creation of the defense articles and, further, that ITAR covers only those components, accessories, attachments and parts which are useable exclusively in defense articles.

We suggest that this approach would be consistent with the purposes of ITAR and the International Security Development Cooperation Act of 1980 (P.L. 96-533) the philosophy of which is removal of items from the Munitions List. While we recognize that section 108(a) of that Act does contemplate that items specially designed, modified, or adapted for military use would not be removed from the Munitions List, we submit that "minor" modificatons should be excluded from the scope of section 108(a). We would further note that removal of the regulatory burden for the products and data which is the subject of this filing would advance the congressional mandate expressed in the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980 (P.L. 96-511).

Addressing ourselves to the specific ITAR modifications, Cummins proposes the following:

1. There should be a specific provision in the regulations to the effect that "dual-use" items (end-items, parts and components useable interchangeably, without modification, for both military and commercial applications) and related technical data are outside the scope of ITAR. An appropriate modification should be made to proposed section 121.1.

2. In addition, the regulations should provide some benchmark below which items would not be deemed to be "specifically designed or modified" for defense articles (e.g., see proposed section 121.1 (Category VII, subparagrph (g)). Cummins stands ready and willing to work with the Department to specifically define those design or modification functions which would be deemed sufficiently minor as to cause the end product and related technical data (the "application engineering" therefor) to fall outside the scope of ITAR. Cummins would also note that under the proposed regulations not only would standard commercial engines modified for military application be deemed defense articles within the scope of section 121.21, but also, such engines would be considered "significant military equipment" as defined in section 121.123 and, hence, would be subject to even more stringent restrictions. We submit that this would be a classic case of "overkill" and urge that if the Department were unwilling to remove these items from within the definition of "defense articles" then, at the very least, they should not be deemed to be significant military equipment.

3. If the proposal set forth in paragraph 2 above were for any reason deemed unacceptable by the Department then, at a minimum, consistent with the mandate of P.L. 96-511, the Department should adopt a procedure for "blanket" licensing for exportation to designated countries of these items which consist of no more than minor modificatons to standard commercial products. We are aware of the fact that the Department views favorably license applications for exportations to NATO countries and Australia, New Zealand and Japan and we would urge that a procedure be adopted whereby exportations of these basic commercial products to these and other friendly countries be permitted under such a blanket authorization (with restrictions on re-exportations to other destinations).

4. Technical Data -- Too broad a reading of the proposed ITAR revisions could necessitate export controls on entire engine families and business processes which are, in fact, essentially commercial operations. For example, a broad reading of "relating directly to" in Section 121.315(a) could conceivably control technical data on basic designs and processes developed for commercial application which have simply been incorporated into an engine modified in other ways for military application. (For instance, in the case of a commercial engine adapted for military use through special components and application engineering, too broad a reading of Section 121.315 might suggest that the original design for commercial application is controlled.) The impact on Cummins of this broad reading would be exceedingly costly, necessitating munitions export controls on many of our commercial engines.

But we believe a more specific and restrictive interpretation would be beneficial. The purpose of the proposed regulations is not extensive and irrelevant control of engines and parts unrelated to military application, but prevention of the exportation, production or reproduction of Munitions List items by persons not authorized to do so by the U.S. Government. This control is accomplished, in Cummins' case, by the following:

a. The engine product ready for its intended military use (i.e. the modified engine, not the basic commercial model).

b. Parts, components and accessories specifically designed to modify the engine for military use (i.e. the parts which transform a commercial engine into one suitable for military application).

c. The unique technical data essential for specifically designed items and the modified engines which include them (thus, for example, drawings essential for such special parts would be controlled, but not drawings for standard commercial off-the-shelf items).

We would therefore suggest the following language changes for purposes of clarification:

Section 121.315, page 83976

Change the definition of "technical data" from "unclassified information not in the public domain relating directly to"

to "unclassified information not in the public domain and essential to the creation of"

A similar change is required in Section 121.1, Category XVIII (page 83973).

5. There is included within the definition of "defense articles" as used in section 121.1, specially designed or modified components, parts, accessories, attachments and associated equipment (see, for example, section 121.1, Category VIII). In Cummins' case a not uncommon

"modification" would involve bending an ordinary commercial piece of tubing pipe somewhat differently in order to accommodate different space considerations involved in the military application. It is obviously important that this piece of tubing and similar commercial parts not be deemed to be a "defense article" before they are modified for the military application. In order to accomplish this purpose it is suggested that section 121.26 be changed to make clear that the regulations cover only those "end-items, components, accessories, attachments and parts" which are usable exclusively in "defense articles" as defined in the regulations.

STATEMENT: FIRST, I CAME TO CHILE AS PART OF A PROGRAM OF CONSULTATIONS WITH THE MAJOR COUNTRIES OF SOUTHAMERICA AS DETERMINED BY PRESIDENT REAGAN, WHO CONSIDERS IT HIGHLY IMPORTANT THAT WE KEEP INFORMED OUR FRIENDS, OUR ALIES AND THOSE WHO HAVE COMMON INTERESTS WITH US. I CAME HERE A

REASONS WHY WE ARE VERY CONCERNED ABOUT WHAT IS HAPPENING IN THAT COUNTRY. THE UNITED STATES IN NOT WILLING TO ALLOW FOREIGN COUNTRIES TO OVERTHROW ESTABLISHED GOVERNMENTS IN THIS HEMISPHERE BY FORCE. AND IT WAS WITH THIS IDEA THAT THE SECRETARY OF STATE SENT ME ON THIS TRIP, WHICH BROUGHT ME TO THE MAJOR COUNTRIES OF THE CONTINENT, TO MAKE THIS INFORMATION AVAILABLE TO THE GOVERNMENTS OF THESE COUTRIES. I WAS VERY WELL RECEIVED BY THE AUTHORITIES HERE ALONG WITH MY OLD FRIEND, GEORGE LANDAU, A FRIEND OF MANY YEARS, WHO REPRESENTS MY COUNTRY SO WELL IN YOUR OWN. I MET THE PRESIDENT OF CHILE 25 YEARS AGO, SO I WAS NOT RECEIVED BY SOMEONE I DID NOT KNOW. I HAD MET HIM AND HAD SEEN HIM VARIOUS TIMES IN THE INTERIM SINCE THE FIRST TIME I MET HIM ECUADOR,HE BEING A MAJOR IN THE CHILEAN MISSION AND I BEING A LIEUTENANTCOLONEL.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Q: GENERAL, HOW IS THE UNITED STATES GOING TO RESPOND TO THE FOREIGN INTERVENTION IN EL SALVADOR?
A. WELL, WE ARE ABOVE ALL TRYING TO REACH A PEACEFUL SOLUTION IN EL SALVADOR. AS I SAID BEFORE, AS ON OLD SOLDIER, I CONSIDER THAT MILITARY SOLUTIONS ARETEMPORARY EXCEPT IN EASTERN EUROPE WHERE THEY ARE PERMANENT. YOU ONLY HAVE TO ASK THE POLES OR THE HUNGARIANS THAT. ATLEAST THERE THEY ARE FINAL.
Q: DOES THE FACT THAT YOU VISITED ARGENTINA AND CHILE SIGNIFY A CHANGE INU.S. FOREIGN POLICY?
A: YES, Y WOULD SAY SO.I WOULD SAY THAT WE HAVE A PERHAPS DISTINCT VIEW FROM THAT OF THE PREVIOUS ADMINISTRATION; BUT,

Q: IS CUBA IMPLICATED IN THE SHIPMENTS OF ARMS TO THE SALVA-DOREAN GUERRILLAS?
A: YES, CUBA AND OTHER COUNTRIES.
Q: DOES THE UNITED STATES SUPPORT THE CREATION OF....
A: CUBA AND OTHER COUNTRIES OUTSIDE OF THIS HEMISPHRE. NOT ONLY CUBA. NOT ONLY CUBA, IT'S OTHER COUNTRIES FURTHER AWAY, EUROPEAN, AFRICAN, ASIAN. COMMUNIST COUNTRIES.
Q: IN CENTRAL AMERICAN, INCLUDING NICARAGUA ALSO?
A: WELL YES, INCLUDING NICARAGUA.
Q: WILL THE UNITED STATES SEND MILITARY ADVISERS TO EL SALVADOR?
A: WILL THEUNITED STATES DO WHAT?
1: SEND MILITARY ADVISERS TO EL SALVADOR?
A: WELL I DON'T KNOW WHAT WE ARE GOING TO SEND,BUT I THINK WE ARE GOING TO MAKE A GREAT EFFORT TO SEE THAT THE SOLUTION BE PEACEFUL AND THAT FORCE NOT BE USED THERE. WITHOUT MILITARY FORCE, WE HAVE THE POSSIBILITY OF MAKING THE PRICE PRETTY HIGT FOR THOSE WHO ARE INTERFERING IN EL SALVADOR. WE HOPE THAT ACERTAIN POINT THEY ARE GOING TO JUDGE THE PRICE TOO HIGH

AND ARE GOING TO STOP WHAT THEY ARE DOING.
Q: GENERAL, INFORMATION COMING FROM WASHINGTON INDICATES THAT TODAY, SPECIFICALLY, AN AMERICAN NAVAL GROUP IS BEING SENT AS ADVSIER TO EL SALVADOR. ARE YOU AWARE OF THIS?
A: NO. I HAVE NO INFORMATION ABOUT THAT. I LEFT WASHINGTON TEN DAYS AGO, BUT IT SEEMETO ME THAT THE DANGER OF EL SALVADOR IS NOT SO MUCH A NAVAL ONE, IT SEEMS TO ME THAT THE DANGER IS IN.....
Q: AN ANALYSIS IN WASHINGTON SAID TODAY THAT THE COUNTRY WHICH HAS RECEIVED YOU BEST IS CHILE, AND THAT THE OTHER COUNTRIES VISITED HAVE NOT RECEIVEDYOU IN THE SAME WAY. THIS ANALYSIS ALSO SAYS THAT YOUR TRIP HAS BEEN A FALURE. WHAT DO YOU HAVE TO SAY TO THAT?

A: I HAVE NOT HAD A SENSE OF IT BEING, OF MY TRIP BEING, A FAILURE. BUT I AM NOT VERY OBJECTIVE ABOUT THIS. IN ALL THE COUNTRIES THAT I HAVE VISITED I HAVE BEN VERY WELL RECEIVED, BECAUSE THE ESSENTIAL THING TO REMEMBER ABOUT MY MISSION IS THAT I DIDN'T COME TO ASK ANYONE FOR ANYTHING. I CAME ONLY TO INFORM. AND WHEN ONE INFORMS, IT'S VERY DIFFICULT FOR HIM TO BE RECEIVED BADLY. I HAVE NOT HAD THE SENSE OF BEING RECEIVED BADLY BY ANYONE.
Q: IS THE UNITED STATES SUPPORTING THE CREATION OF A LATIN AMERICAN MILITARY FORCE IN THE STYLE OF NATO?
A: THAT IS MUCH FURTER DOWN THE ROAD. FOR THE MOMENT, WE ARE TRYING TO REACH A PEACEFUL SOLUTION ACCEPTABLE BY DEMOCRATIC

FORCES IN EL SALVADOR.
Q: HAS YOUR COUTRY CONSIDERED THE POSSIBILITY OF A NAVAL BLOCKAGE TO SOLVE THE CENTRAL AMERICAN PROBLEM?

Q.: MEXICO?
A: I AM HAPPY. KEEPING IN MIND THE DIFFERENCES OF EACH COUNTRY, I AM VERY CONTENT IN THE WAY IN WHICH I WAS RECEIVED IN ALL THOSE COUNTRIES. WE UNDERSTAND PERFECTLY WELL THAT THERE ARE MANY COUNTRIES WHICH DO NOT AGREE WITH US ON ALL POINTS, AND WITHIN OUR SYSTEM THAT'S PERFECTLY ACCEPTABLE. I DIDN'T COME TO REQUEST ACTION ON YOUR PART. I CAME TO TALK ABOUT THE EVIDENCE THAT WE HAVE.
Q: DO YOU BELIEVE THAT YOU SUCCEDED IN CONVINCING GOVERNMENTS WITH THE INFORMATION THAT YOU BROUGHT ABOUT THE DANGER?
A: WELL, ONLY THE GOVERNMENTS TO WHOM I BROUGHT THE INFORMATION CAN JUDGE AND MAKE THEIR DECISIONS.
Q: YOU MET TODAY WITH THE INTENDENTE OF VALPARAISO, REAR ADMIRAL RAUL LOPEZ SILVA. DID YOU DISCUSS THE RENEWAL OF OPRATION UNITAS?
A: NO. THE VISIT TO VALPARAISO WAS FOR TOURISM. I KNEW IT BEFORE.... AND FOR THAT REASON I WANTED TO RETURN TO VALPARAISO AND VINA DEL MAR.
Q: DID YOU SPEAK ABOUT BILATERAL AFFAIRS, ESPECIALLY THE LIFTING OF SANCTIONS AGAINST CHILE? DID YOU SPEAK WITH THE PRESIDENT, WITH THE MINISTER OF FOREIGN RELATIONS?
A: IT WOULD BE MORE APPROPRIATE FOR THE PRESDIENT TO SAY, AND NOT ME, WIHAT I DISCUSSED WITH THE PRESIDENT. I AM A GUEST IN THIS COUNTRY AND IT WOULD NOT BE APPROPRIATE FOR ME TO SPEAK ABOUT THAT.
Q: BUT YOUR OPINION WITH RESPECT TO THE LIFTING OF SANCTIONS BY THE UNITED STATES?
A: WELL, THAT IS A DECISON OF AMERICAN GOVERNMENT. WE HAVE ALREADY MADE CERTAIN DECISIONS. YOU WILL CERTAINLY HAVE

READ THE SPEECH OF MR. NOVAK IN GENEVA AND YOU BETTER ABLE TO JUDGE THE DIRECTION OF AMERICAN POLICY THAN I.
Q: THE $30 MILLION IN ARMS THAT PRESIDENT REAGAN ANNOUNCED

HE IS SENDING TO EL SALVADOR?
A: UP TO THE 17 OF JANURAY OF THIS YEAR THE UNITED STTES HAD NOT OFFERED ANY MILIATRY AID TO THE SALVADOREAN GOVERNMENT SINCE 1977. THESE DECISIONS COULD HAVE BEEN TAKEN SINCE MY DEPARTURE FROM WASHINGTON, SO I AM NOT UP TO DATE ON THOSE FIGURES WHICH YOU MENTION. I LEFT WASHINGTON TEN DAYS AGO. BUT I EMPHASIZE THAT DURING TH THREE YEARS BEFORE JANUARY 17, 1981, WE DID NOT OFFER ANY MILITARY AID TO EL SALVADOR.
Q: GENERAL, HOW WOULD THE UNITED STATES REACT TO THE PRESENCE OF SOVIET TROOPS IN AFGHANISTAN AND AN EVENTUAL INVASION OF POLAND?
A: WELL, WE OPPOSE ALL INVASIONS OF ONE COUNTRY BY ANOTHER, AND YOU KNOW WHAT I AM SAYING BECAUSE THE SOVIETS INVADED AFGHANISTAN. AND THE CUBANS ARE BUSY IN OTHER PLACES.
Q: WILL THE NEW POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES TOWARD CENTRAL AMERICA CONSIDER THE POSSIBILITY OF CREATING A SOUTH ATLANTIC TREATY ORGANIZATION?
A: WELL, I HAVE HEARD DISCUSSION ABOUT THIS FOR MANY YEARS, BUT I HAVE NOTHING TO SAY ABOUT THAT. MY MISSION, AND I REPEAT ... MY MISSION HERE IS TO INFORM THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT ABOUT FOREIGN INTERFERENCE IN EL SALVADOR. I HAVE NO OTHER MISSION, EXCEPT TO GIVE YOU PERSONAL OPINIONS AND NOTHING MORE.
Q: ARE YOU GOING TO CONTINUE THIS KIND OF TRIP IN LATIN AMERICA?
A: I AM ALMOST AT THE END OF THE TRIP AND I AM RETURNING TO THE UNITED STATES.
Q: WHAT IS YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH GENERAL CONTRERAS?
A: I MET GENERAL CONTRERAS WHEN HE CAME TO WASHINGTON. NO, I MET HIM WHEN I CAME TO CHILE SOME YEARS AGO. HE CAME TO WASHINGTON AS DO ALL CHIEFS OF INTELLIGENCE SERVICES. I WAS WITH HIM ON TWO OCCASIONS THERE. SINCE THEN I HAVE NOT SEEN HIM. SINCE I SPEAK MANY LANGUAGES ALMOST ALWAYS WHEN AN INTELLIGENCE SERVICE CHIEF CAME, I HAD CONTACT WITH HIM.

Q: IS THE LETELIER CASE STILL OPEN OR IS IT CLOSED?
A: WELL, I DON'T FULLY UNDERSTAND THE POSITION OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT. THERE WAS-A MURDER IN THE UNITED STATES. THAT IS SOMETHING THAT NO SOVEREIGN COUNTRY CAN ACCEPT. WITH REGARD TO THE DETAILS OF THE CASE, I DON'T KNOW. MY NAME WAS MENTIONED IN THE CASE. I NEVER SPOKE OF A LIST WITH GENERAL CONTRERAS, AND ANY COMPILATION OF A LIST OF AMERICAN CONGRESSMEN FAVORABLY DISPOSED TO A FOREIGN COUNTRY WOULD BE AN ACT OF TREASON ON MY PART AND AS AN OLD SOLDIER AT THE END OF MY CAREER, I WOULD NOT HAVE DONE THAT. I HAD NO KNOWLEDGE OF THE LETELIER AFFAIR, NO KNOWLEDTE BEFORE OR AFTER. MUCH HAS BEE SPOKEN ABOUT THAT, BUT WHEN THE ASSASSINATION OF AMBASSADOR LETLIER OCCURRED, I HAD BEEN RETIRED FROM GOVERNMENT SERVICE FOR SEVERAL MONTHS. CERTAIN PEOPLE DON'T HAVE THEIR FACTS STRAIGHT.

A: WELL, YOU KNOW THAT A LAW EXISTS, THE SO CALLED KENNEDY-HUMPHREY LAW, WHICH PROHIBITS THE SALE OF ARMS TO CHILE AND ALSO TO ARGENTINA. AND IN ORDER TO LIFT THIS, A LEGISLATIVE ACT WOULD BE NECESSARY, A VOTE BY THE CONGRESS.
Q: BUT COULD YOUR GOVERNMENT CONSIDER THE POSSIBILITY OF MAKING A MOVE TOWARD LIFTING THIS?
A: MY GOVERNMENT COULD MAKE MANY SUGGESTIONS, BUT I HAVE BEEN AWAY FROM WASHGINTON FOR MORE THAN TEN DAYS AND I HAVEN'T KEPT UP WITH THE MATTER. IN ANY CASE, THE SALE OF ARMS

REQUIRES AN ACT OF CONGRESS.
Q: IS A MILITARY SOLUTION BY THE UNITED STATES POSSIBLE IN THE CENTRAL AMERICAN CRISIS?
A: WELL, I THINK PERSONALLY THAT WE WILL OBTAIN A PEACEFUL SOLUTION, BUT AS AN OLD SOLDIER I DON'T THINK THAT IT'S GOOD TO ALWAYS GIVE YOUR PLANS AWAY TO YOUR ADVERSARIES. TO SAY WE ARE OR NOT GOING TO DO SOMETHING. THE UNITED STATES IS COMMITTED TO FINDING A PEACEFUL SOLUTION THAT ALLOWS THE SALVADOREAN PEOPLE TO LIVE IN PEACE AND FREEDOM.
Q: THAT IS, YOU DON'T DISCOUNT A MILITARY SOLUTION.
A: THEY ARE CALLING ME TO THE PLANE. I AM VERY SORRY. TIME'S UP. I ONLY WANT TO SAY TO ALL OF YOU THAT MY STAY IN CHILE WAS MARVELOUS AND THAT I HOPE TO RETURN TO THIS GREAT AND LOVELY COUNTRY. THANK YOU VERY MUCH.

SUBJ: PRESS COVERAGE OF WALTERS VISIT

1. THE FEBRUARY 26-27 VISIT OF GENERAL WALTERS RECEIVED EXTENSIVE AND VERY FAVORABLE COVERAGE IN THE MAJOR SANTIAGO DALIES AND BROADCAST MEDIA. WHILE HIS PURPOSE OF CONSULTING ABOUT EL SALVADOR WAS CAREFULLY NOTED, MOST EDITORIAL COMMENT DREW ATTENTION TO THE BROAD POLITICAL IMPLICATIONS FOR US-CHILEAN BILATERAL RELATIONS OF THIS FIRST HIGH-LEVEL VISIT SINCE 1977. FOR EXAMPLE, THE HIGHEST CIRCULATION DAILY "LA TERCERA" SAID THE VISIT REVEALED "A PROFOUND CHANGE IN RELATIONS BETWEEN HILE AND THE US AND PROVIDED EVIDENCE OF AN INTENT BY THE REAGAN ADMINISTRATION TO TREAT FRIENDS AS SUCH." ACCORDING TO "LA TERCERA" THE NEW APPROACH OF "DIRECT DIALOGUE OF FRIENDLY CONSULTATIONS WILL ACHIEVE MORE AND BETTER RESULTS."

2. THE GOC-OWNED "LA NACION" PLACED THE VISIT WITHIN THE CONTEXT OF RECENTLY-ANNOUNCED US DECISIONS TO LIFT EXIM BANK RESTRICTIONS AND TO INVITE CHILE TO THIS YEAR'S UNITAS

EXERCISE, PLUS THE US STATEMENT AND VOTE ON THE CHILEAN RESOLUTION IN THE UN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION. THE PAPER PRAISED THE "REALISTIC AND PRAGMATIC" APPROACH OF THE REAGAN ADMINISTRATION, WHICH WAS RETURNING RELATIONS BETWEEN TRADITIONAL ALLIES TO THEIR PROPER STATE.

3. PRESTIGIOUS "EL MERCURIO" PROVIDED PERHAPS THE CLEAREST AND MOST BALANCED VIEW OF GENERAL WALTERS' VISIT. THE EDITORIAL TOOK DUE NOTE THAT THE VISIT WAS MADE PRIMARILY TO CONSULT ON FOREIGN INTERVENTION IN EL SALVADOR AND THE DANGER SUCH INTERVENTION REPRESENTS TO THE HEMISPHERE. BEYOND THAT PURPOSE, HOWEVER, THE RECENT ACTIONS AND DECISIONS SIGNIFY "AN EXCEPTIONAL REVERSAL" IN POLICY; NO ONE IN THE CARTER ADMINISTRATION HAD REFERRED TO CHILE AS A FRIEND, THE PAPER SAID. THE EDITORIAL NOTED, HOWEVER, THAT THIS CHANGE WOULD NOT SIGNIFY A US RETREAT FROM THE PROMOTION OF INDIVIDUAL LIBERTIES BUT RATHER A DEFENSE AGAINST THREATS FROM BOTH EXTREMES OF THE POLITICAL SPECTRUM; ANTI-COMMUNIST GOVERNMENTS HENCEFORTH WOULD BE DEALT WITH THROUGH PRIVATE DIPLOMACY INSTEAD OF PUBLIC SERMONS. THE EDITORIAL CLOSED BY LINKING THE WALTERS VISIT AND RECENT USG STATEMENTS ON THE DANGERS OF TERRORISM AS PORTENTS OF THE NEW US POLICY APPROACH TOWARD LATIN AMERICA.

4. ALL MEDIA GAVE SIMILAR EXTENSIVE COVERAGE TO GENERAL WALTERS' STATEMENTS TO THE PRESS PRIOR TO HIS FEBRUARY 27 DEPARATURE FOR PANAMA, PARTICULARLY HIS EXPLANATION THAT HE HAD COME TO INFORM THE GOC, NOTT TO ASK FOR ANYTHING, AND THAT ANY RESUMPTION OF US MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO CHILE AND ARGENTINA WOULD REQUIRE CONGRESSIONAL ACTION TO CHANGE THE LEGISLATIVE RESTRICTIONS NOW IN EFFECT. U.S. Strategy in Central America

by Thomas O. Enders

Statement before the Subcommittee on Hemisphere Affairs of the House Foreign Affairs Committee on March 1, 1983. Ambassador Enders is Assistant Secretary for Inter-American Affairs.[1]

With your permission, I should like to focus these oral remarks on our strategy in Central America. For 3 years now—and I include the last year of the previous Administration—the United States has been engaged in an effort to stop the advance of communism in Central America by doing what Americans instinctively do best—supporting democracy.

We may have started late, but we have made substantial progress. The reaffirmation of democracy in Costa Rica, the transition from military rule to elected civilian government in Honduras, and the launching of democracy in El Salvador with the successful elections last March prove that we are on the right course. Guatemala has also had time to set a new course, hand insurgents a sharp setback, limit human rights abuses, and bring into the government representatives of the highland Indian communities. Democracy, with free elections, free labor unions, freedom of religion, and respect for the integrity of the individual, is the clear choice of the overwhelming majority of Central Americans.

So the good news is that Marxist revolution is not inevitable in Central America. The bad news is that it cannot yet be ruled out. Despite its success in largely eliminating guerrilla political influence in populated areas, and despite improvements in military armaments and mobility, El Salvador's government has not yet turned the tide decisively against its armed opposition.

The military capability of the guerrillas—and I would like to stress military capability, for we are dealing not with peasant irregulars but with trained, even sometimes uniformed, military forces whose main units are as regular as if they had been conscripted into a national army—has kept progress in land reform and government moderation from being turned into the peace demanded by the people of El Salvador in last March's elections. One reason is that internal frictions and residues of past antidemocratic practices still hinder the government's ability to provide security for all Salvadorans, particularly in outlying areas. But another has been the availability of training, tactical guidance, and military supplies coming into El Salvador from Nicaragua.

You've read in the press about guerrillas recovering rifles from government soldiers, and, indeed, some have been. But tons and tons of munitions are being flown in from Nicaragua. This external lifeline has not only fueled the current guerrilla offensive; it has kept alive the conviction of the most extreme among them that power will ultimately come from the barrels of their guns. Meanwhile the continuing resolution procedure has led to a level of U.S. security assistance for El Salvador for FY 1983 far below that of FY 1982 and below that requested for FY 1984.

That is manifestly not enough, particularly not enough at this critical moment in the struggle for democracy in El Salvador. A constitution is being written, presidential elections are being prepared, and a peace commission was named yesterday with the mandate of finding ways to bring as many Salvadorans as possible into the democratic process. There is never a good time for people whose freedom is under attack to run out of ammunition. But this is assuredly one of the worst. We must allocate new resources in the immediate future to enable the Government of El Salvador to check the guerrillas and consolidate its own forward momentum.

President Reagan and the leadership of this house, including you, Mr. Chairman [Michael D. Barnes], met yesterday to start a process of consultation to develop a solution that will have broad support. Let me take a minute to develop our thinking a bit further, and in a broader context.

Strategy Components

The strategy we are following in Central America has six components.

• The first component is economic assistance to offset in some measure the combined effects of guerrilla sabotage, political uncertainty, and the world recession. Democracies can cope with austerity, but the guerrillas are betting that economic anarchy and collapse would be too much. That is what their strategy of guerra prolongada is all about. We must demonstrate that we, too, can persevere.

• The second component of our policy is military assistance to prevent the guerrillas in El Salvador from seizing power by force. No one thinks that the guerrillas have a big popular following. But they are capable of effective military operations. They are dangerous to hope as well as to life, property, and freedom. We must make certain that they do not prevail by default.

• The third component is political and economic reform and control of human rights abuses in El Salvador. Despite the guerrillas, a lot has been done here: 20% of the arable land redistributed, political violence reduced to perhaps a quarter of what it was, democratic institutions launched. It is critical to complete the job.

• The fourth component is the Caribbean Basin initiative. The people in the area need hope for a better economic future. The best way to do that is to assure them fair trading opportunities in the U.S. market. Passage of the full initiative is already overdue. We must act on this in the immediate future.

• The fifth component is to deter escalation. We have tried to tell Cuba and the U.S.S.R. that a very dangerous situation could arise if they were to introduce equipment or forces into Central America that could threaten neighboring countries, or us. We must work to limit the conflict and get the area out of East-West competition.

Democracy, with free elections, free labor unions, freedom of religion, and respect for the integrity of the individual, is the clear choice of the overwhelming majority of Central Americans.

• The sixth component is the search for a peaceful solution. That really has to be on a regional basis. We have made clear our support for a halt to the introduction into Central America of heavy offensive weapons. But how could you, for example, resolve the El Salvador problem as long as Nicaragua actively supports guerrilla warfare in El Salvador? And how could you get the area out of East-West competition, unless you can get the foreign military advisers—all of them—out of the area? A number of democratic countries laid out these principles in San Jose in October. And now a regional peace initiative, including all the countries of Central America, is being discussed. We are interested and wish it well.

This strategy can succeed in bringing peace back to Central America. But it will do so only if three conditions are met.

Conditions To Be Met

First, our own effort must be sustained. Too often in the last few years Central Americans have oscillated between two contradictory views: one, that we will support them no matter what they do, because the struggle is important in East-West terms; and the other, that we will withhold further assistance no matter how much they reform because we are an impatient people with no stomach for a long tough struggle. Both views are wrong. Our support is not indiscriminate, but neither will we cut and run just because a situation becomes difficult.

Second, our effort must be principled. We cannot abandon our conviction that legitimate political power can only be gained through competition at the ballot box in free, open, and orderly elections. There will be no stable solution without democracy.

Third, our effort must be cooperative. We joined with Mexico, Venezuela, Colombia, and Canada in the Caribbean Basin initiative, and with others at San Jose last October. We support a regional search for peace. Most important of all, we must listen to the Central Americans themselves and encourage them to take the lead in solving their own problems.

Major national interests of the United States are at stake. In El Salvador, if we allow a government that is reforming itself into a democracy—maybe not fast enough for our taste but, in fact, reforming—to be knocked off by guerrillas who don't have the people with them, then no government in the isthmus will be safe. Nicaragua's Cuban and Soviet-supported "revolution without frontiers" would spread. It would head south across Costa Rica, which has no army, toward the canal. It would head north, putting enormous pressure on Honduras and reviving the guerrilla war in Guatemala and moving toward the Mexican border. So the struggle would go on, but on battlefields where the stakes would be much higher.

We cannot permit that. We need a secure Panama Canal. Half our trade goes through the Caribbean. The United States could not easily accommodate the hundreds of thousands or even millions of people who would flee a disintegrating Central America. We need strong and secure neighbors.

So progress in El Salvador is key to progress in the whole region. If democracy cannot be protected and extended there, the costs of doing so elsewhere will increase precipitously.

Our strategy to prevent a Marxist-Leninist outcome in Central America is political, not military. We have encouraged a process of social, economic, and political reform as the appropriate response to the guerrilla challenge. The military component is ancillary but essential to give the other components time to succeed. It is inconsistent with the logic of a political strategy to expect instantaneous results. We have been engaged in this task but 3 years—surely a short time in the agonized history of Central America. It would be a gross irony—and one cruelly indifferent to the democratic aspirations of the people of El Salvador—to call for a fundamental shift in American policy, not when the reform effort is going badly—because it has not faltered—but when the military struggle appears not to be being "won" fast enough.

What you have in the current budget proposal is what at an earlier point in the budget process seemed needed to do the job. In dollar values, more than three-quarters of the assistance we have requested is economic, much of it in rapidly disbursable economic support funds. This emphasis on economic assistance is the right one. But we are less certain now that the amounts are enough. The immediate military resupply needs are real. This hearing and other contacts this week should help determine what is needed, where, and how to achieve the broad consensus necessary to sustain our effort.

-- IN THE EVALUATION OF THE INTERNATIONAL SITUATION, THEIR TALKS REVEALED FULL AGREEMENT ONTHEKEY ISSUES WHICH THEIR COUNTRIES JOINTLY FACE. THEY UNDERLINED THE COMMON DESTINY OF THE EUROPEAN AND AMERICAN DEMOCRACIES. THE UNITED STATES CONTINUES TO SUPPORT THEPROCESS OF EUROPEAN UNIFICATION.

-- THEY AGREED ON THE NEED OF INTENSIVE AND ENHANCED ALLIED CONSULTATIONS ON A BILATERALAND MULTILATERAL BASIS.

-- SECRETARY HAIG AND FOREIGN MINISTER GENSCHER AGREED THAT THE CLOSE AND TRUSTING RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF GERMANY IS AN ESSENTIAL AND RELIABLE FACTOR IN INTERNATIONAL STABILITY AND IN WESTERN SECURITY.

-- THEY CONSIDER THE NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE AS THE BASIS OF THE COMMON SECURITY OF THEIR COUNTRIES. THE STABILIZATION OF EAST-WEST RELATIONS, THE PRESERVATION OF PEACE, THE MAINTENANCE AND RESTORATION, WHERE NECESSARY, OF THE MILITARY BALANCE DEPEND ON ALLIANCE COHESION. THE GOVERNMENT OF THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF GERMANY APPRECIATES THE GREAT EFFORTS UNDERTAKEN BY THE AMERICAN ADMINISTRATION FOR THE COMMON SECURITY AND COMMON INTEREST.

-- SECRETARY HAIG RECOGNIZED THE CRUCIAL GERMAN CONTRIBUTION TO WESTERN DEFENSE, INCLUDING THE CONTINUING GERMAN ROLE IN MOBILIZING ESSENTIAL INTERNATIONAL SUPPORT FOR TURKEY.

-- NATO SECURITY MUST BE BASED ON AN EQUITABLE SHARING OF THE DEFENSE BURDEN.

-- ECONOMIC STABILITY AND SOCIAL JUSTICE ARE PRECONDITIONS ENABLING ALLIED COUNTRIES TO MAINTAIN THEIR DEFENSE CAPABILITY.

-- FOREIGN MINISTER GENSCHER STATED THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF GERMANY TAKES A POSITIVE VIEW OF THE HOST-NATION-SUPPORT CONCEPT. FOREIGN MINISTER GENSCHER EXPRESSED APPRECIATION FOR THE U.S. CONTRIBUTION TO THE SAFEGUARDING OF WESTERN INTERESTS.

UNCLASSIFIED

-- BOTH MINISTERS AGREED THAT MEANINGFUL AND VERIFIABLE ARMS CONTROL AGREEMENTS ARE AN IMPORTANT ELEMENT OF SECURITY POLICY. THE UNITED STATES AND THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF GERMANY SUPPORT BOTH TRACKS OF THE DECEMBER 12, 1979, NATO DECISION ON THEATER NUCLEAR FORCES. MINISTER GENSCHER WELCOMED SECRETARY HAIG'S ASSURANCES

THAT THE UNITED STATES INTENDED TO CONTINUE CLOSE CONSULTATIONS WITH ITS ALLIES ON THE IMPLEMENTATION OF BOTH TRACKS OF THE DECEMBER 1979 DECISION.

-- FOREIGN MINISTER GENSCHER WELCOMED THE INTENTION OF THE UNITED STATES TO PROPOSE AN EARLY MEETING OF THE SPECIAL CONSULTATIVE GROUP.

-- BOTH GOVERNMENTS AGREE THAT THE US-SOVIET TALKS ON THE LIMITATION OF TNF SHOULD BE CONTINUED. SOVIET

[redacted]

SUPERIORITY IN THE LRTNF AREA CONTINUES TO GROW AND THEREBY CREATES A GREAT OBSTACLE TO ARMS CONTROL AGREEMENT; SOVIET PROPOSALS FOR A MORATORIUM WHICH WOULD SERVE TO LEGITIMIZE THIS SUPERIORITY ARE TOTALLY UNACCEPTABLE.

-- SOVIET ACCEPTANCE OF THE VIEW THAT A CONFERENCE ON DISARMAMENT IN EUROPE MUST CONSIDER CONFIDENCE-BUILDING MEASURES COVERING ALL OF EUROPE FROM THE ATLANTIC TO THE URALS, IN LINE WITH THE FRENCH PROPOSAL FOR SUCH A CONFERENCE, IS A POSITIVE DEVELOPMENT AND MAY LEAD TO PROGRESS IN THE DISCUSSIONS IN MADRID.

-- THE TWO MINISTERS SUPPORT A BALANCED OUTCOME OF THE CURRENT CSCE REVIEW CONFERENCE, INCLUDING PROGRESS ON THE IMPORTANT HUMANITARIAN ASPECTS OF EAST-WEST RELATIONS.

-- SECRETARY HAIG EXPLAINED THE ONGOING REVIEW OF US POLICY ON SALT. MINISTER GENSCHER EXPRESSED AGAIN THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT'S SUPPORT FOR THE SALT PROCESS AS A CONTRIBUTION TO THE MILITARY BALANCE AND WESTERN SECURITY.

-- RELATIONS WITH THE SOVIET UNION MUST BE BASED ON REALISM AND, AS EXPRESSED IN THE US-SOVIET DECLARATION OF 1972, ON MUTUAL RESTRAINT. SOVIET EFFORTS AT EXPANDING THEIR INFLUENCE AND DESTABILIZING OTHER AREAS HAVE CAST A DEEP SHADOW ON EAST-WEST RELATIONS IN EUROPE. THE INDIVISIBILITY OF INTERNATIONAL PEACE AND SECURITY REQUIRES RESPECT FOR THE PRINCIPLES OF NON-USE OF FORCE, OF THE POLITICAL INDEPENDENCE OF STATES AND SELF-DETERMINATION OF PEOPLES. THESE PRINCIPLES ARE LAID DOWN IN

THE UN CHARTER AND THE FINAL ACT OF HELSINKI.

-- THE TWO MINISTERS HAD AN EXCHANGE OF VIEWS ON THE RECENT MESSAGE OF GENERAL SECRETARY BREZHNEV. FOREIGN MINISTER GENSCHER EXPRESSED A POSITIVE VIEW ON THE IDEA OF PROPERLY PREPARED US-SOVIET SUMMIT TRUSTING THAT, UNTIL SUCH A MEETING WILL COME ABOUT, NO EVENTS WILL OCCUR THAT MIGHT IMPAIR ITS PURPOSE.

-- POLAND MUST BE ALLOWED TO SOLVE ITS PROBLEMS PEACEFULLY AND WITHOUT EXTERNAL PRESSURE. ANY INTERVENTION WOULD FUNDAMENTALLY CHANGE THEENTIRE INTERNATIONAL SITUATION.

-- THE UNITED STATES AND THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF GERMANY WILL, WITH OTHER WESTERN COUNTRIES, CONSIDER FURTHER CONTRIBUTIONS TO POLAND'S ECONOMIC AND FINANCIAL STABILITY.

-- BOTH MINISTERS AGREED THAT IT IS OF PARTICULAR IMPORTANCE THAT THE CALM SITUATION IN AND AROUND BERLIN, WHICH IS OF CRUCIAL SIGNIFICANCE FOR EUROPEAN SECURITY, EAST-WEST RELATIONS AND THE INTERNATIONAL SITUATION AS A WHOLE, BE MAINTAINED. SECRETARY HAIG REAFFIRMED THE INDISSOLUBLE US COMMITMENT TO THE SECURITY AND WELFARE OF BERLIN.

-- BOTH MINISTERS AGREED THAT RECENT EVENTS IN SPAIN DEMONSTRATE THE STRENGTH OF SPAIN'S DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS AND EXPRESSED THEIR FULL CONFIDENCE IN SPAIN'S FUTURE COURSE.

-- BOTH MINISTERS SUPPORT GENUINE NON-ALIGNMENT AND SELF-DETERMINATION. STRENGTHENING THE ECONOMIES OF THE DEVELOPING COUNTRIES PLAYS AN IMPORTANT ROLE IN INCREASING STABILITY AND PRESERVING THEIR INDEPENDENCE. EFFEC-TIVE INTERNATIONAL DISCUSSIONS CAN ALSO MAKE A VALUABLE CONTRIBUTION TO THESE GOALS. FOREIGN MINISTER GENSCHER REFERRED TO THE VIENNA MEETING OF FOREIGN MINISTERS TO PREPARE THE NORTH-SOUTH SUMMIT IN MEXICO.

-- BOTH MINISTERS CONDEMN EXTERNAL INTERVENTION IN THE AFFAIRS OF NON-ALIGNED COUTNRIES, IN PARTICULAR AFGHANISTAN, WHERE THE DECISIONS OF THE 26TH SOVIET PARTY CONGRESS GAVE NO HINTS OF A WILLINGNESS TO FIND A PEACEFUL SOLUTION TO THAT CRISIS BASEDONTHE WITHDRAWAL OF SOVIET TROOPS IN CONFORMITY WITH UN AND NON-ALIGNED RSOLUTIONS.

THEM TO CONTINUE TO PLAY THEIR ROLE IN SOLVING THE CRISIS. SECRETARY HAIG RECOGNIZED IN PARTICULARTHE IMPORTANCE OF GERMAN ECONOMIC AID TO PAKISTAN. THE AMERICAN CONTRIBUTION IS STILL UNDER REVIEW.

-- ON THE MIDDLE EAST, THE UNITED STATES, AND THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF GERMANY, WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF EUROPEAN POLITICAL COOPERATION, WILL CONTINUE TO WORK FOR A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT. THE MINISTERS AGREED THAT THEIR EFFORTS ARE COMPLEMENTARY.

-- AN INTERNATIONALLY-ACCEPTABLE PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT IN NAMIBIA IS IN THE INTEREST OF STABILITY IN SOUTHERN AFRICA. US POLICY IN THIS AREA IS STILL UNDER REVIEW.

-- CURRENT DEVELOPMENTS IN CENTRAL AMERICA ARE A CAUSE OF GREAT CONCERN, AND THE TWO MINISTERS CONDEMN [redacted]

THE INTERFERENCE BY COMMUNIST COUNTRIES IN THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF EL SALVADOR IN PARTICULAR THROUGH THE CLANDESTINE SUPPLY OF ARMS.

-- THE DECISION OF PRESIDENT DUARTE TO INSTITUTE A PROCESS LEADING TOWARD ELECTIONS AND A CONTINUATION OF REFORMS ESTABLISHING POLITICAL STABILITY THROUGH SOCIAL JUSTICE IN THAT COUNTRY SHOULD BE SUPPORTED. AFTER VOTE HAD BEEN TAKEN, ALTERNATE REP SCHIFTER DELIVERED, AS EXPLANATION OF VOTE, THE PREVIOUSLY APPROVED STATEMENT, SOMEWHAT ABBREVIATED FOR THE OCCASION. THE FULL STATEMENT, AS SET FORTH IN GENEVA'S 2601, WAS DISTRIBUTED FOLLOWING THE SESSION. SCHIFTER INTRODUCED HIS [redacted]

STATEMENT BY NOTING THAT THE ABSTENTION WAS MOTIVATED BY [redacted] UNITED STATES CONCERN OVER THE IMPLICATIONS OF OPERATIVE PARA 4, WHICH REFERRED TO AN UNSA RESOLUTION OF DECEMBER 1980. SCHIFTER NOTED THAT FINDINGS OF DECEMBER 1980, LIMITED TO "PRESENT CIRCUMSTANCES," WERE SUPERSEDED BY EVIDENCE MADE PUBLIC SINCE THEN AS TO CUBAN AND OTHER SOVIET BLOC INVOLVEMENT IN ARMS SHIPMENTS TO EL SALVADOR.

3. EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE OF UK, FRG, AND AUSTRALIA MADE IT CLEAR THAT, IN VOTING FOR THE RESOLUTION, THOSE COUNTRIES UNDERSTOOD OPERATIVE PARAGRAPH 4 TO BE NOTHING OTHER THAN THE RECITATION OF AN HISTORICAL FACT.

4. IN REVIEWING THE PROCESS LEADING UP TO THE VOTE ON THE DUTCH RESOLUTION, NOTE SHOULD BE TAKEN OF THE MAJOR ROLE PLAYED BY THE MEXICAN DELEGATION IN ADVANCING THE CAUSE OF THE CUBANS. THE TEXT OF A DRAFT RESOLUTION WAS INITIALLY PASSED AROUND BY THE MEXICAN DELEGATION. IT STRONGLY ATTACKED THE "EL SALVADOR JUNTA" AND CALLED FOR THE CESSATION OF ARMS SHIPMENTS TO EL SALVADOR. CONVERSATIONS IN THE WEO GROUP LED USDEL TO CONCLUSION THAT THERE WAS MORE SYMPATHY FOR THE MEXICAN DRAFT WITHIN THAT GROUP THAN WE WOULD HAVE LIKED. WE WERE TOLD BY SEVERAL WEO DELEGATIONS THAT THEY WERE REFLECTING PUBLIC SENTIMENT IN THEIR RESPECTIVE COUNTRIES. THAT ATTITUDE CAUSED US TO ASK FOR COHEN MISSION TO STOP IN GENEVA. COHEN MISSION, THOUGH HELPFUL, DID NOT CAUSE WEOS DOUBTS ABOUT U.S. POSITION IN EL SALVADOR TO DISSIPATE.

5. IN LIGHT OF THIS SITUATION, USDEL CONTINUEDITS APPEALS TO WEOS TO UNDERSTAND MAJOR IMPORTANCE OF EL SALVADOR TO U.S. AND TO WESTERN INTERESTS. THEREAFTER, MAX VAN DER STOEL, ON BEHALF OF NETHERLANDS DEL, AGREED TO WORK ON [redacted]

DRAFT RESOLUTION AND COORDINATE WITH USDEL. DUTCH DRAFT RESOLUTION WAS SUBMITTED TO DEPARTMENT AND APPROVED. VAN DER STOEL WAS VIGOROUS AND ADROIT AND SUCCEEDED IN FILING HIS DRAFT RESOLUTION PRIOR TO THE FILING OF THE CUBAN DRAFT, WHICH WAS SPONSORED BY MEXICO, ALGERIA, AND YUGOSLAVIA.

6. EARLIER FILING OF THE DUTCH RESOLUTION MEANT THAT IT WOULD BE VOTED ON FIRST AND THAT IF IT PASSED, THE CUBAN RESOLUTION WOULD NOT BE CONSIDERED. SPONSORS OF CUBAN [redacted]

7. VAN DER STOEL'S HANDLING OF THESE NEGOTIATIONS IS VERY IMPORTANT, PARTICULARLY TO UNDERSTAND HIS SUBSEQUENT ANNOYANCE. HE BARGAINED HARD IN REJECTING ANY SUBSTANTIVE DEMANDS WHICH WOULD HAVE BEEN UNACCEPTABLE TO USDEL, LIMITING ACCOMMODATION TO WHAT WERE ESSENTIALLY CHANGES IN PHRASEOLOGY. IN DOING SO HE EVIDENTLY DID NOT REVEAL TO OTHER SIDE WHAT HE STATED TO USDEL, NAMELY THAT SOME OF THE AMENDMENTS WHICH HE WAS REJECTING IN HIS NEGOTIATIONS ON BEHALF OF ENTIRE WESTERN GROUP, INCLUDING U.S., HIS DELEGATION WOULD HAVE TO VOTE FOR IF OFFERED ON THE FLOOR OF THE COMMISSION. HE WOULD CERTAINLY HAVE BEEN JOINED IN THESE VOTES BY DENMARK AND CANADA, AND PROBABLY GREECE AND PORTUGAL. AUSTRALIA WOULD HAVE ABSTAINED. U.S. COULD BE SURE OF ONLY UK, FRG, AND FRANCE. USDEL WAS PARTICULARLY CONCERNED OVER VOTE ON AMENDMENT TO OPPOSE ALL PRESENT SHIPMENTS OF MILITARY SUPPLIES TO EL SALVADOR, WHICH MOST LIKELY WOULD HAVE CARRIED, WITH WEOG BADLY DIVIDED. WE HAVE EVERY REASON TO BELIEVE THAT CUBA AND SOVIET BLOC WERE NOT AWARE OF THE TRUE FACTS AS TO WEOG ATTITUDES AND THUS UNDERESTIMATED THEIR VOTING STRENGTH. CUBA APPEARS FINALLY TO HAVE GIVEN IN TO STRONG PRESSURE FROM YUGOSLAVIA AND ALGERIA TO AGREE TO CONSENSUS RESOLU-TION.

8. WHEN VAN DER STOEL WAS INITIALLY INFORMED THAT U.S. WOULD NOT JOIN CONSENSUS BECAUSE OF LOCATION OF REFERENCE TO DECEMBER 1980 RESOLUTION AMONG OPERATIVE PARAGRAPHS RATHER THAN PREAMBULAR PARAGRAPHS, HE WAS VERY ANGRY BECAUSE HE FELT HE HAD NEGOTIATED A RESOLUTION CLOSER TO U.S. POSITION THAN HIS OWN VIEW OF THE ISSUES AND BELIEVED HE HAD NOT BEEN DEALT WITH FAIRLY. HE SAID IT WAS FAR TOO LATE TO MAKE FURTHER CHANGES. USDEL WAS CONCERNED THAT IF CUBANS WERE NOW TO FIND OUT AS TO THEIR TRUE CHANCES WITH REGARD TO THEIR AMENDMENTS, THEY MIGHT OFFER THEM AFTER ALL AND WOULD PREVAIL. BUT FACT THAT VAN DER STOEL DID NOT DISCLOSE HIS PRIVATE FEELINGS TO DELEGATES OPPOSED TO U.S. POSITION, TOGETHER WITH LATENESS OF THE HOUR AND TIREDNESS OF DELEGATES CONTRIBUTED TO

UNITED STATES SENATE, COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS,
Washington, D.C.

The committee met, pursuant to notice, at 2:30 p.m. in room 4221, Dirksen Senate Office Building, Hon. Charles H. Percy (chairman of the committee) presiding.

Present: Senators Percy, Helms, Mathias, Pressler, Pell, Biden, Glenn, Zorinsky, Tsongas, Cranston, and Dodd.

OPENING STATEMENT

The CHAIRMAN. I would ask our witnesses and distinguished guests to take their seats at the witness table, please.

Today the Foreign Relations Committee will explore the situation in El Salvador, the challenge it presents and the appropriate U.S. response. For years, that tiny country has been wracked by political upheaval and violence. It is hard for us to understand that violence and death are a part of everyday life in El Salvador. Over 13,000 people in a country of fewer than 5 million have died by violence during this last year alone.

Control of the economy continues to be in the hands of a relatively small minority. The majority of the population are economically and politically disenfranchised. What is worse, the struggle for change has invited exploitation by radical forces outside the country, further destabilizing an already explosive situation.

What is happening in El Salvador is seen by many of us as just one example of what is likely to happen or what is already happening in neighboring Central American countries. Indeed, the region is seething with unrest.

Because the inequities and abuses of power have existed for so long, often the political situation in these countries has polarized. The tasks of change and compromise are, therefore, more difficult. But surely it is in the U.S interest to encourage moderation and peaceful, equitable change in these countries. The Carter administration believed it and furnished military and economic assistance to back up its belief. And the Reagan administration believes it. Indeed, it is a fundamental principle of American foreign policy.

The administration has presented evidence of a large flow of arms going to Salvadoran leftist guerrillas from other countries in this hemisphere who, in turn, have been supplied by countries and groups outside this hemisphere. They have called for a program of military aid to enable the Duarte government to respond to the threat.

inevitable. It does not mean we condone the abuses that have been committed by elements in the Salvadoran military. But in a situation in which [illegible] security interests are readily apparent, we should not allow our tragic Vietnam experience to inhibit us from acting to protect those interests.

El Salvador must not escalate to a Vietnam-like involvement of U.S. personnel in massive numbers. What we have learned from the Vietnam experience is that the solution to El Salvador's problems must come essentially from the Government of El Salvador, not from the United States.

But El Salvador is a country in the initial throes of revolution. It is still possible for an enlightened government to win the support of the Salvadoran population by taking the lead in implementing social and economic changes needed to bring about a more equitable distribution of prosperity in that country. It is in the United States' interest to support that process.

Military aid, prudently administered in combination with economic aid, can help bring about a more stable environment for carrying our crucial economic and military reforms. I am gratified that the administration will be seeking a significantly larger amount of economic assistance for El Salvador than military aid. It is vitally important for the Duarte government to strengthen the economy and pursue reforms that will bring hope for the people of his embattled country.

At the same time as we work with the Salvadoran Government to help it broaden its support, I belive it must move to indict and prosecute the murders of the American missionaries. This is important not only to the cause of justice in this particular case, but is an important symbol of the government's intention to curb the abuses which have been committed by certain elements in Salvadoran society.

Archbishop Rivera y Damas, acting Archbishop of San Salvador, recently has stated that he now views the government more sympathetically and that the Left in his country has lost popular support. He said that many of them have been more interested in victory for its own sake than in meeting the needs of the people. He said that there are a great number of people who have not made a choice, and he has praised President Duarte's stated willingness to have a dialog with the opposition.

The Salvadoran Government must try, with our help, to give Archbishop Rivera y Damas and those people in El Salvador who have not made a choice reason to have faith in their government. If, with our support, the forces of moderation can prevail in El Salvador, it will be an important symbol and inspiration to other countries, not only in the region but outside this hemisphere.

Today, we will hear from Under Secretary of State Walter Stoessel, who will testify for the administration. He is accompanied by John Bushnell, Acting Assistant Secretary of State for Inter-American Affairs; General Ernest Graves, Director of the Defense Security Assistance Agency. Also, we have asked Mr. Francis Mullen of the FBI to be here with us today. He is prepared to discuss the investigation of the murdered American missionaries.

[illegible] Senator [illegible] gets visa [illegible] to give a statement.

There are [illegible] concerned that we [illegible] the possible [illegible] reflection that [illegible] to question Mr. Stoessel [illegible] to [illegible] and, at a later date, former Ambassador Robert White, Sister Melinda Roper, president of the Maryknolls and others.

I am particularly concerned about the emphasis our administration has given to a military solution to the complex situation that exists in El Salvador. One cannot solve social and economic problems by throwing guns and soldiers at them.

I do welcome news that an emergency economic assistance package is to be presented. Since the situation in El Salvador erupted into full-scale civil war, I have advocated a political solution that, hopefully, would be arranged with the democratic nations of the region; such as Mexico, Costa Rica, Venezuela, and the Dominican Republic, acting in concert.

All of these countries have expressed reservations about our conduct. All of these countries know the dynamics of the Salvadoran reality and have relationships with both the opposition Left and the Duarte-led junta. I personally am disappointed that the Duarte government has rejected an OAS offer of mediation conveyed by Costa Rican President Carazo. I would hope to hear the administration's views on this during the course of today's hearing.

Finally, the Salvadoran Government's pursuit of the investigation of the murders of the four American churchwomen—three nuns and a layworker—and just where in priority this issue stands in our Salvadoran policy is a very important factor to the majority of Americans, church leaders, and many Members of Congress.

Last Friday I joined with Senator Zorinsky and Senator Biden in a letter to President Reagan expressing this concern and would ask that that letter be included in the record at this point.

The CHAIRMAN. Without objection, it will be included.

Thank you, Senator Pell.

[The letter referred to follows:]

U.S. SENATE,
COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS,
Washington, D.C., March 13, 1981.

The PRESIDENT,
The White House.

DEAR MR. PRESIDENT: As members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, we want to express our grave concern over the Administration's policy regarding the Salvadoran Government's investigation of the murders of the four American Churchwomen in early December. Although Administration and Salvadoran officials contend that such an investigation is proceeding, our attention is called to evidence which leads us to have serious doubts. Information, both publicly and privately conveyed to us, indicates that the Salvadoran Government is not conducting a vigorous investigation and is ignoring the evidence produced by the FBI.

Just as disturbing to us are actions by this Administration and statements of Administation spokesmen which cause us to question whether the U.S. Government still holds the investigation of the murders as a key determinant of our relationship with the government of El Salvador. We strongly feel, especially at this point in time when the Administration is about to embark on an expanded military and economic assistance program for El Salvador, that the investigation be made a priority once again—that the vigorous pursuit of those guilty be an important factor in our relationship with the Salvadoran Government. If this does not happen, we fear that the United States may be in a position of supporting a government which by its stonewalling on the issue of the investigation, supports terrorism committed by its own security forces. And, in this instance, it would be a government-supported terrorism against four American women of the Church who dedicated their lives to helping the people of El Salvador.

Secretary of State Haig has stated that the Administration considers international terrorism its number one priority. We would question whether the present policy in El Salvador is consistent with this objective.

Mr. President, we would appreciate your response to the concerns expressed in this letter. We would like to know how much the United States Government is pressing the Government in El Salvador with regard to the investigation. In that regard, we would like to know in detail, the specifics of the Salvadoran investigation into the murders, including a report on FBI activity in this matter. Finally, we would like to know if the Administration still considers the Salvadoran investigation of this crime important to a close relationship with that Government.

In the hope that you will be able to respond to our concerns expeditiously, we are

Sincerely,

CLAIBORNE PELL,
Ranking Minority Member.

The CHAIRMAN. Secretary Stoessel, we are pleased to have you and your colleagues with us. I understand you have a prepared statement.

STATEMENT OF HON. WALTER J. STOESSEL, JR., UNDER SECRETARY OF STATE, ACCOMPANIED BY LT. GEN. ERNEST GRAVES, DIRECTOR, DEFENSE SECURITY ASSISTANCE AGENCY, AND JOHN BUSHNELL, ACTING ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INTER-AMERICAN AFFAIRS

Ambassador STOESSEL. Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman. I am happy to have this opportunity to discuss our views with you concerning the situation in El Salvador and the measures we are taking in that regard.

With your permission, Mr. Chairman, I would propose to make some brief comments and then submit my prepared statement for the record.

The CHAIRMAN. Your complete statement will be incorporated in the record.

Ambassador STOESSEL. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Our actions with regard to El Salvador are being undertaken against the background of Communist-inspired interference in the Caribbean Central American region. Our economic assistance addresses inequities which have made El Salvador vulnerable to exploitation by our adversaries.

Our increased military assistance, which followed a major input of arms by Communist countries, is intended to help right the military balance and the violence and permit the Government of El Salvador to carry out its program of reform and elections.

In carrying out its program, the Government led by Christian Democrat President Duarte, is under attack from extremists of the right and marxist guerrillas on the left, neither of which have large popular support. Both President Reagan and Secretary Haig have made clear their opposition both to Communist interference and to any attempt by the right to take over the government.

Since El Salvador's instability has its roots in domestic inequities, the emphasis of our assistance is economic, not military. We will seek additional economic assistance for El Salvador of about $60 million beyond the $63 million proposed by the Carter administration, for a total which will be over three times larger than our military assistance.

Our military assistance is in response to requests from the Duarte government. We provide this aid cautiously and with the lessons of the past very much in mind. El Salvador is not another Vietnam. We are proceeding in a measured, careful manner. The steps proposed are designed to contribute to a lessening of the violence and instability in El Salvador which threaten the social and political reforms sponsored by the Government.

I hope we will have the support of the Congress and of this committee for our policies.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

[Ambassador Stoessel's prepared statement follows:]

PREPARED STATEMENT OF HON. WALTER J. STOESSEL, JR.

Mr. Chairman and members of this distinguished Committee, I welcome this opportunity to review and discuss with you the measures this Administration is taking with regard to El Salvador. I will summarize their main elements and the rationale for them. Afterwards, my colleagues and I will be happy to respond to your questions and comments.

Our actions with regard to El Salvador have as their goal the reduction of violence and instability in order to facilitate a peaceful transition to an elected government. This is the goal of the Salvadoran people and of their current government, headed by Christian Democratic President Jose Napoleon Duarte, which we strongly support. Having already promulgated a far-reaching agrarian reform and changes in the banking system and export trade, the government last week moved the country closer to elections when President Duarte appointed an Electoral Commission.

These important reforms will contribute to the reduction of violence and political instability in the longer term. In the short-term, however, some landowners availed themselves of traditional ties to local security forces, while Cuban-supported guerrillas attempted to exploit popular resentment of past authorities. Both these extremes sought to undermine the reforms through violence, but for different reasons. The landowners wished to restore the status quo ante; the guerrillas saw that reforms were winning away their popular support and recruitment base.

In recent months, our understanding of the situation in El Salvador has changed with the discovery that large quantities of arms and munitions were being supplied to the guerrillas. Last summer and fall, far away Vietnam, Ethiopia and some Eastern European countries joined Cuba to take the initiative to transform an essentially domestic conflict in Central America into an international confrontation. These outside efforts to impose an unpopular military solution proved unacceptable to the Salvadoran people, who rejected the guerrillas' appeals for support. The Carter Administration acted once it acquired the evidence. We have done likewise.

The United States cannot stand idly by while a reformist government comes under attack by externally advised and armed guerrilla groups that lack popular support. If we fail to make clear that the external encouragement of violence and instability in El Salvador will have serious costs, we ensure that other countries seeking domestic solutions to domestic problems will find their efforts thwarted by guerrilla groups advised and armed from abroad. In turn, our failure to respond adequately to externally supported attempts to overthrow governments committed to reforms and to electoral solutions would cause other friendly countries to doubt our ability to help them resist assaults on their sovereignty.

While the guerrillas in El Salvador are externally supported, they also feed on domestic ills. These include years of repressive and unresponsive governments and inequitable distribution of resources and life opportunities. For this reason, the major emphasis of our assistance program for El Salvador is economic rather than military. The government of El Salvador welcomes this emphasis. Since October 1979, Salvadoran authorities have been committed to leading their country to de-[illegible] to develop the Duarte government is today working to carry out basic economic reforms.

We strongly support these efforts. Economically and politically the economic [illegible] provided roughly $25 million in fiscal year 1981 for the government's [illegible] and its programs for the most needy. The Carter Administration had planned to provide about $63 million in fiscal year 1981 to create jobs through public works, to feed the hungry, and to improve health, education, and housing. An intensive interagency study has now established that additional economic aid to El Salvador will be necessary. We will be consulting further with the Congress on this. At this point, it appears likely that additional assistance in the range of $60 million will be needed this year. At that level, economic assistance would be more than three times larger than our military assistance. For fiscal year 1982, we will request the Congress to make available between [illegible] $100 million in economic assistance to ensure the continued viability of the reform process.

Our aid is designed to help the Duarte government eradicate the chronic social and economic ills that have fostered unrest. El Salvador's needs are enormous and pressing. We hope that our allies and other friendly countries—many of whom have themselves urged that socio-economic needs not be neglected—will go beyond exhortations and join us in providing economic assistance to El Salvador. The general climate of violence and the guerrillas' purposeful destruction of foodstuffs, electrical installations, communication lines, vehicle and roads have cut deeply into El Salvador's production and growth. The suffering of the Salvadoran people in this chaotic situation requires a compassionate response from us and from all civilized nations.

Now let me address our security assistance efforts. We are providing the necessary military assistance to the Duarte government in its battle against the externally-supported guerrillas. Let me assure you that we are doing this with the greatest prudence and caution and with the lessons of the past very much in mind. El Salvador is not another Vietnam. Our objectives are limited: to help the government with its problems of training, equipment repair and maintenance, mobility, and resupply. Let me quickly review our assistance effort to date.

Prior to January 16 of this year, the Carter Administration had confined defense aid to El Salvador to nonlethal equipment like trucks and radios. It also had provided training for selected Salvadoran officers and had sent a number of training teams to Salvador. On January 16, after a week of hard fighting initiated by the guerrillas with the aid of externally-supplied arms and munitions, President Carter authorized the provision to El Salvador of some arms and munitions—the first such U.S. shipment since 1977—to replace some of the stocks depleted during the guerrilla offensive. President Carter also provided six helicopters and sent a dozen U.S. military technicians to train Salvadoran helicopter pilots and maintenance specialists.

Since taking office, the Reagan Administration has carefully reviewed and assessed the needs of the Salvadoran armed forces in consultation with President Duarte and his government. We have made a grant of articles and services valued at $20 million and have notified Congress of our intent to reprogram $5 million in additional FMS loan guarantees. This additional assistance includes sending a small number of personnel on temporary duty to help train the Salvadoran army and navy. One six-man team will help with repair of ships and ship-board equipment for coastal patrols; five men have been added to an operations planning assistance team in El Salvador since January; five will supplement the U.S. Military Group in its largely administrative duties; and three teams of five men each will help provide in-garrison training for the Salvadorans' new quick reaction force. These additional training specialists will bring the total number of U.S. military personnel working with Salvadoran forces to 54. Although in a country torn by violence no place is totally safe, all U.S. trainers will work in some of the safest places in El Salvador: military garrisons and regional command centers. For fiscal year 1982, we are requesting $25 million in FMS financing for purchase of weapons and military equipment and $1 million for IMET training. Additional grant military assistance is not contemplated at this time.

We believe that the level of security assistance we are providing is commensurate with the need; it responds in every instance to the Duarte government's requests. While the January offensive was successfully repelled, the guerrillas continue to pose a serious military threat. Estimates of the number of guerrillas are around 4,000 with approximately 5,000 irregulars. The government's regular armed forces—the recipients of our security assistance—total about 9,000. Various police or constabulary forces have a similar combined strength.

It has been alleged that our support goes beyond minimum requirements, that the armed forces of President Duarte are successfully defeating the guerrillas, and hence that no further U.S. assistance is called for. Experience has shown, however, [illegible] that our equipment is needed at once to [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

STATEMENT OF FRANCIS M. MULLEN, EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF INVESTIGATIONS, FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATIONS

Mr. MULLEN. I have some very brief remarks, Mr. Chairman.

On December 9, 1980, the FBI, at the request of the Government of El Salvador, through the Department of State, sent the FBI legal attaché responsible for the liaison in Central America to El Salvador to act as a consultant with the commission established by the Government of El Salvador to investigate the deaths of the churchwomen there.

Our representative has acted solely as a consultant and conducted no active investigation, as we have no jurisdiction abroad.

On December 10, 1980, the Salvadoran commission requested FBI assistance in examining and analyzing physical evidence which they had gathered. On December 12, 1980, four representatives of the FBI laboratory arrived in El Salvador to examine the evidence gathered by the commission. In addition, the FBI team examined a burned out vehicle which was being utilized by the churchwomen.

On December 14, 1980, the lab representatives departed El Salvador, taking with them the evidence furnished by the commission, to be examined at the FBI laboratory.

The evidence gathered will not in itself determine the perpetrator or perpetrators of the murders, but can be utilized for technical comparison with additional evidence which may be collected and used as evidence in a trial proceeding.

We have completed the examination of this evidence and the results of our examination have been furnished to the Government of El Salvador by the Department of State.

On January 6, 1980, our legal attaché returned to El Salvador at the request of the Government of El Salvador to discuss with them the progress of the investigation. At their request, he made suggestions concerning future investigative action which would aid in solving the crime. Seventeen suggestions were made in all.

The commission agreed with the investigator's suggestions and indicated they would utilize them in their investigation. To date, we believe that they have done so.

On February 25, 1981, our legal attaché again returned to El Salvador to further discuss the progress of the case. We outlined for the commission the type of physical evidence we would need in order to make necessary comparisons.

On February 26, 1981, a representative of the U.S. Embassy in El Salvador and the legal attaché met with the Salvadoran deputy attorney to discuss progress in this case. At this time, the deputy attorney general advised that he had been directed by President Duarte to assume responsibility for continued investigation as the military commission had completed its mission.

At this time, he also advised that he had sent a team of investigators, including a ballistics expert to the site where the churchwomen had been buried, in order to reexamine the site for additional evidence and to conduct additional interviews in the area.

On March 2, 1981, President Duarte himself furnished the Department of State additional physical evidence which had been found at the gravesite and requested that it be furnished to the FBI for examination. This has been done, and these items currently are being examined by our laboratory.

The FBI also is completing translation from English into Spanish the autopsy reports of the autopsies conducted in the United States, and these will be furnished to the Government of El Salvador.

We will continue to make available our legal attaché for consultation with the Government of El Salvador, should it so request. And we will continue to conduct laboratory examinations of additional physical evidence which may be furnished by the Government of El Salvador.

It is the opinion of our legal attaché who has met with El Salvadoran officials, including President Duarte, that a conscientious effort is being made to solve this crime.

That concludes my statement, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you very much.

FULL COOPERATION OF DUARTE GOVERNMENT

I would like to report to the committee about my conversations with Judge Webster, Director of the FBI. He assured me that, outside of the holiday period which traditionally shuts down just about everything in Latin America, the FBI has received the full cooperation of the Duarte government in this investigation.

I have asked for this particular report, because the issue is of particular concern to groups in this country, especially church groups. I am pleased to have your report.

We do not have copies of your statement here. If you could have those made and given to the clerk, I would like every member of the committee to receive a copy of your statement in the event we have further questions for you concerning that statement.

I would say to my colleagues that we will proceed on a 10-minute rule today.

TRANSITION TO ELECTED GOVERNMENT

Secretary Stoessel, I would like first to pick up on a comment that you made in the beginning of your statement. You indicated that you see as the goal of the Duarte government a peaceful transition to an elected government.

Could you give us some indications as to what is being done to expedite this transition to an elected government and if it is at all possible to specify when they may be aiming for such an election? We would like to have that evidence.

Ambassador STOESSEL. Mr. Chairman, President Duarte repeatedly has expressed his interest in proceeding to free elections in El Salvador. He has made clear his willingness to consult with all parties interested in that process. He has taken action to establish an electoral commission to prepare for the elections. Work is proceeding within that commission to that end.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Bushnell, did you wish to expand on that?

Mr. BUSHNELL. I would just add to that that the time frame which President Duarte has indicated is that he expects the Electoral Commission, which was set up about 10 days ago, to complete its work so that there can be an election for a constitutional

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

assembly which would write a new constitution for the country in 1982, preferably early in 1982, and that would then be followed, after the assembly meets and prepares a constitution, by an election for a new president and a congress according to the revised constitution, in 1983.

WELCOMES PARTICIPATION BY POLITICAL GROUPS

He also has made clear that he welcomes participation by any political group which wishes to participate in discussions with this Electoral Commission which is a group of notable people from various political groups, some of whom are independent - in setting up the conditions for this first election.

There are some major problems because of the need to prepare electoral and things like this in a country where there have not been very good electoral processes, probably ever, in that country's history.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you very much.

PRESENT MILITARY SITUATION IN EL SALVADOR

Secretary Stoessel, I would like now to give you an opportunity to elaborate on what the present current military situation is in El Salvador, aided by any of your colleagues whom you would like to have assist you in this answer.

Has the outside arms flow to the guerrillas abated?

Ambassador STOESSEL. Yes. Our information is that it has abated. There has been a slowdown. We have made very strenuous representations to the government of Nicaragua in this regard, and there has been a response to that.

We are aware that some of the avenues and methods through which the arms were being infiltrated into El Salvador have been shut down. There are indications that arms are still reaching El Salvador through other sources, but I think it is fair to say that the arms flow substantially has subsided.

The CHAIRMAN. Is it your feeling that this abatement has been a direct result of the administration's efforts and representations we have made to other governments? Or is it just a natural turn of events?

Ambassador STOESSEL. No. I think this comes about as a result of the efforts which we have undertaken.

ARMS FLOW ABATEMENT

The CHAIRMAN. What do you foresee in the future with respect to arms flow from the outside? Do you have any intelligence or any evidence that you can give us; that is, is it slowing up at the source or is it a temporary abatement?

Ambassador STOESSEL. Well, of course, we hope this is an abatement which will continue and which actually will cease to exist in the future.

We are aware that, within Nicaragua, there are large stocks of arms which we would hope would not pass on into El Salvador. It is hard to be sure of this. We are watching that situation as closely as possible.

There are other possibilities for infiltration through neighboring countries, and we are interested in ways to help the abilities of these countries to maintain surveillance over the infiltration routes and to contribute to stopping the infiltration.

So I think measures are in train to control the infiltration. We cannot say with certainty that it is completely stopped and that there are arms in the area. But we do hope that the slowdown will continue and, as I say, that it will cease entirely.

Perhaps my colleagues would like to add to that response. John?

Mr. BUSHNELL. I think the only thing I would add, to provide some perspective, is that we saw a slowdown before even a stop in the flow, roughly the month of September. And so we have not seen actions that would be definitive in terms of something being stopped permanently. We would hope that we would see those actions, but this process is quite a new one.

We are only 6 or 7 weeks into it, so it is very early and there is a lag in some of our intelligence in this area. I think it is too early to say one way or another how permanent this very substantial slowing is.

ARE WE GETTING INTO ANOTHER VIETNAM?

The CHAIRMAN. Because there has been so much widespread discussion in which people have asked "Are we getting into another Vietnam?", I would like to ask you a couple of questions in this area. I personally do not think there is a comparison between the two. I hope there is not a basis for it. But I would rather hear your direct views on this.

Is there a danger, in your judgment, Secretary Stoessel, that history could repeat itself, that we could be getting into another quagmire like Vietnam in El Salvador and in Central America?

Ambassador STOESSEL. Mr. Chairman, I would say that all of us obviously are aware of this analogy. I agree with you that it is not a correct analogy. But the lessons of the past are very much with us.

As I said in my brief remarks and as I say in my prepared testimony, we are determined that this situation will not develop into another Vietnam. The measures which we have taken and which we have proposed are very modest in nature. We think they are appropriate to the circumstances. We do not foresee the necessity for increasing those. I would say we feel that the situation is containable.

We have referred to the fact that we know where the source of these arms is located. And if the arms flow were to continue, then we would wish to go to the source and stop it. We do not foresee that we will become engaged in a gradual buildup of our effort within El Salvador itself.

EMBASSY SPRAYED WITH BULLETS

The CHAIRMAN. Congressman Long was just in El Salvador. Shortly after he left the Embassy, as I understand from the reports, the Embassy was sprayed with bullets. So obviously there are forces inside that will do anything to eliminate an American

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

presence. I don't know whether it is the leftists or the extreme rightists, but there are excesses in both areas.

What would we do if American military personnel were killed while serving in El Salvador?

Ambassador STOESSEL. I would say, first, Mr. Chairman, that we are taking every possible measure to see that this does not happen. The personnel who are on duty there now or who will be sent, of course, will not engage in combat activities. They will be working in guarded areas, in garrisons, in areas where conflict is not taking place.

One cannot say, of course, definitely that there is no risk, because obviously there is a risk. There is a high level of violence in general in the country. So we must constantly be aware of that risk.

I would say, if it happened, that, for example, a member of the training team were to be killed as a result of terrorist activity or guerrilla activity, we would consider this as a result of terrorism. It would not be something which would alter our overall policy or course of action within El Salvador. The same would be true, I think, if a member of our forces were to be captured or kidnapped: We would treat this as a terrorist action and follow our policies which we have with regard to terrorism.

At the same time, we would not see that this would require a change in our overall approach.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you, Secretary Stoessel.

Senator Pell, do you have any questions?

Senator PELL. Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman.

KILLING OF THREE NUNS AND LAYWORKER

I would like to touch on this particularly nagging problem, the killing of three nuns and the layworker.

Mr. Mullen, without compromising the investigative findings, how much more do we really know—and I have looked through your statement carefully—how much more do we really know than we did 3 months ago?

Mr. MULLEN. Do you mean with regard to who the murderers were?

Senator PELL. Yes.

Mr. MULLEN. At this time we do not know who committed the murders.

Senator PELL. Do we know more than we did 3 months ago?

Mr. MULLEN. Yes. We have developed substantial physical evidence. The obvious, of course, is fingerprints. We were able to obtain numerous fingerprints from the burned out vehicle and prints from other areas. We have other physical evidence, where if we obtain similar material from El Salvador, we will be able to make comparisons, and it could lead to a solution in the case. But I would not want to go into that in any specifics at this time.

Senator PELL. When was the last time that you received a report from the Salvadoran Government? As I read your statement, it was about 3 weeks ago; is that correct?

Mr. MULLEN. I am told on the 26th or the 27th of February. However, our legal attaché has been in the country more recently, and we talked to him as recently as yesterday to be updated on the investigation

SALVADORAN GOVERNMENT DOING ALL IT CAN?

Senator PELL. Does he feel satisfied that the Salvadoran Government is doing all that it can? I understand, as you point out, it has been taken from the hands of the Commission into the deputy attorney general's.

Mr. MULLEN. That's correct. The Commission was established, according to the Commission members themselves, to determine whether or not military personnel were involved. But they had gone as far as they could in that respect, and it was turned over to the deputy attorney general, a civilian authority.

Senator PELL. What is the fingerprint custom? I understand they found fingerprints there. Aren't all members of the security forces automatically fingerprinted?

Mr. MULLEN. That is correct. That was one of the investigative suggestions that we made, that certain members of the military forces be fingerprinted.

You have to realize, as I understand it, that at least five different police or military forces were in action in the area where the murders were committed. So far we have received the fingerprints of five members of the military, but I understand that many more are being fingerprinted. And this will be submitted to the FBI laboratory.

Senator PELL. In other words, you do not have to be fingerprinted when you join the security forces as a matter of procedure?

Mr. MULLEN. I do not know what the procedure is in El Salvador.

Senator PELL. I believe the answer to that is you don't. But I just wanted to have that thought confirmed.

Mr. MULLEN. We do have the identity of individuals who were in the area and who were passively manning a roadblock at the airport. These individuals are being fingerprinted.

Senator PELL. And you have the fingerprints of the murderers available to you at this end?

Mr. MULLEN. Of the murderers?

Senator PELL. Yes.

UNIDENTIFIED FINGERPRINTS

Mr. MULLEN. Well, we do have unidentified latent prints. We do not know at this time whether or not they are the prints of the murderers or not.

Senator PELL. What were these fingerprints on?

Mr. MULLEN. The fingerprints were on the burned-out vehicle, and they were burned right into the vehicle, etched right in there because of the extreme heat. That leads us to believe that these prints were placed there by the perpetrators.

We also have some fingerprints from certain documents.

Senator PELL. When you say "certain documents," does that mean documents that were prepared by the murderers—what are the "certain documents," can you say?

Mr. MULLEN. I would rather not say, Senator, at this time. But in closed session, I would be happy to elaborate.

Senator PELL. Thank you.

Are the people in El Salvador sufficiently confident that they can be protected by the government against any reprisals that might happen to them if they came forward as state's witnesses?

Mr. MULLEN. That is a difficult question for me to answer. However, I can say that some witnesses have been reluctant to cooperate.

Senator PELL. Maybe on the political side, Mr. Bushnell or Ambassador Stoessel may have a reply to that.

TWO STAGES TO INVESTIGATION

Mr. BUSHNELL. Let me say that there have been two stages to this investigation, as the FBI has explained. In the first stage, a special commission was set up. There were a number of people who were reluctant to give testimony. However, now that it has moved into a second stage, which is in the normal legal processes of the country, there seems to be less reluctance to cooperate with that investigation. There is subpena power in effect and that is being used to pursue the investigation.

I really am not in a position to say whether people who might have evidence because they were casually involved in it would come forward or not. But certainly this incident has received a great deal of publicity throughout the country. I believe there have been some cases where people have come forward and volunteered supposed evidence. Some of it has turned out to be helpful, and some of it not.

FEAR OF REPRISAL

Senator PELL. It seems to me there is a certain discrepancy here between your view and that of the FBI. It is my understanding, too, that there is a fear of reprisal on the part of witnesses coming forward.

My question to you was how confident are you that there would be no reprisal against witnesses? Have you received any assurances from the government? Is there any procedure for protection in looking after such people?

Mr. BUSHNELL. Some of the people involved in this have been given protection by the government. At least to may knowledge, that has been effective, since nothing has happened to those people. This sets a precedent for the government giving such protection.

However, as I think is well known, El Salvador is in a state of considerable violence, and certainly one can understand why some people might be reluctant to come forward in this sort of situation.

Senator PELL. But in your view—and you are a man who is very well informed in the area—do you think the average citizen would be worried about reprisals if he or she came forward with evidence?

Mr. BUSHNELL. I think, Senator Pell, in much of Latin America, and maybe even beyond—I am not just speaking about this case, but in any case which has involved violence—there is a great deal of concern by private citizens about coming forward. I think that concern is probably even greater in El Salvador than it is in most other places.

GOVERNMENT ENCOURAGES WITNESSES TO COME FORWARD

Senator PELL. Yes, I think you are right. Sometimes it even occurs in the United States. But I had understood that some action was necessary on the part of the government to encourage witnesses to come forward. Would you think that was necessary?

Mr. BUSHNELL. Let me say that, as the investigation moves to its second stage, there is subpena power and the government can call into court, in effect, any individual witnesses which it may identify as having an interest in this case. That situation, of course, is different from someone whom the government, the investigating authority, may not be aware of who might come forward voluntarily.

Senator PELL. Thank you.

As you can imagine, this is a subject of very real interest to many constituents of members of this committee. I presume, as the newspapers say, that President Duarte is equally strongly against the left as he is against the right. This may perhaps be somewhat of a nonsequitur, but in this connection, do you have any specific evidence or letter from President Duarte saying he wants the military assistance that so far has been rendered to him, the 85 military advisers?

DUARTE REQUESTS MILITARY ASSISTANCE ADVISERS

Ambassador STOESSEL. Senator, we do have a letter signed by President Duarte and the other members of his government, which supports the request—need for military assistance. I would be glad to provide a copy of that letter to the committee.

This does not detail the specific amounts and items requested. It reflects previous discussions between representatives of the government and representatives of our Government as to the detailed items. I gather that even the approved list is subject to further consultation between the two sides. This letter does provide for a general request based on those consultations.

Senator PELL. Is there any question in your mind but that President Duarte would like up to 85 military advisers?

Ambassador STOESSEL. There is no question in my mind that he has requested and wants the number of advisers specified. I think the number is not 85, however; I think the total gets up to 54.

Senator PELL. I thought there was a top limit of 85 that was projected.

Ambassador STOESSEL. Sir, that is not my understanding.

Mr. BUSHNELL. Maybe I can clarify the numbers here a little bit.

Ambassador STOESSEL. That, I think, involves the duty of the Marines on duty at the Embassy.

Senator PELL. Yes, the Marine guards.

Ambassador STOESSEL. That might bring it up.

MILITARY IN EL SALVADOR PART OF EMBASSY

Mr. BUSHNELL. There are military in El Salvador who are there as part of the U.S. Embassy for our Embassy purposes, such as the Marines who guard the Embassy, defense attachés, and so forth. Those people are there as part of our diplomatic establishment.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

They are there at our initiative, as they are elsewhere in the world.

President Duarte himself went over the request in terms of technicians and trainers. He reviewed what the military people, his and ours, had put together. He went through it man by man. He suggested that some of the proposed people were not needed. He wanted to have the smallest number of Americans in the country, only those absolutely essential, where the job could not be done in any other way.

He has come out with a list which is what we have approved, which when all the people are in country would make 54 Americans concerned with security assistance. This means with the logistics, the helicopters, the ships, and the training function at this time.

These people come for various times and there may be some shifting around among them. But the number of these people who are there because they have been requested by the Government of El Salvador for either a training or logistical type of function is 54 at the moment.

Senator PELL. Thank you very much. My time has expired.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you very much, Senator Pell.

Senator Helms.

Senator HELMS. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

KILLING OF NUNS UNTHINKABLE

Mr. Mullen, the killing of the nuns is unthinkable to me. Now, I am a Baptist, but all my life when I have seen a nun I have had the deepest respect for these women and what they do. It puzzles me as to why this happened.

I recognize that it is not unique for people in the church or people representing the church or people claiming to represent the church to be the victims of violence. Dr. Martin Luther King was a Baptist preacher, but he was not injured, as I understand it, because he was a preacher, but because he was regarded as an activist for a political cause.

In your investigation, have you unearthed any theory or evidence as to why this happened? Were these women involved in something other than church activities? Were they regarded as activists on one side or another? What evidence do you have?

Mr. MULLEN. I do not know the answer to that, Senator. We will not know the reason until we identify the perpetrators.

Senator HELMS. I see.

IDENTIFY EXTREMISTS OF RIGHT

Ambassador Stoessel, you mentioned the extremists of the right. You also mentioned the extremists of the left, the Marxists. Would you identify precisely who are the extremists of the right in El Salvador?

Ambassador STOESSEL. Senator, I think there are various groups in the right. Some of them represent what has been called the oligarchy of the wealthy landowners, the wealthy businessmen who have gone to the right, sometimes have taken up arms or supported groups which have engaged in fighting against the government.

Perhaps Mr. Bushnell could add more detail to that.

Senator HELMS. Are you saying they are mercenaries?

Ambassador STOESSEL. Yes, some of them are mercenaries.

Mr. BUSHNELL. Maybe I could just add that what is generally referred to as the right—and I think this is a way, perhaps, of distinguishing it from the left, where the groups are Marxist—is really a reflection of the tradition and history of El Salvador.

For many years in El Salvador, there has been a tradition that there are small posts of police or national guard around the rural areas. It was not uncommon that the major landowners of the area supplemented the salaries of these people in various ways. And they maintained law and order. They cooperated in getting people back to work if there was a strike or something like that. That sort of semi-feudal system has existed in El Salvador for a long time.

There was, until after the October 15, 1979, revolution, a group which was called "ORDEN," which consisted of people who had perhaps retired from the security forces or held particular positions and who were associated with this. Now, these people have not gone away. But ORDEN has been disbanded; it no longer operates as an institution.

LARGE FARMS TAKEN OVER BY STATE

Although the largest farms have been taken over by the state and given to cooperatives, the landowners, many of them, although they have left the country, still have influence there.

And so to say the violence which comes from the right, essentially is a shorthand way of saying violence perpetrated by those who were associated with the traditional power structure in El Salvador. And just as for many years that power structure engaged in various violent activities, it has continued them.

There has been a new aspect added. I think, in terms of the number count, which is probably not too significant, but in terms of the high visibility, there is a general belief—although thus far no one has brought a case into court and proved it—but there is a general belief in El Salvador that there are people who are hired to kill particular political figures, such as the mayor of a town, people engaged in land reform, things like this, people who are hired by one or another of these groups associated with the shorthand expression of "the Right."

WHAT KIND OF GOVERNMENT IN EL SALVADOR?

Senator HELMS. I have to confess to you that it is not entirely clear to me exactly what kind of government it is in El Salvador that we propose to support. It has been identified as anti-Marxist, but how socialist is it, Mr. Stoessel? I want to ask you, for example, has foreign trade been nationalized under this government that we are going to support?

Ambassador STOESSEL. John, why don't you take that?

Mr. BUSHNELL. Senator Helms, yes, some aspects of foreign trade. The export of the main agricultural crops, such as coffee and cotton, has been nationalized. This was previously in the hands of a group of the main growers. That group has been taken over, in effect, by the state which now purchases from the farmers and does

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

the exporting. Except for these major [illegible] there hasn't been any change in the general private-sector orientation of foreign trade.

BANKS HAVE BEEN NATIONALIZED

Senator HELMS. What about the banks, have they been nationalized?

Mr. BUSHNELL. Yes, sir, the banks have been nationalized.

Senator HELMS. What has happened to the currency down there? What is it worth today vis-a-vis to the American dollar as compared to a year ago?

Mr. BUSHNELL. Well, it is worth the same as it was a year ago.

Senator HELMS. I am sorry, I didn't hear you.

Mr. BUSHNELL. It is worth the same in terms of American dollars. They have, as a result of the violence, had, I think, probably less inflation than we would have expected. Inflation has been about 18 to 20 percent in El Salvador. That is more than in much of the world, but not a great deal more, considering the situation there.

LAND REFORM

Senator HELMS. I have been studying very carefully the document issued on February 23, entitled "Communist Interference in El Salvador." It speaks frequently of land reform. How far along is this land reform?

Mr. BUSHNELL. There are three phases of the land reform. The first phase was to take over and turn into cooperatives all the farms larger than 500 hectares. That has been done. They have been taken over and cooperatives are operating. They have now in most cases harvested their first crop as a cooperative.

There are still many things that need to be done in that phase. One is to divide out the part of these large farms of 500 hectares which owners can retain if they wish to, including their housing and so forth. Another is to arrive at a final agreement on the amount to be compensated and to pay that in a mixture of cash and bonds.

Then there are a lot of problems in terms even of delineating these big estates. So there is still a lot of work to be done in this phase, but the basic takeover has occurred.

"LAND TO THE TILLER"

Let me skip to the third phase of the land reform. I will come back to the second. The third phase is called Land to the Tiller. It is for the government to purchase, mainly for cash, the properties on which there are tenants, people renting the land, and to give them title to the land they have been farming if they have been farming it for a significant period of time.

That program essentially is in its initial stages. They are at about 1,000 titles which have been distributed out of what may be 100,000 in total.

In a great many cases, however, the tenant farmers already are proceeding as though they had possession and full title to the land. There are problems in that area in terms of coming up with the cash in order to purchase the land. Where the amounts of land purchased are fairly small, it is entirely for cash. But bigger properties are partly in bond.

PHASE 2 OF LAND REFORM NOT IMPLEMENTED

Then there is the phase 2 of the land reform which has not yet been implemented and which various government spokesman have indicated will take technically a long time to carry out. This phase is to take those properties between 100 and 500 hectares with the bottom end of that changeable depending as to what kind of farm it is, for example, in the case of a cattle ranch, owners are permitted to hold a bigger size than as the case for a coffee farm. These properties will be turned over also to the workers on these farms, either dividing them up or establishing cooperatives.

That program has not yet started. And there is a great deal of discussion in El Salvador as to whether and when it should be carried out.

Senator HELMS. Well, as a matter of fact, there hasn't been a single title in fee simple issued yet; is that correct?

Mr. BUSHNELL. No, sir, I don't believe that is correct. The last figure that I had about 10 days ago, in phase three, which is "Land to the Tiller," 800 titles have been given. There was a first ceremony in which a couple hundred were given about 3 weeks ago, and they have proceeded to give out titles—and these are final titles—to people under that program. And they are giving some out every week.

Senator HELMS. Under these titles can any peasant convey at will any property distributed to him?

Mr. BUSHNELL. The peasant, the campesino, who receives the title also owes the government, in effect, like a long-term mortgage. The government is buying the land and he gets his title to it, but he has a debt.

My understanding is that the title is transferrable, but, of course, like any other situation, the debt has to be paid off in order to do that.

Senator HELMS. But assuming that it's paid off, can he transfer it?

Mr. BUSHNELL. Yes.

Senator HELMS. You're sure about that?

Mr. BUSHNELL. In part three of the land reform program.

Senator HELMS. All right.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you, Senator. Senator Biden.

Senator BIDEN. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

NOT AGAINST MILITARY ASSISTANCE

Gentlemen, no one that I know of in the Congress or, for that matter, probably very few of the American public are against stopping the flow of arms from hostile countries into El Salvador. I personally am not against military assistance to El Salvador, per se.

. I can support it, however, only if it is an instrument of some kind of political settlement, which is what we have all been talking about. The United States, it seems to me, should be extending this assistance, military assistance, only as a quid pro quo for El Salvador's willingness to strengthen the so-called "middle" which is now allegedly the Duarte government.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

It seems to me that what I would like to hear some more about is the negotiations that are taking place in an attempt to bring together the centrist elements and its underpinnings in El Salvador. I assume this must include moderate elements of the military government.

If a viable government is going to be established and the present government must be both expanded and strengthened, I assume that is a position from which we all are operating. If the United States extends any military assistance to El Salvador without some political requirement, then it seems to me the aid just becomes an instrument for further violence both on the right and the left.

"HAVE WE PICKED A WINNER THIS TIME?"

So, I guess as we in this Congress begin to develop positions on the proposals of the administration, at least those that we have a right to comment on, the first question that a lot of us are asking is, "Have we picked a winner this time? Can we win? Is our side going to prevail, or are we going to mount another horse and ride it gallantly into a swamp and sink with it as we seem to have done so many times in the past in Democratic and Republican administrations?"

With that concern of mine at least in mind—that is, not opposing the military aid going there assuming it is going to bring about some viable government that will have an underpinning in El Salvador beyond that which we give it—I would like to ask some questions about a report that was allegedly made by DOD.

General Graves, you, therefore, may be the one to speak to this. This was reported on February 21 in the New York Times, which quoted a Pentagon assessment based on "reports from Central America" to the effect that the Army of El Salvador is so ill-prepared to fight that it has "no hope" of defeating the insurgents.

The article also says that the assessment said it would be "impossible" for the government to put down the insurgency so long as it had a combat ratio of only 4 to 1. I understand that this committee staff has been seeking a copy of this assessment since shortly after the article appeared, but that, to the best of my knowledge, unless it occurred today or yesterday, they have been unable to get such a copy.

Would you be willing to tell us about such a report if it exists, if it is apocryphal? What is the situation, General?

General Graves. Senator Biden, I am not familiar with the report, unless—I am not familiar with the quotations you read at all.

Senator Biden. Has there been a hard-baked military assessment of whether or not the "good guys" are going to win?

SO-CALLED FINAL OFFENSIVE

General Graves. Let me say that when you evaluate the course of this insurgency over a considerable length of time, when you see the events that occurred in the so-called "final offensive," which began on January 10, when you evaluate the flow of arms and the recent diminution of arms in there, it appears that the present forces of El Salvador should be able to control the situation.

Now, this is not to say that they can completely eliminate all insurgent activity.

However, if you look at the present military situation, certainly over a reasonable period of time, the government is in no jeopardy at this time.

The important point, I think, about analyses that have been done is that the forces of El Salvador could be substantially improved to deal with the insurgency. That is a very desirable political goal in order to provide a climate in which the necessary political change can take place.

WILL 10 TO 1 RATIO ASSURE STABILITY?

Senator Biden. What I think you are implying is to get to that point, to have the climate of stability, would take as 10 to 1 ratio. Can you comment on that?

General Graves. Well, I have heard that number historically.

Senator Biden. "Historically"? What do you mean, "historically"?

General Graves. That is a number that you can read about, and if you read about insurgency for the last 20 years, that is the type of number people have talked about, just on the basis of insurgent history.

Senator Biden. Anywhere?

General Graves. Anywhere. But I don't think that we can pass such a precise judgment, because there are all kinds of things respecting the quality of the effort on both sides.

I think the object of our program of training and equipment support to the El Salvadoran forces is to improve the quality of their efforts so they can deal effectively with the insurgency.

Senator Biden. You understand better than any, General, having gone through the so-called "Vietnam era," that if in fact our efforts do not end in success, you guys are going to take the rap—that is, you guys with the stars on your shoulders. We politicians are going to scurry away and say, "Oh, I was always against it. I didn't mean it." And Reagan will say, "I never meant it. What happended?" And the Democrats will say, "I never thought it." But you guys are going to be sitting there.

So I guess what I want to know is this—and I am going to ask it directly—is it your military judgment that the amount of military assistance that we are supplying to El Salvador will be sufficient to secure the Duarte government and allows it a beach from which to form a broad-gaged government in El Salvador?

General Graves. That is the judgment that has been reached by the U.S. Government, but with the full concurrence and support of the Department of Defense. And I believe it is correct.

Senator Biden. The Department of Defense believes that?

General Graves. Yes, it does.

Senator BIDEN. Would you be willing to provide this committee a copy of whatever report and assessment has been made with regard to the condition of and the needs of the El Salvadoran military forces, any one that has been conducted since January 1981?

General GRAVES. Sir, certainly we could provide on a classified basis the kind of papers that have been prepared to assess the situation.

[The information referred to follows:]

The assessment referred to in the New York Times article of 21 February 1981 was not contained in any Department of Defense document. However, an official assessment dated 13 February 1981 is being provided on a classified basis under separate cover.

Senator BIDEN. With the chairman's position, I respectfully request that we make such a request by this committee.

The CHAIRMAN. We will so make such request. When you mentioned this, Senator Biden, I was not aware at all that such a request had been made by our staff. There is no question but that we should have what we want from the Department of Defense in this area. If it exists, I am sure we will have it.

Senator BIDEN. I am not complaining about it not having come. I just want to make sure we get whatever there is.

General GRAVES. It is just that the phrases that you raise don't ring with any report that I have read, and I was not aware of any request from the committee.

[The following information was subsequently supplied for the record:]

DEFENSE SECURITY ASSISTANCE AGENCY,
Washington, D.C., April 29, 1981.

Hon. CHARLES H. PERCY,
Chairman, Senate Foreign Relations Committee,
Washington, D.C.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: In the hearing on March 18, 1981 concerning El Salvador, the Committee requested a copy of any report or assessment that has been made with regard to the condition of and the needs of the El Salvadoran military forces since January 1981.

The attached document, DIA/JSI-4B, dated February 13, 1981, is an assessment of the Salvadoran military capability following the emergency airlift of $5 million in arms to El Salvador in January 1981, under the provisions of Section 506(a) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, as amended, and authorized by Presidential Determination 81-2 of January 16, 1981.

Following a request from the Government of El Salvador which was approved by President Duarte, coordinated through the U.S. Military Group and the American Embassy in El Salvador, and supported by this assessment, a decision was made to provide an additional $5 million in Foreign Military Sales Credit financing and an additional $20 million in security assistance under Section 506(a) of the FAA in fiscal year 1981. The reprogramming action and Presidential Determination 81-4 of March 5, 1981 have been reported.

It was also decided to seek $25 million in FMS credit for El Salvador in fiscal year 1982. This is the amount which, in addition to security assistance provided in fiscal year 1981, is considered the minimum required to bring the El Salvadoran armed forces up to a position wherein they can successfully combat the current insurgency and restore order in El Salvador.

I trust that this information fulfills the Committee's needs.

Sincerely,

ERNEST GRAVES,
Lieutenant General,
Director, Defense Security Assistance Agency.

[illegible] from a military standpoint, you don't see this as having the potential of an endless swamp we're just going to keep sinking into?

MANY COUNTRIES HAVE PROLONGED TERRORISM

General GRAVES. No. But I don't want to imply that the insurgency might not run on for some time. That is not my point. I think, after all, you can look around the world and see countries that are having trouble with terrorism that is prolonged.

But I want to draw a distinction between that type of thing which may continue and a severe danger, which I do not foresee here.

SPECIAL PAY FOR PERSONNEL "SUBJECT TO HOSTILE FIRE"

Senator BIDEN. Let me skip to a completely different subject. Secretary Stoessel, under 37 United States Code 310, the Secretary of Defense may prescribe a montly special pay for duty subject to hostile fire for service personnel who are "subject to hostile fire" or "on duty in an area in which he was in imminent danger of being exposed to hostile fire or mines or are killed, injured, or wounded by hostile fire."

What I would like to know is this: Have any of the U.S. military personnel in El Salvador been designated to receive such pay?

General GRAVES. The action, Senator Biden, is ongoing, but has not been finally approved.

Senator BIDEN. Then if and when it is approved, would such action trigger either the War Powers Act or the sections on involvement in hostilities of the Arms Export Control Act? I would be curious to know what your opinion is if you make the decision that that pay would be paid under that section.

General GRAVES. The answer to that question is, "Not necessarily." And I think I could explain it very quickly. The recommendation to pay hostile-fire pay was based on the kinds of terrorism that have been ongoing in El Salvador since November 1979 and were not associated with recent, more intense activity. They were based on the general hazardous conditions, the terrorist activities, the fact that these people were subject to random acts of terrorism in places they lived, going to and from work and so on, not that they would be the subject of some kind of armed attack or coordinated attack.

This was the reason this was brought forward, because of the general danger of conditions. Therefore, I don't think this hostile-fire pay thing, of itself, would trigger either a War Powers Act determination or a report under 21(c). That would be more in line with the factors contained in the letter which Mr. Carlucci addressed to the chairman. And I believe you already have a copy of that letter, which already has been written to the committee, assessing the situation respecting War Powers.

The CHAIRMAN. Senator Biden, your time has expired.

Senator BIDEN. Mr. Chairman, might I have the same indulgence as Senator Helms had, to just finish up with one short question, as he did after the red light went on?

RELEASED

Special Project (1993)

The question is: Is anyone from the U.S. military assigned to Turkey getting hostile pay?

General GRAVES. No; they are not.

Senator BIDEN. There is terrorist activity over there, is there not?

General GRAVES. There is also terrorist activity there.

Senator BIDEN. Thank you.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Senator Pressler.

Senator PRESSLER. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

ANY EFFORT TO AVOID MISTAKES OF VIETNAM

Let me ask if there have been any studies or if you are following closely what happended in Vietnam, some analogies, studies of analogies? I think there are some analogies. Having served in the Army in Vietnam, I find very familiar the briefings that we are having these days on El Salvador. Is there an effort to avoid the mistakes of Vietnam? There was Communist insurgency and all that literature to which one of you referred. I would assume that includes Sir Robert Thompson's "Fighting Communist Insurgency."

Throughout all that literature there is the theme that it is a mistake to bring in foreigners who are of a different language, culture, and background. The very arguments, I suppose, that the insurgents in El Salvador are using is that the United States is trying to run the country, that the American banks are trying to control it, or the American military want to control it.

It would seem that we are in a position where we might be almost encouraging or adding fuel to the rebels' arguments. Are we looking carefully at the Vietnam analogy? I know it has been denied that there is one. But I think there is a great analogy between what is happening in El Salvador and what happened in Vietnam.

Is there a systematic effort to take lessons learned from fighting Communist insurgency in Vietnam and the mistakes that we made there and apply them to El Salvador?

WE ALL LEARNED LESSONS FROM VIETNAM

Ambassador STOESSEL. Senator, I would just say, in general, that all of us are very well aware of history here and what went on in Vietnam. We all learned lessons from it. We are doing our best to insure that a similar situation does not develop in El Salvador with what happened in Vietnam.

As far as the use of our training personnel and their assignments are concerned, I think all of this is done against the background of the experience gained in Vietnam. As we have pointed out, the program is a very modest one. There are very small numbers of personnel involved. They will not be highly visible. They will be working and training in areas which are restricted.

The bulk of the personnel involved in direct training activities will be fluent in the language of the country, and well trained in the activities necessary in the situation, again drawing on lessons learned from the past.

SPECIFIC STEPS BEING TAKEN IN EL SALVADOR

Senator PRESSLER. What specific steps are being taken in El Salvador that are different from those taken in the early days of Vietnam, for example?

General GRAVES. Sir, I think the most important step is that they are being confined strictly to training activities. These are taking place in the most secure areas available. We are not using our people in El Salvador to accompany combat operations or to transport them in combat operations or to engage in combatant activities.

Senator PRESSLER. Well, that differs from Vietnam in the early days.

General GRAVES. In Vietnam, from almost the first, our people were engaged in assisting Vietnamese forces across the board. And this is much more a training mode, and our people are not exercising command and control or anything. They're engaged in a training program and assisting them in maintenance of equipment.

AREAS OF DIFFERENCE FROM VIETNAM

Senator PRESSLER. Are there other areas of difference from the early days of Vietnam? You say they are just engaged in training. That is a distinct difference. But it seems to me, in the early days of Vietnam, that is what our people were doing there also.

General GRAVES. But I think we were also trying to advise the Vietnamese Government and the Vietnamese forces across the board. And our people from quite early in Vietnam were active across the board.

I think Ambassador Stoessel also mentioned another very important difference. These people who are being sent into El Salvador all are fluent in Spanish. They are very much at home, if you will, in associating with the Spanish-speaking people of El Salvador. You don't have the distinction of a Western force coming into an Oriental country. Most of the people are of Latin extraction.

MOST SOLDIERS OF LATIN EXTRACTION

Senator PRESSLER. You mean most of our soldiers who are going down there are of Latin extraction?

General GRAVES. Yes.

Senator PRESSLER. Therefore, you feel they may not be so visible?

General GRAVES. Well, I feel they may not be viewed as an external element so much as a friend with a similar background. I think that is a very important difference.

Senator PRESSLER. As I understand it, the Government of El Salvador rejected the OAS mediation efforts. Did El Salvador consult the United States on this?

Mr. BUSHNELL. Let me explain what happened in this. The President of Costa Rica sent a letter to the Chairman of the OAS suggesting that it might consider playing a role in the situation in El Salvador. There were informal consultations among the ambassadors to the OAS here in Washington.

There were considerable concern in these informal consultations because the OAS generally does not play a role in an internal situation, and the wording of this letter referred not to the passive

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

inflow of arms from outside the area, but to the more po... struggle inside El Salvador.

OAS SHOULD NOT PLAY A ROLE IN INTERNAL SITUATION

While this informal discussion—and without the OAS ever having had a formal meeting on this—was going on, the Government of El Salvador informed its Ambassador and then announced publicly that it did not think the OAS should play a role in the internal situation in El Salvador any more than it would in other internal situations.

This does not mean that it does not think there should be discussions internally. It has indicated that it is ready to sit down to discussions. It has accepted the invitation of the church to have discussions with other political groups. The Electoral Commission which it has now set up has invited various political groups to discuss with it its procedures, and so forth. But the Government of El Salvador rejected OAS mediation in effect before the OAS was able itself to consider this.

Let me say that there is a long tradition in the OAS of not interfering in the internal affairs of its member countries. The OAS deals with issues that are, in effect, cross-border issues, primarily.

I should say, however, that there is a part of the OAS, which is the Inter-American Human Rights Commission, which looks at the human rights situation. This Commission visited El Salvador a couple of years ago. It prepared a report. It has been invited back by the Government of El Salvador to look at the human rights situation. This invitation was extended for March, but it now looks as though the Commission, for its own reason and not because of the Government of El Salvador, will not be able to go for 2 or 3 months and make a visit to review that situation. That part of the OAS deals with internal situations, such as the human rights situation.

The OAS often observes elections. In fact, President Duarte and others in El Salvador have indicated that, when they get to elections in 1982 and 1983, they would invite the OAS and other organizations to be present to see that these are free and fair.

So, in those situations, the OAS would be involved, but not as a mediator or negotiator in the internal situation.

ARE U.S. PERSONNEL INVOLVED IN OAS MISSION

Mr. PRESSLER. Are the U.S. personnel involved in the OAS mission observing the movements of the guerrilla forces? We have also personnel involed in that; is that not correct?

Mr. BUSHNELL. Let me clarify that situation. There was a war between Honduras and El Salvador in 1969. This was a cross-border incident. The OAS was involved. It established an observer OAS mission to deal with the parties at the border between Honduras and El Salvador and to avoid a further outbreak of fighting. That mission, which consists of representatives from several Latin American countries as well as the United States, has from the beginning, or at least from a few years ago, had two helicopters provided by the U.S. military, paid for by Honduras and El Salvador as the means of transportation for these observers.

The observers are not observing the guerrillas. What they are trying to do is make sure there is not a outbreak between the Honduran Armed Forces and the Salvadoran Armed Forces.

Because there are a number of areas on the border between El Salvador and Honduras which are disputed between the two countries, there was agreement that the forces of neither country would go into these areas. Some of these areas have been used as guerrilla stronghold areas for guerrilla training and so forth.

The OAS, in its role of keeping the forces apart, is particularly concerned with these areas. There have been some incidents in which the OAS has had contact with guerrillas on the Honduras-El Salvador border.

Senator PRESSLER. Thank you.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you.

Gentlemen, Senator Helms has to take a plane in 30 minutes. But I have a request from him to ask unanimous consent if someone would yield to him for a few questions before he has to leave. He is the chairman of the subcommittee dealing with Latin America. So I would hope someone could yield to him a few minutes. [Pause.]

The CHAIRMAN. Do I have an offer?

Senator DODD. I am so far down the line, Mr. Chairman, I will yield to the distinguished gentleman.

The CHAIRMAN. I am afraid you would come after the 30 minutes if we go through all of the Senators in turn.

Senator Glenn.

FOREIGN POLICY TOWARD CENTRAL AMERICA

Senator GLENN. Gentlemen, do we have a foreign policy toward Central America? If so, what is it?

Ambassador STOESSEL. Senator, I would say, in general terms, that in that area we would wish to encourage economic and social progress to encourage stability and peaceful change where necessary and where appropriate in the circumstances. We also provide limited security assistance to these ends.

Senator GLENN. I do not ask this facetiously. We are setting a policy, a precedent in what we are doing in El Salvador. If this is our policy, then it is a very big, major decision.

For instance, if we are to send in arms and if Duarte succeeds in holding his government together, it seems to me we would receive little credit. He would say he "had the final offensive under control," and while they "welcome any help, or course," they "don't really need it, they mainly need economic help."

And so we would get no credit or little credit if he succeeds. If he fails, we have made that or we are in the processing of making that a major element of American policy around the world. What we are doing is spotlighted by every nation around the world—riots in Germany, street demonstrations when I was there a few weeks ago—that if it fails, it is an American failure.

So while I supported the sending of arms in to help those people do what they wanted to do on their own, it seems to me that we

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Righ
Special Project (1993)

are really assuming a much greater portion of potential blame for what may or may not happen there, and very little credit.

ARMS GOING INTO OTHER CENTRAL AMERICAN COUNTRIES

That's more a statement than a question. But that's the reason why I wonder if this is to be our Central American policy. I would then ask another question. Can you tell me whether we know of any arms—Soviet, Cuban, or whatever—going into any other Central American countries right now or in the past year or so?

General GRAVES. Yes, Senator Glenn. We do know that some are. I should say, first of all, that many of the arms that have moved from Nicaragua to El Salvador move through Honduras. Some of those arms stayed in Honduras. Some of them—a small part, we believe—went to Guatemala.

There has been a larger inflow of arms—most of the arms that have moved in this route are arms that come from Communist countries but are of Western manufacture. There has been a substantial movement of Communist-bloc arms into Nicaragua for Nicaraguan forces. We haven't seen any evidence that these move on to another country, but they do go to Nicaragua.

So we have seen evidence in terms of arms movements. We have seen even more evidence in terms of people going from all of these countries for training in Cuba and beyond, indicating a long-term or a medium-term concern with supporting violence in some of these other countries, some of which already is under way. For example, in the case of Guatemala, there is a considerable insurgency under way at this moment.

ARMS TO DISSIDENT GROUPS

Senator GLENN. Then will it be our policy, following the El Salvadoran precedent, that we will send arms into those countries if the arms are not just in transit through but remain in those countries? Will we give arms to dissident groups in those countries?

Mr. BUSHNELL. I don't believe we would give arms to dissident groups. We have provided arms to these countries——

Senator GLENN. How about governments then?

Mr. BUSHNELL [continuing]. To some of these countries for many years. We have had a training program in these countries and so forth. And last year, for example, we substantially increased our program in Honduras. We provided them with helicopters under lease arrangements in order that they could better secure their borders. They are at this point a peaceful country without an insurgency, but their territory is being abused, and we have helped them to overcome that.

Our policy has been that we need to see not just that there is an insurgency but that there is a governmental policy to move on basic reforms, as there is in El Salvador, in order for us to cooperate closely with the Government and help them to overcome this. This has not been a problem in Hondura· but it has been a problem in some other countries.

Senator GLENN. I was very interested in Ambassador Stoessel's comments here: Economic and social progress, stability, peaceful change if appropriate, security assistance. And that's fine. I agree with everyone of those things.

GENERAL POLICY TOWARD REGIONS NEEDED

But I do believe that with regard to Central America we need to spell out what we are going to do with each country in the context of a general policy toward the region.

I don't think that's understood now. I don't understand it as a member of this Foreign Relations Committee. If we have a policy, it has certainly not been enunciated, and I think we would do well in our dealings with those countries to clearly enunciate it.

DOES WAR POWERS RESOLUTION/ARMS EXPORT CONTROL ACT APPLY

Back to a subject I have asked a lot of questions on before. I have had some answers, yet we still have some disagreements with regard to whether the War Powers resolution and the Arms Export Control Act applies here, whether it should apply.

It seems to come down to whether we consider there are "significant hostilities"—that's the key phrase, "significant hostilities"—in the country. And under the Arms Export Control Act, it just says: "Within 48 hours after the outbreak of significant hostilities involving a country"—it doesn't say what kind—but "involving a country in which United States personnel are performing defense services pursuant to"—et cetera, et cetera—"the President shall submit"—and goes ahead.

Now, I bring this up here, not that I don't think we know what's going on in El Salvador, but I think when we let the administration get by without making reports that are required by law, then we set up a situation where if there are arms in other countries and if we are going in, it could well be done without us knowing anything about it.

12,000 KILLED IN EL SALVADOR

Certainly, Ambassador Stoessel, you would agree that it is significant that 12,000 people were killed in El Salvador last year, in a country of 5 million people. That must be considered significant, and it must be considered that these are hostilities between one group or another within that country.

And it surely must be considered significant to us, that four churchwomen were killed and we can't get to the bottom of it. And it certainly must be considered significant when our Embassy is shot up two times in the last 2 weeks.

And it must be considered as significant that American personnel are being kept in garrisons and we've given them sidearms.

HOSTILE-FIRE PAY RECOMMENDED

And it must be considered significant that we have recommended—and I would like to clarify this, General Graves—that we have recommended that they get hostile-fire pay; is that correct?

General GRAVES. Sir, it has to go through an administrative process.

Senator GLENN. Has it bee[redacted]commended?

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

General GRAVES. By the military commander, Colonel Cummings.

Senator GLENN. So it has been recommended that they get hostile-fire pay, and the people that our American personnel are training are, in turn, going out and killing or being killed—that's the purpose of our training—and yet we say there are no "significant hostilities" within the country. It is rather tortured logic to me.

And then we track through General Haig's statements when he was before us and went through all of the litany about how much he wanted to cooperate with us on doing all of these great things. And his comment was that he wanted "to assure this committee that I intend to live by the letter of the law and the spirit of the War Powers Act, and I see no difficulty in doing so."

SIT IN FRONT OF OPEN WINDOW

It's a little hard for us to believe that that was really meant when we see what is going—just that little list of things that I read here. Surely, if you were in that Embassy, Mr. Ambassador, I don't think you would sit in front of any open windows these days, would you?

Ambassador STOESSEL. That's true, Senator.

Senator GLENN. I wouldn't either. And I think the Marines out in front, they're not in their dress blues out on the street, I don't imagine, today. And it just seems to me that when we see all this going on, and then we somehow say there is nothing significant about all this, "no significant hostilities going on," it's sort of tortured logic to me. And I don't see what's wrong with just to set the precedent and say, "It is hostile," and report to us.

And then what happens? Then what do we do with it? Not a blooming thing, except we have established the precedent that we really truly mean it that we want to be informed when these things go on. And why the administration insists on just refusing to make that statement in such an obvious "significant hostilities" situation, I don't know. But that has been the attitude the administration has taken.

I had the same quarrel with the previous administration, so I am not being partisan with this. I griped at them, too. Didn't get any farther with them than I am getting with this administration. So it's a perfect record so far. This committee is striking out time after time.

But I would like to see us just recognize it so that we have some confidence that when there are hostilities we know you will report to us and we won't think that something is going on in the jungles of some other Central or South American country that we are unaware of. We are partner in this, and we want to be in on the takeoff as well as the potential crash landings.

That's more a statement than a question. Do you have any response to that?

General GRAVES. Senator, I certainly appreciate your comments. I think there is the question of interpretation as to what "significant hostilities" implies. As you indicated, the previous administration did not feel that the situation at that time, when they were in charge, constituted significant hostilities, and they did not report.

Just recently, through the Deputy Secretary of Defense, Mr. Carlucci, we have submitted a report to the chairman which encloses a detailed statement about the situation as we see it. As is stated in that letter, we want to give the committee all of the information that is required and indicated about the situation there as we see it.

Now, whether this comes under the exact definition of "significant hostilities," as stated in the act, is another question. But we certainly want to cooperate and consult with you in a timely way, in the takeoff as well as on the landing.

Senator GLENN. My time is up. I think we are being given information on this. I have not had any complaint about getting information on El Salvador, but to me where it is clearly required in law and where it is significant, it should be done. How can we say that 12,000 people including four churchwomen killed, the Embassy shot up, American people in garrison with sidearms, hostile-fire pay, people getting killed all the time, isn't significant hostilities.

That is just tortured logic to me. I can't see it. And I don't know why we don't declare it as such, report to us, then we have the confidence that we are going to get reports if there are future events like this in other countries.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you.

Senator Mathias.

Senator MATHIAS. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. Secretary, a famous Frenchman has said that you can hire a riot, but you can't hire a revolution. I think that is a universal truth, that you can spend a little money and you can agitate some disorders in a country, but unless a revolution has occurred in the minds of the people, it really doesn't takeoff, it doesn't go anywhere.

EMPHASIS OF U.S. AID ECONOMIC—NOT MILITARY

You said in your earlier answer to Senator Pell that the emphasis of U.S. aid was on economic and not military grounds. I think that goes to this very concept that although some outside agitators can hire a riot, a revolution can only occur if the social, political, and economic conditions of the country are so bad that they bring about a revolution.

What is the ratio of military to economic aid in this situation?

Ambassador STOESSEL. I think with the package of economic aid which we will be proposing, it will be about three times the size of the military package. So it would be 3 to 1.

Senator MATHIAS. What would that be in absolute figures?

Ambassador STOESSEL. Well, the military side is $25 million.

Mr. BUSHNELL. $35 million.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

Ambassador STOESSEL. Excuse me. It is $35 million for the military side, and on the economic side about $125 million.

Senator MATHIAS. So it is 3 to 1 on economic aid?

Ambassador STOESSEL. [Nods affirmatively.]

Senator MATHIAS. Do I understand that the Senator from North Carolina would like to ask a question at this time?

Senator HELMS. I have a couple of questions, if you could yield to me a couple of minutes. I would appreciate it.

Senator MATHIAS. Let me just ask one followup question now, and then I would be happy to yield to you.

In terms of what has been done in recent months, how does it differ from what was previously planned? And let's be specific about some of the items. How many helicopters was the Carter administration planning to give them?

Mr. BUSHNELL. On January 17, President Carter authorized six helicopters on no-cost lease. In the additional package which President Reagan has authorized there are four more helicopters. These, however, will be turned over to the Salvadorans; they will not be on lease.

Senator MATHIAS. So the order of magnitude goes from 6 to 10. Thank you.

I yield to the Senator from North Carolina.

Senator PELL. With the understanding that we use up the 10 minutes that Senator Mathias had and then continue with the members on the other side.

Senator HELMS. Thank you Mr. Chairman. And I thank the Senator from Maryland for yielding.

"WE HAVE TO GET TO THE SOURCE"

Mr. Stoessel, if I heard Al Haig say it once, I heard him say it a hundred times, that "We have to get to the source," meaning Cuba.

I have the uneasy feeling that in all of the conversation about El Salvador and Nicaragua we are forgetting Cuba. Now, I don't want us to miss the forest by looking at a tree. Therefore, I have a couple of questions that I will go through fairly rapidly.

They concern Fidel Castro, who is regarded by some as having lived a sort of charmed life in terms of American reaction to all that he has done in Africa, Central America, and elsewhere; here we have in essence an international outlaw. I am receiving repeated inquiries from constituents of mine who want to know whether this is because of a secret agreement betwen Krushchev and President Kennedy? I don't know whether there is a secret agreement. But if there is, I would like for you to describe it. If you can't describe it now, I want to know whether it can be declassified so that the American people can know what was in any confidential agreement between President Kennedy and Mr. Krushchev.

Can the full text and scope of the agreement, if any, be released to the public or at least to this committee? Now, that is a lot of question, I recognize. You may not be able to answer that fully without consuming too much of Senator Mathias' time. But before this hearing is over, I wish you would address yourself to it.

Mr. BUSHNELL. We will take that question. A good many of the details of the agreement have become public. Whether the whole thing can be made available publicly. I have some doubts But we can probably make it available to the committee.

Senator HELMS. But there is an agreement?

Mr. BUSHNELL. There is an agreement.

The CHAIRMAN. That can be made available to the committee?

Mr. BUSHNELL. Yes, sir, on a classified basis.

Senator HELMS. But it has not been released, not even to this committee?

Mr. BUSHNELL. It is an old agreement, sir. I really do not know whether or not it has been released to this committee.

Senator HELMS. Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman.

Senator Mathias, I appreciate very much your yielding to me. I have to catch a plane.

Senator MATHIAS. Let me say if it hasn't been released to this committee, we will have serious problems under the Case Act. So I think we all would like to be involved in the answer to that question.

Mr. BUSHNELL. I am afraid I am told I misspoke. There is not an agreement. There is a series of understandings.

Senator MATHIAS. Well, that may well amount to the same thing. [General laughter.]

RESPONSE OF EUROPEAN AND LATIN AMERICAN GOVERNMENTS

Mr. Secretary, what has been the response of European and Latin American governments briefed by the administration about arms supplies to the leftists? Can you identify the ones that endorse the administration's approach for responding to the threat? Do you get any kind of different or additional steps advocated?

Ambassador STOESSEL. I think the response generally has been favorable to our approach, condemning the infiltration of arms from external sources into El Salvador. We have had consultations in depth with a number of European countries, a number of Latin American countries.

Senator MATHIAS. Is there a categorical difference between European and Latin American countries?

Ambassador STOESSEL. No. I would say they all agree on this. Now, some have stressed more than others the concept of a political solution, political negotiations for broadening the base of the government, or some have suggested mediation efforts and so on. There has been a variation in responses in that regard.

But I think there has been unanimity in condemning the idea of infiltration of arms. And there has been support for our position that this should be stopped.

SOCIALIST COUNTRY INVOLVEMENT IN FLOW OF ARMS

Senator MATHIAS. What about the other sources of arms. The administration's so-called white paper emphasizes socialist country involvement in the flow of arms to the guerrillas, far left. Some believe that the left is also receiving arms from some of the countries, the democratic countries in the immediate vicinity of El Salvador. Do you have any evidence to that effect?

Ambassador STOESSEL. I am not aware of that, Senator.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

Mr. BUSHNELL. Some of these arms may move clandestinely through countries such as Honduras, but we have no information of any significant supply of arms from these countries. Some may have been purchased in small amounts from any of the countries in the area with, of course, the exception of Nicaragua, which is involved clearly, as we have indicated in the white paper.

Senator MATHIAS. Nicaragua is the transit point?

Ambassador STOESSEL. The primary transit point.

Senator MATHIAS. But there is no significant evidence of arms shipments from any democratic countries in the Western Hemisphere?

Mr. BUSHNELL. There have been reports that several months ago arms which were in Costa Rica were taken clandestinely from Costa Rica to El Salvador. The Costa Rican authorities are investigating this. In fact, some people, I think, have been indicated on this matter and pilots have lost their licenses and so forth. So there are a few incidents in which other countries in the area—that is, their territory has been used. But so far as we know, they are making reasonable efforts to avoid this sort of thing.

RESPONSE FROM MEXICO

Senator MATHIAS. What about our immediate neighbor to the South, Mexico? What kind of response are we getting from Mexico?

Ambassador STOESSEL. As I said, I think Mexico opposes the infiltration of arms. It opposes intervention in El Salvador. Mexico has been particularly interested in the idea of a broadening of the political base of the mediation between the parties. They have stressed that in their public statements.

Senator MATHIAS. There is no record of any activity which deviates from their public position then?

Ambassador STOESSEL. No, sir.

Senator MATHIAS. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you.

Senator Zorinsky.

Senator ZORINSKY. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

I am glad that we have the opportunity to discuss U.S. policy in El Salvador with administration officials at this particular point in time. I find it interesting that some members of the administration are trying to push El Salvador off the front page when it did all it could to keep it there by saber rattling and harsh talk to build a case for U.S. military involvement. Now after being told by our closest friends and allies—Canada, West Germany, Mexico, to name only a few—that a military solution, with the use of U.S. assistance, complete with advisers is the wrong approach, it is better to take the heat off and relegate it to the back pages. It is better to mute criticism when more and more nations believe that a political solution has to be reached by the Salvadorans themselves with the help from neighboring democratic countries or by other mediation efforts. It is better to take it off the front pages in the light of criticism of a military policy that reminds too many people of how Vietnam started. In the back pages, the American public will not be as aware that there is a growing list of people, including many in the Congress who are becoming very critical of a policy destined to get us mired in a Central American quagmire if we don't right ourselves soon. Not as many people will read how the Salvadoran Government is stonewalling in its investigation of the murders of the four American churchwomen and how I along with Senators Pell and Biden sent a letter to President Reagan last Friday to express our concerns about that. And the American people, who are being asked to tighten their belts in this era of fiscal austerity, will be less able to focus on the fact that the administration, despite austerity measures, has been able to dredge up $25 million for foreign military aid even though it is not clear that the aid is needed or wanted by the government of El Salvador.

FLOW OF WEAPONS TO GUERRILLAS HAS SLOWED

Now the administration tells us that new intelligence reporting indicates that the flow of weapons to the guerrillas has slowed, and that the press has given entirely too much time to the Salvadoran issue anyway. Well, now I fear that thanks to the approach of the administration on El Salvador, the American public has been aroused about El Salvador and have many, many questions and concerns that are being reflected here by members of this committee today.

My first question, Mr. Chairman, is addressed to Mr. Stoessel and Mr. Bushnell.

In reading our chairman's comments, I noted that he indicated his support of the actions taken by the Government of El Salvador to implement social and economic changes. Our chairman believes such reforms are needed to bring about an equitable distribution of prosperity in that country, and that it is in the Untied States interest to support that process.

AGRARIAN REFORM, BANKING SYSTEM, EXPORT TRADE

Secretary Stoessel, in your statement you said that the Government of El Salvador, having promulgated already a far-reaching agrarian reform and changes in the banking system and export trade, moved the country closer to elections last week. The reforms which currently are being implemented by the junta, the government which we are supporting, are specifically: government control over the export of major crops, nationalization of banks, and the agrarian reform.

My question to you, Secretary Stoessel, and to Mr. Bushnell, is this: In view of your statement about the junta's actions with respect to these three areas and specifically with respect to the agrarian reform program, is it the Reagan administration's policy to endorse and embrace these types of reforms which were initiated during the period of the Carter administration?

Ambassador STOESSEL. Senator, I would say these reforms obviously were initiated by the Salvadoran Government. They were supported by the previous administration, the Carter administration, and, yes, they are supported by the Reagan administration.

We feel that reforms of this kind address some of the root problems of the economic and social system of the country. There should be change. The Government in El Salvador recognizes this and is moving in that direction, and we support them in that.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

Senator ZORINSKY. Thank you. In light of the fact that one of my colleagues, if not more, on this committee views such reforms as being socialist and even tending to be Marxist, I wanted to hear it from your throat that the Reagan administration is supporting these programs. And I especially wanted to hear it because one of the reasons some members of this committee sought the removal of our former Ambassador to El Salvador, Robert White, was his support of the agrarian reform package.

ADMINISTRATION SUPPORTS REFORMS

Mr. Secretary, we both know there are many internal differences within the State Department itself on this policy. I just wanted to make it clear today in this hearing that it is definitely the view and the policy of the Reagan administration to continue to support those reforms.

Ambassador STOESSEL. [Nods affirmatively.]

Senator ZORINSKY. There is another question I would like to ask. Through the El Salvador white paper and many other documents. The administration has made considerable number of revelations with respect to guerrilla training in other Latin American countries and the export of revolution into El Salvador. Many of the those revelations dealt specifically with Nicaragua.

GUERRILLA TRAINING IN NICARAGUA

There have been comments in the paper and, I think, through our intelligence bureaus that Nicaragua has provided, maybe not with the permission of its government, territory to be used for the training of guerrillas.

Is it your view, General Graves, that this is true, that Nicaragua has provided areas for guerrilla training or allowed some of its territory to be used for the export of revolution?

General GRAVES. There is evidence of such training in Nicaragua.

Senator ZORINSKY. Do we currently recognize the Government of Nicaragua, Secretary Stoessel? Do we have an ambassador and an embassy there? Do we have normal relations with that government?

Ambassador STOESSEL. Yes, we have an embassy and an ambassador in place.

CUBANS TRAINING NICARAGUANS ON U.S. SOIL

Senator ZORINSKY. All of that having been affirmed by you gentlemen, how can the United States of America request a Nicaraguan Government to comply with the nonexport of revolution when in the Washington Post this past Sunday, there is a gigantic article about U.S. territory being used to foster revolution and terrorism in Nicaragua? According to the newspaper, Cubans are training Nicaraguan exiles, foremost among them Somozistas on U.S. soil.

It is indicated in the article that there are areas in California, Florida, and New Jersey that are currently being used. It is in violation of our U.S. law.

Mr. Chairman, I would like to present for the record articles from the New York Times and the Washington Post substantiating these allegations, together with the citations of our U.S. statutes which are violated by our allowance of terrorist training on U.S. soil.

How do we look when we violate our own laws and say, "Fine, fellas, that's great?" How do we look when there is a nice article in the Washington Post this week about camps down in Florida for the training of guerrillas to go back and take over a country that we recognize, a country that we have an ambassador assigned to?

Now, if we are going to export revolution to countries, then, at least, we ought to withdraw our ambassador and cease to recognize those countries. This is far different from our relationship with Cuba.

WAS ADMINISTRATION AWARE OF TRAINING

And so I would like to have your comment, Mr. Secretary. Were you aware that there was training going on, or were you aware there was an article in the Washington Post? Is the FBI looking into this matter currently with regard to prosecution and elimination of these activities?

Ambassador STOESSEL. Senator, I did indeed read that article and was concerned about its implications. Obviously, this is nothing which the Government of the United States supports. And we would be most concerned at any evidence that there is actual export of arms or armed activity directed at overthrowing any government.

I am sure that we are following these activities closely and that if it can be proven that these activities are taking place and are directed toward such intervention abroad, that appropriate action would be taken to counter them.

Senator ZORINSKY. Well, when I ask for names and activities, I am told that is classified information. It can't be given. And here the Washington Post has names and locations, and you are saying, "if." It's happening. There are people. It's real—in fact, some of these people are bragging about the fact that our territory is being used for terrorist training.

VIOLATION OF U.S. LAW

Mr. MULLEN. Senator, let me add a little to that. If the group is training on private property and not using automatic weapons, they are not in violation of U.S. law. We have had cases and we made recent arrests of a group of six individuals who had put off in a boat for Cuba with explosives and weapons. We made arrests in that case.

When they take some sort of action to commit a criminal act in violation of our neutrality laws, we do investigate and we do take action.

Senator ZORINSKY. Are you telling me that if the Nicaraguans train guerrillas on private property in Nicaragua, then we have no case against them?

Mr. MULLEN. Did you say guerrillas training on Nicaragua? We would have no case against them.

Senator ZORINSKY. I mean would we have no case against their exporting revolution to El Salvador if their laws are similar to ours?

Mr. MULLEN. The FBI would have no case.

Senator ZORINSKY. I don't mean just the FBI. I am talking politically, morally. What is our right to give advice?

Mr. MULLEN. I understand your point, Senator. But we can only investigate violations of the law. We are not only concerned about the export of this revolution, we are concerned about some domestic groups doing the very same thing. Yes, sir, we are looking into it.

Senator ZORINSKY. Do you know for a fact that private property is involved in this case?

Mr. MULLEN. No, sir, in this particular article I do not know because I do not know where it occurred or who was involved.

Senator ZORINSKY. I see my time is up. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you, Senator Zorinsky.

NICARAGUANS TRAIN IN FLORIDA AS GUERRILLAS

(By Jo Thomas)

MIAMI, March 16—Fomer members of the Nicaraguan National Guard are training openly alongside the Cuban exiles in camps in Florida, preparing, they say, for guerrilla attacks on the Sandinists in Nicaragua.

At least one such attack, the exiles say, has already been carried out from a base in Central America, and others are now in preparation.

Although the Cuban exile groups have a long history of such efforts—on April 17, it will be 20 years since the disastrous Bay of Pigs invasion—the training of Nicaraguan exiles is a new turn of events. At the same time, the Cuban groups have intensified their efforts.

Both groups, saying that they have been heartened by President Reagan's hard-line anti-Communist position, voice hope that, at the least, the United States Government will lend them moral support.

A separate Cuban group, Alpha 66, says it has carried out 30 sabotage missions inside Cuba in the last six months, including an explosion last week that killed six persons and knocked out the power in a hydroelectric plant in Regla, near Havana. The Cuban Government has not confirmed the nature of that blast.

FBI ARRESTS 7 FROM GROUP

Officials of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, which in January arrrested seven members of Alpha 66 on a boat loaded with machineguns, rifles and explosives, said that they were continuing an investigation into possible violations of the Federal Neutrality Act. The act forbids conspiracies to injure or destroy the property of the government of a nation with which the United States is not at war.

At the same time, sources at the Central Intelligence Agency say, there are still those within the agency who would like to see it work more closely with the exile groups, although there is as yet no specific proposal.

One of the most active training camps is called "Cuba." Administered by Jorge González, who is called "Bombillo"—light bulb—it lies in the brush and swamplands of Miami, just beyond new housing developments and a trash dump. Yesterday two teen-agers with semiautomatic rifles and walkie-talkies were guarding the front entrance.

Inside were about 60 men and a handful of women in camouflage uniforms. One group was listening to a lecture on cleaning weapons, other groups were drilling and two groups were on the firing range. Mr González explained that most members of the paramilitary group, including José Infieta, a Vietnam veteran who is the top officer, were in a camp in Central America on a mission.

A man, who said he could be called "Frank" or "Ronald" and was wearing a Nicaraguan National Guard insignia on his beret, explained that all the Nicaraguans in the camp were former members of the National Guard.

TRAINING CAMPS IN UNITED STATES

The Nicaraguans, he said, have seven training camps, in the United States, Honduras, El Salvador, Costa Rica and South American countries that he declined to name. There are approximately 600 Nicaraguans training in the United States, he said.

"We'll fight the Communists with the same means they use—weapons," he said. "They don't use roses." He explained that the former guardsmen had managed to get out of the country with their weapons and were also obtaining arms from South American countries "which have identified with us."

When asked to name these countries, he said he could list only those who had lent moral support: Chile, Uruguay, El Salvador, Guatemala and Honduras.

"The hour of our return is approaching," he said, "but we can't say when."

Another Nicaraguan, wearing civilian clothes and identified as the commander, refused to give his name but spoke at great length with some eloquence. The former guardsmen, he said, do not intend to fight for the interests of the Somoza family or the right wing.

Their purpose, he said, is to "vindicate the rights of Nicaraguans who got rid of a dictatorial regime to get a democratic, representative regime. For this, so many fought and so many people died. And the people were deceived."

The Nicaraguans are a new addition to the camp, which began 18 months ago, according to Mr. González, 48 years old, who said that he was in Cuba during the failed Bay of Pigs invasion and subsequently escaped the country by taking asylum in the Venezuelan Embassy.

There are other guerrilla training camps in Tampa and Okeechobee, Fla., Mr. González said, adding that one is called "Libertad" and another called "Máximo Gómez," after the hero of the Cuban war of independence. There are also camps in New Jersey and in Los Angeles, he said. He refused to give the location of the camp in Central America but did say we've had some actions against the Sandinist Government from that camp."

"We don't want to break the law," he said, referring to the Neutrality Act. "When we understand we might do this, we go outside the country."

Mr. González said his group, mostly Cubans with a few Dominicans and Puerto Ricans, has made sporadic attacks on Cuba in past years, explaining that it was mostly a matter of keeping the rebellious spirit alive.

The exiles, he said, got a major lift from the manifestation of discontent among the 10,800 who sought refuge in the Peruvian Embassy last April and from the election of Ronald Reagan.

"We think that Reagan and the Cabinet are acting as others should have and did not, he said. "The others were weak before the enemy. These are putting respect in Fidel Castro and our common enemy, Russia."

Mr. González said his would-be guerrillas have had no conversations with the C.I.A. but would accept any help offered. "The principal aid we've received," he said, "has been the declarations of the President. It's not weapons we need, but freedom of action.

The wave of refugees from the Port of Mariel brought only a few recruits to the camp in south Florida, Mr. González said. Many of the refugees "are nervous and disoriented," he said.

Alpha 66, on the other hand, has actively recruited among the Mariel refugees and is now housing about 50 refugees to a building near the organization's Miami headquarters.

INFILTRATION AND SABOTAGE

In June 1980, the group announced its Máximo Gómez plan to infiltrate Cuba and commit acts of economic sabotage. Saboteurs, trained in explosives and armed to fight any Cuban ships that might detect them, have been taken to Cuba in small boats landed at night, and are expected to remain there.

For this purpose, said Andrés Nazario Sargen, Secretary General of Alpha 66, the Mariel refugees are ideal because "they know Cuba, and they can survive without being detected."

Roberto Campos, who was one of those who sought asylum in the Peruvian Embassy and left through Mariel, said he was a member of a group called "Rosa Blanca," which, with Alpha 66 and the Group of 52, took responsibility for the last week's blast at the hydroelectric plant, which killed six persons, including Mr. Campos's brother.

Mr. Campos, 29, said he had served nine years in prison, starting at the age of 15, for committing acts of political sabotage.

He is now training with Alpha 66 and asserted: "I'm committed to fighting. Not only in Cuba—we're ready to go anywhere the United States sends us to destroy Communism."

How Latin Guerrillas Train on Our Soil

EXILES REHEARSE FOR THE DAY THEY HOPE WILL COME

(By Eddie Adams)

I could hardly believe my eyes when the two men who came to call for me at the Holiday Inn in Coral Gables, Fla., walked into the lobby wearing U.S. Army-type camouflage uniforms with bayonets and canteens strapped around their waists. They were there to take me to a nearby military camp where Cuban and Nicaraguan exiles are training and practicing to invade their former homelands in a supreme effort to overthrow the leftist regimes that rule them.

Until I encountered my two guides, I had no idea of how openly and extensively these displaced Latins are operating throughout southern Florida, including Miami, the Everglades and the Keys. Some of them use code names, like Condor and Bombillo (Spanish for light bulb), but most make no attempt to conceal their identities—or their purpose. They are determined to liberate their homelands from the Castro regime in Cuba and the Sandinista junta in Nicaragua—or die in the process.

The Nicaraguans are a new element in the invasion-plan picture. Since the replacement of the dictatorial Somoza regime by what they regard as an equally repressive regime of the left, they have swelled the ranks of the anti-Castro Cubans already undergoing training camps in Florida flies a trio of flags at its inner gates—American, Cuban and Nicaraguan.

Says José Francisco Cardenal, who used to be vice president of the Council of State in Nicaragua but is now among the refugees: "In the beginning, 95 percent of my people were for the revolution, but now the reverse is true."

Right now, there are at least 10 paramilitary organizations composed of Cuban and Nicaraguan exiles operating in Florida. Some of them advertise for recruits over Spanish-language Miami radio stations and speak freely about their aims. "We Nicaraguans are back-to-back with Cuba," says Max Vargas. "They confiscated my family's trucking company," he adds bitterly. "I was successful. I made money, a million dollars a month. They told me the people would own the company, but now only the government owns everything. I want Nicaragua to be the way I remember it. We're training people not only here in Florida, but in Guatemala, Honduras, El Salvador and Costa Rica. We have training camps in California, too."

At the camps, the prospective invaders work vigorously at their maneuvers and preparations. The newest base to open is a 68-acre flatland surrounded by 6-foot-high elephant grass and workmen building a new housing development. This guerrilla "boot camp" is about 20 minutes by car from Miami's International Airport. Some of the recruits working out there have enough of an income to enjoy the Miami Beach resorts. Instead, they spend every weekend clad in fatigues, firing automatic weapons or running the obstacle course.

Security is tight at camps like this. Visitors are scrupulously checked out. The guerrillas say they're armed to the teeth with an arsenal of weapons that even includes amphibious assault boats. But they won't say who supplies them. Many members of the groups are U.S. citizens whose pasts are tied to Latin America. Some have families still there.

Alberto Martinez-Echenique, a Bay of Pigs veteran, works for a construction company by day; at night and on weekends, he serves as an officer in the junta Patriotica Cubana, an organization of 206 satellite groups throughout the world. "We have daily contact with the people of Cuba," he says: "The people don't want Castro anymore. They are just waiting for the moment to strike, and that moment is very near."

George Gonzales, a 48-year-old Miami florist whose code name is Bombillo, predicts that "something big will happen inside Cuba this year." Bombillo is leader of one of the larger paramilitary groups, called CUBA. He was a member of Castro's 100,000-man army during the Bay of Pigs invasion, in 1961, he deserted Castro and emigrated to the U.S. to start his battle against communism.

Bombillo's activities in the U.S. have cost him four years behind bars. He spent that time in a federal prison in Atlanta for blowing up 11 commercial ships that were trading with Havana.

"I did $7 million worth of damage," says Bombillo. "Four years of my life was worth it."

The outspoken CUBA leader has no illusions about the eventual invasions. "We'll get killed on the beaches, face a firing squad or have freedom for our people," he says. "It's pretty much a one-way ticket."

Bombillo also is aware that he and his men face possible problems from within. Nearly a year has passed since the "Freedom Flotilla" began transporting 125,000 Cubans from Mariel to Key West. Many of those have joined the paramilitary units, with most going to the group called Alpha 66. Bombillo doesn't think so highly of them. "I have three in my ranks who are Castro agents," he explains. "We know who they are, but they don't know we've detected them. We will use them to our advantage."

Another possible problem is rivalry between groups. The various units have been holding secret meetings with the objective of uniting. Said one of the guerrillas, clad in his battle fatigues, "One of our biggest problems is: Who will be the leader?"

The exiles insist that they don't want direct U.S. intervention. They're not expecting the U.S. Marines or the 101st Airborne to support their liberation mission. But they say they would like a "green light" and possibly some hardware to help them do "the dirty work."

How much U.S. assistance they may actually receive, however, remains problematical. Said one State Department spokesman when asked to comment:

"The new Administration is not going to turn back the clock 21 years in Cuba or 17 months in Nicaragua and support any exile groups. It's illegal. It's a breach of international law. It's also stupid."

Nevertheless, the prospective invaders persist in regarding Ronald Reagan as their possible savior because they think, he is unafraid of armed confrontation.

"With Carter, we knew we couldn't do anything inside Cuba," sums up Bombillo. "Now, maybe. This nation will be saved with the help of God and Reagan."

§ 401. Illegal exportation of war materials

SEIZURE AND FORFEITURE OF MATERIALS AND CARRIERS

(a) Whenever an attempt is made to export or ship from or take out of the United States any arms or munitions of war or other articles in violation of law, or whenever it is known or there shall be probable cause to believe that any arms or munitions of war or other articles are intended to be or are being or have been exported or removed from the United States in violation of law, the Secretary of the Treasury, or any person duly authorized for the purpose by the President, may seize and detain such arms or munitions of war or other articles and may seize and detain any vessel, vehicle, or aircraft containing the same or which has been or is being used in exporting or attempting to export such arms or munitions of war or other articles. All arms or munitions of war and other articles, vessels, vehicles, and aircraft seized pursuant to this subsection shall be forfeited.

APPLICABILITY OF LAWS RELATING TO SEIZURE, FORFEITURE, AND CONDEMNATION

(b) All provisions of law relating to seizure, summary and judicial forfeiture and condemnation for violation of the customs laws, the disposition of the property forfeited or condemned or the proceeds from the sale thereof; the remission or mitigation of such forfeitures; and the compromise of claims and the award of compensation to informers in respect of such forfeitures shall apply to seizures and forfeitures incurred, or alleged to have been incurred, under the provisions of this section, insofar as applicable and not inconsistent with the provisions hereof. Awards of compensation to informers under this section may be paid only out of funds specifically appropriated therefor.

DISPOSITION OF FORFEITED MATERIALS

(c) Arms and munitions of war forfeited under subsection (b) of this section shall be delivered to the Secretary of Defense for such use or disposition as he may deem in the public interest, or, in the event that the Secretary of Defense refuses to accept such arms and munitions of war, they shall be sold or otherwise disposed of as prescribed under existing law in the case of forfeitures for violation of the customs laws.

§ 232. Definitions

For purposes of this chapter:

(1) The term "civil disorder" means any public disturbance involving acts of violence by assemblages of three or more persons, which causes an immediate danger of or results in damage or injury to the property or person of any other individual.

(2) The term "commerce" means commerce (A) between any State of the District of Columbia and any place outside thereof; (B) between points within any State or the District of Columbia, but through any place outside thereof; or (C) wholly within the District of Columbia.

(3) The term "federally protected function" means any function, operation, or action carried out, under the laws of the United States, by any department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States or by any officer or employee thereof; and such term shall specifically include, but not be limited to, the collection and distribution of the United States mails.

(4) The term "firearm" means any weapon which is designed to or may readily be converted to expel any projectile by the action of an explosive; or the frame or receiver of any such weapon.

(5) The term "explosive or incendiary device" means (A) dynamite and all other forms of high explosives, (B) any explosive bomb, grenade, missile, or similar device, and (C) any incendiary bomb or grenade, fire bomb, or similar device, including any device which (i) consists of or includes a breakable container including a flammable liquid or compound, and a wick composed of any material which, when ignited, is capable of igniting such flammable liquid or compound, and (ii) can be carried or thrown by one individual acting alone.

. . . . . .

The CHAIRMAN. Senator Tsongas.

Senator TSONGAS. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. Secretary, the session that we had earlier suggested that much of the training of the Salvadorans that was going on conducted by our people could be done in the United States. Is that still the case?

MORE PRACTICAL TO DO TRAINING IN EL SALVADOR

General GRAVES. If I may address that question, Senator. If you look at the scope of the training, the type of the training and the number of people involved, all of these would say that it is much more practical and effective to do the training in El Salvador than to move large numbers of people from El Salvador to the United States to do this training.

Some of the training, which I would characterize as on-the-job training, clearly would not be practical to do in the United States.

RELEASED

be practical to move those boats to the United States.

MILITARY ADVISERS SUBJECT TO VIOLENCE

Senator TSONGAS. Does the Pentagon agree that the military advisers there are subject to the violence of the right- and left-wing terrorists?

General GRAVES. I would say that the military advisers there are subject to the same terrorism that our embassy people there are subject to.

Senator TSONGAS. So the answer is "Yes"?

General GRAVES. The same level of violence that all the other American personnel in El Salvador are subject to.

Senator TSONGAS. Well, if we are concerned about our own personnel, would that not dictate that even though it may not be the most practical that we have the training conducted in the United States or outside of El Salvador as much as possible.

General GRAVES. Well, I think our concern is the pursuit of a policy which will help El Salvador to have a secure situation so that El Salvador can reach its economic and political goals. I believe that the decisions made to have people go there to do the training is based on the fact that we think this is the best and most effective way to get the job done.

ARMED SERVICES PERSONNEL EXPECT DANGERS IN CAREER

And I will go further. I think the people that join the armed services expect that there would be some danger in their careers.

Senator TSONGAS. Did Secretary Weinberger recommend the sending of advisers?

General GRAVES. Yes, he did.

Senator TSONGAS. That was his recommendation to the President?

General GRAVES. He joined with Secretary Haig. Now, they were concerned about the safety of these men. And I would say that we have gone to every length possible in terms of the way in which they will conduct their activities, the places in which they will conduct their activities and provide for their safety.

WHICH NATIONS ENDORSE SENDING OUR MILITARY ADVISERS

Senator TSONGAS. Can you tell me which nations have specifically endorsed our sending of military advisers into El Salvador?

Mr. BUSHNELL. Senator, I think we would have to look to see where there are public statements endorsing this particular aspect. A number of nations have endorsed our general program, which includes economic assistance and military assistance, including trainers.

I take your question to be whether they have said something publicly that they endorse the sending of the trainers. I think the neighboring countries of Guatemala and Honduras have endorsed that, as well, of course, as the Government of El Salvador itself.

But we would have to do a little research to find out whether other countries have dealt with this particular point publicly.

ALLIES ARE SUPPORTIVE OF OVERALL POLICY

Mr. BUSHNELL. In general, our allies are supportive of the policy. But whether they have said they support specifically the sending of trainers, I cannot say.

Senator TSONGAS. Has any European head of state said to this administration, "We support the sending of advisers to El Salvador"?

Ambassador STOESSEL. I think, as Mr. Bushnell says, they have not identified the particular question of trainers. They have made statements generally supportive of the overall policy, which includes the trainers.

Senator TSONGAS. Could you look into that and report back to the committee?

Ambassador STOESSEL. Yes; we would be glad to do that.

[The following information was subsequently supplied for the record:]

Senator TSONGAS. Which nations have specifically endorsed our sending military training personnel to El Salvador, or have otherwise publicly supported our policy?

ANSWER. It is not common practice for governments to endorse the military assistance policies of second countries with regard to a third country. Nevertheless, several government leaders have publicly expressed their understanding of the need for the United States to provide military assistance. These include:

British Foreign Secretary Carrington, who on March 4 stated that President Reagan had no alternative to sending more military trainers and assistance, given Cuban and Soviet involvement in destabilizing Central America.

Canadian Prime Minister Trudeau, who while opposing a "military solution," stated on March 12 that since the other guy's got guns, he could not get "overly incensed" that the United States was providing military aid requested by the Salvadoran Government.

Portuguese Foreign Minister Pereira, who on March 20 expressed understanding that U.S. military assistance responded to a request from the legitimate Duarte Government.

Australian Prime Minister Fraser, who on March 5 condemned weapons deliveries to guerrillas in El Salvador from Communist sources and stated "the United States is entirely right in seeking to cut off that source of disturbance, that source of revolution."

Japanese Foreign Minister Ito, who on March 10 said the Japanese Government believes foreign intervention on behalf of the insurgents should be firmly opposed.

In addition, the Governments of France, the Federal Republic of Germany, Belgium, Argentina, Honduras, Panama, Colombia, Costa Rica and others have publicly condemned interference by Communist states in El Salvador. Many of these governments and others share U.S. policy objectives of support for the Duarte government. Among those governments whose leaders also have publicly supported Duarte's efforts to return El Salvador to a peaceful political process are Colombia, Costa Rica, the Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Jamaica, Panama, Peru, Portugal and Canada.

A number of governments including Mexico, Sweden, and Denmark have consistently opposed military assistance to either side, while a large number have privately expressed to us their understanding of the need to provide military assistance so that the Duarte government can resist the Communist-supplied guerrillas.

TWO REPORTS REQUESTED

Senator TSONGAS. On the question of reports, Mr. Chairman, when we had our subcommittee meeting on March 2, there were two reports that I requested. One was a report on the money coming from Miami, allegedly, to the right-wing terrorists. And there was no response to that request in this report.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

Second, there was a report on the discipline on the military—that is, by those in the military who were engaged in violence. There was discussion with Secretary Bushnell about the 400 courts-martials and how many of those related to acts of violence. That is not in this report either.

I was curious why those two reports specifically requested have not been made yet to the committee.

Mr. BUSHNELL. Maybe I can respond to that, Senator. In the first case, I think, as I said at that time, as far as the investigation of illegal acts in the United States, the State Department is not in a position to report to you on that subject. That is not in our domain.

On the second subject——

Senator TSONGAS. Well who has the jurisdiction? Would it be the FBI?

Mr. MULLEN. Yes, sir; we have jurisdiction, and we are conducting an investigation.

Senator TSONGAS. Did the State Department tell you that we wanted that report?

Mr. MULLEN. Not to my knowledge, sir. They may have notified somebody at a lower level, but I am not aware of any request. I was notified, Senator, before coming in here today that we may go into executive session for a report on this matter, which I am prepared to do.

Senator TSONGAS. I would like to have that.

DOES UNITED STATES SUPPORT OAS MEDIATING THE DISPUTE

Does the United States support the role of the OAS in mediating the dispute? Have we taken an official position on that?

Mr. BUSHNELL. We have taken the position, Senator, that in terms of a role of mediation, we will not pick among the many mediators which have offered their services.

The OAS has not offered its services. It has not put itself in that position. But if the OAS should offer, our position has been that this is something that the various parties in El Salvador have to decide in order for it to work. It is not up to the United States to make that choice.

Senator TSONGAS. Have we indicated to the Government in El Salvador that we believe they should take up the offers made by various parties to mediate the dispute?

Mr. BUSHNELL. What we have indicated to the Government is that we think it is important that they move to a political solution. They have proposed an electoral route to move to that solution. We think it is important that they bring in other groups, that it is up to them to decide what, if any, mediation is appropriate.

Senator TSONGAS. So the answer is, "No, we have not encouraged them to take up any of these offers"?

Mr. BUSHNELL. That is correct.

CUBAN MILITARY PERSONNEL IN GUINEA

Senator TSONGAS. Do we object—and I am referring here to the Department of Defense annual report for fiscal year 1981—did we object to the 200 Cuban military personnel in Guinea?

General GRAVES. I am not familiar with what steps we may have taken actually to object. If you mean raise a formal objection, I think that we deplore what we view as the widespread use of Cubans to encourage insurgencies.

Now, as far as I know, we have not objected specifically, and certainly not formally, to assistance provided when it is clearly requested by the government in power.

Senator TSONGAS. So we deplore the 200 Cuban military personnel in Guinea. Do we also deplore the 150 Cuban military personnel in Equatorial Guinea?

General GRAVES. I am not familiar with the details in that country, Senator Tsongas.

Senator TSONGAS. Would it surprise you if anybody deplored our military personnel in El Salvador?

General GRAVES. It would not surprise me if the Soviet Union or Cuba objected to our resisting their attempt to overthrow the Government of El Salvador.

Senator TSONGAS. What about Germany?

General GRAVES. I would like to defer to the State representatives here to discuss the positions taken by our allies.

Senator TSONGAS. What about France?

Ambassador STOESSEL. I would say on those cases, Senator, Germany and France and other allies, that I would be very surprised if they deplored the presence of military trainers there.

Senator TSONGAS. What about Mexico?

Ambassador STOESSEL. This has not been the position of those governments.

Senator TSONGAS. Did we preconsult with Mexico on this issue?

Ambassador STOESSEL. I am sorry, I didn't hear you.

INFORM MEXICO OF MILITARY ADVISERS

Senator TSONGAS. Did we tell the Mexican Government that we were going to send military advisers in prior to the public announcement?

Ambassador STOESSEL. Yes, we did.

Senator TSONGAS. What was their response?

Ambassador STOESSEL. They understood the aims of our program.

Senator TSONGAS. Did they support it?

Ambassador STOESSEL. They felt that was a decision for us to make. They made very clear that they condemn the infiltration of arms from outside.

Senator TSONGAS. They raised no objection to the introduction of American military personnel?

Ambassador STOESSEL. Not formally.

Senator TSONGAS. Informally?

OPPOSE INTERVENTION

Ambassador STOESSEL. I think their position is one of opposing intervention from all sides. I think, in that connection, they regard intervention as armed intervention; and they would certainly deplore the introduction of U.S. Armed Forces in a combat role. They have not, to my knowledge, specifically objected to combat trainers.

Senator TSONGAS. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you, Senator Tsongas.

Senator Cranston.

Senator CRANSTON. Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman.

I share a number of the concerns that have been expressed by Senators on and off this committee regarding the nature and extent of our involvement in El Salvador. I do applaud the diplomatic initiatives that have been undertaken by the Reagan administration to stop the flow of weapons from certain Communist governments to the El Salvadoran guerrillas. This is an important step in our effort to permit the people there to determine their own future in peace.

I remain troubled by the presence of significant numbers of American advisers in El Salvador. I welcome statements by administration spokesmen that no more advisers will be sent.

ASSISTANCE SHOULD BE CONDITIONED BY COMMITMENTS

I also am troubled by the extension of what appears to be unconditional U.S. military assistance. I believe any such assistance should be conditioned on commitments by the El Salvadoran authorities to continue efforts they are currently making to try to stop rightwing terrorism and to move forward on the political and land reforms that are essential to drying up the indigenous support of the El Salvadoran leftwing and the guerrillas.

I am not prepared at this time to support the initiative undertaken by Senator Tsongas and Senator Kennedy and others in proposing legislation which would cut off all aid to El Salvador until certain conditions are met. However, I might well become a supporter, depending upon what I learn about the administration's policies toward El Salvador and depending upon conditions and developments there.

I do view the Tsongas-Kennedy effort as an important one which could help move forward the debate in Congress and in our country on the proper U.S. role in seeking to help the people of El Salvador achieve peaceful self-determination.

Secretary Stoessel, I have a few questions about U.S. policy toward El Salvador. Some I intended to ask, but they have already been asked, such as regarding the people in Miami and the alleged flow of money down to the rightwing hit squads in El Salvador. Also, several questions have already been asked about the advisers. That covers some of the ground I wanted to cover.

DID EL SALVADOR REQUEST ADVISERS

I would like to ask the following on that subject. Did El Salvador request all the advisers on their own initiative, or did they make the request after the U.S. suggestions that they do so?

Mr. BUSHNELL. Maybe we should say, Senator Cranston, that it is not always clear—that is, the antecedents of these things are not always clear. There were discussions between our military and the military of El Salvador going a long ways back. In fact, we have had mobile training teams in El Salvador for some time.

They discussed this form the point of view of, "Can you help on this?" What would it take? The source of ideas is not. Finally, as a result of these military discussions—and I cannot say categorically that our military did not suggest some positions in response to the problem; others the Salvadorian suggested.

Finally, this proposition was taken to President Duarte, who went through each one, position by position. In some cases, he pointed out to his own military that he didn't think a certain position was essential, it wasn't needed; and those were struck out.

So that the people that we have provided, every single one, have been approved personally by the president of the junta and by the junta and requested of us.

Senator CRANSTON. I would like to ask if you can assure this committee that the statement of the unnamed administration spokesman last week that no more advisers will be sent beyond the number that are down there now, or publicly announced as slated to go there, as an authoritative statement representing administration policy?

[Pause.]

"TRAINERS" BETTER WORD THAN "ADVISERS"

Mr. BUSHNELL. I don't think that a statement was made that was as categoric as what I have just heard you say. Let me go over what the administration position is on these advisers—or "trainers" is a better word, probably, than "advisers." Most of them are advising only in the sense.

The administration believes that the level of instructors, technicians, and administrative personnel, 54 which are approved now, meets El Salvador's current security assistance requirements if the military situation remains basically unchanged.

Within that general level, there could be reductions in the number of personnel assigned to some of the teams as they complete various phases of their mission. Conversely, there could be additions or replacements of some teams with others as Salvadoran requirements change.

POSSIBILITY OF USING CIVILIAN CONTRACTORS

For example, we are reviewing the possibility of using civilian contractors to provide technical support once initial work is completed by some of the U.S. military teams. On the other hand, as logistic problems develop, problems with maintaining certain sorts of equipment, teams may have to be put in to deal with that.

We will, or course, continue to consult with the Congress on our security assistance programs and on the number of people in El Salvador.

Senator CRANSTON. I saw a statement attributed to an unnamed spokesman for the State Department that the present figures amounted to a cap. Am I to take it that that was not a formal statement of policy?

Ambassador STOESSEL. Well, I think Senator, as we have indicated, that we feel some flexibility in this figure, it should be granted there could be changes within that figure. There could be some reductions, particularly if we go to civilian employees. Particular circumstances might require some slight increases in some of the teams.

RELEASE
El Salvador: Human
Special Project (19

We do feel that what we have now is appropriate to the circumstances. We would not anticipate large changes in that.

STEPS TAKEN TO INCREASE SAFETY

Senator CRANSTON. Should one or more Americans be killed in El Salvador, at what point would you recommend that steps be taken to increase their safety, such as sending additional military personnel down to protect those who are there?

Ambassador STOESSEL. I think we would have to look at the circumstances in each case. As I said earlier—and I think we all recognize the level of violence in Salvador is high; terrorist acts occur as they do in other countries; and there is some risk attached even though we are taking every possible means to insure the security of our personnel by keeping them in restricted areas and where there are no hostilities in progress.

If a member of a team is the subject of a terrorist attack, then I think we would have to look at the circumstances of that. I do not think that necessarily such an act would call for additional personnel to be introduced, nor would it affect the overall direction of our program. We would recognize it as an individual and isolated act of terrorism.

Senator CRANSTON. I gather from your answer that it would not necessarily call for an increase in personnel, but that it could call for an increase in personnel?

Ambassador STOESSEL. We would have to look at the circumstances, Senator.

Senator CRANSTON. Can you foresee circumstances whereunder you would consider revising the missions of the U.S. military personnel sent to El Salvador? For example, might they be equipped for combat and used to rescue or protect other American citizens in danger there?

MILITARY PEOPLE IN TRAINING AREAS—NOT COMBAT OPERATIONS

General GRAVES. That would be a totally different policy from the one we are pursuing now. Since we are not using any of the military people to accompany the El Salvadoran forces on combat operations or anthing, we aren't in that type of situation. We are in training areas, and unless one of those were subject to attack, I don't see the kind of situation that you are describing.

Senator CRANSTON. In your judgment, would a guerrilla attack upon U.S. military personnel or the locations where they are stationed bring into play the reporting requirements for the War Powers Resolution.

General GRAVES. I think it would not be the War Powers Resolution, Senator Cranston. But as Mr. Carlucci said in his recent letter to the chairman, if we had an outbreak of significant hostilities, we would report in compliance with section 21(c) of the Arms Export Control Act.

CONDITIONS WITH REGARD TO ASSISTANCE

Senator CRANSTON. Has the administration decided to offer unconditional military and economic aid to El Salvador, or will we hold the El Salvadoran Government to a commitment to efforts trying to stop rightwing terrorism and to achieve land reform?

Ambassador STOESSEL. Senator, we have not made specific conditions with regard to the assistance we are providing to the Government of El Salvador. We have said very clearly we support the program of the Government itself for progress in the economic and social area and for the electoral process, a peaceful transition to an elected democratic government.

That is their program. We would expect that they will live up to it, and we fully support it.

Senator CRANSTON. Well, are we doing more than simply supporting it, but doing our utmost to persuade them that they should carry on that program?

Ambassador STOESSEL. Yes. We are, of course, recognizing that it is their program and their country. But I think all of our efforts are directed to that end.

Senator CRANSTON. Thank you. My time is up.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you, Senator Cranston.

Senator Dodd.

Senator DODD. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Secretary Stoessel, in your paraphrasing of your statement, at one point you said if we are not able to cut off or convince those neighboring countries of El Salvador to stop the supply of arms into that country—if I am quoting you correctly—you said, "We will go to the source." That is not in your prepared statement.

STEPS ADMINISTRATION WOULD TAKE "TO GO TO THE SOURCE"

Putting aside for a moment, if you will, the questions that were raised by Senator Helms, would you be as specific as you can be for this committee in telling us what steps the administration is considering that it would take "to go to the source" to cut off those supplies, and specifically which countries are you talking about?

Ambassador STOESSEL. I would say, Senator, that the primary source, as we know, is Cuba. The other countries in the area are primarily transit points. We have had some success, as we have said earlier, in slowing down the flow of arms into El Salvador through those countries. We hope that that situation will continue and that in the end there will be a complete cessation of such arms infiltration.

Now, if that does not happen, or if there is an increase of the arms flow from Cuba, then we would have to consider steps which could be taken to stop that flow.

I cannot be specific here as to the exact nature of the measures we would take, but I would say we have a wide variety of options from which to choose, including political and economic, and not excluding or necessarily including military.

SPECIFIC PLANS UNDER CONSIDERATION

Senator DODD. Are there specific plans that are under consideration?

Ambassador STOESSEL. Yes, there are.

Senator DODD. Do these plans include military plans?

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

Secretary's response to that question, I would like, as one member of this committee, to request an executive session at some point to hear in greater detail exactly what these plans are. I don't know if that is an appropriate request to make, but I find that response to be new evidence, for me, anyway, and I would like to hear more about it. I think the proper forum might be an executive session rather than an open session.

The CHAIRMAN. I think our witnesses would be prepared to stay on this afternoon. And if we do finish up in an adequate time, we certainly can have an executive session in the backroom.

I have to leave at 6 o'clock. But certainly the next in line, Senator Pell, could chair a closed session or hearing if there are no members of the majority here.

Would you be prepared to stay on, gentlemen? Do any of you have a time deadline?

Ambassador STOESSEL. Senator, I think we have no specific time limits. I would like to suggest, however——

The CHAIRMAN. Do you so request?

Senator DODD. I so request, Mr. Chairman.

Ambassador STOESSEL. Mr. Chairman, perhaps it might be better if we could suggest another session, a closed session at another time, in order adequately to prepare for this.

The CHAIRMAN. Well, if you would prefer adequate time, I am sure Senator Dodd would defer.

Senator DODD. What do we mean by "adequate time"? I would like to be a bit more specific than that. It sounds to me like there are plans. I would be willing to wait until tomorrow in order to give them an opportunity to bring whatever information is necessary. But I would not want to go much beyond that.

The CHAIRMAN. Is there enough information that you would like to share in closed session to make it worthwhile, in your judgment? Or do you specifically request, Secretary Stoessel, to go back to the department and confer with the Secretary on this particular issue?

Ambassador STOESSEL. I would wish to do that.

Senator PELL. Or to interrupt for a second, might you quickly declassify the thought that was in your mind and say it to us now in sort of sanitized language?

Ambassador STOESSEL. I would prefer to consult with Secretary Haig about this.

Senator DODD. Well, if the staffs want to discuss the timing, if it is tomorrow, I certainly would be willing to wait until tomorrow, Mr. Chairman. I would rather have the session be meaningful.

The CHAIRMAN. Secretary Haig will be here tomorrow himself. Certainly, you could convey the wishes of the committee that we be briefed either in executive session or in open session.

Ambassador STOESSEL. Fine.

The CHAIRMAN. I think our preference would be to have as much as possible in open session.

Senator DODD. That would be my choice, Mr. Chairman. But I suspect there would be objection.

sometime tomorrow with Secretary Haig to go into executive session if he would be prepared then to discuss the question.

Senator DODD. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Let me continue, if I may, with my questions.

The letter that our Government has received from Napoleon Duarte, I do not believe has been made a part of the record, and I think it may be appropriate to do so.

The CHAIRMAN. It is so ordered.

[The letter referred to follows:]

LETTER FROM THE EL SALVADORAN GOVERNMENT REQUESTING U.S. ASSISTANCE

SAN SALVADOR, February 20, 1981.

His Excellency the AMBASSADOR OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

EXCELLENCY: With all respect and by this means, we address you to express the following decisions taken in plenary session by the Revolutionary Governing Junta on the 19th of February:

"To ratify before the Ambassador of the United States that, confronted by the critical situation of the nation, and not unmindful of the economic priorities before us, the high command of the Salvadoran Armed Forces consider necessary technical assistance of the levels and types previously specified that will permit the Armed Forces to protect the Salvadoran people and defend the national territory. It should be noted that the assistance referred to expressly excludes any participation by technical personnel in military actions separate from the training and management of operations and maintenance of equipment and methodologies agreed upon."

With renewed assurances of the highest consideration and esteem.

JOSE NAPOLEON DUARTE.
JAIME ABDUL GUTIERREZ.
JOSE ANTONIO MORALES EHRLICH.
JOSE RAMON AVALOS NAVARETTE.

The CHAIRMAN. Also, let me say that, without objection, the material Senator Zorinsky asked to be inserted in the record will be so inserted at the appropriate place.

Senator ZORINSKY. Mr. Chairman, at the same time, may I make a unanimous consent request that the record of the hearings be printed, and that it be in order for additional questions to be submitted for the record?

The CHAIRMAN. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Senator DODD. Mr. Secretary, I would ask you to look with me at this letter which I have a copy of here. There is a quotation, the paragraph in the middle. You are accurate in your description of it that there is no specific request here for a specific number of personnel or equipment.

Mr. Chairman, I would just quote part of it here. It says:

> To ratify before the Ambassador of the United States that confronted by the critical situation of the nation and not unmindful of the economic priorities before us, the high command of the Salvadoran armed forces consider necessary technical assistance of the levels and types previously specified that will permit the armed forces to protect the Salvadoran people and defend the national territories.

That is the pertinent sentence about which I wish to question you.

MILITARY ADVISERS RECOMMENDATION

Is it not a fact that our military advisers recommended some 75 military personnel and, in fact the Salvadoran Government requested 25 specifically in those numbers, a significant number less than we actually recommended?

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

Mr. BUSHNELL. Those numbers are not basically correct. The proposal that was put forward by the military of the two countries was greater than the proposal approved, however.

Senator DODD. I am sorry, I am having a hard time hearing you. What was that?

Mr. BUSHNELL. The proposal that was put forward by the military of the two countries, the Salvadoran military and the American military working together, was for more people than was approved.

Senator DODD. Than was requested by President Duarte?

Mr. BUSHNELL. That is right, than was approved by President Duarte. He cut down the request of the military of the two countries.

Now, the 25 figure I think would be at least in the ballpark, taking into account the fact that there were people at this time already in country. The training team with the helicopters, for example, was sent in by President Carter in January when the helicopters were sent in, so there were a number of those teams that were there. There were some teams such as the naval team that subsequently had been approved.

REQUEST FOR 54 MILITARY PEOPLE

At a given point in February when they were reviewing, in effect, add-ons, the add-on was something in the vicinity of 25, bringing the total to the 54.

Senator DODD. What did Napoleon Duarte ask for? What did he recommend? What was his figure?

Mr. BUSHNELL. His figure was to add on those positions to what was in country that would arive at the 54.

Senator DODD. What was his total number?

Mr. BUSHNELL. Fifty-four.

Senator DODD. His request was for 54, specifically 54?

Mr. BUSHNELL. His request was for a list which, if you added them up was 54.

Senator DODD. Fifty-four military advisers?

Mr. BUSHNELL. Trainers and so forth, yes. We don't refer to them as advisers, but 54 military people, yes.

Senator DODD. This is what he talks about when he says that was previously specified?

Mr. BUSHNELL. That is what he previously specified.

Senator DODD. He previously specified the 54 personnel.

Mr. BUSHNELL. That is correct.

MILITARY ADVISERS PRIME TARGET

Senator DODD. In response to questions by Senator Tsongas, General, I think you agreed with the Senator that these military advisers would become the prime targets of the leftist guerrillas and the extreme right-wing groups. Is that correct? Did you agree with that?

General GRAVES. I did not agree with that; no, sir.

Senator DODD. You do not believe that?

General GRAVES. I believe that they are in a terrorist situation and they are subject to essentially the same level of terrorist threat as the rest of the U.S. Embassy is.

Senator DODD. No more?

General GRAVES. No more. I would say that the Ambassador, the Marine guards at the Embassy who were there when it was shot at recently, all U.S. personnel associated with the U.S. Government are potential terrorist targets. As a matter of fact, to the extent that these military people are staying in secure areas and confining their activities to training, they may have less exposure than some of the other Embassy personnel.

Senator DODD. Are they staying in those little garrisons?

General GRAVES. Well, they are staying in garrison areas, training areas, so I don't think it is correct to characterize them as being the prime targets.

10,000–13,000 CIVILIAN DEATHS IN RECENT YEARS

Senator DODD. Mr. Secretary, could you give us some indication—well, I guess the figures are that there have been some 10,000 to 13,000 civilian deaths in recent years in El Salvador. Is that figure generally agreed upon?

Mr. BUSHNELL. In the last years.

Ambassador STOESSEL. [Nods affirmatively.]

Senator DODD. Could you attribute to leftist guerrillas, military forces and right-wing extremist groups these figures? How would you break them down? What percentage of those civilians have been killed as a result of the activities of those three groups? What percentages, if you have any idea.

VARIOUS KINDS OF DEATHS IN EL SALVADOR

Mr. BUSHNELL. In the vast majority of cases we have no basis for saying who is responsible for how many deaths. I should clarify that there are various kinds of deaths in El Salvador, such as those which are caused by the guerrillas and their attacks on the civilians—some of the guerrilla groups themselves claimed to have killed various thousands of people; those that occur in actions in combat between the military and guerrilla groups, and civilians are sometimes killed in that way.

Senator DODD. Can you attribute any numbers at all or percentages?

Mr. BUSHNELL. I think it is very hard to break down and to put any percentages on these sorts of things. I think it is safe to say that the number who are killed by unauthorized activities of the security forces, that is, outside of the combat situation, are certainly not as great as the number that are killed by the forces of the left.

Senator DODD. How do you know that?

Mr. BUSHNELL. As I said, although the Embassy reports information to us weekly in terms of the number of deaths that have come to light, and the circumstances of each incident we do not have any firm way of analyzing this in most cases.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

from within the security forces are less than those caused by the guerrilla source of attack.

REACHED A CONCLUSION

Senator DODD. Now, wait a second. Mr. Chairman, I know my time is up, but you just told me you don't have any numbers, but you have reached a conclusion. I want to know how you have reached that conclusion.

Mr. BUSHNELL. By reading through the Embassy reports of each incident that has come to light, which is not every incident that is reported upon, and looking at the circumstances. One sees cases where the guerrillas throw a grenade into a truck carrying workers, where the guerrillas attack a village and execute a number of people, those one puts on one side.

One sees other cases in which the military going into a village to kill people, where young people suspected of being guerrillas—some of them may have been, some of them may not have been but it was not a combat situation—are taken out and shot.

So simply by going through the reports and looking at this, I have that impression. As I said, there is no way that we can come down with firm figures or percentages, but my impression is the violence originating from within the security forces outside of combat is less than that from the guerrillas.

Senator DODD. Would you still call it significant?

Mr. BUSHNELL. Yes. I would think even if it were quite small numbers, it would still be significant. It is still a major problem. It is the commitment of the government to eliminate that sort of violence over time.

Senator DODD. My time has expired. I will come back to this.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you very much, Senator Dodd.

Before beginning the second round of questioning, Secretary Stoessel, I would like to say I checked with the staff to see if the committee at any time has requested the secret documents that were referred to with respect to the 1963 United States-Soviet understandings. They were once mentioned by Senator Stone at a hearing but at no time can I find record that he actually requested them.

COMMITTEE REQUEST FOR DOCUMENTS

I would like, therefore, to make an official request to you on behalf of the committee that we be provided with copies of those and that to the maximum extent possible now, 8 or 9 years later, that those documents be made public. But if they are sensitive and there is no desire to make them public, we request that they be given to us in the classified form that you see fit.

We will give you a written request on that from the committee.

Also, following upon Senator Helms' original question about whether the El Salvador Government had nationalized their export trade, I have some information regarding some other countries. Almost all of Salvador's products are raw materials, worldwide, there are a number of countries that follow such practices.

have government wheat market boards. Oil sales from almost every exporter are controlled by the government. Most coffee exporters—Brazil, Colombia, and the Ivory Coast, for example—have government institutions which regulate prices and exports. Hong Kong sells export quotas to its private manufacturers.

Sometimes, of course, the export is controlled because the government owns the producing company, such as British Steel and Renault autos in France. I think the picture is more complete with this information.

PRESS IS EMPHASIZING EL SALVADOR TOO MUCH

As my first question, I would like to ask you about a matter that has perplexed the press and was of interest to some of us a few days ago. The press had been reporting on what appeared to be conflicting views in the administration as to how the press actually should cover the El Salvador situation. An unnamed "high official" is purported to have said that the press is emphasizing El Salvador too much.

The next day Secretary Haig identified the spokesman as Mr. Bushnell, and he seemed to disagree. You are sort of in between the two, sir. Would you want to clarify this matter in any way, Mr. Secretary?

Perhaps, Mr. Bushnell, you might also wish to clarify the situation.

Ambassador STOESSEL. Well, Mr. Chairman, I think Secretary Haig, as you indicated, has spoken to this question, particularly in his discussion with the MacNeil-Lehrer television interviews. As I recall, his point was certainly that we do not wish to downplay the seriousness of the situation in El Salvador and what we are doing to try to improve that situation.

EL SALVADOR NOT THE ONLY SERIOUS PROBLEM

At the same time, we should see it in the perspective of many other problems around the world and realize that El Salvador is not the only serious problem with which we are confronted. He mentioned a number of other problems, including Afghanistan and Poland.

So I really do not think there is a disagreement here, but it is a question of putting the whole matter into perspective.

The CHAIRMAN. I would like to say, just as one Senator, that El Salvador does not dominate my day. We have so many other issues with which we are dealing. The succession of world leaders coming to see President Reagan have been amazed at how much they are questioned about it, yet they don't spend that much time on it in meetings when they are here.

So it would appear to be somewhat out of perspective. However, I would think the level of public interest even in just these hearings today is evidence that the American people are deeply concerned that this may be another Vietnam. That is why I started out the questioning by trying to point out that there is a vast difference.

Perhaps you could comment as to the differences that you see between Vietnam and this situation.

We have gone through the Vietnam episode of our history and we know that we don't want to have that happen again; we have that experience to guide us. That is why there have been so many questions of concern, not only by us, but I know members of the Appropriations Committee to whom I have talked are very concerned about how deeply we would get into this.

ATTENTION GIVEN BY THE PUBLIC AND CONGRESS

Ambassador STOESSEL. Yes. Well, we obviously are aware of the great attention which is given by the public and by the Congress to this whole problem. As you say, we all recognize the lessons of Vietnam, and that is very much with us as we look at this situation.

There are quite obvious differences, I think, in terms of geography, if nothing else. I do believe that the situation on the ground in terms of size, the extent of the insurgency, the prospects for a solution with the expenditure of modest and cautious efforts is much higher than was the case with regard to Vietnam.

The CHAIRMAN. Let me raise one question already asked in another way. Is the level of military equipment and support now contemplated by the administration sufficient to counter the military threat posed by the leftists, assuming that the outside supply of arms is essentially halted?

General GRAVES. In our judgment, Mr. Chairman, it is. I might note that the bulk of our support is in areas such as communications, transportation, and the like. We have provided some arms and ammunition, but in fact when you look at it from a dollar standpoint, we are very much emphasizing basic necessities like transportation and communication. If the arms flow is halted, this should be adequate.

WILL THERE BE FURTHER REQUESTS FOR MILITARY AID?

The CHAIRMAN. Is the military assistance we are now discussing essentially the bottom line? This is a concern of many members of the Appropriations Committee in the Senate. Will there be further requests for military aid and, if so, under what circumstances?

General GRAVES. We have developed a program which, of course, reaches into fiscal year 1982. The fiscal year 1982 budget request does include credits for El Salvador, $25 million credits. It includes a follow-on IMET [International Military Education and Training].

So we are talking about sustaining support for these forces in the future years. Again, they are in the areas that I mentioned. As far as a draw-down under Section 506(a) of the Foreign Assistance Act, we don't see the need for that.

LIMITATIONS ON EQUIPMENT REQUESTS

The CHAIRMAN. You have said that the number of advisers to be sent are definitely limited. Are there limitations then specifically also on the equipment requests?

General GRAVES. Well, we have developed a program based upon requirements that the Salvadoran military have stated, particularly to replace old, worn out vehicles, to upgrade their patrol ships, to repair their aircraft, things of this type.

We believe that the level we are at for fiscal year 1982, for example, of the $25 million budget request should be adequate to sustain them. We have worked this out carefully over an extended period of time. Unless there is some major change in the military situation which we don't foresee, this should be adequate.

I would expect there will be requests in fiscal year 1983 and fiscal year 1984 to have sustaining forces.

The CHAIRMAN. Members of the committee have asked that former Ambassador White be brought forward as a witness, so we will schedule a session at which he can testify. How would you respond to his charge that sending military equipment merely strengthens the position of those in El Salvador who have been guilty of committing abuses against the Salvadoran people?

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED WILL LOWER LEVEL OF VIOLENCE

Ambassador STOESSEL. We would take issues with that view of the former Ambassador. The purpose of the assistance is to aid the Government of El Salvador, and it is the declared policy of President Duarte and his associates to lower the level of violence from both left and right.

We feel that the assistance provided to them will help in this effort and indeed is necessary for the effort. So I would say we would approach it from that standpoint and not from a standpoint enunciated by Ambassador White.

Mr. BUSHNELL. I wonder if I might add a point because I think one of the points that is missed is how much the military assistance is an integral part of reducing the violence that originates within the military forces. Remember that within the security forces there is the army, which is about half the force, and then there are the National Guard and the police forces which are the other half and from which it is generally accepted most of this violence comes.

The concept that has been put forward and accepted by the Government of El Salvador is to draw back the small posts of the National Guard and the police to bring them into units that can be better controlled; and instead of having a post out in every village of a half-dozen men to drive off the insurgents should they come, to instead perhaps have a radio so that they could call for help, and then to train in the army with our help this quick reaction force just will use the trucks that we supply and the helicopters that we supply and we are equipping this quick reactor force with the M-16's that we supply.

They then would be able to respond to this so that they would not have the small units of the security forces scattered around the country which have traditionally, not just in the last year but over the last 50 years, been the source of so much violence.

By making this structured change to bring about this sort of real change in what we might generally call the human rights situation as it affects the military, they need equipment to do this. If you are going to have a quick reaction force, you have to have transport, you have to have communications. That is a great bulk of what we are providing in this assistance.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you.

Senator Pell.

DEATH OF THE NUNS

I would like to return for a moment to the question of the nuns and their murder. Mr. Mullen, are you satisfied with the extent of aid that the Salvadoran Government has extended to your people down there in seeking to find who the murderers are?

Mr. MULLEN. Yes, we are.

Senator PELL. I read your statement. I just wanted to be sure you are completely satisfied they are doing all that they possibly can.

Mr. MULLEN. That is correct. We have made investigative suggestions. They have followed those. We have asked for material for comparison and they are in the process of furnishing that.

Senator PELL. Good.

Then how do you relate that to the statement by Ambassador White a short while ago: "There was no serious investigation into the death of the nuns, and as far as I am concerned, there never has been and I know of no evidence to say that that situation has changed"? Would you say that is an incorrect statement?

Mr. MULLEN. I would have to say it is incorrect based on information I am receiving from our legal attaché, who has visited El Salvador and discussed the case with El Salvadoran officials.

Senator PELL. He feels that the government could not be helping more?

Mr. MULLEN. Yes, sir. Our legal attaché, who has extensive investigative experience, is satisfied that this is being pursued.

Senator PELL. Good.

INVESTIGATION PROCEEDING AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE

Ambassador STOESSEL. Senator, on that point I wonder if I might add an observation. President Duarte has a statement which is published in the March 16, 1981 issue of U.S. News & World Report on this subject. It might be of interest, if you have not seen it, if I read it.

He says, "I, Napolean Duarte, stress that the investigation is proceeding as quickly as possible. The bullets that killed the four women have been sent to a laboratory in the United States for analysis. The autopsies have been finished. We are in the process of checking fingerprints. When guilt is established, I promise that the guilty will be punished, even if they are members of the security forces. But first we need proof."

Senator PELL. Thank you very much. That is very helpful.

WHAT EFFORTS ARE BEING MADE TO ACHIEVE DIPLOMATIC SOLUTION?

Now, Ambassador Stoessel, I would like to get to the question of what efforts we are making to achieve a diplomatic solution to the problem. I think we all agree the problem is economic, it is not a military problem there. What efforts are we making with the neighboring states? What is the reason for the OAS demarche to be rejected by Mr. Duarte, and what can be done to push along such an approach?

has a huge stake in that part of the world, is so negative toward helping the regime as it appears to be in the circumstances?

Ambassador STOESSEL. Senator, I think on the question of the OAS, as I understand it, and Mr. Bushnell has addressed this earlier in more detail, there was not a formal OAS suggestion or request for action. There had been a suggestion by the President of Costa Rica that this be taken up by the OAS.

My understanding is that President Duarte and his colleagues did not wish to go in this direction feeling that at least at the present time it was preferable to address their own problems internally to discuss bilaterally with the neighboring countries the questions at issue involving infiltration and so on.

They have reserved the right themselves to raise it in OAS but do not feel that it is appropriate at the present time.

ARE WE GOING IT ALONE?

Senator PELL. Since we have taken the position, really, of being big brother and supporting the regime there, are we making any efforts of a diplomatic nature to get a concert of nations working with us in this regard? Are we going it alone or are we going it with others?

Ambassador STOESSEL. I think we are not going alone on this. As you know, we have consulted with a number of countries about the situation and about the measures we have planned to take. We do feel that the political situation within El Salvador is something for the Salvadorans to address themselves to.

President Duarte himself has said that he is prepared to consult with all parties in connection with the electoral process and building toward free elections and the participation of all interested in that. He has offered amnesty to the guerrilla forces who participate in this process.

SPECIFIC PROPOSALS TO OTHER COUNTRIES

Senator PELL. Have we made any specific proposals to Mexico, Venezuela, Costa Rica, or the other countries in the area to have a conference to try to resolve this collectively rather than individually?

Mr. BUSHNELL. I think maybe we should distinguish two parts of the problem. One part of the problem deals with what countries, particularly outside the area, are doing outside of El Salvador putting in weapons and so on. We have made our case, I think, publicly and diplomatically around the world, and I think there have been public statements of opposition to this activity by the Germans, the French, the United Kingdom, the Belgians, the Venezuelans, the Costa Ricans, and the Mexicans. All publicly have deplored the putting in of large amounts of arms by the worldwide Communist network.

Fortunately, as we have said, this activity as regards El Salvador has greatly diminished over the last 6 weeks. That is what we like to see, and perhaps nothing more needs to be done. Let's hope that would be the case. But we obviously will have to watch it very carefully and be very concerned about it to see that this is a permanent change, but the direction of the change is certainly the direction we want to see.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

SALVADORANS MUST SOLVE OWN POLITICAL PROBLEM

The second part of the problem, which is much talked about, is resolving politically the situation inside El Salvador. Our view is that this is above all a Salvadoran problem, that the Salvadorans themselves have to work this out. This does not require a solution made in Bonn or made in Washington; it is going to have to be made in El Salvador if it is going to be workable.

The Government has called for elections. We think elections are a very good way to work political problems. There should be honest elections, free elections. Details should be worked out. The Government has accepted the church as a mediator in talking with other groups. It has not necessarily excluded other groups as a mediator. We think it up to Salvadorans to make this decision.

The FDR, the party at the left, has not accepted the church but instead has called on international figures to become involved. It even called on some international figures to negotiate with us first. We hardly think that is appropriate. So that we have not taken an initiative in trying to put together a discussion inside El Salvador because, frankly, we haven't seen that as being necessary.

GOVERNMENT PROGRAM INCLUDES ELECTION

The Government has announced a political program which includes elections. They have said that, with the church as mediator, they are prepared to talk. The Electoral Commission which has been set up has said they recognize particularly five political parties, including the Communist Party of El Salvador, which they invite to come and talk about elections.

This process is open and available. We have not, on the other hand, excluded that, if some friendly country, whether it be European or Latin American, can offer a role which the various parties in El Salvador find helpful, then the United States certainly is not opposed to that; but we are not pushing either a mediator or the Salvadorans to do that.

Senator PELL. Thank you.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you.

Senator BIDEN. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

I would like to follow up on that last point, both for you, Mr. Bushnell, and Secretary Stoessel, General Graves, any one of you who wishes to comment on it.

I think you fellows are right that we may in the press and the public be overdrawing the analogy to Vietnam, but I wonder if you all have figured out why that has happened. One of the reasons why it is happening is because it is coming from both the supporters and opponents of the cold war in Vietnam.

VIETNAM VETERANS COMMENTS

Let me give you an example. I met with a group of Vietnam veterans who came in to talk to me about cuts in the budget. They were referring to veterans' benefits. They started to discuss with me El Salvador and we got into that. I won't quote them exactly but will paraphrase their comments.

One fellow said: I will be darned if I will see my son ever go to El Salvador, and he is old enough to do it now and he is in a military school, not in active service, so he will be getting there. I asked him why, and he said: Because you damn politicians are doing the same thing all over again; you don't have the guts to let us win; you are going to send us down there and let us hang out to dry. The President went on television and said we are not going to protect those 54 advisers. Well, he didn't say the number, he said we are not going to protect them. You know, if they get shot, they get shot. The President said he is not going to commit combat troops, and you politicians are doing the same thing you did before.

Then you hear on the left, well, you know what, there is no popular government down there. I don't suggest you, Mr. Bushnell, or anyone else has suggested that Duarte has the popular support of the people of El Salvador. He is better than the others, but there is no base, there is no middle to build on. We are hoping we can start from this guy Duarte and company and build something, but right now it is not there.

Then you have folks saying, well, we are going to go to the source, the President of the United States, and we will find out big nations are bluffing again. Does that mean if we find out the weapons are coming from Cuba and we find out that there is a Cuban patrol boat running guns or weapons into Nicaragua or any place else in Latin America, that we are going to blow it out of the water? Is that our policy?

Then you have the folks on the left say, hey, wait, if that is our policy, we had better know it because that means we may end up in a shooting war with somebody other than 5 million people down in there who can't really hurt us a whole bunch.

"DENIED PERMISSION TO WIN"

So here we are, wondering why we are making these analogies to Vietnam. Well, we have no really popular government in that nation. We haven't committed that we would support our military people who are being sent there. We have not made a decision that we would let the military win. As President Reagan said when he bestowed the Congressional Medal of Honor belatedly to a not-so-young man any more, I believe the quote at the time that he made regarding Vietnam was that American military had failed to win in Vietnam only because "it had been denied permission to win."

I don't know whether you all have given them permission to win. I don't know whether or not you really mean you are going to go to the source. I don't know whether or not that means you will blow Russian vessels out of the water, Cuban vessels out of the water, if we find out that is the source.

I don't know as a U.S. Senator whether there is a government down there that represents anybody. And most of all, I am perplexed by what you fellows keep saying here today, that we are not going to tell the Salvadorans what to do, who to negotiate with. Why the hell don't we get tough and flat out tell them. It we want to be tough, let's get tough. Let's have a President who says we are tough: Now listen, Duar[illegible]get your act in gear, this [illegible]hat you ge., x number of advisers, x numbers of dollars, x number of military hardware, and you do the following.

I for one am so sick and tired of us being pushed around, of not having a policy, of having weak-kneed administrations and not knowing what we are going to do. I am one of those Vietnam era guys who was labeled a liberal who wants to see you all get tough, but please tell us what the tough policy is.

FOUR QUESTIONS

I have four questions. Why won't we tell Duarte whom to negotiate with? We know who we want. If we don't know, we shouldn't be there. Two, why don't we protect our military if we send them? Three, are we going to go to the source even if it means Cuba? And No. 4, how far are we willing to go if, in fact, Duarte can't hold the seam, can't cut it, even if there is no massive infusion of outside weaponry. If you cut off the source and Duarte still can't cut it, what do we do then?

I sure would like to know the answers to those four questions because I want to get tough. I want to be a Reaganite. [Laughter.]

No, I am serious. These are serious questions. I am not kidding at all. Why don't we protect our military men? What are we sending them down there to hang out to dry for?

General GRAVES. Well, I would say with respect to protecting our military men, that they are being protected.

Senator BIDEN. If they get shot and killed, are we going to go in there and find the folks who did it?

General GRAVES. El Salvador is a sovereign country.

Senator BIDEN. But they are our men. They are Americans. They have my blood running in their veins. I don't want them shot unless we are ready to go and protect them.

General GRAVES. I understand your point, but I have trouble with it.

Senator BIDEN. Why?

OUR PEOPLE UNDER PROTECTION OF LOCAL GOVERNMENTS

General GRAVES. Because we have tens of thousands around the world in other sovereign countries, and the general practice is that our people in those countries are under the protection of the governments in the countries where they are located.

Senator BIDEN. But we know this government can't cut it.

General GRAVES. I don't agree with that point.

Senator BIDEN. You don't. Oh, OK. So you think Duarte is pretty stable, then?

General GRAVES. I think he is doing pretty well.

Senator BIDEN. Stable enough to protect our American people, our American military people in that country?

General GRAVES. That is the basic point.

Senator BIDEN. What happens if you are wrong? What do we do then: Pull out the rest, or go in and do it?

General GRAVES. I don't believe that this country wants to go in and "do it." I think our goal in that country is a viable government, a viable society, a viable economy. I think we are in there assisting that government because we believe that we can achieve that there and that the Duarte government is the best point of departure for doing that.

I think we have a reasonable confidence in the security that will be provided our trainers who are down there and that that is the reason we have done it.

Senator BIDEN. But if you are wrong, if the Duarte government falls or you can't protect the 54 military who are there, I assume that any administration would have thought of a contingency plan. What do we do then? General, the American people, me included, are so sick and tired of being sent to be involved in military actions during which their hands are tied and they are not clearly defined why we are there and we don't know quite who we are backing, we don't know whether or not we are going to win.

Why don't we just go down and do it?

General GRAVES. I don't think that the object is to make El Salvador the 51st state, Senator Biden.

DO WHATEVER IT TAKES TO MEET OBJECTIVES

Senator BIDEN. Well, I will tell you what. Isn't the object to make sure that El Salvador is clearly out of the hands of and influence of the Soviet Union, Cuba, and the other Communists you refer to in your opening statement? That is in our interest, isn't it? If I can find your statement, I think that is what we talked about, Communist infiltration. That is the objective, isn't it?

I see you nodding your head, Mr. Secretary, and if that is the objective, we should do whatever it takes to meet that objective. Right or wrong?

Ambassador STOESSEL. I would say, Senator, that we feel the course we have embarked on is the best way to accomplish that objective.

Senator BIDEN. What do you mean by go to the source, then? Are we prepared, if need be, to invade Cuba?

Ambassador STOESSEL. Well, that is something that I do not feel at liberty to address here.

Senator BIDEN. I can understand that. I am getting a big sign saying my time is up. But can you understand why that is a question, because my people say, hey, Joe, what are you doing down there; are we really going to do it? I mean if we find out those guns are coming from Cuba, does the President mean we are going to invade Cuba? Is that what he means?

CLEARER POLICY NEEDED

I would like to know those little details. You know, they are not inconsequential, because you guys are asking us to vote for money for the military, and you are asking us, in my opinion, to look a little bit away concerning the war powers and technicalities that may or may not exist here.

I just think we had better have a lot more clear policy. I am for you if you can win, General. I ain't going to be any part of sending down another generation of Americans, whether they are advisers or whatever you want to call them, and make sure that they ain't got the full faith and credit of the United States of America behind them.

INTELLIGENCE ASSESSMENTS OF SUPPORT IN MILITARY

Senator GLENN. Can you report to us in open session concerning what intelligence assessments we may have of support within the military, the national guard and the internal police forces as to what their status is, how dedicated they are to the Government there, or is that something we should save for a closed session?

Mr. BUSHNELL. There are certain things I can't say, but I think I can say about the experience to date, including the fact that, unlike a number of other places, very few weapons for example, are procured by the guerrillas from the security forces. In the offensive of January 10, their fighting acquitted them quite will, by all the accounts of people on the scene. They have a considerable cohesion among these forces.

Now, that does not mean that they have sophisticated logistics or things like that, because they don't. They are a fairly elementary force, but I think their loyalty to their country, to their military establishment and to the civilians of the junta is a strong one.

Senator GLENN. To the current government?

Mr. BUSHNELL. To the current government.

SIGN OF MILITARY COHESION

Senator GLENN. Your assessment is that these disparate groups which came together to form this government really are a solid, cohesive government now operating in unison?

Mr. BUSHNELL. There are only really two major groups in the Government. There is the Christian Democratic Party, which has been a coherent group and the largest party in the country for a long time, and the military. Although the military have different forces, there is only one officer corps in El Salvador. Officers are traded around among the services.

I think there are many signs that they have cohesion. They are led by the people who accomplished the coup in October of 1979 and committed themselves to a program of getting closer to the people and carrying out reforms.

Senator GLENN. Do you feel that they are all loyal and in agreement with the stated political and economic reform goals of the Government?

Mr. BUSHNELL. I don't suppose I could say all because in the January offensives there were a few desertions. There are some people who are probably opposed to these reforms, but the overwhelming bulk of them are with them.

Senator GLENN. In the summary of the jobs to be done by the U.S. Security Assistance personnel in El Salvador that we have received from the Defense Department, the operation planning assistance team [OPAT] augmentation has five people. Their stated job, is to extend the training of the national level OPAT to the five military zones in order to establish a functional nationwide joint command and control system utilizing locally available assets to employ appropriately all Salvadoran forces, equipment and other resources.

It seems to me when we are in that kind of situation we are also getting back into the War Powers and the Arms Export Control Act. Wouldn't you think it gets into that area?

ESTABLISH EFFICIENT COMMAND AND CONTROL SETUP

General GRAVES. Senator Glenn, what we are trying to help the El Salvadoran forces do is to establish an efficient command and control setup. The original team of five men was to do that at the national level, but they also need command posts at the provincial level. The object is to help train their staff officers in how you set up an efficient command post and use communications to assess the situation and direct the operations of your forces.

Senator GLENN. Under that War Powers Resolution it states under 8(c), for purposes of this joint resolution the term "introduction of U.S. Armed Forces includes the assignment of members of such armed forces to command, coordinate, participate in the movement of or accompany the regular or irregular military forces of any foreign country or government when such military forces are engaged or there exists an imminent threat that such forces will become engaged in hostilities."

General GRAVES. Well, our people are not exercising command. They are not directing the movement of forces and they are not accompanying such forces. They are training staff officers of the Salvadoran forces to perform these functions.

Senator GLENN. OK. That may be a gray area. But in the Arms Export Control Act, it states:

> Personnel performing defense services sold under this Act may not perform any duties of a combatant nature, including any duties relating to training and advising that may engage United States personnel in combat activities outside the United States in connection with performing some of those defense services.

General GRAVES. Well, we do not believe that the activities of training these staff officers in these command posts which are in extremely secure areas will cause them to be engaged in combat.

TORTURED LOGIC

Senator GLENN. Even presuming all that, we still come back to how we define significant hostilities. We are back to the bottom line. It is very difficult to see how when we have such things as 12,000 people killed last year in a nation of 5 million, 4 churchwomen killed, our Embassy shot up twice in the last 2 weeks, American personnel kept in garrisons with enough danger that they are authorized to carry sidearms and we have proposed giving them hostile fire pay, the people they are training are going out killing others and being killed, we say there are no significant hostilities going on.

I will repeat my term. That is just tortured logic. I did want to repeat this because it is incomprehensible to me how the United States of America in any administration, this one or the last one, can conceive that there are not significant hostilities going on. That is the reason we have people there, because there are significant hostilities going on in that country.

[illegible] report [illegible] to the Congress under the Arms Export Control Act is to me just not logical.

General GRAVES. Sir, I would like to comment very briefly. I really don't want to try to improve on the letter of the Deputy Secretary of Defense on the subject.

Senator GLENN. Well, you go ahead and try to improve on it, because it sure left some big gaps.

SECTION 21(C)

General GRAVES. But I would like to draw a distinction between that section of 21(c)(2) concerning reporting, which I believe is your main area of comment, and the first part of 21(c), which gets to the activities in which these people are engaged.

I believe that experts would agree that their activities are consistent with the requirements of section 21(c) and in particular are very consistent with the table of activities permitted and activities barred, which was the guidance of Congress on this subject in the conference report last year.

Senator GLENN. Are you talking about section 21(c)(2)?

General GRAVES. This is section 21(c)(1), sir, which is the prohibition.

Senator GLENN. Go down to section 21(c)(2). That is what I am referring to.

General GRAVES. Section 21(c)(2) is the reporting one.

Senator GLENN. It says after the outbreak of significant hostilities.

General GRAVES. Well, section 21(c)(2) is the requirement for a 48-hour report.

Senator GLENN. OK, let's go back to section 21(c)(1), then.

General GRAVES. Section 21(c)(1) is the guidance on the activities in which they may engage.

MAY NOT PERFORM DUTIES OF A COMBATANT NATURE

Senator GLENN. It says performing defense services sold under this act. They may not perform any duties of a combatant nature, including any duties related to training and advising that may engage U.S. personnel in combat activities outside the United States. It says including duties related to training and advising. That is exactly what they are doing.

General GRAVES. My point, sir, is that these duties they are performing are not going to engage them in combat activities; and furthermore, they are the activities permitted under the guidance established in the conference report of last year's bill.

Senator GLENN. I don't look at section 21(c)(2) as being subordinate to section 21(c)(1). I think it stands completely on its own.

General GRAVES. It is completely separate. I am not trying to link them. That was not my point. I think they are two separate points.

Senator GLENN. How the administration can look at this and say there are not significant hostilities when that is the reason we are there just doesn't hold together to me.

[illegible] arms. [illegible] These people do their thing. But once we become involved with our personnel, it is a whole different operation, it seems to me. And before the whole world—this whole thing has been spotlighted all over the world—we now are going to assume a much larger role for what happens there.

DUARTE REQUESTED ECONOMIC RATHER THAN MILITARY AID

If Duarte prevails, the little help we send will probably not be credited. In fact, he said himself that he really didn't care much whether we sent military help or not. Then he changed his statement later on when asked about this and said what he really wanted was economic help, that he didn't really need our help militarily.

So it seems to me we are not going to get much credit if he prevails; but if he fails, the big, giant United States, the most powerful nation in the world, will have failed in the little country of El Salvador, in our own hemisphere, a few hundred miles from our own shores. I think we will be looked at as sort of the helpless giant. I just hope we are not trending down that particular road.

Now, I support the shipment of arms, but I certainly wish the administration would reconsider once again this business of whether you have to report to us or not. It just makes us suspicious of what may be going on in other countries and you may not be reporting to us again. I said the same thing to the last administration too, so this isn't anything partisan, I just think it is a drastic error. We ought to either make you live up to this thing or change the law, and I don't want to change the law.

General GRAVES. I would ask one question, sir. Would it have been your view that the last administration should have reported the day the President signed the bill into law?

Senator GLENN. Which bill are you talking about?

General GRAVES. Well, the section 21(c)(2) reporting requirement was in a bill which was enacted on December 16, 1980. Would it have been your view that the administration should——

Senator GLENN. I would have to look at that. I think I probably would answer yes because we want to be reported to. We want to know what is going on.

General GRAVES. I guess my point is that I believe I correctly paraphrased Mr. Carlucci's letter. If in fact there should have been a report within 48 hours after enactment of the bill, that probably is the appropriate time for the report. Or you are suggesting that the present administration should send it in late.

The CHAIRMAN. We will have to move along.

Senator GLENN. When President Carter took his action before, in mid-January, I absolutely thought it should be reported here. I couldn't imagine why we were doing it if there were no significant hostilities, and I still feel that way. Now we are expanding our presence and to me it becomes even more important. And now I am really way over my time.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you, Senator Glenn.

Senator Zorinsky.

Senator ZORINSKY. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I want to follow up on Senator Glenn's comments about hostilities.

HAZARDS ASSOCIATED WITH ORDINARY FLOW OF ADVICE

In training exercises of this nature and under the conditions present in El Salvador, accidents, many of them, happen. So to say there is no hazard above and beyond that associated with the ordinary flow of military advice is being less than honest.

For instance, General, can you corroborate the report of a helicopter accident which was recently published in the paper? As a Salvadoran trainee exited the helicopter, he grabbed the control stick. The American adviser, to compensate, grabbed the control stick back, tilting the pitch of the propellers and decapitating two Salvadorans already on the ground.

General GRAVES. Sir, I have heard that report. I don't have the official report. I would be glad to provide more information. But I heard the same report that you did.

Senator ZORINSKY. I would appreciate that.

[The information referred to follows:]

The accident in question reportedly occurred in January 1981 before the arrival of the U.S. helicopters or helicopter training personnel. No U.S. personnel were involved. We do not have any official confirmation of the accident or any details concerning it.

ACTIVITIES ON PRIVATE PROPERTY

Senator ZORINSKY. Let me ask this question of Mr. Mullen. You said that activities on private property evade your jurisdiction. That is different then from a bank robbery, isn't it? Even though the bank is privately owned, you have jurisdiction by law.

Mr. MULLEN. Senator, I was speaking to training, to using firearms, and what they tell us. Now, when you see an article in the paper such as you displayed and someone puts a mask on and they talk to a reporter and say that they are going to invade Cuba or something like that, it is not the same as what they tell us. I am sure that the reporter would not disclose the location of the people where these pictures were taken.

If they say they are training to invade Cuba or El Salvador, then yes, we do have a basis for investigating. I did want to clarify that point to you.

Senator ZORINSKY. Which they do say in the article.

Mr. MULLEN. If they identify themselves and we know, there will be an investigation.

Senator ZORINSKY. OK. Is there an investigation being made?

Mr. MULLEN. Of the specific case?

Senator ZORINSKY. Yes.

Mr. MULLEN. I do not know.

Senator ZORINSKY. Let me read to you title 18, United States Code, section 960 because if this does not enable you to investigate, I would like to introduce legislation which will enable you to investigate. I believe this matter is serious enough for you to have jurisdiction in the area.

TITLE 18, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 960

It reads:

Whoever, within the United States, knowingly begins or sets on foot or provides or prepares a means for, or furnishes the money for, or takes part in, any military or naval expedition or enterprise to be carried on from thence against the territory or dominion of any foreign prince or state, or of any colony, district or people with whom the United States is at peace shall be fined not more than $3,000 or imprisoned not more than three years, or both.

Do you feel that such activities are within your jurisdiction?

Mr. MULLEN. Yes, sir, we are conducting investigations, and if someone commits an overt act in furtherance of an invasion or takes some sort of action, it will be investigated and hopefully he will be arrested.

Senator ZORINSKY. Thank you.

General, correct me if I am wrong. In the supply of arms to the Government of El Salvador, is it true that we can give military aid only to the military of the Government and not to police, not to right-wing groups, and not to paramilitary people or any group or organization like that?

General GRAVES. Yes, sir, our criterion is that we would not give to these police forces.

Senator ZORINSKY. OK. What ability do you have to control, and can you assure me that steps are being taken to avoid the transfer of U.S. arms to paramilitary groups which are not under the direct jurisdiction of the present Government of El Salvador?

TYPE OF ARMS CONTROL IN EL SALVADOR

I have talked to several Salvadorans. They have an uncle over here and a nephew over there and they are in different military groups. And the brother is serving here and another brother is serving there on different sides of the conflict. I know we can't control sometimes the weapons in our own armories in the United States because some of them are missing right now. I wonder what type of controls there are in El Salvador.

General GRAVES. The forces to whom we are supplying these arms have their own supply program. The arms that we are supplying now are different from the arms which these police forces have had in the past, so I think to the extent that we have a significant presence there, that is people who are operating in a training mode, we are able to observe if some of these weapons show up in other places. But no, the supply operation is by the Salvadoran forces and we have their assurance that they need the weapons for their own use, but we can't be absolutely certain that some might not find their way into other hands.

Senator ZORINSKY. I would like to make part of the record an article which appeared in the Los Angeles Times dated March 1, 1981, beginning:

On January 16th, as editor and publisher of the El Independiente in San Salvador, I was to wire an article that the Los Angeles Times had requested giving my views of the events in El Salvador.

First I had a telephone conversation with an editor at the Times. An hour later the military came looking for me at the nearby office of the Independent Associated Press, of which I am also director, and arrested the staff. My newspaper again established phone contact with Los Angeles to report that the article could not be transmitted because the building was being surrounded by troops.

home and threatened my wife and 3-year-old son with death. Later we gathered at a friend's home. Meanwhile, troops returned in force to my newspaper and smashed all the equipment.

Learning that the military wanted me "dead or alive," I took my family to the Mexican Embassy, where we were granted political asylum. Now I find myself an exile in Mexico.

It continues.

I would like to have this made a part of the record.

The CHAIRMAN. It will be so inserted without objection.

SPREADING BRUSHFIRE TO THE SOUTH

(By Flora Lewis)

The policies now being adopted by President Reagan on El Salvador were essentially already decided by the Carter Administration before last year's elections. And they were already being challenged by insiders on the grounds that they would boomerang against the U.S.

This emerges clearly from a "dissent paper" drawn by people from the National Security Council, the State and Defense Departments and the C.I.A., dated Nov. 6, 1980. The paper has been circulated inside the Government in the manner prescribed when a policy has been established, but serious doubts remain among an important group of knowledgeable officials about the wisdom and effectiveness of the decisions.

They make some serious charges, including one that an energetic but mainly covert U.S. intervention took place last year "to prevent the crisis in El Salvador from climaxing prior to the elections." Events have developed further since then, but the arguments and insights remain valid. Most important is the charge that vital intelligence contradicting the dominant view, which urges intervention, has been suppressed "within various bureaucracies," not just one.

Already last year, the paper said, the U.S. was training Salvadorans at its bases in Panama in the largest training program it has ever sponsored for any Latin American country in a single year. Argentina had become the second-largest trainer of Salvadoran officers. Chile and Uruguay, where the U.S. ran a highly controversial and nasty counterinsurgency program in the 1960's, were also providing advisers on intelligence, logistics and urban and rural counterinsurgency.

The President of Panama objected publicly to the scope of the program on his territory. Nobody paid attention. Other governments in the region have expressed sharp concern about U.S. action. However, the paper says, right-wing Guatamalan military officers have been talking about their own intervention in Salvador, while opposition guerrillas in both countries have increased cooperation and gained ground.

U.S. intelligence knows about a paramilitary strike force in Guatemala, the report goes on, made up of foreign members of Somoza's Nicaraguan National Guard, anti-Castro Cubans, Guatemalan military personnel and mercenaries.

Rather waspishly, the dissenting officials note that they haven't substantiated charges that the C.I.A. is promoting this force. But they say its movements and connections with Miami "could not be maintained without tacit consent—or practical incompetence—of several U.S. Government agencies including the C.I.A., F.B.I., and the Immigration and Customs Services."

Guatemala, it should be remembered, was one of those rather spectacular "wins" in what are now considered the golden days of U.S. strength and dominion. A pro-communist Government was ousted in 1954 by a C.I.A.-sponsored attack that cost a total of two lives.

But ever since, defeat has been nibbling away at the supposed victory because nothing was done to respond to social grievances. Twenty-seven years and a great many deaths later, Guatemala is again a fragile, dangerous country with mounting insurgency. Even when winning seemed easy, it wasn't enough to settle the underlying issue.

The report also cites intelligence that a hard-line majority in the Honduran military establishment, with which the U.S. Defense Department works closely, encourages Nicaraguan exiles to operate against their own country from Honduran territory and "believes if could win a military confrontation with Nicaragua." The event of war with Nicaragua.

The dry, unemotional paper goes on and on, showing how many pitfalls have been overlooked in the U.S. reaction to Salvador's awesomely bloody civil war, the links and implications for the region as a whole, and the grave danger that the policy Reagan is now pressing forward will produce the opposite of desired results.

Nothing is more likely to weaken the U.S. and draw in far more substantial Cuban and Soviet involvement than American military intervention, the report concludes. Instead, it recommends negotiations, if possible without the U.S., and a clear reversal of signals to right-wing extremists throughout the region.

Its recommendations foreshadowed last weekend's proposal by Latin American Socialist parties to mediate, and West Germany's offer to help.

The key point, argued with solid facts and cool analysis, is that U.S. involvement in Salvador's war will almost surely spread the fighting to other countries and bring more, not less, intervention from Communist regimes. Negotiation will be even harder now than last year, and it is much more necessary.

The Reagan Administration would do well to listen to the paper's authors before the chance of talks is lost, and then make sure Salvador's ruling junta knows that the U.S. seeks a political and not a military settlement.

A HALF-CENTURY OF UNKEPT PROMISES IN EL SALVADOR

(By Jorge Pinto)

On Jan. 16, as editor and publisher of El Independiente in San Salvador, I was to wire an article that the Los Angeles Times had requested, giving my views of the events in El Salvador. First, I had a telephone conversation with an editor at the Times. An hour later, the military came looking for me at the nearby office of the Independent Associated Press (API), of which I am also director, and arrested the staff. My newspaper again established phone contact with Los Angeles, to report that the article could not be transmitted because the building was being surrounded by troops. My wire operator speculated that "they don't like us to call the L.A. Times because Reagan reads that newspaper." Simultaneously, the military went to my home and threatened my wife and three-year-old son with death. Later we gathered at a friend's home. Meanwhile, troops returned in force to my newspaper and smashed all the equipment.

Learning that the military wanted me "dead or alive," I took my family to the Mexican Embassy, where we were granted political asylum. Now I find myself in exile in Mexico.

There was nothing else to do. My presses were smashed; El Independiente's voice could not be heard anymore. I left not because of lack of the Salvadoran people's support for idealistic journalism, but because, after the takeover of my office and machinery, after the capture of my employees and perhaps even the eventual disappearance of my family and myself, there would be absolute silence about the facts. The army would use our office as they wished, and make the classic charge that we are communists; the truth would be camouflaged by the government's propagandists; the outrage committed against us would have the weight of 50 years of lying to satiate an unquenchable thrist for power which maintains a regime that has wrapped our country in a whirlwind of violence.

As I write these lines, I am convinced that our Lord God cannot allow these atrocities to continue against his 5 million children in El Salvador, who are dying like chickens in a slaughterhouse. And so again I will resume the message that I set out to deliver on Jan. 16, and within the limits of this space, answer the question, "What is happening in El Salvador, and why?"

For 50 years, the military has acted as a political party. For 50 years they have promised free elections and reforms. Today through token civilian President Jose Napoleon Duarte, the military dictatorship once again promises elections and the participation of all sectors. Nobody can believe that after 50 years of lies.

My newspaper has been confiscated, in express violation of my country's constitution, because of our weapon: words. Words are also the weapon in an electoral campaign. How can the government orchestrate a dialogue when it is suffocating all ideas? To attack a newspaper is to attack the democratic present and future of a country. The military's takeover of El Independiente proves the lack of sincerity on the part of my country's government, in terms of allowing free circulation of all political ideologies at all times

Personally, I don't want a Stalin in my country, but neither do I want a Napoleon Duarte as a benevolent mask for the murdering military. The Salvadoran people today know of no other system than that of torture and brainwashing, like that attributed to Lavrenti Beria, who did the dirty work for Stalin.

The Salvadoran people are fighting an army that has always oppressed them, and their right to insurrection is backed by the Salvadoran Constitution. The people of the United States would have been up in arms long ago if they had experienced the horrors that the Salvadorans have suffered for 50 years.

I have been a journalist for more than 20 years, as were my father and grandfather. I have fought for the principles of Western democracy in my country. I have fought for a social justice that would bring peace and tranquility to my country. Now I am convinced that justice cannot exist while an army also exists to carry out a policy of extermination. (I wish to note that democracy has flourished in Costa Rica, where there is no army.)

Now the forces of reason and democracy increasingly are giving their political support to those who have taken up arms, regardless of what their label might be. The guerrilla forces include Christians and non-Christians, but all are courageous people who, one way or another, do not want a dictatorship based on assassination, fraud, lies and corruption. The political support behind those in arms is broad-based, comprising Social Democrats, Christian Democrats, priests, even honest military people, such as Col. Ernesto Claramont. He won the vote in 1977, and if it had not been for electoral fraud, he would be the legitimate president of El Salvador today. Taking into account all these types of people who are opposing the current regime, it is ridiculous to call them leftist. They represent the spirit of the whole country.

Dictatorship or participatory democracy—there is no other option for the Salvadoran people. If they are not supported, there will be a radicalization of the crisis and the social cost will be high.

If the army were the cause of so many frauds and assassinations in the great democracy of the United States, the chasm would be as wide as the one that led to the Civil War to liberate the slaves and restore the Union. How can the United States support the military in El Salvador, after having spent thousands of lives in the fight against military fascism in Europe? The medals my journalist grandfather won for supporting the Allies during World War II would be fit only for the garbage heap if I were to fight fascism abroad and remain speechless before the fascism our country has experienced for 50 years.

It must be understood that the governing army in El Salvador is neither the right nor the left, let alone the middle. It is a group of murderers and thieves corrupted by lust for power.

When the right-wing government of Gen. Carlos Humberto Romero was overthrown in October 1979, the new junta cited the murders and disappearances that had been carried out during his regime. The junta proclaimed that justice would be done for the families of those people. But justice never arrived. The criminals and torturers of Romero's regime remained in the army. A year and a half later, nothing has been done. The process that began in 1932 remains intact.

In that year, a military junta took power, and 3,000 "campesinos" launched an insurrection and were massacred. (It was said that they were led by the words of Karl Marx. That is not true; they were led by their empty stomachs.) The junta then handed power over to Gen. Maximiliano Hernandez Martinez, father of the present regime.

Never once in 50 years has there been even a brief interlude for democracy in my country. Is it any wonder that the people of El Salvador are convinced that they cannot find the path of their own destiny by way of elections?

Now the people see the instrument of their repression for 50 years armed by the U.S. government. Now the sum of 50 years of hoodwinking and murderous banditry gives credence to the words of those who contend that it is necessary to fight force with force. Now, out of the shadows of night, come the people who would end this dictatorship, and every day they grow in number and strength. Thousands and thousands of millions of dollars cannot silence the voice of people who, after 50 years, once again ask for justice.

ALLEGATIONS ABOUT U.S. POLICY IN CENTRAL AMERICA

Senator ZORINSKY. I would like to ask about a March 6 New York Times article by Flora Lewis. It is a report on a so-called dissent paper which made some serious allegations about U.S. policy in Central America.

Ms. Lewis subsequently retracted her statement that the dissent paper was official, but noted that many of the facts did check out.

Would you respond to the following charges from that article? One, vital intelligence contradicting the dominant view, which urges intervention in El Salvador, has been suppressed within several Federal agencies. Would any of you gentlemen like to comment on that?

Mr. BUSHNELL. Senator, I think that is absolutely untrue. All of the intelligence on this has been circulated in the usual ways, and I think there has been no case of suppressing any intelligence. This dissent paper, which I think is quite a professional job, is a fraud. It was not in the dissent channel of the State Department. It was made to appear that it was in the dissent channel of the State Department, but it was an unsigned document. It was very widely circulated all over the world. It was a very well-written document making various scurrilous charges.

SALVADORANS TRAINED AT U.S. BASES IN PANAMA

Senator ZORINSKY. How about the charge that under the Carter administration the United States was training Salvadorans at United States bases in Panama?

Mr. BUSHNELL. That is true, we were. We are training people for most Latin American countries at U.S. bases in Panama.

Senator ZORINSKY. Then why can't we train Salvadoran troops now in Panama, or elsewhere? If it was good then, why do our advisers have to perform their jobs in El Salvador now? I am talking about communications advisers and other instructors who physically do not have to be in a given area in order to perform their job?

Mr. BUSHNELL. We are doing it. We have continued the training program for technicians and so forth in the U.S. schools in the United States and in Panama.

Senator ZORINSKY. Do you mean all 54 advisers must, of necessity, conduct their training in El Salvador?

Mr. BUSHNELL. By the nature of the job to be done.

Senator ZORINSKY. That is not the answer I received the last time I had a briefing.

Mr. BUSHNELL. Well, we could go through it case by case.

Senator ZORINSKY. Mr. Bushnell, you answered it differently the last time I talked to you about this matter in another session. How about U.S. officials—excuse me. I see that my time has expired.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you, Senator Zorinsky.

Senator Dodd.

Senator DODD. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

VIOLENCE AGAINST CIVILIAN POPULATION

I would like to just pick up from about an hour ago, if you can recall, when I was chatting with you about the level of violence against the civilian population that was caused by the military or right-wing groups. Mr. Bushnell, you may recall that you agreed with me that it would be significant without attributing any significant numbers to it.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights

significant." I think that is another example of where significance comes in; but that subject area has been exhausted fairly well. I would like to move to something else.

In your statement, Secretary Stoessel, you go through most of your statement and pretty much address your remarks to the threat posed by leftist guerrillas. In your prepared text, there is this sentence. You said there are three alternatives in El Salvador today: Forces of the extreme right, forces of the extreme left, and the present Government. Of these, the Duarte government is the only one that promises to lead a transition to full constitutional order. Should it come to power, the extreme left probably would create a government modeled like Cuba's on the Soviet Union. There is no discussion here of what happens should the third option occur.

I would like to ask you whether or not you think under the present circumstances there is a greater or lesser likelihood, given their potential power, that the extreme right actually is a greater threat to the Duarte government than the extreme left. I am speaking presently——

Ambassador STOESSEL. I would say, Senator, that the danger is from both sides, as pointed out, left and right.

Senator DODD. Who has greater firepower and a stronger military position?

LEFT GROUP HAS MORE FIREPOWER

Ambassador STOESSEL. My understanding would be that the left group has the most firepower, the highest degree of organization, more sophisticated weapons, more sophisticated communications, and are generally more active throughout the country than is the case with the rightist forces. Did you wish to add to that?

Mr. BUSHNELL. I think that certainly is true. The rightists do not have forces in the same sense that there are guerrilla forces, meaning organized, armed units. What the right has is people who are, perhaps, mainly moonlighting from other occupations and engage in violence, in killing, not in attacks on towns and these sorts of activities.

So the threats are not comparable threats. The threat of the left is the threat to take over by a guerrilla insurgency sort of action. The threat of the right is to take over by subverting a sufficient number of the military leaders that they would carry out a coup.

Senator DODD. You are now anticipating my next question. Given that, what assurances have we received, if any, from the military in light of our current military assistance, either from General Garcia or others, that there will not be a coup? Have we insisted upon that? Have we been told anything at all? Are we in direct communication? What have been the reponses?

SENIOR MILITARY COMMANDERS SUPPORT DUARTE GOVERNMENT

Mr. BUSHNELL. We have been told by the senior military commanders, both individually and as a group, that they support the Duarte government and do not support a coup. We have been told the last 2 weeks.

Senator DODD. Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Yes. Senator Dodd.

Senator DODD. Mr. Chairman, I have no additional questions, but I wonder if we can reach some understanding as to from whom and when we will be hearing with regard to the request I made earlier about going to the source.

The CHAIRMAN. I believe the understanding is that Secretary Stoessel would advise Secretary Haig tonight of the request and hopefully he could respond to us tomorrow as much as possible in open session, and whatever cannot be in open session can be done in executive session, providing he agrees tomorrow that he is prepared at that time to go into executive session.

We can decide tomorrow when we have that answer whether we will go in at the beginning of the session or sometime during the course of the morning.

Senator DODD. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I have no further questions.

The CHAIRMAN. I just have a few questions left and then I will turn the chair over to Senator Biden to complete the hearings as I will have to leave.

Mr. Mullen, are we far enough along in this investigation to be able to narrow it down to one particular security group?

DUARTE WILL INDICT AND PROSECUTE GUILTY INDIVIDUALS WHEN IDENTIFIED

We certainly have on record the fact that President Duarte will indict and prosecute as soon as the guilty individuals are identified, but has it been determined that Government forces, security forces were involved? If so, can you tell us what security forces?

Mr. MULLEN. No, sir; we are not far enough along to make that determination.

The CHAIRMAN. Pardon me?

Mr. MULLEN. We are not far enough along to make that determination. The determination cannot be made at this time, sir. There is not adequate evidence to do so.

The CHAIRMAN. But didn't we know what security forces were around the bus at that particular time?

Mr. MULLEN. We do know which security forces did have a roadblock, but that doesn't mean that they were the perpetrators of the crime, that it occurred at that location.

The CHAIRMAN. Well, just as soon as you do narrow it down, I would appreciate your keeping us advised on that point.

Finally on the same subject, I think it was a Time magazine story that discussed this issue. It stated, and I quote, "that the Salvadoran Government is 'stonewalling' the situation." They said further that it is unlikely that the United State will apply any further pressure to find the killers.

As I said before, this is such a big symbol for so many people in this country and around the world of whether this Government cares about an atrocity of that kind. When you have a publication with such a wide circulation making those statements, I would like to give you another chance to respond and I would ask Secretary

Stoessel whether we are using all of our influence that we can; certainly I have used all the influence that I can on the Department to indicate how important it is that they follow through in good faith as rapidly as possible.

Mr. MULLEN. Senator, we have not found any stonewalling. If the case were different, I certainly would say so. Should that ever occur, I would so advise you.

Ambassador STOESSEL. Certainly we continue to impress on the Salvadoran Government the importance of a speedy resolution of this case. They are aware of the interest of the American public and wish to settle this as quickly as we do. We have encouraged them in this.

The CHAIRMAN. General Graves, we have discussed the concern about what our advisers are doing and how close they get to combat situations. A statement has been made that they are being kept in the most secure areas right now.

I ask unanimous consent to incorporate in the record an article from this morning's Washington Post entitled "U.S. Presence Grows in El Salvador," which discusses in detail the Green Berets who are being sent down there, now scheduled at the U.S. Army School of the Americas at Ft. Gulick in Panama, to train 1,000 or more men who can use helicopters to move quickly and effectively against concentrations of guerrillas in a new rapid reaction unit.

U.S. PRESENCE GROWS IN EL SALVADOR—ADVISERS, TALK OF BODY COUNTS CONJURE UP VIETNAM GHOSTS

(By Christopher Dickey)

SAN SALVADOR, March 17.—No single element in the Salvadoran war more surely conjures up the ghosts of Vietnam than the small but growing presence of U.S. military advisers here.

According to the U.S. Embassy there are currently 42 advisers and support personnel. Soon there will be 56, including a contingent of 15 from the Special Forces to instruct Salvadoran infantry units.

These figures do not include more than a dozen Marine guards at the U.S. Embassy or the military attaché and his office.

The advisers themselves find fears of another Vietnam difficult to understand. Some believe that the analogy is only being raised as a leftist tactic to weaken American resolve.

"There is simply no comparison between Vietnam and here," said an American veteran of Southeast Asia teaching helicopter maintenance. He said the Salvadoran troops have a level of resolve and ingenuity he never saw among the Vietnamese.

In the field, however, there are parallels that are obvious and are admitted by U.S. officials. The guerrillas are elusive and the Salvadoran armed forces are ill-trained and ill-equipped to fight them. Although the left does not have the popular support to mount a massive insurrection, it has at least enough popular tolerance to continue its war for some time.

At the moment, the Salvadoran troops are trying to establish control of all villages and towns in the country. Essentially these are becoming what used to be called in Vietnam strategic hamlets.

The body counting that became so notorious in Vietnam has already begun here. The Salvadoran Army claims that it has lost only about 150 men while killing 2,200 guerrillas since Jan. 10. Yet in only one village, Aguacayo, north of the capital, soldiers said that five of their 120-man company had been killed in the last 12 days. They said they had also killed "many" guerrillas, but of several soldiers questioned not one had actually seen a guerrilla body.

Asked about all this, one U.S. soldier here said there are basically very few ways to fight a guerrilla war. "We're going to do it better," he said of the effort that would be made here.

Informed Western sources are saying that it may not be possible to defeat the guerrillas militarily. The United States is encouraging the Salvadoran government to continue with reforms and planned elections so the government will "eventually be able to win without destroying the enemy," according to one authoritative source.

But the agrarian reform is constantly undercut by guerrilla attacks and harassment, and it is hard to envision significant elections if the guerrillas can maintain their current level of activity in the countryside where 60 percent of the Salvadoran population lives.

As one Western source who has studied the fighting closely put it, "This is going to be a long war."

The risk that one or more American advisers will die here grows every day. They take security precautions but remain obvious targets for political assassins. They vary the route from their quarters to their assignments every day, and when not on duty they carry pistols and dress in civilian clothes.

But some have already had their pictures published, and as they continue their six-month tours here their habits and whereabouts inevitably will become known.

Aside from the threat of assassination, there is a considerable possibility that some advisers will encounter combat despite their orders and intention to avoid it.

Already one member of the U.S. Embassy's Military Group has been under fire. He was visiting the Salvadoran military airfield just outside the capital when it was attacked Jan. 10 at the beginning of the guerrillas' offensive. He remained there through more than an hour of fighting.

There is also a risk of serious accidents in this volatile environment. One adviser was walking out of a San Salvador restaurant earlier this month when his friend dropped a loaded pistol, which went off and shot him through the foot. The injury was not serious, and the man is expected to return to duty this week, according to a U.S. Embassy spokesman.

The advisers try to minimize their significance.

"When you bring in a piece of equipment like a Huey [the American UH1H helicopters now being supplied to the Salvadoran government] you have to bring in the technical assistance. It's just like a nut or a bolt, we're like wrenches . . . if something happens to us it's an industrial accident."

It is slowly dawning on the advisers, however, just how closely and with what concern the people of the United States are watching them, because they hear it reflected in their telephone conversations with their families.

"My wife is pretty concerned," said one veteran mechanic, a Hispanic-American with a round, sunburned face. "For some reason she's taken this tour pretty seriously, even more than Vietnam.

"My son is 10 years old," he continued. "He's getting very interested in the news, and he's asking lots of questions of my wife that she can't answer because I can't tell her what it's like over the telephone."

"It tells you something," said another adviser, "when your 5-year-old son asks 'Is Daddy going to get dead?'"

So what are these young Americans risking their lives to do here?

Five of them are in the Military Group of the embassy. Here for more than a year, this group basically acts as liaison with the Salvadoran Army and coordinates the U.S. presence as well as gathering military intelligence. The chief of the group, a colonel, is the highest ranking U.S. officer here and commands the rest of the advisers.

Another group of seven advisers deals with overall administration, logistics and command problems, all of which have proved to be serious difficulties for the Salvadoran Army.

One informed source said that attempts earlier in the year to sweep guerrillas out of the northern sections of the country were not successful, because the Army attempted to do too much in too large an area with too little command and control.

A group of eight advisers, with two more on the way, is involved with planning specific operations. Some of them were originally brought here for a few months last fall to work out a plan for protecting agricultural production known as Operation Golden Harvest. Now they are dealing with more offensive operations.

There are 19 advisers currently instructing the Salvadorans in the use and maintenance of the six new helicopters and the Salvadoran Navy's handful of patrol boats in the Gulf of Fonseca.

The advisers in closest contact with fighting troops will be the members of three five-man "small unit training teams." Three members of these teams are already here. The remaining 12 are expected within a week.

These are Special Forces personnel, popularly known as Green Berets, scheduled to come here from the U.S. Army S[illegible] of the Americas at Ft. Gulick i[illegible]rama, [illegible] be [illegible] a new [illegible] south of the capital. [illegible] the U.S. helicopters [illegible] [illegible] radius.

There's a lot of work to be done. The Salvadoran armed forces were never trained to fight a large scale modern war. They are unfamiliar with the sophisticated equipment.

In one recent action a Bell helicopter dropped out of a helicopter grabbed the control stick. When the pilot tried to compensate, the helicopter blade angled down and decapitated two soldiers already on the ground.

In areas of heavy fighting such as Suchitoto, patrols with as many as 30 soldiers often go out loaded on a flatbed truck that is easy prey for guerrilla mines, rockets and machine guns.

Rather than wiping out the guerrillas, the most they expect to accomplish for at the moment is to make them use up precious ammunition and hope that the U.S. training, equipment and diplomatic pressure can keep the guerrillas from getting more.

TEACH AND TRAIN

The CHAIRMAN. Does that fit within the definition put forth in a letter to me from Deputy Defense Secretary Carlucci that the purpose of the U.S. advisers is to "teach and train"?

General GRAVES. I want to convey, Mr. Chairman, that that is precisely the case. We are sending three five-man, small unit training teams. It is true that most of the members of these teams were selected from Special Forces units because of their qualifications. The purpose is to train this reaction force about which Ambassador Bushnell spoke earlier.

That training will be done in secure areas, and there is no intent that the members of the small unit training teams—in fact, they are forbidden to accompany the reaction force on any operation.

The CHAIRMAN. Are all the personnel selected ordered to go down, or is there some consultation with them as to whether they would volunteer for such duty?

General GRAVES. I think in the case of the people from the Special Forces units, most have been volunteers. I know that at the beginning, when we were first organizing units, we did make a selection of what we thought were the best people, but it is my understanding as it has progressed that we are looking for volunteers.

The CHAIRMAN. I think that is advisable. I would think you would have plenty of volunteers. I would think that would also remove some element of concern.

EXTENT OF SOVIET INVOLVEMENT

Secretary Stoessel, in your testimony there is no direct mention of the Soviet Union. In a letter to me of March 13, Deputy Secretary of Defense Carlucci stated, "The involvement of the Soviet Union and other countries is a matter of the gravest concern."

That is from the Department of Defense. Does the Department of State also share that concern that the Soviet Union is involved directly or indirectly, and if so, could you state to what extent they are involved?

As you know, what we present in the budget is not completely firm. There will be a lot of discussions to work out precisely what those funds will go for between now and a year and a half from now. We certainly would involve him in those discussions.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you very much.

Senator Biden, if you wait long enough, the minority becomes the majority.

Senator BIDEN. That is right, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. I pass the gavel to you. Do you have any idea how many more questions you have?

Senator BIDEN. Not more than 3 or 4 hours. [Laughter.]

Of course I am kidding, but you notice the witnesses blanched when you said you were leaving. I don't expect to be another 10 or 15 minutes.

The CHAIRMAN. That will be fine. Then I take it we will adjourn by 6:30. I thank you very much, and I pass the gavel to you.

Thank you very much indeed, gentlemen. We are most grateful for your appearance here today. You have been very patient. This has been a very productive and helpful session.

Senator BIDEN [presiding]. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

DOES PRESIDENT DUARTE HAVE POPULAR SUPPORT?

Gentlemen, let me go back to a bit of discussion about Duarte and really how much power he has and how much popular support he has to get to my first concern, which is, is there a government to back that is likely to have the broad consensus?

Let me ask you this question, and I guess I ask this of you, Mr. Secretary, but anyone whom you designate may answer. How much popular support would you say the Duarte government has, not relative to left and right but just in absolute terms? How much popular support would you say the Duarte government has now?

Ambassador STOESSEL. Why don't you take that, John?

Mr. BUSHNELL. We have very little to go by. Let me say that in the 1972 elections almost everybody believes that the ticket headed by Duarte won the greatest number of votes. The military then threw over that election.

Senator BIDEN. But the fellow with him, whose name slips my mind now.

Mr. BUSHNELL. Ungo was the vice presidential candidate.

Senator BIDEN. Yes; Ungo was the vice president.

Mr. BUSHNELL. However, the Christian Democratic Party, which is a nationwide party in El Salvador, has branches of the party in the small towns, villages, and so forth, it was weakened after the 1972 elections. Duarte went into exile. He spent 8 years in Venezuela. He obviously lost support duing that time when he was not able to be fully active.

The party is now trying as a political party, to restore its own support at the grassroots level. I think I would say that probably the overwhelming majority of people in El Salvador at this moment do not support anybody. They do not support the left or the right or the government. They really just wish that this whole situation would go away.

Now, certainly the scheme of the government is to bring about a more peaceful situation to bring about these reforms and to increase its support. We are already seeing this happen in areas where the agrarian reform is going forward. This is the area where there is strong popular support for Duarte.

But I will say that when he goes out, as he does—he and other members of the junta do go out almost every week to the smaller towns, without a great deal of security they meet with the people, they talk with them, they ask them their problems. It is a fairly standard sort of political activity. The crowds are friendly and supportive of him. The security risk obviously has not become too dangerous in doing this.

So this shows, I suppose, that some of the people who come to these rallies may not support him but they are certainly not actively against him.

Senator BIDEN. I appreciate your candid answer. At every briefing I have gotten from within the administration straight through to outsiders from the think tanks in this town, left and right, they have said what you said, that there is no group, left, right or Duarte, that has at this point the popular support.

DUARTE'S ABILITY LIMITED BY THE MILITARY

Now, the second question I have with regard to Duarte is this, and I will indicate first what I have been told and I would appreciate your comments on it, correcting it, if you must, altering it, giving it a different view if you have a different view.

I understand that Duarte's ability and flexibility is severely limited by the military, who in fact are fairly split among themselves as to the propriety of even being involved in a government that includes Duarte and any civilians, and that as a consequence of that, Duarte has a lack of flexibility in terms of implementing programs, land reform or otherwise, because of the split in the military. To overstate it slightly, they are his keeper, and without the military support, Duarte does not stand; he has nothing.

What about that?

Mr. BUSHNELL. Well, without the military support he doesn't have any guns because his popular support in the Christian Democrats, after all, are not guerrillas, they are just civilians.

Senator BIDEN. But we have established there is not much popular support for him, and now I want to find out and establish whether or not there is much support within the military for Duarte and how that breaks down in order to try to figure out whether or not this horse can cross the finish line.

Mr. BUSHNELL. Well, I think the key factor on this is that the military and Duarte have been together for a tough year. I think during that time we have seen a growing process which I think is very interesting, of the relationship with the military. About a year ago when this process began there were a number of killings of Christian Democratic mayors around the countryside. This grew to such an extent that the Christian Democratic Party came to a point where it was concerned whether it could even stay in the government if its mayors were being killed, it thought in cases, by the security force.

This was raised in the most strong terms, as you can imagine, with the military. A campaign was set up where the mayors began to work much closer with the local military commanders. The

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

killings of Christian Democrats ended. We have seen from the conversations people in the Embassy have with the mayors from all around the country that this now tends to be a much more cooperative relationship, the mayors working with the military, the military getting into more of what we would call civic action sort of activities, the level of violence being reduced.

SUPPORT AT GRASS ROOTS LEVEL GROWS STRONGER

The nature of the support at that grassroots level between the military and the government represented by the mayors—and I might comment that some of these mayors are Social Democrats and Independents—has grown, I think, considerably stronger.

There have been a number of crises this year in which the nature of the junta, the continuation of the Christian Democrats has been at question. In each case the military has made concessions. It has been willing to pay a price for keeping Duarte in the government. I think that is a very positive sign.

Clearly, however, as in most governments in developing countries, the military has the preponderance of power and there has to be a negotiation in things that are dominantly military. These fall more to the military than to Duarte.

JUNTA EXISTS AT THE PLEASURE OF THE MILITARY

Senator BIDEN. It is obvious to you and to anyone who is listening to this line of questioning where it is leading. Everything you have said has been consistent with everything anyone has said to me about El Salvador, and that is really that the junta exists at the pleasure of the military and that the military has been more accommodating for a number of reasons, some more ethereal and asthetic than others, others just practical necessity.

But the fact remains that that is where the power is right now among those who we are supporting, which would lead me to the conclusion that really the place where we can accomplish the most is with the military, we the United States, by our friendly persuasion, our diplomatic intervention and our indications of what our preferences are.

I compliment President Reagan and the Secretary for stating immediately after the assertion from the major in the military that this country would look favorably on a coup from the right, which is synonymous with the military, elements within the military, that this Government immediately spoke out and said no, you are reading the wrong signals, that is not what we think.

Isn't that correct? Isn't that what we said?

Mr. BUSHNELL. That is correct. This was actually a retired major who was no longer in the military, but he did represent that trend of thinking.

Senator BIDEN. Is it D'Aubuisson? Is that the fellow we are talking about?

Mr. BUSHNELL. That is right.

Senator BIDEN. That pretty well, at least temporarily, brought an end to that. Again, I am just trying to figure out the players here and the scorecard. We pretty well established that our key to success is to achieve our objective and our objective is to keep El Salvador, to steal a phrase, for the El Salvadorans and not to have El Salvador dominated by the Soviet Union, by Cuba or by a distinctly minority Communist faction within that country and to not have a country of El Salvador with a distinctly anti-American cast which would be in such a position that they could act against our self-interest as Cuba does, in my opinion and, I suspect, of the opinion of all of you gentlemen.

That is our objective. I think it is a laudable one. Now, I, like Senator Glenn, was not all that much concerned when you are talking about stopping weapons moving in, not all that much more concerned when you talked about sending weapons down; but the character, it seems, is beginning to change, at least it seems to some of us.

MILITARY MUST BE COOPERATIVE

Now, having said all of that, if we are looking at a need for a stable government to achieve our objectives, it is given that we must have a cooperative military in El Salavador; right?

Mr. BUSHNELL. Yes, I think we do have a cooperative military.

Senator BIDEN. Well, let me put it this way. We must maintain a cooperative military, correct?

General GRAVES. [Nods affirmatively.]

Mr. BUSHNELL. I think I would just differ on the "we must maintain." Much of what goes on with El Salvador will respond to their dynamics. It is important that the military be cooperative.

Senator BIDEN. Fine. But if the military is not cooperative, our objective and the reason for our involvement would no longer be within the control or even able to be influenced by our actions. I am not trying to trap you and I don't want to get into a semantic argument. I want to establish for me who I as a U.S. Senator am going to be voting dollars and cents to support and what policy I am, at least by my acquiescence, going to be underscoring.

So again, we are talking about this. Although I know as diplomats you must say the El Salvadorans must make that judgment, but we in the United States would, I hope, or at least I would assume, begin to make different judgments about the degree to which we would be involved and the ability of our involvement to effect the end we are attempting to accomplish, which I stated earlier, if in fact the military was not a cooperative element in that whole scheme of things. Right?

MILITARY PEOPLE SHOULD NOT BE CANDIDATES FOR ELECTION

Mr. BUSHNELL. In cooperation toward what end? I think it is very significant in this regard that the military have put themselves squarely on record on being in favor of elections. That is the way they think the political future of the country ought to be decided. In fact, they have even said that in order to make sure that the elections are honest, not ones which the military has rigged, which is an accusation which has been made in the past, that they were prepared to say that no military people should participate in the election as candidates and the military people should not even vote.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

Senator BIDEN. Well, I would not disagree with that, but let me be a little more Macchiavellian about it. I might sound a little bit like Mrs. Kirkpatrick or Governor Reagan. I don't care much about free elections in El Salvador if they don't bring about stability. I am looking for stability.

I have been lectured by the right for the last 4 years in this political environment in this country about how we come down too hard on right-wing governments who may be our friends. Well, I am looking for a friend. I am looking for a friend who is strong enough to stand up and carry his own water, and by carrying that water that he can protect U.S. interests in an indirect way.

So again the assumption here is that underlying our whole policy, it seems, is (a) and reform will bring about popular support, and (b) free elections will culminate in a popularly supported government that no longer will require much outside propping up as long as there is not outside interference from the other team.

ELECTION MUST BRING ABOUT STABILITY

There are two propositions. I want to be sure I have them firmly established in my mind. You know, I don't care much about the election if it doesn't bring about stability. Is it the State Department's assumption—well, presumption is a better word—that the way to bring about stability in El Salvador would be (a) first to keep out outside intervention, which means hardware, (b) to implement and carry off a land reform program, and (c) to have free elections.

Mr. BUSHNELL. That is right. The reform program in general; not just the land reform but the other reforms as well, and to have this process of elections that has been laid out.

Senator BIDEN. If those things happen, we are assuming that El Salvador will be able to right itself in the sense that it will be stable, that it will be a stable government, right?

Ambassador STOESSEL. [Nods affirmatively.]

WHO ARE WE BACKING AND WHY

Senator BIDEN. OK. If that is not the case, then we get back to the question of who are we backing and why? That is the reason I am pursuing this line of questoning.

There is another point I would like to raise. The security forces as opposed to the left-wing guerrilla forces—and I might note parenthetically the left wing are not all Communist, isn't that correct? I mean Ungo is part of that left wing, isn't he?

Mr. BUSHNELL. Well, there are those who are engaged in guerrilla activities. These are hard core Marxist groups.

Senator BIDEN. Right.

Mr. BUSHNELL. There are others, not an awful lot, but others who have associated in what we might call a political front organization, the FDR, which includes the Social Democrats, which is a small party, some labor unions and some others which are not Marxist.

Senator BIDEN. Are there any non-Communists engaged in guerrilla activity that we have identified?

GUERRILLA LEADERSHIP CLEARLY MARXIST

Mr. BUSHNELL. The leadership of all of the groups engaged in guerrilla activity clearly is Marxist. Now, there may be some people who are in these as privates, but it would be hard to say.

Senator BIDEN. Fine. Are the security forces, because of their historical role as cited by one of you witnesses earlier, more easily identifiable and able to locate than the guerrilla forces? In other words, do they still march around the compounds outside what few places are left that are estates? Do we know where they are? Are they hiding up in the hills, too?

Mr. BUSHNELL. Do you mean by the security force generally the army, the police, or the national guard, or do you mean the groups that used to make up ORDEN, their regulars?

Senator BIDEN. The far right is what I am talking about. Now, the far right, I assume, are the old security forces that you explained some are left over that are still directed from some outside the country, some inside. I assume the right, the far right. We talk about extreme right and extreme left. I am trying to get my definitions down here.

But also on the far right besides some of the old security force folks, there are present military people; right?

Mr. BUSHNELL. People from the present military forces.

Senator BIDEN. People from the present security forces, to whom we also refer as the military right, or is that wrong.

DISTINGUISH ARMY FROM OTHER SECURITY FORCES

Mr. BUSHNELL. Well, we try to distinguish the army from the other security forces such as the police and the national guard.

Senator BIDEN. OK, let's take the army. There are some far right elements within the army, although they are not prevailing now. The more moderate elements are prevailing. But there are some far right elements within the army who are active army now, aren't there?

Mr. BUSHNELL. Probably not very many. There may be some. I certainly wouldn't rule out that there are some. But remember that of the top command, there are 700 or 800 officers in the Salvadoran forces——

Senator BIDEN. What do you mean by forces: the army?

Mr. BUSHNELL. The army, the police, and the national guard. The whole business. There is one officer corps for that of 700 or 800 members. Eighty were separated from the forces at the time of the October 15, 1979 coup, including all of the generals and most of the colonels.

Senator BIDEN. Were those folks on the far right?

Mr. BUSHNELL. The general belief is that they were participating in the continued monopolization of control of the country by the traditional economic groups that did that.

Senator BIDEN. But they are the folks that we have been calling the far right, aren't they?

Mr. BUSHNELL. Most of them, probably, but I am not saying every individual one.

Senator BIDEN. I don't mean [redacted]ybody.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

Mr. BUSHNELL. In general those people who were associated with the previous government, which was considered on the right, they are now out.

Senator BIDEN. Most of them are purged—excuse me—gone.

Mr. BUSHNELL. That 80 is out of the forces. Some have left the country, some are still there.

Senator BIDEN. So how about the national guard? Are their far right elements in the national guard? I am just trying to identify who the far right is.

Mr. BUSHNELL. Well, as I said to Senator Helms earlier, the concept of right becomes a fuzzy concept. That assumes a lot of things.

Senator BIDEN. Especially when you are talking to Senator Helms. [Laughter.]

Mr. BUSHNELL. Maybe when I am talking with you, too. [Laughter.]

But there are these groups. There is the violence that comes about from the post of the police or the national guard which has been in a village, maybe the same people there for a number of years, which has built up various animosities and so forth. They are the same people under this government as they were under the government 5 or 10 years ago.

Now, violence originates from them. Whether you really call them right in the same way you would call right a hired assassin paid by an ex-landlord, it is a little different sort of phenomenon. But we bulk all of that together in this phenomenon that we call the right.

DISTINCTION BETWEEN TERRORIST AND GUERRILLA

Senator BIDEN. Just as on the left we lump together terrorist groups, guerrilla groups. Notice we use those terms interchangeably, and I wanted to get into that with the general as to whether there was a distinction between a terrorist and a guerrilla, and we bulk the Communist hard core and we also lump some of the Christian Democrats and Social Democrats, that is, some of them who end up on the left.

Again, I am not trying to trap anybody here. I just want to make sure I know the players that we are talking about.

Gentlemen, I am really taking you beyond your time but please let me pursue this point a little longer. There is an obvious concern of the overthrow of the existing junta headed by Duarte from the left as a consequence of outside intervention, training, materiel, et cetera, and we are concerned that if the continued flow of arms moved into the left, the left could potentially overthrow Duarte. I believe the phrase in the statement was establish a Marxist state not unlike Cuba, or something to that effect.

TO WHAT DEGREE IS THREAT REAL?

Now, let me talk for a moment about what concerns we would have if we allowed the situation to deteriorate to the point that we had an unbridled right, whatever that right is. Isn't there also a concern that there are elements within El Salvador and outside of El Salvador that would like to see the old oligarchy reestablished, the land reforms that have taken place turned around, and the land reforms that are planned not occur, and free elections be a thing—well, they weren't ever a thing of the past, but for free elections not to occur?

Now, obviously that is a concern to us also. To what degree is that threat real, or is it just a group of a dozen or so folks or a handful who really, absent our intervention to help Duarte, he could thwart, he could hold off? Or if we were not in there at all, would Duarte being susceptible to being overthrown from the right also?

Mr. BUSHNELL. Let me say two things on that. First of all, I think perhaps the most significant thing that happened in El Salvador in history was the coup of October 15, 1979, when the more junior officers of the military took over and turned to the civilians. Why did they do this?

STRONGER MILITARY DEFEATED

I believe anyway that one of the decisive factors was they saw what had happened in Nicaragua. They saw that what they considered to be a stronger military was defeated. People ended up in jail or exiled or dead, and they saw that was the route that they were on in El Salvador, and it wasn't a route that the captains and majors and lieutenants liked.

They said: What are we going to do about it? Obviously, being associated with the right is the route to disaster for us. What we need to do is have a program that gets closer to the people, improves the socioeconomic structure. So they threw out their own leadership, 80 of their own leadership. They invited civilians into the government and they supported and backed and pushed for this program of reform. That they have done essentially as an officer corps. There has been a great deal of communication among them. They have done it clearly in their own self-interest.

Now, I don't see anything that would suggest that self-interest has changed.

Senator BIDEN. I am not suggesting that.

Mr. BUSHNELL. So, as long as that officer corps maintains its cohesion and stays on the track that it established on October 1, 1979, then I don't think that the threat from the right is a very large threat because they would have to make significant inroads in that officer corps.

Now, the danger is that there is a problem that can arise because clearly there are people in the society who would like to go back to the status quo ante and to work for that in any number of ways, including violent ways.

RIGHT MOVEMENT NOT COMING FROM PEASANTS

Senator BIDEN. Some of those, not all, but some of these are the most powerful economic interests in that country. I mean that right movement is not coming from the peasants as much as it is, to the degree to which it exists, from the powerful economic interests within the country. Is that correct?

Mr. BUSHNELL. From those that were economically powerful.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

Senator BIDEN. Well, they are not all dead. They may be gone in terms of their financial interests because they no longer control them, but they are not all dead. Those 80 colonels and generals have not been shot. They are all still roaming around somewhere in Latin America, the United States or El Salvador. Those businessmen and women who own the hotels and own the various business establishments and who handle the exports, et cetera are not dead. Well, of course, some of them are, but they are still around, most of them.

So three is a stated desire. All you have to do is turn on the television and you will see one of them talking from somewhere with some reporter talking to them saying we hope that we will be able to overthrow the Duarte government, it shouldn't be supported, et cetera.

So they are out there somewhere. Your assessment is, however, that is not a very serious threat?

THREAT DEPENDS ON COHESION OF MILITARY OFFICER CORPS

Mr. BUSHNELL. I am saying that threat is there, but the seriousness of that threat depends very much on the cohesion of the military officer corps. As long as that corps is together and backing the reforms, there is little concern but they can create a lot of problems, they can kill people, they can do things, but I don't see that it is a very major threat.

If the progress of the situation is such that the officer corps begins to come apart, when I think that opens up all sorts of opportunities for this group from the right, and that is another reason why our support, both our materiel support and our training, is so important. The more professional the military becomes, the more confident in their own abilities, the more they are able to control modern arms, the more they will have solidity within themselves and the less they will be susceptible to this threat from the right.

Senator BIDEN. And the less they will have to face that unholy option of choosing the left or the right, because what is going to happen if that doesn't happen, I assume, is if they don't reach that point, they are going to be losing ground to the left if they were not able to maintain that military edge, and that would mean that logic would dictate they would turn to any alliance they can and they would move them to the right. They don't want to fight both sides.

MILITARY AND ECONOMIC AID FROM U.S. NEEDED

That leads me to my final point, which is this. It seems to me that we are in a very influential position with regard to those folks in the military who right now want to have this more moderate course for their country to follow because—and I agree with you—because they saw what happened in Nicaragua, were worried about what was happening with them, and in order to maintain the momentum that they began in October or November of 1979, whenever it was, that they know they need the military and economic aid the United States is going to bring forward.

So I would hope since we know they know that, and I would hope since we know there is a need for a moderate military and civilian component, that we would make it crystal clear as we go along and not be very bashful about it, at least privately, what our view of the situation is, what we would like to see them do.

Notwithstanding our reluctance to interfere in the sovereign affairs of other nations, I would hope we would be a little Macchiavellian about what we do. They need us? Well, we need them. But it seems to me they need us a little more than we need them in terms of whether or not we are going to have that component, a moderate military and a modern civilian regime that is going to bring about eventually free elections.

That is the only point that I was trying to make. I am not sure that it was worth all the time. Do you disagree with that?

OPPOSED TO A MOVE FROM THE RIGHT

Mr. BUSHNELL. No; I think it is very clear. It was only last week that the Secretary of State walked out, I think, of a meeting here in this building and made it very clear in front of all the cameras how strongly we were opposed to a move from the right. I think that word spread very quickly in the military establishment of El Salvador.

Senator BIDEN. Right, and it had its effect. I could not agree with you more.

I have three questions that do not need long explanations. They are not very long questions. We have military personnel in place, training El Salvadoran military people, because it is the most economical way, in every sense of that word, in which to put them in a position to be able to maintain their military establishment and their objectives.

How long will it take for us to train a sufficient number of them so that they from that point on can do the training?

TRAINING COULD BE DONE IN MONTHS—AT MOST 1 YEAR

General GRAVES. The programs that we have launched now, most of them, these MTT's, have gone in there with the idea that the jobs could be done in months or at most 1 year. We would expect that after this period, when they have raised this new reaction force and got it going, that they would revert to what they were doing before, which is, they were sending a substantial number of their officers and NCO's out of the country to our schools.

Senator BIDEN. Here or in Panama or wherever.

General GRAVES. But, right now while they are trying simultaneously to increase their forces and operate against the insurgents also, that is just not practical.

Senator BIDEN. That answer makes me feel much better, General, because obviously, then, the reasons, or our objective, at least, barring other contingencies that could occur, is to have the U.S. military personnel there, as long as it takes to put them on their feet, not as long as it takes to establish a regime in El Salvador that is stable. They are two different things.

General GRAVES. I would agree with that point, although I think you will see not training so [illegible]h as we are doing now, but [illegible] will see technica support continuing. There are U.S. systems there so you will see some kind of maintenance support, but you won't see the kind of training that we have now, at least not to the same extent.

Senator BIDEN. All right. At a future hearing, or if not at a hearing, then by sending up a communication to this committee—and since I am once again in the majority, I remember what the old days used to be like. [Laughter.]

HOW MANY PEOPLE NEEDED TO MAINTAIN SYSTEMS AS OPPOSED TO TRAINING

All kidding aside, I will ask the chairman tomorrow whether he would go along with this request. I would request that the military, the Pentagon thinks would be roughly the number of people that we would need to keep in place indefinitely to maintain systems as opposed to training. I would guess you probably have thought about that a little bit. I don't mean whether it is 31 or 19, but if it is going to be 10, 20, 30 people, give me the broad numbers.

Also, how many pounds of military equipment have we shipped since January, if that is not a classified number, and if it is—well, first, is it classified?

General GRAVES. No; it is not classified, but I don't know what the answer is.

Senator BIDEN. Would you be able to provide that for the committee?

General GRAVES. Yes, sir.

[The information referred to follows:]

We have shipped 343.2 short tons of military items to El Salvador since January 1981, of which 265.3 short tons were arms and ammunition; 24 short tons were helicopters and spares, and 53.9 short tons were nonlethal items, mainly individual equipment.

Senator BIDEN. Tomorrow I will save my other three questions which I raised and we didn't discuss for my favorite person to question, Secretary Haig. He is probably so tired of having me question him after his 5 days up here that he doesn't know what to do, but I will pursue those.

I am just going through my list of scribblings to see if there are a few other relatively short questions that I should ask you today.

There are so many things, I guess I had better not.

Let me make one last point, Mr. Secretary. I know of no one who is a more seasoned or accomplished diplomat than you, and I mean that sincerely. I would sincerely hope that you would take the message back to the State Department that not only me but, I truly believe, a representative at least minority on both sides of the aisle think that we should be less reticent to suggest a negotiating forum than we have been thus far, assuming that we have a preference.

REASON WE DON'T ENCOURAGE THE OAS

Maybe the reason why we don't suggest or encourage the OAS or any other of the various outside interests who have expressed a desire to mediate, maybe the reason we don't do that is because we don't think any of them will work and we don't want to be involved in it because they are doomed to failure.

That is one thing, but if we really do have a preference, I would hope we would not be reluctant to make that known to Mr. Duarte and the military, and if they refuse to do it, I suggest that we have a fairly tough Secretary of State and a fairly tough President who I am sure could communicate the point fairly rapidly.

AMERICAN PRESTIGE ON THE LINE

In closing I just want to reiterate that I share the concern of Senator Glenn, and that is that I am so concerned that with the presence, regardless of the fact that it is only 54 people, that we have put American prestige on the line in a way that is fundamentally different than we did before.

I realize the Carter administration talked about this. It is not a judgment that one administration is any worse than any other, but I think it is a very serious mistake unless we are awfully damn sure that the result we seek is going to occur, because the fallout, not internationally but just nationally in terms of our self-image when we were just trying to climb out of the Vietnam syndrome that we have been a victim of, in my opinion, for the past 10 years, if we in fact cannot work our will in a little country like El Salvador in the Western Hemisphere, far away from the Soviet Union, I think we are going to do irreparable damage in this country about how we in this country view ourselves and our capabilities and what we are going to be willing to do when the really important showdown comes.

As one of our mutual friends from Germany said, if you want to get tough, there is a place called Poland. You know, there are plenty of places around where we could get tough if we really want to be tough tough. Now, I am not suggesting that. I think that you are wise to follow the course you have now.

In any case, that is the end of my little comments. Thank you very much for your indulgence, gentlemen, and I look forward to seeing the Secretary tomorrow.

This hearing is adjourned.

[Whereupon, at 5:50 p.m., the hearing was adjourned, subject to call of the Chair.]

THE WASHINGTON POST Tuesday, March 24, 1981

A Vermont Town Plays the Tune, But Reagan Isn't Listening

The citizens of Weston, Vt., population 650, tried to show their leaders the way by voting a cutoff of military aid to El Salvador at their March 1 town meeting.

Local Republicans were mortified at this new repudiation of President Reagan's foreign policy. Last year Weston voted unanimously for the nuclear freeze.

El Salvador's ambassador, Ernesto Rivas-Gallont, pleaded for and was granted an emergency hearing in a special town meeting last Friday night.

He was heeded most courteously and given a standing ovation, but the vote stood.

It is perhaps too much to hope that Congress will act so bravely in dealing with Reagan's request for $110 million for military aid, although it knows that there is no popular support for more of the same in El Salvador.

Reagan's rhetoric has grown increasingly apocalyptic and intimidating as the government situation deteriorates.

Our national security is at stake, Reagan said.

Mary McGrory

MORE

The Rev. Jerry Falwell, leader of the Moral Majority, is of like mind. He told his flock in Lynchburg that "If we do not fight them in El Salvador, we will have to fight them in Texas."

If Reagan is truly alarmed by the threat posed by those ragged forces fighting in the hills, he should be asking 10 times more in money and arms for the tottering regime. He should be mobilizing the 82nd Airborne. He should revive the draft.

Instead, he bids us be thankful that he is not sending American troops.

That, to him, is proof positive that there is no comparison between El Salvador and Vietnam.

While insisting there are no parallels, administration spokesmen continually invite them, by talking about "dominos." Never mind that one of the countries said to be slated for domino-doom, Mexico, is in the forefront of Salvadoran neighbors calling for negotiations.

You would think that if the example of Weston and 12 other Vermont towns whose citizens advised the central government to be done with it in El Salvador could not stiffen Congress, a study of the statistics might.

Thirty thousand non-combatants have been killed in El Salvador since the onset of the civil war, which Reagan sees as a Communist aggression fueled by Moscow and Havana.

Of these murders, none has been solved. Not a single member of the security forces or the "death squads" has ever been convicted.

Most recently, in the case of the four American churchwomen who were killed in December, 1980, an appeals court ruled that there is "insufficient evidence" to bring to trial five Salvadoran national guardsmen who were indicted more than a year ago.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

dence" for justice to be done. Salvadoran law is a rickety structure, and, with the ex-bounding of the danger of provoking the government, no judge is willing to pass judgment on a member of the security forces.

This has not prevented the Reagan administration from continuing to certify El Salvador's "progress" in human rights. Fewer murders are cited, without regard to the fact that there simply are fewer people to be murdered each year.

But Congress has a problem that small towns in Vermont do not have. It has a fear of being asked, "Who lost El Salvador?" Those who do not believe that the Soviets are coming, who blanch at subsidizing slaughter, are nervous about political reprisal.

Reagan obviously will fight to the last peasant. If Congress balks on aid, he will accuse them of expediting a Marxist takeover—which might be averted if he would agree to negotiations now.

Rep. Michael D. Barnes (D-Md.), chairman of the Hemispheric Affairs subcommittee, told the Council on Foreign Relations Sunday night that if the president wants $60 million he should come to Congress and ask for it in the regular fashion, instead of the back-door approach—reminiscent of Vietnam—a "reprogramming" from other funds. Barnes' subcommittee must act on the "supplemental" request for the other $50 million.

One member of the House Appropriations subcommittee that must pass on the reprogramming said he will vote "no" unless he gets definite assurances that a political solution will be sought. Rep. Matthew F. McHugh (D-N.Y.) said, "Without a clear promise of negotiations and some specific steps as to how they could be arranged, I will vote against any military aid."

McHugh pointed out that further military aid simply strengthens the extremists in the military and muzzles moderates in the government who might be able to come to terms with the moderates in the political leadership of the guerrillas.

But most of the common sense about El Salvador seems to lie beyond the Beltway.

HUMAN RIGHTS

Senator LEAHY. As you know, the Ambassador from El Salvador went to Vermont to discuss this issue with the people of Vermont.

Mr. Secretary, I would like to follow up a little bit on what Senator Johnston and Senator D'Amato have been saying. But I concur with you that sometimes lawyers can move slowly. I point out, however, that you have four or five former prosecutors on this panel alone. I cannot imagine one of us who would have ever let an open and shut case like the one developed in the nuns' case sit around for 2 years.

But in your statement as to the important elements in El Salvador, you described the protection of human rights as necessary to insure the success of the overall strategy, and I certainly agree with you on that. When we talk about human rights we are not talking about some kind of an abstract notion of people being nice to one another; we are talking about in this case the regime's ability to get the support of its own people and their trust.

You state, and again I agree, that democracy cannot flourish in the presence of extreme inequalities and absence of access to land, opportunities, and justice. You are optimistic in your statement, saying progress has been steady and democracy and reconciliation have made major advances this year.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

I cannot state share that optimism, Mr. Secretary. I do not think there is any real law and order in El Salvador. I think if we try to give a different implication, we do injustice both to our policy and to this committee, and we are going to have to see the reality as it is.

We talked about the case of the four murdered Catholic nuns, but they are only four out of thousands and thousands of people that have been murdered in El Salvador. Let me talk about some of the recent reports that say to me that officials in that country are afraid, are actually afraid to bring the guilty to justice.

When you were before this committee in February, we had just gotten reports of a massacre of 18 Indian peasants, and this report was confirmed by Mr. Alemán, a member of the Human Rights Commission. Now, it is encouraging, I think, that the Human Rights Commission looked into that massacre, but I see the news article in this case states:

"Mr. Alemán realizes it will be difficult to punish any soldiers responsible for the murder of the 18 peasants. 'Even I am afraid to be investigating this, even though I have the authority of the Ministry of Defense.'"

Military units which have been mentioned as responsible for the murder of 17 men and 1 child were apparently stationed at an army base where 10 American advisers are training soldiers.

The head of a local Indian organization said the members of his cooperative were killed because a local landowner whose request to build a road across their property had been denied and friends of the army probably identified the farmers as subversives.

We saw in the papers the tragic case of a 21-month-old baby, an American citizen, whose parents were killed in front of his eyes, and then the soldiers debating over whether to kill the child, too. Our American consul in San Salvador said he had used his informal contacts, his informal contacts in the national guard, to locate the baby. He did not go formally because, "We did not want to jeopardize the life of this child."

Now, I see local human rights officials afraid to investigate. Our troops are training people who apparently are engaging in massacres. You know, I could go on and on. A friend of mine, a former bishop of the Episcopal Church in Vermont, wrote me about a case of decapitation by a contingent of the armed forces in LePlura, seven peasants killed in a church, and on and on.

I do not see—and I know the difficulty that you have when you are faced with the certification process that the Congress requires. I sure as heck do not see any improvement in civil rights.

Let us talk about one other area, the military situation, so we can see what is going on. Here is a state that is smaller than Vermont. It is even smaller than New Hampshire, for that matter, the country down there.

Senator RUDMAN. Vermont is smaller than New Hampshire.

Senator LEAHY. New Hampshire is 100 square miles smaller than Vermont.

Secretary SHULTZ. Be careful. My wife is from New Hampshire.

Senator LEAHY. Both states are bigger than Massachusetts, Mr. Secretary, so let us look at it that way.

But let me take a look at this map.

[The map follows:]

U.S. TRAINING OF MILITARY

Senator LEAHY. Let me bring this over here. This might give you a better idea of what we are talking about. We have been training, we have been training these people down there for 20 years now, the Salvadoran military.

Here is San Salvador and here is where some of the biggest fighting is going on. This one out by the volcano, 30 miles away. Up here, 45 miles, and so on. I mean, these are short, short distances. We have got a 9-to-5 army down there, trained by the United States, heavily supplied by us.

Close to $1 billion has gone to that country in the last 4 years, not all for military, but certainly to try to prop up this regime. We have been training them for 20 to 30 years, and we cannot even get them to go down the road 30 miles to get rid of a guerrilla base, or 45 miles or any of these other distances.

Is anything really going to improve? We have got a total armed forces of 25,000. How many people are actually fighting out of the 25,000? How many are out in the field?

Secretary SHULTZ. No doubt the performance of this armed force, most armed forces, can be criticized. They are engaged in a program of defending static positions. They are trying to defend the infrastructure which has been targeted by the guerrillas. They have fought to the point where they have sustained casualties that are heavy by standards of warfare.

So they are not cowardly. They can fight, have fought, and will fight. But if you say, is the picture really great and ideal, I would have to say no. But I think the evidence is, as I understand it, that those battalions that have received U.S. training have done significantly better, both in terms of military performance and in terms of the so-called civic action elements of their duties.

SIZE OF TOTAL ARMED FORCES

Senator LEAHY. How big is the total armed forces?

Secretary SHULTZ. 31,000, I am informed.

Senator LEAHY. How many are actually out fighting of the 31,000? How many actually go out in the field?

Secretary SHULTZ. You mean how many are——

Senator LEAHY. How many do the guerrillas really have to fear that they might be up against, might come after them?

Secretary SHULTZ. Well, presumably they are all able to, but in any army some people are in the rear.

I do not know. Do you know what the field unit component that is?

Senator LEAHY. One gets the impression that they have probably got the most effective rear guard in this army of any.

But seriously, how many actually go out? My report is around 5,000, Mr. Secretary. Does that square?

Secretary SHULTZ. Pardon?

Senator LEAHY. My report is about 5,000 actually go out. Does that square with yours?

Secretary SHULTZ. I am not informed enough about the actual military operation to feel confident in giving you a number. I know that the battalions that have true mobility are limited to two, that

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

is, able to really get around with proper means of moving themselves.

Senator LEAHY. Do you think if we give the $25 million or $24 million, which is one of the compromise proposals to the full $60 million, that it is going to really make a significant difference either in the effectiveness of the fighting force or in the human rights situation in El Salvador?

Secretary SHULTZ. Well, I think if you reduce the President's request from $60 million to $24 million one of the things you will do is practically eliminate the prospect of out-of-country training. No doubt the funds would have to be concentrated on the things most immediately useful in meeting immediate military needs.

Senator LEAHY. Let me follow up on that. We have heard some rather apocalyptic statements by Secretary Weinberger and Mr. Fred Ikle about how El Salvador is connected to NATO's security. I had to get my maps out to fully understand this, but evidently, according to him, if we do not win in El Salvador, we are going to have to withdraw troops from Europe and even from the Far East.

Are we really in that kind of situation, Mr. Secretary?

Secretary SHULTZ. No, sir, we are not.

THE PEACE COMMISSION

Senator LEAHY. Thank you.

One more question, if I still have time. A great deal has been made of the Peace Commission in El Salvador. It was announced about 1 year ago. How many members have they now on the commission?

Secretary SHULTZ. I think there are three.

Senator LEAHY. It took 1 year to get that three. Will they be able to propose legislative changes?

Secretary SHULTZ. Yes, sir, I think they have proposed legislative changes. As a matter of fact, there is an amnesty proposal on the table now. It is to President Magana. It is not on the table in the legislature.

Senator LEAHY. If one of the political parties does not agree to one of the Peace Commission's recommendations, what happens then?

Secretary SHULTZ. Well, they have to consider it in their political process, and I think that they are very much on the spot. I do not think that any party would have veto power.

Senator LEAHY. I see my time has expired. I will wait until the next go-round, Mr. Chairman.

Senator KASTEN. Thank you.

Mr. Secretary, let me say before we go to the next question that it is now 10:55. I understand that you have a meeting with the members of the House Appropriations Committee. It would be our hope that we could continue and go through 10 minutes each, and we will try to do everything we can to make it possible for you to leave here at 11:45.

I would also like to say that you have been sitting here under the hot lights now since 9 o'clock, almost 2 hours straight. We would be more than happy to suggest a 3-minute break to give you a chance to stretch your legs if you would like, or we can go. Whatever you would prefer.

Secretary SHULTZ. I am doing all right. I do not mind the lights as much as, as I learned from Senator Leahy, that I am confronting five prosecuting attorneys. [Laughter.]

Senator KASTEN. Maybe we need more than 5 minutes.

Senator LEAHY. That is really five, Mr. Chairman.

Senator KASTEN. Senator Rudman?

HUMAN RIGHTS IN EL SALVADOR

Senator RUDMAN. Mr. Secretary, let me switch the area of questioning, if I may, for a moment. I think any fair person listening to both sides of this argument would have to say that, you know, you come up here, and you fence with these issues of human rights. But I think we could probably make a finding here that human rights are probably pretty miserable right now in El Salvador, probably improving but still probably pretty miserable.

Secretary SHULTZ. I agree with that.

Senator RUDMAN. You would agree with that, and I am sure you do. I can tell that from your testimony. You have not ever said anything to the contrary.

But what is the alternative for the people of El Salvador today? Let us assume that because of this situation we say that we have really had it there with military assistance, the shield that Senator Jackson spoke of. We are just going to remove that shield, and that is that.

What is the alternative, Mr. Secretary?

Secretary SHULTZ. I think we can see the nature of the alternative. I mean, you look at the Soviet system, or look at Poland, or look at Nicaragua, for that matter, Cuba. It is not a very pretty picture for them, and not for us either.

Senator RUDMAN. I mean, the fact is we do not really have much choice except to some extent to continue to put up this shield, because the alternative for the people, in terms of human rights, is probably worse than it is today.

Secretary SHULTZ. That is right. But I think that we have to keep pounding away on the human rights issue.

REGIONAL COOPERATION

Senator RUDMAN. I do not disagree with that. But you know, we carry on this human rights debate, and I share the concerns as deeply as anyone on this committee, but I just do not know what the alternatives are, and that is what we are facing, the alternatives.

I want to just direct my question to page 8 of your testimony, which I think has not been discussed at all, and that might be the most important thing you said today. I just want to go to the paragraph on page 8 that says.

"Discussion now centers on the possibility of a meeting of foreign ministers of the five Central American countries, along with the other five regional countries as observers."

To the extent that you can, Mr. Secretary, we would be interested in hearing what the word "discussions" means and at what level

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

they are taking place, and then what timetable you are establishing generally, without setting deadlines. Essentially, what is going on that the public might like to know?

Secretary SHULTZ. Well, first of all, we are not directly involved, so we are not setting timetables or trying to manage it. This is an initiative that has emerged in the area, and we support an effort to bring about peace in the area, thinking about it on a regional basis.

It aspires to include Nicaragua. It remains to be seen whether Nicaragua will come and talk about reasonable things, such as ceasing fomenting guerrilla activity in other countries and shipping arms to other countries. But we hope that they will. They have been invited.

I think it is significant that the Central American countries involved expect to be observed, so to speak, by surrounding countries that have a democratic tradition, and so I think that is all to good and suggests the spirit of this effort.

As to content, I would expect the San Jose principles that I referred to in my testimony to be an important part of the content, but that basically the appeal to everybody is a greater measure of peace than now obtains in the region. What I sought to point out was that the President has supported negotiations for peace, negotiations among countries to bring that about, and also negotiations to insure insofar as possible a true democratic process in selecting government.

Senator RUDMAN. Mr. Secretary, I have read your testimony and your letter to the chairman of the full committee, as well as the statement from the Senator from Hawaii, and it appears to me that what he is talking about and what you are talking about are not really that different.

I think the difference is that many of us would feel more confident about what we are doing here if the role of the administration in arranging these activities to take place by the parties in the area were somehow more active than we perceive it to be.

Secretary SHULTZ. Well, we have been very active. At the same time, I think there is a sense of a Latin and Central American initiative, and if they can bring that off we are in favor of it. We are seeking to help it in every way that we can, but you cannot manage other people all the time, or you should not be doing it too much of the time. So there is a limit to what the United States can do. But we are very active there on all of these matters that we have been discussing, including giving encouragement to trying to bring about a regional peaceful solution.

FUTURE ASSISTANCE TO EL SALVADOR

Senator RUDMAN. My final question, Mr. Secretary. Just looking at the past history around the world and the models that we have for this activity now going on in El Salvador, is it reasonable to assume that over the long term it is going to be probably a very long time before we will be able to withdraw military and economic support from that government, and as a practical matter, the guerrilla movement in that country will probably not come to the table for a very long time?

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

Secretary SHULTZ. Well, that very well may be. If we are able to provide a reasonable and sustained amount of aid of the types that are being discussed and that works sufficiently, both in the sense of exhibiting a military incapacity of the guerrillas to win and a democratic economic prospect, it is conceivable that people will come into the electoral process, at least many of them. It would be conceivable, then, that there would be an election before the end of the year, and I do not rule out the possibility that we might just get somewhere.

I think that the provision of economic aid is foreshadowed, certainly, by the conditions. You say, is it inevitable that we will go on and on forever with this? I say, no, it is not inevitable. I think there is this other prospect. Our strategy is trying to bring it about, but I do not say it will come about. There are all sorts of reasons why.

Senator Hatfield was asking about conditions under which people come into an electoral process. I do not know quite how as a matter of fact somebody stands for an election and goes around New Hampshire saying. "Look what I did for you, I blew up 55 bridges, I wrecked all the power stations, I caused your electrical shortages and made it impossible for you to have work and jobs, so elect me."

I do not think it is a very good platform, and I do not think they deserve a vote.

DEMOCRACY IN EL SALVADOR

Senator RUDMAN. Well, Mr. Secretary, it seems to me that at some point, hopefully in the not too distant future, you are going to have to come again before this committee and answer our questions regarding the democratic structure of the government of El Salvador differently than you have honestly and candidly answered them this morning. But simply saying, the facts now indicate that that structure in that country is now very much worth supporting. Because if you cannot get to that point the question arises whether it is worth supporting at all.

Secretary SHULTZ. Well, I think that there is a democratic structure there, and it seems to me that even we must be a little humble in the light of an 80-percent turnout, despite armed efforts to prevent it. When have we had that kind of a turnout in the United States of eligible voters?

So it is not all bad, and in many respects that was inspiring. I know many of the members of Congress went and observed and came back, and we were very impressed with what took place.

So this land reform program is a big thing. Imagine, 20 percent of the land redistributed. That is a huge undertaking. So it is not as though nothing is going on there.

Senator RUDMAN. Thank you.

Senator KASTEN. Senator DeConcini?

SOURCE OF GUERRILLA MATERIAL

Senator DECONCINI. Mr. Chairman, thank you.

Mr. Secretary, I find your testimony very candid and open, and certainly your response to Senators Leahy and Rudman and others who have spent some time here on the human rights issue to be

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights
Special Project (1993)

most forwa[illegible] and I thank you for that. [illegible] you know, I want to ask a question, and I think you pretty well intimate that the source of the materiel and advisors for the guerrillas come from Cuba and Nicaragua. Is that what our intelligence tells us, and is that factual in your understanding?

Secretary SHULTZ. Yes, sir.

Senator DECONCINI. Are you at liberty to discuss with us here today whether or not there are any efforts on behalf of our Government to attempt to slow down or curtail that flow of materiel and advisors that are constantly pouring into the rebels' hands?

Secretary SHULTZ. Well, as I understand it, those matters are discussed regularly with various intelligence committees, and I think I will let it go at that.

Senator DECONCINI. OK. Well, in that case, may I ask you this question? If that is the source of the problem, do we not really have to address that source if we are looking for some kind of a lasting curtailment of this, what appears to me to be an advancing guerrilla success on the ground, at least, and disruption of that present regime and government that is there?

Secretary SHULTZ. Well, if we can deny the supply of arms and other materiel, command and control materiel in particular, of course, that is a great advantage to us. And there are various ways, of course, in which that might be done, and one of them is that if you can find out where it is coming to in El Salvador, maybe you can find out something about it.

GLOBAL MAGNITUDE OF SOVIET INTERFERENCE

Senator DECONCINI. Well, I would only suggest that if we are looking for a long-range solution here, and I share the frustration the Senator from New Hampshire has, I may very well support the administration's request, because I do not know of any other alternative, but I share the frustrations here that this is going to continue to go on and on as long as that source can act with no curtailment and impunity to supply this type of material as well as the propaganda, and the consultants and personnel that are there.

I think, in this Senator's judgment, that unless we address this big problem in the Caribbean and in Central America, and unless we do it openly, in our process, and unless the administration will indeed make an effort to declassify some of the information that a few of us have had and those on the Intelligence Committee have had greater access to, I do not think we are going to find a solution there, and that we will indeed, whatever the amount of dollars we authorize and appropriate here, they will be sopped up in the sponge of the problems there, and you will be here next year once again asking for more, with the same proposal, just a let us do it again, gentlemen and ladies, and we will find a solution.

I just hope that the administration and your leadership might come to the conclusion that I have come to over the last couple of years, that we have got to address the source of this problem or it is not going to go away, I do not care how much money we pour in there, and I wonder what your reaction to that possibility of the administration addressing the source rather than what I consider more of a bandaid approach.

Secretary SHULTZ. I [illegible]e with the inference made [illegible]he direct statement of your comment that the problem is far broader than a Central American problem. It is a problem of our contest with the Soviet system, with Soviet military power, and with the exertion of that power. It is connected with the fact that there are Cuban troops in Angola. It is connected with the fact that the Soviets are in Afghanistan. It is connected with the conditions that we see in Poland. It is connected with what has happened in Vietnam, or what Vietnam has done to what we used to call Cambodia. Now everybody calls it Kampuchea.

It is connected with the fact that there does seem to be very little regard in the Soviet Union for the Helsinki Accords as we talk about human rights problems. It is connected, in other words, with a very broad development of Soviet power that is causing us to spend large amounts of money on our defense, which I support completely. You must do it. All of these things are of a piece. To a degree, I think people around the world watch, and they say, the United States cannot maintain freedom and democracy in its own neighborhood and maintain the willpower to do it. How can it aspire to defend its own interests and help allies defend theirs in a global sense?

I think your point is well taken.

U.S. RESPONSE

Senator DECONCINI. But what are we going to do about it except increase our defense expenditures by 10 percent? We have no policy except another $60 million of reprograming for El Salvador. It seems to me we do not have a Caribbean policy other than some additional foreign assistance of going to the source of this problem, and I think we know where it is. You mentioned Cuba, of course. You did not mention Nicaragua, but I presume that is part of the plan, too.

We do not have a policy. Now, maybe it is an assessment by the administration, and you would like to comment that the American people would not tolerate a strong, forceful position by this country to bring about the elimination of that kind of infiltration and direct military advisors' availability to rebel sources, but I would like to know what your opinions are.

Are we prepared to do that? Is it under consideration? Or do you think that we should take a stronger position outside the sphere of only El Salvador and the aid we are discussing this morning?

Secretary SHULTZ. Well, I have the impression that it is difficult enough to get this committee to go along with 55 trainers, let alone one military advisor, let alone a commitment of American troops. So I do not sense any great political mood for us to commit armed U.S. forces there, but I do think it is essential to make this broad connection that your question brought out, and I think it brings out the importance of looking to our defenses. It brings out the importance of being realistic about what is going on in the world. It brings out the importance as we agonize over the human rights record in this country that we are trying to help that we look at the inconceivable bestiality of what has happened in Cambodia, and we consider these things as part of a piece.

RELEASED
El Salvador: Human Rights

Senator DECONCINI. Well, Mr. Secretary, I think the point I want to get across is the fact that the administration may assess that it is hard to get 55 military advisors approved, or trainers. Certainly, it would be difficult to get ground troops or more forceful decisions or a blockade of Cuba or something, but is that not the leadership responsibility, to bring out the facts to the public of just how severe this is, where this aid is coming from, and to declassify some of the information the administration has available so we can indeed have a public discussion of the severity of this cancer that is growing there?

I am not chastising you for it. I am only suggesting that there are going to be more problems with getting 55 trainers there as no real progress seems to come forward. Indeed, the what I consider oversensitiveness by the administration, and it was the past administration the same way, of the dissemination of materiel and advisors and propaganda from the sources there continues, and I see a hopeless case, and though I may continue to support you, sooner or later this Senator is going to fall off the wagon, too, I am afraid, as other staunch supporters, particularly the Senator from Hawaii, who has been one of the most responsible of all Senators in my judgment of assessing this, regardless of political effects, and many other members here, too.

When you see the drift, it is because it seems to me we do not have the leadership to tell the public and to expose this material. I just want to leave that with you as one concerned Senator, that we are not getting to the problem, discussing $60 million.

Secretary SHULTZ. Well, I agree with you, and I would say that the President has been using his utmost efforts to draw forcefully to the attention of the American people and to the attention of the Congress the severe military situation that obtains, and Secretary Weinberger has been doing likewise, and all have, and I think there has been basically a very good congressional response, although right now there seems to be a lot of debate about the maintenance of a proper defense effort.

I think we should be bringing the facts out, and doing it as forcefully and frequently and vividly, and of course always trying to and being sure that we stick with the facts, but bring those out to the American people so that everybody sees what is going on. I agree completely.

Senator DECONCINI. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

U.S. STRATEGY IN CENTRAL AMERICA

Secretary SHULTZ. I do think that I would differ with you in your comment that we do not have any strategy. We do have a strategy. A strategy with respect to Central America has strands that I tried to bring out in my testimony, and with respect to the Caribbean, there is a definite initiative that the President has taken. The financial side of that was passed by the Congress. The trade and tax incentive sides have not been addressed by the Congress, but I think it very important to carry the strategy through.

Senator DECONCINI. Is that going to get to the source of the problem of the supplies and the material there, the Caribbean proposal? I submit that it would not.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Senator KASTEN. Senator Specter?

Senator SPECTER. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

POSSIBLE AREAS OF NEGOTIATION

Mr. Secretary, there are a couple of lines I would like to pursue with you this morning. The subject of negotiations is one which is troublesome, and we discussed this at some length when you were nice enough to invite a few of us for breakfast last week, and I note in your statement, and I may be reading more into it than is present, but at least a slight difference of emphasis when you say on page 7, "We will not support negotiations that short circuit the democratic process and carve up power behind the people's back, but that still leaves a fair range of negotiable subjects besides the electoral process itself."

When you had asked Senator Hatfield what lines he might suggest, I would have some specific suggestions for you. Would it be appropriate to discuss the judicial system, which is a very troublesome aspect? Would it not be appropriate to discuss the economic development, a subject that you touch upon in your statement, a very important one on job opportunities? Or discuss the subject of land reform.

This is not in the context of saying that you are going to accept what the insurgents say, but only that there are subjects which can be discussed beyond the electoral system itself, and that it is conceivable that if somebody has a chance to raise an issue with inputs, and even if they do not like the conclusion, that that might be an advance, or at least it would put us in the position of saying we are not foreclosing important areas of discussion, that we will be willing to negotiate on something beyond just the electoral process itself.

Secretary SHULTZ. Well, I suppose if you take something like the judicial system, that has to do with the prospects for safety of a person who accepts an amnesty and comes into the electoral process. So, how is that going to work? That is, I think, a natural subject that people would tend to discuss.

There are other matters, it seems to me, anyway, that are questions that a legitimate government addresses itself to, like land reform as an example, and those who are the legitimate government properly deal with a subject like that, and they are dealing with that, and there is lots of information around about it, but I do not see any particular room for negotiating with guerrillas about a subject like land reform.

But I think you get into a discussion with people about how you provide for safety, access to media, a secure ballot box, observation of results, and so forth, and you have got to talk about a wide range of things. There is no doubt about it.

Senator SPECTER. Mr. Secretary, why rule out something like land reform or economic development? In a sense, the Government in the United States and we Senators negotiate with our constituents all the time, and sometimes the meetings which are held in rooms just like this one look a lot like insurgents, a lot of shouting and a lot of [illegible] necessarily do what they say, but we talk to them, and there is utility in having them express themselves, and we are the government, and we have the responsibility to make the votes and the decisions.

But we talk, and we do not say when you come into a room, we will not talk to you about certain subjects. Just think, it would be so much healthier if the El Salvadoran Government would say, well, we will talk to you. We may not agree with you or do anything, but we will talk to you. Then if it is negotiation, so be it. You are not shooting your way into our government. We are just willing to discuss matters with you.

Secretary SHULTZ. Well, people will talk and probably may talk endlessly. I think there must be a purpose to the talk. The purpose is to so construct an environment that is conducive to deciding what the legitimate government is. There is a legitimate government there now, and there is going to be an elected head of that government, and so what is the right process? That is, the object.

So, if I am sitting with you in a hearing like this to discuss a particular subject, and nobody will discuss it, they all want to discuss something else, we are not going to get anywhere with what it is we are trying to establish, and we have the prospect of an election coming up, not too far away. So I think you have to give some credence to the discussion if it is going to be purposeful.

PROCEDURAL DELAYS IN JUDICIAL SYSTEM

Senator SPECTER. Mr. Secretary, when you were reading over that list of procedural snarls in the case of the four nuns, that outdoes anything but the most hypertechnical defense lawyers do in the United States of America, which up to that case was far in the lead, and in the recent remand by the appellate court in El Salvador of that case, they have gone far afield.

I have reviewed the evidence to the extent that the State Department has it to make available, and there are ballistic tests, there are fingerprints, palm prints, and confessions, and I have seen a lot of murder cases, and there is plenty of evidence to go forward with a murder case, plenty of evidence to go forward with a theft case, and the procedural safeguards allegedly that the Salvadoran Government is imposing are really absurdities. It would make the Warren court look like a lynch mob in terms of where they are heading.

There is just no rationality behind it. The Justice Department issued a statement on the decision and said, we do not ask the Government of El Salvador to violate its judicial process. We do expect justice. But there may come a point where you do condition aid on a timely trial. Certainly, in this country, as we prosecuting attorneys can tell you, if you do not try a case within the 90 days under the Speedy Trial Act or State procedure, the case is turned out of court, and that there are penalties imposed for not bringing a case to trial.

Secretary SHULTZ. You cannot defend what has happened under the judicial system of El Salvador. I will not do it. I do not do it. I do not think it is defensible. I think, in the case of the nuns, in that case, as I describe it to you, those charged, the charges have not been removed, and they are still apprehended, but I do not—and I might say it is hard for me to defend lawyers, although as they say, some of my best friends are lawyers.

Look at the things we do in this country. My God. The IBM case dragged on and on and on. I do not know how many millions of dollars were spent before they dismissed it. It was a lawyers' paradise. It was a disgrace.

Senator SPECTER. It was also improperly dismissed. It was dismissed on the same afternoon that the AT&T case was dismissed, coincidentally, on a Friday afternoon. The case was dismissed over the objection of the judge. The lawyers' fault there may have been with the Justice Department.

Secretary SHULTZ. The lawyers were just playing games with each other.

Senator SPECTER. So do, perhaps, Secretaries and Senators.

Secretary SHULTZ. Could be.

Senator SPECTER. But back to the subject, I was not asking you to defend the El Salvadoran justice system. I understand you will not, and I am pleased that you do not. I was asking you the question as a remedy. What is wrong with saying, if you do not bring a case to trial within X days, or if you do not bring the case of the nuns to trial by June 1, we are going to cut off aid?

Secretary SHULTZ. Well, I think it imposes a deadline in an unwarranted way on something like that. Of course, we are very concerned about that case, and naturally so, because Americans were involved, but I think there is something in a way not too good about being so mainly concerned about the cases that involve our citizens and seemingly therefore not to be worried about the many more Salvadorans involved. I would like to work with the situation.

As I said to you, I have told them, and I believe it is true, in spite of my sharing completely Senator Rudman's view that in the end, if they do not clean up this act, the support is going to dry up. They have been told that. They know that, and it will happen.

Senator SPECTER. Mr. Secretary, is the United States, the CIA, or otherwise giving any aid to the exiles fighting in Nicaragua?

Secretary SHULTZ. Well, this is a subject, to the extent it is discussed, as I understand it, it is discussed with the Intelligence Committees, and I do not want to comment on it.

Senator SPECTER. Mr. Secretary, my time is up. I would just like to say in conclusion that my instinct is to support the administration here because really of the quality of your testimony and the candor that you come forward with, and I think there is a significant positioning that you have made where you make the statement that the American people may not be willing to support aid for El Salvador indefinitely, and I think you have seen the process, and it is a useful thing.

It seems curious to me in a sense that this confrontation exists over $110 million in reprograming, whether it is going to go to El Salvador or whether, as I understand it, it is going to go to Morocco, which is where it is coming from, and I do agree with you that we are involved with one interwoven process, and my own sense is that there are a great many more troublesome issues on arms reduction, or the issue of Ambassador Adelman, or the defense budget, where these similar lines of confrontation are drawn.

But you have taken over a very difficult job, and I think you have made progress and improvements, and I very much applaud your January 21 report where you made the certification, because you all but said that there was no progress being made. It was very tentative, but you came to a different judgment on the facts, and we discussed this when you were here 2 weeks ago, and I think that kind of candor is for me one confidence in what you are doing.

But Senator DeConcini said there comes a time when all of us will fall off the wagon. Senator Inouye did this month, and it will be a few more months for some of the rest of us. Senator Rudman and I are just debating how long it will be for him.

Thank you very much, Mr. Secretary.

MOROCCO

Secretary SHULTZ. May I make one more comment, Mr. Chairman? In the case of Morocco, we consider that those funds are needed and necessary and important, that in this immediate situation if we reprogram we will be asking you in the supplemental, so to speak, to replace those funds. So I do not want any inference that our concern and support for Morocco has changed.

Senator KASTEN. I would next like to call on Senator Stennis. I would like to say to the Senator from Mississippi that we are very pleased to have you join us today. I also want to say to you that as the ranking member of the full committee I was not sure where in the process you ought to speak. It is not my habit to have the distinguished Senator from Mississippi to speak or participate in a hearing last. But I was told this is correct that as you are an ex officio member—you know, Senator Hatfield is a member of this subcommittee.

But we are very, very pleased to have the Senator from Mississippi with us, and I would like now to call on the Senator from Mississippi, Senator Stennis.

Senator STENNIS. Mr. Chairman, you have done an excellent job. You put me right in the place where I belong, right at the tail end.

Senator KASTEN. Well, that is not true.

Senator STENNIS. Mr. Secretary, I want to commend you highly, and we barely know each other personally. We have not had a chance to know each other well. I commend you very highly for your testimony here. It is frank, open, clear, right to the point, and very illuminating.

This is the reason I am emphasizing that. I look around here, and I see I am the only survivor of the beginning of the war in Vietnam. I think that people are associating this problem to a great extent, a great extent, with that problem as it turned out to be. Even though there are some similarities, the differences are tremendous, and you have made that very clear, I think, coming from this open testimony here. Your very positive way is going to go a long, long way to clearing this up on the facts; not the problem altogether, of course.

REVIEW OF MONEY AMOUNTS

Now, what about the money? You got only $23 million last year when you asked for $60 million and had been getting $60 million? Is that right, $60 million? I dwell on that very briefly.

Secretary SHULTZ. Yes, sir, this year we are operating under the continuing resolution which allowed $25 million.

Senator STENNIS. What are you asking for now?

Secretary SHULTZ. We are asking for a reprograming so that we have another $60 million available in fiscal 1983.

Senator STENNIS. For the total 12 months?

Secretary SHULTZ. I think that is added to what is in the second continuing resolution.

BASIC THOUGHTS

Senator STENNIS. Well, I do not know how to add that up, but I made up my mind here this morning that up to what you have been getting, $60 million, that I would support that amount. I had been quite doubtful about whether I would.

You have made very clear here, I think, the real problem. You cannot cure all the details. $60 million is not going to be a cure. It is just interim. But it has got to be contended with, it has got to be carried on. I understand the arms are being smuggled in there even by France. That is according to press reports. But anyway, they are getting in there from some source.

That will go further than anything else, almost, in stopping it or being the start of stopping it, a beginning. We are going to have these cases, people are going to get killed and we regret it.

I believe that if you could put an embargo or a blockade, a blockade at least of some kind there to start off and stop that arms flow, I believe that would be the best step that you could take.

I want to emphasize the great difference between this situation and Vietnam. For 10 years I heard the testimony about the war in Vietnam, and there is such a tremendous difference here in this case in location, the people, the proximity to us, and the supplies that I have just mentioned, and the long-range plan that you have mentioned with reference to other countries of communistic type and trend using, wherever they can, Salvador or wherever they can, to plant their seed, develop their ideas. That is the problem of the future, and we have got to live with it.

Well, I thank you very much, Mr. Chairman. I came here with the information that you were going to testify in open session and you were really going to tell the facts, and that is what you have done. I have been highly rewarded.

Thank you again, very much.

Secretary SHULTZ. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Senator KASTEN. Thank you, Senator Stennis.

What we will now do is switch to a 3-minute time period. Hopefully we can get through at least one round, possibly more, to work within the requirements of the Secretary's time.

Senator Inouye.

Senator INOUYE. Mr. Secretary, in a curious twist of history, the sassinat[redacted] of El Salvador's most elo[redacted]nt spokesman for peace, Archbishop Romero.

El Salvador is a small country, as pointed out by my colleague from New Hampshire, and I doubt if more than 70 percent, or for that matter, 30 percent of Americans know where it is. Yet, I am certain you will agree with me, the prestige and the majesty of the Government of the United States are at stake.

Whether true or not, the widely accepted perception, especially in the capitals of the world, is that El Salvador is an American client, if not a puppet. It is perceived that the United States is the patron and that the United States is the supporter. In fact, none of our allies is providing any support for our policy.

Moreover, I believe the evidence indicates that some of our democratic allies are providing assistance to the other side. We condemn corruption, as you have pronounced your condemnation here. We have condemned political repression. We have condemned political assassinations. We have condemned political violence, and we have condemned denial of human rights.

But the evidence suggests to us that these abominations still persist. Because they continue to persist, this violence, this repression, this denial of human rights, I believe that many people perceive the United States as at the least tolerating, if not approving, these activities.

Mr. Secretary, instead of acting as El Salvador's major apologist, why do we not lower the boom? We have already put in over $1 billion into El Salvador, and, as a former President used to say, there is a light on the other side of the tunnel. In this case I do not even see the light.

We speak of Cuba, Mr. Secretary, and I am convinced that history should have taught us that we played a part, maybe not a major part but a part, in the creation and the establishment of Fidel Castro. We were well aware of the utter corruption of Fulgencio Batista. We knew of his repression, we knew of his violence. But because he said he was against communism we supported him throughout.

The same thing happened with Anastasio Somoza's Nicaragua. I am afraid that by persisting in carrying out this policy we may be creating another Castro there. I think we are inviting revolutions. I think the time has come for us to support those who are being repressed, those who are victims of violence, those who are being slaughtered.

I think we are on the wrong path in El Salvador. The least we should do is to refuse to become apologists for these people and not only condemn them but to say to them: "If you want American dollars, as some of my colleagues here have suggested, this is what you are going to have to do."

That is all I have to say, sir.

Senator KASTEN. Mr. Secretary, would you like to reply?

Secretary SHULTZ. Yes, sir, I would.

Senator, I do not consider myself an apologist for anybody, not El Salvador, not the United States, not anybody. I try as best I can to state the facts as I see them, whether I am describing problems that my own country has or problems somebody else has.

RELEASED

I fully recognize the [redacted]ver of your comments and t[redacted]difficulties we all have with some of the behavior that is documented. We can argue about numbers and so forth, but that argument is not to the point. The point is that there are a great many things that we would classify as atrocities.

Now, at the same time I have a quite different judgment than you express. I think we are trying to support as best we can those who seek better human rights, those who seek a better economic performance, those who seek a democratic process. If we pull the rug out from under those people by ceasing our support, all we do is tend to support those whose track record around the world is just awful. I do not mean just in terms or particularly in terms of economic achievements, but the way in which people are treated in the countries represented in the Soviet sphere is not tolerable by us.

So I do not want to see countries anywhere, let alone countries in our neighborhood, turned over to that influence. So I share your concern about the practices you describe. I see on the scales other practices that I regard as more positive, and looking at it on balance, it is my judgment that we simply must, in our interest and in the interest of the human values we support, continue to continue our aid.

In doing that I do not put myself in the position of an apologist, trying to give lame excuses for some of these abuses. I do not believe I have done that, or tried to describe the situation other than it is, as I see it.

Senator KASTEN. I will not ask 3 minutes of questions, but will call on Senator D'Amato at this time. Senator D'Amato?

Senator D'AMATO. Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. Secretary, first of all let me indicate for the record that I find your testimony to be candid and forthright, and I am certainly convinced of your deep sincerity in dealing with this problem, a very complex problem, a commitment that you sincerely believe, that we have no other alternative than to continue our aid and to encourage a democratic process or a building of a democratic process in El Salvador.

I agree with Senator DeConcini that we have to build up public confidence, that that is important, that some of the information, for example, in terms of the kind of aid and assistance and the flow of weapons and where it comes from, that may be classified, that we should find a way in which to make this information available to the American public, so that our position, your position, you see, is one they can accept—it will gain more acceptance by the American public.

I also believe that we have certain alternatives, without saying that we are simply going to let the Communists or the rebels be successful, as we attempt to aid, I think, the government there. That is to indicate to them that we will not tolerate the present government, we will not tolerate the kinds of things that have taken place, and that they will face the loss of support traditionally that has come from this committee and other areas of the Congress unless they heed us.

We are paying, the American taxpayers, the freight, so to speak. So we have a right to condition our aid on very legitimate objectives. the prosecution of those who would murder and who would plunder. They have to understand that those are going to be more than just words and lip service, and that there will come a time that if this kind of thing continues that the Congress, I believe, will not be willing to continue to give the kind of support that we have in the past.

So this is a very difficult task, understandably, to balance, because once again I do not recognize what the rebels stand for, the guerrillas, as the alternative that we should accept, but in fact, if we are about to see the light at the end of the tunnel, as Senator Inouye has said, where is that light?

I say, do you believe that by the reprograming of this money and the training of additional troops, that that will give us the light that, at least militarily out on the field, that we will be able to stop the guerrillas from the kind of harassment that wrought economic havoc to the region? Do you think that will be the case 3 months from now or 6 months from now?

Secretary SHULTZ. I believe this will help. We also have some money in the supplemental, $50 million, and beyond that, as many members of the committee have brought out, we attach a tremendous amount of importance to the economic dimensions, the political dimensions of this. There is a military-shield dimension, but if we are going to be successful we have to be successful in the other spheres as well. Otherwise, we will not satisfy our own sense, not only of a relative standard of progress, but of an absolute standard of condition that we find agreeable.

Senator D'AMATO. Thank you, Mr. Secretary.

Senator KASTEN. Senator Johnston?

Senator JOHNSTON. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

CONDITIONS ON AID TO EL SALVADOR

Mr. Secretary, it is my tentative intention to vote for, and indeed to propose if no one else has a better formulation, that we make further aid dependent upon success of the Salvadorans in prosecuting, first of all, the case of the four nuns. Second, I would like to get some other formulations that progress on human rights be more specific, considerably more specific than I have seen.

My question to you is, if the Congress did put those kind of conditions on aid to El Salvador, can you give me a suggestion of how much time you think would be proper to allow the Salvadorans to bring those cases to trial?

Secretary SHULTZ. Well, having blown off steam about lawyers, I recognize your superior wisdom on things of this kind and just what these procedural matters amount to, if anything, I am not too sure. I see by my fact sheet that the attorney general of El Salvador has said that the case should be brought to trial between 6 weeks and 3 months from now. So that is one attorney's opinion.

I suspect it is less a matter of procedure and more a matter of willpower, but that is a nonlawyer's view of it.

Senator JOHNSTON. I think that is a very, very good answer, and that is exactly the way I see it. It is a question of willpower, and if

Now, if you have to certify, if we made some kind of fail-safe on that condition that said, unless the Secretary of State certifies that adequate progress is being made, you could not so certify at this time, could you?

Secretary SHULTZ. I am sorry. Could you say the beginning of that?

Senator JOHNSTON. If we made some kind of fail-safe condition that said, all aid shall be suspended after a certain date unless the Secretary certifies that with all deliberate speed and all due enthusiasm the Government of El Salvador is prosecuting the case, you could not make that kind of certification at this time, could you, or would you?

What I am contemplating in my mind is whether we should put a fail-safe on there, and frankly, could we properly trust you to include such a fail-safe—or to interpret such a fail-safe?

Secretary SHULTZ. Well, I think I would have to look at it carefully and satisfy myself about these various explanations which Senator Specter as a prosecuting attorney and you have great skepticism, and I guess Senator Leahy has skepticism as well. I do not pretend to be able to pass a judgment on that at this point.

I will tell you this——

Senator JOHNSTON. I will tell you, as a layman I share that skepticism.

Secretary SHULTZ. I will tell you, as a Government official both now and in my previous tour here, I am a deep believer that it is my job to administer the laws as the Congress has given them to me, even if I do not like them. If I do not like them, I come to you and argue that you should change them.
